MINUTES OF THE 83RD ANNUAL ASSEMBLY

Prefatory Notes

This was no ordinary Assembly. There was an overwhelming sense of God's presence among us and of His speaking to us. It was evident that His Church was experiencing a divine visitation in which He was urging us onward into a richer and fuller dimension of His grace. The auxiliary programs were not ordinary; the preaching was not ordinary; the General Overseer's Annual Address was not ordinary; the business sessions were not ordinary.

Even in the events which preceded the Assembly, there was unmistakable evidence that things would not be ordinary this year. In the luncheon for those under general appointment, hosted by the General Overseer and his wife, the Holy Ghost spoke clearly to us through a message in tongues and interpretation. It was humbling to sense His nearness.

Pre-Assembly events also included an appreciation luncheon hosted by the Cleveland/Bradley County Chamber of Commerce, the Tomlinson College Scholarship Fund Banquet, the Annual Presbytery Meeting and the Fields of the Wood program. Of course, the local churches are flooded with visitors on Sunday morning, and these services inevitably become a part of the Assembly's beginning. In these the Lord blessed His people.

In addition to those who were present from all fifty states, there were sixty-seven other nations represented. It is amazing to witness the blending together in unity of spirit such a wide variety of cultures from around the world. The oneness experienced is something which only the Holy Ghost can bring about.

We are grateful for the good coverage provided the Assembly by the news media, as well as the hospitality of the officials and citizens of Cleveland and Bradley County. Without this hospitality by the local people the Assembly could not be accommodated here. The motels that are available would in no way be sufficient to house the large number of delegates.

Much work and planning went into this week-long gathering, and all who cooperated are to be commended for their labors. Every department of the Church was ably promoted, and we sincerely appreciate our faithful workers. To God be the glory for all that was accomplished, because it is for His glory that we came together.

The 84th Assembly will be held, God willing, September 4-10, 1989.

I want to thank each one of you who prayed a prayer for your General Overseer this year. I believe it is through your prayers that I am here today." He read a passage of scripture from Acts 15:4-7 and then prayed a prayer asking for the Holy Ghost's guidance. Then with the sounding of the gavel he declared the Assembly in session for the transaction of business.

Five retired bishops, Joe C. Crews, Boyd Thornton, Clyde Clayton, Orville Trump and H. M. Biggers, prayed a concert prayer, followed by another congregational prayer. Brother Mixon introduced family members and gave a testimony of the miraculous healing of his great-niece of spinal meningitis. Esther Lopez sang, "The Unshakable Kingdom."

3:40 Message by C. S. Pennington, "Under the Shadow of His Wings." Using Matthew 23:37 as a text, where Jesus lamented Jerusalem's refusal to accept their visitation from God, saying, "... how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings," he referred to the farm where he grew up. He related how the little chicks would seek the cover of the mother hen's wings during a storm or when a hawk was overhead, and then pointed out that we have such a cover today. He spoke of God's blessings upon the children of Israel through a cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night, of the three Hebrew children's protection in a fiery furnace.

David's trust in God was emphasized, who delivered him from the bear, the lion and from Goliath. In Psalm 57:1 David prayed, "Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast." Brother Pennington spoke further of Christ's protection of His disciples during a storm on the Sea of Galilee. Referring to Philippians 4:19, "But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus," he assured the congregation, "Standing somewhere in the shadows, you'll find Jesus."

4:03 In a Special Tribute to widows, Alice Moxley, widow of Bishop L. A. Moxley, was given special recognition. Sister Moxley is 96 years old and has been a member of the Church for 75 years. Prayer was offered for all widows in the Church.

TRIBUTE TO WIDOWS

Widows are mentioned in the Bible about 75 times. The Lord frequently recommends to His people to be very careful in affording relief to the widows and orphans.

In Exodus 22:22, we read: "Ye shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child," and in Deuteronomy 10:18, "He doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment."

We are told in James 1:27, "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world."

If one takes a concordance and goes through all the scriptures referring to widows, he will find many admonitions from the Lord on how to treat widows. He will also find many instructions to widows and about widows on how to keep themselves built up in the faith and strong in the Lord.

In the Church of God of Prophecy there are about 3,000 widows. Widows, you are not alone. There are millions whose companions have gone on and left them to carry on. Since we are all under the curse pronounced on the earth at the rebellion of Adam, then your companions have had to answer to the "law of death," as every living creature will do eventually; but there is a higher law than the law of death, and that is, the "law of resurrection." Even Jesus our Saviour made Himself subject to the "law of death," but three days later He exercised the "law of resurrection" and came forth—alive forevermore. Because He is above all laws, one day soon those who were separated from you in this physical world will be reunited by the resurrection.

Widows of the Church of God, you are a special group of people. God has done marvelous things for you. You have been chosen from the millions of widows in the world, and God's grace has been revealed to and in you. You are like the special one Jesus referred to in Luke 4:25, "But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land; But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow."

No greater human interest story could ever be told than those about widows in the Bible. All of Israel talked about the deeds of the widow of Zarephath right on up to the time of Christ, and I am sure that Israel still talks about it. Even Bible readers still talk about it to this day. We have no way of knowing the tens of thousands of sermons preached about the deeds of widows.

In Luke 2:47, we read of a widow named Anna who was 84 years old. She never departed from the Temple, but served God with fastings and prayer. She lost her husband after seven years of marriage and was left a widow at an early age and lived as a widow for sixty years. She spent her years serving God, and she has never been forgotten.

Thank the Lord for her and for our widows today who are zealously affected for the Church, who love the Church, who spend their time serving God in fastings and prayers. Because of your labor of love and dedication, you are honored.

In Luke 7:13, 14, Jesus had compassion on a widow who had lost her only son. He was touched by her sorrow and said, "Weep not." Then He exercised the higher law over death, the law of resurrection, and brought the young man back to life. There was great comfort as tears of sorrow turned into tears of joy, laughter and praise unto God.

Many of you have had extreme sorrow, but Jesus understands, and He is compassionate and has comforted your hearts.

Others of you are like the widow in Luke 21:2-4, who of her very living gave to support the Temple. Jesus commended her, and what she did has been spoken of as a memorial throughout the centuries.

Some of you have sacrificed and helped keep the doors of some churches open by giving and sharing of your living until others could pick up the torch and carry it on.

God bless you, our courageous ladies, whose hearts God fills with joy and whose mouths are filled with the laughter of sanctification. We love you and appreciate you and forever remember you in prayer. We commend you to our soon-coming King. We salute you!

4:13 Memorial Tribute to those ministers who departed this life this year.

MEMORIAL TRIBUTE

Scripture reading: 1 Samuel 30:7-10, 21-25. We read here of a battle that foreshadows and is somewhat typical of the Christian warfare, especially typical of those who labor on the front lines or at home.

Like in our biblical story, today there come times in the lives of faithful ministers when they are not as strong physically as others. Because of the curse that is on the earth, every human being has the witness of God's Word within his body and the witness of those around him, including nature itself, that he will grow older and weaken in physical stamina and eventually depart this earthly life.

We are honoring faithful warriors today who have served in various capacities in the Lord's kingdom. Some of them were well known, others were unknown and perhaps not even appreciated in this life. Among some of the many surprises in heaven will be the recognition and honor that the Lord will give to all.

Some may have the false idea that those who are best known will be the ones that receive the greatest rewards, but this is not true.

I am sure that Brother Paul, as he penned the words about fighting the good fight of faith, of keeping the faith, of henceforth having the longed-for crown and reward waiting for him, was desirous and enthusiastic about every other believer receiving his reward, too.

In 1 Samuel 30:24, we read, "... as his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be that tarrieth by the stuff." Here David said that those who remained behind with the supplies would share the spoils equally with those who fought the battle. This holds true in service for the Lord.

Some of the soldiers we pay tribute to today became weary in their physical bodies. Some had illness or circumstances which kept them from doing what other more able-bodied people could do, but their reward will be the same.

We salute these brave warriors today who have fallen in the battle, who denied themselves, who took up their crosses, and followed the Lord. They did not lose their lives. They have found their lives, and they share in the Lord's glory.

"For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works" (Matthew 16:27). We are very swiftly drawing closer to the fulfillment of this prophecy. Our Lord is coming soon in the glory of His Father. The dead in Christ shall rise first. There will be a bodily resurrection of the dear saints that we have paid tribute to through the years, and here today. Some of us still standing may not taste death, but will be changed in the twinkling of an eye and rise to be with the Lord. What a glorious day that will be! What a glorious moment! Someone has said:

Sometimes on the Rock I tremble,
Faint of heart and weak of knee;
But the steadfast Rock of Ages
Never trembles under me.

PRAYER: Our Father, we thank You today for the steadfastness of these beautiful people who gave of their very best in service for You. They loved You, Lord, and their bodies wore out. They gave up the ghost to be with You, and we know that when You come, You will resurrect their bodies and glorify those bodies so that never again will they know tiredness, pain, suffering or misery. They will never again be limited with physical bodies. O God, we thank You for the provision and the way that You have made the glorious salvation and deliverance. O Lord, we thank You for the mercy that lasts forever. We thank You for honoring these precious people today, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost. Amen.

There have been 81 deaths in 23 states and 14 nations. The Overseers of these ministers came to the platform and stood with small Church flags as the Assembly stood in a silent tribute. A. T. Wagar lowered the flag to half-mast as taps were played on the trumpet by Dennis Shroyer. A special prayer was prayed by the General Overseer.

4:30 Recognition of those who have been members of the Church for 30 years or more was directed by E. H. Griffith. 167 persons marched by the microphone to announce their length of memberships.

4:47 Message by Ron Martin from Alabama, "Children of Promise," presented here in an abridged form.

"Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman. But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise. Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants . . . Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise" (Galatians 4:21-24, 28).

Andrew Law once said, "Theology and Christian music move hand in hand into time and will continue eternally to illustrate, embellish, enforce, impress and fix in the minds of men, the grand and glorious truths of Christianity." This basic principle may be best illustrated in a beautiful chorus that has been sung throughout the years, for the lyric of this tune offers great hope and inspiration to those who put their trust in God for guidance and strength.

"Every promise in the Book is mine,

Every chapter, every verse, every line.

I am trusting in His love divine,

Every promise in the Book is mine."

The connotation of this song is that when a man has truly placed his trust in the Almighty God, then the promises of the Living Word belong to him, for God's truths are constant and sure. To have such confidence in an established foundation means that we have hope for tomorrow. Yet, I think that this song may also illustrate the point that when a man makes no attempt to offer himself to God's redemptive provisions, he then becomes heir to the promises of judgment, punishment and damnation.

Over the years some have insinuated that a mere profession of faith in God is an adequate means for laying claim to God's promises; yet, James says that faith without works is dead. Our faith must be accompanied by godly living in this present world. Others have taught that a simple adherence to a set of rules was the method of securing God's favor. Yet, Paul states, "For what the law [or rules] could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit" (Romans 8:3, 4).

It is the Spirit working in the hearts of individuals that gives us life. Without the Spirit's control rules become only a yoke, a bondage. The law had no power to save but only to reveal man's sinful condition. One writer said, "The law in its weakness says 'do and live,' but grace, through the power of Jesus Christ, says 'live and do.'" Christ declared, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me . . . For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light" (Matthew 11:28-30).

There is no place in God's order for the flesh to have preeminence over the Spirit; in fact, our only hope today is through submission and obedience to God's will. Paul reflected this thought when he was attempting to enlighten the Galatians' understanding of God's principles. His epistle was written counteracting the Judaists that were attempting to destroy and corrupt the gospel.

In Paul's letter to the Galatians, from which our text is taken, Ishmael was a product of the flesh, Isaac might never have been born were it not for the promise of God. While both were sons of Abraham, unity could not prevail in his household until the son of the flesh was removed so that the son of promise could be heir to the inheritance. The spiritual concept that Paul was trying to bring to our attention is that the works of the flesh have no place in the household of the living God. You and I have been bought with a great price—the blood of Jesus our Lord and Saviour, and this redemptive factor has stood the test of time to prove to us that His blood is sufficient for our salvation. Circumcision of the flesh can never effectively replace a circumcised heart. We are not of that earthly Jerusalem but of the heavenly. We are free in Jesus Christ today. We, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

10:34 Song by Ron Lee from Michigan, "Praise Him, Praise Him."

10:41 "Making the Church Known," message by Rick Lyles, pastor from Rapid City, South Dakota, presented in an abridged form.

I've been involved in various methods of creating a public knowledge of the Church, but I am convinced that the greatest and most needed method is the manifestation of the power of the Holy Ghost in the midst of the Church of God. I have seen revivals where no advertisement was needed—it was noised abroad. It has been stated that when men, women and children are confronted by the Church in their suffering and their need, they care little how big or how small we are, but what they are concerned about is whether or not we have the power to help them.

"Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee . . . and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me" (John 17:7, 8). When Jesus was on this earth, He glorified the Father through the completion of His mission by humble obedience. He finished the work the Father had given Him to do. He knew His mission—He knew His purpose. He responded with urgency to the needs of those around Him, and through this His identity was revealed to any who received His message.

Jesus said, "I have given unto them the words that thou gavest me." It's very easy, almost without being conscious of the fact, to alter the meaning of another's statement by adding or deleting a word or a phrase. Christ was very careful to speak only those words of instruction and doctrine given Him by the Father. He did not add to or delete from them in any fashion. And they that received them saw that He was Christ. His identity was revealed. There was no other sound like the voice of God.

When an individual is repeated, his words are heard but not his voice; whereas, when the pure words that are given by the Father are spoken, His voice is intermingled in them. One does not simply hear His Words, but is able also to hear His voice.

In John chapter 7, officers were sent to arrest Christ, but they returned without Him. And when they were questioned, their reason was simply "... Never man spake like this man" (v. 46).

In John 12:49, Christ cried out, "For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak." There are others who at one time or another claimed to be divine entities. But this man sounded different. When He spoke, His words were direct from Heaven. His words were not simply audible to the human ear, but were supernatural. They reached into the very depths of a man's soul. I've been guilty of preaching when people simply heard me. They heard my voice, and I revealed no one unto them. I hold no power of revelation. But when God speaks, when God's voice is heard, revelation is given! Identity is revealed!

In Deuteronomy 18:9-13, the people of God are being instructed to be different from all other nations; however, in the last verse of that chapter they are given the means by which to identify a true prophet sent from God. It was a very simple process. "When a prophet speaketh in the name of the Lord, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him."

The Church of God is to sound different and to be different from all other nations and she is being observed in what she says and in what she does as to whether she be sent from God or is merely another product of man's organizational skills. Is she true or false? Who is she? Is she the one, or do we look for another? These are the questions being asked in the hearts and minds of many today. Audible words alone will not give them the answer. Visual sighting will not satisfy their inquiries. They must be able to hear God's voice and to see God's power in her midst. Jesus said, "My sheep hear my voice . . . and they follow me" (John 10:27). If they cannot hear His voice they will not follow.

The Great Commission is a mind-boggling responsibility. But if the Church goes and speaks only the truths of Christ and the apostles, she will be identified by all who receive the Word. It may very well be true that if our congregations are never multiplied with new converts and members, that we are not obeying the commission of going and teaching only that which we are authorized to teach. If we speak that which God has not given, we are speaking without the authority He has given the Church. But if we speak only that which He has commanded, we have His promise, ". . . and, lo, I am with you alway" (Matthew 28:20).

Some may be guilty of adding to or deleting from the message; however, when we speak only those things which He has commanded, I firmly believe that we will be added to by the hundreds and by the thousands. I read it in the Bible. I see it where Peter preached under the anointing of the Holy Ghost and spoke that which was prophesied by Joel, which was given by God. The Bible said that 3,000 souls were added unto them. Thereby the Church will be made known in every community she enters and presently exists.

Making the Church known is more than buying a building, more than putting up a sign, more than taking out an ad in the newspaper. If we say we are the Church of God, then God should be seen and heard within us or we make ourselves liars.

Unfortunately there are those communities where the Church is not being believed. Now that's sad, but it's true. The reason is that opinions and interpretations which were in reality cultural or traditional practices, or individual tastes, were promoted as Bible doctrine—and what the people were hearing was not God speaking to them but just another organization speaking to them. Since His sheep know His voice they would not believe—they would not follow.

Whether this was done ignorantly or intentionally, the scriptural warning still applies as recorded in Proverbs 30:6, "Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." In some cases, our brothers and sisters who desire to unite with the Church are prohibited from joining and are lost to the Church because they do not measure up to certain individual specifications. If I add to His Word or if I take away from His Word, then the Bible says that He will reprove me and exhibit me as a liar.

Yet Acts 2:7 records that people were brought into the Church immediately after they were saved. There was such a presence of God and such a willingness to obey among the early Church that the Holy Ghost had seemingly unlimited freedom to demonstrate His power among them. And as He did, we are given the indication that it left little question in the people's minds as to the identity of that group of people being God's Church. When Peter had finished preaching, they began to cry "... brethren, what shall we do?" (v. 37). We must be oracles of God that He may give people the answers they are seeking without our opinion or our interpretation being mixed up in them. That will "make the Church known."

Jesus' identity was revealed by His speaking and by His actions, and the people knew this was the Messiah. If we speak only the words of God and His doctrine unadulterated, He will reveal her—who she is! They were not just assembled, but verse 42 says after they had that mighty meeting, that "they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers." "And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles. And all that believed were together, and had all things common; And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need. And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness..." (vv. 43-46). (I want to be a glad, happy, Holy Ghost-filled Christian!) "Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved" (v. 47).

As people watch us, they ought to be able to hear God and to see God. Then we'll have a right to put out a sign, to take out an ad in the newspaper, to put something on the radio, to go to the civic activities. Then we'll be able, without any ungodly pride, without ungodly haughtiness, to stand and say, "I represent the Church of God!" And they will not just hear another man saying that he represents another group, but they will hear a disciple of God, a follower, a fellow-brother or sister in the kingdom and they will know to follow. They will follow because they hear God.

11:08 Spontaneous Worship. Brother Lyles' message was concluded with a powerful sense of God's presence and approval. Brother Gillum began to exhort the Assembly to a greater appreciation and respect for what God is doing among other Christians. Ron Hamm was scheduled to be on program next for a report on the Washington for Jesus Prayer Rally, but he felt constrained by the Spirit to take himself off program, urging Brother Gillum to continue his exhortation.

Brother Gillum confessed that God had spoken to his spirit to ask the Assembly to repent—to repent of a haughty attitude toward other Christians. He then asked the Overseers present to circle the platform, along with the State/National secretaries, and to pray. He asked people all over the auditorium to form circles of prayer. The Holy Ghost was moving mightily among us. E. L. Jones came to the pulpit and reminded us that several years ago the Lord had asked us to repent and that some wondered what we had to repent of. He said the very attitude of having nothing to repent of showed the need for repentance.

A message in tongues and interpretation followed. It was in part: "My people, I love you . . . you have not repented. Many times I have called you . . . I beg you now to seek my face. My bloodline runs throughout the world . . . you seemed not to be aware of them; yet, they are mine. I am glad you see today that they are My people . . . There are some of you who are haughty . . . There are those among you that I have touched—they have humbled themselves. I will lift them up . . . My people, humble yourselves today . . . I love you . . . Repent and remember that I have bought you for My people."

8:54 "Committed to the Word," message by David Risch, presented in an abridged form.

"Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away" (Matthew 24:35).

Some feel this speaks only of the words of Jesus while He walked upon earth. Others feel that it speaks of the gospel; others that it speaks of the complete Word of God. Regardless, we may rest assured that every promise in the Book will stand. Every promise in the Book will be carried out. God is not slack concerning His promises. When the Word is compared to the heavens and the earth, through human eyes, people usually place more value on what they see than what they hear or read (A picture is worth a thousand words.)

The Word of God should be taken seriously, dead seriously. We should take nothing for chance, but build upon the Word of God.

Concerning right and wrong, I've been taught all my life, "If there's any doubt, don't do it, regardless!" And I've tried to imprint these principles upon my children. We need to be sure of what we're doing in the Church of God. I don't know that everybody understands the heavens in their entirety, but we see a part of what's there. We know the moon is there, its diameter being 2,160 miles, hardly realizing that it is 238,857 miles from the earth.

Here we are this morning comparing the Word of God and the moon in an endurance test. We think of the sun's being self-luminous, around which the earth and other planets revolve, furnishing heat and energy, 93 million miles from the earth, 864,000 miles in diameter. Who would compare the sun to the written Word? We see also the stars. Christ mentioned the heaven and the earth, with which we are somewhat better acquainted. We think of its endurance, how it has held firm against the elements. Earthquakes have affected it but little. We gaze upon the mountains which are symbols of strength, as they tower miles above some valley. And we are comparing the Word of God to this earth.

But notice what Jesus said, "Heaven and earth shall pass away." That's a divine promise from the Son of God. He's literally saying that an end will come to what looks like an everlasting heaven and earth.

The Apostle Peter wrote of this in 2 Peter 3:10-12: "But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?"

No wonder we must keep the Book before us and not only before us, but in us. Does the earthly mean more to you than the eternal Word? I want to base my life on the Word of God and not upon the things of this old earth. How about you? Is your life revolving around the earthly or around the Word of God? Those building their lives on materialism will be left wanting. Men that possessed billions of dollars in wealth left this world as naked as they came into it. Materialism will let you down but the Word of God will never let you down.

Jesus placed His Word in contrast with the heavens and the earth and declared the Word would endure while the world perishes. The Word is eternal; it cannot be done away with as if it never existed. Man only thinks he can change it.

The heavens and earth are like a clock running down with no chance of being rewound. If any of earth's inhabitants should be aware of this fact, it ought to be the Church of God. We've been warned that they will pass away. What a challenge the Apostle Paul gave the Church as he wrote "... be ye stedfast, unmoveable ..." (1 Corinthians 15:58). I want us to accept this challenge. Church, don't alter or change your course. Be rooted, be established, be settled in the Word of God.

A well-known magazine recently had an article concerning the writings of the Apostle Paul, suggesting that they were not divinely inspired and should have no place in the Holy Writ. They were regarded as the words of man and not divine. Can you imagine the impact that this would have if Paul's writings should be deleted from the Bible. But why would people want to take his writing out of the Bible? Some just do not like what he has to say. He gives a lot of "do's and don'ts." A lot of people don't like the writings of Jesus either, but they are eternal truths.

If you are happily married, you will have no trouble with Jesus' teaching on divorce and remarriage. But it often becomes a different thing when one's marriage is on the rocks. Truth is truth, however, when it confronts you and your marriage, or your children's marriage, or your parent's marriage. People have changed overnight, because of an individual's situation, but that doesn't change truth. Beware of preachers and teachers who encourage you to do whatever you feel like doing. We have a lot of them in the world. Humanism is rampant, but humanism will bind you, it will chain you, it will separate you from God. It will make you think that you're an island and that you can do whatever you want to do and still serve God.

Truth, however, will bring you freedom. The Word of God brings new life, it brings hope. I believe all Scripture is given by inspiration of God.

