Prefatory Notes

From the early morning prayer times until the ending of the altar services in the evening, the presence of the Lord was much in evidence for those who gathered together in the 86th Assembly. The 8:00 a.m. Bible studies drew a large number of people, and those in attendance were richly blessed.

Selected pastors and their companions led the vast congregation in spirited worship again and again. In these devotional periods we sang, we prayed—there was rejoicing in the Spirit as we sensed that we were being made to "sit together in a heavenly place."

Many of the preaching slots customarily filled by General Headquarters Appointees were filled by pastors and other ministers, and these brothers and sisters preached with inspiration and power. More time was allotted to the business sessions than in any previous Assembly in my memory.

Pre-Assembly activities included the M. A. Tomlinson Scholarship Banquet and the Annual Presbytery Meeting to which an entire day was given. A special luncheon for the wives of those serving under General Appointment was hosted by the General Overseer's wife. Several thousand people also gathered at Fields of the Wood for a good program there.

We appreciate the good coverage by the news media, as well as the hospitality of the officials and citizens of Cleveland and Bradley County. Without this hospitality of the local people who open their homes for lodging, there would be no way to accommodate the vast number of out-of-town delegates.

Much hard work and planning went into the preparation for this Assembly, and all who cooperated are to be commended. To God be the glory for all that was accomplished, because it is for His glory that the Assemblies are conducted.

The 87th Assembly will be held September 7-13, God willing, in Louisville, Kentucky.

2:00 Opening of the Assembly by the General Overseer. Remarks: "I was glad when they said unto me let us go into the house of the Lord. We have come together to worship Him. We want so much to see His work prosper—to see His Word fulfilled and it will be. We are here for the opening session of the General Assembly—a very special time. Oh, how we want the Lord to have His way, how we want Jesus to take charge. If He is in charge, it will be done right. He declared to Simon Peter and to the other apostles, '...upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.' He said He would do it. It is not something He has done—something He is doing. He is building His Church today. He knows exactly how to proceed. I want Him to take charge of whatever building He may wish to do in this Assembly. We want to take our hands off. We want Him to have full control. Not one of us is capable of building His Church. He is the Author and Finisher of our faith. We want Him to take charge." (Prayer of relinquishment by all as congregation knelt.)

3:50 Report of International Committee who studied the Office of the General Overseer. (Congregation expressed appreciation to our General Overseer for allowing such a study.)

REPORT OF INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE

For Study of the Office of General Overseer

Terms of Reference:

The Questions and Subjects Committee Report to the 85th Annual Assembly of the Church of God of Prophecy, August 13-19, 1990, Section 4, states:

Study of Office:

"The office of General Overseer is very complex. After consultation with Brother Murray, we, therefore, recommend that the General Overseer appoint an international committee to study the term, tenure, vacancy, procedure of selection, and responsibilities of this office. They would present their findings to the Questions and Subjects Committee for consideration to be presented to the General Assembly."

Purpose of Report:

This preliminary report summarizes the main findings, conclusions and recommendations arising out of the International Committee meeting in response to the aforementioned Terms of Reference. Several of the basic principles contained in the report represent either a variation or a significant departure from our traditionally held view of Church leadership and the office of General Overseer. It is hoped that the report will facilitate positive discussions of the areas of our search which are potentially of great significance to all of us in terms of current practices and perceptions of God's government for His people.

Foreword from the Committee:

"Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth..." (John 16:13).

The history of the Church recorded in the Acts of the Apostles reveals an emerging body of teaching and practice referred to as "...the apostles' doctrine and fellowship..." (Acts 2:42). It should be noted that doctrine [didache] means "teaching" in this instance rather than a "body of doctrine". As the number of believers increased, the need for leadership and government also increased. Initially, the form of government was simple but continued to develop according to the physical and practical needs of the Church and the direction of the Holy Ghost in revealing God's plan. This called for some modification in governmental form throughout most of the New Testament history of the Church (For example, see the progression in Mark 3:13-16; Acts 6:1-5; 11:22, 15:22). Nevertheless, certain underlying principles were fixed from the beginning.

After more than 200 hours of searching the scriptures and fervent prayer, and dialogue with nearly the entire general leadership of the Church, including the General Overseer, this Committee recommends for your consideration a form of Church government which we offer as an approximation to the New Testament model.

It should be noted, however, that this report in no way reflects on the person or integrity of the present General Overseer. It deals rather with the scope of the office itself in view of biblical principles. Moreover, until this report is approved by appropriate action, it alters in no way the present criteria of powers and responsibilities of the General Overseer.

1. A REVIEW OF FORM AND FUNCTION

A. "The New Testament is our rule of faith, practice, government and discipline" is quite a common expression among us. In company with many "biblical" reforming movements, we take the Church of the New Testament as our model, and it is right that we should do so. Yet, even as the Church is seen fully developed in the New Testament, it remained relatively simple in terms of government and structure. This seems to mark a sharp contrast to our present structure, and polity, and our approach to government.

B. This difference is magnified by the complexities and departmentalizing of the Church's organization, which has led to a more or less static structure, and the tendency to direct and control the work of the Church through programs, auxiliaries and departments.

C. It is understandable that as Christians, living in a world which surrounds us with man-made systems and forms of government and organization, we could assimilate (perhaps subconsciously) many of their basic principles into our work for the Lord.

D. The best example in the New Testament (and unique to the New Testament), out of many references to the Church in terms of form and function, is the metaphor, the "body of Christ." "Body" is by far the most common word used to describe the Church in terms of the number of verses in which it is found (more than 30, including 1 Corinthians 12; Ephesians 4, 5; Colossians 1, 2; and Romans 12).

E. Governments and Organizations in the world place more importance on "who you are" by virtue of position than on "what you do." In contrast, the "body of Christ" (by analogy to the human body) is defined in terms of the functions of its members and not their relative positions per se. That is, an eye may be formed and positioned in a certain way in the body, but it is the function (the actual "seeing") that gives the eye its purpose.

F. In the final analysis, the Church of God should be the dynamic, living "body of Christ," with every member functioning according to calling and gifts. (What good are eyes and ears and hands and feet if they don't function?) To be sure, the Church cannot be understood in terms of man-made organizational and structural ideas. Sadly, however, there is much evidence to suggest that the present model of the Church, having been formed somewhat imperfectly by a mixture of culture and tradition with the Scriptures, has become the only readily understood and accepted model of Church for many members, and consequently the New Testament model of the "body of Christ" is poorly understood.

G. The apostle Paul's use of the "body principle" to illustrate the operation and working of the Church of God is instructive in helping us to see the following:

1. The unity and common experience of the body—to avoid individualism and the formation of superior attitudes.

2. The variety of different functions in a body—to correct the overvaluation or undervaluation of any one function.

3. The cooperative and complementary function of a plurality of members in the body—to correct those who covet preeminence.

4. The necessity of membership in the body—to correct independence and those who think they don't need others.

5. The importance of "uncomely" parts that have crucial functions to perform—to correct those who think others don't need them.

6. The incompleteness and inadequacy of the body as something in and of itself (that is,without a proper relationship to its head)—to correct those who tend to glory in the Church rather than in Christ. "Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen." (Ephesians 3:21)

H. The world system of leadership with its emphasis on power and position (human hierarchies) is seen at once to be irrelevant in the context of the body of Christ. Jesus gave us a model example of functional leadership for His Church in Mark 10:35-45, concluding as He did with this thought: "For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many." What good is "ministry" if it is merely a certificate (license), or a position in the Church's organization which is not more than an appointment? Jesus called the ministry of the Church to servanthood and service. It will be noticed also that in both theology and experience (or precept and example) the headship of Jesus was preeminent at every given point in the body.

I. In the light of the above review, and the terms of reference for the Committee, which calls for a "study of the office of General Overseer," it was strongly felt that such a study should be performed by a thorough examination of the biblical principles of leadership and governmental form as exemplified and illustrated in the New Testament.

J. It was clear from the outset of the study that leadership in the New Testament was a function and not a position per se, and that serious problems result when we think in categories such as "Here is a position, how and who do we get to fill it?"; in contrast with the more appropriate response, "This is a specific calling of God: What is the best way to ensure proper functionality in order to accomplish the purpose of God in us?"

2. GENERAL OVERSEER—OFFICE, POSITION, FUNCTION

NOTE: There is some distinction between "office," "function" and "position." To illustrate, in the New Testament there is an office of apostle and an office of elder. Several men were at the same time called to these offices (that is, there were many apostles and elders); but they were positioned in different places and at different levels of administration and oversight. Paul was called to be an apostle. His apostleship was permanent but his position varied from regional to local oversight. Moreover, he had to voluntarily respond to God's call on his life and seek for divine strength to function effectively according to the calling of his office and relative position.

A biblical office is divine, the position of the office is relative, the function is voluntary or discretionary. To illustrate further, a bishop or elder is an office; a national overseer or the General Overseer is a position of that office; doing the actual work of the elder is the function of that office.

Further, in order to avoid the men-made concept of "office" as static institutional position, the sense of the original language should be understood as "ministry" and/or "work." Thus, for example, I Timothy 3:1 could be better understood as "If any man desires the work (or ministry) of a bishop he desires a good work." Office is appropriately interpreted to mean ministry and work according to God's calling—not a static position in the Church's organization.

In all places where the original words, diakonia and praxis are used, they convey the concept of "ministry," "service," "work," and "function"—not static position.

A. At this stage in our history, after several decades of our present form of government, we recognize the difficulty with regards to a call for major changes in our governmental form. Certainly our recent history has shown that few forms generate as much concern as the office of General Overseer.

B. The need for reformation and renewal, however, acknowledges that we are called by God to new dimensions of faith as befitting the age in which we live, and to a free responsibility to obey the leading of the Holy Spirit as He opens to us a more clear understanding of God's plan revealed in the scriptures.

C. The present widely held perception of the office of General Overseer as the "top of the tree" or the "apex of the pyramid" has resulted from tradition, misinterpretation, and even mystical attributes associated with the office. Part of the reason for this misunderstanding can be seen from the following brief sketch of the early historical development of the office:

1. The term General Overseer was adopted in 1910, although the office was not fully established until the General Assembly of 1914. After that, the power and influence of the office continued to increase in consequence of various pronouncements in Annual Addresses and General Assemblies. Still later as the Church's numbers and bureaucracy grew, the office became rather static; that is to say, the office was seen more in terms of specified executive duties than dynamic spiritual leadership.

   At the same time, the focus was gradually taken off the local church, and the fellowship of the collective body of churches, and focused rather in a corporate center or "headquarters."

2. The vision, influence and abilities of the first holder of the office of General Overseer, A. J. Tomlinson, was crucial in the organizational and doctrinal development of the Church in its early years. There is sufficient historical evidence to support that Brother Tomlinson cited the leadership example of Moses as being relevant to the position of General Overseer, and that he regarded James, the Lord's brother, as Moses' New Testament counterpart. In this we recognize a clear departure from the new order of Christ's government and administration and a return to the old system under Moses.

3. This mistake was due in part to a failure by Brother Tomlinson to properly recognize that Moses was a type of Jesus Christ, which is clearly recognizable in such passages as Hebrews 3:1-7 "...Consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus; Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house. For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house. For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God. And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after; But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end. Wherefore (as the Holy Ghost saith, To day if ye will hear his voice..."

4. One should be sympathetic in forming judgment in respect of motive in any given historical setting. There may have been good reasons to persuade A. J. Tomlinson that at that time the office was in the best interest of the Church—though by hindsight its importance was evidently exaggerated. Be that as it may, we have subsequently failed to correct what is evidently an infringement on the headship of Christ by an over-magnification of the office of General Overseer, and have thereby failed also to grasp the New Testament example of functional leadership, and the distinction between office and position. This has been detrimental to the general welfare of the Church, and proven to be an impossible task for the men who have held the office.

5. In the New Testament Church, the function of leadership was fulfilled by different men for varying periods of time (for example Peter, James, and John). It is generally accepted, based on the council meeting in Acts 15 and other passages, that James, the Lord's brother, acquired a degree of prominence among the leaders in the New Testament Church. However, this was at best a position of primus inter pares ("first among equals") providing functional leadership for the Church (for example, serving as moderator of the council in Acts 15) as opposed to a hierarchical and unique office of authority and power.

6. Indeed, it can be seen from the example of Acts 6:1-3, 15:22, 31, 32 that the mode for general leadership in the New Testament was more collective than via the ministry of a particular apostle or elder. Several scriptures indicate that it was "the twelve" and later "the apostles and elders" who were involved in the major decisions which impacted on the Church.

7. The consideration of leadership in line with the New Testament Church gives rise to the possibility of a more "plural form" of leadership (for example, several leaders working in one accord and sharing responsibility), as compared with our rather static structure, and the concentration of general leadership embodied in only one man.

8. We can conclude, then, that no evidence exists to show a precedent in the New Testament Church for a static office of General Overseer. There is a position of one as "first among equals," but not a solitary and unique office. Christ alone holds a unique office in the Church—the solitary head of a many-membered body.

The form and function of the apostolic model of leadership was in all respects under the continued guidance of the Holy Spirit and was essentially dynamic, operating through plural leadership rather than from a single power base with one man at the top of a hierarchical structure.

3. NEW TESTAMENT LEADERSHIP

A. A new principle of leadership.
Mark 10:35-45:
"And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire. And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you? They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory. But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized: But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared. And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John. But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them. But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister: And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all. For even the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many."

1. In the above example, Jesus taught that the "Gentile's" concept of leadership could not effect the ends that God desires in His Church. Love rules, not fear; spiritual authority prevails, not coercive force. The prevailing attitude which Jesus exemplified was that of a servant.

2. Jesus condemned the attitudes and practices of leadership as portrayed by the Scribes and Pharisees (Matthew 23:1-14), namely, love of position (verses 6 and 7); "And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi," hypocrisy (verse 3): "...but do not ye after their works for they say, and do not;" insensitivity to the needs of the people (verse 4): "For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers." Lack of humility (verses 11 and 12); love of money and possessions (verse 14); love of titles and pride (verses 7-10).

3. In place of the perverse examples of the Scribes and Pharisees, Jesus introduced a new principle of leadership through servanthood and the concept of "whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant" (Matthew 20:27). "If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet" (John 13:14).

B. Leadership forms—Theocratic Government
The acknowledgement and realization of God's immediate presence in the Church for guidance and direction.

1. The headship of Christ
Theocracy can only happen when the Church acknowledges and accepts Jesus' omnipresence and sovereignty over and in the Church, that is, the abiding presence of His headship. He alone is Lord.

2. The work of the Holy Spirit
"And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone; In whom all the building fitly framed together, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit" (Ephesians 2:20-22). The Church is "the habitation of God through the Spirit." It is the Holy Spirit who provides wise counsel and guidance for the Church, anoints with power, and ministers through the body with supernatural gifts and graces.

3. Body of Christ
The Church serves as a body for Christ's ministry. Actually only one ministry should be expressed and be prevalent in the body—Christ's ministry. The Church should seek therefore to divest itself of its own will (or wills), seek to be crucified with Christ, so that Christ is raised in us (His body). Thus the Church should seek to be a "new man"—the image and "measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ" (Ephesians 4:13).

C. Leadership recognition—New Testament Model

1. Divine Calling
The work is essentially effected by God. He calls, "Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God..." (1 Corinthians 1:1). He chooses, "...Unto the apostles whom he had chosen..." (Acts 1:2). He gives, "And he gave some, apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers" (Ephesians 4:11). He adds, "...And the Lord added to the Church..." (Acts 2:47). He sets in the Church every member as it pleases Him (1 Corinthians 12:27-28).

2. Heavenly Witness
   Leadership must have some measure of supernatural witness, that is, vertical confirmation from God, not just institutional or horizontal approval from man. The dynamic must be present and demonstrated. "...And my speech and preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of man, but in the power of God" (1 Corinthians 2:5-6).

3. Recognition by the Church
   Since the Church is actually in fellowship with God—and is God's fellowship—it should be able and responsible to judge and recognize God's called and anointed leadership, and even "to try" questionable candidates or professors. "And as they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them" (Acts 13:2).
   "I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars" (Revelation 2:2).

4. Anointing and Power
   Signs and wonders will accompany God-called and anointed leadership—"But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth" (Acts 1:8; see also Mark 16:15-20; Acts 2:43).

5. There was no mistaking God's anointed leaders in the early Church. The same should be true of the Church of God today. God chooses on the basis of "fitness" not "favoritism," for He is no respecter of persons. "And when James, Cephas and John, who seemed to be pillars perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision" (Galatians 2:9).

6. Thus leadership in the Church should be something recognized rather than constituted. It is God who calls and bestows gifts upon a man whom He has chosen. It is the duty of the Church to simply recognize and declare God's choice. Only in this manner can "theocracy" actually be realized, it is something that happens rather than static institutional authority.

D. Leadership—Duties and Responsibilities

1. Prayer and Ministry of the Word
"Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, it is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables. Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business ("need"). But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word," (Acts 6:2-4).

2. Laborer in the Word and Doctrine
"Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine" (1 Timothy 5:17; for "doctrine" we understand teaching).

3. To Lead by Example
"Remember them which have the rule over you, ("rule over" more aptly rendered as "to lead") who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation [conduct]" (Hebrews 13:7).

4. Pastoral Care—to Feed, Tend and Provide Spiritual Welfare
"Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the Church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood" (Acts 20:28).

5. Take the Oversight
"Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock" (1 Peter 5:2).

"Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation" (Hebrews 13:7).

"Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ" (1 Corinthians 11:1).

6. Guard the "sacred deposit"—and Commit to Faithful Men "That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us" (2 Timothy 1:14.) "And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also" (2 Timothy 2:2).

7. It should be noted that "overseers" ("pastors") at any level in the Church's government do not have dominion or rulership over the Church, but rather are "leaders" inspired and anointed by God to encourage and feed the Church. So was Paul, "Not that we have dominion over your faith but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand" (2 Cor. 1:24; see also 1 Peter 5:3).

   The actual power (or authority) vested in leadership is delegated by God and recognized in the Church by the evidence of spiritual gifts. Thus authority belongs to God, and is delegated by Him; it is merely recognized by the Church.

   "God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God" (Psalms 62:11).

   "And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen..." (Galatians 2:9).

4. Universal Perspective of Church Leadership

A. 1. The terms "apostles" and "elders" are used throughout the New Testament to describe leaders in the Church at both the local and general level.

2. We can see, however, that beginning with the earliest references in the Acts of the Apostles, universal leadership was the responsibility of the "twelve" as a unique group; and we know the "twelve" were apostles.

3. There was, however, a development in line with the general growth of the Church which led to an additional group of leaders who were called "elders" (Acts 11:30). Thus by the time the general council convened in Acts 15 the leadership of the Church is said to be composed of the "apostles and elders."

4. It seems apparent that in time the apostles also came to be known as elders insomuch that Acts 21:18 records, "And the day following Paul went in with us unto James, and all the elders were present." While no mention is made of the apostles in this passage, it is evident that they were included in the reference to "elders." It may be seen that the apostles, John and Peter, referred to themselves as "elders." (2 John 1; 3 John 1; 1 Peter 5:1). It is noteworthy, too, that Judas Iscariot's apostleship among the Twelve was equated with the term, bishop (episcopos) or "elder" (Acts 1:20, 25). That is, "bishoprick" in verse 20 is used interchangeably with the term, "apostleship," in verse 25.

5. It is evident that this body of elders in the New Testament Church was designed as a feature of Church government to be perpetuated, whereas the Twelve Apostles served uniquely for a specified time. The particular qualifications of the "Twelve" were unique (Acts 1:21:22.) Though more than twelve apostles are mentioned in the New Testament (Acts 14:14), the "Twelve," along with other elders ("chief men among the brethren"), seem to represent collectively the general leadership of the Church.

6. It is apparent, however, that certain men were prominent even among the apostles and elders. In Galatians 2:9, Paul makes references to James, the Lord's brother, Cephas and John as "pillars" in the Church, and Peter, Paul, Barnabas and James are the chief speakers in the Acts 15 general council. Moreover, it seems apparent that at a given time one man held a principal position "in" the Church, or among the churches, notwithstanding that Christ ruled over all preeminently. Thus though they all held the office of elder, one served positionally as chief. The position as "chief elder" seems to have been held first by Peter, certainly among The Twelve (Matthew 16:18; 17:24; Mark 3:16; 5:37; Acts 2:37-40), then by James, the Lord's brother, after Jesus' resurrection (Acts 21:18; 12:17; Galatians 2:9, 12), and perhaps later by John (Revelation 1:1, 4; 2 John 1:12; 3 John 1:1).

7. In view of the above, and the words of Jesus when He said to His disciples, "and whosoever of you will be chiefest..." (Mark 10:44), it is evident that in terms of position there is a "first among equals" or principal elder even among the leaders in the Church; but this man is distinguished by position, not by office. That is to say, his calling and ministry is the same as all other elders, but he is positioned as a leader among the elders.

5. The Position of General Overseer—"First among Equals"

   A. Present Reality

      1. The early Church as seen in the Acts of the Apostles with the many examples of functional leadership, and a conspicuous absence of rigid structures, stands in stark contrast to the Church of today; so much so, in fact, that the old anecdotal saying, "You can't get there from here," seems to challenge our faith.

      2. The implications for the Church of God in adopting a form of leadership which is based on the Christian ideal of a priesthood of believers, and is articulated by the phrase "first among equals," is significant at the general level of leadership as well as regional and local.

      3. Since the early Church was governed and directed by a plurality of leadership, namely apostles and elders, it is important that a clear understanding of the position of General Overseer be established.

      4. It would be more suitable it seems to think of the General Overseer as "first among equals" and thereby facilitate the essential principles of a more plural and equitable form of leadership.

      5. Notwithstanding, the holder of this position should be at liberty to exercise fully his individual gifts and realize the potential for ministry as the Holy Spirit directs. That is, he should be allowed to rise to the level of his leadership ability as God enables him with gifts and graces.
      6. It seems crucial at this stage that the holder should be allowed to divest himself as he deems wise from areas of administrative duties previously stipulated by past General Assemblies, and to delegate responsibilities in line with changes in the dynamics of the body.

6. Recommendations

   The following recommendations are aimed at addressing the present absence of clear procedures in relation to the position of General Overseer, and to create the possibility for objective discussions for the future development of general leadership in the Church of God.

A. Positional Duties of the General Overseer

The following areas of responsibility are to be viewed in conjunction with Section 3D of this report and should be performed in consultation with a General Council of Elders. (See 6 H)

B. Vacancy

1. Should there be a need to declare the position of General Overseer vacant due to death or disability, or if the General Overseer himself should tender his written resignation to the Administrative Committee, the responsibility for such a declaration should reside within the authority of the remaining members of the Administrative Committee.

2. In addition, if the need should arise to address the possible vacancy of the position in consequence of the incumbent being considered disqualified for the position, it should be the duty of the Administrative Committee to call a meeting of General Staff (excluding female members) where relevant evidence of disqualification would be presented. This step should be taken only where substantial evidence for disqualification seems apparent.

