Prefatory Notes

During the 81st Assembly it would have been appropriate to have sung again and again, "Surely, the presence of the Lord is in this place." There was no mistaking among the 18,909 persons who assembled for this glorious feast that we were receiving a divine visitation. God's presence was powerful!

Hearts were gripped by a Heavenly power which made us know we were truly hearing from the Almighty God. How can those present ever be the same again? Ministers shared from their hearts the burden that had been especially given them for this occasion. We were led in heavenly worship time after time by those who sang for the glory of God. In addition to this, there were continual outbursts of spontaneous worship. O it was wonderful!

In addition to those who came from all fifty states in the United States, delegates were present from sixty-eight other nations. The spirit of oneness which we all felt could result only from the work of the Holy Ghost who made His presence felt again and again.

Pre-Assembly events included an appreciation breakfast hosted by the Cleveland/Bradley County Chamber of Commerce, the Tomlinson College Scholarship Banquet, the annual luncheon hosted by the General Overseer and his wife and the Annual Presbytery Meeting. The time frame of Monday through Sunday was a little different, but this seemed to meet widespread approval.

We appreciate the good coverage provided by the news media, as well as the hospitality of the officials and citizens of Cleveland and Bradley County. Without this hospitality by the local citizens who open their homes for lodging there would be no way to accommodate the vast number of out-of-town delegates.

Something new for this Assembly was the live television coverage that was provided by satellite transmission. People gathered in many places to view the Assembly through this means.

Much labor and planning went into this event, and all who cooperated and worked are to be commended. Every department of the Church was ably promoted during the sessions. To God be the glory for all that was accomplished, because it is for His glory that the Assemblies are conducted.

The 82nd Annual General Assembly will be held, God willing, September 7-13, 1987.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 1

AFTERNOON

1:15 Organ music by Alvin Moss. Two songs led by Phil Barker; Diane Hamm, pianist; Londa Richardson, organist. Romans 13:1-8 read by Cornelius Butler. Each stated their requests; concert prayer.

1:41 Opening of 81st General Assembly by General Overseer. It is wonderful that we can worship the Lord and do business for God and His Church. The Scripture says that Jesus organized the first church; He called unto Him whom He would and He ordained the twelve on Mt. Hittin (cf. Mark 3:13,14). We don't know all about what happened but we go by the Word. Jesus didn't stay here; He went back to the Father and He sent the Comforter. The Church existed for many years and had the Nicene Council and it went into the Dark Ages, but the Lord said that the Church would never cease. We are making history by being in the 81st General Assembly (cf. Isaiah 60:1). I have been to most of the assemblies. Some of the same blood that was in the First Assembly is running through my veins. I have a great heritage; the Church of God has a great heritage. Read Hebrews 12:12-17. We've come here to seek the Lord and do the Lord's will. I am glad that the Lord has made it possible for you to be here; it is open to every member of the Church. Since others are not here, you and I will go ahead and carry on the services and do the business. We want to please God in everything that we do. I was born in the Church; I have stayed with the Church; the Lord has kept me; I have so much to thank Him for. (The General Overseer prayed.)

1:53 Appointment of Committees:

1:58 Prayer for Committees by William H. Brooks. Pull Altogether sung by Dorothy Creel, Jenna Allen and Roberta Matthews. Janessa Jones Mode sang Into Your Hands.

2:15 This Is Zion Whom No Man Seeketh After (Jeremiah 30:17)—message by E. L. Jones, General Field Secretary. A reading—"This is the High Calling." Scriptures: Jeremiah 1:1-14, 17-19; 2:5, 8, 13, 19, 21, 22, 27b, 30; 3:1, 8, 14, 15, 22, 23; 4:6, 13, 14; 5:13, 14, 31; 6:16; 8:20-22; 12:5-9; 13:23; 17:7; 30:17-22; Hebrews 11:8-10; Isaiah 14:32b; Jeremiah 31:6; 50:4, 5; Zechariah 8:2, 3; John 4:32-34; 15:16; cf. 2 Kings 22:19, 20; Jeremiah 36:24; Isaiah 49:16; cf. Matthew 5:14. (This message was printed in the November 15, 1986 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be obtained on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

3:20 Ministerial Tribute Program, in charge of Roy D. Mixon, Director. Theme: The Lord Is My Rock. Comments by Director.

3:23 Song led by Dennis Shroyer with Terry Womack, pianist, Wilma Gonia, organist. Concert prayer. Psalm 28:1-9 read by Roy D. Mixon. Standing On the Solid Rock sung by Hickory Valley Trio.

3:35 Prayer in concert by these national overseers: Daniel Corbett, H. A. Barclay and Alfred Saucedo.

3:38 The Director recognized Willard Boyles, former Victory Leaders General Secretary; and he read a Salute to the Youth of the Church. (Summary: We salute the youth of this generation because of your courage, strength, dedication and vision of the Church, for the ultimate purpose of subjugating the world to Christ and His Church. We salute you with our prayers, faith and confidence; we feel that this generation will fulfill the Great Commission and finish the task in subjugating the world to Christ and His Church. This is our legacy to you.)

3:42 The Director gave a Salute to the Middle Age and Senior members. (Summary: cf. Job 7:6. There is an age gap but the message is one. Let the youth, the middle age and the senior members tell the story of the wondrous love of Jesus. cf. Titus 2. The Church salutes the middle age because you are leaders of the Church in the 1980's. Senior years are not a time for coasting—a time for climbing. Regenerate your mind and body by continuing to be active.)

3:47 Concert prayer for our senior members.

3:52 Build On The Rock—message by W. A. Howard. Excerpts: Matthew 7:24, 25. There is a reason why we loose people. Jesus lost some; we are not going to keep all. The house did not fall because it was founded upon a rock. When we build a house, the foundation must be laid and tested and pass the test. I like to look at the foundation as the prophets of the Church; ground as the prophets. They were known by their prophecies coming to pass. This is known as the footing of a building. You don't build a house on the footing—pour a foundation upon the footing. A house is built upon a foundation which we call the "Rock."

The Bible says the rock that followed them through the wilderness was Jesus Christ, and this Jesus eventually became a stone in the building. Ephesians 2:19, 22. He says that we are fellow citizens with the saints and of the household of God. There are many people in our country who are not citizens; there are certain benefits they miss. Lot of God's people are not citizens of the household of God. The thing that made us a citizen of the household of God was the covenant that we took when we became a member of the Church. Taking the covenant doesn't make you building material. There is more to it than taking the covenant. There is no other way to get into the Church only by covenant. 1 Corinthians 3:9-15.

Paul was speaking about a Corinthian church, where he had organized a church; when he left, heresy entered; many things were preached using the foundation that Paul laid. Paul is saying that regardless what you preach, fire is going to test what you preach. If any man's work abides, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work be burned, he shall suffer loss—no reward. We need to be careful what material we build upon this rock. Matthew 7:7. The doctrine of the Church of God is not hid; it is out for all to see. There are many doctrines being preached; we need to be careful what we preach in the Church of God. Anything contrary to the Church teachings is false doctrine and considered heresy. If we don't stay in line with the Church and be faithful to the covenant we took, we are going to suffer; our work will be in vain. The Church cannot be built out of envy, strife and heresy; that material won't fit into the building. 2 Corinthians 13:11.

Lot of people are preaching that we will never reach the potential that God has for the Church; there is nobody perfect. That is false doctrine. God didn't place us here as judges; God does that. Paul says to be perfect. That is the gold and silver of this message; it will stand the heat. The hotter the fire, the purer the gold and silver and the harder the stone becomes. Sanctification is a goodly part of this; we don't hear it preached a lot today. Sanctification will keep you. If we are not together on Church doctrine, we can't build. One will build; the other tear down; that is what we have been doing. We can't build the Church of God where there is no peace. Let's be Church of God. Psalm 127:1.