We are in a very serious era. The Church of God is literally fighting the spirit of the world. And to a degree, some of that spirit has entered into our own ranks. The world does not want to submit to the Word of God. When I became a member of the Church I agreed to accept the whole Bible, the New Testament as my rule of faith, practice, government and discipline. If I accept the Bible, then I must put into practice what it says. Many reject the Word simply because it does not agree with the spirit of the age.

We cannot afford to be men made by the times, but we must be men for the times in which we live. A. J. Tomlinson was not a man made by his day. He was a man made for his day. Moses was a man made for his day. He refused to be molded according to the world's system.

Noah was a man made for his day. The world had its effect upon others, changed everybody else but Noah found grace in the eyes of God. He did not bow to the pressures of his day, but gave 120 years of constant, faithful service in the midst of a trying persecuting world. Daily, he followed God's blueprint.

Abraham was not a man made by his day. He was a man made for the day. So was Daniel, John the Baptist and Paul.

We'd better acknowledge the Scriptures and not try to get around them. The person that professes Christ and is reluctant to obey the Word is deceived regardless of who he is. God did not become a "liberal" when it seemed good to the Holy Ghost that Gentiles did not have to be circumcised. He was not in favor of making things easier for the Gentiles. In fact, He placed a heavier responsibility on them through heart circumcision. Heart circumcision takes dedication and commitment, it takes submission. Let's make sure we stay committed to the Word. ☐

MINISTERIAL AID COMMITTEE REPORT

June 1, 1987 through May 31, 1988

The Ministerial Aid Committee had 12 monthly meetings and approved 44 applications for retirement, 13 for disability and 19 widows, a total of 76. We presently have 446 persons receiving retirement benefits, 236 receiving disability benefits, 209 receiving widows' assistance and 16 lay employees. The total number of persons receiving Ministerial Aid benefits is 907. The Committee processed 85 death records and approved death benefits to be paid to family beneficiaries in the amount of $59,425.58. This includes 80 ministers and 5 widows of deceased ministers. We provided 46 Church flags which were presented by the officiating ministers to the deceased ministers' families. A Church flag memorial certificate was also given.

The ministers' Retirement Tax-Sheltered Annuity Plan presently has 345 participants, including 97 ministers who administer their personal tax-sheltered annuities. Deferred Compensation benefits paid by the World Headquarters from individual ministers' tithes to these annuities totaled $197,176.32.

The Ministerial Aid Committee is prayerfully concerned regarding the needs of our worthy ministers and widows. We are endeavoring to assist each applicant as funds are available on the basis of faithfulness in the ministry as well as years actively engaged in ministerial service.

A beautiful "In Appreciation" certificate was presented to each recipient of Ministerial Aid for faithful service.

The Group Life Insurance Plan has been administered by the Church Benefit Association and Life Insurance Company of North America. This report shows claims paid by LINA from June 1, 1987 until May 31, 1988. LINA processed 85 policies resulting in $126,000.00 death benefits paid to beneficiaries of Church members. The total of all policies processed was 180, resulting in $444,500.00 death benefits.

Life Insurance Company of North America (LINA) has also activated the Accident Plan of Insurance now available for all members of the Church.

We sincerely appreciate the service of this fine insurance company and express our gratitude to all departments of the Church who share their funds in support of caring for our Senior Ministers and their families.

9:52 Report of World Mission Committee. Report accepted upon a motion by Delvin Daugherty, seconded by Garland O. Langley.

WORLD MISSION COMMITTEE REPORT

June 1, 1987 through May 31, 1988

Greetings to the 83rd General Assembly in the name of Jesus, our wonderful Lord.

Another year has passed and it is time once again to review our efforts and to report the assistance given to the work overseas. We continue to be blessed by the faithful efforts of those who labor in the Word and in the work. They serve as Overseers, Missionaries, Pastors, Evangelists, Volunteer Corpsmen, local and lay leaders. To these we owe a great debt of gratitude and give thanks to God for their devotion to duty. This year their cumulative efforts, prospered by the Lord, resulted in 192 new churches and 15,515 covenanted members.

The efforts of several of the brothers from Barbados, coordinated and encouraged by Mission Representative Arthur C. Moss and Overseer Stanley Knights, resulted in the organization of the Church in the young island nation of St. Lucia, West Indies. This occurred, May 15, 1988, from a mission that was organized in December, 1987. We praise the Lord for this new development and we covet your prayers for the growth of the new work and the continued expansion to the nine unreached areas in the region.

Reports reaching us from National Conventions this year speak of stirring moves of the Holy Ghost as His presence and direct leadership influenced the events that occurred. In one convention the people were led to heartfelt repentance; in another the Holy Ghost gave the Annual Address over a 2 hour period resulting in over 350 known experiences and an unspecified number returning to the Church.

Political developments and economic set-backs continue to impede the progress of the work in some areas, and we see signs of further difficulties and periods of suffering should our Lord tarry. However, the brethren continue to labor with unflinching courage and devotion. Signs of the times, in fulfillment of Bible prophecy, point to the soon appearance of our Lord, and in the very brief period left we must labor feverishly to complete the work. We must bravely face the dangers with a willingness to give our lives, if necessary.

The vision and zeal of our people for the world-wide mission of the Church continues unabated. This year, even after sizeable adjustments for currency fluctuations, the countries contributed a total of (U.S. equivalent) $315,388.45 to the October and March World Mission Drives. Together with the United States a total of $905,599.57 was raised. This is a 3.53 percent increase over the 1986/87 period and we are very grateful.

Presently, we support fully or partially 54 full-time Overseers in the 90 countries where the Church operates. The $2,023,050.47 disbursed was allocated throughout the region as follows: (Please note that currency devaluations affect the level of funds showing as disbursed in those areas where payments were made in local currencies.)

GENERAL PROPERTIES COMMITTEE REPORT

We, the members of the General Properties Committee, hereby express our thankfulness for the Lord's blessings upon our deliberations and decisions in all the matters we have considered during this Assembly year. It has been our desire to be good stewards of the Church's properties here at its general headquarters.

All the properties that are a part of the headquarters complex, along with the Tomlinson College properties, have been kept in good repair. Considerable improvements have been made in the Assembly Tabernacle this year to bring it up to certain fire safety standards required by law.

We are thankful for the cooperation we have received in all areas of our responsibility, and for the privilege to serve the Lord in this capacity.

10:04 Report of Tomlinson College Board of Trustees. Report accepted upon a motion by Bob Palmer, seconded by Howard Scott.

REPORT OF TOMLINSON COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Tomlinson College Board of Trustees conducted three meetings during the period September 1, 1987, through August 31, 1988.

The Board of Trustees, as inspired by the Holy Ghost, adopted the following:

INSTITUTIONAL VISION

The primary role of Tomlinson College is to prepare men and women who will be equipped to fulfill the Great Commission, anointed to serve, and broken in heart for lost humanity.

In order to accomplish this, Christ must be exalted as head over all things and His glory shown to all men through this institution.

This institutional vision reflects a new direction for Tomlinson College—not an abandonment of the existing two-year program, but rather a building upon the educational needs for the universal Church.

We would like to note the following areas of progress during the past year, as Tomlinson College seeks to minister to the whole Church:

1. Enrollment has risen dramatically over one year ago. It is at its highest level in several years.
2. The four-year Biblical Studies Program was successfully inaugurated in August, 1988.
3. The self-study and on-site visit for reaffirmation of accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools for the college's two-year program were accomplished, with continued accreditation fully expected. Additionally, we anticipate that the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools will grant candidacy status this December for the four-year Biblical Studies Program.
4. Plans toward the establishment of extension schools in various locations around the world are continuing.
5. A Tomlinson College Leadership Conference was attended by many Overseers and General Headquarters representatives, and was beneficial in establishing stronger channels of communication between the college and its constituencies.
6. The College has embarked upon a comprehensive strategic planning process that we hope will greatly facilitate the college's ability to fulfill its mission within the Church.

We wish to acknowledge all those at General Headquarters, State and National Offices, and the local church level, who have provided prayerful, moral, and financial support to Tomlinson College. This has been a most productive year in the growth of the college's endowment. We would like to encourage your continued support through establishing and contributing to Tomlinson College endowed scholarships.

We wish to commend President Newlun, the administration, faculty, and staff for their dedicated service. We further wish to recognize the parents, families, and friends, who have made it possible for our students to select Tomlinson College.

Most importantly, we wish to acknowledge God's direction in our meetings this year. To Him be all the glory for any accomplishments which have been achieved.

10:13 Report of Questions and Subjects Committee. Chairman Gerald Green requested all to kneel in prayer before the reading of the report. Report accepted upon a motion by A. J. Creel, seconded by Earl West. Note: There was considerable discussion concerning Section 6, Advice to Members, with a motion and a second to let this section replace the current Advice to Members rather than its being added to it as the report recommended. After lengthy discussion the report was accepted as read.

QUESTIONS AND SUBJECTS INTRODUCTION

The heralding words of our Lord to the Church on the eve of His Ascension still ring through the annals of time as is recorded in the Gospels. "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost" (Matthew 28:19). "And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature" (Mark 16:15). "And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem" (Luke 24:47).

In Christ's parting words at Bethany, He sent the Church to the Upper Room for an enduement of power for this very service, and that is world evangelization. "But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth" (Acts 1:8). It is now and shall ever be the reason for the existence of the Church of God, to bring the life-changing and maturing gospel to a lost world. The penetrating and infilling of the powerful Holy Ghost has always enabled the Church to affect men for the good. Through the influence of an anointed Church, men will be presented to Christ, and completed in Him.

The Church of God is also called unto holiness—a life of separation by the sanctifying, cleansing power of Christ. This will enable the believer to live an exemplary life of a relationship with a living Lord. Not a life motivated by prescribing to laws, rules and tradition, but one with a longing within the heart to please Him. "For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ" (Galatians 3:27).

Immersed in Him, who through the indwelling of the Holy Ghost, the Church wears the garments of Christ's righteousness, so that men may see Him in all of her ministries. Not our piety and self-exaltation and self-righteousness, but that others may see the garments of Christ's holiness residing in each member.

The Christ with whom we clothe ourselves taught sobriety and moderation in all phases of our lives. In our everyday conduct, the depiction of the indwelling change has come through knowing Him. The Church of God has always been known for her vigorous worship, fervent prayer and tears of compassion for a world in need of a loving Christ.

Repentance calls for commitment and change. Let us, the Church of God together, today, renew our commitment to the precious faith that has been delivered unto us with a great price. Christ our Lord, the holy Apostles and the pioneers of this century gave it their all. Can we give any less than our best for this noble cause which shall be far more enduring than time itself? Let the Church in the midst of a world of materialism, pleasure and leisure, re-affirm her belief in biblical holiness and purity of life, both by precept and example.

In a materialistic society, the danger always lurks in the shadows of worldiness and mistakes gain as godliness. There is no life for the Church apart from her Head, Jesus Christ. All allegiance and loyalty should go to Him. To worship anything other than Christ as Lord dethrones Him from our hearts and makes us guilty of idolatry.

In return for such devotion, the Church will be invigorated with a holy zeal to declare once again, this is the Church of God of the Bible. She is called, commissioned and empowered with the uniqueness of Her character and message that all believers shall be gathered together in one, in answer to His prayer. "That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me" (John 17:21).

Let the Church believe in Him who is fully in control, knowing the end from the beginning, making herself aware that it is He who knows all and controls the past, present and future. Such a belief gives strength to accept the challenge given to her by the Lord. Such belief does not fill the Church with arrogance and false pride, with a holier than thou attitude toward our brothers and sisters in like faith; rather, we fully recognize salvation is in the Cross for all men and that it is in Him who said, "If I be lifted up, I will draw all men unto me."

We have confidence in the position that all men will be one. Such confidence allows us to build bridges and not walls, we extend the olive branch and not the sword to all Christendom. Recognizing that it is in Him, Christ our Lord who has saved us all and it is through His divine influence that unity will be accomplished to bring into fulfillment: "That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him" (Ephesians 1:10).

Let this generation of the Church leave to the next a rich heritage rooted in Christ, based on solid biblical principles, that shall ever endure into eternity. When the torch is passed, may each of us, those who pass it and the ones who receive it, hold our heads high, knowing that we have fought bravely and gallantly the good fight of faith together and have continued the legacy given to us by Christ, our Lord, and kept it the Church of God of the Bible.

Section 1

Department of Children's Ministries

Rationale: (General Overseer's Annual Address to 81st Assembly, "Our Children's Ministries")

Resolution

The Church's ministry to children has many facets, and as the ministry grows, there is more and more need for coordinating the various ministries in which children are involved.

We believe children's ministries should enhance and strengthen the family, as well as the individual child.

With this principle in mind, and with reference to the section of the General Overseer's Address to the 81st Assembly, entitled, "Our Children's Ministries," we recommend that Children's Church and Gleaner Band be placed under one department, to be called the Department of Children's Ministries, which would be directed by the Sunday School General Secretary.

The existing local church structures of Gleaner Band and Children's Church are not necessarily affected by this ruling, except these organizations would be placed under one Children's Ministries department.

The details of ministering to the children in the local church must be exercised by the pastor and his staff.

The Department of Children's Ministries is to be devoted to the nurture and spiritual enrichment of children. It is not to be seen primarily as a fund-raising entity.

Section 2

Authorized Teachers Accountability

It has been brought to the attention of this committee that we do not have an adequate system of accountability for authorized teachers. Some continue to be listed in the Assembly Minutes long after they have invalidated their status by backsliding and/or leaving the Church. To correct this deficiency, we move that an annual report form be provided by the General Overseer's office, and that authorized teachers be required to report to the State/National Overseer on June 30th for the preceding twelve months. The pastor should report to the State/National Overseer, who would report to the General Overseer, any authorized teacher who may become disqualified, explaining to him the nature of the disqualification, whether death, leaving the Church, backsliding, or other ample reason for which authorization was terminated. See "The Teaching Ministry" (67th AM, 1972, p. 134, QSC, Business Guide, p. 19).

Section 3

The Administrative Committee

We move that the title of the Executive Committee be changed to "Administrative Committee."

The duties and the selection of the Administrative Committee shall remain the same as practiced in the past with regard to the Executive Committee.

Section 4

Local Church Incorporation

Rationale

In many cases, it simplifies business transactions for local churches and states to be incorporated. It has been brought to our attention that some local churches are incorporating without the knowledge of the state office, and possibly becoming more independent in their local operations.

Therefore, we move the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolution

Local churches must have the consent of the State Overseer to incorporate. The State Overseer should work with the local church in drawing up the articles of incorporation, seeing there is no violation of previous Assembly rulings in regard to holding, encumbering, selling or purchasing of church property. We further recommend that the General Property Trustees draw up a standard set of articles of incorporation which could be used by states and local churches.

Section 5

Planting New Churches

Rationale

The Church is commissioned to go into all the world with the gospel message. Therefore, where there are people that is where the Church should be established in order to carry out its mission to reach every creature. In the record of His early ministry, Jesus said, "Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth" (Mark 1:38, 39). Just as the Father had sent Him, so He sends His Church into the next towns (cf. John 20:21).

There are some areas where even temporary churches are needed, such as where some relatively short-termed industry may bring a number of church families together, or near a military post, or other similar location where no organized church may exist.

We should encourage and reinforce the planting of new churches where they are needed and never set up regulatory restrictions which will impede and inhibit outreach and the extension of the Church. However, it is imperative that a new church be established on a sufficient foundation, and for the right purposes.

In response to correspondence from the field on a number of factors relative to establishing new churches, and in the absence of any relevant Assembly guidelines, we move the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolution

All new field endeavors should have the approval of the State/National Overseer, and he should be kept informed of the progress made. Prior to organizing the church, written approval must be received from the State/National Overseer.

The minister who organizes a new church must notify his State/National Overseer as to when the organization was effected, the name of the person who organized the church, the number of male and female members, how many transferred memberships were received, and the address where the local congregation meets for worship. He should care for the new church until the State/National Overseer appoints a pastor. He will also see that the local auxiliary leaders are supplied with the names and addresses of the state/national secretaries. He should also notify the district overseer of the new church organization.

The General Assembly has never officially designated the minimum number of members required to organize a new church. Nor would it be advisable for the Assembly to establish strict rules on this matter, since a number of factors need to be considered in the various localities and situations.

The State/National Overseer's decision regarding the organizing of a new church should be governed by the principle that all things be done for the edification of the individual members, their families, and for the strengthening of the Church corporately (2 Corinthians 12:19).

There seems to be no biblical basis for requiring that a new church must always have at least two or three new covenant members before it can be organized. Jesus said in Matthew 18:20, "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." In keeping with the spirit of this profound truth, we recommend that where, in the good judgment of the State/National Overseer, there is a nucleus of members strong enough to form a new church that the Overseer, on the authority of his office, declare that the gathering together of the members of the body be recognized as a local church, pending the reception of the transfers of those members who desire to be a part of the new church.

When new covenant members are received into the fellowship of the Church, or when there is a sufficient number of members already present to organize, the officiating minister should state the following: "Having received the written consent of the State/National Overseer of [state or country], I, an authorized minister in the Church of God of Prophecy, declare the Church of God of Prophecy at _____ is duly set in order on this _____ day of _____, 19____, remembering the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, 'And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven' (Matthew 16:18, 19).

"Let the Church from this day forward be filled with the Spirit of Jesus Christ to spread the message of the Gospel into this new community.

"May God's grace ever rest upon this new local church."

Section 6

Advice to Members

Rationale

In the 74th Annual Assembly, the General Overseer addressed an on-going problem relative to "Advice to Members," and in a section devoted to that subject said, "For many years our Assembly Minutes have contained a section entitled Advice to Members. These instructions were prepared for the purpose of providing counsel to the members of the Church to aid them in fighting the good fight of faith.

"From time to time we hear of those who assume a legalistic attitude with regards to the Advice to Members, as though they would make commandments of the things mentioned in this advice. The display of such attitudes usually does more harm than good. A gentle spirit of teaching will be much more effective than attempts to enforce as laws those things which have been set forth as advice . . .

"Perhaps we should take a closer look at this section of our Assembly Minutes, and at the spirit in which it is given" (74 AM, 1979, p. 41).

In spite of the General Overseer's admonition, many continue to take a harsh and judgmental approach in presenting the Advice to Members.

Holiness cannot be characterized as living in conformity with a list of prohibitions. True holiness manifests a Christlike nature in word and deed, and controls every area of one's life, external and internal.

For those who follow a holy God, the New Testament principles of holiness clearly reject such conduct as viewing pornographic films, reading sexually explicit literature, gambling, slanderous gossip, child abuse, spouse battering, and every other wrong conduct. On the positive side, a holy people are also diligent in perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

In the Advice to Members it is almost impossible to list everything which should be approved and/or disapproved for all people, in all cultures, under all conditions, for all time. Clearly, the New Testament principles of holiness are in every way superior to and more demanding than any list the General Assembly could possibly devise.

Resolution

The Advice to Members has its foundations in the New Testament. There the guidelines for proper Christian conduct in every situation are clearly given. All matters of personal Christian ethics are to be governed by the following principles: (1) In everything we are to "walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called" (Ephesians 4:1), not permitting any conduct in ourselves which would bring reproach on the name of Jesus. (2) We are to "abstain from all appearance of evil" (1 Thessalonians 5:22; Romans 12:9; 1 Timothy 5:14; 1 Peter 3:11). (3) In word or deed, "neither give place to the devil" (Ephesians 4:27). (4) "Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God" (1 Corinthians 10:31). (5) In matters of conscience, we are to avoid offending others who might stumble over our conduct (Matthew 18:7; Mark 9:42; Romans 14:21; 1 Corinthians 8:13; 10:32; 2 Corinthians 6:3). (6) We must ourselves keep a clean conscience before God, and not violate our own convictions regarding any matter (Romans 13:5; 14:22, 23; 1 Corinthians 8:7). (7) We must not judge one another in nonessential matters of personal conviction (Romans 14:1-5, 19). (8) We must maintain a moderate lifestyle which will reflect the inner character of a meek and quiet spirit (Romans 12:1, 2; 1 Corinthians 9:25; Galatians 5:22, 23; 1 Timothy 2:9, 10; 1 Peter 3:3, 4; 1 John 2:15, 16). (9) By our conduct we must adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things (Titus 2:1-10). (10) We must continue to perfect holiness in the fear of God by cleansing ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit (2 Corinthians 7:1).

We move that this entire section be added to the Advice to Members.

Section 7

State/National Finance and Appropriations Committee

Rationale

There are limited guidelines concerning the selection and work of the State/National Finance Appropriations Committees. In order to clarify this matter, we move the following resolution supersede the section from the Questions and Subjects Committee report to the 53rd Assembly, 1958, entitled "General State Fund and State Finance and Appropriations Committee" (53rd AM, 1958, p. 130).

Resolution

The State/National Overseer shall appoint a Finance and Appropriations Committee (formerly called the Home Mission Board) which shall include at least one deacon and/or a lay-person in the membership. The State/National Overseer is to serve as Chairman and shall call at least two meetings each year, except where it is economically or geographically impractical.

The committee is responsible to set up the state/national budget, set guidelines for State/National Overseer's expenses, and see that all state/national funds are disbursed properly as outlined by the General Assembly and state convention. The committee should give an annual report of its work to the state/national convention.

Section 8

Visual and Honor Stone Departments

We move that the words "and ministers" follow the words "honoring churches" in the last sentence of the section entitled "Visual and Honor Stone Departments" (82nd AM, 1987, p. 49).

5:07 A Special Guest was introduced, Bishop John Looper, from the Jerusalem Acres Church. He spoke briefly.

5:16 "It Is Time to Move Forward," message by Winston Reid, from Buffalo, New York, presented in an abridged form.

"But the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits" (Daniel 11:32). "I can do all things through Christ that strengtheneth me" (Philippians 4:13). "I will go in the strength of the Lord God" (Psalm 71:16).

Are you ready to move forward? I really believe it is a good idea for us to have purpose (there are so many people that seem not to have a purpose), and with that purpose it is good to set goals, which serve as a source of motivation, being constant reminders. The motto of the past Winter Olympics was, "Go for the Gold." Those who watched saw the extraordinary efforts that were put forth by the athletes. They stretched themselves to the limit, wanting to be the very best they could be. The Great Commission, in essence, charges us to "Go for souls." We are in the people business, and we must strive for spiritual excellence. Whether ministry or laity it is imperative that we go forward. Greater works are ahead for us and there is much to be accomplished. Striving for excellence puts a demand on one's faculties and abilities; but it turns potential barriers into stepping stones.

Going forward means striving for higher ground. Jess Oltman, Jr. wrote, "I'm pressing on the upward way, new heights I'm gaining everyday; still praying as I onward bound, 'Lord, plant my feet on higher ground.'" We must strive to go beyond mediocrity. We've come a long way, but we have a long way to go.