3. In the event that further study of the evidence and overall developments of the case for disqualification is needed, the Administrative Committee may arrange for a meeting of Overseers and General Staff (excluding female members) within thirty (30) days of the date of the General Staff meeting. Should agreement be reached at this meeting to declare the position vacant, then the procedures should be followed. Failure to reach a consensus would mean that the case should be terminated.

4. Should it become necessary to declare the position of General Overseer vacant, the Administrative Committee will perform the administrative work of the Church until the Overseers and General Staff meet and select a General Overseer to serve until the next General Assembly. It is the responsibility of the Administrative Committee to make the necessary domestic arrangements for the called meeting of Overseers and General Staff as well as convene the meeting and ensure that it is properly called to order. This meeting should take place within thirty (30) days after the vacancy is declared.
5. The General Overseer should be free to declare the completion of his tenure whenever he feels he has accomplished the will of God for his life in relation to this important position. Supporting evidence of the witness of the Holy Spirit to the completion of his task should be accepted in the same way that evidence first confirmed his selection. "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course..." (2 Timothy 4:7).

C. Selection

1. Following the preliminaries of the called Overseers and General Staff meeting, the final action of the Administrative Committee would be to ensure that a chairman is chosen to moderate the meeting.

2. Once the moderator has been selected a recording secretary and assistant secretary should be appointed. Neither moderator nor secretaries are to be excluded from participating in the selection of the General Overseer.

3. The following is an outline program of the selection meeting:
   a. Introductory comments by moderator
   b. A time of prayer (The entire meeting should be interspersed with prayer)
   c. Presentation of criteria and scriptural qualifications (Bible Study/discussion of the Key elements of the position in terms of relevance and importance)

      1. Spiritual Qualifications
         a. Prayerfulness (Acts 6:4)
         b. Faithfulness (Isa. 11:5; 1 Cor. 4:2, 17)
         c. Stewardship (I Cor. 4:2)
         d. Patience/Contentment (Gal. 5:22)
         e. Fruit of Spirit (Gal. 5:22)
         f. Full of Holy Ghost/Wisdom (Acts 6:3)

      2. Moral
         a. Honesty (Exodus 18:21; Acts 6:3)
         b. Integrity (Exodus 18:21; Acts 6:3)
         c. Purity (2 Cor. 6:6; 1 John 3:3; 1 Tim. 5:22)

      3. Family (Leader of Family)
         a. Husband of one wife (1 Tim. 3:4, 5, 11; Titus 1:5, 6)
         b. Disciplined Children (1 Tim. 3:4, 5, 11; Titus 1:5, 6)
         c. Order/Godly Reverence (1 Tim. 3:4, 5, 11; Joshua 24:15; Titus 1:5, 6)

      4. Theological
         a. Student/Scholar (1 Tim. 3:2; 4:16; 6:3; 2 Tim. 1:13; Titus 1:9-15)
         b. Sound in Doctrine/Faith (1 Tim. 3:2; 4:16; 6:3; 2 Tim. 1:13; Titus 1:9-15)
         c. Apt to teach (1 Tim. 3:2; 4:16; 6:3; 2 Tim. 1:13; Titus 1:9-15)

      5. Experienced
         a. No Novice (1 Tim. 3:6, 10; Titus 1:8)
         b. Grave/Sober/Temperate (1 Tim. 3:6, 10; Titus 1:8)
         c. Proven Ministry (1 Tim. 3:6, 10; Titus 1:8)

6. Leadership (of men)
   a. Evident Calling (1 Cor. 1:1)
   b. Evident Ability (Ex. 18:21, 25; 2 Cor. 5)
   c. Evident Anointing (1 Cor. 2:5, 6)
   d. Evident Qualification for position of Leader of Leaders (1 Tim. 5:17; Gal. 2:1-9)

d. Nominations of candidate(s) with qualifications.
e. Discussion of nominee(s) qualifications.
f. After review, and prayer for special guidance of the Spirit, overwhelming consensus should determine the man for the position of General Overseer. This should reflect Acts 15:28: "For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us..."

Note: There should be no reasonable doubt in regards to the selection. It should be generally felt that God has made the choice, and therefore endorsement should be demonstrated by an overwhelming consensus.

4. After the selection is made and accepted by the meeting, the one selected should make the necessary arrangements to assume the position of General Overseer consistent with the circumstances of the vacancy.

5. The one selected to serve would be presented to the General Assembly by the General Presbytery at the earliest opportunity in the following Assembly.

6. Affirmation of the selection should reflect the approval of the Spirit and the overwhelming consensus of the Church in line with the principle, "For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us..." (Acts 15:28).

D. Tenure

1. The tenure of the General Overseer is indefinite in line with established principles of biblical leadership.

2. It is recognized, however, that the New Testament principle of accountability to God and men as delineated by 1 Corinthians 4:1, 2 should be followed,"...Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful."

3. In accordance with the principle of accountability, a fixed period should be established to formally Review and Counsel the response to the question, "Is there evidence to show that the particular elder is still an inspired leader and qualified for the position, and functioning in harmony with the principles of scriptural leadership.

4. The Review and Counsel may be performed at a special meeting of General Staff and State/National Overseers.

5. It should be noted that the principle for this Review and Counsel is consistent with the need to discharge our responsibility as a body in line with the scriptural injunction, "For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us..." (Acts 15:28). This avoids on the one hand the error of mysticism (that is, spiritual manifestations or demonstrations not consistent with the Word) and, on the other hand, dogmatic interpretations of scripture and tradition that have no evidence of the Spirit's approval.

E. Review and Counsel

1. The aim of the review shall be to assess the leadership of the General Overseer by endeavoring to establish positive or negative evidence of divine approval and the Holy Spirit's blessings. This could be done with a view of the overall progress and growth of the Church.

2. The whole exercise should be approached through prayer, and with the intention to be a blessing to the individual elder as well as the whole Church. Identified areas of ministerial or personal weaknesses should become the concern of both the elder and the entire body. Improvement plans may then be made to support weaknesses and correct mistakes.

3. In the case of the General Overseer, the other Council members would prepare and present a formal report to the meeting. Review and Counsel would be on a two year cycle prior to the assembly. (Self evaluation should be on-going.)

   The report will present a balanced view of the effectiveness and progress of the Church (generally or regionally) in consequence of the ministry of the particular elder.

4. The Review and Counsel will focus on the following areas:

   a. Mission of the Church
      1) Personal contribution to Church's mandate and overall goals.
      2) Effectiveness of organizational and departmental objectives.

   b. General spirituality of the Church (as judged by)
      1) Growth—financial, numerical (membership), evangelism
      2) Vision—where are we going? Are we getting there?
      3) Unity—relationships (measure of harmony and contentment within the body)
      4) Maturity—spiritual growth and evidences of the fruit of the Spirit

   c. Influence
      1) Communication with the field
      2) Universal rapport, team spirit
      3) Relations with other believers (other Christian leaders)

   d. Leadership credibility
      1) Trust—measure of the willingness of the people to follow or be led
      2) Stewardship—use/effective application of resources

5. Where there is a negative consensus in regards to the leadership of the General Overseer, it will be necessary to allow sufficient time to validate any evidence presented.

   Note: In the event that there is no improvement in view of further Counsel and necessary support, the procedure outlined in 6.B [Vacancy] should be followed.

F. Period of Review and Counsel

1. Under normal circumstances, the standard Review and Counsel period would be every two (2) years.

2. The Review and Counsel period should be made to coincide with the General Assembly. The meeting where the evaluation is performed should be completed prior to the Assembly following the approval of this recommendation.

G. Term

1. The term of office for the General Overseer should be from General Assembly to General Assembly and should terminate a month from the date of the General Assembly.

2. Arrangements should be made, in the event of a change in General Overseer, for the new man to spend the entire month with the outgoing elder (assuming it is appropriate for this action to take place).

H. General Council of Elders

1. Rationale

The Church Business Guide under the Section of General Assembly makes reference to the Question and Subjects Committee Report to the 60th Annual General Assembly and the following resolution: "...That the General Overseer be hereby authorized to represent and stand for the General Assembly when it is not in session, to sign any and all documents requiring the signature of an authorized representative of said Assembly and to handle all emergencies that arise between Assemblies."
This authority given to the General Overseer to act unilaterally in place of the General Assembly when it is not in session would appear to conflict with New Testament model of leadership, namely, that the collective body of Apostles and Elders acted in such key leadership functions. For example:

a. General Oversight

"And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers" (Acts 2:42).
"The elders which are among you ...feed the flock of God...taking the oversight thereof...And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away" (1 Peter 5:1-4).
See also Acts 6:4

b. Decision Making
"And the apostles and elders came together for to consider this matter" (Acts 15:6)
"Then it pleased the apostles and elders..." (Acts 15:23)
See also Acts 11:30; 15:4; 16:4; 21:18

c. Appointive Duties

"Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men...whom we may appoint..." (Acts 6:3-6)

2. Given the universal dimension of the work of the Church, and the great burden and responsibility for its general oversight, it seems both wise and biblical that a General Council of Elders should be selected. They would be invaluable in supporting the ever-increasing pastoral, administrative and appointive duties of a world-wide Church. In addition, the existence and recognition of godly men with Holy Ghost anointed ministries would do much to enhance the credibility of leadership in the Church; and help to hold in place human leadership and authority under the sovereign headship of Christ, who alone rules the Church.

3. The Nature of the Council

a. The Council should be considered more as a counseling or reference body, rather than a constituted ruling body. Emphasis should be on Spirit-inspired and anointed leadership, rather than institutional rulership.
b. In principle it should be international in its scope and representation.

4. Selection of General Council

Following approval by the General Assembly of the International Committee report, the General Council of Elders would be selected by the General Presbytery in time for the following General Assembly.

NOTE: This report assumes that over the next few years the Assembly will continue to be held annually.

a. Suggested Program of Selection Meeting

1) The General Overseer shall moderate the meeting and be free to contribute as a member of the meeting

2) Prayer session (the entire meeting should be interspersed with prayer)

3) Presentation of scriptural basis for the position and the biblical principles for elders

4) Presentation of criteria and any specific qualifications relevant to the effectiveness of the office of elders. (See General Overseer)

5) Nomination of potential elders with scriptural and spiritual evidence of the Lord's leading and approval

6) Discussion of nominee(s) qualifications (See General Overseer)

7) Ascertain consensus view of the meeting in regards to the nominee(s). This should reflect Acts 15:28: "For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us..."

Note: There should be no reasonable doubt in regards to the man (men) whom God has chosen and therefore endorsement should be demonstrated by an overwhelming consensus.

5. Positional Duties

To work together with the General Overseer in all matters pertaining to the General leadership and oversight of the Church. (See duties and responsibilities of General Overseer.)

6. Number of Council Members

It would be tempting to constitute a set number such as twelve (12) for the General Council. This may seem in keeping with biblical precedents, such as the twelve patriarchs of Israel and the Twelve Apostles in the New Testament Church. But upon further study these elders seem to represent or symbolize God's overall plan for his people throughout history. It may be noted that these symbols are yet employed in revealing the culmination of God's plan in "New Jerusalem" (Revelation 21). The twelve tribes of Israel are represented in its twelve gates (v. 12) and the twelve apostles in its foundations (v. 14). And these together seem to imply and identify the twenty-four elders mentioned throughout the book of Revelation (4:4, 10; 5:8, 14; 11:16; 19:4).

This number twelve and its multiples (24 and 144,000) seems to be a fixed symbol representing the plan of God for His people through all ages, culminating in the glorified Church. That is to say, the Church is forever built upon the foundation of Christ and the Twelve Apostles (See also Ephesians 2:20). Thus there is no need to constitute the number twelve (12) again as if twelve men were now replacing or succeeding the Twelve Apostles. The foundation has been permanently laid.

Further, there is no evidence in the New Testament to show that as the apostles were martyred, or otherwise died, that they were replaced in order to maintain the relevance of the number twelve in each generation of the Church (apart from the case of Judas Iscariot, which seems to have been an exceptional incident). The significance of the number twelve seems to play out rather quickly after Jesus' resurrection, and especially in the on-going development of the Church recorded in the book of Acts. In the Acts 15 council, for example, the general leadership of the Church had evidently given way to a larger number of apostles and elders, and James, the Lord's brother, who was not one of the twelve, served as moderator of the council.

It seems wisdom, therefore, that no set number of general council members should be established or constituted. The number should fluctuate accordingly as the needs arise in the on-going development of the Church and its mission in the world. That is, as the work expands and grows under the guidance and oversight of the Holy Ghost, the Council also may need to increase, or to modify its form.

7. Term, Tenure, Vacancy

The same principles and procedures for the General Overseer would apply to General Council members.

8. Review and Counsel

The procedure for Review and Counsel of the General Council would follow the same as that of the General Overseer.

AN EXHORTATION

The International Committee for the Study of the Office of General Overseer wants to thank the Lord, our General Overseer, Bishop Billy Murray, and the other ministers that have given their input and have prayed for this committee's work.

The committee has consulted with Church leaders at the general, state, and national level. We have met on several occasions and have spent many hours studying the Word of God, as well as in prayer before the Lord seeking His guidance. Our main purpose is to present a report that is in harmony with the will of God, and a blessing to the Church work at this important time in the history of mankind. This is a time when we know that the coming of the Lord is so near and the Church has to finish the task of taking the message to all nations.

We trust you will read this report in the same spirit of prayer, studying all of the Scriptures, and yearning to contribute to the progress of the Church mission. This has been the spirit in which this committee has worked.

Prayerfully submitted by His servants,

Jose Reyes, Chairman
Oswill Williams, Secretary
Les Graham
Tony Charalambou
Wade Phillips

10:35 The General Overseer spoke to the Church.

JESUS, TAKE CHARGE!

". . . and upon this rock I will build my church" (Matthew 16:18).

God had a people whom He had chosen long ago. They were the seed of Abraham, descending from Jacob and his twelve sons. They had been sovereignly chosen to be unto God a peculiar treasure, a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation, and God had worked wonders among them, showing Himself strong in their behalf.

No other people in history experienced such manifestations of divine intervention as did these people. A sea opened up so that six hundred thousand men besides women and children could march across it on dry gound, only for those waters to come together again to drown their pursuers. God's presence was among them as a cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night. At Mount Sinai the Lord descended in fire and the smoke from the mountain ascended as the smoke of a furnace and the whole mountain quaked greatly, causing fear and trembling among all the people who were camped nearby.

What other people ever experienced bread from heaven to be given them daily for forty years, or water for them to drink to gush out from a flinty rock, or the sun to stand still so that a battle could be fought to its conclusion?

They had been divinely chosen to be the special people of God as a witness among the nations. This was God's sovereign choice, but over and over again they failed the One who chose them. The people who constituted this nation were of a certain lineage. The family into which one was born determined for the most part whether he would be a part of God's chosen nation. A requirement as a member of this covenanted nation was that every man child was to be circumcised when he was eight days old, but here again this was not a decision on his part. It was a decision that was made for him. So, a true heart commitment was lacking among this chosen people.

They were reminded by their parents of how they had been chosen, of how special they were among the nations, but this seems only to have created arrogant attitudes instead of causing them to cultivate a deeper relationship with their God. Their continual failings to fulfill God's purposes did not cause Him to love them any less, however. His love for them was perfect.

God's love was demonstrated to perfection when He condescended to come to them as a man, and He was born and lived among them as Jesus of Nazareth. What a wonder! This was the ultimate visitation that God could visit upon them. However, He found a people whose hearts were hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. They were proud of their godly heritage, but they did not know the God of their heritage. Nor did they want to know Him, especially those in leadership. They had forms set up which would preserve and perpetuate their positions and their institutional bigotry and they wanted no interference from God. They were in control, a control which they had no intention to surrender; no, not even to God!

So, in our text we hear the pronouncement of Jesus that He would build His Church, a new creation—not a revamping or restructuring of the Jewish institution, but a new entity, which Paul later would identify as the Body of Christ. Furthermore, it would not be just for those of a certain lineage. God's love did not embrace just the Jews. He loves everybody in every nation, and His love for them is perfect, also. Thus, came His declaration, "I will build my church." It was to be an inclusive body for all men everywhere.

This must have been in Jesus' mind when He said to the Pharisees, "And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd" (John 10:16). This one fold, which He predicted here, to be led by "one shepherd," would not be the exclusive Jewish fold, however. It would be the Church He promised He would build. Paul addressed this subject to the Gentile members in Ephesus. "That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world! But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

"For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us; Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace. And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby" (Ephesians 2:12-16).

Only in Jesus could the twain of Jew and Gentile become one new man—one new creation, one new body. The middle wall of partition was an allusion to the partition in the temple, which separated the court of the Gentiles from that into which the Jews had liberty to enter. But then even for the Jews there was a heavier barrier, the veil of the temple, which shielded the holy of holies. Their sinfulness, which was manifested by the law of commandments, made them to be at enmity with God, and they could not approach His presence in the holy of holies.

Paul wrote that Jesus had abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances. By His death on Calvary He took away the binding power of the ceremonial law so that neither the Jews, nor the Gentiles, would any longer have to be at enmity with God. Rather, He died to reconcile both unto God, that they could dwell without enmity toward God or without enmity toward one another, in one body. Paul stated it well when he said, "For he is our peace."

When Jesus said, "I will build my church," He knew it would have to be purchased with His own blood, that only His death could bring mankind into harmony with God and with one another. It is significant that He did not say, "My church will be built," but rather, "I will build my church." No one else could do it.

The building of His Church is not so much something which He did as it is something which He is doing. He is still building His Church. It is an ongoing process. The Church is not a static institution but a growing, developing organism. That we who are present in this Assembly today are now a part of the Church attests to this fact. We must never attempt to calcify a Church that must be alive and growing, reaching out in dynamic witness to bring others into this glorious fellowship we are experiencing with our Savior. We have taken our places in the Church's ongoing development. And we are enjoying this privilege because of what Jesus is still doing. He is building His Church. And He views thousands of others, perhaps millions, as a part of His Church, not yet in place. But they will be, and His prayer will be answered, "That they [all] may be made perfect in one" (John 17:23).

Problems arise when men become architects and designers, when they become the builders of what Jesus has reserved unto Himself. I believe it is time that we truly pray a prayer of relinquishment from the heart, "Jesus, take charge!" We do not know how to build His Church. He never intended that we should build it. It is of divine design and it will be constructed divinely. True, we are called to be laborers with Him, but let us know that we are laborers with Him rather than for Him. It will be done His way!

"AND YE ARE COMPLETE IN HIM"

As the Church continues to take form in its progressive development it will reflect more and more the nature of its Builder or of its builders. If we fail to relinquish control to Jesus it will look more and more worldly. But if He builds His Church it will increasingly reflect His nature and His character. To be what God has purposed is for us to grow up into Jesus Christ in all things. He is the express image of God and it is the Church's privilege to be the expression of her Savior to the world. Jesus said of His primitive Church, "They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world" (John 17:16). To the church at Ephesus Paul wrote, "In whom [in Jesus] all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord" (Ephesians 2:21).

Holiness is the hallmark of Christ's Church. It most assuredly identifies us with Him. In fact, there is no holiness apart from Him and for us to be a Church of holiness means that our relationship with Him must be genuine. Holiness can be held only in a true relationship with Jesus Christ. He is our holiness. This is the essence of Paul's saying to the church at Corinth, "But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification [holiness], and redemption" (1 Corinthians 1:30).

To abide in Him is to abide in God's holiness. O how wonderful! Man initially was created holy, made in the image of God, but Adam's sin separated him from God and all of us were born with Adam's mark. We seemed hopelessly estranged, but thanks be to God for the second Adam, the Lord from heaven, who came to this earth and walked among men as the epitome of holiness. He faced all the world's pollutions but was not contaminated. He faced Satan head-on and defeated him, and in His death He won the victory over sin for each of us. God's command, "Be ye holy; for I am holy" seemed impossible for us, but Jesus made it possible.

Holiness is the antithesis of worldliness. One cannot be worldly and holy at the same time. Worldly attitudes indicate that one is no longer abiding in Him who is holy. A holy church and a worldly church are a contradiction of terms. Either we are holy or we are worldly. Which is it?

This world needs to see in God's Church an expression of His holiness. It will be little affected by anything less. We know for sure that the Church which Jesus presents unto Himself will be "holy and without blemish" (Ephesians 5:27). But we must never suppose this can be possible apart from Jesus. He is what we need and He is all we need. Jesus, take charge!

To the Colossians Paul wrote, "Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. And ye are complete in him..." (Colossians 2:8-10). Substitutes abound and are offered continually to pull us away from the sufficiency of Jesus Christ. Some of these substitutes may appear to be good and wholesome, being carried on in the name of Christianity. There are religious activities which can keep us very busy and they may seem commendable and praiseworthy.

The Church which Christ is building, however, is much more than a religious club which does good works. Indeed, it is "his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all" (Ephesians 1:23). It is the bodily expression of Christ's love, of His power, of His judgment against sin. It is where Christ reaches out through us to convince the world of God's love for them and of His power to deliver them from sin's enslavement.

Some members seem to feel secure in merely maintaining membership in the church; others find assurance in abiding by certain aspects of its Advice to Members. Some seem to feel a sense of safety by refraining from the evils of alcohol and drugs, from cursing, swearing, cheating and other vices.

We should thank God for fellowship with one another, and should be thankful for wise counsel and advice. To refrain from sinful indulgences is commendable, but these things can be practiced without having a deep personal relationship with Jesus. We must remember that we are complete only in Him and it is the fulness of Christ being worked out in and through the Church by the Holy Ghost that will enable it to fulfill its purpose for being.

There are those also who view the Church as a kind of static repository for truth. They would spend their time refining and defending doctrinal positions. Discussing, debating, disputing, arguing appeals to them. Their counterparts in the days of Jesus were the Pharisees and Sadducees, men who tried to engage Jesus in quibbling over points of law. Jesus refused to become sidetracked by these who cared little for people but rather were obsessed with their debatings.

He never lost sight of His mission. He had come to seek and to save the lost. As we become one with Him, finding our completeness in Him, being His body, "the fulness of him that filleth all in all," we also will refuse to become bogged down by trivia. We will refuse all religious substitutes Satan would foist upon us which prevent true ministering to a hurting world.

Rather than being a so-called static repository the Church is to be a dynamic force, assaulting the strongholds of Satan, rescuing souls being held in his grasp. People need deliverance no less today than when Jesus walked on earth. It is for us to observe His manner of ministry and to know that we are His body on earth right now. As the Father sent Him into the world, even so He has sent us. We must not fail Him, or the world to which we have been sent. Satan would have us arguing with and attacking one another. May God help us to recognize this as a diversion planned by our enemy and to be steadfast in focusing upon our mission. We have a work to do!

FERVENT LOVE FROM PURE HEARTS

"Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently" (1 Peter 1:22).

Obedience to the truth as the Holy Ghost had visited them had brought a love among the brethren that did not have to be pretended. It was real; it was genuine. It was that love which Paul described as having been "shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost" (Romans 5:5). Now Peter is saying to the saints who had received this divine gift, " . . . see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently."