We can't build the Church of God on degrees; it would help us a lot if we get the heat to come to where the degrees are. Then we can do something. Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain. The theme of the Lord's prayer in John 17 is being one. Paul preached on letting there be no divisions among you. There are too many divisions among us. Why can't we preach this is the Church of God of the Bible? Why do we question the doctrine of the Church? This has stood for over two thousand years. We need to band ourselves together and come under one mind, believe; see eye to eye. In one scripture, Paul said that all who are in Israel is not of Israel. Many tried to be Israelites. We hate for people to leave the Church of God, but everyone is not built upon the rock, which is the divine revelation of the Church. "Without a vision, the people perish." We get into the Church by covenant; it takes a revelation to stay with it. Seek God for a revelation of the Church so your life won't be in vain. Jesus was not divided; the Church cannot afford to be divided. We must be unified, a structure that will stand the test.

4:15 I Go to the Rock sung by Hickory Valley Trio.

4:20 Memorial Tribute to our deceased ministers: Proverbs 29:25. It is always fitting for a grateful church to honor the memory of the sacrificial labors of their precious ministers who willingly expended their lives for the glorious truth.

We, which remain and those gone on to be with the Lord, are among the redeemed because Church of God ministers did not count their lives dear unto themselves, but they faithfully preached the saving grace of Christ Jesus. They lived up to the high standards of the Holy Bible, and their lives were marked with a holy ambition, zeal, dedication and determination. They kept climbing in a glorious lifetime of adventure in the Word. They retained a sense of wonder and expectation about life here on earth. In the sunset of their lives, their diminished strength forced them to slow down, but their physical weakness was always overshadowed by a burning fire to continue their God-called ministry.

Their adventurous spirit, like Moses of old, caused them to keep climbing until they reached the top of Mount Nebo. A more breathtaking panorama than that which stirred Moses so deeply because what Moses saw in a distance was temporal and only a weak symbol and shadow of the spiritual inheritance. Moses saw only the land that God had promised Israel. He was not to put his feet in that land because God had something better for Moses than an earthly kingdom. Hebrews 11 tells of the faith of Moses and that the heroes of faith looked for a city which hath foundations whose builder and maker is God. This seems to indicate that cities of the earth do not have any foundations and are subject to crumble.

Moses was faithful and all of his house; although he would not put his feet in the land viewed from Mount Nebo, he kept looking beyond the earthly panorama, his faith clearly focused upon the promises of God and that which could not be seen with earthly eyes, but only viewed in the spirit. He was going safely home to the city in the skies. He put his trust in the Lord and was safe.

So did our brave Christian soldiers whom we honor today. Loved ones left behind may feel somewhat hurt or depressed because the Lord has called the loved one to be with Himself. It is much better to think of their joy, to smile through your tears and say with a strong faith, "Praise the Lord, they are safely home"! Someone said: "O think of the Home over there, By the side of the river of light, Where the saints, all immortal and fair, Are robed in their garments of white." Heaven means H-O-M-E . . . whoso putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe.

O, Lord, we thank you for calling these wonderful men and women into your service and putting your spirit into their lives. You led them and directed their feet into the pathway of righteousness. They loved you, your Word, your Church, their families, their countries and other people. They did what they could. We were fond of them, appreciated them and miss them. Help us, O, Lord, to cast all of our cares upon you and trust unto the end and be safe in you as they are. O, Lord, help us to view the sprawling, spreading panorama of glorious spiritual beauty from Mount Nebo's heights even as they did. We salute them in the name of the Saviour, the soon coming King, the Lord of Glory, Jesus Christ, the Son of God. Amen. (As the names of states were announced where the ministers lived, the Overseer came to platform and was given a flag and stood around platform.)

4:51 Living Waters—message by Michael L. Tomlinson. Zechariah 14:16-19; John 7:1-3. Excerpts: The Feast of the Tabernacle was at the close of the harvest season. Isaiah 12:3. The priest took water out of the pool of Saloam and poured it as an offering to God. The people began to sing Psalm 113; they were anticipating the program that they had enacted since Babylonian captivity, which they re-established after the people marched around the altar seven times and God gave the victory. I picture it much like this week. We remember the great victories that God has granted His Church in the past. This day in Jerusalem was a divine unction. Church of God, we need to hear from heaven. Suddenly Christ's voice cried out: "If a man is thirsty, let him come to me and drink." I believe there are some thirsty men and women in the Church of God; we are longing for a move of God. God sent His only Son to satisfy the longing of the soul of man.

This feast reminded Israel of their experience in the wilderness; that nation knew what it was to be thirsty. God miraculously filled their thirst; what God did for them physically, Jesus Christ came to do for us spiritually. He promised: "Blessed are they who hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled." The degraded woman at Samaria drank of the water that Christ had to give and her thirst was completely satisfied. I don't need to be reminded of how it used to be, but I have to see God move in this day, this generation. I want the power and Spirit to work again and overwhelm our lives until our spiritual appetites are fulfilled. Jesus is the Rock that we build on; if any life is given in the Church of God, it will come through Jesus Christ. We need this power to fill the emptiness within our souls.

It has been told that a bishop of the Roman Church in the Thirteenth Century showed Constantine the treasuries of the Church. He said, "We can no longer say, silver and gold we have none." Constantine looked at the Pope and said, "Yes sir, and we can no longer say, 'Rise and be healed.' " Jeremiah said that the people had committed two evils: forsaken God; hewed out cisterns that hold no water. We have made proclamations; had our church leaders to encourage us to labor for God and repent and gain favor. Some have said that worldliness and greed could be the problems. These are just symptoms of the real problem. We can expect those kind of difficulties in our Church if we forsake the One Who has life to give to us. Jeremiah's heart was broken. He saw a people who were so dependent upon God and suddenly they forsook those living waters that brought them life and began to make their own wells. The cisterns may have looked appealing; they could not hold water and produce life. They could not give us the life that we need in the Church of God. We are living in the land of the thirsty. I want God's favor upon my life regardless of what it costs. This world will not satisfy our souls. The thing that can arrest this uneasiness among us is that Christ be the preeminent figure in the Church of God. He is the only satisfier of our souls.

Jesus Christ came to reveal God to people; He revealed to those gathered at this great festival that He was their only access to God. Many historians say that the people were not allowed to drink water during this time; yet, they poured it upon the altar while they were dying of thirst. Zechariah said there is coming a day if this Jesus is not recognized, a terrible plague is going to come—a plague of draught—where the Holy Ghost doesn't have opportunity to work. He used to move—we better listen to the voice of the Son of God. He said there was a spiritual thirst; their hearts were to be satisfied; they had to come to Him. He is not going to come to us. The Pharisees asked the people to follow their traditions; the Sadducees asked the people to follow their rituals; Jesus invited the thirsty. My soul panteth after the waterbrook; thirsteth for the living God (cf. Psalm 42:1). He is reaching for us in this hour to make Himself known unto all men promising us so much more than can be delivered from the dogmas and practices that many embrace. We need a revival in the Church of God, but will we preach Jesus and Him crucified and lift Him up above everything else in this world? We can only expect to see our altars in our local churches full if Jesus Christ is the preeminent figure.

Living is Christ and knowing that we can go to Him and be filled. Think of the drama in the temple where the crowd had been all week. Jesus slipped in unaware. He slipped in and caught them in a mid-week seminar in the courts of the temple. We have got to have some bread of life and that thirst in our souls be filled. These people were running in the halls of the synagogue, visiting the parking lots, going through their rituals; the Redeemer of mankind was standing in their midst unnoticed, crying unto them (cf. Genesis 28:16). Wouldn't it be terrible for the Church of God—the Body of Christ—to be here and us not recognize Her? Jesus is the only One Who can give the Church the direction that we need. If we are not careful, we can become as those people in Jerusalem, so caught up in our methods and rituals we lose sight of the Master. Christ must be the object of our affection; we must lift Him up and believe that He is able to meet the need of this hour. I made up my mind such as the four men in the Old Testament who were lepers. Syria was warring with Israel; they cut off their food. I believe the devil knows the spiritual life we have to maintain. He has tried his best to cut off the lifeline of our souls. I am seeing some more people sitting around just like me, like those lepers saying, "Why sit we here till we die?" There is some life down there and I am going to get it in this land of thirst. There is One saying, "Come and drink of this water that will satisfy your soul."