Those who have been around since the forties have witnessed many changes. Methods and things that once had the look of permanence now seem obsolete.

As a pastor I see the lethargic action of church members who seem to be burned out. Daniel wrote, "And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws" (Daniel 7: 25). The devil cannot do anything with Christ; therefore, he is "beating up on" the saints. That's why many are tired and many are weak. He's trying to change times and laws. Laws of justice seem to have changed, moral laws have changed, even the laws of nature have taken a different course—but in spite of the work of the Adversary, we serve a God who changes not.

These are the days for high performance automobiles, air conditioners, remote controlled televisions, modular and cellular telephones. We've gone from the steam driven train to rapid transit systems, from the jet age into the space age. The Church cannot afford to stand still. Children are informed today, through the medium of television and computers, as no other age or generation before us. By age 10 most children already will have seen and done more things than their forefathers ever knew about. In the midst of all these changes, Christians are becoming more relaxed, more tolerant with the world. They have no objection to being identified with the rich and famous, often forgetting that they are in the world, but not of the world. Christians are strangers, pilgrims and sojourners here; it's only a little while until the Lord is coming back for us and we must be ready to go.

Though other generations have faced greater persecutions than the Church of today, the challenge facing us is greater than at any other time. Times have changed, perspectives have changed, priorities and attitudes have changed, respect and morality is on the decline. The world with all its atheistic concepts, its shameless embracing of immoral life styles, its ridicule of Christianity causes us to suppress our voices in many areas to a whisper. Too often we're afraid to lift up our voices and acknowledge who we are. We plan our meetings in some of the most solitary places. They are planned for us, by us, and are centered around us.

How are we going to reach the world when they don't know where we are and have no idea what we're doing? You and I do not have to be afraid. The promise God made to Joshua is applicable today. "Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest" (Joshua 1:9).

Greater is He that is in us than he that is in the world. It is time to go forward in winning the lost for Christ. We ought to be concerned as to why we are unable to reap a harvest of souls, instead of merely gathering the fragments.

When we grow merely by transfers, we have a problem. It's like playing a game of checkers against yourself. If you win and convince yourself you have a victory you are fooling yourself, because each time you win you also lose. But there can be growth, there must be growth! When Zion travails she brings forth.

History bears record that those that back the Church most have often been social outcasts. I am tempted to think, based on the incident of the man that was blind from his mother's womb, that some people have the infirmities they have that the will of God may be made manifest in them. God wants us to be able to say as Isaiah prophesied concerning Christ,

"The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach . . ." (Isaiah 61:1). We can claim to have the Holy Ghost, but can we claim that the Spirit is upon us and has anointed us to do the work? Is it possible that we are putting the emphasis in the wrong places? If you look at Joshua chapter two it's very obvious that Jericho was in the path of the children of Israel's going into Canaan. But there was a woman named Rahab, a social outcast, who played a great role. In the Book of Hebrews she is only one of two women listed among the heroes of faith. We read of Peter's sermon on the Day of Pentecost, where 3,000 souls were added to the Church. But when we look again in Acts chapter four we see the culmination of some events which started first with the lame man at the gate. When that man was delivered, when he got through dancing and prancing like a wild horse, something happened. Before it was all over 5,000 men were added to their number. It was because a need was met. That's what I want the Lord to do in my ministry; I want to be able for the Lord to use me to meet needs.

When needs are met people will go out and tell others that there is a place and a people that believe in God and that God honors His Word among them. The woman of Samaria had a very poor reputation, she was a social outcast. Jesus took time to minister to her—she had a spiritual need. Once her need was met she caused the city of Samaria to both see and hear Jesus.

Ministers, when the Lord spoke to your souls, was there any injunction in His commission that you could not preach the Word to everyone? If there was no such stipulation, you need to be able to minister to every soul. There is room at the Cross for everyone. If there's room at the Cross, my question is, is there room in the Church? Is the Church prepared to accept everyone?

Once in a while I hear of places in the Church where one needs to have more in common with the people than a born again experience to fellowship there. If that's the case, that's not the spirit of God's Church, that's the spirit of a cult. Many groups in the world today esteem the Bible very highly, but they are not lovers of people.

There is nothing more powerful than a thing whose time has come. When God says it is time, you and I must say, "Yes, Lord, let Your will be done." As we prepare to move forward we must deal with issues that are before us. Just pretending they are not there does not mean they do not exist. Whether it is a problem in the local church, or wherever, the Lord has given us the authority to deal with the issues that are before us. Let's work until we find a solution, until we can say as did the early Church, "For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us . . ." (Acts 15:28). Problems can be solved. We need to redeem the time. The Church has a rendezvous with Christ. We are not going to get anywhere until we solve the problems that are in our way.

Historically, people have had problems fellowshiping with individuals outside their own homogeneous group. After Pentecost the early Church experienced unusual growth and some great times of love and fellowship. The first great problem was an ethnic problem. The Grecians complained that their widows were not being treated fairly. The Apostles had to solve this problem, and they did. Then, they were able to turn their world upside down. Love for God and harmony among the early saints was a true commitment to the work of the Lord, and that was the key ingredient in the success of the early Church.

Someone described modern day Christians as billiard ball Christians, who bounce off one another and fall back in their own pockets. Let there be genuine affection, let there be real fellowship, let there be true relationships, take off those masks, lower those guards. We are God's people. We have something that's better than anything else in this world.

Evening

6:24 Assembly Expense Offering. Music and singing by Bruce Scotton.

6:35 World Mission Program, directed by Adrian L. Varlack, World Mission Secretary. Theme: "Looking for and Hasting unto the Coming of the Day of God." Brother Varlack recognized the Mission Representatives and invited them to join him on the platform; then he introduced his staff.

Mission Representative E. E. VanDeventer introduced his family and read 2 Peter 3. Mission Representative Arthur C. Moss introduced his family and led the congregation in singing, "We Shall See the King." There was a spontaneous handkerchief wave at this time and the Tabernacle was full of people praising the Lord.

Intensive Intercessory Prayer led by Mission Representative Raul Torres. After expounding briefly upon 2 Chronicles 7:12-14, he had the congregation pray, calling upon different sections to pray for specific needs. A mighty time of intensive interceding followed. Then came a message by the Holy Ghost and its interpretation. He said, in part, "Hearken to My voice . . . I know My own, and I call on you to move forward in Me . . . Look not to the left, look not to the right . . . Move forward, move forward in Me . . ."

Mission Representative Bobby R. Snow introduced his mother, then shared from Asia Week Magazine a special report on the Philippines entitled, "The Mean Streets Get Meaner." He introduced Philippine Overseer Don Estep who testified about the work there. He mentioned that over 300 assassinations have occurred there recently, that civilians are being killed just by being in the wrong place at the wrong time. He mentioned that his travels had been restricted because of endangering the lives of his people who would be associating with an American. In spite of this, however, he reported that the work there is growing.

Mission Church of the Year was named and presented an award. This was the Anchorage, Alaska church, pastored by Manuel Hernandez. Brother Varlack introduced his family at this time, and his children sang, "Come and Praise the Lord." Recognized also were the Overseers of the other nations who were present.

Parade of Nations. Eight trumpets sounded to begin this parade by sixty young ladies, wearing red dresses, carrying national flags from the nations they represented. One young lady dressed in white, carrying the Church flag, marched down the center aisle with another who carried the flag of the new nation entered this year, which was St. Lucia in the Windward Islands. Brother Varlack led the congregation in singing, "Bring Them In," while the Bahama Band played. To the saints in St. Lucia the Assembly delegates said, "Welcome to the Church of God." "Come Under the Banner of Love" was played while the girl carrying the St. Lucia flag exchanged it for a Church flag.

8:38 "The Church's Last Frontier" was the title of the message preached by Brother Varlack. This message was published in the White Wing Messenger dated, October 1, 1988, and is available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House. The altar invitation was given by A. R. Morrison, and a large number responded by coming forward to pray.

Friday, September 9
Morning

7:30 Morning Prayer Service. The prayer emphasis for this morning was upon Crusade Evangelism. National Evangelist Bill Marion spoke on revival crusades and concluded with an altar invitation which drew a good response. The service closed with everyone kneeling in prayer, asking God for His favor upon our evangelistic work this year.

8:30 Music by Bahama Brass Band.

8:45 Song Service led by Greg Stephens, Debbie Shewbridge, pianist; Ron Scotton, organist. Romans 15:1-10 read by Herman Davis. Prayer by A. J. Coalter, followed by concert prayer.

9:02 Songs by South Florida Mass Choir: "There Is A Fountain" and "I Found It All."

9:15 "Glorious Vision," message by R. Glenn Rountree, pastor of the General Overseer. All Brother Tomlinson's former pastors who were present were invited to sit on the platform at this time.

"And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him. And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought. And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking. After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly" (Mark 8:22-25).

Even though we have been experiencing God's power, I believe we still find ourselves in trouble with God today. In no way do I want to give the feeling that God has left us. We know His presence is here but we need more today than the knowledge of His presence. This very hour we need the manifestation of God's presence. We need to see the visible signs of His presence.

Just prior to the healing of the blind man in our text, Jesus had reprimanded the Pharisees, who were asking for a miracle, for a sign. (Jesus taught that we must believe before the sign can be seen.) "And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily, I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation" (v. 12).

For a long time, ever since I've been a member of the Church, I've been hearing about all the mighty things that we are going to see, all the mighty things that are going to be done. Though God has been dealing with us, talking to us, moving in our midst, there are many among us like those Pharisees who seem to be waiting for some special event, some special thing, as if God is going to drop a sign out of the sky, letting us know exactly when His coming is going to be. Then all of a sudden we would really get busy. But I believe we will not be given such a sign. Instead, we must obey the Word of God that is being preached among us.

Jesus saw this lack of faith, this lack of spiritual perception, and called it leaven. He said to His disciples who were looking on, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod" (v. 15). Another way of saying this to His disciples was, "You've allowed your thinking and attitude to be much like that of the world around you. This cannot be, for it's a blockage; it's a dead end, a closed gate to God's power." That kind of an attitude prevents manifestation; it prevents the full operation of the power and the gifts of God.

God moved among us several years ago, and touched us in a special way. That touch began by calls through the Holy Ghost, to humility, calling us to humble ourselves. But in 1984 that touch carried another directive. It was a call from God to repentance. The point of that call for many was driven home in their hearts by a manifestation of God's power that accompanied it. What God was saying to us then, and what He has continued to say is, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees; beware of the thinking of the world; beware of what's going on around us. Purge it out! Get it out of the house, so the blessing of God can come."

God's holiness and power are not being seen properly among us. I see a great parallel between the Church today and the blind man's healing, of my text. This man was in a unique place in his life. He hovered between total blindness and full clear vision. I personally believe that the Church of God is in a place of transition.

I believe for some we're hovering between what for some could become total blindness and for others clear, glorious vision. God touched us in a special visitation in 1984. He wanted to do something great in our midst. That touch then and the touch that is now being experienced was to awaken us to our duty and our purpose, to stir us and turn our gaze upward to the nearness of the Lord's coming. There's a work that He wants done that we must do. But we're so much like the blind man after his first touch. So many are hovering somewhere between the blessings of the past and the promises of the future. Many are saying, "We've got to go back to the old landmarks; let's go back to yesteryear." Others are wanting to blast off and ride their star right into the future without any restraint. In the midst of all of this, I hear the groanings of Christ for us as they were for those disciples to whom He talked about the leaven.

Do we not perceive what God is calling for, what He wants to do among us? Three things must grip an individual or a group for them to have success. 1) People must be filled or controlled by the Spirit. I do not believe we have reached the point God is wanting us to reach yet. We are not to be filled in a one-time experience. We must be constantly filled. That means overflowing with the Spirit and the power of God. 2) People must be burdened for souls. 3) People must be willing to give all the glory to God for all that has been done and is being done.

As we look further into the text we see an unusual way in which the Lord's healing power was brought about. This seems to be the only account where our Lord brought a healing by degrees. Bartimaeus was given his sight instantly. Lazarus came forth from the tomb immediately. The woman who was bowed over for 18 years was immediately made straight. But this man needed a second touch from the Lord. A blind person can decide to see but sight will not come on that decision alone. He must be healed. There has to be divine intervention. To see, he must be touched by the Lord. Today, we can make all kinds of decisions, but we're going to have to be touched by the Lord. That touch has been promised if we will let go and let God.

Touch means more than sound to a blind man. No sound from the crowd can take the place of a divine touch. We need to experience the real power of the Holy Ghost. We need the loud noise of confusion to cease and to allow the true power of God to be displayed among us.

Whether this man was blind from birth or had lost his sight, he was now being led out of town by Jesus. The Lord was guiding his steps. Though he was being led, he was still blind. We've been led and we've been touched, but I believe God has something more He wants to do for His Church.

After moistening his eyes with spittle, Jesus literally asked, "What do you see now?" He had been touched by the Master. He replied, "I see men as trees, walking." He was honest. What he saw was obscure; it was not clear. "How do you see?" God is asking us. I believe this Assembly must be the one to realize that we need a second touch. This Assembly must be the one where men see themselves and begin to move as the Spirit of God directs them. I'm tired of seeing poorly. I can't stand a continued, spiritually-blind groping. I want more than the sound of the crowd around me. I need the touch of the Lord. That blind man could have been about half truthful and when the Lord asked him whether he could see, he could have said, "I'm healed! Everything's fine. I can see good enough to get around." But he didn't say that. He said, "Lord, I'm seeing men as trees and they're not supposed to look like that." I'm tired of that partial vision. I want to see a move of God unparalleled in the Church.

One important thing to be noted about this transition is that partial sight always makes men appear much bigger and greater than they really are. The man might have said, "Those men look like trees. I know they're not that great." We have no greatness in ourselves apart from the Spirit of God. I've never seen such a wave of His power getting hold and hitting people and hitting men before and causing me to see that they're not as great as they thought. We need the Lord. We need to go beyond, we need to do something. I'm not trying to stir a false, or a loud noise, but I believe there's a place that we can get or something that we can do in following the Lord that we can finally break over that place God has got for us and receive that second touch. But we've got to be careful how we answer the Lord today. After that second touch the scripture says that he saw clearly. Everything was in proper focus. He went from blindness to partial sight but finally, on the second touch, everything was clear.

O for the second touch in this General Assembly, so that we can leave this place with the Lord's not having to call for repentance again, and again and again. We can leave with glorious, clear vision, with everything between us and God in the proper place. How many desire that second touch from the Lord?

10:04 Song arrangement by Verlin Thornton, "God's Gonna Send A Revival." The General Overseer introduced his family at this time.

10:12 Pledge to the Church Flag and to the Bible, directed by Field Secretaries.

THE CHURCH OF GOD FLAG PLEDGE

I pledge allegiance to our Church flag, and to the doctrine for which it stands—one God, one Faith, one Mind, and one Church for all. Amen!

THE BIBLE PLEDGE

I pledge allegiance to the Bible, God's Holy Word. I will make it a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path. I will hide its words in my heart that I may not sin against God.

10:15 GENERAL OVERSEER'S ANNUAL ADDRESS
Before the Eighty-third Annual Assembly of the Church of God

INTRODUCTION

(Purity Precedes Power)

"And they commanded the people, saying, When ye see the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it. Yet there shall be a space between you and it . . . that ye may know the way by which ye must go: for ye have not passed this way heretofore. And Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for to morrow the Lord will do wonders among you" (Joshua 3:3-5).

For forty years they had been wanderers. Their fathers had told them about the hardships of Egypt and about their miraculous deliverance from Pharaoh's bondage. They had told them also about the promised land they would be inhabiting. As these people, with their children, had passed through the Red Sea on dry ground there was little doubt in their minds that they all would enter this promised land together.

Although God is merciful, the doubting and grumbling of these chosen people who, by miracles, had been delivered from the bondage of Egypt had provoked Him to wrath, and He decreed that they would perish in the wilderness. So, only their children were now alive to follow Joshua's commands. Even Moses was denied entrance into this land of Canaan.

Now they stood on the threshold of this land that flowed with milk and honey. Forty years of waiting had come to an end, as they viewed the Jordan River with Canaan just beyond. One thing they had learned by this time was the need for following divine instructions. They were facing a new challenge. They were well-acquainted with this dreary wilderness where they had wandered forty years, but before them was territory with which they were not familiar; as Joshua said to them, "... ye have not passed this way heretofore."

In the land of Canaan God would show Himself strong in behalf of His people. No enemy would be able to withstand His power, but first there was something for them to do. Joshua's words were, "Sanctify yourselves: for to morrow the Lord will do wonders among you." To be clean, at least outwardly, they were to wash themselves and their clothes, to be ready for God's visitation.

These people had heard their fathers tell about the parting of the Red Sea so that they had walked across it dryshod; now, they were going to experience another manifestation of divine power over a body of water. "And as they that bare the ark were come unto Jordan, and the feet of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the brim of the water... the waters which came down from above stood and rose up upon an heap... and the people passed over right against Jericho" (Joshua 3:15, 16). It was as if an invisible dam had been placed in the river which the waters could not overflow.

In this display of His power God was preparing His people for the conquest of Canaan. Yet, further preparations were needed. They had sanctified themselves on the other side of Jordan, but now on this side of the river they were to be subjected to another cleansing. "At that time the Lord said unto Joshua, Make thee sharp knives, and circumcise... the children of Israel" (5:2). These descendants of Abraham had been neglectful concerning the symbol of their covenant relationship, which was circumcision. This was their mark of separation from others, but for forty years the males among them had not been circumcised. Before they began the conquest of this land of promise, however, this had to be done.

For us this was the prefiguring of heart-circumcision, spiritual cleansing, sanctification, the destruction of the flesh with its affections and lusts, something that sets us apart from the world. We stand today on the threshold of great spiritual conquests. God has purposed to manifest His power through His Church to this world in a convincing way. All nations must hear the true message of Jesus Christ which will not be just in word but in mighty demonstrations of the Holy Ghost. Nothing less will suffice to turn the hearts of people toward God.

Apart from supernatural demonstrations of the Spirit the early Church would not have seen the victories they witnessed. They were an astonishment and a wonder wherever they went. Their message was not mere words. It was marked by such demonstrations—miracles, signs and wonders—that people knew God was with them. God will show Himself in like manner to the world in these last days. We believe a great “revival” will precede Christ’s return. It will be of a greater magnitude than that experienced by the early Church. Surely, the time is even now at hand. And God has chosen to show forth His power through human vessels.

The conquest of Canaan was to be accomplished by the power of God, but it was to be done through the involvement of His chosen people. Even so today God has called us, you and me, and He has chosen us to take part in this mighty conquest of the last days. We can go forth effectively only in His power. His power among us, however, will be marked by His holiness among us. There must be a destruction of the flesh. The Church must be purged of all carnal influence. Yes, there is power in holiness, because there is no holiness apart from Jesus Christ. In Him there is cleansing and in Him there is power. “. . . Without me ye can do nothing” (John 15:5), were His words to the early Church, and we must be reminded of this timely fact today.

A powerful Church will be a pure Church, a holy Church. We must despise sin. Sin is a reproach to any people. Each one of us must resolve to live lives above reproach. “Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy” (1 Peter 1:16). This is a great day for holiness, a day for great manifestations of divine power as we are led by the Holy Ghost into an area where we have not gone heretofore. The blood of Jesus has never lost its power, and we must allow it to do its work among us.

NEW-BORN SOULS AT OUR ALTARS

We rejoice when we learn of churches experiencing revival, with new people being saved, sanctified and baptized with the Holy Ghost. This is thrilling, and we offer praise to God for all He is doing among us. In far too many places, however, our churches have barren altars. This is a cause for deep concern, because our mission is reaching people for whom our Saviour died.

We must not feel that this is a ministry which others are to take care of, thus excusing ourselves from active involvement in evangelism. The Church's commission, given by Jesus, is still, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned" (Mark 16:15, 16). When this commission is taken seriously we will not be able to rest until we are seeing new-born souls at our altars.

It is good to see young people who are willing to go great distances to serve on the mission fields. This summer a large number of volunteers went on Youth Mission Teams, some of them traveling half-way around the world. They were willing to go at their own expense, wanting to be used by God to bless the people to whom they were sent. From the reports we have received they were a blessing and we commend them for their zeal and for the sacrifices they made.

At the same time, however, we want to see this kind of zeal demonstrated by our young people in every community where we have churches. There are people everywhere who need the Lord. Why can we not have the same kind of zealous service being displayed locally as is being shown in selected mission fields. Distributing literature, sharing testimonies, leading in worship in the church services, being effective altar workers—just as this is valuable for those serving on Youth Mission Teams it is likewise valuable in each local church. Oh, we want to see new-born souls in our altars!

While the service of every member is needful, it is especially important that we involve our young people. They have energies and zeal that need to be employed in this work that is so great, work that is so much needed everywhere. Not only do people need what they have to offer, but they themselves need this involvement for their own spiritual well-being. It is for the church to either use them or lose them. We just cannot afford to lose our precious young people and what they have to offer in service for the Church; so, they must be employed in soul-winning.

We applaud every effort that is being put forth in their behalf; also, the splendid work that so many of them are doing, but we still have not been able to master the challenge of getting all of them totally involved in the work at hand. Every local church needs the labors of groups such as the Youth Mission Teams within their communities. Of course, not every church has a large number of young people, but those who do could lend assistance to other churches. They will be able to reach other young people who can add strength to these churches which now are small.

Some of the states are utilizing teams of young people for ministering in areas where the work is not strong. This is good. We have a message for people everywhere and we must find ways for getting it to them. We want to stir the zeal of our youth. They are an indispensable force for evangelizing our communities and bringing in new people. We just must not be satisfied until our altars become more productive.

We are thrilled with the results of youth camps where many find the Lord and receive other spiritual blessings. By some means the young people seem to become free from their inhibitions in these settings, to where God can bless and use them. When this happens God does use them in special ways to affect others who are in need of spiritual help. The records show there were 3,302 saved, 2,787 sanctified, 2,107 baptized with the Holy Ghost and 2,388 baptized in water in our camps last year.

Somehow we have not been able to fully adapt their spirituality and zeal to the needs of the local churches upon their return from camp. We must find better ways for doing this. Pastors need to consider what it is at camp that intensifies their young people's spiritual zeal. Surely, there is some way to keep it at a high ebb upon their return home. Our local churches need to become centers for fanning the flames of evangelism. Nothing can take the place of helping new converts pray through in our altars to keep spirituality and zeal running high.

The fact is, when we have a lull in our altar services, which many churches have known for too long now, we find the tendency to turn our thoughts inward and to begin having critical attitudes toward one another. Instead of focusing our attention upon souls who need to be rescued, Satan would have us examining and finding fault with one another. To fall into this trap will surely defeat the purpose for which we have been called. If this is what our young people find upon their return from Spirit-filled youth camps, it is little wonder that their zeal soon dies down.