The Church that honors God and which will be able to communicate the gospel of Christ effectively is a fellowship of loving, caring people. The degree to which they remain united in mission will be determined by the quality of their love. That is why Peter's charge to the saints nineteen centuries ago was included in the Holy Scriptures for us to read today, and at this crucial time through which we are now passing there is no more timely message for us to observe. Fervent love from pure hearts will defeat every attempt by Satan to divide the Church and thereby weaken its testimony to a perishing world which so desperately needs deliverance.

What hope does this world have if the Church fails? Is it any wonder that Satan is at work to create divisions? That is his most effective strategy. But Satan's power cannot succeed where there is fervent love from pure hearts. It is only when love wanes that our enemy is successful.

It pleased God that His Church be comprised of diverse personalities. Distinctive differences exist as its members come from different cultures and backgrounds, each one being influenced by the traditions which have shaped his own thinking. Now you might think that it would be wonderful if every other member thought just like you do, but that is not the fellowship of which God chose for you to be a part. He has placed you in the Church with me and thousands of others whose thinking has been influenced by traditions and cultures to which you may never have been subjected. We all have our differences.

Yet, we have been brought together and joined together in one body, according to the will of God. We do not agree on everything. We do not all see alike. But can we not all love alike? Peter said, "See that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently." Later in this letter he wrote, "And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves" (4:8). Paul called this charity "the bond of perfectness" (Colossians 3:14).

Someone has said, "Where love is thick, faults are thin." By the same token it may be said that where love is thin, faults are thick. In the absence of fervent charity we most often find critical, judgmental attitudes where there is faultfinding, mote-hunting and condemning one another. Not only are sinners whom we have been commissioned to reach repelled by such harsh attitudes, but we ourselves come under the judgment of God. Even now in His mercy His judgment lingers as He waits for our repentance, but we dare not wait longer before crying out to Him for a restoration of divine love, that "first love" restoration which He demanded of the church at Ephesus.

Need we be reminded that we are one body and all members one of another? But union does not automatically make unity. Yet, unity is the demand of God for His Church and something for which Christ earnestly prayed, but it is something for which a price is to be paid. It is a costly endeavor. It requires forbearance and longsuffering; it requires self-denial. Paul wrote, "With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace" (Ephesians 4:2, 3).

Love is the strength of forbearance. Love is the power for longsuffering. It will cause us to forego personal pleasures, even legitimate pleasures, which we know might be offensive to a brother or sister.

"We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. For even Christ pleased not himself . . . Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another . . . That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God . . . Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God" (Romans 15:1-3, 5-7). When Paul says, " . . . receive ye one another" is he not saying, "Accept one another"?

If you are my brother I must accept you even when I do not agree with you. Earlier in the fourteenth chapter Paul wrote, "Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations" (v. 1). Accept the weaker brother, he says, but not to argue and dispute with him. Such disputing shows Christian immaturity. To accept him as a brother is to love him and through mutual forbearance to grow together.

The Church at Rome was composed of both Jews and Gentiles. The Jewish members had grown up with the observance of ceremonial laws concerning meats and days, while the Gentile members did not consider these things as being relevant to their salvation. They felt that every creature was good and nothing to be refused if received with thanksgiving, that it was sanctified by the Word of God and prayer. Others disagreed, and felt they should refrain from certain meats, some being vegetarians.

Those members who felt obligated still to ceremonial laws esteemed certain days above others—the feast days, the new moons, the sabbaths, while some of their fellow members knew that these observances were abolished by Christ's coming and esteemed every day alike. Paul's plea was for tolerance and forbearance rather than for uniformity. He knew there could be unity without uniformity. His instruction was, "Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him that eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him" (v. 3). The apostle's reasoning was that if God has received or accepted a person we should also.

It would be presumptuous for us to say, "Well, God may accept you, but we can't." Do we presume ourselves to be holier than God? Are our standards higher than His?

Paul's message to the saints at Rome was that some differences could be tolerated within the Church. It was not so much the differences between the Jewish and Gentile members that was destructive as it was the manner in which these differences were being handled. It was their attitudes toward one another. Those who were knowledgeable in the liberties Christ had brought were despising those who failed to understand. Fervent love would have prevented such feelings. Knowledge without love still causes members to be puffed up with feelings of superiority. At the same time the Jewish Christians judged and censured the others as breakers of the law and considered them as being not very consecrated. The need was for mutual forbearance through fervent love.

In verse six Paul wrote, "He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks." Instead of pushing for a verdict to which all would align themselves the apostle seemed willing to let the ceremonial law wither by degrees, and to let it have an honorable burial. He did not take a stout stand against all further adherence to ceremonial laws. Today, some traditions may be continued as something we feel is right for us, but we should not seek to impose our traditions upon others. There are places where some of our sisters feel very strongly, for example, that they should not go into a worship service without a hat or other covering upon their heads. These people should not be condemned for this, because they are doing it unto the Lord. At the same time they must not condemn others who feel no necessity for covering their heads in this manner.

I believe we have pressed beyond its true application the scripture which says, " . . . let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing" (Philippines 3:16). We may note that the apostle did not say "the same rules," but "the same rule." Was he not referring to the rule of faith as opposed to the works of the law?

I believe he was. Jesus purposed that His Church would be operated by grace through faith.

While advocating tolerance toward the brethren who felt obligated to keep the Jewish traditions, Paul stood firmly against any legalistic spirit which sought to preempt the spirit of grace. He would not tolerate any demeaning of the grace of God, which is the spirit of the new covenant. We have to admire Paul's vision of an all-nations Church, comprised of some people who would never be willing to subject themselves to the narrow views of a Jewish group whose numbers in the future would be decreasing in proportion to the great influx of Gentile members. These newcomers soon would constitute the larger membership of the Church.

Today we might profit from a similar broadness of vision. Although we had our beginning here in the Southeastern United States, we want to make certain that we do not seek to perpetuate traditions which an expanding, global Church will find unacceptable among those by whom only biblical truth is respected. Courage was required, when other apostles were perpetuating narrowness, for Paul to withstand them, defending the principle of pure grace for Christ's Church. Such courage today will resist our being a Southeastern church, or a United States church, but stand strong in the commitment that, we be the Church of God of the Bible. That is the Church which bows in submission to its Head, being willing to relinquish human control while praying, "Jesus, take charge!"

STRONG LOCAL CHURCHES

"And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily" (Acts 16:5).

God's Church has its existence and its growth in local congregations. This is where members assemble regularly for fellowship and instruction in the Word of God. There these members are instrumental in bringing others to Christ as their lives reflect God's love and demonstrate Christ's power over sin. It is in the nurture of a local fellowship that members are strengthened spiritually as they engage in a relentless battle with their adversary, both to resist Satan's attempts to destroy them, and to rescue others from his grasp. As Jesus builds His Church it will be built in local congregations.

In our text Luke records that it was local churches which were increasing in number daily. That is where sinners were being led to Jesus, that is where members were being added to the body of Christ. And today, that is still where growth occurs and where members find food for their souls.

Most of the New Testament was written to local churches. In the New Testament we find letters to churches at Rome, Corinth, Galatia, Ephesus, Philippi, Colosse, Smyrna, Pergamos, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia and Laodicea. As the local churches go, so goes the Church of God. So, as we pray, "Jesus, take charge!" we are praying that He will take charge of our local churches.

We have some thriving local churches where sinners are continually being saved, churches where both numerical and spiritual growth is evident. In these churches members are excited about what God is doing and they are dedicating themselves to even greater efforts of outreach as they experience a growing relationship with their Savior. In too many places this is not the case, however, and without an infusion of new life some of these churches will soon cease to exist.

We must give more attention to the development of strong local churches. This demands strong, able leadership. Thank God for those pastors who are dedicating themselves to the greatest challenge in the Church of God, that of providing leadership to build strong local churches. There is no higher ministry in the Church.

In the past there seems to have been a pervasive feeling that if a pastor did well he might get elevated to a higher office. In my opinion there is no higher office, and I hope we can squash that kind of thinking. The Assembly last year recommended a rotation of those under General Appointment periodically into other types of ministry. Because of the mentality which has developed over the years, it is difficult for some to feel they are not receiving a demotion when this occurs. To me, some of the finest ministers we have in the Church are in pastoral ministry and to join their ranks is not a demotion.

The ministries we have at our General Headquarters and in our National/State offices are supportive ministries to support our local churches. The pastors and local churches are not there to serve us; we exist to aid them. Some work seems more effective through the combined efforts of our local churches coordinated through our administrative offices, such as world missions, literature preparation, etc., and in these efforts we here at Headquarters are seen as laborers together with you. Otherwise, however, the National/State and the General level must be viewed as supporting ministries of our local churches. That is where growth occurs, that is where souls are saved and that is where members are added to the body of Christ.

I believe our efforts to plant new churches would be more effective if they were directed through our local churches. Each church should view itself as a mission station, reaching out to its area in an ongoing mission of evangelization, with a burden to reach people with the gospel which will change their lives. I believe this burden can produce growth, and a growing church having this burden will soon be extending itself into neighboring communities, establishing branches of itself which can be "mothered" to become other strong local congregations.

I am not speaking of simply splitting an existing church just to create two weaker congregations. Rather, we must pray for the burden to evangelize to take such possession of us that we will be continually growing. A strong local church can develop to where it soon will have grown outside its own community. At first it may be the development of a satellite mission, but this can be nurtured or "mothered" to become a local congregation which before long could repeat the process and become the mother of yet another local church.

We may have left church planting too much to the National/State offices. While they can be supportive, and there may be a mission field which develops that is not near any existing local church, in which the National/State office must be heavily involved, yet the idea of new churches being "mothered" by strong local churches seems most practical.

I believe we need a new vision of the need for, and the potential of, these strong local churches. Whatever is hindering their development must be discovered and eliminated. This world must be evangelized and the New Testament shows the heavy involvement in this mission by the local church. The church at Antioch as a case study can be enlightening.

The church at Antioch evidently was a strong church with strong leadership. "Now there were in the church at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon . . . and Lucius . . . and Manaen . . . and Saul. As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus" (Acts 13:1-4).

As Luke recounts this missionary journey of Paul and Barnabas he concludes it by saying "And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia: And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled. And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them" (Acts 14:24-27).

We see here a local church with which the Holy Ghost was much involved as He directed them in sending out two great missionaries. It was a fasting church, it was a praying church, a church sensitive to the Spirit. It was in this local church that hands were laid upon these two men, separating them unto this special assignment by God. This was not a matter taken care of by the apostles at Jerusalem, but by these brethren's local church.

It seems proper that our local churches bear responsibility in setting apart members of their congregation for ministry according to the will of God. Of course, this has been practiced for many years as members have been set forth in the business meetings to be examined by the presbytery for licensure in different ministries.

If our churches are to be strengthened there must be a proper function of spiritually gifted members. Deacons, for example, can relieve a pastor from becoming cumbered with duties which distract him from his primary task of prayer and the ministry of the Word. As deacons assume their supportive roles as servants of the local church they are to be appreciated.

The question has arisen as to whether the deacon is a purely local church servant or whether he is a minister to be recognized by the General Church. Our practice has been to license him as a General Church minister and to ordain him by the laying on of hands by the presbytery. By this he has been honored in many cases beyond the one who serves as his pastor, many of whom have never been ordained.

While pastors have been called upon to be willing to leave their homes and to go anywhere in order to fulfill their ministry, deacons have not been asked to make such sacrifices. Is it proper to make such distinction then by ordination by the presbytery for deacons, or should this be a ministry for recognition by the local churches?

This is not to downplay the importance of deacons, because it is a biblical function. However, it may be more proper that these be chosen and ordained within the local church, rather than to become licensed ministers whose credentials are signed by the General and State/National Overseers.

We have some who are referred to as preaching deacons. It might be better for these to be relicensed in the preaching ministry.

I have asked the Questions and Subjects Committee to study this matter for presentation to the Assembly if they should feel it proper. Whatever we do we want it to be a means of building strong local churches.

JUDGE NOT

In the Sermon on the Mount, which may be referred to as Jesus' inaugural sermon to His Church following its establishment on Mount Hattin, our Lord said, "Judge not, that ye be not judged." Very early He was condemning all judgmental attitudes within this new creation which He called "My Church." He would be its Owner and its Judge, quickly warning against "mote-hunting" in a neighbor's eye while ignoring a beam in one's own eye.

Why did Jesus include this as one of the cardinal teachings for His Church?

There were many other things He could have included instead of, "Judge not, that ye be not judged." And if some of us had been delivering this sermon it is very probable that this teaching would have been preempted by something else more in keeping with our views of what is right and wrong; indeed, we might have included something as a teaching which could even have accommodated a judgmental attitude which Jesus was here condemning.

It is interesting that in compiling a list of important truths which have come to be known as prominent teachings of the Church that this teaching did not make the list. The closest thing to it that we have is a teaching entitled, "On Meats and Drinks." The emphasis of this teaching is that we are not to judge one another as to the sinfulness of eating certain types of meats or of drinking non-alcoholic drinks. To my knowledge we do very little judging or condemning one another in these matters, but there are other areas where judgmental attitudes are rampant.

For years many of our sisters were condemned for what many considered improper hair grooming. For curling, straightening or trimming their hair they were censured and some were even excluded from membership in the Church as the teaching by Jesus to "judge not" was ignored. Some of the brothers felt so strongly about women's hair until they introduced, and finally obtained its approval by the Assembly (where the women could not speak), a recommendation advising against the cutting of the hair. I remember leaving that Assembly with a heavy heart, as did many others, feeling that as the Church of God of the Bible we had gone too far, that this was a matter to be left to individual conscience.

As was the case with some of the ceremonial laws which lived for awhile in the early Church and then died, I lived to see this Assembly recommendation wither and die and after some thirty years to be given an honorable burial in the Assembly of 1986. To have allowed our sisters earlier to have curled, or straightened, or to have trimmed their hair, following their conscience, would have been termed by some as the Church's lowering its standard of holiness. But is it really lowering the standard for us to remove extra-biblical requirements and to stop judging one another in purely personal matters where Christian conscience should be the determinant? We would do well to continually ask whether it is our standard or God's standard. To bring all of our practices into harmony with God's standards would actually be raising the standards of the Church.

It seems sad that we should spend so much time judging and criticizing one another while a world of lost people continue their spiraling plunge toward an endless hell from which there is no deliverance. Why can we not see what is important to Jesus? If the greatest commandment is to love God and to love one another, would not the greatest sin be the failure to love? Is this not why we are instructed to "above all things have fervent charity among [ourselves]"? Something is needed to put an end to a harsh, judgmental spirit among us, and I believe this is it—loving one another with pure hearts fervently. Some have established an arbitrary standard as to what a proper vision of the Church of God is and they are quick to judge who is Church of God and who is not Church of God.

I feel like asking with Paul, "Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth...But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God. Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way" (Romans 14:4, 10-13).

The instruction of James is much like this as he wrote, "Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?" (James 4:11, 12). James goes on to say, "But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil" (v. 16). Some of us may boast that we are conservatives; others of us may boast that we are moderates; and generally, such boasting is against those brothers who do not share our views. Often we seem to take pride in and rejoice in our boastings that we are not like those other brethren. "All such rejoicing is evil."

What do we truly have to boast of or to glory in, but in the cross of our dear Savior. Apart from His shed blood we are all sinners doomed for hell. We should be rejoicing that by His death we are saved and we should be rejoicing over every other soul who by the same grace has been saved. We have become brothers, not by any merit of our own—we did not deserve this great salvation. It came to each of us by God's mercy.

We have brothers and sisters all over the world, all of whom have been saved by the same marvelous grace of God, and it is God's will that we all be united in Him. He does not want us to be separated by carnal divisions, criticizing and attacking one another. This year we have been in contact with many Christians in Eastern Europe who desire closer fellowship with us. Some of these have endured much suffering and hardship because of their Pentecostal testimony. Many have spent time in prison. They truly love the Lord.

Many of these people feel that they should not wear gold for ornament; however some of them wear their wedding bands, which they do not consider as an ornament but as a symbol of their being married. I hope as they are brought into closer contact with us they will not be too critical or judgmental of all the pins and other jewelry which our people are wearing for ornament. It would be hard for us to argue "symbolism" for our pins while calling their wedding bands "ornament."

Somewhere along the way we made the arbitrary determination that it was wrong to wear a wedding band, that that would be "gold for ornament," but that it was all right to wear gold pins if they were not "large and showy." However, the size of the pin was left to the conscience of the individual. So we have adopted a policy that a person who is wearing a wedding band may not be accepted into the fellowship of church membership. However, they might take a half dozen of those rings and have them put together to form some kind of a pin to be worn on a dress and that would be no barrier to their joining the Church. How can we justify such judging of people's eligibility for membership in the Church Jesus is building?

Is not the criteria for membership in God's Church "such as should be saved"? Are not all God's children eligible for membership in His Church? Can we refuse those whom He accepts? Is it right for us to say, "Lord, You may be able to fellowship them, but we cannot"? Is our standard of holiness higher than His? Do we consider ourselves holier than He to whom the angels sing, "Holy, Holy, Holy"? Have we been too judgmental of some of His children? If so, would we not stand condemned before Him? For that would He not call us to repentance?

I am aware that the Church must make judgments against sin and exercise proper discipline. It would not be right to accept for membership those who though professing salvation are guilty of sins for which they would need to be excluded in the next business meeting. Paul names some works of the flesh in Galatians chapter 5 and declares that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. He names "adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like" (vv. 19-21). Those whom the Scriptures declare ineligible for the kingdom of God are, understandably, ineligible for membership in the Church of God.

Paul instructed the church at Corinth to put away from among them a fornicator. He said, "if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat" (1 Corinthians 5:11).

Sin and holiness are not compatible, and the Church must remain firm in its stand against sin. Some things, however, are only marks of spiritual immaturity and we must be able to distinguish the difference. To label as sin things that simply show evidence of immaturity is usually a mark of a judgmental spirit or at best immaturity on the part of the critic.

When Peter wrote concerning the subjection of Christian wives to their husbands so that the unsaved husbands might become believers, he emphasized that the wives' adorning should be that of a meek and quiet spirit. In the absence of such a spirit substitutes of outward adorning would be vain. He said, "Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price" (1 Peter 3:3, 4).

Paul went a little further in his epistle to Timothy and suggested modest apparel for the women, and while Peter wrote that their adorning be not the putting on of apparel, Paul designated that it not be an adorning with "costly array" (1 Timothy 2:9). Now it seems easy for us to turn the emphasis of these scriptures away from the meek and quiet spirit that is being advocated to an emphasis against plaiting the hair, wearing of gold and wearing expensive clothing.

It seems easier for us to judge externals than to judge the spirit a person has. There are some who specialize in externals, whose hair, dress and adornment seem quite in order but whose critical attitudes and judgmental spirits identify them with the Pharisees, whom Jesus compared to whited sepulchres, which outwardly appeared clean and white but inside were full of dead men's bones. O that all of us could possess inward purity and fervent love for one another! Harsh, critical spirits then no longer would exist.

Our lives should be dedicated to reaching a world of lost people, for the glory of God. Whatever we may be doing that hinders the effectiveness of our Christian testimony we should be willing to lay aside. Those members who are putting on their wedding bands in defiance of the Church's teaching do not have the General Overseer's approval. Why would anyone desire to wear excessive makeup or jewelry when it makes their testimony less effective? At the same time it seems unreasonable for a person who has no reticence about putting color on his/her hair to be critical of others who may put some color on their faces. How do we justify the condemnation of a wedding band on one's finger while allowing for five times that much metal to be worn as an ornament pinned on a garment or worn in the hair.

If we are going to condemn one it seems reasonable to condemn all. But must we do that? We have seen neckties condemned, curling or straightening the hair condemned, luxury automobiles condemned, expensive clothing condemned, expensive homes condemned. Must the Church enter into such judgments? Are not these things better left to the conscience of the individual? The words of Jesus remain the same: "Judge not, that ye be not judged."

The 80th Assembly in 1985 endorsed a simple lifestyle as more in keeping with the example set for us by our Lord. "What would Jesus do?" is still an appropriate question for each of us to ask in all matters of conduct. Can we not depend upon the grace of God to teach us to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts and to live soberly, righteously and godly in this present world?

Grace is a great teacher. Grace does not condone sin, it is not even tolerant of sin; it gives us the victory over sin. At the same time it is tolerant of immaturity in the Christian walk. It allows time for spiritual growth, a time of forbearing one another in love while we are coming into the unity of the faith.

To live in the grace of God is not to lower the standard for God's Church. It it the raising of the standard from the legalistic spirit of the old covenant to the beauty of the covenant that has its power in the relationship one has with Jesus Christ, wherein His word, by the power of His blood, is written in the hearts of His children. In this grace we will love one another with pure hearts, fervently, not judging, not condemning, but rather "endeavoring to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

The teaching against wearing gold for ornament first appeared in the Assembly Minutes in 1914. Then in 1922 a book was published by our Publishing House entitled Book of Doctrines which elaborated on the prominent teachings of the Church. On this teaching the following was written:

"Gold serves a real purpose in the world—but not as an ornament, worn for the sole purpose of saying—'Look, I am wealthy, I can afford to spend my money for something that serves no purpose.' This is true of all jewelry, such as pins, rings, broaches, etc. of great cost.

"There is considerable feeling about the wedding ring, a little inexpensive ring that tells the story of wedlock to all. In New York City, as in most northern states, people look askance at the girl who is acting like a married woman, and even has children, but they do not see the wedding ring. In that case the wedding ring serves a very important purpose. There may be sections of the country where so much honor is not given the wedding ring. The wedding ring is not worn for ornament. It should not be expensive, not over five dollars. But Church of God people do not feel disposed to be controlled by custom in wearing wedding rings" (pp. 124, 125).

So far as I am able to determine this remained as the Church's position on this teaching until 1944, at which time the Assembly took a much harder position in its elaboration upon this teaching. That year the following statement was approved: "If people are wearing gold for ornament, ninety-nine times out of one hundred, you will find some other sins in their lives."

So in a little over twenty years we went from the position of saying that the wedding ring serves a very important purpose, making an exception for it, to a rather dogmatic position, making no exception, and labeling anyone who wears one as a sinner.

Now I am not necessarily advocating a return to our earlier position which made an exception for the wedding band, but I do feel the statement approved by the Assembly in 1944 was extreme in labeling anyone who wears gold for ornament as a sinner. No distinction is made in this statement as to whether reference is made only to those who are members of the Church. I can see where Christians who are non-members could be offended by this statement whereby they feel we are judging them as sinners just because they are wearing a wedding band.

I do not believe we should make that judgment.

Even if we are speaking only of Church members I consider this to be an extremely harsh statement. Since it labels the wearing of gold for ornament a sin does that classify those ministers who are wearing tie pins and cuff links as sinners? If they are sinners they would need to surrender their licenses. Then how about those bishops' and deacons' wives who are wearing jewelry on their clothing or in their hair? Are we saying they are sinners? If so these bishops and deacons may have to surrender their licenses until their wives repent and get saved. One may say "O we allow for gold pins and broaches and cuff links, etc." Wherein is our power for such arbitrary allowances?