Ron Scotton directed music and singing during altar service.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 4

MORNING

7:30 Sunrise prayer service directed by Jimmy Brooks and W. S. Kidd. Organ music by Norma Bryant. Music by Bahama Brass Band; delegates praised the Lord.

8:40 Two songs led by Larry Duncan with Sonny Sample, pianist; Verona Rogers, organist. Romans 12:1-11 read by Lonnie Brodie. Prayer by Roger Popplewell, followed by concert prayer for the requests that were made known.

8:58 Chosen In God Before the Foundation of the World—message by John B. Murphy. Excerpts: Read Ephesians 1:1-9. God gave Paul a divine revelation of the Church of God; one time he tried to destroy the Church. He put to death those who believed; the will of God was for the Church to exist. God had it programmed what He was going to perform in this world.

Lucifer was in heaven; he decided he knew more than God and he would put himself higher than God and control things. There are three in heaven—the Father, the Word and the Holy Ghost. These three are one—they always agree (cf. John 1:3). Lucifer was going to put down Theocratic government. I don't believe there is one thing wrong with God's government; I can't say that about the governors. God doesn't give me the right to criticize His leaders. He will take care of that in His own time; it is not for me to correct those over us in the Lord—not for me to correct our General Overseer nor try to work above God's government. Lucifer took a third of the angels with him when he went (cf. Luke 10:13). Satan fell from heaven as lightening because he worked against God's plan.

God said He would have a people who will be perfect before Him. Without the Spirit of God, we can't know where we are going; without the Holy Ghost, we will not accomplish anything. This Church is going to be led by the Spirit of God. If She was chosen in God before God made the world, He is going to see that She makes it. There have been ups and downs in the Church. God made man; man became corrupt; God said that He would destroy man; He couldn't because God cannot lie. God promised before the world began that there would be salvation in someone to promote this perfection before God in love. The enemy moved in; a lady was created by God and brought to man. She represented the beginning of God's program. They started to make Adam a wife (cf. Genesis 2:20). Adam would not accept just anything as a wife; neither will Jesus Christ. The woman was representing the Church of God's program; the devil got to her. If we are not careful, the devil will get to the Church of God. 1 Corinthians 12:13.

Things became so evil until God was going to destroy the world. There was only one man that He found. God's plan has always been transferred to people God could trust. When God can't trust them, it is God's business to do something about it. God found a man and told him exactly how to build an ark. Skeptics doubted and told Noah how to build the ark. Noah did what God said because he was in the Spirit. His family was not; they grumbled all the time like some of us. After the flood, Noah got drunk. There was no written Word nor open vision of the Word of God; people had to go on their conscience. God searched Him out another man.

I am not trying to preach us under the Law; I believe we are in the Grace dispensation; that this is God's divine Church to be governed by the grace of God. Along came Abraham who was seventy-five years of age; God called him to do a work. When Abraham was ninety-nine years of age, God worked His plan. God will always work His plan. Sarah represented the true lady; Sarah was told she was going to give birth to a baby and she laughed. It had to be because God had promised before the world began that He would have a people who would be without blame before Him in love. God's Church is not going down! She has come through storms; they tried to do away with her and bring in some doctrine that was not according to the Scripture in 1922. There was a man who had the Spirit of the Church on him and he stood up and said, "No, we can't do this." If anybody among us feel like we have to take people in the Church in adultery and other things to win them and let down on the doctrine of God's Word, why don't you join them? If you don't have confidence in the General Overseer, why don't you go where the overseer will agree with you? Brother Tomlinson is a man, but he is under the anointing of the Holy Ghost until God takes him out—just like Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Jacob was God's man. God's people have always been put down. They wanted to destroy Jacob; God protected him. He promised that this seed would go on and on. Jacob married the wrong woman. We had better be careful when we take a vow; you may be marrying the wrong woman. God gave him the right one after he worked another seven years for her. Rachel was like the Church—she was barren. Sarah was too. Comparing the Church with other people, it seems that we may be barren.

The Spirit continued to move on God's people (cf. 1 Kings 18). Elijah got so sick of the doctrine of Balaam and Jezebel that he called all the prophets out on the mountain to see whose God is God. When it was over, the maggi carried them down to the brook and cut them to pieces and fed them to the fish. Jezebel had four hundred prophets eating at her table—whatever Jezebel said is the way it was. The dogs finally ate her. Elisha came along and he was anointed. Elijah threw his mantle over on Elisha because God told him to. His anointing fell on Elisha. Elijah had stood against sin; against Jezebel; against the prophets of Balaam. Balaam's prophets preached that it was all right to commit fornication; to eat things sacrificed unto idols; God said not to do it.

Wouldn't it be good if we were not so smart until we out-smart the Holy Ghost. You will not exist without the Spirit of God leading you. The Church of God is going to have to have the Spirit of God, the Holy Ghost, to lead. If you want to hurt my feelings, throw off on the Church of God. The Church of God don't owe you anything; you owe everything to it. We have got to stand for the doctrine of the Word of God. The government of Balaam cannot move into the Church of God. Disobedience will cause you to be lost. Moses and Aaron were in the Church in the wilderness; Moses was their anointed leader. We have a leader today. God has given us a leader; he is the leader of the Church of God until God takes him out. If any of you want his job, you must be crazy. Moses was under the anointing of God; every time those critics would rise up against him, he would fall on his face and pray. One day Moses was walking through the camp.; the elders were standing in the doorway whining. I have never heard so much whining as I have in the last little while (cf. Numbers 11). They said they were tired of the same stuff; they wanted something to eat. Moses started whining too and joined the crowd. You complain all you want to about the Church of God; I am not going to whine with you. God told Moses to get up that he couldn't do anything on his face whining; to pick out seventy men that he knew to be honest—men that you can trust. I will put your spirit on those men. Two men didn't want anyone to tell them anything. Moses may have made a mistake by selecting Eldad and Medad. Moses was not God; he used the best knowledge he had and put them under appointment. The General Assembly selected the General Overseer, anointed by the Holy Ghost; the Assembly gave the authority to the General Overseer to appoint state overseers; the state overseers the authority to appoint pastors; gave the authority to the pastors to appoint their leaders. All of that came from the Assembly—not from man. The same happened to Moses. God was dealing with Moses and took the spirit of Moses and put on these seventy people; even Eldad and Medad started preaching. Joshua did not have the spirit Moses had. Men came up to Joshua and said that they are preaching in the camp; they won't be obedient; do nothing but run around and complain. Joshua said, "Forbid them." Moses said that I would to God that all of God's people were preachers.

9:50 Perry Gillum presented the Chief Bishop of The Church of God John Looper, who spoke briefly. He extended an invitation to our General Overseer to attend their Assembly.

9:55 Mike Hunsinger sang I Saw the Lord. Isaiah 6:1-5.

Ministerial Aid Committee Report
June 1, 1985 through May 31, 1986

The Ministerial Aid Committee had 12 monthly meetings; approved 48 applications for retirement, 27 for disability, 29 widows, and 2 lay employees. Total number of applications approved this year was 104. We presently have 401 receiving retirement benefits, 242 receiving disability benefits, 180 receiving widow's assistance and 15 lay employees. The total number of persons receiving Ministerial Aid benefits is 838. The Ministerial Aid Committee processed 101 death records and approved death benefits to be paid to family beneficiaries in the amount of $74,000.00. This includes 91 ministers and 10 widows of deceased ministers. We provided 53 Church flags which were presented by the officiating ministers to the deceased minister's family. A Church flag memorial certificate was also sent to the families.