Why can we not keep the burden for lost souls before them? How about some all-night prayer meetings, in which prayers can be directed toward specific evangelistic goals? This has been done in the past with good results and I believe it can be done again. In some of these prayer meetings those who have not yet prayed through might be saved, sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost. What could they be involved in that is more important than this?

Many activities are being employed to keep our young people busy, but we want to make sure they are kept busy for the most profitable purposes. The Church's mission is reaching people with the glorious gospel, turning them from darkness to light, directing them from paths of destruction to the pathway to heaven. Let's get excited about this gospel! Nothing is more important.

GET READY—HE'S COMING!

"For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord" (1 Thessalonians 4:16, 17).

What a day that will be! For those worldly minded people whose affections are centered on things of this earth, it will be a day of great disruptions. For the saints of God, however, it will be glorious. It will be the fulfillment of their greatest desires. Just to see Jesus, to look on His face—what a time of rapture! At that moment those who are ready for His coming will lose their mortal limitations and weaknesses. They will find themselves clothed with immortality, in new bodies.

Those who have gone before us, by way of death, will be resurrected, and we will join them in clouds of glory for a meeting such as never has been known. We have often sung and rejoiced about that meeting in the air, but our minds still can hardly conceive such a gathering where millions will be experiencing indescribable joy. There'll be singing, there'll be shouting—then, there will be reunions, plus getting acquainted with those we have only read about. It all seems too good to be true.

Yet, it is true. It was Jesus who said, "I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also" (John 14:2, 3). His coming has occupied the thoughts of His followers ever since that time. It was a prominent theme in the writings of the Apostles. To be ready for His coming has been a compelling force in the Church's evangelistic thrust.

We have felt the need of getting the gospel to every creature as a part of being ready for our Lord's return. This has been a powerful motivation to thousands of men and women who have been called to forsake all and become involved in the Great Commission. The return of Jesus is something we must not lose sight of, nor can we afford to lose the sense of excitement which this hope brings.

With more zeal than knowledge some in the past have gone so far as to set dates for His appearance and in so doing have brought skepticism and dishonor to this precious promise. They have provided scoffers with new incentives to belittle the message of His return. However, the actions and predictions of these misguided men should not dampen the zeal with which we herald the message of His coming.

After all, it is a promise of the Lord Himself, and it is set forth repeatedly in the New Testament. The prominent emphasis it is given in our Guide Book provides reason for the prominence it must be given in our preaching and teaching. It should also hold a prominent place in the songs we sing. There seems to be a growing use of worship choruses and songs of adoration among us, and this is good. At the same time it is good to sing songs that convey the gospel message of our Lord's return. Our singing should reflect our mindset and our hopes.

We still need to be reminded that this world is not our home, that we are just passing through, enroute to a heavenly home. We don't want to get adjusted to this world. The Apostle Peter reminded us that we are "strangers and pilgrims" on this earth (1 Peter 2:11).

John wrote, "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure" (1 John 3:2, 3). This blessed hope, according to John, furnishes the motive and stimulus for holy living. It causes a man to purify himself. So, it is necessary for our ministers to keep the hope of the Second Coming before our people. When members lose sight of the Lord's coming they may easily become careless, to where worldliness becomes commonplace.

Jesus warned, "Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come" (Matthew 24:42). Again He said, "Therefore be ye also ready; for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh" (v. 44). Then He said, "But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to smite his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken; The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth" (vv. 48-51).

Nothing must be allowed to cloud our expectations of Christ's coming. Satan would have us to get caught up with the cares of this life. Even now some of those who only a short time ago were singing with great joy, "Getting Ready to Leave This World," are acting more and more as though this world is their home. The fact is, however, that the time is short. Christ's words seem very appropriate for us, as He spoke about His second coming: "... lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh" (Luke 21:28).

We just cannot afford to become bogged down with "cares and riches and pleasures of this life" (Luke 8:14). We are here on a mission, having been called out from this world for a special task, a work which was begun by Jesus, but which He has chosen to complete through us. It eclipses in importance anything else to which we possibly could give our time and attention. Our Lord is coming back soon from His far journey (cf. Matthew 25:14), and we must be ready for His coming.

Ministers, your preaching must convey the urgency of getting ready for His return. Don't allow yourself to become sidetracked with less important subjects. It is your privilege and responsibility to arouse people who are slumbering and sleeping. The Lord is coming, and you must make it known.

Let's make sure that our singing, whatever else it may focus upon, includes the message of His coming. It is an exciting theme, and our churches need to catch the excitement of the moment. Let's keep on singing, "Oh, our Lord is coming back to earth again." Keep singing with feeling, "O I Want to See Him," "He's Coming Soon," "Jesus Is Coming Again."

The Peerless Road Quartet is coming to lead us all in singing, "Oh, our Lord is coming back to earth again." Could we all stand at this time and join together in singing?

Note: As the quartet sang, there was a time of much rejoicing. The congregation joined in the singing. There was shouting, marching, dancing. It was a beautiful sight—a wonderful time of refreshing from the presence of the Lord.

BASIC BIBLE BELIEFS

The phrase, "getting back to the basics," is heard among us quite frequently. The implication in this expression is that there is a need for returning to what is fundamental, rather than allowing our attention to be diverted by matters or issues that are less important.

While the Church of God must take the whole Bible as the Word of God, the New Testament as its rule of faith, practice, government and discipline, through the years statements of belief have been adopted by the Assembly on subjects that have become prominent teachings of the Church. These have been printed in tract form, and they appear also each year in the Assembly Minutes. It was never intended that these twenty-nine important Bible truths be an all-inclusive statement of faith, inasmuch as there are many other very important truths to which the Church is just as deeply committed, but they cover some basic Bible doctrines.

They have been considered important enough that they generally are rehearsed with each candidate for Church membership. Some ministers do this publicly, while others choose to go over them in private consultation with those desiring to become members of the Church. Where these teachings are read and explained publicly there is a general awareness among the membership, and others who attend, as to the Church's stand on these subjects.

Since it seems to be a growing practice in some places for this explanation of our teachings to be done privately with prospective members, I am afraid these prominent teachings are not being kept before our people, and others attending our churches, to where they are familiar with these Bible doctrines. The Church is firmly committed to the Word of God, and we want people to know what the Bible teaches.

Jude's exhortation to the Church to earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 3) is as timely today as it was when it was written. The faith which was committed first to the Apostles has been delivered to us now in written form in the New Testament. We should thank God that it has been thus preserved and made available for all men. Many attempts have been made to alter it, but this body of faith which Christ has provided for His Church remains unchanged, offering positive guidance for abundant life on this earth and at the same time giving clear directions to our heavenly home.

His urging us to contend for this faith bespeaks a struggle. It has its opponents, its adversaries, who would destroy its purity, and someone has pointed out that the way for evil to triumph is for good men to do nothing. So, Jude presses upon us the need for righteous men to rise in battle against those who would undermine the Word of God. We must be bold for the truth.

Paul's words to Timothy were, "Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee" (1 Timothy 4:16). The doctrines which Christ left His Church are not to be regarded lightly. They require more than preaching or teaching, however. They require more than just believing, more than mere intellectual agreement. They require living!

The words of Christ must go deeper than the mere penetration of our minds; they must enter into and abide in our hearts. It really matters what a person believes in his heart, what his faith is that rules his inner man. Solomon wrote, "... for out of it [the heart] are the issues of life" (Proverbs 4:23). Thus, Paul wrote to the Colossians, "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom" (Colossians 3:16).

It is important that we know what we believe, that we be established in the doctrine which Christ gave His Church to proclaim and to live. Much is being promoted in the name of Christ which will not stand the test of New Testament examination. Many are deceived, and we can expect the spirit of deception which now is at work to grow stronger. Paul warned, "But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived" (2 Timothy 3:13).

We must not be timid about declaring the truth. Nothing else will save us and those who hear us. A person in whose heart the Word is dwelling richly will not have trouble declaring it with confidence. Ministers who expect to secure a positive response from those who hear them cannot exhibit traits of uncertainty or weakness in their faith. We are in a spiritual battle for the souls of men, and we must have our "loins girt about with truth" (Ephesians 6:14). Otherwise, we will be very vulnerable to the attacks of our adversary, who is the great Deceiver. Our commitment to those doctrines left us by Jesus must be firm and our faith unshakable.

More than twenty-five years ago, your General Overseer delivered a series of messages on the prominent teachings of the Church on the Voice of Salvation radio broadcast. Subsequently, these messages were printed in a book entitled, Basic Bible Beliefs. Since that time thousands of these books have been distributed, and reference has been made repeatedly to the explanations it sets forth.

Since it has been a quarter of a century since this book was published, I felt it might be good to call attention once more to its availability. Its contents are devoted altogether to expositions on these basic Bible doctrines. Many of our newer members might be enlightened by the explanations given. Perhaps this would make a good series of lessons for Bible study in our local churches in many places.

These messages should not be considered as reflecting only the opinion of the General Overseer. They represent the collective judgments of thousands of dedicated men of God who have sought together for a true interpretation of God's Word. A clear understanding of these doctrines is important for spiritual stability. We must not be ignorant of our basic Bible beliefs.

In order to establish our new members and our young people, and to keep them in the Church, it is necessary that they be taught these Biblical doctrines. As an example of how I'd like to see this teaching being implemented in our local churches, I would like to have some of our new members and young people to come and sit in these chairs on the platform. I have asked Brother Brisson, who has had many years of pastoral experience, to select one of these basic Bible doctrines and explain it to them.

Note: Brother Brisson chose to teach a lesson on "Restitution Where Possible."

THE PROMISE OF THE FATHER

"And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me. For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence" (Acts 1:4, 5).

It was around the turn of the century that people began to experience again on a large scale what Christians had read about in the Book of Acts for centuries. The account of the Holy Ghost being poured out on the Day of Pentecost had held the interest of sincere Christians for many years and many of them wondered whether there ever would be such a reoccurrence.

Suddenly, it began to happen—upon a group of around one hundred persons in Cherokee County, North Carolina, upon others in Los Angeles, California and in Topeka, Kansas, and then it spread like fire. Christians everywhere began to experience something powerful which they could identify as the baptism with the Holy Ghost. It was evidenced by those being baptized speaking with other tongues as the Spirit gave the utterance. As on the Day of Pentecost this baptism was not just for those especially gifted to minister the Word, but for everyone who would receive it.

Wherever this occurred it brought revival fire and ignited the flames of evangelism. People were excited about this new move of God's Spirit, and it caused a religious fervor that gained many new converts for Christ's kingdom. It is significant that it was during this period that the Church arose. If there was to be a restoration of the Church of God in the last days it would have to be with the same Holy Ghost power working that caused the early Church to function so effectively.

Naturally, every member of the Church at that time was urged to receive this blessing, and the majority of them soon were baptized with the Holy Ghost. Those not filled with the Holy Ghost would be requesting prayer continually that they might receive this blessing. They recognized in others a joy and power they were not experiencing.

From our earliest years people were accepted into the Church who were not yet filled with the Holy Ghost, but it was with the understanding that they would walk in the light. There was such strong emphasis upon this timely experience that every member would feel convicted who was not earnestly seeking to be baptized with the Holy Ghost. Whenever an altar invitation was given it was expected that these members would be in the altar with other members gathered around them in prayer, urging them on to that moment when the Holy Ghost would fall on them. Over and over again it happened. This resulted in exciting altar services where it was felt to be an absolute necessity that everyone have this wonderful baptism.

It seems that somewhere along the way, however, there developed a cooling off of this fervor to see every member baptized with the Holy Ghost. Right now there are far too many among us who are not filled with the Holy Ghost who act as though they are content just as they are. This ought not to be! This fervor must be restored. It was never intended by Jesus that His Church operate without the power of the Holy Ghost. This is the baptism He came to bring. Without it members of His Church are incomplete.

We know that regeneration is necessary, that sanctification is very important, but these are blessings received in preparation for being filled with the Holy Ghost. Why would any Christian want to stop short of the baptism his Saviour came to bring? It is the Holy Ghost who brings power for service. It is the Holy Ghost who equips a saint for victorious living. Our people who have not received this blessing must be stirred up somehow until a hunger is created within them to receive the Holy Ghost.

If the Church is to be a "spiritual house" as described by Peter (1 Peter 2:5), it will be through a Holy Ghost-filled membership. Maybe those who are not seeking this experience are failing to see enough difference between themselves and those who are professing this blessing. If that be so then it is time for all of us to stir ourselves toward a greater manifestation of Holy Ghost power working in our lives.

Wherever He is in charge, good things happen. Wherever He is in charge there is excitement. Wherever He is in charge there is conviction of sinners, and people get saved, people get healed—needs of all kinds are met!

In the absence of Holy Ghost power there is "business as usual," with the carrying out of functions in a routine way. This kind of religious activity is not meeting the needs of a lost world. Jesus came to bring them hope; He came to bring them life, and this hope, this life is in His Spirit.

His instructions to His Church were not to depart from Jerusalem, to begin the carrying out of His commission, until they were endued with power from on high. How different the history of Christianity would have been if they had not received the Holy Ghost. But thank God that they waited for the "Promise of the Father."

Thank God also for all those of our generation who have prayed for and received the "Promise of the Father." What would the history of the last-days Church be without this Heavenly experience? But the Church's greatest moment is not in its history. Greater things are ahead! And the victory yet to be won will be won through Holy Ghost power. What we need right now is for every member to be full of the Holy Ghost—yes, every member full of the Holy Ghost. Let us not be content until we see every member full of the Holy Ghost. All apathy must become a thing of the past. This is not a time for lukewarm Christianity. This spiritual house must be filled with spiritual people—every member full of the Holy Ghost!

CONCLUSION

This past year will be remembered in different ways by different people. For those whose lives were transformed from darkness to light, becoming new creatures in Christ Jesus, this has, no doubt, been the greatest year they have ever known. Others have gone through some dark valleys, who without God's sustaining grace would not have survived. As a result, however, they now know the Lord in a deeper relationship than they have ever experienced before. Of course, there always are some disappointments as we reflect upon the year gone by.

We are disappointed that loved ones for whom we prayed earnestly did not get saved. We must not spend too much time in looking backward, however, because every day is a new day to continue our labors and to continue our praying. The new year into which we will be entering will hold new challenges for all of us, and with a firm faith in God we will be able to move ahead with new accomplishments.

It is reassuring to know that the One who called us and has sent us into His harvest field is walking with us. He has not, nor will He ever, leave us alone. However and wherever He leads us in this new Assembly year, we want to go joyfully with Him. The joy of the Lord, the joy of His presence will be our strength.

There are many souls to be rescued and to be brought into the safety of the Church's fellowship. Also, this glorious light which has lighted our pathway will be shining brighter, and we want to move ahead into the greater knowledge of the Lord which has been ordered for us: "Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ" (Ephesians 4:13). We must remain sensitive to the Holy Ghost who is here to lead and guide us into all truth.

The time is short, and we must overcome every attempt by our adversary to hinder us. Those who would be good soldiers for Jesus Christ must rise against this enemy and defeat him in the power of the Spirit. Remember, we have enlisted for life in this great cause. If this is your determination, stand with me now as we join in singing once again, with voices loud and strong, our Battle Hymn. □

6:57 Annual Message on Divine Healing, by Henry Lee Willis: "That the Word of the Lord Might Have Free Course."

"Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you" (2 Thessalonians 3:1).

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God" (John 1:1). "And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God" (Revelation 19:13).

When this letter was written to the Thessalonians from which my text comes, there was apostasy in the Church. And Paul wrote "That the word of the Lord may have free course." There is suffering in the Church tonight, and what I desire is for the Word of God, Jesus Christ, to have complete freedom, to move among us to do what He pleases, to touch whom He will.

The word "free" means not under the control or power of another. There is no one here tonight that claims any big gifts or abilities. We are not the ones to stand and say, "If I touch you, this is going to happen." But we must let the Word have free course. Free means able to act or think without restrictions; it means having liberty. We must allow the Word of God to make His own path or channel among us, to have His own mode of action or behavior.

Isaiah wrote, "As the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it" (Isaiah 55:10, 11).

Void means empty, containing nothing, and the Bible says His Word will not return empty, or void, but that it will accomplish what He pleases. I've asked God to heal while I'm preaching tonight. We've had a wonderful time, we have heard some beautiful messages and some beautiful songs. Everything has been great, but this service has been set aside for the next few moments for those who need to be healed.

A few years ago in the General Assembly, Brother Terry Mahan told a story of a lady in eastern Colorado that has stuck with me. It was about a lady called Aunt Mae whose husband had died, and she had four children and owed bills that she could not pay. She was trying to farm and make a living and the grasshoppers came into her crop and began to destroy what she had.

Somebody told Aunt Mae to get some turkeys, who would eat the grasshoppers, and then she could sell the turkeys. After buying the turkeys, a hail storm came and destroyed every one of Aunt Mae's turkeys. She sat at the table and cried, thinking, "What am I going to do?" All at once she said, "I'll sell something else and I'll buy me some more turkeys." So she did and bought 2,000 more turkeys. Being so aware of what happened to the other turkeys, every time she went out in the field, she carried her Bible, the Word of God. People might have thought she was crazy, but she had something in mind.

One day she was out in the field, when all at once she saw a dark cloud—a tornado was on the way. She heard the hail, and someone called,

"Aunt Mae, let's run, let's run!" She said, "No, we're not going anywhere," and she stood in the field. The storm kept coming closer and all the children were waiting for Aunt Mae to say, "Let's run!" Instead of running she stood, holding her Bible open toward the storm. She started shouting out scriptures. "Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses . . . he maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still" (Psalm 107:6, 29). Holding the Bible toward the approaching storm, she cried out, "Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the Lord" (v. 43).

God said, "My word shall not return unto me void." As she stood there and held that Bible out against the storm, the winds were blowing, the water was destroying the Book, but all at once the tornado went around to the north. There was nobody living that way, and her crops and turkeys were spared. The Word of God that we stand on tonight is the same Word. The Word of God, He is the One that calms the storm.

My wife and I were up in Michigan a few weeks ago in revival with Brother and Sister Trump and their church. As I was praying one day the Spirit of the Lord said to me, "If it will turn the storm, it will turn the devil." I have asked thirty men tonight, ministers, to stand in front of every section of this Assembly and for awhile they are going to be holding the Word of God out toward your section. We are doing this against the devil, who says there will not be healing. (He asked these ministers to take their places at this time.)

We're holding up the same Word against sickness, against every hindrance, every problem that Satan is coming against you with. We are declaring in the name of Jesus that the Word of God will have free course to make a path here to every need in this building.

Isaiah wrote, "But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed" (Isaiah 53:5).

Matthew recorded: "When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick: That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bear our sicknesses" (Matthew 8:16, 17).

Just as we are freed from our sins, we can be free from our sicknesses tonight. It's in the Word.

Why do you want to be healed? Do you want to be healed to see how much money you can make? Do you want to be healed so you can play golf and hunt and fish and have a good time? Or, do you want to be healed that you might glorify God? Are you willing to sell out and let the Word of God have free course in your life?

The Word of God is not in our midst as a spectator, to see what you wore to church, but He is here to minister up and down these aisles. If Jesus was here in person, all of us would want to sit by Him. All of us would want to go by and touch Him. Cheer up, He is sitting right there by you.

If there is any healing, it will be the Word of God that does it. There is no way we can manipulate God. We must get rid of envy and strife, learn to forgive, stop gossiping and lying; we've got to get rid of our negative attitudes, anything that brings fear and doubt. We need to repent of all bitterness that is harbored inside us, to lay it all aside and start talking faith, praise and joy.

Let the Word of God have free course and let Him be glorified.

At the conclusion of this message Brother Willis asked everyone who was suffering from cancer to stand, and for those ministers standing near them to lay hands on them and to pray for their healing; likewise those who had heart trouble, diabetes and arthritis. People were praying for the sick throughout the auditorium with deep compassion toward their needs. The prayer lines called for in the program never materialized, but the sick truly were ministered to.

Without an interruption Brother Willis turned the moderation of the service over to National Evangelist Alva Wilson who was on program for an evangelistic message and altar invitation. There was such earnest prayer going on all over the building that a message seemed inappropriate. His exhortation was fervent for all to yield themselves to the Lord and to allow His Spirit to set them free. He quickly gave the invitation for seekers to fill the altar, which they did. The congregation began singing, "He Set Me Free," and the spirit of freedom prevailed in which many were dancing and praising the Lord.

Altar music was provided by Greg Stephens, Ron Scotton, and Duke and Shirlene Stone.

Saturday, September 10
Morning

7:30 Morning Prayer Service. The prayer emphasis this morning was upon visitation outreach. Prayers were prayed for greater effectiveness in our reaching out to others.

8:58 "Be of Good Courage," message by Jerry Madrid, delivered in Spanish, interpreted from the platform into English, presented in an abridged form.

"These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world" (John 16:33).

Having instituted Communion and Feet Washing, Jesus continues to give counsel to His infant Church. In John chapter 14 He speaks of their relationship with the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost. He speaks of their keeping the commandments of the Lord, that they might keep their hearts free from tribulation. In chapter 15 He speaks of the results of this relationship, that they would have communion with the Father, and bring forth fruit that would be lasting. He told them also that they would be persecuted.

Paul reminded Timothy that "... all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution" (2 Timothy 3:12). In our text Jesus spoke of this persecution, of the tribulation His Church would experience, but He also spoke of the comfort they would have by means of the Holy Spirit. These disciples were in transition in their relationship with the Father, a transition that was helped by external experiences—by means of the teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ by the miracles being performed, by the security and the assurance that Jesus was there close to them. All this was good but they lacked spiritual experience. "God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth" (John 4:24).

When we worship in truth we are worshipping in His doctrine, keeping His commandments, but to worship in spirit is to enter into that phase of the purpose of the commandments, those principles that He desires us to live by. In this phase we no longer require commandments written upon stone, we have His law written in our hearts.

Christ was introducing the early Church to a new era, an era where they would be directed by means of the Holy Spirit. Paul wrote, "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God" (Romans 8:14). Jesus Christ came to make a new creation, sons of God who would serve the Father, directed by the Spirit.

By the fall of Adam and Eve the sons of God became the sons of Adam. Adam's fallen nature did not permit him to walk in the Spirit. This nature left humanity in disobedience to God, but Jesus Christ came to interrupt the course of man's fallen nature and bring man once again to a relationship with the Father. The Church was established with men who would overcome their fallen nature and walk in the Spirit and in the truth.

Israel was called to reach the objective which God had purposed before the foundation of the world, but because they rejected Christ, they were put aside and the opportunity was opened to the Gentiles. Now, you and I have the privilege to be the sons of God to finish the work that God purposed from the foundation of this world. The early Church walked in the Spirit and in the truth, the result being that they took this gospel to all the known world. When the Gentiles received the Holy Ghost, it was because Peter obeyed the Spirit, rather than the tradition of the Jews. What caused Peter to go there? He was a son of God and he was directed by the Spirit. God had purposed that the Gentiles would be participants in this holy house, and when the moment came the Holy Ghost spoke to Peter, and he was faithful to obey.