It seems to me that this statement needs to be reviewed and revised. I have asked the Questions and Subjects Committee to review this ruling of 1944 for a possible revision by the Assembly. This judgment just seems too severe.

It concerns me deeply and it grieves my spirit that we are allowing such small things to claim so much of our attention and to cause so much biting and devouring of one another. Satan must surely be enjoying some of our attitudes. As we prepared to come to this Assembly, I wonder what occupied our minds the most, what our chief concern was. Was it to find greater effectiveness in reaching people who are dropping daily into hell? Or was it to see that "our side wins" in some of these issues Satan is exploiting to divide us and to distract us from our real mission?

O that we could get stirred about reaching people! If we were allowed one glimpse into hell and to see in advance those who are going to be dropping into that horrible pit this year, many of whom may be our own children, surely we could see the folly of judging one another, devouring one another over rings and pins. We must return our focus to our mission!

Following the first part of Brother Murray's presentation, Norma Jean Coalter led the congregation in singing, "Holiness Unto the Lord"; then he led, "All I Need." (The 5-part presentation is available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House and on video tape from the Voice of Salvation.)

Tuesday Afternoon

1:40 Worship and praise directed by Leroy and Chris Greenaway (Canada/East).

2:10 Special Honor to Some Special People was the title of the Ministerial Aid Department service, directed by J. E. Brisson. After reading a tribute to the retired and disabled ministers, he led the Assembly in prayer for those honored, and then coupled ministers under age 35 with those standing to form prayer partners for the coming year. Ron Brisson led in singing, "It Is Well With My Soul," and prayer followed by the director. Concluding Brother Brisson's exhortation on the minister as a shepherd was the song, "Thank You," by Wayne Hall.

3:00 Around the World Reports from 83 State/National Overseers excited the Assembly as some were selected to share their experiences.

Juan Valera Basora, Dominican Republic, "We pray and we work—nothing else." Brother Murray added that when he got to this year's convention their report showed an increase of 1,700 covenanted members, with 493 members added during the convention.

Chris Stathis, Greece, told about his and E. E. Van Deventer's visit to Bulgaria where 73 people joined the Church. This was a new country for the Church this year.

Ruben Carmona, Mexico, "Following the restoration of prayer last year, we reorganized a work with a membership of 30."

Hector Ortiz, Georgia, "We are now making some social outreach video messages that will be aired in the Atlanta area on CNN. In our convention this year we had four wonderful moves of the Spirit—a lady who had been backsliden for twenty years prayed through to the Holy Ghost and another was saved, people were healed, and many refreshed."

Levi Clarke, Zaire, "In 1982, the government was very hostile toward the Church, but April 1 we received a document of permission to preach throughout the Republic of Cameroon. This year God helped us to gain 1,500 members and organize 15 churches. Mine and my wife's lives were spared when gasoline was poured on an open fire, but God spoke to one of the enemies and he said, "Let them go." (All stood and thanked God for this.)

Wade Phillips, Canada/East, reported a new work in Nova Scotia. Two teams visited about 500 homes and about 70 people were saved in the homes; in a Bible camp with about 140 enrolled 50 more were saved. In the national convention a few days later, the people gave in cash and pledges $10,000 to $12,000 for the work. The Noel Richards family moved in the area. He said, "We have contacts in New Brunswick, and we are expecting a church to be organized this year."

Juan Vital-Hern, Haiti, "Starting our restoration program in the Port-au-Prince church right after the Assembly last year, we had a forty-day session of prayer for those who had left the Church. Letters were sent and people were called and many came back to the church.

"After three months of prayer and visiting involving all departments and auxiliaries (before our crusade in June) many backsliders saw visions of glory, demon-possessed people were delivered and the sick healed. An 18-year-old girl was brought, prayed for and healed. She did not have to go to the Voodoo priest to which her father had decided to resort to; he started attending the services as well.

"During the crusade 373 people were saved, numbers baptized with the Holy Ghost and 25 backsliders were reclaimed. A young man whose parents belonged to the Voodoo people was gloriously saved." (All stood and prayed in concert for Haiti.)

4:00 The afternoon closed with songs from various artists as introduced by Thomas Duncan, Broadcast Record Club Director.

5:05 Adjourned by everyone saying, "Praise the Lord."

7:00 Tomlinson College Program, directed by Perry E. Gillum, President. Duke and Shirlene Stone and Tim Coalter gave praise in song. Following the introduction of new staff members, Melvin Hyatt and Larry Duncan related how that TC students held 30 revivials, had an active Monday night Sharing Eternal Life visitation, and how the children's ministry (Soldiers Under Construction) ministered to over 1,000 children in the past year.

Brother Duncan spoke of how Tomlinson College was fulfilling its part in the Great Commission. Training sessions were held in Romania and Latin America to better prepare the ministry in the work that lies ahead. Brother Gillum told of International Youth Camp convening on the campus this year. $6,000 was given for Victory Chapel and upon its top is a cross symbolizing the college's aim to maintain excellence in spirituality. Duke and Shirlene Stone closed the program with the song, "Jesus Made a Believer Out of Me."

9:40 REPORT OF THE GENERAL PROPERTIES COMMITTEE

It is by the grace of God through our Lord Jesus Christ, in whom we live, and move, and have our being, that this Committee submits the following report to this General Assembly.

During this year we have endeavored by the help and guidance of the Holy Ghost to be good stewards of that which has been committed to us by the General Assembly of the Church, namely the care and maintenance of the church properties at General Headquarters, including the Tomlinson College property.

In preparing the Assembly Tabernacle to meet state and local fire codes, it was necessary to construct fire walls, stairwells, and fire escapes in the two front corners of the Tabernacle.

Word has been received from the Fire Marshal that all remaining requirements must be completed within ninety (90) days of July 1, 1991. The Committee advised the Fire Marshal that it will be impossible for us to meet the ninety (90) day deadline and the Tabernacle will not be used for further meetings until all requirements have been met. We have assured the Marshal that we desire to cooperate with him and meet all necessary requirements as soon as possible.

In addition to regular repairs and maintenance, a room in the Communications building was air conditioned for use by the Voice of Salvation in which to store video tapes.

During the year the Tabernacle was made available to church and community gatherings for a nominal gift to help defray maintenance costs.

A piece of property adjacent to the Keith Street church was sold to the church for $6,000.

The committee approved payment for carpet and repairs to specific buildings, areas of offices, and hallways at Tomlinson College.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the cooperation and good will we have received from those with whom we have worked this year, and we consider it a privilege and honor to have served the Lord and His Church in this capacity.

Respectfully submitted,

9:44 ASSEMBLY TASK FORCE STUDY REPORT

A Study Report
Regarding the Assembly Tabernacle and the Location and Timing of Future Assemblies

INTRODUCTION:

As members of the task force, we feel honored to have been selected by the Administrative Committee to serve the Church by gathering information for this research study. Many hours of inquiry, dialoque, and prayer have been dedicated toward the presentation of this report. Our hope and prayer is that it will assist the Assembly in making a wise decision concerning this subject.

This report is based on section #6 of the Questions and Subjects Committee report to the 84th Annual General Assembly which states: "In view of the complicated and demanding financial burdens, and the compelling practical factors related to convening the General Assembly, be it resolved, that a comprehensive study be made in the coming year by the Administrative Committee, or a Task Force they may choose, to determine the most acceptable location and time for convening the General Assembly." The Tabernacle stands as a tribute to those who so faithfully gave of their time and resources. If the Assembly is to be held here it should be kept in good repairs meeting all specified code requirements and available for public use at all times.

TABERNACLE UPKEEP

Viewing the Tabernacle strictly in business terms, it must be recognized that the money already invested in its erection and maintenance is merely "sunk costs," or in other words, money already spent and is therefore irrelevant to current decisions which have to be made. Notification has been given to General Overseer, Bishop Murray, by Fire Marshall, J. W. Dodd, that the remaining fire violations must be completed by October 1, 1991. The approximate cost for the completion of these violations is $80,000 to $100,000.

USE OF TABERNACLE

It is the consensus of this Task Force that the General Assembly should be held in the Tabernacle until further study and other plans have been properly considered and implemented by the General Assembly.

The building is presently used for B.T.I., local graduations, Tennessee State Convention and other special services. This should be continued if it remains feasible for those involved to do so. The Tabernacle should be made available for any suitable religious function or activity provided reasonable rules established by the General Properties Committee be followed by those using the facility. A fee covering the operational costs of those events should be received.

We recognize that the usage of the Tabernacle is very limited and that fees from such usage will never be nearly enough to cover the heavy financial burden of maintaining the property. In light of this fact, the facility may prove to be impractical to the long range planning of the Church. At that time, further study would need to be given to the possibility of disposition of the property.

Whether an Assembly is held in Cleveland or elsewhere, the cost is enormous. According to our research, we present the following accounting of Assembly costs:

Present and Future Expenses of Holding Annual Assemblies in Cleveland, Tennessee

I. Present Operational Cost Based Over the Previous Five Years
- A. Tabernacle Upkeep Average Per Year $151,490.00*
- B. Assembly Expenses Average Per Year $129,383.00*
- C. Assembly Expense Average Per Year State and National Overseers ..... $ 141,025.00
- D. Total Average Per Year ..... $ 421,898.00

II. Projected Cost by 1996
(Based on a conservative 10% cost increase, i.e. Utilities, Insurance, Building, and Grounds, Assembly Expenses, etc. $757,886.00

Expense of Holding an Assembly at Another Location

(ASSEMBLIES HELD EVERY TWO YEARS)

Taking into account the present financial burden and future projected cost that is and will be placed upon the Church by having a General Assembly every year, consideration for an Assembly to be held every two years makes good economic sense.

It is costing the Church approximately $270,408.00 for Assembly Expense every year, plus yearly Tabernacle upkeep. Should General Assemblies be held every two years, funds saved in the General Treasury and elsewhere could enable us to strengthen the present position of our work and to reach out into new areas with the gospel message.

GENERAL ASSEMBLIES HELD AT OTHER LOCATIONS

The Church of God is an international body. Therefore, no nation or people should feel privileged above any other of its fellow brethren; we are one (1 Cor. 12:12-20).

The Church is now established in some ninety countries, of the approximately 20,000 who attend the General Assembly only about 1,500 or less than 1% are delegates from countries outside the U.S.A. This should be a concern for a Church which claims to be an "All Nations Church."

In light of this fact, the time may be near when the General Assembly would need to consider moving to other locations so that more of our people would have opportunity to attend this great spiritual celebration. Since there are advantages and disadvantages in this process, we must be willing to consider one another (2 Cor. 8:13, 14).

If the location for the Assembly was rotated among major cities of the world, the Church could have a positive impact on those cities and help make the Church known, as well as give others a better opportunity to attend.

If an Assembly is held in Cleveland or elsewhere, the cost is great. There are areas in which the Assembly could be moved without a significant increase in cost. Long range planning must be undertaken in making necessary arrangements and in negotiating with facilities in order to obtain all the benefits possible for large groups.

10:50 Bible Training Institute Program, directed by Ray C. Wynn, Superintendent. Theme: Bible Accountability. Brother Wynn read scriptures and commented briefly. Londa Richarson led congregation in songs of praise. Boonyong Bureenok, Overseer of Thailand, led congregation in prayer for BTI throughout the world. The Representatives spoke about their work:

Benjamin Lawrence: BTI began in Nairobi, Kenya, November, 1985. Although our people there knew nothing about the Church at that time, through teaching the "all things" as commanded by the Great Commission given to the Church, we have had three graduating classes there in six years.

The first BTI was held in Kinshara, Zaire, where there were many French-speaking people who loved the Lord and wanted to know Him better.

In New York, we had our first tri-lingual BTI—Spanish, French and English.

Jose Rivera: Many exciting things have happened in our thirty-five Spanish schools this past year. With prearrangements made by Cuban Overseer Roberto Lam Enrique with the government, we had BTI in his home with 24 students. Everything there is getting ready for the harvest. Most of the students were young. There is a great awakening in Cuba and a great hunger for God.

The Superintendent told of courses offered by the Department, and presented R. O. Covey, the author of the latest book on the KNOW YOUR BIBLE SERIES, "The Church of God at Corinth."

3:45 REPORT OF THE TOMLINSON COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Tomlinson College Board of Trustees conducted three meetings this year: August 1990, January 1991, and April 1991. Minutes of these meetings were recorded and are on file in the office of the President.

This year is the college's silver anniversary. Twenty-five years ago, on September 23, 1966, the college opened its doors as an institution of higher education of the Church of God of Prophecy. The motto and theme of the institution was determined to be "Scholarship with Spirit." We are proud of the accomplishments of the alumni, faculty, and administrations that have served the college.

On the eve of the 25th anniversary, the President and Board of Trustees made it a physical priority to design and build a college chapel. Victory Chapel, named for the Victory Leaders of the Church of God of Prophecy, was dedicated August 10, 1991. Our students will use this beautiful facility for the first time in the fall semester of 1991. Victory Chapel is located at the center of our campus, and reminds us of our institutional vision that Christ must be exalted as head over all things and His glory shown to all men through this institution. President Gillum's leadership in this project has been instrumental to its success.

During the commencement ceremony in April of this year our second class of baccalaureate students graduated. These students received a baccalaureate degree in Ministry. Many have been successfully placed in ministerial positions within the Church of God of Prophecy, and others have decided to further their education at the graduate level.

President Perry Gillum and his faculty, administration, and support staff are to be commended. They have displayed Christian integrity and a high degree of educational excellence.

We are very pleased to report to this Assembly that Tomlinson College continues to operate with a balanced budget. Fiscal accountability is not only a goal on our campus, but an expected reality. We commend the college administration for their diligence and good stewardship.

The Board of Trustees wishes to express our deep appreciation to Chairman Hubert J. Vicars for his dedication to Tomlinson College. His service over the past decade, and leadership as Chairman this past year, has made a significant contribution to the direction of Tomlinson College. We wish for him and his family the very best.

As Tomlinson College embarks on the next twenty-five years of service to the membership of the Church of God of Prophecy, we are convinced of the viability of this institution. The leadership of our capable staff, and the positive contributions that our students will make to local congregations, will continue to provide for a trained clergy and motivated laity to fulfill the Great Commission of our Lord and Saviour.

3:55 WORLD MISSION COMMITTEE REPORT
June 1, 1990 - May 31, 1991

Greetings to the 86th General Assembly in the wonderful name of Jesus our Lord.

We continue to see the hand of God at work in the world bringing all things in subjection to Himself and giving us our final opportunity to bring the Gospel to the world and the world its final opportunity to hear the Gospel and respond. We therefore see the time as urgent and recommit ourselves to the scriptural mandate, "Go ye therefore and teach (make disciples) of all nations...."

Bishop Felix R. Garcia, a faithful member of this Committee, went to be with the Lord while still in office, December 28, 1990. We thank the Lord for the years that Brother Garcia was with us, and for his enthusiastic efforts towards the cause of Missions. He was always ready, and indeed, anxious to lend his support to whatever benefitted the work. Would this Assembly please join us in standing for a moment in his honor? His family has our continued prayers.

The Church's work continues to expand through the faithful efforts of our Overseers, Missionaries, Pastors, Evangelists, Corpsmen and local lay leaders. Reports reaching us as of this writing, indicate 146 churches organized with 15,156 new members added. In addition, three new countries join our family of nations, i.e., Togo, West Africa; Pakistan in South Asia; and Bulgaria in the Balkan States. Togo was organized October 19, 1990 with 11 members by Brother Eric Tondoh. He and Brother Sherman Allen are to be commended for their efforts over the years. Pakistan, an effort started by former Mission Representative, Bobby R. Snow was organized May 24th, 1991 by present Mission Representative, Daniel J. Corbett. Commendations are also due these brethren. Since this report will be read in August, we would also like to mention the organization of the Church in Rousse, Bulgaria, by Mission Representative, E. E. Van Deventer and Overseer of Greece, Chris Stathis. This took place June 30th, 1991 with 72 members. We are grateful to these brethren for their labors. Commendations are also due Brother James Dyer for the reorganization of the work in Malaysia in several new areas.

The entire Christian world has been excited about the changes in countries formerly closed to the gospel, especially the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe. This Committee acknowledges with gratitude the goodwill and hopeful contacts established with our fellow-believers in these areas.

Brother Chris Stathis has done much good work over several years and World Missions appreciates his efforts. Several from General Headquarters and the field visited brethren in both Romania and the Soviet Union and efforts are under way through the White Wing Publishing House, Tomlinson College and World Missions to assist with materials, equipment and ministerial training.

Our Mission Homes continue to operate in India, Indonesia, Mexico and Haiti. Presently we are caring for 290 children on a year-round basis. The relocation of the Mission Home in Mexico is still in progress and will be ready for limited occupancy this month. The Haiti Home is now completely paid off and work is continuing on its development. The General Overseer was able to visit both the Mexican and Haitian Homes.

World Mission Drive totals for the 1990/91 fiscal year showed a dollar decrease of $56,414.00 (6%) from 1989/90 but with the U.S. recession and the constant devaluations of various currencies, the rate of giving seems to have held steady. Of the world total of $854,961.73, $269,677.90 was given by the countries and $585,283.83 by the states.

We are grateful for all the special projects and services funded through volunteer giving such as the Helping Hand Ministry (WMB) Mission Markers (CPMA) and a number of individuals. These are evidences that the volunteer spirit of Missions is alive and well in the Church. For this we are truly grateful.

We presently support fully or partially 54 Overseers and their families who supervise 93 countries. Total expenditure amounted to $3,000,246.27. The Committee wishes to commend all who so faithfully labor on the field. We wish to encourage our people to keep up the spirit of generosity until the whole world has heard the good news of the gospel.

4:05 MINISTERIAL AID COMMITTEE REPORT
August 1, 1990 - July 31, 1991

This has been a very active year for the Ministerial Aid Department. In addition to its usual monthly meetings, the committee also met on several other occasions to transact Ministerial Aid business.

The committee approved 73 applications, which included 36 for retirement, 12 for disability, 24 for widows/widowers of deceased ministers, and 1 lay employee. Presently, there are 549 ministers receiving retirement benefits and 200 receiving disability benefits. In addition, there are 218 widows/ widowers of ministers receiving assistance and 19 lay employees are receiving retirement benefits for a total of 986 recipients. The committee processed and approved 87 death benefits in the total amount of $81,800.00 This included 82 ministers and 5 companions of deceased ministers.

The Minister's Tax Sheltered Annuity retirement plan with United of Omaha has 311 active participants. We also have 105 ministers who administer their own personal retirement plan. Deferred Compensation benefits paid by headquarters for 1990-91 was $218,190.78.

The Ministerial Aid Committee is very concerned about the needs of our worthy ministers and widows. We have endeavored to assist each applicant on the basis of faithfulness and the number of years actively engaged in the ministry as is defined in the manual, General Policies of Ministerial Aid Committee.

Ministerial Aid Plan, Status

The year 1991 has brought us to the point that we must face the crisis that has been evident to the committee for several years. Inasmuch as we are presently $1,142,701.80 in deficit spending as of June 30, 1991 in the Ministerial Aid fund, we know that the trend must be stopped; therefore, the following step is being taken.

The Ministerial Aid Plan, i.e., the monthly benefits to retired ministers and widows/widowers, will be as follows:

1. All who are on the plan as it now stands and all who come on it in its adjusted form will receive their benefits, as funds are available, until the Lord calls them home, providing they remain faithful to the Church and continue to meet the requirements.

2. Beginning September 1, 1992, there will be a planned freeze on the present program. Those eligible for retirement/disability during the 1992-1993 Church year will receive benefits at 100% of the regular scale. However, for the next seven years, benefits will be adjusted as indicated in the scale below.

Sept. 1, 1992-Aug. 31, 1993 100% of the regular benefits
Sept. 1, 1993-Aug. 31, 1994 85% of the regular benefits
Sept. 1, 1994-Aug. 31, 1995 70% of the regular benefits
Sept. 1, 1995-Aug. 31, 1999 55% of the regular benefits

By implementing these changes over a period of eight years, those nearing retirement will have the benefit of some help while they invest in a retirement vehicle of their choosing.

The Ministerial Aid Committee is pursuing a retirement plan that hopefully every minister will have opportunity to participate in. More information about this plan will he forthcoming.

Church Benefit Association

A group life insurance plan has been administered by the Church Benefit Association and Life Insurance Company of North America.

LINA is carrying 2,201 policies on our church members, and from June 1, 1990 through May 31, 1991, has processed 81 death claims for a total of $127,000.00 in benefits being paid to beneficiaries of our Church members. We are very proud that we have been able to upgrade our coverage and can offer our Church members the best rates available for quality life insurance. Our Insurance Department is solid and has much to offer.

Wednesday Evening

6:30 Worship directed by Jesse and Isabel Yanez (East Texas).

7:05 World Language Program—directed by Henry O'Neal. He read Acts 2:8-11 and exhorted on the need to have literature in peoples' own language. Brother O'Neal then directed a tribute to Felix Garcia, former World Language Secretary, who passed away December 28, 1990. Jose Jimenez shared a personal testimony about the years spent with his brother-in-law and encouraged the Assembly to remember Brother Garcia by continuing to support the World Language Department. Brother O'Neal presented a plaque to June Garcia, honoring her husband's work. As her daughter and grandson came to the platform, the Assembly responded with a standing ovation.

David Baroni closed the tribute with the song, "Giving His Word to the World," written especially for Brother Garcia prior to his death.

Brother O'Neal told last year of our not having a Russian translator, no literature in Russian and no contacts. Today we have $60,000 worth of equipment ready to be sent to the Ukrain and a business man there is going to set up and run it. We are printing Russian tracts and we have two Russian translators. (He called John Doroshuk to the platform who greeted the Assembly in Russian.)

7:45 John Doroshuk and Sherman Allen completed the World Language program by familiarizing the delegates with the needs and happenings in Russia and Africa, respectively.

Thursday Afternoon

1:30 Worship directed by Enos and Evelyn Gardiner (Massachusetts).

2:00 Sunday School and Children's Ministries Program, directed by Harold D. Hunter, Secretary. Theme: "Amazing Grace."

Inspirational information from around the world was shared as the delegates heard Sunday school news from Costa Rica and Heritage Care news from India.

Costa Rica overseer, Francisco Lopez Paz, spoke of how one Sunday school birthed 12 missions, while D. Joseph, overseer of India, expounded on the needs of our leper colony church and the joy with which they receive even the smallest gift. Particularly distressing though was how the 140-strong Children's Home in India was forced to turn away an additional 150 children because of meager resources.

Children's Ministries by Sondra Hunter. She spoke briefly about this ministry and the need for training workers, Assembly activities and experiences received and introduced Bible Memory Club members.

A skit followed depicting Captain John Newton (who penned Amazing Grace).