The ministers' Retirement Tax-Sheltered Annunity Plan presently has 366 participants. This includes 77 ministers who administrate their personal tax-sheltered annuities. Deferred Compensation benefits paid by the World Headquarters from individual ministers' tithes to individual ministers' annuities totaled $163,046.05.

The Ministerial Aid Committee is prayerfully concerned regarding the needs of our worthy ministers and widows. We are endeavoring to assist each applicant as funds are available on the basis of faithfulness in the ministry as well as years actively engaged in ministerial service.

A beautiful "In Appreciation" certificate was presented to each recipient of Ministerial Aid for faithful service.

The Group Life Insurance Plan has been administered by the Church Benefit Association and Life Insurance Company of North America. This report shows claims paid by LINA from June 1, 1985 until May 31, 1986. LINA processed 66 policies resulting in $88,500.00 death benefits paid to beneficiaries of Church members. The total of all policies processed was 76, resulting in $98,500.00 death benefits.

Life Insurance Company of North America (LINA) has also activated the Accident Plan of Insurance now available for all members of the Church.

We sincerely appreciate the services of this very fine insurance company and express our gratitude to all departments of the Church who share their funds in support of caring for our senior ministers and their families.

10:12 WORLD MISSION COMMITTEE REPORT
June 1, 1985 through May 30, 1986

With praise and thanks to the Lord our God, we confess Him to be the Head of the Church and Saviour of the body. To Him be glory in the Church, world without end.

We commend our faithful brethren all around the world who willingly and unselfishly serve our Lord. In His Church they labor as overseers, missionaries, pastors, evangelists, mission corpsmen, local workers and other volunteers. Through their efforts, 208 new churches were organized; 19,285 added to the Church. Through the efforts of Regional Overseer Rufus Rogers and his faithful workers, the Church has been organized on the French-speaking island of Martinique. We praise the Lord for the new challenge to evangelize this area and expand into others.

We held one International Leadership Conference in Manila, Philippines, for the Asia, Australia, Pacific Area. Delegates comprised leadership from all levels of the Church who reviewed the work in the region, focusing on the need to promote evangelistic efforts to unreached areas, and to enhance the unity of the Church through continued meaningful contacts and frequent exchanges.

International terrorism, civil wars, social upheavals and natural disasters have continued and have affected the Church in Central America, the Caribbean and Asia; however, the work continues to grow and to prosper, as our brethren are blessed of the Lord. We contributed J$25,000 towards flood disaster relief in Jamaica along with U.S. $10,000 approved by the Executive Committee from the General Emergency Fund.

Despite extremely high inflation and drastic currency devaluations, the countries continue to support the world-wide efforts of the Church, contributing the equivalent of US $345,213.00 to the October and March World Mission Drives.

Through our Heritage Care Fund, we purchased property with several unfinished buildings in Haiti for the development of a mission home at an initial base cost of $150,000 plus legal and registration fees. For our people in Haiti this is indeed a dream come true. Due to the disruption of our Church work in South Korea and the question of clear ownership of our mission home there, this Committee regrettably had to discontinue all support.

We are faced with the ongoing task of reaching the world for Christ, and we must not only rededicate ourselves but re-double our efforts.

10:20 QUESTIONS AND SUBJECTS COMMITTEE REPORT

We are deeply grateful for God's guidance and blessings that have been provided His Church through another year. Recognizing the limitations of our own human resources for the accomplishment of spiritual work, we acknowledge freely our utter dependence upon Almighty God, knowing that each victory won this year must be attributed directly to His power. Thousands have been saved, sanctified, baptized with the Holy Ghost, and now are rejoicing over the spiritual safety they have found in the Church of God.

To Him who is worthy of all praise, with the moderator's permission, we invite this Assembly as a body to stand and join us in lifting our voices in thanksgiving and praise to a merciful and gracious God.

This committee has spent many hours in prayerful deliberation of the questions and subjects we have received. Several letters have been written in response to matters which in our judgment did not require Assembly action, while other subjects are still under consideration. For these we ask sincerely for your continued prayers.

We offer the following sections for your consideration and decision.

Ministering To the Family

It is general knowledge that modern family life is in serious trouble. Marriages are breaking down, families are becomimg fragmented, violent behavior between spouses is becoming more common; many children are growing up in a state of neglect and lack of security, some of them suffering acutely from severe abuse. In view of the clear teaching of scripture regarding family life, it is imperative that the Church be at the forefront in teaching, guiding, and counseling its families in the way of the Lord.

Throughout the years we have devoted a great deal of attention to the divorce and remarriage evil, showing a determination to stand firmly for the biblical principle of one man for one woman for life. No apology is in order for this strong commitment to the indissolubility of a valid marriage, but this stand must be complemented now by sincere and dedicated efforts to strengthen the family unit.

We applaud those who have sought to address this need through family retreats, couples retreats, seminars and personal counseling. The contributions through these endeavors are significant and should be continued. It is obvious that pastors must become more involved in this ministry. It must be remembered that the Church exists for the family, and not the family for the Church. Much printed material is available to the concerned pastor along with audio and video cassette teaching aids, which could be very valuable to share with parents in our local churches. Every avenue that might help with this problem is worth exploring.

Premarital counseling should not be neglected. A preventive approach toward family problems is generally more effective than a corrective one. We must by all means strengthen our efforts to combat the intensified efforts of Satan to destroy homes. Let us not wait just to counter-attack this archenemy; let us seize the initiative in this battle to provide sound Christian homes where families may be secure from his evil intentions. God will surely help us in this battle.

Non-Renewable Licenses

The 80th Assembly approved the following recommendation:

"A minister not holding the license which authorizes the performing of marriages, who is at least twenty-one years of age, and who in the opinion of the state/national overseer is capable of pre-marital counseling and performing marriages, may be given a special permit to do so upon the request of the state/national overseer. Such permit shall expire at the end of the calendar year or it may be recalled by the Presbytery when deemed necessary."

This replaced an earlier recommendation of the 73rd Assembly which dealt not only with the permit for performing marriage ceremonies, but also with the minister's license which is referred to as the permanent license that may be issued to certain ministers who are at least twenty-five years of age. The part of the earlier ruling concerning permanent license is to remain unaffected by the later ruling regarding the special permit.

It is to be understood, also, that the administrative decision to require no further renewals of the regular minister's license did not eliminate the permanent minister's license.

Tithing by Ministers

The question has arisen as to whether a minister should be allowed to retain his license who does not tithe his income. Paul's instructions to Timothy are timely in reference to this question: " . . . be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity" (1 Timothy 4:12). Tithing is a teaching made prominent by the Assembly. Every minister, in being examined for the ministry, stated that he paid tithes faithfully on all his income. When a licensed minister in the Church fails to be an example in this matter of stewardship, it indicates that he has a spiritual problem. It is the Presbytery's responsibility to investigate and, if possible, help the failing minister overcome his problem. If a minister does not respond to such attempts to help him, by repenting and resuming his faithfulness in being "an example of the believers" the Presbytery has no recourse but to see that his ministry is terminated.

In following through with the 1985 Assembly's request for the editing in required updating and revising These Necessary Things, the Church Publishing Committee has submitted a number of items to the Questions and Subjects Committee to be brought before the Assembly. Several of these relate to well-established positions the Church has taken for many years, but which have never received official Assembly endorsement. Some appear in this manual as statements made by the General Overseer in his Annual Addresses or elsewhere.

It is the feeling of the Church Publishing Committee that there should be official statements of the Assembly on these subjects. The remaining sections of our report deal with subjects which relate to an updating of These Necessary Things.

General Assembly

Explanations concerning the General Assembly and its function appear in various publications of the Church, including These Necessary Things, many of which are statements made by the General Overseer rather than being official statements of the Assembly itself. In order that the existing positions concerning the status, nature, purpose and function of the Assembly be officially endorsed, this Committee respectfully submits the following declarations for adoption.