Jesus' words still apply to us today, "... In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." When our tribulation is affecting us in such a manner that we are not fulfilling the commands of the Spirit, then the world has too much influence upon us. When we are concentrating only upon the afflictions, we are not able to meet the needs of people. I am not suggesting that we will not have affliction or tribulations, but this must not impede us from completing the command to go into all the world with the gospel.

When I was a young child we did not have a television in our home, but a block away I had some cousins who had one. To go to their house I had to walk across an empty lot covered with weeds. As I would go to my cousin's house every day to see television, I began to cause a track to be formed. Eventually there were no weeds in this path because as I walked through there it caused the ground to harden and the weeds could not grow. That is what the world does to our lives. At the beginning its effect may not be noticeable, but as the world continues to penetrate our lives our hearts become hard and the seed of faith cannot grow.

What is the world? It is the earthly principles that fight against the heavenly principles. "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world" (1 John 2:15). Now I am not saying that we should not possess things of this world—a home, a car, clothing, food, work, recreation. But when things begin possessing us, our time, our will, our victory, then it is time to deny ourselves these things in order to keep the victory.

It is possible that a brother can have the "car of the year," which might be for me an obstacle, while it does not affect him. Then my conviction should not measure that man. I have to measure my life personally, and if I can't have that "car of the year," because it's going to be an obstacle for my spiritual life, then I have to deny myself, and take up my cross and follow Jesus Christ.

Satan, by means of the world, of earthly principles, desires to dominate, to influence your life and my life. He desires to influence and dominate the Church, so it will not accomplish the goal God has commanded. He desires to afflict, to bring tribulation, to deter her from the goal, but Jesus gave us hope to "be of good cheer, [saying], I have overcome the world." Though the world is applying pressure to the Church, we have the consolation of the Lord. To be of good cheer is to have valor, to have courage to fight, to have a confidence that is daring to enter into the dominion of this world—to fight against it and destroy it.

It is an opportune time for the Church to shine forth, that the glory of God may be seen in her and that the world may know that there is a body in this world that has not compromised itself to the world. Let us not give in to anguish or tribulation. When others are falling by the wayside, be of good cheer. When clouds of indifference gather, be of good cheer. As you see the deterioration of the economy of the world, be of good cheer. Christ has said, "I have overcome." As the early Church was, we are entering an era in which we must depend totally on the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

"We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed" (2 Corinthians 4:8,9). Church of God, be of good cheer! Christ overcame the world!

9:45 Victory Leaders Band Program, directed by William M. Wilson, General Secretary. Theme: "Just Say Yes to Jesus." Led by the Bahama Youth Band, the Victory Leaders marched into the Tabernacle carrying banners and signs depicting their themes and their zeal for their respective states and nations. Approximately 5,000 young people participated in this colorful march. Brother Wilson asked all to join hands all around the building (crossing the aisles) in a mighty prayer. There was prayer at the pulpit by Chris Stathis from Greece (in Greek), Moises Hernandez from Cuba (in Spanish) and Dennis Daniels from Tennessee (in English).

10:15 Spirited Worship through lively singing led by Peggy Burton: "Our God Reigns," "Let There Be Praise," "Mighty Warriors," "There's Gonna Be a Revival in the Land," "Yes, Lord, Yes" and "The Captain of the Host."

10:33 Gleaners Program, celebrating fortieth anniversary of the Gleaner Band, narrated by Galen Bell. Children wore Bible Memory Club shirts. A group of children wearing capes and caps gave Gleaner yells. A portion of the General Overseer's Annual Address of 1948, referring to the Gleaner Band, was repeated.

10:45 Youth Outreach Crusade introduced by Brother Wilson. The dates for this crusade were announced: October 1, 1988—June 30, 1989.

10:50 International Youth Camp '88 Choir, directed by Ron Scotton, sang, "I Am Jehovah."

10:54 "A Man Who Said Yes to Jesus," an impersonation of A. J. Tomlinson by Greg Patton, as he related his early life, marriage, conversion, call of God and his experience with the Holiness Church at Camp Creek in 1903.

11:25 "Yes to Jesus," message by Billy Wilson. Prior to his message Brother Wilson introduced his family and office staff. This message was published in the November 26, 1988 edition of the White White Messenger and made available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House. At the conclusion of his message Brother Wilson asked all those who were willing to say "Yes" to Jesus to raise both hands. Then he asked those standing around these people to lay hands upon them and to pray for them. The Holy Ghost moved mightily as new commitments were made.

Afternoon

12:55 Military Service Program, directed by Bobby R. Snow. Theme: "Wearing Two Hats." Introduction of military service personnel present, office staff and family. Chaplain Bill Reed spoke concerning his work of counseling with military personnel. Frank Shroyer reported on the servicemen's retreat held this year in the Bavarian Alps where 100 persons were in attendance. Directed by Chaplain Doug Stephenson the servicemen present sang, "Onward Christian Soldiers." A report on the Alaska retreat was given by Larry Biggers, and on the one in Japan by Daniel Corbett. Following an offering, Jean Campbell shared information concerning the "Sentinel," the magazine produced by the Military Service Department. The program ended with an appeal by Brother Snow that all would pray especially for our military service people all around the world.

1:58 White Wing Publishing House Program, directed by Henry O'Neal. Prayer by Herschel Collier, White Wing Press Supervisor.

2:03 Sunday School Literature Report by J. C. Cagle, Sunday School Literature Editor. He introduced his wife and his office staff.

2:13 Commendations for all Publishing House employees by Henry O'Neal, after which he introduced his family.

2:16 Songs by South Carolina State Chorale: "Thanks" and "Happy Ending."

2:20 New Publications for this year announced by Louis Sullivan, Merchandise Department Manager. He invited the authors of these publications to the platform where they were introduced to the Assembly.

2:38 Songs by Bennie Richardson: "Precious Cornerstone" and "A Long Way to Go to Be Like My Lord."

2:51 World Literature Outreach Report. Overseer D. Joseph spoke of the blessings of the Sunday School literature and tracts in India. Overseer Chris Stathis from Greece related his experience of going into Romania with some literature. Philippine Overseer Don Estep told about the blessing of literature in his nation. A plaque was presented to the Children's Church in Hopewell, Alabama for raising $2500 for a machine for folding literature in the Philippines. Overseer Sherman Allen from West Africa shared with the Assembly concerning the work that is being done in that part of the world. He expressed deep appreciation for the new facility of the White Wing Publishing House in Ivory Coast that is being dedicated today.

3:38 Dedication Ceremony for new buildings of the White Wing Publishing House in Ivory Coast and the Philippines. Felix Garcia read Psalm 135:1; 126:3; 68:11; 26:7; 48:12, 13; 48:1. M. A. Tomlinson prayed the dedicatory prayer, then all the Assembly prayed together. Next came a mighty round of praise. Plaques were given to the Overseers to be placed on these buildings.

3:48 "Literature for This World," by Felix Garcia, World Language Secretary. Brother Garcia referred to the drought that has been experienced in this country and others during the past year, how for the first time some of us could empathize with others who have had to live with this kind of condition repeatedly. People who never have done so before have actually prayed for rain.

He then talked about two droughts, one in Abraham's day and one in Isaac's, and of Isaac's digging again the wells that had provided water for Abraham (cf. Genesis 26:18). He mentioned the spiritual drought that is occurring in many places, where people are needing the refreshing water which the Church has been put here to provide. First, however, we may have to dig again some old wells, and uncover wells of springing water. He likened this needed water to the literature which we need to get to the world.

The program was concluded with a mighty prayer for this need of literature for the nations.

Evening

6:10 "Catch the Vision," message by Billy Wilson, Board Member, presented in abridged form.

"Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;

"Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest" (Matthew 9:37, 38).

Within the hour it is estimated that over 3,000 of the more than five billion people on planet earth will die. Instantly, these souls will face an eternity, either with Christ, if He was their Lord, or an eternity of hell fire, everlasting punishment and outer darkness. During this same hour, it is estimated that 10,000 newborn babies will breathe their first breath. We can easily understand why the population of this planet is literally exploding, an explosion that should press us, as the Church, to catch a vision of the greatness and urgency of our task. There could conceivably be more people at the marriage supper of the Lamb from among this generation than from all other generations before us put together.

Jesus Christ was a man with a vision! This vision moved Him from the glory of heaven to the stench of earth. This vision of our Lord sent Him to the Temple, to the synagogue, to the wilderness, to a hillside, to a poolside hospital for the hopeless, to a sick woman's bedside, to a graveyard where His friend was buried, and to a sinner's house. Finally it pressed Him down the streets of Jerusalem, up a lonely hillside, and onto an instrument of death called a cross.

From the foundation of the world, Jesus saw mankind as lost. He saw every generation that has preceded us. He knew the individuals' names before they were named. He saw present world conditions. He saw you and me, not only for what we are, but for what we can become for His glory. He also saw a people who would be involved so much in the carrying out of His vision that He could say, "This gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come" (Matthew 24:14).

The early Church caught the vision, though slowly at first, and they began to live out Christ's plan for them until finally they affected the entire known world in their day. He wants His chosen people today to CATCH THE VISION and give their all toward reaping the overripe harvest of their day. For this to happen, we must produce a generation of young people who have a world-reaching, darkness-changing commitment level and who have the needed equipment to accomplish the task. I believe that our Church school can and must play an important part in fulfilling the vision of Christ.

The Board of Trustees has been seeking the Lord for His direction concerning the role the College is to assume in these last days. During the past year, we felt pressed by the Holy Ghost to continue the pursuit of a four-year biblical studies program. We are continuing to seek the Lord as to His overall direction for the school.

We believe the vision of Tomlinson College and its role in preparing people to fulfill the Great Commission is simply an extension of Christ's vision for reaching the world now—before He comes. TC can and must be a place where men and women can prepare themselves for launching into the harvest field before us. This generation must have an indepth understanding of God's Word in order to fully affect the world, where positions will be challenged, doctrines questioned and God, Himself, accused of being nonexistent.

The overriding commitment is that Christ is not only the Head of the Church, but that He is also the living, abiding Head of every part of the Church. His direction must be followed and His blessing sought. When any part of God's program ceases to follow the direction of Christ, it will eventually, as Judaism did, become the enemy of the very God who ordained it. Tomlinson College is committed to following Christ wherever He leads us and to carrying out the vision He has for our existence.

The type of world-changing, Christ-exalting education that I speak about is not at all like the educational thinking with which our young people are growing up. In fact, in many ways, it is in direct opposition to it. The mindset of the world is to get an education which will help you get ahead. This materialistic, carnal mindset is deeply ingrained in our society. Many Christians have played into the hands of the enemy by pushing their children to pursue the same carnal goals as the world around them. Because of this thinking, many have become convinced that God wants them to get more than they give.

As Christians, we should seek an education that helps us to give more than it helps us to get.

A wind of freshness is blowing and God is doing a new thing among us. Young lives are being changed, emerging Church leaders are being developed, and a world-reaching army is being prepared for the final harvest. To Him be all the glory for what is happening and will yet happen at our Church school.

6:41 Tomlinson College Chorale, directed by Larry Duncan. This was a time of exalting the Lord in spirited singing.

7:06 A Special Guest to the Assembly, United States Senator Jim Sasser, from Tennessee, was introduced and spoke briefly to the congregation. Public Relations Director Perry Gillum read a letter to the Assembly from President Ronald Reagan at this time.

7:27 Voice of Salvation Program, directed by Elwood Matthews. The Assembly was led in worship by the Voice of Salvation Singers as they sang a number of choruses. The congregation was asked to join hands in prayer for a large number of prayer requests that had been received.

7:50 Scripture Reading, Matthew 24:4, 34-42, by Rick Lyles.

7:54 Voice of Salvation—A Viable Ministry, testimonies by Jack Sheets from California and Wade H. Phillips from West Virginia. They shared some of the results experienced in their areas through contacts that have come about through the VOS programs.

8:11 Special Song, "My Soul's Desire," by Janessa Jones Mode.

8:17 A Golden Opportunity. Overseer Chris Stathis reported plans for opening our own radio station in Greece which would enable us to preach the gospel to four million people daily. An appeal was made by Brother Matthews for 12 people to give $1,000 each for this purpose, and 12 people responded.

8:35 Special Song, "The Holy Ghost Has Got Hold of Me," by the group, Potter's Clay, from South Carolina.

8:45 Introduction of family and office staff, after which Roberta Matthews and VOS Singers sang, "Triumphantly, the Church Will Rise."

9:00 "The Second Coming of Christ," message by Elwood Matthews. This message was published in the White Wing Messenger dated, November 26, 1988, and made available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House. As the altar invitation was given the Williamson Trio sang, "Jesus Is Coming Again," and a large number responded. Music for the altar service was directed by Bubba Cardin.

Sunday, September 11
Morning

7:30 Morning Prayer Service. The prayer emphasis this morning was on follow-up and discipling. The burden for souls was evident during this time of praying.

8:45 Organ Music by Ron Scotton, Sr.

8:53 Music by Bahama Brass Band

9:14 "Faithful in All That You Should Be," message by Willa B. Smith, presented in an abridged form.

Noah was given a command by God, a command to build an ark. He told Noah exactly how he wanted the ark to be built; and Noah went according to God's plan. People around Noah may have scorned him, but this did not discourage Noah, who kept on building the ark.

Job was a perfect man who loved the Lord. He lost all that he had, even the support of his wife, but he could say "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him" (Job 13:15).

Then there was Esther, who was known for her famous words: "... so will I go in unto the king... and if I perish, I perish" (Esther 4:16). She knew that before she went into the inner court she could face death, but she was ready after preparing herself to die for her cause.

Consider Abraham, the father of the faithful. God told Abraham, "Get thee out of thy country: (Genesis 12:1). He was 75 years old, but he did not fight back; he left all that he had and obeyed God. Paul wrote to the church at Corinth: "Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful" (1 Corinthians 4:2).

Faithful is defined as being devoted, truthful, incorruptible, obedient and trustworthy in the duties we perform. Having become servants, we are drawn into a different kind of life altogether, and we must say with David "O Lord, truly I am thy servant; I am thy servant" (Psalm 116:16). Jesus was a servant, and no matter what position you may hold, you are still a servant. We must remain faithful.

Remember Joseph, who was hated by his own brethren. He was separated from them, but not from God. He went on to face an even greater temptation. Potiphar's wife tried to entice Joseph, then she lied about him, and she even took his garment. She could not strip Joseph of his virtue, however, for he was determined to remain faithful to God. He refused to be unfaithful, although he ended up in prison. Paul warned the Colossian saints of the dangers they would face as servants of God.

"Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ" (Colossians 2:8). To be faithful to all spiritual commitments is no easy task. It takes self-discipline, knowing the voice of God and obeying Him. Faithfulness must come from the heart and not just from the head. David said, "Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee" (Psalm 119:11). Sin has no age or time limit, the devil does not need a door or window to enter in, but just a little crack. I know that adultery, fornication, homosexuality is running rampant, but so is greed, covetousness and materialism.

God has called all of us to work as taught in the parable of the three servants (cf. Matthew 25:14-30). Trust was committed to each one. Two servants did well; they doubled that which had been given, and in so doing they were commended by the Lord. "And the lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant" (v. 21). There is a possibility that we may be good, but not faithful. Being good is not enough, we must be faithful in all things. We might make it a little distance on being good, but we need to be faithful.

The other servant did nothing but make excuses, and today we can find all kinds of excuses for being unfaithful to God. When we are faithful we will do whatever we can, whenever we can, never letting conditions around us change us. When you desire to be faithful, no one can change your mind. □

9:38 Women's Missionary Band Program, directed by Elva Howard, General Secretary. Theme: "Where There Is Love." A song service directed by Gloria Hart was preceded by her leading the congregation in a concert prayer. Sister Howard read Isaiah 6:1-7 and led the Assembly in a time of praise. Mary Nell Adkins directed the congregation in singing, "Holy Lord Are You."

9:57 Prayer for Missions Around the World by Vinuthi Joseph from India. She prayed in her native tongue.

10:01 "Your Love Touched Us Through the Helping Hand Ministry," testimony by Overseer Ernesto Castro from Nicaragua. He thanked the Women's Missionary Band not only for their financial support but also for their prayers. He told of his conversion in 1964, attributing it to the work of missions. He concluded his testimony with a prayer in his native tongue (a prayer with weeping).

10:12 "We Respond Because of Love," by Eugene Johnson, Overseer of North Carolina. "But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth" (1 John 3:17, 18).

"Jesus paid one price for the Church, wherever it is located throughout the world. It is His Church, whether in Nicaragua, the Philippines, the Bahamas, Canada, England, Tennessee or North Carolina. Because of this we have the responsibility to respond because of love. Love is something not just to be talked about; it is to be practiced.

"If you and I are not willing to give our monetary support, we will never be willing to lay down our lives for others. We give, first of all, because we are Christians; secondly, because we are family; thirdly, because we are one Body. I am so glad that in the Church of God, the walls are coming down, barriers are being destroyed, and we are beginning to see one another as one Body."

Brother Johnson concluded his message with a prayer for the offering being received today.

10:35 Love in Action. A special missions offering for the Helping Hand Ministry was received as organ music was provided by Ron Scotton. A thanksgiving prayer was prayed by Ina Mae Tomlinson.

10:38 Ladies Retreat Choir, directed by Jenna Allen and Mary Nell Adkins; Gloria Hart, organist; Jo Nell Clapp, pianist. Ladies present from Spanish-speaking retreats sang, "He Lives," in Spanish. This was a time of worshipping and praising God with great liberty in the Spirit.

11:15 "Because of Him, Love Finds a Way," an inspiring devotional by members of Sister Howard's family. This was concluded with a special prayer by Frank Howard.

11:38 "Where There is Love, the Pieces Fit Together," message by Elva Howard. This message was published in the White Wing Messenger dated, November 26, 1988, and is available from the White Wing Publishing House on cassette tape. At the conclusion of the message, Peggy Burton led the song, "Satan Has No Authority Here."

12:30 Report of the Counseling Committee. The report was read and accepted.

REPORT OF COUNSELING COMMITTEE

The Counseling Committee met in five (5) counseling sessions and spent several hours counseling with a number of people.

We appreciate the adequate facilities provided for the Committee's meetings, also, waiting room for those seeking counsel.

All persons presenting subjects to this Committee have been counseled and the subjects have been prayerfully considered, some of which we felt deserved further consideration before being presented to the presbytery or Assembly committees. Other subjects which we felt would be a blessing to the entire body have been passed on to the committees to be disposed of at their discretion.

We wish to commend all those who came before this Committee for the good spirit manifested. We found a great concern among the ministry, a great love for the Church of God and its teachings, and a strong desire to promote the doctrine of the Church instead of ideas and opinions.

The Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine, the Questions and Subjects Committee, and the Ways and Means Committee are standing committees throughout the year and may be contacted any time on doctrinal questions or anything not clearly understood.

12:35 Report of the Watchman Committee. The report was read and accepted.

WATCHMEN COMMITTEE REPORT

We bring you a salutation from the Psalms, chapter 126, verses 1-4:

"When the Lord turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream. Then was our mouth filled with laughter and tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen,

The Lord hath done great things for them. The Lord hath done great things for us: whereof we are glad."

This Committee voices our lively testimony and true witness that this has been a great Assembly, whereof we are glad.

We have observed a greater dedication, a higher level of spirituality and an earnest hunger for Bible unity among all the delegates.

Only very minor incidents required our assistance, and we are glad to report outstanding co-operation from everyone.

We truly believe our beloved General Overseer has struck a vital and responsive chord in his Annual Address wherein he taught us "Purity Precedes Power." We join him in uplifting the cause of purity by sharing this beatitude with the Church: "Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God" (Matthew 5:8).

We close with commendation to Bishop Cletties A. Harris who retired this year, having served the Assembly under appointment on this Committee with devotion to God and His Church since 1965.

12:40 Report of Altar Experiences Recorded in the Assembly. There were 66 saved, 60 sanctified and 73 baptized with the Holy Ghost.

12:42 Report of the Ways and Means Committee. After considerable discussion the report was accepted, with the exception of Section 5 which dealt with budgeting.

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE REPORT

Section 1

Acknowledgment

Bishop Herman L. Davis has served the General Assembly faithfully as a member of the Ways and Means Committee of which he was chairman last year. We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the dedicated contribution he has made to the Church of God by serving on this committee.

Section 2

CPMA Allocation to General Property Fund Be Discontinued

In the arrangement of financing the construction of the Tabernacle, the 64th General Assembly (1969) designated that a portion of the CPMA funds be committed for general properties.

We recommend that this practice be discontinued and that this portion* remain in the CPMA Department.

*This section refers to only one portion of the Ways and Means Committee report to the 64th General Assembly, 1969, also listed in the 82nd Assembly Minutes, 1987 under "Present Financial System, General properties, Number 2."

Section 3

Assembly Expense

With reference to the Questions and Subjects Committee report to the 82nd Annual General Assembly in 1987 regarding the Assembly Expense Committee being discontinued and that their responsibility be assigned to the Ways and Means Committee, we wish to extend our sincere appreciation to all of the brethren, whose faithful service through the many years was a blessing and inspiration to the Church. Their dedication continues to be remembered and appreciated, and we ask that our Heavenly Father continue to bless them in all that they do for Him and His Church.

We recommend that churches having less than 50 in Sunday School average attendance contribute $2.00 annually to Assembly Expense; churches with Sunday School average attendance between 50 and 100 contribute $3.00 annually; churches averaging 100 to 150 in Sunday School average attendance contribute $5.00 annually, and churches with Sunday School average attendance of 150 and over contribute $7.00 annually.

We recommend that each Victory Leaders Band contribute $2.00 annually; that each Women's Missionary Band contribute $2.00 annually; and each minister, including deacons and lay ministers, give $1.00 annually.

We recommend that pastors be responsible for collecting the Assembly Expense dollars for the auxiliaries and forward same to the respective state or national office, with the overseer to be responsible for collecting the dollars from ministers under his supervision. These funds are to be mailed to the General Treasurer as soon as collected. Funds received toward the end of the year may be included with convention auxiliary reports to the General Treasurer. The above recommendations are made without changes to previous reports, except for the Sunday School.

Your Committee offers this description of the manner in which Assembly Expense monies are spent: covers cost involved with the publication of General Assembly programs, audio and visual expense, lot attendants' wages, Tabernacle maintenance, housing, telephone, annual meetings of Assembly-appointed committees, public relations, certain musical expense, plus various incidental expenses involved with the preparation for operation of the Annual General Assemblies.

Introduction to Sections 4 and 5

The Lord has been good to the Church of God through the years to bring us to this part of our journey. In the infancy of the Church this side of the Dark Ages the financial demands were simple, with little need for complex financial system in part and because there was very little finance, but along with church growth comes additional financial responsibility. In an effort to meet the current demands the original concept was expanded until now, many years later, we find ourselves dividing and re-dividing the funds provided by the local churches.