3:20 Message by Harold Hunter, continuing with the theme "Amazing Grace." Brother Hunter expressed his heartfelt need for worldwide vision and care for one another. This 2-part message printed in the October 26 and November 9 issues of the White Wing Messenger are available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House and on video tape from the Voice of Salvation.

3:53 Tabernacle Concert Choir sang "Amazing Grace."

4:25 Adjourned.

Thursday Evening

6:30 Musical concert by Bahama Brass Band.

7:00 World Mission Program, directed by Adrian L. Varlack, Secretary. Theme: "Jesus Take Charge...to unite us in Missions."

Glen Varlack gave short testimony and the Varlack children sang two songs.

Introductions and comments, Mission Representatives were seated on the platform: Forty-four Overseers out of 54 were represented and 83 countries out of 95.

The Varlack children led in singing "Send the Light" as an offering was received for special mission needs.

7:40 International Workers Roundtable Scriptural setting—Acts 26:26. The speakers were seated around a table. Brother Varlack addressed the need of getting the gospel to the world.

Africa: Cameroon Overseer Levi Clarke testified to his and his wife's miraculous delivery from a fiery road block.

South Africa: Monde Kota, Overseer of Transkei and Ciskei, told how although the political system does not allow the Church to function as the model of unity, it has always maintained an openness to all.

Ntambwe Beya, Zaire: Levi Clarke interpreting said that the Church in Zaire has obtained recognition to operate by a Presidential Decree.

Sierra Leone, W. A.: Field Secretary Joseph Sesay explains that although Sierra Leone is now a dominantly Muslim society, the Church is actively involved in witnessing to the Muslims.

Asia, Australia and Pacific Islands: Daniel J. Corbett, Mission Representative, introduced India Overseer D. Joseph who explained that only 30 percent of the people there can read and write meaning that our literature is ineffective; thus, they must send people (most of the time on foot) to share the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Pastor Paul Selvadural, also from India, told how in his affliction he (a Hindu) cried out to God one day and said, "Whoever You are, I need You." He was in Malaysia and the Lord gave him a vision that two people visited him. James Dyer and his wife visited him. The door was opened for him, and he is now pastoring three churches.

Thailand: Overseer Boonyong Bureenok said instability of the Thai government has affected the Church. Inasmuch as they are now in an economic boom, the government is beginning to open the door for social workers to come into the country.

8:25 Brother Varlack presented two Pennsylvania churches with Mission Church of the Year Awards: Philadelphia (Front St.)—Enrique Kelly, pastor; New Eagle, Edward Burdett, pastor; Robert Bradley, Overseer. (Those around the table left and others took their places.)

8:30 Daniel Felipe, Overseer of Brazil, sang in Portuguese.

8:32 Caribbean and Atlantic Ocean Islands, Arthur C. Moss, Representative. He introduced his guests.

Leeward and Virgin Islands and Netherlands Antilles: Rufus Rogers Overseer said that as a result of the contact in French Guyana they had contacted a congregation in Surinam, recently organizing a Spanish church in the BVI and an English church in Antiqua.

Dominican Republic: Overseer Juan Valera told of the General Overseer visiting the convention there, accompanied by Brother Varlack. Because public figures cause great excitement, a security group was organized. Our guests were given the VIP treatment.

Haiti: Overseer Jean E. Vital-Herne testified to the Lord's blessing Haiti with the opening of an orphanage last year; also to their contact with the Eben-Ezer/Pentecostal group with more than 20,000 members. Our General Overseer informed me that the leader of that group wishes us to set a date for a meeting with his workers so they can join with us in the near future. Brother Vital-Herne told the Assembly.

Europe and the Middle East: Representative E. E. Van Deventer told how that in the major cities where we have churches, our people are on the streets regularly to publicize the Gospel. There is a site in London where Italians, French, Norwegians and various other people have been saved. They return to their countries to establish a work for the Church.

Germany: Pastor Clayton Endecott, Jr. says that the euphoria of the unification is probably over, and they find themselves to be a land of almost only one language. Experiencing differing cultures and the great financial burden for reconstruction, the people are searching for something to fill their hearts; therefore, there is a new openness and responsiveness to the Gospel.

Greece: Overseer Chris Stathis explains that the churches now being influenced by the Western churches fear a splintering due to the Western churches' bringing different doctrines. Before the Iron Curtain fell, there was great passion in their worship services because it was dangerous to attend church. Without the danger, there is less excitement. We have responded with organizational aid and tried to help them organize in such a way that they will be able to endure this new-found freedom.

USSR: Roman Bilas with his interpreter John Asachyou, mentioned that, Perestroika brought freedom to the Soviet people and the Pentecostals got opportunity to make our union. They have begun to consider Christians as people and prisoners who were believers are being set free. Our country has to hear the message about Christ, because Christ is coming to this earth soon.

Mexico, South and Central America: Representative Raul Torres introduced guests.

Mexico: Overseer Ruben Carmona said, "Even though we have our own printing shop in Mexico and our local churches are the greatest potential to evangelize Mexico City, the real problem is the arrangements to take away religious liberty."

Peru: Overseer Erasmo Fabian describes their sad dilemma: "The cholera epidemic has brought chaos to our country. We did not have sufficient medical supplies. There were 2,000,000 cases recorded, 160,000 died; six of our people were affected and one died. Peru was also affected by earthquakes. One local church lost its building, and one family lost their home. From our National Missions Fund assistance was sent to the areas that were affected."

El Salvador: Overseer David Ortiz expressed his gratitude that the General Overseer, accompanied by Brother Torres, visited their national convention, where three persons were added to the Church. They organized a mission that is operating well.

Music by Bahama Brass Band while platform was cleared.

9:50 Brother Varlack presented certificates to World Mission Corpsmen who had returned home: Jim and Joyce Endecott; Tim and Billie Rae Charles.

9:52 Our Mission to the Nations—People's Parade: Bahama Brass Band played as girls with Church flags marched around the platform and lined up facing each other. Band played "Bring Them In" as these marched down the aisle: Togo (organized October 19, 1990) represented by Sherman Allen; Pakistan (organized May 24, 1991) represented by Dan Corbett; Bulgaria (organized June 30, 1991) represented by E. E. Van Deventer. Girl dressed in blue as representative of the Truth came to platform and the three representatives lay down their national banners and accepted the All Nations flag, our symbol of unity. The girls with flags marched by showing their welcome to the new churches and then marched out of the auditorium, representing their going as representatives of our workers and missionaries in the churches in the world. This is a call for workers. (Band played "Win the Lost At Any Cost.") Christ will build the Church if we exalt Him.

10:24 Altar invitation, consecration and dedication by Leroy Greenaway (Eastern Canada). Altar music by the Varlack children.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 16
Morning

7:00 Unstructured prayer in the auditorium.
8:00 Bible study by Melvin Hyatt.
9:00 Worship directed by Danny and Rosa Ramirez (California).
9:30 The Questions and Subjects Committee was seated on stage and their preliminary report was read in its entirety by chairman Cervin McKinnon. It was decided that each section of the report would be presented individually and discussed to a decision.

Section 1 part A dealt with local church incorporation. Since no concerns regarding the section were evident, it was quickly accepted as follows:

83rd Annual Assembly Minutes, Page 45, Section 4
Local Church Incorporation

Rationale

In many cases, it simplifies business transactions for local churches and states to be incorporated. It has been brought to our attention that some local churches are incorporating without the knowledge of the state office, and possibly becoming more independent in their local operations.

Therefore, we move the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolution

Local churches must have the consent of the State Overseer to incorporate. The State Overseer should work with the local church in drawing up the articles of incorporation, seeing there is no violation of previous Assembly rulings in regard to holding, encumbering, selling or purchasing of church property. We further recommend that the General Property Trustees draw up a standard set of articles of incorporation which could be used by states and local churches" (83rd AM, 1988, sec. 4, 45).

To be revised as follows:

LOCAL CHURCH AND STATE INCORPORATION FOR THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Rationale

In some cases, it enhances business transactions for local churches and states to be incorporated. It has been brought to our attention that some local churches, as well as some states/commonwealths, have incorporated without proper notification of State/General Headquarters.

Resolution

Realizing that each state/commonwealth may be governed differently, we recommend that the "Articles Of Incorporation," which the Church's attorney drew up for the State of Tennessee, be used as a guideline for other local/state/commonwealth incorporations, as applicable; said incorporation is to include the notification of State Headquarters by local churches and General Headquarters by states/commonwealths. State/Commonwealth Headquarters may provide such guidelines for local churches.

Section 1 part B was a rewriting of a 1947 Questions and Subjects section regarding church work among races. After some questions and comments, a few words were changed in the committee recommendation and the section was passed by the Assembly as follows:

42nd Annual Assembly Minutes, 1947, page 124, Section 8

We recommend that Section 8 of the Questions and Subjects Committee report to the 42nd Annual Assembly, 1947, page 124, Section 8, be changed to read as follows:

It is the desire and aim of the Church to encourage and promote the work among all nations, which includes all races. Therefore, we recommend all appointments not previously made available to all races/nationalities be made available to all races/nationalities on the General/National/State/ District/Local levels. Said appointments are to be made of able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness, with race not being a determining factor giving due consideration to the language of those to whom we are ministering.

Section 1 part C was titled Deacon Ordination. After much discussion, the section was tabled.

Section 1 part D was in regard to the composition of Headquarters Committees and was divided into two subdivisions. The Assembly passed part one and agreed to bring the other section back later. Part 1 passed as such:

Composition of Headquarters Committees

Rationale

Throughout the years, the Assembly, in recommending the formation of certain General Headquarters Committees, has, at times, designated those filling particular positions to form these committees.

Resolution

a. Inasmuch as the Assembly has mandated a combining of General Headquarters departments, we recommend that during the time of reorganization the selection of General Headquarters Committees be left to the discretion of the General Overseer as opposed to being filled by designated office holders. We further recommend that the number on each committee not be restricted.

b. Traditionally, we have been restricted in the use of titles for departments and department heads. We recommend the General Overseer in consultation with the administrative committee be given the freedom to change titles of departments and/or department heads as the need arises.

Section 1 part E was a recommendation concerning the formation of a General Presbytery. After some concerns were aired, the section was passed with a few dissenting brethren submitting to the direction of the Assembly.

General Presbytery

Rationale

At present, the presbytery is formed of the General Overseer and the State/National Overseers. Traditionally, the General Overseer has called upon members of the General Headquarters staff to perform certain presbyterial duties under his delegated authority.

It would seem appropriate for members of the General Headquarters staff, who perform presbyterial duties, to participate in meetings of the presbytery. Exclusion of these persons from the presbytery also precludes direct involvement in the present vacancy and selection procedures in regards to the office of General Overseer. It is evident that, by virtue of their general leadership roles and close working relationships with the General Overseer, their contributions, particularly in the areas of vacancy and selection, would be invaluable.

Resolution

We recommend the formation of a General Presbytery, with this presbytery being comprised of all bishops on the General Headquarters staff and State/National Overseers.

The final preliminary recommendation relative to prior Assembly actions was section 1 part F concerning the rewriting of a 1944 statement that classified all gold for ornament as sin. Following many concerns, prayers, and a call to order the Assembly passed to table the committee recommendation. The General Overseer asked for further study on the subject, and the respecting of one another without condemnation.

Section 2 of the committee report supported the current position of the Church on the subject of Abortion. While many concerns were voiced, the recommendation was passed with the understanding that it would continue to be studied.

Abortion

This committee has devoted much time studying our present position on abortion. We have also listened to the views of many others on the subject. For the present time it seems that what we have on record (76th AM, 1981, p. 136, QSC) relevant to this subject is sufficient.

3:00 Intermission.

4:20 Prayer by Congregation.

4:21 Questions and Subjects Committee continued their report.

Following prayer for God's direction, the extended business session resumed with the reading of section three (entitled The General Assembly and Tabernacle) by Questions and Subjects Committee chairman Cervin McKinnon. After many questions were raised, the General Overseer excused the committee with the understanding that their report would resume at 8:00 o'clock Saturday morning (thus postponing Brother Hyatt's Bible study).

Friday Evening

5:15 "Ministering to People at the Point of Their Need" was the theme of the Pastoral Care Department program moderated by Director J. E. Brisson. Brother Brisson expounded on James 2:15, 16 encouraging us that God would not forget our labor of love and that our life should echo to the world that we are the children of God.

Prayer was offered by the Assembly in behalf of broken and hurting families everywhere, emphasizing the need to care one for another. Pastor Tommy Barlow shared a touching testimony of how God ministered through people, which helped him overcome a family tragedy.

6:10 "Pastoral Care"—Message by J. E. Brisson. (This message printed in the January 18, 1992 issue of the White Wing Messenger is available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House and on video tape from the Voice of Salvation.)

Director Verlin Thornton shared the results from the national evangelists' activities: 389 revivals, 1,580 saved, 1,429 sanctified, and 616 baptized in the Holy Ghost. "Obedience in Proclaiming" demonstratd how our people exercised their individual ministries within the body proper; "Obedience in Equipping" encouraged the Sharing Eternal Life clinics continuing on to local church implementation, and "Obedience in Prayer," by Caroline Ledbetter, closed the program as she shared how prayer can change things.

Brother Matthews presented a check to Levi Clarke, Overseer of Zaire and Cameroon, sufficient for forty Zaire and Cameroon pastors to buy glasses due to their affliction of an eye disease.

9:30 Offering received while Duke Stone led congregation in choruses. Song by Tiffany Stone (Oklahoma).

9:35 Roberta Matthews sang "Let the Walls Come Down."

SATURDAY, AUGUST 17
Morning

7:00 Unstructured prayer in the auditorium.

8:00 General Overseer requested the Questions and Subjects Committee to come to the platform as congregation stood and all joined in prayer.

The committee continued with their report from Friday with the discussion of section three that dealt with the General Assembly and Tabernacle. It was decided to examine the two paragraphs of the section separately: The first paragraph was to require additional work; while paragraph B was accepted (as follows), with the brethren who disapproved submitting.

"In view of the fact that our Assembly expenses are averaging about $450,000.00 annually, we recommend that we go to an every-other-year assembly, with the first year to omit the assembly being 1993."

It was asked that additional time be allotted for the tabled sections to return to the floor. The General Overseer responded by giving a 7:00 a.m. starting time Sunday.

9:30 Worship directed by Dennis and Carman Casey (Utah).

9:55 "...And Not to Please Ourselves"—message by Mario Bonilla (New Jersey). (This message printed in the January 18, 1992 issue of the White Wing Messenger is available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House and on video tape from the Voice of Salvation.)

10:20 WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE REPORT

SECTION 1

Stewardship

We, the Ways and Means Committee would like to applaud the many faithful members who work and sacrifice untold hours on various and sundry projects, as well as those who give of their personal finances to raise the necessary funds to carry on all of the ministries within the great Church of God.

However, it can easily be seen that many within the Church are idle and have not joined in this great effort. This great effort to raise the funds that finance the various ministries of the Church is a labor of love. This is just a part of good stewardship.

STEWARDSHIP is a major doctrine in the Bible.

Ezekiel 45:10, "Ye shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath."

There are over two hundred fifty (250) scripture references on the "right attitude" about one's material possession.

Proverbs 16:18, "Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall."

There are over four hundred twenty-five (425) scripture references on the "wrong attitudes."

Proverbs 22:7, "The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender." There are over fifty (50) references to credit.

Job 41:11, "Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine."

The topic of giving runs all the way from the least, a tithe, to giving everything, with over three hundred (300) references.

There are several hundreds more on a variety of topics, all dealing with stewardship.

We can see by the many scriptures that God intended his people to be good stewards.

In an effort to encourage the many faithful ones and to teach and equip those who are idle, but want to please God, lessons have been prepared and will be available for distribution in the near future.

We recommend this material be used as directed by the State/National Overseers to teach and train our people in proper Bible Stewardship.

SECTION 2

Fourth Sunday Offering

Several years ago, Overseers were unable to travel as necessary, because they simply had no funds for the expense.

To help provide funds for the Overseer, in 1927 the 22nd General Assembly first instituted the Fourth Sunday Overseer's Offering Plan.

This plan has had several adjustments and has worked quite well over the years.

However, in the area where the work is small, some assistance has been given from the General Treasurer Tithe Fund to enable the Overseer to carry on his duties.

In other areas the work has grown and funds are available to take care of the Overseer's expenses, as approved by the Finance and Appropriations Committee.

We, therefore, recommend that the receiving of the Fourth Sunday State/National Overseer's Offering be discontinued effective June 1, 1992.

This will allow the Fourth Sunday to be used by the local churches to promote funds for their local needs.

However, should the State/National Finance and Appropriations Committee desire that the local churches give the Fourth Sunday Offering for the State Overseer's expenses, the Finance and Appropriations Committee may present such a recommendation, as they feel necessary, to the State/National Committee for the convention's consideration.

SECTION 3

Assembly Auxiliary Offerings

In the past years the General Assembly has given consent to Overseers to adjust the dates for fiscal year ending and conventions. This is necessary and good in that it gives the State/National Treasurer time to close the account books in preparation for their convention. It also gives the Overseer the latitude necessary to secure facilities for the convention.

However, in making these adjustments, a lull in the work has been created. In some areas this lull begins with the end of the fiscal year and continues till after the General Assembly or even until the Ministers Convention. In some cases, this amounts to three (3) months.

In other cases, the state/national conventions may be set so close to the Assembly that it does not allow ample time to promote and raise proper funds for the General Assembly Auxiliary Offerings.

In an effort to prevent this lull and close up this gap in our work, we offer the following recommendation:

We recommend the Assembly Auxiliary Offerings be incorporated in the State/National Convention Auxiliary Offerings. Efforts to raise the Convention Auxiliary Offerings should start with the beginning of the new fiscal or convention year, thus eliminating the lull we are experiencing.

In determining the Convention Auxiliary Offerings, considerations should be given so as to include the funds previously raised for the Assembly Auxiliary Offerings. This will insure the continued effectiveness of these ministries.

SECTION 4

Pilot Program

We want to express our appreciation to the pilot states, to each of the pastors and their local churches for their efforts in the "Program." We especially want to thank the Overseers for their efforts in implementing and monitoring the program.

In consultation with the Pilot Overseers, we have found a number of positive aspects to the "Pilot Program" as it had been implemented and tested for three years.

However, our study and analysis also points up several negative aspects. The first negative aspect was the fact of allowing the program to be optional. This optional aspect caused a flawed analysis of the program from the beginning. The pilot overseers feel they would need more time to deal with negatives of the program, possibly one or two years.

After much prayer and discussion in Committee, we would like to bring this General Assembly the following recommendation:

We recommend the Pilot Program be discontinued. The Pilot States and Country revert back to the Present Financial System beginning with the 1991-1993 Convention Years.

The Ways and Means Committee is giving high priority to the drafting of a new comprehensive Church Financial System for General Assembly consideration.

SECTION 5

Surplus Tithes

The General Overseer in consultation with the Administrative Committee, has made numerous adjustments in the past year concerning headquarters expenditures.

Also, because of the anticipated changes in the Assembly Auxiliary Offering and Fourth Sunday Offering, we recommend that no adjustments be made in the distribution of the Surplus Tithes at this time.

2:45 White Wing Publishing House Program, directed by Henry O'Neal, Business Manager. Reports from J. C. Cagle, Sunday School Literature Editor; Louis Sullivan, White Wing Book Store Merchandise Manager, and Chaplain Guy Lindsey were given. Brother O'Neal then dramatically displayed the requests for literature received. The letters, all of which were from outside the United States, were taped together and held up filling nearly seven aisles of the tabernacle. International accounts of progress from India, Thailand, Guatemala and Russia enlivened the congregation as the brethren shared the goodness of God.

3:10 Song by Jerry Nichols (Kansas).

4:30 The CPMA Program, postponed by Friday's extended business, was now presented by General Secretary J. Wendell Lowe. The theme, Fifty Years of Remembrance, was demonstrated by: Remembering Our Roots (a slide presentation), Remembering Fields of the Wood (which displays who He is and who she is), and Remembering Mission Markers.

4:57 Overseer of Honduras Jerry Madrid said, "It is a privilege to express gratitude to a giving people to help the brethren in an area where it is very difficult to have funds for facilities to worship in. In one location for two years they worshipped in homes and saved money to build. They grew in number, secured a loan and purchased a lot. Help from the Mission Marker Program assisted in finishing the building. Thank you for helping to make our ministry a little easier."

5:05 Overseer of Thailand Boonyong Bureenok said, "We have 22 churches organized and ten of them have erected buildings because of assistance from the Mission Marker Program. Earlier we worshipped in houses, under trees and under very adverse conditions. These buildings are reminders of the unity in the Church. Your love and care has been tremendous."

5:10 Remembering Our Purpose—message by J. Wendell Lowe. (This message printed in the October 26, 1991 issue of the White Wing Messenger is available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House and on video tape from the Voice of Salvation.)

Saturday Evening

6:30 Worship directed by Paul and Gloria Williamson (Tennessee).

7:00 Victory Leaders Program, directed by William Wilson, General Victory Leaders Secretary.

The atmosphere was electric, filled with the excitement of youth as the Assembly prepared for the Victory Leaders program entitled, Operation Hope. State leaders dressed in battle fatigues swarmed the stage, leading the congregation with the battle song, "Making War in the Heavenlies," as nearly 5,000 young people flooded in the tabernacle.

Spontaneous praise and worship were sprinkled throughout the evening as the Holy Ghost showered the congregation with blessings through song, declaration and preaching.

Altar music directed by John and Cathy Payne.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 18
Morning

7:07 Prayer by congregation.

7:10 Questions and Subjects Committee chairman Cervin McKinnon read the revised section concerning the Composition of Headquarters Committees and it was accepted by the Assembly. Accepted action:

Rationale

The General Overseer should be "free" to exercise fully his individual gifts and realize the potential for ministering as the Holy Spirit directs. It seems crucial, at this stage, that the holder of the office should be allowed to divest himself, as he deems wise, from areas of administrative duties previously stipulated by General Assemblies, and to delegate responsibilities in line with changes in the dynamics of the body.

Resolution

We recommend that the General Overseer be given the necessary authority to delegate any aspect of his present workload which he might consider to be more appropriately performed by other individuals or committees. Specifically, he should be authorized to appoint board chairmen and board members, as well as Assembly committees. There should be no need for the General Overseer to serve as ex officio chairman of all boards and committees, but he should remain an ex officio member, and, thus, be free to attend meetings as needs arise. The normal consultation between the General Overseer and chairmen of boards and committees should continue.

The next revision was on the Assembly Tabernacle. After some discussion this section was also passed as follows:

Recommendation

A-1 The Assembly Tabernacle Task Force Committee is to be commended for their through study and report to this Assembly. In view of their findings we feel it is time to move ahead with positive action. We therefore recommend that the Administrative Committee be given the authority to proceed with the selection of the site for future assemblies.

A-2 We further recommend that the Administrative Committee be given the authority to thoroughly investigate the disposition of the Tabernacle property and report said findings to the General Assembly for its approval.