I. Status

Under the headship of Jesus Christ, as He is revealed in the Scriptures, the General Assembly, under the guidance of the Holy Ghost, is the highest governing body in the Church. This conclusion is based upon the example given in Acts 15:6-31 and 16:4, 5.

II. Nature and Purpose

The General Assembly consists of all members of the Church who respond to the General Overseer's open invitation to gather together at regular intervals for the transaction of pertinent business. Though the female members take no active part in discussing or deciding matters of business, their prayer support is vital.

The Assembly provides a means for worship, instruction, fellowship, and for formulating plans for expediting the Church's ministry.

In view of our allegiance to the Bible as the Word of God, the New Testament as our rule of faith, practice, government and discipline, it is the purpose of the Assembly to search the Scriptures for additional understanding, and to resolve differences in interpretations which tend to be divisive among the churches. The ideal toward which its efforts are directed is stated by Paul in his letter to the Ephesians: "Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ" (Eph. 4:13).

III. Function

The Assembly is moderated by the General Overseer who appoints committees to consider relevant issues through intensive study and prayer, and to recommend appropriate action to the body in attendance. Decisions are reached, not by the committees, but by the Assembly in session, this being done by unanimous agreement. The objective toward which we strive is that which was attained by the Jerusalem Council: "For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us . . . " (Acts 15:28). The Church of God is theocratic in its governmental form. Theocracy in its simplest definition means "God-rule." Therefore, whatever the Assembly approves should be that which God approves.

At Mt. Sinai, the Israelites learned that they were not to be a self-governed people, as might be practiced in a democracy, but a God-governed people. Inasmuch as God is infinitely wise and all-knowing, a true theocracy is superior to any other form of government that could be implemented.

Paul, in addressing the church at Colosse concerning Jesus, wrote, "And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence" (Col. 1:18). The headship of Jesus Christ over His Church is indisputable as God's order for its government. When He is ruling His Church, it is a theocracy.

Even though the Church might have a universally accepted system of government, in which there is a unanimity of beliefs and practices, with a General Overseer moderating the General Assembly, and all of its procedures harmoniously approved, this in and of itself would not assure that the Church is being governed theocratically. In a true theocracy, all of its decisions, and its manner of operation, must proceed from the mind of Christ which always will be in perfect harmony with the Holy Scriptures. The mind of men is not adequate for governing the Church of God. Theocracy is its only suitable government.

In the 41st Assembly in 1946, the following resolution was accepted: "We . . . recommend that the General Assembly in conference be the determining factor to interpret all Bible doctrine and practices of the Church" (Questions and Subjects Committee Report, page 105, Assembly Minutes). Later, in 1955, the General Overseer in his Annual Address stated, "Neither do we want to make a rule concerning anything that we as Christians should practice without a rule being made." In the same Address he said, " . . . a few people do not seem to want to do anything, however good it may be for the promotion of the work, unless the Assembly has passed on it."

It is to be understood that while the Assembly is the highest governing body in the Church for interpreting the Scriptures, this does not preclude preachers, teachers and writers from freely exercising their ministry which in essence is that of interpreting the Word of God to their audience. Every minister should seek God for divine enlightenment, not depending totally upon the Assembly for his illumination. The function of the Assembly is to resolve differences that may arise among diligent searchers and teachers of truth. Every minister should be willing to submit to the higher authority of the multitude of counselors—the General Assembly.

IV. Procedure

Subjects for consideration surface in different manners. Often the General Overseer in his Annual Address presents subjects to be considered by the Assembly. These are submitted to the appropriate committees to draft resolutions for the consideration and action of the Assembly.

Other questions arise on the field which ultimately are brought to the appropriate committee for study. This may be done by letter or by a personal visit with the particular committee. It is suggested that ministers and members first seek the counsel of those directly over them in the Lord regarding questions or subjects before submitting them for committee consideration. Many times problems can be resolved and answers given by administrative leadership without the involvement of the General Assembly committees.

When the Assembly is in session, those desiring to make submissions for Assembly consideration should appear first before the Counseling Committee which would help them determine the appropriate course to pursue.

On Unanimous Agreement

A fundamental goal of the last-days Church is to be an instrument of God for helping to bring about the unity of His children. A divided family cannot bring the honor to their Heavenly Father which He deserves. With this goal in view, the Church has consistently advocated unanimous agreement in its decision-making bodies. To the church at Corinth Paul wrote, "Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment" (1 Cor. 1:10). His admonition to the Ephesians was "Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace" (Eph. 4:3).

Unanimity does not necessarily mean divine unity, but the scriptural call for being perfectly joined together in the same mind and the same judgment could hardly be realized apart from unanimity. In attempting to know the mind of the Lord concerning an issue, it should not be considered that the majority will always be right. An automatic requirement of submission by the minority to the majority could possibly thwart the will of God. Historically, it has been demonstrated that the majority is oftentimes wrong. While seeking to determine what is right, and what pleases the Lord, fellow Christians need to show due respect for one another. When people are manifesting a gentle and godly spirit, their contributions toward the resolution of an issue should be respected even though their views for the moment might represent those of a minority. However, an obstinate or stubborn spirit is never in order, and if present, must be recognized and dealt with by the moderator.

The seriousness of doing business as the Church of God should be kept in mind always. It is not a frivolous matter to speak on issues which affect God's work and the lives of His people. Those who speak should do so only as instruments of God, and there should be a willingness to defer to a brother who possesses greater insight or who can minister with a grace that has been especially given him by God. Novices should be slow to speak, if at all.

The Church of God and the Kingdom of God

The Church of God and the Kingdom of God, while being interdependent, are not one and the same. The Kingdom of God, basically, is the rule of God in the hearts of His people. It is both inward and outward. It is essentially inward, being a relationship of loving submission to God. Jesus said, "The kingdom of God is within you" (Luke 17:21). Paul wrote, "For the kingdom of God is . . . righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost" (Romans 14:17).

The outward expression of the Kingdom is seen through the changes effected in lives, with these changes further affecting families and other social institutions as they are influenced by the righteous character of godly people. The Church, being itself a visible entity, is an outward expression of the Kingdom of God. Its task is to bring about the rule of God in the hearts of men. It is to bear witness for Christ and His truth, to spread the gospel of the Kingdom in all of its fulness and power.

The Church is to administer all the sacraments, provide care for its members and work for the unity of God's people everywhere. It is comprised of people who, having experienced the Kingdom power that brings righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost, join themselves together in a commitment to total obedience and faithfulness to Jesus Christ. This commitment is solemnized by a membership covenant given by an authorized minister.

There is no tension between the Church and the Kingdom. The Church seeks to enlarge the Kingdom by bringing others to Christ. People may experience the blessings of the Kingdom without being in the Church; at the same time, it is possible to be a member of the Church and not be experiencing the Kingdom's power (cf. 1 Corinthians 5:1, 2; 2 Peter 2:1, 2).

The Kingdom of God is one thing, the Church is another.

The Sabbath

Included in the law that God gave Moses was the commandment, "Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy" (Ex. 20:8). The Sabbath was a sign between God and Israel: "It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested . . . " (Ex. 31:17).

The law was given through Moses to govern the Israelites. Under this covenant God sanctified a particular nation for service, a particular place for worship, particular food as "clean" and particular days as rest. When Jesus came He brought a new order, a better hope for all who accept Him. "For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God" (Heb. 7:19). The idea of designating one day as holy is just as irrelevant under the new covenant as designating one place as holy.

The temporal rest which the Sabbath offered was only a type of the spiritual rest found in Jesus. "There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God. For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his" (Heb. 4:9, 10).

In the early Church there were some Jewish Christians who felt the need to maintain the traditions of Jewish law, and insisted that the Gentile converts should also be circumcised and keep the law of Moses. In the Council of Jerusalem which was convened to consider this matter, Peter asked, "Why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?" (Acts 15:10). James said, "My sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God: But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood" (vv. 19, 20). Thus the new order instituted by Jesus did not require keeping the Sabbath. There is not one reference in the New Testament which requires Christians to observe the Sabbath.