We feel it is time to re-evaluate the present financial demands of the Church and face up to the challenge of adjusting to and meeting these needs as best we can. The following sections are the result of several years of study of the Church's financial system, and they are not conclusive in themselves; rather, the beginning of additional future steps toward updating our overall financial system.

Section 4 PILOT PROGRAM

Our desire is to simplify the receiving and disbursing of state/national convention and Assembly auxiliaries funds; thus, in part, eliminating the complexity of "percentages of percentages of percentages" which seem to have become a source of confusion. We request permission from this General Assembly to work with a number of states/nations of variable size in membership and geographic location on a pilot program so that proper analysis and evaluation can be made to determine whether or not the Church should continue to pursue this avenue of thought.

NOTE: First Step deals only with State Convention Auxiliary and General Assembly Auxiliary offerings.

Basics of the Program Plan

1. Select 3 or 4 states for voluntary participation by the State Overseers and Pastors.
2. All details of the plan are not yet in place.
3. The plan will be outlined with the Overseers of the selected states. All the details will be worked out with the Overseer and his pastors for implementing it.
4. A Progress Report on the program will be given to the General Assembly, September 1990.
5. Initially, our Pilot Program will not involve any countries outside the United States. However, as soon as necessary input, counseling and other information can be obtained from and through the World Mission Department, one or two Pilot Countries can be selected.

Section 6 RE-AFFIRMATION OF SUPPORT

In light of the Church's ever-changing need for its ministries and the world economic conditions, we recommend that this Assembly re-affirm that the General Assembly recognizes the authority of the General Overseer to make appointments of needed workers in given areas of the Church work, including the combining and/or adjustment of responsibility of those under appointment.

REPORT OF SPANISH COMMUNICATIONS MINISTER AND FIELD SECRETARY

August 1, 1987 to July 31, 1988

Sermons	171	Homes Visited	47

Sanctified	21	Ministers Conventions	2
Baptized with Holy Ghost	11

We are very grateful to the Lord for the blessings He has bestowed upon the Spanish work this year. Our Spanish membership is now over 60,000 and it keeps growing. Praise the Lord.

The communications ministry keeps reaching more and more people. As of today we have 168 radio stations with 398 weekly broadcasts. Through the program we have offered several Bible studies: General Bible Knowledge, the Body of Christ and The Sermon on the Mount; also we have some studies on Books of the Bible: James, Philippians, Romans, Nehemiah and the Gospel of John, Volumes I and II. The distribution of units and certificates of each course is as follows:

Course	Units	Certificates
General Bible Knowledge	963	191
Body of Christ	457	62
Study on James	286	124
Study on Romans	287	35
Study on Philippians	110	99
Study on Sermon on the Mount	110	100
Study on Nehemiah	54	54
Study on John, Volume I	46	1

The television ministry is progressing well. Three new series, two on the Gospel of John and one on the Gospel of Mark, have been produced this year; this represents thirty-nine new television programs. A booklet of outlines on these studies was prepared for listeners and viewers. These courses have been made available to local churches on VHS and BETA format for Bible studies in the local congregations, as well as on audio cassettes.

The program has been televised on several cable systems in the United States, and on Channel 52 in Los Angeles, California. In Puerto Rico the program is telecast on Channels 64, 46, 13, 32 and 58. We are on Channel 21 in Guatemala, C.A. In Belize, C.A. we are on Channel 2. In Bolivia, S. A. we are on Channel 5.

I served as Headquarters Representative to the National/State Conventions in Australia, West Texas, and California (Spanish). I conducted revivals and VOS rallies in several states and countries to edify the Church membership and promote the work.

During last year's Assembly a seminar was conducted, among other things, about the use of videos as a teaching tool. In this seminar several National Overseers, pastors and other leaders of the Church in the United States and in Latin America participated.

I attended the National Religious Broadcasters Convention in Washington, D.C. At this gathering I was elected to serve, for a third term, as President of the Hispanic Division of NRB (the HNRB). As president I planned and moderated the convention. During this convention I was reelected also as a member of the Board of Directors of NRB and as one of the nine commissioners of EFICOM (Ethics and Financial Integrity Commission).

This year the Spanish Voice of Salvation received the Hispanic Award for Excellence at the convention. This is the highest honor this organization awarded this year to a Hispanic Ministry.

I represented the Church and preached at the "Washington for Jesus" rally in Washington, D. C. I also conducted two seminars at the Hispanic Congress on Evangelism, known as Los Angeles '88. This was the largest gathering of Hispanics in the nation with a total of 6,316 registered. I served as part of the Hispanic Task Force for the American Bible Society and on the Hispanic Commission of the National Association of Evangelicals, and as a consultant for the organization IN-Depth Evangelism Association (IDEA).

I wrote and recorded for television three Bible study courses. These have the appropriate certificates of course approval. I have written articles for the White Wing Messenger as well as other Christian magazines, such as: Religious Broadcasting, Nuevo Horizontes and Variedades Cristianas.

I have served on the Communications Committee, the Ministerial Aid Committee and the Editorial Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF PUBLIC RELATIONS DIRECTOR AND GENERAL SECRETARY OF THE CHURCH OF PROPHECY MARKER ASSOCIATION

August 1, 1987 through July 31, 1988

I acknowledge with sincere appreciation the life I now have in Christ Jesus. It is in Him that I live and move and have my being. I further acknowledge my heartfelt thanksgiving to Christ for His call on my life into this gospel ministry, and the Church's acknowledgment by way of ordination and appointment to the ministerial responsibilities where I now serve. Sermons preached and lessons taught this year: 54.

During this year I have worked closely with the General Overseer, representing his office at the following official functions: the annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the United Bible Society, White House Presidential briefings relative to the state of world religious affairs, and the National Religious Broadcasters Conference. Also, I arranged for the exhibit of our Sunday school literature and represented the Church in the International Christian Education Association convention in Detroit, Michigan; the Greater Los Angeles Sunday School Association's convention in Pasadena, California, and the Mid-Atlantic Sunday School Association convention in Charlotte, North Carolina, along with other religious and secular bodies.

It was my privilege to represent the Church among representatives of most all evangelical and Christian television leadership in the Washington For Jesus Prayer Rally. I preached at the organizational pre-rally conducted at the First Baptist Church in Fort Worth, Texas. Attending this meeting were representatives of most every evangelical Christian organization.

It was a special honor for me to preach at the Prayer Rally in Washington, D.C. where it was reported that more than 500,000 people met in the U. S. capital for the purpose of praying for world conditions. It was a thrilling experience to join with the group of our Church members marching down the streets of Washington, D.C. with our Church flags and the banner which read, "Holy Nation" at the forefront.

The Steering Committee directed a pre-rally prayer meeting in Suitland, Maryland, at which our Church people gathered for a time of fellowship and prayer before the 6:00 a.m. prayer rally the next day. Elwood Matthews has produced a color video tape of this historic occasion.

In civic affairs I have represented the Church in numerous local, state and national functions. Presently, I am serving as a member of the Board of Directors of both the Cleveland/Bradley Chamber of Commerce and the United Way of Bradley County as a member of the Mayor's Blue Ribbon Committee.

We have developed and published the following materials for use by our local churches:

"Clip-It" addition: Just off the press is a package of twelve new pages of camera-ready clip-art especially designed with artwork which relates specifically to our Church functions.

Two new tracts, PEACE and TIME, are now available. This completes the series which was started two years ago. These four-page tracts, attractively designed, present the message of Christ in a simple form. I express appreciation to Rob Allen for his professional assistance in the development of these publications.

Since the General Assembly in 1987 changed the administration of the C.P.M.A. Department, it was necessary to re-write, produce and publish all of our promotional materials to comply with these changes. This has been done with the talented assistance of John McClure, Evelyn Gillum, Linda Humbert and Gloria Williamson. A note of gratitude is expressed to them for this labor of love.

I have managed the office affairs, working with a dedicated field team of state and national secretaries as they have represented this world headquarters office in the field, administrating and promoting this ministry. I salute all the state and national secretaries for this year's accomplishments.

Fields of the Wood:

I have managed the operations of Fields of the Wood, our Bible-theme park, with the outstanding staff assistance of Richard Morrow, Superintendent/Minister, and Doris Morrow, the gift center coordinator.

More than 100,000 visitors have shared in this Fields of the Wood experience this year. Brother Morrow has given several reports in the White Wing Messenger regarding the spiritual experiences received there.

Under the supervision of Brother Morrow several construction projects have been completed during the past year.

1. The newest project, the Gift, Book and Food Service Center offers a full line of Christian books and church supplies and includes fast food facilities that will accommodate as many as 80 persons. This project was sponsored by the churches in North Carolina.

2. Refurbishing of the pavilion was made possible through funds provided by the churches in Tennessee. The walls have been refaced with cedar siding and mountain stone. New lighting, carpets, steps and walks have also been added.

3. The exterior of the Sanctuary Hall has also been extensively remodeled this year.

4. Throughout the park quite a lot of old concrete walks and steps have been replaced, and stone walls have been added.

We express appreciation to every CPMA member for your support of this ministry. The work we have mentioned is a result of your $5 membership fees.

I express my personal appreciation to my fine office staff, Evelyn Gillum, Linda Humbert, Gloria Williamson, and Juanita Cannon for their untiring devotion to the department's work.

Respectfully submitted,

PERRY GILLUM

Served on the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine, the Church Publishing Committee and the Home Mission Committee.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EDITORIAL FUNCTION:

I have worked closely with the Manager of the White Wing Publishing House in relation to Sunday School literature publications. Periodic meetings between the editorial staff and those members of the Business Manager's staff who are involved in the printing of Sunday School literature have been especially helpful in many aspects of the editorial work. We feel that we have a good working relationship with the press department conducive to the production of good quality literature.

Along with our normal, day-to-day work, the Lord has enabled us to make some additions to our literature, bringing the number of pieces of our regular standard literature to a record high of 19. Additionally, there are eight electives available, designed for alternatives to the regular Sunday School literature. These electives and companion guides for teachers are available at the White Wing Publishing House.

Our Topical Teen literature will go from the present three-year cycle to a five-year cycle, beginning with the first quarter of 1990.

Bible Orbits (which is being used for translation into various languages) will go from the present three-year cycle to a five-year cycle, with the additional two years phased in by the translators, starting sometime during 1990.

The Spanish Still Small Voice is scheduled to go from a three-year cycle to a five-year cycle, the additional two years to be phased in by the translators during 1990.

We are pleased to announce that a new piece of literature for the Spanish will be offered with the third quarter, 1989 Spanish literature. This is a Teacher's guide coordinated with the Spanish Still Small Voice. We feel that this will be a valuable tool for our Spanish teachers who teach the primary age level of students.

New for English Junior curriculum is Bible-In-Life PIX. This is a colorful companion piece coordinated with the Junior Bible Adventures. Complimentary copies have been sent to pastors and Sunday School workers for introduction purposes. PIX is listed on our first quarter, 1989 order blank.

I feel that I need to say a few words about our Nursery and Junior curriculum to give clear understanding on these publications. This curriculum is co-published by the White Wing Publishing House and David C. Cook Publishing Company. As co-publishers, we have editorial and copyright privileges for this curriculum. This means that this literature has been edited by this department and approved by the Church's Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine; then it is printed for us by David C. Cook. Periodically we interface the Junior curriculum with a thirteen-week study of lessons that we develop to teach our basic Church distinctives. The third quarter, 1989 will be one of these quarters on the theme "What We Believe." This particular quarter will highlight basic Church doctrine distinctives, written on the junior age level.

Occasionally, we are asked if it is acceptable for our Sunday Schools to purchase their literature from David C. Cook or some other supplier. Our response to that question is: "We cannot endorse the use of any literature that has not been approved by the Church Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine."

This is not to say that we automatically consider all literature that we do not validate as unacceptable, but neither can we endorse literature as being acceptable if we have not processed it through our editorial department.

What I want you to understand is that you are not getting our Church-edited copy content whenever you purchase David C. Cook curriculum from suppliers apart from the White Wing Publishing House.

We have prepared two types of curriculum brochures—one is a new and colorful promotional brochure with details on literature for all age levels. The other brochure is in black and white, designed for use in state or national papers and newsletter. Copy-ready sections may be clipped and pasted up for printing. Instructions for use are included in the brochure.

I have done some preliminary work toward the development of two new electives: "To Teach A Teacher" and "Love Outside the Classroom." Detailed information on these will soon be forthcoming.

The Editorial Department for our Sunday School literature extends a welcome to our people to send us comments and suggestions.

REPORT OF WORLD LANGUAGE SECRETARY

August 1, 1987 through July 31, 1988

"But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

"Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord" (1 Corinthians 15:57, 58).

Giving glory to God and acknowledging His tender mercies, I praise the Lord for the work that the World Language Department has been able to realize. We have not been able to see any let-up in the work this year. I do not foresee the time when our work will be caught up, because as the Church grows and extends into new areas of the world so will the responsibilities expand in this department. Praise the Lord for the growth and expansion of the Church.

I must express my deepest appreciation for the faithful support received by so many saints that God has called and chosen to help support this work with private or personal gifts. I also want to express my profound gratitude for the several corporate contributions received throughout the year from business and professional people. These substantial gifts have been the "cornerstone contributions" that have made possible the expansion of our World Literature Outreach. These are to be commended for their faithful obedience to the urging of the Holy Ghost to assist with gifts and contributions. We give praise and glory to God daily for each one. May the inspiration to support this work continue and, if possible, even intensify for the glory of God.

The youth of the Church are also to be commended for their continued and constant support. Their giving to the World Literature Outreach Assembly Offering is sincerely appreciated. It appears that more and greater interest is being displayed in our world outreach. Of course, God is doing this because the greater the growth of the Church and the further we stretch out to the ends of the world, the greater our sacrifices will become, and young people are being endowed with inspiration for the challenge of the last days worldwide thrust. God bless each one.

Literature Centers

This year we will be dedicating two Literature Centers during the Assembly which have been constructed as multi-purpose buildings. These will accommodate translators' offices and a White Wing Publishing House. Other intended uses are as Ministerial Training Centers, Bible Training Institute facilities and National Overseers' offices. It has always been the intention of our World Literature Outreach endeavors to be a blessing to the Church and its various facets of ministry.

Philippine Islands and Ivory Coast are the presently designated facilities to be dedicated in this Assembly. This truly is a dream come true. These structures are sure to become the center of activities of the Church in each country. Praise the Lord for these remarkable victories.

World Language Department Projects

The prevailing expectancy of the eminent return of the Lord Jesus is surely motivating our vision of expansion. Opportunities to reach out into what have been inaccessible territories are being seen lately. God is opening doors that for many years have been officially closed. I can see the hand of the Lord working in countries and languages, such as, Russia, Czechoslovakia, Romania and Poland. There seems to be a move toward the acceptance of Christianity in these countries. The Church must seek divine wisdom to move with the moving of God's Spirit in these areas. I feel a special desire to look into these possibilities and, therefore, I request your prayers.

We are rejoicing with the people of Zaire who speak the Tshiluba language because very soon they will have Church tracts in their language. Translation work was started in that language this year. Over 7500 Church members speak this beautiful language.

China, the greatest republic (numerically speaking) is tolerating the gospel invasion. Over one billion people must receive the message of the last-days Church. I feel certain that the world's greatest revival will take place within its boundaries. We should have the courage and the vision to move forward into these harvest fields with the printed message in their languages. My request to the Church is this: "Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest" (Matthew 9:37, 38).

REPORT OF COMMUNICATIONS MINISTER

August 1, 1987 through July 31, 1988

I praise the Lord for the blessings on the Voice of Salvation ministries this year.

We began a 30-minute weekly television program that is aired over some 50 outlets in 13 states, as well as on satellite Weststar IV, Transponder 6, which is received throughout the U.S., areas of Canada and the Caribbean. The response has been most gratifying.

The 30-minute radio broadcast continues to be well received over some 250 stations in 36 states and 18 countries. Over the years this broadcast has gained a solid listening audience. The radio and television broadcasts proclaim to millions of people each week the last-days message. Thousands of names and addresses have been sent to pastors throughout the Church that are prospects for visitation.

The Voice of Salvation received 13,970 letters, 7,534 prayer requests, 10,461 requests for special offers and mailed 2,880 pastor follow-ups.

We have produced promotional video tapes for various departments and spot announcements for local churches.

The Voice of Salvation provided satellite coverage of the 82nd Annual General Assembly.

The work load has been extremely heavy for the office staff this year due to the increase in ministries. Each member is to be commended for the sacrificial dedication being given to this ministry.

REPORT OF COMMUNICATIONS BUSINESS MANAGER

August 1, 1987 through July 31, 1988

We serve the Lord with gladness and we are thankful unto Him and bless His name for His sustaining grace in our work during the past year. During the 82nd General Assembly I supervised the audio operations of the Assembly Auditorium Sound System, directed the activity of the video recording room and engineered one and one-half hours of Assembly broadcasting to Puerto Rico.

Our year's work produced significant progress in the addition of several radio stations for the English, Spanish and Greek radio broadcasts, reaching areas of the world which were previously unreached for the Church.

We are indeed grateful for financial support for the Communications work of the Church which has come from Broadcast Distributors, Broadcast Record Club, Voice of Salvation donations, and an appropriation of funds for this ministry.

I have attended one district convention, two state conventions, the Audio Engineering Convention in New York and the National Religious Broadcasters Convention in Washington, DC. I have assisted several local churches with their sound system needs, supervised the audio operations of Cleveland Bible Training Institute, directed the work of my office staff, answered correspondence, operated Broadcast Distributors, Broadcast Record Club and served on the Communications Committee and the Music Committee.

I have traveled in several states and in Colombia, South America, Puerto Rico and Dominican Republic in promotion of our Communications work. We have worked with several State and National Overseers and Communications Directors in advancing the broadcast work of the Church.

The weekly schedules for our Church broadcasts are as follows:

REPORT OF EVANGELISM DIRECTOR AND HOME MISSIONS REPRESENTATIVE

August 1, 1987 through July 31, 1988

This Assembly year was begun by conducting SEL training seminars in Puerto Rico and Dominican Republic, along with the able assistance of Brother Jose Rivera as interpreter. We both spoke in the commencement service of Bible Training Institute in the Dominican Republic.

During the 82nd General Assembly, I conducted a two-hour SEL Review. The Friday night evangelism program presented the theme, "Operation Harvest." I preached the Annual Healing Message for this Assembly.

I attended two State Ministers Conventions for the promotion of evangelistic effort.

During the month of January (with Brother Jose Rivera) I taught one class on evangelism in the Peru Bible Training Institute. A city-wide revival was conducted in Lima resulting in over one hundred and fifty experiences. The stage of the 500-seat auditorium was filled each night with seekers of the baptism of the Holy Ghost. Revival potential is great in the Latin American nations.

Our first SEL "Clinic Church" was established at Hickory Valley (Chattanooga, Tennessee) in March with thirty-five trainees from eleven states and three foreign countries. Plans were made for a second such clinic in October of 1988 with a projected participation of fifty trainees.

I was guest speaker at the Northeast Texas Youth Convention in Mt. Pleasant, Texas.

I conducted the annual Evangelism/Home Missions Exchange at Paris Landing, Tennessee in early May. The anointed teaching and preaching of guest speakers, J. Eddie Mounce, Allen Davis, Boyd W. Thornton and Dean Chatham were an inspiration to all who attended.

I taught Old Testament History to the first term in Cleveland's Bible Training Institute, and preached in a weekend service.

In June I taught a workshop and preached in a General Session at the Regional Youth Conference in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

I assisted in Youth Mission Team Orientation in Los Angeles, California and served as evangelist for the team to Seoul, Korea. The dedication and spirit of the Christian community in Korea was a great inspiration to experience. An unusual experience that we had during this Youth Mission Team was to assist in the funeral of a young Christian man whose entire family was Buddhist. It afforded the opportunity to present the hope of the salvation message to this bereaved family.

I represented General Headquarters at the State Conventions of Kentucky, Kansas and Indiana.

In addition to these Church-sponsored functions, I attended the following evangelism-related meetings: Serve International, Atlanta, Georgia; James Robison Bible Conference, Fort Worth, Texas; Washington for Jesus, Washington D. C.; Leadership '88, Washington, D. C.; and Atlanta '88, Atlanta, Georgia (a Black Evangelization Conference).

I coordinated the taping of a music album entitled, "Let's Have a Revival" recorded by the 1988 National Evangelists. I toured several convention facilities in Oklahoma and Texas (enroute to the Northeast Texas Youth Convention) as possible sites for a National Evangelism Conference in January of 1990.

I served on the following General Headquarters Committees: Home Missions, World Missions, Church Publishing, Communications, and Youth Mission Board.

I corresponded with all State Overseers, National Evangelists, Evangelism Prayer Partners, State Evangelism/Home Missions Directors, and pastors who utilized the National Evangelists for revivals in their churches.

I served as a member of Associated Ecumenical Charities, governing body of the Memphis Day Shelter, a ministry to the homeless in Memphis, Tennessee.

On a personal note, my wife and I celebrated in this past year our twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, and gave our only child, Rebecca, in marriage on December 18, 1987 to James Trump, Jr.

Appreciation is in order to my office secretary, Melva Pohlner, and to office assistants, Roger Robb and Dan Palmer who served the department during the year.

The National Evangelists are to be commended for hard work on the revival circuit. The total results of their efforts are as follows: Saved, 1,638; Sanctified, 1,355; Baptized with Holy Ghost, 901; Baptized in water, 122; Added to the Church, 78; Visits, 2,531.

REPORT OF WORLD MISSION SECRETARY

August 1, 1987 through July 31, 1988

By the grace of God and through His tender mercies, I made 27 visits to 23 countries and states in the course of my work this year. I preached and taught 86 times with 23 experiences recorded as a result. Major activities included attendance at 6 national conventions as representative for General Headquarters, the 1988 Youth Mission Team's Orientation in Los Angeles, and the special meetings sponsored by Tomlinson College.

I supervised the work of the World Mission Department which included a monthly letter to overseers in the countries, answering of correspondence, preparing of legal documents, consulting and counseling with Overseers and Mission Representatives. In addition, I planned and directed the World Mission Program for the 82nd General Assembly. The Committees and Boards on which I served are: World Missions, Youth Mission Board, Church Publishing, Bible Training Institute and Ministerial Aid.

The faithful service and cooperation of the Mission Department staff, Mission Representatives, Overseers and Mission Corpsmen are appreciated. Their love, prayers and kind tolerance helped me much throughout the year, and I am grateful.

TO MEXICO, CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICA
August 1, 1987 through July 31, 1988

"Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness . . . For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death" (Psalm 48:1, 14).

The words quoted above truly correspond with my feelings of gratitude and thankfulness unto God for keeping me safe and healthy throughout this past year. I have had the opportunity of traveling safely thousands of miles by land and air, for which I give God all the glory and honor. My wife Stella and my three children have been very understanding and supportive of my ministry, in allowing me to fulfill my duties as called upon.