A new recommendation replacing the 1944 statement, which equated all gold for ornament as sin, was read with the scriptural support of 1 Timothy 2:9, 10: 1 Peter 3:1-4: Romans 13:11-14, and Romans 14. Extensive dialogue ensued until the General Overseer called for prayer.

After the congregation's supplication, the General Overseer spoke concerning his address relative to this recommendation. It was then that the Holy Ghost filled the tabernacle via messages and interpretations, Spirit demonstrations, and a humbling of men, confirming both Brother Murray as General Overseer and the words he had spoken. Brethren who had sincerely opposed the recommendation came forth submitting, one confessing, "I have to yield to the Holy Ghost."

The General Overseer asked for all the brethren willing to accept the report as read to stand as an overwhelming consensus responded. Brother Murray then asked all those who opposed the section to stand as brethren stood sporadically throughout the tabernacle.

Another message and interpretation was uttered, Hebrews 13:7 was read, and the Assembly sang: Oh, the Love of Jesus and Peace, Wonderful Peace.

Questions and concerns continued to be voiced by those who could not support the recommendation. After six and one-half hours of continuous business the session was adjourned for lunch at 1:30.

2:30 Questions and Subjects Committee discussion continued. The General Overseer stated that there was no need to continue if we were not willing to listen to the Lord; however, dialogue resumed for some 90 minutes more. Because of the overwhelming consensus that had been previously shown, the General Overseer asked all those that still opposed the recommendation to submit and seek counsel from their State/National Overseers, if needed. The accepted recommendation is as follows:

Resolution

In support of the General Overseer's Address relative to the Assembly statement of 1944 that classified all gold for ornament as sin, we submit the following for your consideration as a replacement:

The Body of Christ must be guided by the Word of God and the Holy Ghost in all matters of personal and corporeal holiness. We therefore recommend that every member be extremely cautious in the wearing of ornaments for decoration lest we offend the conscience of a brother or sister (1 Timothy 2:9-10, 1 Peter 3:1-4, Romans 13:11-14, Romans 14.)

See page 107 for finalized Questions and Subjects Committee report.

4:20 Worship directed by Kerry and Linda Murphy (Kentucky).

4:50 Elva Howard, Women's Missionary Band Secretary, amended her program due to the prolonged business of this Assembly. Sister Howard encouraged the ladies to have a proper attitude when they return home; one that could make a difference in every family. Exhorting on the need to grow closer together the congregation stood, singing, Bind Us Together. The ladies retreat choir closed the program with the song, He's Sweet I Know as the congregation joined in.

QUESTIONS AND SUBJECTS COMMITTEE REPORT

SECTION 1
ASSEMBLY RULING REVISIONS
Rationale

From time to time, the need arises for clarification or revision of previous Assembly rulings; therefore, we submit the following for your consideration:

A. 83rd Annual Assembly Minutes, Page 45, Section 4
Local Church Incorporation

Rationale

In many cases, it simplifies business transactions for local churches and states to be incorporated. It has been brought to our attention that some local churches are incorporating without the knowledge of the state office, and possibly becoming more independent in their local operations.

Therefore, we move the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolution

Local churches must have the consent of the State Overseer to incorporate. The State Overseer should work with the local church in drawing up the articles of incorporation, seeing there is no violation of previous Assembly rulings in regard to holding, encumbering, selling or purchasing of church property. We further recommend that the General Property Trustees draw up a standard set of articles of incorporation which could be used by states and local churches" (83rd AM, 1988, sec. 4, p. 45).

To be revised as follows:

LOCAL CHURCH AND STATE INCORPORATION FOR THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Rationale

In some cases, it enhances business transactions for local churches and states to be incorporated. It has been brought to our attention that some local churches, as well as some states/commonwealths, have incorporated without proper notification of State/General Headquarters.

Resolution

Realizing that each state/commonwealth may be governed differently, we recommend that the "Articles Of Incorporation," which the Church's attorney drew up for the State of Tennessee, be used as a guideline for other local/state/commonwealth incorporations, as applicable; said incorporation is to include the notification of State Headquarters by local churches and General Headquarters by states/commonwealths. State/Commonwealth Headquarters may provide such guidelines for local churches.

B. 42nd Annual Assembly Minutes, 1947, page 124, Section 8

We recommend that Section 8 of the Questions and Subjects Committee report to the 42nd Annual Assembly, 1947, page 124, Section 8, be changed to read as follows:

It is the desire and aim of the Church to encourage and promote the work among all nations, which includes all races. Therefore, we recommend all appointments not previously made available to all races/nationalities be made available to all races/nationalities on the General/National/State/ District/Local levels. Said appointments are to be made of able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness, with race not being a determining factor giving due consideration to the language of those to whom we are ministering.

C. Composition of Headquarters Committees

1. Rationale

Throughout the years, the Assembly, in recommending the formation of certain General Headquarters Committees, has, at times, designated those filling particular positions to form these committees.

Resolution

a. Inasmuch as the Assembly has mandated a combining of General Headquarters departments, we recommend that during the time of reorganization the selection of General Headquarters Committees be left to the discretion of the General Overseer as opposed to being filled by designated office holders. We further recommend that the number on each committee not be restricted.

b. Traditionally, we have been restricted in the use of titles for departments and department heads. We recommend the General Overseer in consultation with the administrative committee be given the freedom to change titles of departments and/or department heads as the need arises.

2. Rationale

The General Overseer should be "free" to exercise fully his individual gifts and realize the potential for ministering as the Holy Spirit directs. It seems crucial, at this stage, that the holder of the office should be allowed to divest himself, as he deems wise, from areas of administrative duties previously stipulated by General Assemblies, and to delegate responsibilities in line with changes in the dynamics of the body.

Resolution

We recommend that the General Overseer be given the necessary authority to delegate any aspect of his present workload which he might consider to be more appropriately performed by other individuals or committees. Specifically, he should be authorized to appoint board chairmen and board members, as well as Assembly committees. There should be no need for the General Overseer to serve as ex officio chairman of all boards and committees, but he should remain an ex officio member, and, thus, be free to attend meetings as needs arise. The normal consultation between the General Overseer and chairmen of boards and committees should continue.

D. General Presbytery

Rationale

At present, the presbytery is formed of the General Overseer and the State/National Overseers. Traditionally, the General Overseer has called upon members of the General Headquarters staff to perform certain presbyterial duties under his delegated authority.

It would seem appropriate for members of the General Headquarters staff, who perform presbyterial duties, to participate in meetings of the presbytery. Exclusion of these persons from the presbytery also precludes direct involvement in the present vacancy and selection procedures in regards to the office of General Overseer. It is evident that, by virtue of their general leadership roles and close working relationships with the General Overseer, their contributions, particularly in the areas of vacancy and selection, would be invaluable.

Resolution

We recommend the formation of a General Presbytery, with this presbytery being comprised of all bishops on the General Headquarters staff and State/National Overseers.

E. Wedding Rings and Other Jewelry

Resolution

In support of the General Overseer's Address relative to the Assembly statement of 1944 that classified all gold for ornament as sin, we submit the following for your consideration as a replacement:

The Body of Christ must be guided by the Word of God and the Holy Ghost in all matters of personal and corporeal holiness. We therefore recommend that every member be extremely cautious in the wearing of ornaments for decoration lest we offend the conscience of a brother or sister (1 Timothy 2:9-10, 1 Peter 3:1-4, Romans 13:11-14, Romans 14).

SECTION 2

ABORTION

This committee has devoted much time studying our present position on abortion. We have also listened to the views of many others on the subject. For the present time it seems that what we have on record (76th AM, 1981, p. 136, QSC) relevant to this subject is sufficient.

SECTION 3
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND TABERNACLE

Recommendation

A-1 The Assembly Tabernacle Task Force Committee is to be commended for their thorough study and report to this Assembly. In view of their findings we feel it is time to move ahead with positive action. We therefore recommend that the Administrative Committee be given the authority to proceed with the selection of the site for future assemblies.

A-2 We further recommend that the Administrative Committee be given the authority to thoroughly investigate the disposition of the Tabernacle property and report said findings to the General Assembly for its approval.

B. In view of the fact that our Assembly expenses are averaging about $450,000.00 annually, we recommend that we go to an every-other-year assembly, with the first year to omit the assembly being 1993.

REPORT OF COUNSELING COMMITTEE

In order that the Church may be better informed as to the purpose of this committee, we quote the following from The Church Business Guide, Revised Through 1988 edition, page 75: "D. Counseling Committee—. . .2) The committee meets during the General Assembly for the purpose of counseling with any member or minister who may have an adequate cause to bring before the committee. After the counseling session, the committee will determine whether the matter should be brought to the Questions and Subjects Committee, the Ways and Means Committee, or another Assembly committee. 3) It is advisable that the other established administrative procedures be used where possible before bringing matters to the Counseling Committee."

The Counseling Committee met in five (5) sessions and spent several hours counseling with a number of people. However, with our delegates being informed and due to the long business sessions we feel perhaps this eliminated many questions in our people's minds.

We appreciate the adequate facilities provided for the committee's meetings, also, waiting room for those seeking counsel.

All persons presenting subjects to the committee have been counseled and the subjects have been prayerfully considered, some of which may deserve further consideration before being presented to the presbytery or Assembly committees. Other subjects which we felt would be a blessing to the entire body have been passed on to the committees to be disposed of at their discretion.

We wish to commend all those who came before this committee for the good spirit manifested. We found a great concern among the ministry, a great love for the Church of God and its teachings, and a strong desire to promote the doctrine of the church instead of ideas and opinions.

The Questions and Subjects Committee, and the Ways and Means Committee are standing committees throughout the year and may be contacted at any time on doctrine or anything not clearly understood.

Respectfully submitted,

During this past Assembly year many things have transpired making the year a busy one. The rewards received included the joy we found in working for the Master and helping to build the Body of Christ.

We were privileged to serve as coordinator for the 85th General Assembly which convened August 13-19, 1990, and thank the Lord for the outpouring of the Holy Ghost in many sessions.

This past year I served as Field Secretary to General Overseer Billy Murray, and also on a number of standing committees—including the Administrative; General Properties; Ministerial Aid: Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine and White Wing Publishing House & Press, Inc., Board of Directors, and also served as a General Trustee.

In addition to visiting a number of our local churches for various reasons, I was privileged to attend four ministers conventions, conferences, and retreats during the months of September and October, 1990.

In November and December I was involved in North Carolina Couples' Retreat by the Sea, various Christmas banquets and special programs.

January and February, 1991, I had the privilege of a weekend revival in Charlotte, North Carolina, also Winter Retreat in Michigan, and visits to some of our local churches and various seminars.

I was afforded the opportunity of participating in three dedication services for our local churches which had built or purchased new property. Spring found us involved in many activities, also serving as an instructor in the Cleveland session of Bible Training Institute.

During the month of July, I served as Headquarters Representative to the Alabama and Mississippi State Conventions as well as making last minute preparations for the 86th General Assembly of which we served in the capacity of coordinator. I am grateful that God afforded me the privilege of working for Him and meeting more of the family of God as we traveled throughout the communities of the Church.

REPORT OF PRESIDENT, TOMLINSON COLLEGE AND PUBLIC RELATIONS DIRECTOR

August 1, 1990-July 31, 1991

It is an honor for me to have served the Church this year as President of Tomlinson College and General Public Relations Director.

As President of Tomlinson College I have managed and directed the affairs of the Church's institution of higher learning through dedicated and professionally qualified vice presidents, faculty and support staff. I have worked closely with the Board of Trustees at the policy-making level.

Tomlinson College has operated this fiscal year closing with a balanced budget as a result of prudent management at all levels of administration.

We are looking forward to the dedication of Victory Chapel, the new worship center which has been built on the campus this year. Prior to this time our chapel services and other church-related activities have been conducted in the gymnasium/music building. Now, we have a facility that will be dedicated with the sole purpose being a worship center. Built on the highest elevation of the campus, the chapel speaks of the priority of spiritual activities. The 600 seat edifice also provides adequate office space for the chaplain and Spiritual Life Committee.

I express my personal appreciation to all those who volunteered their labor and finances to bring this vision to a reality. Special recognition is given to K. Milton Couch, Ron Barker and Wayne Pohlner for their supervision of the work.

Further, appreciation is expressed to all overseers, pastors and local churches, as well as individuals, who contributed finances in this endeavor.

Tomlinson College continues to serve the Church's educational needs on an ever-enlarging scope. Off-campus students totaled 787 this year ministering throughout the United States as well as in several other countries.

We have begun positive planning to begin an educational program in the country of Romania. Our Romanian institute is scheduled to begin in Bucharest September 9, 1991, with an expected enrollment of some 147 students. Dialogue has also begun with representatives in Bulgaria and Russia for expansion of studies into those areas.

Various general Church functions held on the campus of Tomlinson College this year include Bible Training Institute in May and Teen Talent Academy by the Music Department in June. Brother William Wilson will conduct International Youth Camp on our campus in August and the General Overseer's pre-Assembly presbytery meeting is scheduled there also.

Special recognition is given to the Board of Trustees under the chairmanship of Hubert Vicars. Further recognition is given to the Vice President of Academic Affairs, Larry Duncan; Vice President of Finance and Administration, Vernon Van Deventer; Vice President of Student Affairs, Melvin Hyatt. These men have given outstanding service on the President's Executive Council this year.

As General Public Relations Director, I have worked closely with the office of the General Overseer, representing his office internationally in religious and civic affairs. Also, I have arranged for and directed the General Overseer's Christmas banquet for his staff and headquarters personnel, as well as various receptions and other official functions related to his office.

In civic affairs I have represented the Church in numerous local, state and national functions. Presently, I am serving as a member of the Cleveland Bradley Chamber of Commerce and the United Way of Bradley County as a member of the Mayor's Blue Ribbon Committee.

I would also like to express my appreciation to the field team of state and national secretaries who have promoted these ministries in their respective areas.

FIELDS OF THE WOOD INFORMATION:

I have had the privilege of working with two of the most dedicated people, Jimmy and Georgia Williams, our Fields of the Wood Superintendent/Minister. Under the supervision of Brother Williams, a number of new projects were done to help beautify the place. Fields of the Wood has never looked better. I deeply appreciate the many hours of hard work by those who labor keeping the grounds and the markers looking so nice.

There was good participation in the Annual Programs at Fields of the Wood. Approximately 100,000 will go through the gates of Fields of the Wood this year and many of them will be greatly touched by the Spirit of God.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL LITERATURE EDITOR

August 1, 1990-July 31, 1991

Number sermons/lessons	97	Number saved	1
Number sanctified	0	Number received Holy Ghost	1

I have served as a member on the Church Publishing Committee, the Music Department Committee, a Sunday School Literature Evaluation Task Force, and served as Secretary for the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine.

In the 85th General Assembly, 1990, I conducted a Sunday school literature seminar, maintained a Sunday School Literature Information Center and served as Chief Usher.

I arranged and maintained a literature exhibit booth to represent the Church in two major evangelical Sunday School Conventions—namely: GLASS in Pasadena, California and MASSA in Charlotte, North Carolina. I prepared lesson materials for, and taught, two workshops in the Charlotte Convention.

I was speaker in the following functions arranged by State Overseers: Special services in Buena Park and National City in Southern California; a special convention involving all the districts in Oregon; and a convention held for districts in Eastern Washington. I was speaker and teacher in a couples' retreat in Virginia. I conducted one revival in Tennessee. I was Headquarters Representative to State Conventions in Utah, Oregon and Washington.

I have answered all correspondence relative to Sunday school literature; corresponded on behalf of the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine, and through correspondence made arrangements with ushers to serve this General Assembly.

The nature of the work of the Sunday School Literature Editor has given opportunity for me to work closely with the Manager of the White Wing Publishing House, Henry O'Neal, whose vision and personal commitment I appreciate concerning the value of the printed page.

I have conscientiously endeavored to provide quality literature for our Sunday schools. I trust that we have met with some success.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EDITORIAL FUNCTION

Our regular structured Sunday school literature currently consists of quarterly publications as follows: Four pieces for the adult level, two pieces for the youth/teen level, three pieces for the junior level, four pieces for the pre-primary/primary level and four pieces for the nursery department—a total of 17 pieces edited each quarter. NEW DEVELOPMENT

In a Church Publishing Committee meeting held June 27, 1990, a discussion on the subject of reevaluating some of our Sunday school literature was on the agenda. It was felt by the committee that perhaps some input from several points of view might be helpful in considering any new development of Sunday school curriculum.

As a result, the General Overseer appointed a Sunday School Literature Task Force to study our current literature and make recommendations concerning areas that might need special attention. Several Task Force meetings have been held in which curricula for various age levels were discussed. It was the consensus of the Task Force that the need for developing new literature for our teenagers should be our top priority. Members of the Task Force were selected to formulate unit themes for a three-year curriculum on two levels, Junior teens and Senior teens. The themes were completed and given to the Sunday School Literature Editor for the developmental procedure.

In special arranged meetings with writers and advisors, the Editor implemented the necessary steps in selecting lesson topics and Scripture texts for the new curriculum. We anticipate putting in place the new literature for both Junior and Senior teens in the first quarter of 1993. This will replace the present three-year curriculum which was previously developed on just one level for all teens.

We look forward with great excitement to placing in the hands of our teens this newly developed curriculum, and providing an inspiring and stimulating Teen Teachers Guide for each of these age levels.

ELECTIVE COURSES

In addition to our structured Sunday school literature for various age levels, the Editorial Department has developed several Sunday School Elective Study Courses. However, in promoting these Electives on the field, I find that many of our people are not familiar with this segment of our Sunday school literature. Perhaps a brief explanation here would be helpful.

For Sunday school classes needing special lessons on specific themes not covered in our regular structured Sunday school literature, we have made available dynamic elective study courses designed as alternative quarterlies. Each elective consists of thirteen lessons to run concurrent with a quarter of the regular literature. We now offer eleven elective study courses for students, with teacher's guides available.

Our newest elective, "God's Plan of Redemption," (published since last Assembly) has already been received in many areas with a great deal of excitement. The lessons in this course were written with people in mind who have had very little, or no exposure to God's plan of redemption through Jesus Christ. Many are finding "God's Plan of Redemption" to be especially helpful for teaching new converts in the basic steps of Christian living.

I am pleased to announce that "God's Plan of Redemption" is currently being translated into the Russian and Spanish languages.

SPECIAL NOTE: You can now obtain the adult Sunday School Teacher's Commentary on audio cassette tape, narrated by Dan Howell. Available at the White Wing Publishing House.

I am grateful to all of you who are using the Church published Sunday school literature, and trust that it meets the needs of your schools. May God bless you.

J. C. CAGLE

REPORT OF THE WORLD LANGUAGE SECRETARY

August 1, 1990-July 31, 1991

To our natural mind nothing could have happened to the World Language Department this year which would have been more devastating to the department than the death of Bishop Felix R. Garcia. We still mourn his loss. But with the help of the World Language Department staff in Cleveland particularly and other translators and staff located around the world, we have carried on the work since January.

The need for translated literature in the Church of God only gets greater; therefore, we can't slow up or give into any discouragement.

REPORT OF COMMUNICATIONS MINISTER

Number Homes Visited.....145	Conventions Attended.....3

I feel as the Psalmist did when he declared, "Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised..." God has blessed the Voice of Salvation ministry this year.

Due to the efforts of Communications Business Manager, Thomas Duncan, the radio ministry continues to reach into new areas. His report gives details.

The Television Program is now aired over The New Inspirational Network as well as 30 independent stations. During certain times volunteers answer phones to pray with people who call the number on the screen. This is done by several churches as well as at the VOS office. The results have been most gratifying. This makes the VOS a part of the local church's ministry and the local church becomes an extension of VOS. One of the major purposes of the VOS is to strengthen the local church. Several churches are serving as partnership churches and realizing benefits from the telecast.

The production staff has produced spot announcements for pastors to use at the end of the telecast when requested. We have produced programs in local churches this year in North Carolina, Georgia, and South Carolina. Ten programs (one on each of the Ten Commandments) originated at Fields of the Wood. Study guides have been prepared with audio cassettes of The Ten Commandments, Prophecy and the Year 2000, and The Anointing. A video tour of Fields of the Wood, as well as videos for the VLB, WMB and Sunday School have been produced.

The prayer request line has been busy and the Voice of Salvation has taken over l0,000 prayer requests to the Upper Room prayer services. Thank God, we have heard testimonies of many that have been answered and miracles performed.

It has been my privilege to serve as the Endorsing Agent for the military chaplaincy. The Church now has seven chaplains on active duty who are doing an excellent job. I have corresponded with them during the year and visited with them by phone or in person.

During Desert Storm, over radio and television programs as well as in the White Wing Messenger, I encouraged people to write letters and send items to military men and women serving in Saudi Arabia. The response was overwhelming—some days entire trucks of mail were unloaded in front of Chaplain Guy Lindsey's tent. I sincerely thank the people for their prayers and display of love.

The strides that have been made in this department this year are greatly due to the sacrificial dedication of each staff member. I deeply appreciate their faithfulness and cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,
ELWOOD MATTHEWS

REPORT OF COMMUNICATIONS BUSINESS MANAGER

August 1, 1990-July 31, 1991

"For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building" (1 Corinthians 3:9).

The vast radio coverage for the Church's broadcast ministry has been maintained and in some countries has been increased for both the English and Spanish broadcasts in our effort to reach the lost world with the message of salvation.

One outstanding addition for the English Voice of Salvation is the recent scheduling of WSM (50,000 watt AM station on 650 KHZ) Nashville, Tennessee — 8:00-8:30 PM, Sunday. The station has night-time coverage in 38 states.

The Spanish Voice of Salvation radio network has been greatly increased by the scheduling of stations in Ohio, California, Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Mexico, Peru, Puerto Rico, Venezuela, other countries.

My work has included business and technical transactions with dozens of radio stations in several countries on behalf of the broadcast ministry. I supervised the audio operations of the 85th General Assembly and directed the activity of the video recording rooms during the meeting. I handled the broadcast feed of two hours of Assembly programming (in the Spanish language) to radio stations in Puerto Rico and had the oversight of the Communications Department booth operations in the Assembly Tabernacle.

We have enjoyed good progress in the work of Broadcast Record Club, which serves subscribers throughout the USA and other countries with some of the finest Christian music recordings available from any source.

I have attended one State Convention and the convention of the Audio Engineering Society. I supervised the audio operations of the Cleveland Bible Training Institute, supervised the work of my office staff, operated Broadcast Distributors, and the Broadcast Record Club, visited many radio stations, assisted a large number of stations in several countries in obtaining broadcast equipment in exchange for airtime.

Our department also supplied audio services for the Easter Pageant in Fields of the Wood.

I have served on the Communications Committee, Music Committee and the Editorial Committee of Church History, Polity and Doctrine.

Our work has been blessed by the good cooperation of State and National Overseers and Communications Directors.

The weekly schedules for our church broadcasts are as follows:

VOICE OF SALVATION (English)	235
VOICE OF SALVATION (Spanish)	399

"Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised. . ." (Psalm 48:1).