Some regard Sunday, the first day of the week, as the Christian Sabbath. It is true that the early Christians did gather on the first day of the week (cf. Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:2). This day held special significance for them, being the day of Christ's resurrection. Through the centuries, Christians have continued to assemble for worship on the first day of the week, but it is not a Sabbath in the sense of the Old Testament Sabbath.

Christians are not under bondage with respect to the observance of certain days (Rom. 14:5; Gal. 4:10; Col. 2:16). Every day is holy unto the Lord. The Christian principle is to maintain a daily life of holiness, thus honoring Christ, rather than esteeming one day above another. Recognizing the new order under the covenant of grace, they enjoy a glorious rest through Jesus Christ.

We recommend the adoption of this resolution regarding the Sabbath to replace all previous statements made by the Assembly on this subject.

Divorce and Remarriage

In keeping with the General Overseer's explanation of the Church's position against divorce and remarriage in the 80th Assembly, be it resolved that this Assembly reaffirms its position on the indissolubility of a valid marriage. In Matthew 5:32 and 19:9 Jesus was not teaching that unfaithfulness of a marriage partner allows for the putting away of that partner to marry another.

Fornication is a broad term and has various meanings as it is used in the New Testament, but Jesus' use of the word [porneia] in Matthew 5:32 and 19:9, which in other languages has been translated as infidelity, prostitution or other similar terms, referred to a marriage arrangement which never should have existed. Certainly, it would include the unscriptural marriage arrangement of being married to another person's companion, or the incestuous marriages which are forbidden in Leviticus 18:6-18. This "exception clause," as it is commonly called, makes no provision whereby divorce may end a true marriage.

On Cutting the Hair

In the 47th Assembly of 1952 the question, "What about women cutting their hair?" was answered as follows: "We feel it would be good for this Assembly to go on record advising against cutting of the hair." In the same Assembly, another question was asked, "Do we teach that it is wrong to get permanents?" The reply was as follows: "We refer to the answer given by the General Overseer in the Minutes of the Thirty-ninth Assembly, page 127, which reads: 'It seems to me that permanent waves would come under the heading of pride, which the Bible speaks against. The money used for this purpose could be used for the salvation of lost souls.' "

On this subject, the former General Overseer had this to say in the 20th Assembly of 1925: "I don't know that we should take up such matters and bother with them very much. Most of our women wear long hair. I do not think this subject needs to concern us very much as there is but little in the Bible about it. Paul says in regards to long and short hair that 'if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God' (1 Cor. 11:16). Another translation used the word censorious; that is, if any man go to censuring women about the matter he should be informed that the Church has no special custom about hair. We should not be too narrow about such things."

This committee recommends that the answers given in the 47th Assembly of 1952 be rescinded and, in the spirit of the former General Overseer's answer in the 20th Assembly of 1925, that this matter be left to the individual as a matter of Christian conscience.

Bible Study in the Local Church

The 49th Assembly in 1954 approved weekly classes to be conducted in the local churches "to better acquaint our people with the doctrine and business of the Church." In these classes freewill offerings were to be received to assist in conducting Bible Training Institutes in other countries.

There is an ever-present need for Bible study, and those involved in the ministry of teaching God's Word make a significant contribution to the Church. Some churches have found it difficult to schedule regular weekly classes as recommended by the Assembly, and have felt some degree of disloyalty, not being able to have these along with all the other scheduled services.

We therefore recommend this former recommendation be revised to where each pastor may arrange for these classes as they can best be fitted into his church's schedule of services. The need for funds still exists, and each church should see to it that this change does not adversely affect the Bible Training Institute offerings.

Church-wide Revival Campaigns

The 64th Assembly of 1969 adopted the continuance of Church-wide Revival Campaigns through the following recommendation:

"The observations made by the General Overseer in his Annual Address with regard to the Church-wide Revival Campaigns show that they are proving to be a blessing to the Church in many respects. The committee is in full agreement that due to the fact that the General Overseer directed these revivals, and to the manner in which they were conducted, are responsible in a great measure for the good success realized; therefore, we recommend that this Assembly express its feeling of appreciation for what has been accomplished, and place its approval on the continuation of these campaigns, and that they be conducted as before; that is, by the General Overseer through the State Overseers and those of other countries and territories" (Questions and Subjects Committee, p. 134, Assembly Minutes).

In the 65th Assembly of 1970, a Department of Evangelism was created and a Director of Evangelism was appointed. With this appointment the General Overseer removed himself from the direct supervision of such World-wide Revival Campaigns, placing that responsibility for these, along with other phases of evangelism, upon the Director of Evangelism.

We therefore recommend that this ruling of the 64th Assembly be rescinded.

12:03 Assembly Expense Committee Report

We, your Assembly Expense Committee, submit the following report to the 81st General Assembly.

We recommend that churches having less than 50 in Sunday School average contribute $2.00 annually to Assembly Expense; churches with Sunday School attendance between 50 and 100 contribute $3.00 annually; and churches averaging over 100 contribute $5.00 annually.

We recommend that each Victory Leaders Band contribute $2.00 annually; the Womens Missionary Band contribute annually a total of $2.00; and each minister, including deacons and lay ministers give $1.00 annually.

We recommend that pastors be responsible for collecting the Assembly Expense dollars for the auxiliaries and forward same to the respective state or national office, with the overseer to be responsible for collecting the dollars from ministers under his supervision. These funds are to be mailed to the General Treasurer as soon as collected. Funds received toward the end of the year may be included with convention auxiliary reports to the General Treasurer.

The above recommendations are made without changes to previous reports.

Your Committee offers this description of the manner in which Assembly Expense monies are spent: cover costs involved with publication of the Assembly programs, audio expense, lot attendants' salaries, tabernacle maintenance, police salaries, housing, telephone, twice-annual meetings of Assembly-appointed committees, public relations, certain musical expense, plus various incidental expenses involved with the preparation for the operation of the Annual General Assemblies.

12:06 General Properties Committee Report

We, the members of the General Properties Committee, hereby express our thankfulness for the Lord's blessings upon our deliberations and decisions in all the matters we have considered during this Assembly year. It has been our desire to be good stewards of the Church's properties here at its general headquarters.

All the properties that are a part of the headquarters complex, along with the Tomlinson College properties, have been kept in good repair. The Communications Center has been remodeled extensively, with the addition of a second floor. The new addition adds approximately 6500 square feet of floor space. An addition to the Assembly Tabernacle was made also to provide for a nursery on the ground level, to comply with fire department regulations, a room that serves also as a classroom for Bible Training Institute.

In compliance with fire department regulations, also, restrictive barriers were installed to prevent overcrowding in the camper parking area.

We are thankful for the cooperation we have received in all areas of our responsibility, and for the privilege to serve the Lord in this capacity.

12:22 Report of Tomlinson College Board of Trustees
September 1, 1985 through August 31, 1986

The Board of Trustees conducted three meetings: September, 1985; April and May, 1986.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to the General Overseer, members, ministers and friends of the Church world-wide for their support of Tomlinson College. We also commend the College President, faculty and staff for their untiring effort during this past year.

Because of the support of everyone we have experienced a great year and our program of providing the unique combination of scholarship with spiritual emphasis has been rewarding and profitable to the individual student and the Church in general.

This year marks the 20th anniversary of Tomlinson College and is truly a time to look back over our many accomplishments and ahead to the many challenges of the future.

Tomlinson College has risen from a beginning of less than 50 students in 1966 to a fully accredited two-year institution with 226 students in 1986. We continue to look forward to more growth and greater achievements in the years ahead.

The Board acknowledges the contributions of those who have served before us. Our thanks to our former Board of Trustee members and to the more than 2700 former students who have passed through the College and are now serving the Church throughout the world.