The Church work in Latin America is steadily growing and maturing in many areas. There is a genuine need for a greater evangelistic thrust throughout the area, as many souls can be won and brought to the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. The Gospel is a true message of hope in this politically and war-torn area. Though in many of these countries our Church members continue to suffer persecution and strenuous economical crises, their faith has not wavered. Praise God! Victory is being experienced through miracles, healings and wonders as were experienced in the early Church.

In Nicaragua, during the national convention, as the National Overseer was about to give his Annual Address the Holy Ghost descended like a mighty, rushing wind and blessed God's people for over two hours, working in their midst with signs, wonders, healings, messages in tongues and interpretation, assuring His people that He was with them. This experience was marvelous, leaving many in awe of God's mighty hand.

In the country of Chile God wonderfully used National Overseer Alfredo Saucedo in leading His people to a genuine repentance of having deviated from God's guiding hand. The people's response was so overwhelming that God approved their sincerity in showering them with blessings from above. It is a true joy and a sobering feeling to be able to see how God is moving among His people. I feel that there are greater blessings in store for the Church in Latin America, and I covet your prayers in order that we may continue to yield to the wooing of the Spirit.

This past year has been a very busy one; nevertheless, it has been a great joy to serve God's people and to rejoice with them in their victories. Once again I was able to visit Cuba. God continues to bless His people as they are experiencing a moving of the Spirit, with several miracles of healing having taken place. This has been a real blessing to our people. There are many governmental restrictions concerning their church activities; nevertheless, they are excited by the manner in which God is moving among them. Please continue to pray for them.

The following are related duties, which by the grace of God were fulfilled in my area of responsibility:

Sixteen countries and three states visited.

Headquarters Representative in 11 national conventions.

B.T.I. Instructor in Peru.

National Overseer to Belize and moderator during the national convention.

Member of the World Mission Committee and Youth Mission Board.

REPORT OF MISSION REPRESENTATIVE TO AFRICA

August 1, 1987 through July 31, 1988

Apart from my duties as the National Overseer of England, I visited 3 African countries this year. I attended 2 Bible Training Institutes—one in Nairobi, Kenya and the other in Bloemfontein, OFS, Republic of South Africa.

I attended two national conventions—one at Bloemfontein, OFS, Republic of South Africa and one in Labotse, Botswana. I sent Bishop T. A. McCalla and Bishop Oswill E. Williams to two countries each to represent me in the National Conventions: Bishop McCalla went to the Natal (Zululand) and Lesotho National Convention at Umlazi near Durban in Natal, RSA, and to Piggs Peak, Swaziland to the Swaziland National Convention. Bishop Williams went to the Transkei/Ciskei National Convention at Umtata, Transkei; and to the Zimbabwe National Convention at Harare, Zimbabwe. I also sent Bishop William S. Rogers to Kenya for the National Convention in Nukuru. Bishop T. A. McCalla was sent also to West Africa where he attended the Ivory Coast and Sierra Leone Conventions.

I visited West Germany's Winter Retreat at Berchtesgaden, West Germany.

I preached 47 sermons. There were some experiences. There was no count taken of experiences in any service mostly due to the nature of the service.

I visited 36 homes and distributed a few tracts and periodicals.

I attended the Biblical Studies Camp in Ohio and spoke at the Ohio Youth Convention.

I conducted the National Convention in England.

We are grateful to God for the many blessings He has bestowed upon us in the Caribbean and Atlantic Ocean Islands Area. There were increases in many parts of the region this year; for this we praise the Lord.

I was privileged to attend the 82nd Annual General Assembly, The General Overseer's Assembly banquet and the Tomlinson College Assembly banquet. I was invited as guest speaker to the National Harvest Festival in Jamaica. I attended a meeting of the Caribbean Conference Committee in the Bahamas; also the Steering Committee meeting in Jamaica.

Made two trips to St. Lucia; the second was for the organizing of the Church in that country. Assisted with planning for a Caribbean Ladies Retreat in Barbados. Served as guest speaker for the closing sessions of Bible Training Institute in Freeport, Bahamas and Montserrat in the Leeward Islands. Preached on, "Moment of Prophecy," a national radio Church program in the Bahamas.

Visited Grenada and St. Vincent, giving encouragement to the ministry and the laity. Traveled to Curacao with both former and present overseers to help with the transition of administration in that island. Worked with the overseer in the supervision of several projects in the Bahama Islands.

Communicated with the overseers of the region by letters, telephone calls and other means. Four issues of the Caribbean Messenger were published this year, and copies sent to all areas of the Caribbean.

Special thanks to our General Overseer and World Mission Secretary for their frequent letters of encouragement and kind help in time of need. May the Lord richly bless them and all our General Workers.

I wish to thank our Caribbean Office secretary, Edna Cunningham, who also serves as field clerk and assistant editor of the Caribbean Messenger, for her faithful service in every area of the work. Thanks to our Mission Office staff for helping us in so many ways during the past year.

Many thanks to my wife and children for their understanding and strong support in the work that I have been called to do. May God richly bless them everyone.

REPORT OF MILITARY SERVICE DEPARTMENT

I visited our military personnel in the United States and several other nations, attended and spoke in two retreats, Okinawa and Alaska.

Our Chaplaincy program presently consists of: Ltc. Douglas Stephenson, Maj. Guy Lindsey, Maj. Gerald Moates and Capt. Kurtis Quesinberry on active duty in the Army; Lcdr. Daniel Kurbis and Lt. Bill Reed on active duty in the Navy; and Capt. Jon Stovall on active duty with the Air Force. 1Lt. Anthony Charles is serving in the Army Reserve and 2Lt. Charles Knauer in the Air Force Reserve. Tom Glisson has been endorsed for active duty Air Force Chaplaincy. Capt. J. E. Brisson is with the Civil Air Patrol (presently inactive). Daryl L. Shaffer, L. Ronald Hamm and Ernest C. McKinley have been endorsed for the Civil Air Patrol Chaplaincy.

Retreats were conducted in Berchtesgaden, Fed. Rep. Germany, Fairbanks, Alaska and Okinawa, Japan as well as special activities in many areas. A special prayer day on the third Sunday in February was observed by the Church in behalf of all those in the military service, and this was boosted in the WHITE WING MESSENGER.

The Servicemen's Center in Langen, Fed. Rep. Germany has been relocated in Babenhausen, approximately 40 minutes Southeast of Frankfurt. The center continues to operate under the direction of National Overseer Dennis Howard, with Onnie Langley serving as pastor. These brethren and those assisting them are to be highly commended for their labor of love.

THE SENTINEL mailing list numbers 1,103. Of these, 834 are individual recipients and 269 are distributed at the General Offices and mailed in bundles to pastors, overseers and others who work with the military. There have been 12 issues of the department's monthly publication printed and approximately 138 packets containing 12 tracts, 2 copies of THE SENTINEL and a PR brochure mailed to new military personnel as they are added to our mailing list. The department participated in two pastoral mailings furnishing information about ministering to the military. There have been approximately 14,270 tracts, pamphlets and brochures distributed through this department. A regular flow of mail is received and answered.

The Church and its Representative and Ecclesiastical Endorsing Agent is listed with the Department of Defense, National Conference on Ministry to the Armed Forces (NCMAF), the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, the Civil Air Patrol, Veteran Administration and reserve components of each of these branches of service, and corresponds with the Chief of Chaplains for each of these branches of the military service.

Youth Mission Team	1

I pursued my responsibilities this year with great appreciation for the considerable complexities involved. An earnest effort has been made to fulfill the numerous assignments in a manner that is pleasing to the Lord.

I have fulfilled the administrative duties, in part, by keeping as many office hours as possible when in Cleveland. Regular correspondence has been maintained with State and National Overseers, State and National Sunday School Secretaries, State and National Children's Ministries Directors, Pastors and Superintendents in addition to handling much other mail. Further, I fulfilled this department's 1987 Assembly obligations which included engineering six workshops, four children's worship services, a complete day of creative ministry to children (Celebration Saturday), Celebration of Praise, a meeting and banquet with the state and national secretaries, a departmental booth and the department program. Also, considerable work was invested in preparing activities for the current General Assembly.

I have served on the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine. Additionally, I have fulfilled writing commitments for various publishers. I have this year invested time, effort and many miles in consulting with various Hispanic experts in Sunday School and Children's Ministries in addition to attending three major Sunday School conventions (GLASS, GLSSA, and ICEA) and six specialized meetings (SPS, DECE, AAR, TC, GL '88, Leadership '88), two of which brought together denominational leaders in Christian Education. Much the same was accomplished in selected ecumenical efforts, especially serving on the Steering Committee of the North American Renewal Service Committee.

With the assistance of the appropriate personnel, the following materials were completed under my supervision this year:

1988 Sunday School Fall Campaign material with the theme, "Devoted To The Apostles' Teachings." I wrote original material for this (English, Spanish, French).

1989 Outreach Campaign materials using the theme "Gather The People Together" (English, Spanish, French). I made revisions and wrote new material.

1988-1990 Sunday School Superintendent's Planning Calendar. I revised and enlarged the calendar (English, Spanish, French).

A Sunday School edition of the White Wing Messenger (English, Spanish).

A special book for children's ministers called the Children's Day Idea Book, edited by Sondra Hunter. Also released the Spanish edition of the 1987 book.

Sunday School Helps and Hints. This quarterly publication for those who work in Sunday School was edited by Sondra Hunter (English, Spanish, French). A special edition was run in the White Wing Messenger (January 23, 1988).

On Your Mark...Get Set...Grow! This publication, compiled by Kathy Creasy, is produced quarterly by this department for children's ministers (English, Spanish, French).

A new booklet entitled Sunday School Workers' Conferences. This material was adapted by Edward D. Dowdell and released by Gospel Light. Spanish and French editions are forthcoming.

Promotion and reporting on Vacation Bible School.

Sunday School Directives in Spanish. A French edition is in process.

1988 Children's Day materials which used the theme, "A Little Child Shall Lead..." (English, Spanish, French).

Heritage CARE brochures in the White Wing Messenger (January 23, 1988).

A new administrative literature piece entitled Storytelling That Sparkles written by Caroline Ledbetter.

Children's Church Handbook, edited by Sondra Hunter, is in process.

Children's Ministries Manual in Spanish, written by Darlene Bell, is in process.

Promotional ads in the White Wing Messenger for Fall Campaign, Children's Day, Heritage CARE and General Assembly Sunday School Department activities.

Ad for Heritage CARE in the General Assembly program booklet.

Sunday School and Children's Ministries Idea Book. Prepared for state and national directors.

Called to Teach made available in Greek and an Indonesian dialect.

Released the new book for Children's Church Ministries report to Quarterly Conference and to state or national Children's Ministries Director (English, Spanish, French).

Material pertinent for state and national Sunday School Secretaries and Children's Ministers was collected, processed and made ready for distribution.

Revised Sunday School Superintendent's Report to Quarterly Conference and to state or national Sunday School Secretary (English, Spanish, French).

It is my burden to conform the Sunday School department to the needs of its international constituency. With that in mind, energy has been expended to make progress on producing materials that relate to the indigenous needs of our three primary languages (e.g. English, Spanish, French). Thus, for the first time a complete teacher training certificate is available in French. Also, an advanced certificate has been prepared for those who speak English and a comparable program has been developed in Spanish. Sunday School and Children's Ministries projects in other languages have likewise been initiated.

I had the privilege this year of being the first General Sunday School Secretary to visit eight (8) Latin countries. Plans have been made to tour Europe, Africa and numerous states in this ongoing effort to foster a mutually improved understanding and provide first-hand exposure to the needs of some of our Sunday Schools and Children's Ministries around the world. My visits this year to various states and Latin countries accomplished this. New materials were produced in English and long range programs to assist our members who speak Spanish were set in motion. The International Sunday School Department will not slow its pace of production in English, but it must prepare also an array of materials and programs to meet the specialized needs of those outside the industrialized West.

Appreciation is due the staff, Lori Chatham and Margie Allen, for their contribution to the Sunday School Department. My wife Sondra continued her faithful ministry to our world-wide membership by making many things possible and sometimes accompanying me as a leader in various state/national conferences that covered Children's Ministries.

"... I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry" (1 Timothy 1:12).

Thanks be unto God who has given us the victory this year among our youth. Many have been saved, sanctified, and filled with the Holy Ghost, and to God be all the glory.

The office work has been exciting and motivating this year. With the assistance of my office staff, we have published and edited the following: Victory Leader (English, Spanish, French)—our monthly youth publication in the White Wing Messenger, The Branch—a bimonthly, inspirational newsletter for college students and single young adults, Servant Update—an informational newsletter for state/national youth secretaries and camp directors, Gleanings For Gleaners—a quarterly resource newsletter for pastors and Gleaner leaders.

We compiled and published a State/National Secretaries' Idea Book, the Guidepost—an idea book for camp directors, the International Youth Camp Yearbook, the International Youth Camp Staff Manual, and the Victory Leaders Band Ministries' Calendar.

This year we have also developed or revised the Victory Leaders Handbook, a new Bible Reading Guide for Victory Leaders, a new Victory Leaders membership card, and Encounter II—a resource book for local directors.

We have developed a new program for Gleaners this year called Bible Memory Club. This is a systematic, motivational program for involving children in Bible memorization.

We have also worked on developing a packet of materials (posters, planning book, tracts, follow up cards, prayer enlistment sheets, report forms, certificates, order forms) which our local churches can use in our upcoming Youth Outreach Crusade.

I served as director of International Youth Camp at Camp Hickory Hills near Dickson, Tennessee. Two hundred and seventy-nine campers and staff attended this week of inspiration and training with a theme of "From Generation To Generation."

The Victory Leaders Department sponsored a team to travel to Zimbabwe and Swaziland for conducting youth camp and training camp workers. This was a successful endeavor.

I planned, organized and moderated our first-ever Regional Youth Conferences. We conducted three of these as follows:

LOCATION	ATTENDANCE
Concord, California	418
Buffalo, New York	1,273
Tulsa, Oklahoma	525
Total Attendance	2,216

These conferences saw many young people being saved, sanctified, and filled with the Holy Ghost. Several accepted callings into the ministry. Youth workers were trained, young people delivered and many youth-related concerns addressed from a biblical perspective. Special emphasis was also given to our literature work, Tomlinson College, and programs sponsored by the Youth Mission Board.

The Victory Leaders Department spearheaded the World Literature Outreach promotion and also assisted in the editing of REACH—a publication designed to update the Church on happenings around the world relative to literature.

I served as a B.T.I. instructor for the Cleveland, Tennessee, school as well as rewriting the auxiliary lesson pertaining to Victory Leaders.

I represented the Church as an instructor in the Christian Camping International National Convention in Nashville, Tennessee, as a guest speaker at D.C. '88—an event sponsored by Youth For Christ, and as a representative to Leadership '88—a conference on World Evangelization for young Christian leaders.

I also served on the Church Planning Committee for Washington For Jesus '88 which I attended.

I spoke at youth conventions in Peru, Bolivia, Utah, Arizona, Virginia, Maryland, and Oregon, at youth retreats in South Dakota, Western Canada, and Michigan, conducted youth rallies at Hickory Valley and Spring Place churches in Tennessee, as well as youth rallies in Kentucky, Alabama, Arizona, and Maryland/D.C. Served as Headquarters Representative to Arizona, England and Georgia Conventions as assigned by the General Overseer.

I served as secretary to the Youth Mission Board. Our Youth Mission Teams proved to be a blessing this year with the following numerical results:

Locations: Alaska, Hawaii, Utah, Australia, Canada, Korea, New Zealand and Thailand.

Saved	117	Baptized with Holy Ghost	46
Sanctified	68

I served on the Tomlinson College Board of Trustees, the Church Publishing Committee, the Music Committee and the Communications Committee.

I am thankful for God's watch care, protection and special strength in keeping me healthy and busy for Him. I am also especially thankful for every young person in the Church of God. They are each one special and I pray God's continued blessings on them.

It has been my privilege to be in a position to correspond with those who are working on the mission fields, both here and abroad. The spirit of missions is amazing. In areas where the people are suffering and where they are working under abnormal circumstances, the work is growing. These, I find, are those most encouraged about the work. The more reports I receive, the greater I realize our mission challenge to be. I am grateful for the response some of the people in the States and in the more affluent countries have made to those who so desperately need their prayers and their assistance.

I have been in contact with the National/State Secretaries through monthly correspondence and with many on a personal basis. The department has compiled and printed:

Mission Crusade Booklet (English)

Women in Profile #10 (planning booklet for ladies' functions)

Helping Hand Ministry Brochure

Ladies Retreat Program Booklet

Ladies Retreat Brochure

The Helper (to be explained further in the report)

I wish to commend those who have shown such a great interest in Women Ministering Biblically. I want to encourage those who have not yet envisioned what this can do for a local church. State/National secretaries, district boosters and local leaders who have not accepted this challenge need to endeavor to begin a ministry to and for women. This could include any of the following: Bible studies, prayer groups, visitation to shut-ins, convalescent centers, hospitals and private homes. A various number of activities for ministering to women have been reported in the past months, such as: Ladies Breakfast/Luncheon, Ladies Day in local, district or state settings, state-wide Ladies Retreats as well as those mentioned above. This is an urgent ministry; only the Judgment will reveal the results of some of these activities. It is time—"High Time"—to do something that will minister to our women who, in turn, will be a great influence in the homes. It is the homes in which Satan is now making his greatest thrusts. More and more are catching a vision of this ministry to women and each year the number of these functions increases. We are praying they will continue to do so.

I wish to pay a special tribute to those who have responded to the needs of the mission field through the Helping Hand Ministry. Many individuals as well as churches have responded to needs which have been published through the Helping Hand Brochure. Many areas were aided because of your generous giving. The work on the mission fields has shown a decided increase which also means that the needs are increasing. For the donors to be more aware of what is being accomplished with these funds, a new publication, "The Helper," is being mailed to them quarterly. Thanks to those on the field who have expressed their gratitude by letters, by pictures, and some by amazing testimonies. Because of these, "The Helper" has been made possible.

I also want to join with the people on the field in giving my personal thanks to those who have sponsored projects for the Helping Hand Ministry this year. I am touched by the concern that our people have shown. Thanks to the secretaries and Overseers who have boosted this means of giving, thereby making some of these gifts possible.

Because of this response to the Helping Hand Ministry, projects have been completed, such as:

Transportation—In the form of motorcycles, motors for boats, bicycles, a mule, and a horse. There will always be a need for "Wheels for Missions," partly because vehicles wear out but, most urgently, because there is such growth on the mission field.

Buildings and Land—We have been able to aid in the purchase of some land. Several buildings have been erected from the gifts received and some are partially complete. Land and buildings are the most expensive needs at the present time.

Ministers' Support—Because of the faithful monthly donors, we were able to assist many ministers (pastors) this year. The poverty level being what it is, there is a heavy financial burden on the minister and his family on the mission field. They will never be fully supported from their fields. This is why your contributions are so needed and so appreciated.

This, as you can see, is a big program; but thanks to people like you who give and will continue to give, the Great Commission to the Church can be fulfilled.

I have been privileged to serve on the Youth Mission Board. This always presents a challenge as we see young people who are willing to give of themselves, either by serving on a Youth Mission Team or in the World Mission Corps.

My thanks to Bible Training Institute and especially to the superintendent for allowing me to teach in the Cleveland school this year.

I am grateful for the teaching ministry of the Church, which has reached into the Youth Department via Youth and Couples Retreats. It was my privilege to teach family-oriented material in one of these retreats. I was also privileged to teach both in the Tulsa Youth Conference and in International Youth Camp, where I saw the Lord do marvelous things with the youth of the Church.

Ministering to the individual is the greatest part of the Church's commission. I have been made aware of this through the Ladies Retreat ministry for which this has been a great year. I have had the privilege of directing fourteen regional Ladies Retreats; nine of these in areas within the continental United States. The remaining five were conducted in the following places: Canada, England (European), Bahamas (Islands), Mexico (Central America), and Barbados (Caribbean). The total number of ladies attending was 4,322. In three of the retreats, the entire sessions were translated into Spanish. The Central American retreat was entirely in Spanish. In two retreats, the sessions were translated into French.

I wish to express my thanks to the State/National Overseers who have supported this ministry. I feel a deep appreciation to the ladies who served on the staff of these retreats. Without them, the retreats would not have been the blessing to the women that they were. Heaven holds the record of all that was accomplished in the hearts and lives of those who attended and all because these faithful workers were willing to give so much to this cause.

A special thanks goes to my office staff: Jeanette Rollins, my private secretary; Judy Lawson, retreat secretary and Martha Tuttle, office assistant. These ladies have worked extra hours (on and off the time clock) to complete assignments so I would be ready to fulfill a schedule, or see that a program got to press on time, or to gather for prayer when made aware of another's needs. Their concern and love for people has helped make this department run smoothly in spite of the heavy work load. May the Lord bless them in His own special way.

Thanks to the Father above who is over all and works through us all. Only because of the loving care of the Father can any of us accomplish work for Him. He is the Giver of all that has been given. He is the Strength for all of those who have expended their strength. He, through the dedication of those on the field, has made this report possible. Thanks be unto God who has done great things for us, whereof we are glad.

REPORT OF TOMLINSON COLLEGE PRESIDENT

October 1, 1987 through September 31, 1988

My sincere thanks goes to all of the general workers, state overseers and fellow workers for Christ for their support and prayers during this past year. A special thanks to Brother Henry Callis and his maintenance department for the upkeep and care of the campus.

This year has brought many challenges and opportunities for everyone at Tomlinson College. We completed our self-study for Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and the subsequent visit by the accreditation committee to our campus. We are awaiting a decision in December on our status, both on re-affirmation of our two-year program and on our new four-year program. We expect approval on both and are moving ahead in both programs.

Our enrollment has increased for the second consecutive semester after declining for several years. We thank God for His blessings upon the college. This is our fifth highest fall enrollment in the history of the school. We are anticipating an even higher enrollment in the spring.

Our external studies program has been expanded to three (3) new states where we are starting extension schools. This will give us eight (8) states where we will be conducting extension schools. We have started a pilot program in England and are considering other pilot programs in other countries. If these pilot programs are successful, we will establish permanent extension schools there in the future.

This year has seen several new scholarships established for TC students. They are: M. S. CURRY SCHOLARSHIP, HARRY LEE MOORE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP, HISPANIC ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP FUND, EVA MAE WEBSTER ULYAK SCHOLARSHIP, AND THE ROBERT L. CASH SCHOLARSHIP.

We are promoting and stressing the need for our Alumni members and leadership to establish scholarships, endowments and general support for our college as we grow and build for the future.

Our new computer programs have been well received and we are exploring other areas of new technology that will enhance our curriculum and educational programs. Our new library automation system will soon be completed as we tie in with other libraries in the area and increase our access to more books for our students.

The college is facing a challenging year, and I want to personally thank everyone for their support and willingness to give more sacrificially for our students.