It is with deep gratitude that I give thanks to the Lord for His divine enablement during the past year, and for His protection during travels in the ministry.

For the 1990 Annual General Assembly I conducted two Evangelism/Home Missions related seminars: 1) Sharing Eternal Life Review, a sharing of personal evangelism experiences; 2) a seminar on trends and goals for church growth called "The 1990s: A Time To Grow." I also coordinated the Friday evening service for divine healing and evangelism.

It has been my privilege to minister in eleven states, one foreign country (Uruguay) and twenty local churches. I was guest speaker for an evangelism banquet in Columbia, Tennessee.

I have conducted four Regional Sharing Eternal Life Clinics and four local church Sharing Eternal Life Seminars, was guest speaker in two Church Growth Rallies in Northern California, and one state Church Growth Conference in El Sobrante, California.

I attended the North American Dialogue on Church Planting in Chicago, Illinois, and "How to Reach the Baby Boomer" seminar in Hixon, Tennessee.

I was first-term Bible instructor for Cleveland BTI, teaching Old Testament History. I taught a class on "Catching the Boomerang Generation" at the National Youth Conference in St. Louis, Missouri. Following the Youth Conference I participated with other Youth Mission Board members in conducting the 1991 Youth Mission Team Orientation, also in St. Louis, Missouri.

I corresponded with all State Overseers and State Evangelism/Home Missions Directors during the year. I corresponded monthly with all National Evangelists and volunteer Prayer Partners.

With the assistance of Caroline Ledbetter, I published a quarterly Sharing Eternal Life newsletter, and the annual Evangelism/Home Missions edition of the White Wing Messenger.

I have served on the following General Headquarters Committees: Home Missions, World Missions, Youth Mission Board, Church Publishing and Communications. I served as a member of Associated Ecumenical Charities, Inc.

I wish to extend commendation and appreciation to our eight United States-based evangelistic teams, and eleven foreign-based teams who have labored long hours and travelled thousands of miles in spreading the gospel. Their efforts have garnered the following results: 1,580 saved, 1,435 sanctified, 616 received the Holy Ghost, 195 baptized, 153 joined the Church. Please support these laborers with your prayers.

REPORT OF MISSION REPRESENTATIVE MEXICO, CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICA
August 1, 1990-July 31, 1991

Representative to National Conventions.....7
Countries Visited this Year.....12
BTI Lessons.....37
Representative to State Conventions.....3
Sermons Preached.....44

Served as Vice President to the BTI school held in Santiago, Chile.

Also served as a teacher in the schools in Chile, Mexico, and Cleveland, Tennessee.

"The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard" (Psalm 19:1-3).

I never cease to be amazed at God's handiwork in creation and much more amazed at the miraculous working of Christ in the transformation of a sinner to a child of God. Truly it is a miracle! It is a joy and a great honor to have been chosen to be a colaborer with Christ. The fields are white and ready for harvest, and Latin America continues to see the mighty hand of God at work as souls are being brought to the feet of Jesus. Yet there is a great harvest that must be gathered; therefore, continue to pray that God will send forth laborers into this harvest.

I wish to acknowledge and to thank all the overseers in the Latin American area for their fine cooperation throughout the year. Also, I am very thankful to God for my family.

It was an honor to have traveled with our General Overseer to his first National Convention in Guatemala since taking office. On the trip, we also visited the National Convention in El Salvador.

I served on the following committees: Youth Mission Board, Tabernacle Task Force, and World Mission.

Respectfully submitted,
RAUL TORRES

REPORT OF THE MISSION REPRESENTATIVE TO EUROPE AND THE MIDDLE EAST

August 1, 1990-July 31, 1991

As Overseer of Finland, Germany and Holland, France and Belgium, I visited the churches and pastors several times each during the year. I visited the Pentecostals in Russia, Romania and Bulgaria. I assisted in setting up a correspondence school for Tomlinson College with over 80 students. I visited the Ruse, Bulgaria Pentecostal group and gave them teaching concerning the Church. On June 30, 1991, I organized the Church in Ruse, Bulgaria with 71 members with Chris Stathis of Greece assisting in taking in members.

I conducted two Biblical Studies Camps—one in Finland, and one in Germany. I attended Winter Retreat in Finland. I conducted ministers and workers conferences in Finland, Belgium, France and Germany. I conducted National Conventions in Germany, France, Belgium and Finland. I represented General Headquarters in the National Convention of Portugal.

I visited Greece on several occasions pertaining to visits to Romania and Bulgaria. I visited the Greek National Convention. I attended the General Assembly in August of 1990. I preached 45 sermons, with 3 saved as a result of my ministry; added 9 to the Church; visited 43 homes and had 11 home prayer meetings. Sermons Preached	60	Number Saved	62
Number Sanctified	3	Number Filled with Holy Ghost	1
BTI Lessons	30	Nations Visited	8

By His grace constantly sustaining me, and in many ways protecting my life from evil, I was able to serve the people of Africa in the following areas of the work:

I moderated three National Conventions and represented General Headquarters in that of Zaire and Zimbabwe. Levi Clarke and I visited Nigeria where much dispute is greatly reducing the effectiveness of the work.

Requests for Church registration in various African countries necessitated my contact and liaison with the interior departments of various governments. I also made 10 visits to various countries. I attended the General Assembly and General Staff meeting in December 1990.

I conducted BTI in Abidjan, supervised the travel and participation of students from six African countries in West Africa, and taught for two weeks in the school. Cleveland, 7 National Conventions, two Ministerial Training Conferences, the General Overseer's staff meeting and Christmas banquet.

REPORT OF MISSION REPRESENTATIVE TO ASIA, AUSTRALIA AND PACIFIC ISLANDS

August 1, 1990-July 31, 1991

Sermons	89	Added to Church	33
Converted	32	BTI Lessons Taught	128

The Asian, Australian, and Pacific Islands are a vast area including over 65% of the world's population. This region is one of vast contrast with extremes of the poorest and most backward nations along with the richest and most technologically advanced. Natural disasters and civil disturbances are a part of daily life. There is, though, a move of the Holy Spirit and revival is breaking out in many fronts. Trained leadership and dedicated workers are needed to finish the last days Commission of reaching every nation with the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Ten nations were visited this past year. Five National Conventions and two State Conventions were visited. I participated in five BTI schools, serving as Vice President of three. Monthly correspondence with area overseers was maintained. During the month of May, it was a privilege to organize the Church in the country of Pakistan.

Special thanks are extended to the World Mission Secretary, his office staff, and the National Overseers in the area for their wonderful help and cooperation. My family has been very patient and supportive despite the extra office workload and long periods of separation.

Thank you, Church of God, for giving, praying and sending me to work among the people in this area.

REPORT OF GENERAL SUNDAY SCHOOL AND CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES SECRETARY

August 1, 1990-July 31, 1991

I visited 8 countries and 14 states, which included three National Conventions (Honduras, Colombia, England) and various seminars on aspects of Sunday School and Children's Ministries.

My constant preoccupation has been to extend a helping hand to our churches with great needs, especially those in the Third World. Audience interaction was considered a vital part of each state/national seminar. Creative ideas gleaned from these meetings in addition to materials received from state/national directors and the exchange of ideas during the annual meeting with these directors were explored for their full potential. A view to the future determined every major project implemented. Early signs of progress have been seen in events like, having created Sunday School training programs in Spanish and French, Peru producing this year the first recipient of the Certificado Regular de Maestro introduced there during my visit 36 months earlier.

Administrative duties have been fulfilled. Regular correspondence has been maintained with State and National Overseers, Sunday School Secretaries, Children's Ministries Directors, Pastors, Superintendents, and local Children's Ministries Directors in addition to handling much other mail. It should be noted that a variety of ideas introduced into the international office by state/national secretaries have been translated, with proper acknowledgement, into projects (like Adopt-A-Child) of value to our wider community. This creative stimulation has been important and much appreciated. I fulfilled this department's 1990 Assembly obligations which included engineering four Sunday School workshops, a Children's Ministry Seminar, seven children's worship services, a Kid's Assembly Krusade (five nights), a complete day of creative ministry to children (Celebration Saturday), meeting and breakfast with the state and national secretaries, a departmental booth, supervision of the nursery, and the departmental program. It was with great joy that we were able to give the following report of spiritual experiences reported during Children's Ministries activities of the Assembly that registered a grand total of 1,900 children: saved—116; sanctified—91; baptized in the Holy Spirit—32. Finally, a great investment was made in preparing for the current Assembly an average of six activities a day held in four different locations.

Time, effort, and many miles have been devoted to consulting with various international experts in Sunday School and Children's Ministries in addition to attending two major Sunday School functions (GLASS and DECE), and four specialized meetings (NAAE, SPS, AAR, and CPCRE). I served on the Bible Training Institute faculty for the session held in Cleveland and visited International Youth Camp. Selected ecumenical efforts were engaged including serving on the Steering Committee of the North American Renewal Service Committee and co-directing the Theological Stream of the International Charismatic Consultation on World Evangelization in Brighton, England.

With the assistance of the appropriate personnel, the following materials were completed under my supervision this year:

Sunday School edition of the White Wing Messenger, April 13, 1991 (English, Spanish, French).

A Children's Ministries edition of the White Wing Messenger, May 11, 1990 (English, Spanish, French). Helps and Hints. This publication is directed to those who work in Sunday School (English, Spanish, French). Sondra Hunter, Managing Editor, and Mikey Jones, Jr., Editor-At-Large. A special edition was run in the White Wing Messenger (February 2, 1991).

On Your Mark. . . Get Set. . . Grow! This publication is produced by the Children's Ministries Department for children's ministers (English, Spanish, French). Sondra Hunter is the Managing Editor and Kathy Creasy is the Editor-At-Large. A special edition featuring a new format was run in the White Wing Messenger (August 4, 1990).

"Sunday School Directives," Revised Spanish edition.

"Sunday School Workers' Conference," reprinted due to demand.

Revised Standard Teacher training program (English, Spanish). The surge of those completing our basic teacher training program continues. One indication was reprinting of Spanish electives. An exhaustive search turned up only limited sources in French which cut short anticipated changes.

Revised training program which grants the Advanced Teacher Certificate (English, Spanish). The new flexibility will make the program useful to a wider circle of teachers.

1991 Children's Day materials which used the theme, "Save A Generation-NOW!" (English, Spanish, French). Spanish and French materials inserted into respective White Wing Messengers.

Revised Heritage CARE kits (English, Spanish, French).

Children's Ministries Handbook, edited by Sondra Hunter, is in process.

A special Children's Ministries project entitled, "Adopt-A-Child," continues to be refined and promoted.

Children's Ministries Manual written by Darlene Bell, made available for the first time in Spanish.

Promotional ads in the White Wing Messenger for Teacher Training Programs, Children's Day, Heritage CARE, Adopt-A-Child, Gleaner Offering, Conquer-A-Language, Bible Memory Club, and General Assembly Sunday School and Children's Ministries Departments activities.

"Reach The Unreached" 1991 Spring Outreach Campaign for Sunday Schools promoted and recorded.

Initiated "Who Is My Neighbor?" for 1992 Spring Campaign.

Evaluated process in order to determine form and contents of 1992-1993 Sunday School and Children's Ministries planning calendars.

Revised the book for Children's Ministries report to Quarterly Conference and to state or national Children's Ministries Director (English, Spanish, French).

Material pertinent for state and national Sunday School Secretaries and Children's Ministers was distributed in conjunction with quarterly correspondence.

Revised Bible Memory Club Level I in English while seeking funding for first edition in Spanish. Released Bible Memory Club Level II, while worked on Level III.

Heritage CARE video completed with VOS taping a special presentation at the Peerless Road Church.

Released training program for Children's Ministers (English, Spanish forth coming). Anticipated training videos by Sondra Hunter could be incorporated into the requirements.

"New Babies Outreach Director," new in French.

"Storytelling That Sparkles," new in French.

Thus I have located service organizations like the International Correspondence Institute from Belgium that utilizes numerous languages, while providing materials in countries according to their economic conditions. The training programs (English, Spanish, French) are constantly monitored with a view to becoming more indigenous.

Prior to this past Assembly, it had not been possible to personally visit the Mission Home for Children in Mexico. At long last, I was able to sit and talk with these precious children. Other stops with video equipment were Bakersfield, California and Sturgis, Kentucky. Special interviews were conducted at an ESA conference in Chicago and the headquarters of World Vision International in Monrovia, California. Visits of this type have been rich and have enabled me to communicate better the importance of Heritage CARE. These same trips and related travel made me more conversant with our printing ministry. (Gleaner monies are directed to the Free Literature Offering and the World Literature Outreach Fund.) I have tried to pass along vital information obtained from these trips to the directors of Children's Ministries. Our commitment to this cause is of such a nature that we maintain with the World Language Department a specialized version of this project under the name Conquer-A-Language.

Our Sunday School report for monies donated to Heritage CARE varies from that reported by the general treasurer because we process some monies directly from donors to their intended destination. In addition, some local churches send donations of money and things directed to particular mission homes. Most, if not all, of these gifts are not reported on Sunday School report forms. Information about the 1991 edition of Children's Day is incomplete since materials in French were released in the White Wing Messenger dated September/October 1991.

REPORT OF THE VICTORY LEADERS DEPARTMENT
GENERAL SECRETARY
August 1, 1990-July 31, 1991

Sermons preached....101
Sanctified....79
Saved....137
Holy Ghost....72

"The glory of young men is their strength..." Proverbs 20:29.

The vitality, vigor and strength of youth continues to be critical to the advancement of the Lord's work. We as Church youth of the 1990s are thankful to be involved in what the Lord is doing today.

This has been a very active year for our department as we have attempted to meet the ever expanding needs of this generation.

By God's grace and help the following has been accomplished this year.

We have edited and published the following:

Periodicals:

VICTORY Magazine—A sixteen page, full color monthly publication designed to address contemporary youth concerns from a biblical perspective.

V-Source—A monthly newsletter to assist youthworkers in using VICTORY Magazine with their youth.

Victory Leader—Spanish, French, and international insert in those respective White Wing Messengers.

Servant Update—A monthly international newsletter for state/national youth secretaries and camp directors.

Books:

Encounter V—A resource publication designed to assist local directors in sharing the power of God's Spirit with this generation.

Camp Counselor's Handbook—A new resource for camp directors, and counselors to use in helping today's youth.

Materials:

International Youth Camp Yearbook '90

International Youth Camp Staff Manual

Camp Lessons—A series of eight for 1991 camps.

Beginnings '91—General Youth Conference Notebook

Operation HOPE—A packet of resource materials for local directors to use during YoutHarvest '91.

Departmental materials continue to be updated, revised and printed yearly to undergird the effectiveness of our local youth ministry.

Events:

We have planned, organized, and conducted the following events this year:

International Youth Camp '91 was conducted on the campus of Tomlinson College with 217 campers and staff present. Attendees came from 39 states and 7 countries for this blessed time of inspiration and teaching. The theme for the week was "Christ in YOUth: The Hope of The World." This summer marked the 41st consecutive year that we as a church have been involved in the camping ministry.

International Camp Outreach—for Latin America was held in Cuernavaca, Mexico. Eight nations participated with a total attendance of forty-one. God visited this event in a special, supernatural way.

General Youth Conference—Beginnings '91 was the theme for our Bi-Annual General Youth Conference held in St. Louis, Missouri this year. The records showed 2,038 youth and youth workers registered from 38 states and 7 nations. Twenty-four workshops were conducted focusing on contemporary youth issues from a biblical perspective. Five general sessions were held along with several other special ministry times which were designed to inspire and direct those youth present. Several lives were changed as a result of the ministry in St. Louis at the "Gateway to a New Beginning."

Youth Mission Teams '91—Youth Mission Teams were conducted this summer at the following locations: with these numerical results: Malaysia, Alaska, Rhode Island, Japan/Korea, Canada; saved, 76; sanctified, 37; Holy Ghost, 13; Joined Church, 4; Healings, 1. Lives continue to be changed and leaders developed through this work.

Drives:

The YoutHarvest '91 drive went from January 1, 1991 to June 30, 1991 with the theme of "Jesus, Lord of All." This drive was designed to see new young people saved and new youth added to the Church. 705 churches reported their participation with 1,472 saved, 580 sanctified, 378 receiving the Holy Ghost and 369 joining the Church through this drive.

The youth of the church participated in a fund-raising effort toward the new VICTORY Chapel on the campus of Tomlinson College. Some of our local churches participated in this one-time opportunity to give toward this project.

The Youth Department also helped advertise the World Literature Outreach offering for the General Assembly.

Personal Ministry:

I served on the Tomlinson College Board of Trustees, the Church Publishing Committee, the Music Committee, the Communications Committee, and as Secretary to the Youth Mission Board. I also served during the year on a Sunday School Literature Task Force as part of the Church Publishing Committee.

I spoke at Youth Conventions in the Turks and Caicos Islands, Mexico, Michigan, Northern California and South Carolina. Ministered at retreats in Georgia, Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee. Conducted YoutHarvest crusades in South Carolina, Eastern Canada, Alabama, Florida and Vermont. Visited five different summer youth camps and served as evangelist on the Youth Mission Team to Malaysia.

I served as headquarters representative to the Arizona, West Virginia, Maryland & D.C. and Florida State Conventions.

I served as B.T.I. Devotional Coordinator for the Cleveland, Tennessee school.

I am grateful to the Lord for His grace, anointing, protection, and watch care this year. I am also thankful to the many people who have voluntarily assisted us in promoting and staffing these events and projects. To God be all the glory for His blessings on His work.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM M. WILSON

REPORT OF GENERAL WOMEN'S MISSIONARY BAND SECRETARY

August 1, 1990-July 31, 1991

Saved	45	Mission Fields visited	5
Sanctified	30	Ministers Convention	0
Baptized with Holy Ghost	59	State/National Conventions	5
Homes visited	113	International Youth Convention	1

I wish to express my appreciation to the Lord for enabling me to be a worker in His vineyard. The work of ministering to women has been most rewarding as well as various other ministries in which I have been involved.

Writing

I am deeply grateful for the manner in which the Lord has helped us in getting instructional material for the department into other languages. For the most part, all of these types of materials have been done in French and Spanish.

I have supervised and edited the 13th edition of the "Women in Profile" booklet which is a planner for people who are ministering to women.

The Mission Encounter material, which was new last year, has been revised to be usable for the upcoming year.

I have compiled for printing: Helping Hand Ministry brochure, Ladies Retreat brochure, Ladies Retreat Devotional Booklet, the WMB White Wing Messenger "Women in Profile" inserts and "The Helper," a quarterly publication to the Helping Hand Ministry donors.

I have written lessons for International Youth Conference and International Youth Camp.

Corresponded with state/national secretaries on a regular basis.

Corresponded with National Overseers and other missionaries intermittently.

Teaching Aids

In addition to the written materials, this department has developed two videos to be used to increase mission awareness and to give special instructions as to the department and its work. The presentation on each of these is twenty minutes and they are: The Helping Hand Ministry and The WMB as a Department.

Missions:

I served as a member of the Youth Mission Board, attended all meetings when possible, assisted with the planning and organization of the 1991 Youth Mission Teams and attended the 1991 Team Orientation in St. Louis.

I boosted the Helping Hand Ministry through publication of "The Helper" and corresponded with the various donors. We assisted many of the mission fields and completed some projects which were a great benefit to the respective fields.

For the fifth consecutive year, we have maintained a Mission Clothes Closet during the Assembly with various churches and individuals assisting in keeping the closet open to receive articles of clothing that were donated for the missionaries.

Because of you, the donors, the Helping Hand Ministry funds that were sent to the Mission field this year totaled $79,846.65.

Ministering to Women:

Since women compose a large percentage of the Church membership, it is of utmost importance that time and effort he given to this ministry to help them develop into strong Christian women. Reports from the States and several of the Nations show that many plans have been initiated for this purpose such as: Ladies Breakfast/Luncheons; Ladies Day in local, district or state-wide settings; Ladies Retreats state-wide, as well as local activities—Bible studies, prayer groups and organized visitations.

This year, I directed 11 Regional Ladies Retreats. This has become a ministry to non-Christian as well as Christian women. There have been ladies who did not have any connections with our Church, went home and searched for our Church to become a part of it. Our ministering to ethnic groups increased this year, therefore, the retreat sessions were translated in Spanish and French. Also this year we added translation into Greek to accommodate the women who attended.

The total attendance in the regional retreats was 3,698. Two of these retreats were outside the United States: Manchester, England and Honduras with a total of 924 attending. We thank the Lord for those who made great sacrifices to attend. Most of all, we are grateful for what the Lord has done for us during these weekends together.

Church-Related Activities:

It is always a blessing to have the privilege of fellowshipping with God's people. I had the grand opportunity this year to do state mission rallies, teach in a state youth convention and to be involved with teaching in family seminars, one being in Mexico.

Thanks to all the people on the Mission field who are making great sacrifices to see the gospel preached into difficult areas. Without the dedication of these men and women, we would not have a report to submit.

My deepest gratitude goes to the Father above who has enabled us to be a worker in His vineyard. David so capably said it for all of us, "To God be the glory for all He has done."

REPORT OF BIBLE TRAINING INSTITUTE GENERAL REPRESENTATIVE

August 1, 1990-July 31, 1991

Schools conducted and assisted in 5; Sermons and lessons taught 300; Saved 2; Sanctified 3; Filled with the Holy Ghost 1; Bible Training Institute rallies conducted 2; States visited 9; Countries visited 2; Revivals conducted 1; Homes visited 35; State Convention attended 1; Ministers Convention attended 1.

It was my privilege to serve on the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine. Also met with the inner-committee on several occasions. There were many hours spent reading manuscripts and Church related materials for printing approval and circulation.

I served on the Bible Training Institute Committee. I attended the regular and called meetings, when I was not on the field. It was a delight to discharge duties as a committeeman in every phase of the work.

I coordinated my efforts with the General Superintendent, General Representative, office secretaries and supply coordinator to fulfill my obligations as Bible Training Institute Representative in the Bible Training Institute Department. Personally corresponded with the vice presidents and state/national representatives to secure places for schools and for setting in order the administration for the schools for which I was directly responsible.

We conducted Bible Training Institute rallies for the purpose of promoting the need for training, introducing correspondence courses to those that could not attend one of the regular schools and acquainting the members concerning the operation of Bible Training Institute Department. These rallies have proven to be an asset and great blessing in increasing and circulation of more correspondence courses and more students in our regular schools.

This has been another inspirational and informative year for the teaching ministry. I personally have seen God anoint students' eyes with eye salve that they might see and understand things, no other way obtainable. After having had Bible Training Institute for one year in Kinshasa, Zaire, and then experience not being allowed to have the school, because of certain scriptural truths that seem to threaten government policy, God made it possible to re-enter that country to find that within the operation of the Church and people serving the Lord nothing had been interrupted, rather, they were accelerated.

I appreciate the General Overseer, General Superintendent, Bible Training Institute Representative, office personnel in the department, people on the field and my family for praying for and helping me in many ways to serve the Church as Representative of Bible Training Institute and to "God be the glory!"