The Board wants to recognize and express our appreciation for the many scholarships and endowments that have been given on behalf of individual members, associations, organizations and friends of the Church.

The Board wants to express our deepest appreciation for the many years of service given by Brother Ray C. Wynn as his Board membership term ends this year. His leadership as Chairman this year has been an inspiration to the Board and an example to be followed.

Section I
Heritage Care Fund

The Heritage Care Fund, formerly known as Mission Homes for Children, is a part of our auxiliary work and a part of the Sunday School Department of the Church to raise offerings to meet not only the needs of the Mission Homes, but needs of people around the world as circumstances and conditions arise.

Your Heritage Care Fund assists in these areas:

OUR RETIRED MINISTERS AROUND THE WORLD—A growing number of these are in poorer countries where they have difficulty in getting support while they are in the ministry. For many, the help provided by the Ministerial Aid Fund is all they receive after retirement which provides for their burial. At the end of the year, the department was working in a deficit.

EDUCATION—Heritage Care extends beyond support for our Church college to help the 94 elementary and secondary day schools in Sierra Leone and Haiti. The Church must become more directly involved with educating our growing body of young people in the countries and training them more thoroughly for Christian service. Heritage Care will play an increasing role in this as funds become available.

ORPHANAGE—228 children were clothed, fed and educated in our 3 orphanages in India, Indonesia and Mexico. A children's project is underway in Haiti for which we need your support.

It has been several years since we approved the purchase of land for the establishment of a children's home in Haiti because of the unavailability of suitable land and the high cost. In December, 1985, the World Mission Committee decided on a 3-1/8th acre former hotel site, located 17 miles from Port-au-Prince, with partially completed facilities that could house up to 300 children. This property appraised in US $275,000 was purchased for $150,000. The Mission Department plans to organize a volunteer effort for the finishing of these facilities and skilled tradesmen will be needed.

We highly encourage our Overseers, state secretaries and pastors to boost the Heritage Care Fund as it touches the lives of so many who are in need.

Section II
The Word

This Committee highly endorses the thought from Brother Reyes' message to the 81st Annual Assembly that the Word of God should not become lost in the Church of God. How priviledged we are to have the Bible.

The prophet Amos declares that there will be a famine for the hearing of the Word of the Lord (cf. Amos 6:11). We must have for our safety an individual reserve. Although we have the utmost confidence in the ministry, Timothy admonishes everyone to: "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." (2 Timothy 2:15)

Through nothing less than apathy and possibly a great deal of ignorance, Israel found themselves in a defenseless state. When the truth was revealed, Saul and Jonathan were the only ones in the entire army who had swords (cf. 1 Samuel 13:22). David, when running from Saul, came unto the priest Ahimelech and asked, "Is there not here under thine hand a spear or sword?" He answered, "None save the sword of Goliath and it is wrapped up in a cloth behind the ephod (a priest's garment)" (cf. 1 Samuel 21:1-9).

These two illustrations should serve as a reminder that Paul commands us to, "... take the ... sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God." (Ephesians 6:17) And, to have a sword of our own defense, and not hide behind the priestly garments. The only place we are to hide the Word is in our hearts (cf. Psalm 119:11). When we hide it there, "The entrance of thy words giveth light ..." (Psalm 119:130), then it will become a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path (cf. Psalm 119:105).

Section III

Our hearts are filled with gratitude to our precious members and friends of the Church in behalf of their support toward the auxiliary work and all other phases of the Church.

The Word tells us to have our minds stirred up by the way of remembrance: "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord." (1 Corinthians 15:58)

May our courage, confidence, and inspiration be strengthened in the support of His Divine Institution when we see the work progress as the Lord of the Harvest directs. It is through the support of our faithful members that we have come thus far. The ends of the world are awaiting this Last Day's Message. They must be reached as well as we.

12:33 Ways and Means Committee Report

To the 81st General Assembly of the Church of God of Prophecy, we, your Ways and Means Committee, come before you after many days of intense study, discussion and prayer concerning the vital and delicate needs within the Church. We are aware of and acknowledge several urgent requests for additional revenues.

Sometimes it may appear that this Committee is untouched and perhaps unconcerned about these needs when immediate action is not taken by this Committee, but we assure you that we are extremely concerned about each area of urgency and are continuing to pray for wisdom, guidance and boldness to move in the proper direction as the Lord wills.

We do appreciate your understanding and consideration as we continue to study the Church's financial program, taking our present as well as our future needs into consideration.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We are deeply grateful to Almighty God for His many blessings extended to His Church this year, realizing God is in control and is the true director of His people. Psalm 127:1 reads, "Except the Lord build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain."

We are also grateful for the manner in which our Heavenly Father continues to bless and strengthen our General Overseer and we highly commend our people for their response and their faithfulness to God and His Church.

WHEREAS, RAY P. PAYNE, L. V. JONES, JR., AND WILLIAM H. BROOKS have served the General Assembly so faithfully as members of the Ways and Means Committee, we wish to extend our sincere appreciation for their dedicated contribution while serving on this Committee. We extend to these brethren our continued prayerful support for their ministry.

SECTION 1
TITHING

The Ways and Means Committee desires to express its sincere appreciation to our people for their response and cooperation in support of the successful "Tithing Drive" during the first quarter of this year. As a result of this effort during these three months, General Headquarters had an increase in tithes received in the amount of $36,087.17.

We wish to lend our support to the continuation of the "Annual Tithe Boost" in the months of January, February and March, 1987 and that the White Wing Publishing House again make available promotional material.

This Committee wishes to encourage our people to be faithful in tithing all through the year, because this is the only way to open the windows of Heaven, as recorded in Malachi 3:10, "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of Heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

SECTION 2

The Ways and Means Committee is continuing a study of the Church's financial program, taking our present as well as future needs into consideration. Accordingly we will appreciate your continued prayerful support and understanding as we endeavor to be good stewards of the Lord's money.

All other financial matters not amended or adjusted by this report are to be continued as before and will be listed in the Assembly Minutes under the heading—"Present Financial System," These Necessary Things, and Church Business Guide.

We also acknowledge all letters and requests that have been submitted to this Committee and appreciate the concern of our people everywhere. You are to be commended for your tireless efforts and devotion to the cause of Christ and His Church, remembering 1 Corinthians 15:58, which reads, "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord."

12:40 Music and singing during intermission directed by Rodney Hamright.

1:02 Sunday School Program—directed by Johnny McDaniel (in absence of Caroline Ledbetter, General Secretary—all joined in praying for her). Theme: God's Mandate—Our Challenge. Brother McDaniel led concert prayer.

1:08 Devotional led by Londa Richardson. Psalm 8:1-9; Reggie McDougle sang How Excellent Is Thy Name. Sister Richardson led the congregation in two songs; concert prayer; another congregational song.

1:25 Kids Are Special People—skit directed by David and Patricia Browder. A little boy was going fishing and one from children's church met him and told him that they are taught in children's church that children are special people and invited the boy to go to church on Sunday and go fishing later.

1:30 Children's Ministries—talk by Debbie Wilson. Reading; comments: (she had Sunshine bear—a care bear—with her) Mark 10:14. We need to take time to care and share Jesus with them. We build temples, churches, houses and a name for ourselves; a child is an unseen temple—his soul. I challenge you to help teach children; you will learn so much about God's Word and how we must become as a child to enter into God's kingdom (read a prayer).

1:36 Children's Ministries—Carolyn Erwin. Comments: Psalm 71:17, 18. The cry of my heart is to show God's strength and power to our little ones. Everyone is important—senior citizens, the youth, young marrieds; there is a special ministry among the school age. We are fighting a warfare with our children. Sunday school teachers, children's church directors and gleaner leaders are real warriors to fight for your children. Nothing we do can take the place of home training; it only supplements. Our schools are dominated by secular humanism teaching. Church, we have got to rise up and teach our little ones. Whatever you write on the heart of a child, no water can wash it away. The marks of sand are erased by the tide; inscriptions will crumble; words in a book decay; engraving in stone disappears; God's Word is inscribed on the little child's heart for time and eternity. (All Sunday school teachers, principals and children's church workers stood as the congregation stood and others touched these workers and prayed.)