I want also to recognize and express my appreciation to the Board of Trustees for their many hours of deliberation and help this year. A special thanks to the staff, faculty, administration, all the employees and my personal secretary for their hard work this year.

Respectfully submitted,
DONALD R. NEWLUN

It was very gratifying to serve on the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine. Many hours were spent reading manuscripts and Church related materials for approval for printing and circulation. I served also on the Bible Training Institute Committee, which is always an enjoyment.

Delightfully coordinated my efforts with the General Superintendent, General Representative, office secretaries and supply coordinator to fulfill my obligations as Bible Training Institute Representative in the Bible Training Institute Department. I personally corresponded with vice presidents and state/national representatives to secure places for schools and for setting in order the administration for the schools for which I was directly responsible.

Again this year we had Bible Training Institute rallies for the purpose of promoting the need for training, introducing correspondence courses to those that couldn't attend one of the regular schools and acquainting the members concerning the operation of Bible Training Institute Department. These rallies have proven to be an asset and great blessing in increasing the circulation of more correspondence courses.

We enjoyed another inspirational and informative year for the teaching ministry. In the classroom, God supplied the divine unction and inspiration to teach and as a result the needs of the students were met. In a world and society where being bound by one thing or another is the order of the day, it is good to know that you can be set free, if you know the truth. This seemed to be the general feeling of the students in all of the schools this year.

We had our first Bible Training Institute in the country of Zaire this year. The school was held in the city of Kinshasa and conducted in the French language. I was privileged to administrate and teach in this school. God's presence was felt from day one until the end. It was said by students, that no more would anybody be able to fool them concerning religious matters for God had revealed truth to them.

I appreciate the General Overseer, General Superintendent, Bible Training Institute Representative, office personnel in the department, people on the field and my dear wife and family for praying for and helping me in so many ways to serve the Church as Representative of Bible Training Institute. To God be the glory!

Respectfully submitted.

Present Financial System

NOTE TO MINISTERS AND TREASURERS: Fill in all reports accurately and completely. Write or print plainly. If assistance is needed, write to L. F. Kendrick, Box 2970, Cleveland, Tennessee 37311-2970.

TITHES: Members should pay their tithes into the treasury of the local church where they are members. Ministers send the tithes of income from the ministry with their monthly reports to the General Treasurer, and tithes on income outside the ministry are paid into the treasury of the local church where they are members.

The treasurer of the church is to send 10 per cent of tithes received each month with the treasurer's report to the appropriate address.

United States, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands—L. F. Kendrick, Box 2970 Cleveland, Tennessee 37320-2970.

Other reports should be addressed to The Church of God of Prophecy, General Headquarters Field Office in your respective area, or contact your Overseer.

The Assembly recommends that the Executive Committee be authorized to decide the allotments of Pastors, State Overseers and General Workers each year.

The Assembly recommends that the allotment of the General Overseer and that pay for incidental expenses plus any and all personal necessities be left to the discretion of the Executive Committee.

The treasurer of the local church sends 10% of the tithes received each month to the treasurer of his state or nation and 10% to General Treasurer. The pastor's allotment is paid from the balance, not to exceed the amount set by the Executive Committee; any remainder goes into the surplus tithes.

The sum of $800 received each month by the General Appointees and the State Overseers is designated for rent and utilities. Should the rent and utilities be under the above amount, the remaining amount would be included as income. Where feasible, this is also applicable to pastors and full-time evangelists. (Note: This is for income tax purposes only, and involves no extra allotment.)

Surplus tithes accruing in any local church are to be left in the tithe fund account of the local church treasury until after the last Sunday in June, at which time it is properly divided: 10% to be sent to the General Treasurer to be used at the discretion of the Executive Committee; 25% to be sent to the state or national treasurer to be used at the discretion of the State or National Overseer and Finance and Appropriations Committee and the 65% left in the local church should be presented by the local finance committee as a proposed budget plan for approval by the local church conference. First consideration should be given to the pastor's expense in the ministry; said expenses being already defined in the Business Guide.

The Assembly recommends that all local church treasurers mail their reports to the state or national treasurer no later than the 5th of each month. From the funds received, the State or National Overseer would receive his allotment and expense (if funds are available) according to the rulings of the General Assembly.

The Executive Committee agrees that all General Appointees receive an allotment of $1,885.00 monthly, if funds are available; and that incidental expense incurred by these General Appointees be left to the discretion of the Executive Committee.

Overseers in the United States are to receive no more than $1,885.00 monthly, plus an amount not to exceed $200 a month for office expenses from the tithes received from the churches, if funds are available. Any funds in excess of this amount received by the treasurer are to be kept in the state treasury to be placed in the general state fund for the state work, especially to assist pastors of weaker churches.

The Executive Committee agrees that the pastor receive an amount not to exceed $1,885.00 monthly from the tithes of the local church after General Headquarters and the State Overseer have received their portions, if funds are available. This does not include offerings and poundings received by the pastor.

Allotments for Overseers outside the United States where there are not sufficient tithes to cover the allotments, the remaining portion is to be supplied by making transfers of Tithe Funds between countries where this is legally permissible and from the United States Tithe Fund in other cases, if funds are available, and that each Overseer should receive an allotment in the currency of the country or the territory he represents according to the average prevailing wage rates of each country.

The Assembly has ruled that tithes are for the support of the ministry only. Surplus tithes received at General Headquarters are disbursed at the discretion of the Executive Committee. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all tithes sent to General Headquarters. The tithes of non-members that are paid into the local church treasury are to be paid through the regular channel the same as the tithes of members.

Ministry is defined as the office, duties, or functions of a minister; the building in which the business of the ministry is transacted; thus, the ministry includes any and all phases of the Church ministry, such as church property, equipment, maintenance, etc.

HERITAGE CARE FUND: [Mission Homes for Children] All Heritage Care Fund offerings remain in the local church treasury, 90% of such to be turned in at the state/national convention. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 20% to be retained by the state/national treasury for improving, building and maintaining the headquarters; the remaining balance to be subsequently divided: 10% to the general treasury, 10% to the state/national treasury, 10% to Ministerial Aid, 35% to Tomlinson College and 35% to Mission Homes for Children.

The General Treasurer sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state/nation to the respective state/national treasurer for the general state/national fund. The Assembly has recommended that 10% of the Assembly offerings of the Heritage Care Fund be retained by General Headquarters for General Properties, 40% for Tomlinson College and 40% for Mission Homes for Children.

EMERGENCY FUND: All ministers and members are to pay one dollar a year, or the amount set by the World Mission Committee where applicable, into the treasury of the local churches where their memberships are, and the treasurer sends the emergency dollars as collected with his monthly report. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all emergency money sent to General Headquarters.

GENERAL PROPERTIES FUND: The Assembly recommends these portions be designated as General Properties Fund:

1. Not less than 50% of the CPMA membership each year after 10% is deducted for Ministerial Aid;
2. 10% of the state and national convention offerings;
3. 10% of the Assembly offerings of Heritage Care Fund and Bible Training Institute.

The Assembly recommends that if there should be any deficit occurring in the General Properties Fund in making the monthly payments, such deficit be paid from the General Fund.

MISSION MONEY: The second Sunday mission offering and mission money raised by other means remain in the local church treasury, 90% of such to be turned in at the state and national convention. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: for the improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state convention mission offering is to remain in the state treasury. The General Treasurer receives 10% of the balance and the state treasurer keeps 10%, or an equal amount. Half of the remainder is left in the state for the general state fund, and half sent to the General Treasurer as world mission money.

The General Treasurer receives all mission money collected in the March and October drives for world missions. It is to be sent with the local treasurer's monthly report. All mission offerings at the Assembly are turned in to the General Treasurer as world mission money. The General Treasurer sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of the mission money sent to the General Treasurer.

FIRST SUNDAY OFFERING: Each local church receives an offering for the pastor on the first Sunday of each month.

DISTRICT OVERSEERS SUPPORT: The Assembly recommends that a love offering be received for the district overseer in his district convention. If the district overseer is requested by the State Overseer to perform a duty involving considerable expense, the State Overseer will be responsible for such expense.

FOURTH SUNDAY OFFERING: The local church treasurer sends the full amount of the Fourth Sunday offering to the State/National Treasurer to be designated and used as Overseer's expense. If there are not sufficient fourth Sunday offerings to cover his expense as Overseer, the excess tithes in the state/national treasury may be used to supplement the fourth Sunday offerings. DO NOT send any of the fourth Sunday offerings to the General Treasurer. Each local church should receive poundings for the Overseer once or twice a year.

VICTORY LEADERS BAND OFFERING: 90% of all money raised for the Free Literature Fund by the Victory Leaders is given in at the state or national convention. Money for the expense of the band should be received in a special offering. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: for the improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state or national convention free literature offering is left in the state treasury. The General Treasurer receives 10% of the balance and the state treasurer retains 20% for the general state fund. The balance is sent to the White Wing Publishing House. The Assembly Free Literature Offering is given to the World Language Department. The White Wing Publishing House sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all free literature and world literature outreach monies received by the White Wing Publishing House, and the balance is disbursed by the Church Publishing Committee.

ASSEMBLY EXPENSE: To assist in the expense of the annual assemblies, the State Overseers are asked to collect funds each year and send to the General Treasurer.

a. Churches having less than 50 in Sunday School are to contribute annually $2.00 to Assembly expense; churches with Sunday School attendance between 50 and 100 are to contribute $3.00 annually; churches averaging 100 to 150 in Sunday School are to contribute $5.00 annually; churches with Sunday School attendance of 150 and over are to contribute $7.00 annually.

b. Each Victory Leaders Band is to contribute $2.00 annually; each Women's Missionary Band is to contribute $2.00 annually, and each minister, including deacons and lay ministers, is to contribute $1.00 annually.

c. The Assembly recommends that the pastors be responsible for collecting the Assembly Expense Dollars for the auxiliaries and forward to the State Overseer, and the State Overseer be responsible to collect the dollars from the ministers in his state. These funds are to be mailed to the General Treasurer as collected. The final report of the Assembly expense should be given by the Overseer with the state convention report to the General Treasurer, and the State Secretaries be responsible to the State Overseer to boost and assist in collecting these funds.

CHURCH OF PROPHECY MARKER ASSOCIATION: To be a member of the Church of Prophecy Marker Association, one pays $5.00 a year, any time during the year. In other nations, to become a member one must pay an amount set by the Overseer and CPMA Committee.

CPMA offerings remain in the local church treasury, 90% of which are turned in at the state convention. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 20% of the CPMA state convention offering remains in the state treasury for improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters; 10% of the balance is sent to the General Treasurer, and an equal amount is sent to the state treasurer for the state work, and an equal amount is sent to the General Treasurer for the Ministerial Aid Fund. Of the amount presently remaining in the state treasury, 50% is to be sent to the General Treasurer. Not less than 50% of CPMA membership fees each year, after 10% is deducted for Ministerial Aid, is to go to the General Properties Fund.

BIBLE TRAINING INSTITUTE: The Assembly recommends that the pastors be responsible for conducting classes in the local churches to acquaint our people with the doctrine and practices of the Church. Offerings received in the classes are turned in at the state convention to assist Bible Training Institute in other nations. 10% of state and national convention offerings and Assembly offerings of Bible Training Institute are to be sent to General Headquarters for the General Properties Fund.

World Must Be Evangelized

It will take good organization and systematic methods to accomplish this task.

God's power is demonstrated in proportion to the unity and oneness of His people.

The members of the early Church were all of one accord, steadfast in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and the multitude that believed were of one heart and one soul, and great grace was upon them all and mighty results followed as a consequence of their perfect unity and careful organization.

We must banish from our minds the thoughts of individual or local independence and haphazard spasmodic efforts.

Pull together, pull at once, pull steadily all the time is the road to success.

All members should be ready to center their minds and prayers on the one thing, as a unit, when calls for special prayer are made. Each should feel his or her part of the responsibility, remembering that when one member fails, it hinders the body until the matter pending may fail.

Local Church Officers and Leaders

1. Pastor: It is the duty of the State or National Overseer to supply every church under his jurisdiction with a pastor. Pastors are to be appointed at the state or national convention and vacancies will be filled as they occur. The duties of the pastor expire at midnight the last Sunday in July at the church he is leaving and automatically begin at the same time at the church to which he is moving.

2. Clerk: The local church clerk is to be appointed by the pastor at the same time as the other leaders and officers are appointed during the first two months of his pastoral year. The pastor is to see that a careful record is made by the church clerk of this action. The date of the appointments along with names of each leader should be recorded in the following conference as a matter of good business.

3. Treasurer: The treasurer is appointed in the same manner as the clerk. It is advised that one person serve as both clerk and treasurer when satisfactory to the local church. The treasurer will receive and disburse all funds of the local church including tithes, auxiliary funds and special funds and will maintain an accurate record of all receipts and disbursements.

4. Auxiliary Leaders: Leaders for the five auxiliaries—Sunday School, Womens Missionary Band, Victory Leaders Band, Church of Prophecy Marker Association, Assembly Band Movement—are appointed by the pastor during the first two months of his pastoral year.

Each pastor, with the assistance of the deacons, should divide his members into bands of ten or twelve and appoint a leader for each band. The leader should keep in touch with each member of the band, and if any should move away, communication should be kept up by correspondence. This is for the spiritual benefit of the members. The pastor should keep in close touch with the band leaders.

5. Local Trustees: Trustees to hold title to local church property are selected by the local church in a regular or called business meeting and are authorized to bargain, buy, sell, convey or encumber the local property only when authorized to do so by the local church in a regular or called business meeting, and with the written consent of the General Trustees.

6. Other Officers and Leaders: The Assembly has authorized the pastor to appoint a Church Literature Representative, Public Relations Director, Bible Training Institute Booster and any other leaders during the first two months of his pastoral year.

Business Meetings

Each local church should hold a regular business conference quarterly. It has been the practice to observe the first Monday night in January, April, July, and October for the conference. A meeting may be called any time by the pastor or State Overseer. A short business meeting may be held at the beginning or close of a meeting for worship.

The pastor should act as moderator of all business meetings. If there is no pastor, the State Overseer has authority to act or to appoint a licensed male minister to preside. Where one pastor has the care of several churches, he may arrange the business meetings for his convenience.

Every member should attend every business session if possible. Women are to take no open part in discussing or deciding questions, but should always be there and silently pray that God will give wisdom and direct the men.

Matters should be discussed with love, humility and meekness. No votes should be taken to decide questions. Everything should be done with one accord and questions settled by mutual agreement. If there is division on a matter, hold it over until all can agree. If one should seem obstinate and contrary, do not run the matter over him, but take up his case and investigate the cause of his obstinacy; if he shows a good spirit so that he can be heard, then show him courtesy. If he proves to be wrong, deal with him as the Bible directs. Then, take up the original subject and dispose of it in harmony and love.

If a matter cannot be settled satisfactorily by the local church, they should call for the assistance of the State Overseer. If they are still unable to reach a satisfactory conclusion, it should be referred to the General Overseer.

Suggested Arrangement and Order of Business

The clerk and treasurer should be seated at the front, near the moderator. Leaders who will be submitting reports to the conference, along with lay ministers and deacons, should also be seated near the front.

The conference should be opened with an appropriate Scripture reading and a sincere prayer for divine guidance.

Clerk read minutes of last regular meeting and any called meetings.

Correction of minutes, if any.

Treasurer give report of finances and always give an itemized statement of receipts and disbursements and balance in treasury.

Leader of the WMB give report of the work of the band, including finances, receipts and disbursements.

Victory Leaders Director give report of the work and progress of the band, including finances, receipts, and disbursements.

Pastor give report of the ABM work, amount of money raised monthly, number of strays found and brought back (Luke 15:4-6), and give account of every member of his flock (Hebrews 13:17).

Report of CPMA Leader—number of members and receipts.

The Sunday School Superintendent give report of the work and progress of the school, including finances, receipts and disbursements.

Report of church literature representative.

Unfinished business.

Acceptance of transfers.

New business.

Members to transfer.

Adjournment by prayer.

Advice to Members

As a member, you count one and should attend every regular service as far as possible. Remember no one can fill your place and the service will be that much hindered without your presence.

Show love and fellowship to everyone without partiality. Don't wait for others to greet you but you greet them.

Show special courtesy to strangers who may attend one of your services.

As a rule, take part in the singing.

Be ready for vocal prayer when called on or prompted by the Spirit.

Be ready for testimony when such is in order.

Stand by your pastor or appointed leader and assist him in every way you can.

Always pray silently for the preacher while he delivers the message. Always live a consecrated life at home and abroad so no one can justly think or speak of you as a hypocrite.

Guard your conversation. Be careful what you say about a brother, sister, or anyone else.

Don't be a critic and try to find something in others to criticize.

Examine yourself occasionally and see if you are in the faith.

Don't yield to discouragement or despondency.

Be cheerful and happy and try to make others the same.

Spend as much time as you can in secret prayer. Give yourself all you can to intercessory prayer. Daily prayers and study of God's Word are necessary and very important for the spiritual welfare of each child of God; therefore, everyone is urged to faithfully maintain as far as is possible family worship at home at least once a day.

Your dress should be with moderation, neat and clean, but not for show. Moderation includes paying moderate prices for clothing, wearing dresses of high-enough necklines, low-enough hemlines, sleeves of reasonable length. The wearing of extremely sheer fabrics is unbecoming to a saint and the wearing of shorts in public should never be practiced. You should never wear gold for ornament or decoration. Finger rings, bracelets, earrings, necklaces, locketts and large showy pins—these are also unbecoming to a saint of God. Rouge, lipstick, nail polish and extremely costly perfumes are used to satisfy the pride of life and therefore they should have no place in the lives of those who love God. Please read and study these Scriptures often: 1 Peter 3:3, 4; 1 Timothy 2:9, 10 and 1 John 2:15-17.

You should not permit yourself to be trapped by worldly attractions. The Bible says, "Neither give place to the devil." Dabbling with worldly amusements like professional ball-games, horseraces, stockcar races, wrestling arenas, skating rinks, motion picture houses or drive-in theaters, bowling alleys and going swimming where men and women both use the same bathing area would give the devil a foothold or place in your life.

Always tithe your income and put it in the church treasury. Make freewill offerings other than your tithes.

Younger members should not keep company or associate too intimately with worldly outsiders.

Because of the ever-increasing number of broken homes, separations, divorces and remarriages, the greatest care should be taken with much prayer and consideration regarding proposed matrimony.

A member who may have a living companion should not marry another under any circumstances, even if divorced. Neither should a member marry anyone who has a living companion although such a person may be divorced.

Children are a heritage from the Lord. Those who have children are responsible to teach them at an early age to reverence the house of God. This should be done by setting a good example before them and by instructing them with such a good spirit that they will have a strong desire to serve the Lord. MINISTERS are to meet all of the requirements in being examples to the members by keeping their children under reasonable control at all times and by restraining them from running about over the house of God, especially while the services are in progress.

The White Wing Messenger is a very important part of the Church of God. It should be read regularly by every member and your interest in advertising the Church should be so great that when you have finished reading your copy, you would pass it along to someone else. Every member who possibly can should subscribe, and each minister is asked to be a "paid-up" subscriber and an earnest worker for our church paper—The White Wing Messenger.

These are the last days and perilous times have come and it will require much watchfulness and humble prayer for you to so live and act that you will never bring reproach on the worthy name of Christ and His Church that you so much love.

Never form too close an intimacy with the opposite sex even if they are brothers and sisters in the Lord. Give no place to the Adversary. Abstain from the very appearance of evil.

These kindly instructions and advices are given by those who are watching for your soul as they must give an account (Hebrews 13:17), and it is hoped they will be received with the same meek, gentle spirit in which they are given.

Resolution

The Advice to Members has its foundations in the New Testament. There the guidelines for proper Christian conduct in every situation are clearly given. All matters of personal Christian ethics are to be governed by the following principles: (1) In everything we are to "walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called" (Ephesians 4:1), not permitting any conduct in ourselves which would bring reproach on the name of Jesus. (2) We are to "abstain from all appearance of evil" (1 Thessalonians 5:22; Romans 12:9; 1 Timothy 5:14; 1 Peter 3:11). (3) In word or deed, "neither give place to the devil" (Ephesians 4:27). (4) "Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God" (1 Corinthians 10:31). (5) In matters of conscience, we are to avoid offending others who might stumble over our conduct (Matthew 18:7; Mark 9:42; Romans 14:21; 1 Corinthians 8:13; 10:32; 2 Corinthians 6:3). (6) We must ourselves keep a clean conscience before God, and not violate our own convictions regarding any matter (Romans 13:5; 14:22, 23; 1 Corinthians 8:7). (7) We must not judge one another in nonessential matters of personal conviction (Romans 14:1-5, 19). (8) We must maintain a moderate lifestyle which will reflect the inner character of a meek and quiet spirit

(Romans 12:1, 2; 1 Corinthians 9:25; Galatians 5:22, 23; 1 Timothy 2:9, 10; 1 Peter 3:3, 4; 1 John 2:15, 16). (9) By our conduct we must adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things (Titus 2:1-10). (10) We must continue to perfect holiness in the fear of God by cleansing ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit (2 Corinthians 7:1).

Duties of State and National Overseers

Each overseer is to have the oversight of his state, nation or territory, and together with the General Overseer, will form the presbytery in his respective area. In addition to his general responsibility for the work under his jurisdiction, he will be responsible for specific duties:

To conduct or order a general evangelistic campaign during the year. If there are only a few churches in the state or area assigned him, he will serve primarily as an evangelist, evangelizing in new fields and endeavoring to establish new churches. If his area has a large number of churches and ministers, he will be responsible to organize and direct the evangelistic efforts of his workers in new fields.

To see that every church is supplied with a pastor.

To divide his state or territory into districts and place over each district an overseer. This is not a rule, but it is considered best when there are sufficient churches to make it practical. He should conduct district meetings at intervals during the year where special instructions concerning the work can be given.

To hold one general convention each year in the area most convenient for members from all the churches to attend.

To secure the name and address of every bishop, deacon, and evangelist under his jurisdiction and keep a record of these so he can report to the General Overseer, if necessary. He will also issue lay ministers' certificates and teachers' licenses and keep the necessary records concerning them.

Keep an accurate record of the location of every church and the number of members in his territory, keeping a record of the increase so this information can be reported each year. This can be done by keeping in touch with the clerks of the churches. Every minister and clerk should take an interest in imparting this information to the overseer. All new organizations should be reported to the overseer.

To visit every district and church, if possible, and look after the interests in every way, as a pastor over a large circuit.

Duties of District Overseer

The district overseers are to be appointed by the State Overseer:

To moderate business conferences for women preachers who may be acting as pastors and for male pastors who are not licensed.

To do evangelistic work in his district. If he has a district with no churches, it is his duty to evangelize and organize churches.

To conduct district conventions according to the instructions of the State Overseer.

To assist the State Overseer, when called upon, in all things relating to church work, and he is subject to the State Overseer.