Respectfully submitted,
BENJAMIN LAWRENCE

Present Financial System

NOTE TO MINISTERS AND TREASURERS: Fill in all reports accurately and completely. Write or print plainly. If assistance is needed, write to Jerlena Riley, Box 2970, Cleveland, Tennessee 37320-2970.

TITHES: Members should pay their tithes into the treasury of the local church where they are members. Ministers send the tithes of income from the ministry with their monthly reports to the Financial Director, and tithes on income outside the ministry are paid into the treasury of the local church where they are members.

The treasurer of the church is to send 10 percent of tithes received each month with the treasurer's report to the appropriate address.

United States, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands—Jerlena Riley, Box 2970 Cleveland, Tennessee 37320-2970.

Other reports should be addressed to The Church of God of Prophecy, General Headquarters Field Office in your respective area, or contact your Overseer.

The Assembly recommends that the Administrative Committee be authorized to decide the allotments of Pastors, State Overseers and General Workers each year.

The Assembly recommends that the allotment of the General Overseer and that pay for incidental expenses plus any and all personal necessities be left to the discretion of the Administrative Committee.

The treasurer of the local church sends 10% of the tithes received each month to the treasurer of his state or nation and 10% to Financial Director. The pastor's allotment is paid from the balance, not to exceed the amount set by the Administrative Committee; any remainder goes into the surplus tithes.

The sum of $1,000 received each month by the General Appointees and the State Overseers be designated for rent and utilities. Should the rent and utilities be under the above amount, the remaining amount would be included as income. Where feasible, this is also applicable to pastors, full-time evangelists and retired ministers. (Note: This recommendation is for income tax purposes only, and involves no extra allotment. The allotment received by the retired ministers is to be designated as a "Housing and Utilities Gift of Appreciation.")

Surplus tithes accruing in any local church are to be left in the tithe fund account of the local church treasury until after the last Sunday in June, at which time it is properly divided: 10% to be sent to the Financial Director to be used at the discretion of the Administrative Committee; 25% to be sent to the state or national treasurer to be used at the discretion of the State or National Overseer and Finance and Appropriations Committee and the 65% left in the local church should be presented by the local Committee as a proposed budget plan for approval by the local church conference. First consideration be given to the pastor's expense in the ministry; said expenses being already defined in the Church Business Guide.

The Assembly recommends that all local church treasurers mail their reports to the state or national treasurer no later than the 5th of each month. From the funds received, the State or National Overseer would receive his allotment and expense (if funds are available) according to the rulings of the General Assembly.

The Administrative Committee agrees that all General Headquarters Appointees receive an allotment of $2,080.00 monthly, if funds are available; and that incidental expense incurred by these General Appointees be left to the discretion of the Administrative Committee.

Overseers in the United States are to receive no more than $2,080.00 monthly. Office expense incurred by the State/National Overseers shall be paid by the State/National Treasurer, from the general state/national funds, if funds are available. Any funds in excess of this amount received by the treasurer are to be kept in the state treasury to be placed in the general state fund for the state work, especially to assist pastors of weaker churches.

The Administrative Committee agrees that the pastor receive an amount not to exceed $2,080.00 monthly from the tithes of the local church after General Headquarters and the State Overseer have received their portions, if funds are available. This does not include offerings and poundings received by the pastor.

Allotments for Overseers outside the United States where there is not sufficient tithes to cover the allotments, the remaining portion be supplied by making transfers of Tithe Funds between countries where this is legally permissible and from the United States Tithe Fund in other cases, if funds are available, and that each Overseer should receive an allotment in the currency of the country or the territory he represents according to the average prevailing wage rates of each country.

The Assembly has ruled that tithes are for the support of the ministry only. Surplus tithes received at General Headquarters are disbursed at the discretion of the Administrative Committee. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all tithes sent to General Headquarters. The tithes of nonmembers that are paid into the local church treasury are to be paid through the regular channel the same as the tithes of members.

Ministry is defined as the office, duties, or functions of a minister; the building in which business of the ministry is transacted; thus, the ministry includes any and all phases of the Church ministry, such as church property, equipment, maintenance, etc.

HERITAGE CARE FUND: [Mission Homes for Children] All Heritage Care Fund offerings remain in the local church treasury, 90% of such to be turned in at the state/national convention. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 20% to be retained by the state/national treasury for improving, building and maintaining the headquarters; the remaining balance to be subsequently divided: 10% to the general treasury, 10% to the state/national treasury, 10% to Ministerial Aid, 35% to Tomlinson College and 35% to Mission Homes for Children. The Financial Director sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state/nation to the respective state/national treasurer for the general state/national fund. The Assembly has recommended that 10% of the Assembly offerings of the Heritage Care Fund be retained by General Headquarters for General Properties, 40% for Tomlinson College and 40% for Mission Homes for Children.

EMERGENCY FUND: All ministers and members are to pay one dollar a year, or the amount set by the World Mission Committee where applicable, into the treasury of the local churches where their memberships are, and the treasurer sends the emergency dollars as collected with his monthly report. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all emergency money sent to General Headquarters.

GENERAL PROPERTIES FUND: The Assembly recommends these portions be designated as General Properties Fund:

1. Not less than 50% of the CPMA membership each year after 10% is deducted for Ministerial Aid;
2. 10% of the state and national convention offerings;
3. 10% of the Assembly offerings of Heritage Care Fund and Bible Training Institute.

The Assembly recommends that if there should be any deficit occurring in the General Properties Fund in making the monthly payments, such deficit be paid from the General Fund.

MISSION MONEY: The second Sunday mission offering and mission money raised by other means remain in the local church treasury, 90% of such to be turned in at the state and national convention. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: for the improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state convention mission offering is to remain in the state treasury. The Financial Director receives 10% of the balance and the state treasurer keeps 10%, or an equal amount. Half of the remainder is left in the state for the general state fund, and half sent to the Financial Director as world mission money.

The Financial Director receives all mission money collected in the March and October drives for world missions. It is to be sent with the local treasurer's monthly report. All mission offerings at the Assembly are turned in to the Financial Director as world mission money. The Financial Director sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of the mission money sent to the Financial Director.

FIRST SUNDAY OFFERING: Each local church receives an offering for the pastor on the first Sunday of each month.

DISTRICT OVERSEER SUPPORT: The Assembly recommends that a love offering be received for the district overseer in his district convention. If the district overseer is requested by the State Overseer to perform a duty involving considerable expense, the State Overseer will be responsible for such expense.

FOURTH SUNDAY OFFERING: The local church treasurer sends the full amount of the fourth Sunday offering to the State/National Treasurer to be designated and used as Overseer's expense. If there are not sufficient fourth Sunday offerings to cover his expense as Overseer, the excess tithes in the state/national treasury may be used to supplement the fourth Sunday offerings. DO NOT send any of the fourth Sunday offerings to the Financial Director. Each local church should receive poundings for the Overseer once or twice a year. (See section 2 in the Ways and Means Committee Report.)

VICTORY LEADERS BAND OFFERING: 90% of all money raised for the Free Literature Fund by the Victory Leaders is given in at the state or national convention. Money for the expense of the band should be received in a special offering. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: for the improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state or national convention free literature offering is left in the state treasury. The Financial Director receives 10% of the balance and the state treasurer retains 20% for the general state fund. The balance is sent to the White Wing Publishing House. The Assembly Free Literature Offering is given to the World Language Department. The White Wing Publishing House sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all free literature and world literature outreach monies received by the White Wing Publishing House, and the balance is disbursed by the Church Publishing Committee.

ASSEMBLY EXPENSE: To assist in the expense of the annual assemblies, the State Overseers are asked to collect funds each year and send to the Financial Director.

a. Churches having less than 50 in Sunday School are to contribute annually $2.00 to Assembly expense; churches with Sunday School attendance between 50 and 100 are to contribute $3.00 annually; churches averaging 100 to 150 in Sunday School are to contribute $5.00 annually; churches with Sunday School attendance of 150 and over are to contribute $7.00 annually.

b. Each Victory Leaders Band is to contribute $2.00 annually; each Women's Missionary Band is to contribute $2.00 annually, and each minister, including deacons and lay ministers, is to contribute $1.00 annually.

c. The Assembly recommends that the pastors be responsible for collecting the Assembly Expense Dollars for the auxiliaries and forward to the State Overseer, and the State Overseer be responsible to collect the dollars from the ministers in his state. These funds are to be mailed to the Financial Director as collected. The final report of the Assembly expense should be given by the Overseer with the state convention report to the Financial Director, and the State Secretaries be responsible to the State Overseer to boost and assist in collecting these funds.

CHURCH OF PROPHECY MARKER ASSOCIATION: To be a member of the Church of Prophecy Marker Association, one pays $5.00 a year, any time during the year. In other nations, to become a member one must pay an amount set by the Overseer and CPMA Committee.

CPMA offerings remain in the local church treasury, 90% of which are turned in at the state convention. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 20% of the CPMA state convention offering remains in the state treasury for improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters; 10% of the balance is sent to the Financial Director, and an equal amount is sent to the state treasurer for the state work, and an equal amount is sent to the Financial Director for The Ministerial Aid Fund. Of the amount presently remaining in the state treasury, 50% is to be sent to the Financial Director. Not less than 50% of the CPMA membership fees each year, after 10% is deducted for Ministerial Aid, is to go to the General Properties Fund.

BIBLE TRAINING INSTITUTE: The Assembly recommends that the pastors be responsible for conducting classes in the local churches to acquaint our people with the doctrine and practices of the Church. Offerings received in the classes are turned in at the state convention to assist Bible Training Institute in teaching other nations. 10% of state and national convention offerings and Assembly offerings of Bible Training Institute are to be sent to General Headquarters for the General Properties Fund.

World Must Be Evangelized

It will take good organization and systematic methods to accomplish this task.

God's power is demonstrated in proportion to the unity and oneness of His people.

The members of the early Church were all of one accord, steadfast in the Apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and the multitute that believed were of one heart and one soul, and great grace was upon them all and mighty results followed as a consequence of their perfect unity and careful organization.

We must banish from our minds the thoughts of individual or local independence and haphazard spasmodic efforts.

Pull together, pull at once, pull steadily all the time is the road to success.

All members should be ready to center their minds and prayers on the one thing, as a unit, when calls for special prayer are made. Each should feel his or her part of the responsibility, remembering that when one member fails, it hinders the body until the matter pending may fail.

Local Church Officers and Leaders

1. Pastor: It is the duty of the State or National Overseer to supply every church under his jurisdiction with a pastor. Pastors are to be appointed at the state or national convention every two years beginning 1991, and vacancies will be filled as they occur. The duties of the pastor expire at midnight the last Sunday in July at the church he is leaving and automatically begin at the same time at the church to which he is moving.

2. Clerk: The local church clerk is to be appointed by the pastor at the same time as the other leaders and officers are appointed during the first two months of his pastoral year. The pastor is to see that a careful record is made by the church clerk of this action. The date of the appointments along with names of each leader should be recorded in the following conference as a matter of good business.

3. Treasurer: The treasurer is appointed in the same manner as the clerk. It is advised that one person serve as both clerk and treasurer when satisfactory to the local church. The treasurer will receive and disburse all funds of the local church including tithes, auxiliary funds and special funds and will maintain an accurate record of all receipts and disbursements.

4. Auxiliary Leaders: Leaders for the five auxiliaries—Sunday School, Women's Missionary Band, Victory Leaders Band, Church of Prophecy Marker Association, Pastoral Care—are appointed by the pastor during the first two months of his pastoral year.

Each pastor, with the assistance of the deacons, should divide his members into bands of ten or twelve and appoint a leader for each band. The leader should keep in touch with each member of the band, and if any should move away, communications should be kept up by correspondence. This is for the spiritual benefit of the members. The pastor should keep in close touch with the band leaders.

5. Local Trustees: Trustees to hold title to local church property are selected by the local church in a regular or called business meeting and are authorized to bargain, buy, sell, convey or encumber the local property only when authorized to do so by the local church in a regular or called business meeting, with the knowledge of the state/national overseer and with the written consent of the General Trustees.

6. Other Officers and Leaders: The Assembly has authorized the pastor to appoint a Church Literature Representative, Public Relations Director, Bible Training Institute Booster and any other leaders during the first two months of his pastoral year.

Business Meetings

Each local church should hold a regular business conference quarterly. It has been the practice to observe the first Monday night in January, April, July, and October for the conference. A meeting may be called any time by the pastor or State Overseer. A short business meeting may be held at the beginning or close of a meeting for worship.

The pastor should act as moderator of all business meetings. If there is no pastor, the State Overseer has the authority to act or to appoint a licensed male minister to preside. Where one pastor has the care of several churches, he may arrange the business meetings for his convenience.

Every member should attend every business session if possible. Women are to take no open part in discussing or deciding questions, but should always be there and silently pray that God will give wisdom and direct the men.

Matters should be discussed with love, humility and meekness. No votes should be taken to decide questions. Everything should be done with one accord and questions settled by mutual agreement. If there is division on a matter, hold it over until all can agree. If one should seem obstinate and contrary, do not run the matter over him, but take up his case and investigate the cause of his obstinacy; if he shows a good spirit so that he can be heard, then show him courtesy. If he proves to be wrong, deal with him as the Bible directs. Then, take up the original subject and dispose of it in harmony and love.

If a matter cannot be settled satisfactorily by the local church, they should call for the assistance of the State Overseer. If they are still unable to reach a satisfactory conclusion, it should be referred to the General Overseer.

Suggested Arrangement and Order of Business

The clerk and treasurer should be seated at the front, near the moderator. Leaders who will be submitting reports to the conference, a long with lay ministers and deacons, should also be seated near the front.

The conference should be opened with an appropriate Scripture reading and a sincere prayer for divine guidance.

Clerk read minutes of last regular meeting and any called meetings.

Correction of minutes, if any.

Treasurer give report of finances and always give an itemized statement of receipts and disbursements and balance in treasury.

Leader of WMB give report of the work of the band, including finances, receipts and disbursements.

Victory Leaders Director give report of the work and progress of the band, including finances, receipts and disbursements.

Pastor give report of the Pastoral Care work, amount of money raised monthly, number of strays found and brought back (Luke 15:4-6), and give account of every member of his flock (Hebrews 13:17).

Report of CPMA Leader—number of members and receipts.

The Sunday School Superintendent give report of the work and progress of the school, including finances, receipts and disbursements.

Report of church literature representative.

Acceptance of transfers.

Members to transfer.

Unfinished business

New business.

Adjournment by prayer.

Advice to Members

As a member, you count one and should attend every regular service as far as possible. Remember no one can fill your place and the service will be that much hindered without your presence.

Show love and fellowship to everyone without partiality. Don't wait for others to greet you but you greet them.

Show special courtesy to strangers who may attend one of your services.

As a rule, take part in the singing.

Be ready for vocal prayer when called on or prompted by the Spirit.

Be ready for testimony when such is in order.

Stand by your pastor or appointed leader and assist him in every way you can.

Always pray silently for the preacher while he delivers the message. Always live a consecrated life at home and abroad so no one can justly think or speak of you as a hypocrite.

Guard your conversation. Be careful what you say about a brother, sister, or anyone else.

Don't be a critic and try to find something in others to criticize.

Examine yourself occasionally and see if you are in the faith.

Don't yield to discouragement or despondency.

Be cheerful and happy and try to make others the same.

Spend as much time as you can in secret prayer. Give yourself all you can to intercessory prayer. Daily prayers and study of God's Word are necessary and very important for the spiritual welfare of each child of God; therefore, everyone is urged to faithfully maintain as far as is possible family worship at home at least once a day.

Your dress should be with moderation, neat and clean, but not for show. Moderation includes paying moderate prices for clothing, wearing dresses of high-enough necklines, low-enough hemlines, sleeves of reasonable length. The wearing of extremely sheer fabrics is unbecoming to a saint and the wearing of shorts in public should never be practiced. You should never wear gold for ornament or decoration. Finger rings, bracelets, earrings, necklaces, lockets and large showy pins—these are also unbecoming to a saint of God. Rouge, lipstick, nail polish and extremely costly perfumes are used to satisfy the pride of life and therefore they should have no place in the lives of those who love God. Please read and study these scriptures often: 1 Peter 3:3, 4; 1 Timothy 2:9, 10 and 1 John 2:15-17.

You should not permit yourself to be trapped by worldly attractions. The Bible says, "Neither give place to the devil." Dabbling with worldly amusements like professional ball games, horse races, stock car races, wrestling arenas, skating rinks, motion picture houses or drive-in theaters, bowling alleys and going swimming where men and women both use the same bathing area would give the devil a foothold or place in your life.

Always tithe your income and put it in the church treasury. Make freewill offerings other than your tithes.

Younger members should not keep company or associate too intimately with worldly outsiders.

Because of the ever-increasing number of broken homes, separations, divorces and remarriages, the greatest care should be taken with much prayer and consideration regarding proposed matrimony.

A member who may have a living companion should not marry another under any circumstances, even if divorced. Neither should a member marry anyone who has a living companion although such a person may be divorced.

Children are a heritage from the Lord. Those who have children are responsible to teach them at an early age to reverence the house of God. This should be done by setting a good example before them and by instructing them with such a good spirit that they will have a strong desire to serve the Lord. MINISTERS are to meet all of the requirements in being examples to the members by keeping their children under reasonable control at all times and by restraining them from running about over the house of God, especially while the services are in progress.

The White Wing Messenger is a very important part of the Church of God. It should be read regularly be every member and your interest in advertising the Church should be so great that when you have finished reading your copy, you would pass it along to someone else. Every member who possibly can should subscribe, and each minister is asked to be a "paid-up" subscriber and an earnest worker for our church paper—The White Wing Messenger.

These are the last days and perilous times have come and it will require much watchfulness and humble prayer for you to so live and act that you will never bring reproach on the worthy name of Christ and His Church that you so much love.

Never form too close an intimacy with the opposite sex even if they are brothers and sisters in the Lord. Give no place to the Adversary. Abstain from the very appearance of evil.

These kindly instructions and advice are given by those who are watching for your soul as they must give an account (Hebrews13:17), and it is hoped they will be received with the same meek, gentle spirit in which they are given.

Rationale

In the 74th Annual Assembly, the General Overseer addressed an on-going problem relative to "Advice to Members," and in a section devoted to that subject said, "For many years our Assembly Minutes have contained a section entitled Advice to Members. These instructions were prepared for the purpose of providing counsel to the members of the Church to aid them in fighting the good fight of faith.

"From time to time we hear of those who assume a legalistic attitude with regards to the Advice to Members, as though they would make commandments of the things mentioned in this advice. The display of such attitudes usually does more harm than good. A gentle spirit of teaching will be much more effective than attempts to enforce as laws those things which have been set forth as advice....

"Perhaps we should take a closer look at this section of our Assembly Minutes, and at the spirit in which it is given" (74 AM, 1979, p. 41).

In spite of the General Overseer's admonition, many continue to take a harsh and judgmental approach in presenting the Advice to Members.

Holiness cannot be characterized as living in conformity with a list of prohibitions. True holiness manifests a Christ like nature in word and deed, and controls every area of one's life, external and internal.

For those who follow a holy God, the New Testament principles of holiness clearly reject such conduct as viewing pornographic films, reading sexually explicit literature, gambling, slanderous gossip, child abuse, spouse battering, and every other wrong conduct. On the positive side, a holy people are also diligent in perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

In the Advice to Members it is almost impossible to list everything which should be approved and/or disapproved for all people, in all cultures, under all conditions, for all time. Clearly, the New Testament principles of holiness are in every way superior to and more demanding than any list the General Assembly could possibly devise.

Resolution

The Advice to Members has its foundations in the New Testament. There the guidelines for proper Christian conduct in every situation are clearly given. All matters of personal Christian ethics are to be governed by the following principles: (1) In everything we are to "walk worthy of the vocation wherewith [we] are called" (Ephesians 4:1), not permitting any conduct in ourselves which would bring reproach on the name of Jesus. (2) We are to "abstain from all appearance of evil" (1Thessalonians 5:22; Romans 12:9; 1 Timothy 5:14; 1 Peter 3:11). (3) In word or deed, "neither give place to the devil" (Ephesians 4:27). (4) "Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsover ye do, do all to the glory of God" (1 Corinthians10:31). (5) In matters of conscience, we are to avoid offending others who might stumble over our conduct (Matthew18:7; Mark 9:42; Romans 14:21; 1 Corinthians 8:13; 10:32; 2 Corinthians 6:3). (6) We must ourselves keep a clean conscience before God, and not violate our own convictions regarding any matter (Romans 13:5; 14:22, 23; 1 Corinthians 8:7). (7) We must not judge one another in non essential matters of personal conviction (Romans 14:1-5, 19). (8) We must maintain a moderate lifestyle which will reflect the inner character of a meek and quiet spirit (Romans 12:1, 2; 1 Corinthians 9:25; Galatians 5:22, 23; 1 Timothy 2:9, 10; 1 Peter 3:3, 4; 1 John 2:15, 16). (9) By our conduct we must adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things (Titus 2:1-10). (10) We must continue to perfect holiness in the fear of God by cleansing ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit (2 Corinthians 7:1).

Duties of State and National Overseers

Each overseer is to have the oversight of his state, nation or territory, and together with the General Overseer, will form the presbytery in his respective area. In addition to his general responsibility for the work under his jurisdiction, he will be responsible for specific duties.

To conduct or order a general evangelistic campaign during the year. If there are only a few churches in the state or are assigned him, he will serve primarily as the evangelist, evangelizing in new fields and endeavoring to establish new churches. If his area has a large number of churches and ministers, he will be responsible to organize and direct the evangelistic efforts of his workers in new fields.

To see that every church is supplied with a pastor.

To divide his state or territory into districts and place over each district an overseer. This is not a rule, but it is considered best when there are sufficient churches to make it practical. He should conduct district meetings at intervals during the year where special instructions concerning the work can be given.

To hold one general convention each year in the area most convenient for members from all the churches to attend.

To secure the name and address of every bishop, deacon, and evangelist under his jurisdiction and keep a record of these so he can report to the General Overseer, if necessary. He will also issue lay ministers' certificates and teachers' licenses and keep the necessary records concerning them.

Keep an accurate record of the location of every church and the number of members in his territory, keeping a record of the increase so this information can be reported each year. This can be done by keeping in touch with the clerks of the churches. Every minister and clerk should take an interest in imparting this information to the overseer. All new organizations should be reported to the overseer.

To visit every district and church, if possible, and look after the interests in every way, as a pastor over a large circuit.

Duties of District Overseers

The district overseers are to be appointed by the State Overseer.

To moderate business conferences for women preachers who maybe acting as pastors and for male pastors who are not licensed.

To do evangelistic work in his district. If he has a district with no churches, it is his duty to evangelize and organize churches.

To conduct district conventions according to the instructions of the State Overseer.

To assist the State Overseer, when called upon, in all things relating to church work, and he is subject to the State Overseer.