1:51 Children's Musical by Cleveland, TN area children, directed by Lou Ewashko. Prayer for our Sunday schools to be filled with love. Trio sang: Go, Go, Go.

2:36 State Sunday School Secretaries and children's church workers came forward and prayed for healing of General Secretary Caroline Ledbetter.

2:38 Double-Minded—message by Fred S. Fisher, Sr. Excerpts: James 1:6-8. You must ask without doubt; must be sure of the power and the desire of God to change the wind. James vividly saw a man which literally means he had two souls—two minds; one believes and the other disbelieves. Many of us are in this predicament. We believed the Church of God would have been much larger; there is a battle inside a lot of us. "When is this growth coming that we talk about?" is often asked. I believe before the growth comes there must come a mind change in the Church. The present set up of the Church does not correspond with the Scriptures we preach. We preach the truth; 1,000-member Sunday schools; our average Sunday school is about 36 or 38 members. This is our mind set. South Carolinians' thinking must change; it will have to start with me. I must change the thinking of the state secretaries, the district overseers, pastors and members. Then you will see more churches building educational facilities first and later the auditorium; you will not see departmentalization of the Sunday schools, no chalk board overhead, not a report read, will not turn Sunday morning into a birthday celebration nor a penny march fiasco; it will be dedicated totally to teaching and leading of men and women to salvation with the Word of God.

Single-minded, dedicated leadership has determination and a destination. Leadership who have changed history have these characteristics. Dedicated almost to the point of danger—they have to be stopped. They go at such a pace they have to be reminded to eat and sleep. Their work becomes their food.

Luke 13:33. A dedicated man keeps his mind on what he has given himself totally to. Our General Overseer gives six days a week, many holidays and special occasions you will find him in his office or in the Upper Room praying. He is totally, completely dedicated to this work. Leadership that will lead the Church and bring the mind set that we need will take dedication. A dedicated leader is a determined leader, even when opposition comes and impossible odds against the cause that they have given themselves to. When one will not accomplish their goal one way, they will pursue another. It has been said that it was not slavery that kept them in Egyptian bondage, but it was that they grew to accept slavery. We must not grow to accept 36 and 38 in Sunday school nor small inadequate bad locations as the will of God.

Dedicated, determined leadership has in his mind a destiny. We have rather gloried in smallness, but the Scriptures do not verify this. Leaders dedicated and determined will take them toward their goals. He sees his goal; he has a vision and nothing stops him.

The split-minded leader hallucinates about great things he believes will happen one day. He speaks of all the diseases of the Church; he has within himself how that the world has focused its attention against him. He does not see any way out of our dilema. A single-minded leader, through inspiration of God and dedication of the cause will, through God's help, reach the destiny the Lord has for him. A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways. The single-minded, dedicated man will ask and seek and knock and find what God has in store for him.

What are you looking for? I have dreamed of pastoring a 600-member church with a youth minister, minister of music, an orchestra, a choir, an outreach minister and a staff who will minister to the needs of the community. Not just have Sunday school from ten to eleven o'clock but have it in prisons, fire stations, at a nursing home and with the mentally retarded. I believe that a number dream with me. I say don't lose your dreams, even though you might not see every dream fulfilled. We get excited about the General Assembly, 200,000 people visiting Fields of the Wood, weekly VOS; when we leave here, we are all headed to a local church. This world will not be reached by the General Assembly nor radios and satellites. We must have dedicated, determined leadership on every local level and ministers who know what time it is. We need superintendents, teachers and workers who know what time it is in every area where the Church of God is established. We often look for a secret weapon, some great solution to our needs locally. It was the church at Ephesus that Paul wrote, the Jerusalem Church that he went to visit; the churches at Philippi and Colosse—local churches organized, functioning, operating and meeting the needs where they were. God, help us to get a mind change and our work will change and grow.

4:50 The Universal Church—message by Oswill Williams. Excerpts: Summarized 2 Chronicles 20; v. 20. A universal church—walking by the same rule. I like this business I am in, the Church of God does not close its doors to anyone. Very few things are truly universal. These things are universal: the air that we breathe, the love of God (cf. Jonn 3:16); the blood of Jesus (cf. Hebrews 13:12); this gathering. I don't know what it was like in 1906, in 1926 nor in 1946, but I like what I see in 1986. Ephesians 1:9, 10. "... all things in Christ." That is the universal church. Ideology is the high ideal we set for ourselves. The Church of God, the Body of Christ, don't need ideology because we do not have a problem with being who and what we are. Many organizations have charters; countries have constitutions; companies have policies to get the universal element in their organizations. In God's divine body, there is no problem with the people He has placed in the body as it pleaseth Him.

God does not have a credibility problem. Credibility has more to do with being who we are and what we are doing rather than just merely talking. God is working on His people. A universal church is walking by the same rule. Summarized Philippians 3. The apostle had to do a difficult analysis of his life. He told who he was; how he had persecuted the Church of God; God called him and he realized there was more to Christ than just being called. He knew there was a need to move on; he had attained something through God dealing with him; there was no point in dwelling in that forever. He had to forget those things and pick up the mantle which caused him to press toward the higher calling in Christ Jesus. What we have attained is precious to us—not to tear down. That alone will not help him achieve his final goal. God has a people whose job it is to move on to higher ground. Our duty is not to change the basic rules, but to move on to perfection. We cannot afford to stand still. If something is in the way, it is Satan. The apostle is saying "... Whereunto we have already come." We have already got it; no point in praying about it again. We have an objective, a name; something that we are going for. We say perfection is our goal. I don't know how we are going to be perfected by constant reference back to those issues which have been settled.

The Word is an instrument for measuring and guaging that which we have already reached. This is the rule—not rules (repeated covenant when joining the Church). Walk in the light—walk is suggesting that you are not at the place you must ultimately be. That covenant stands with God. When I walk with someone, I will want to know where we are going; how long it will take and the distance. Ephesians 4:12, 14. I like the Word—ALL. I can choose my own direction; when I walk to the right or to the left, I blunder. I don't know where I am going; keep my eyes on the light and God will take me there.

Walking by the same rule means authority. The Church has more than one direction but it is how God wants it. God has always had a rule. In the Old Testament, He told man how to make it. He told Noah how to build the ark; Moses how to assemble the tabernacle; God gave Solomon the pattern for the temple. You may say that you are still walking—God will measure it against His Word. There are many things that I could carry on because it is not sin. One thing that is sweeping the world today is superficiality and mediocrity. God is saying to the Church of God, don't get lofty but come up higher. There are certain things that do not affect the universality and others do. God's standard rule measures our progress. If God, in the fulness of time, is going to bring us together and we are going to be that spiritual house fitly framed together, we have got to do that by the same rule.

I can't bring what I like from England and say that is good enough for me. There is something special about the Word of God and I can accept all the principles. Let us walk with this (Bible). It is the only way we can measure how much faith we have in God. Peter saw it as a holy nation, a peculiar people, the world would know that they are God's chosen people. When the world sees us as walking by the same rule, that the Church of God truly is not just saying this is the Book we walk by and puts it in its right place and people throughout the world walk in its light—not the light of some teacher nor the doctrine of someone else—but in the light of the Word of God, the world cannot ignore us. Christ was not just a talker; He did it. When He met the sick, the demon possessed, the blind, they knew that He was God. There was no inconsistency in His life (cf. John 3:1, 2; Matthew 16:18).

Build is not merely putting together things to construct. It means that having got them together, you are going to do something with them. Christ said, "Build my Church"—build them into that spiritual house—my Church. There is an essence of minding the same thing. Two cannot walk together unless they agree. Church, let us not invent rules; we need to observe this rule. When it rules in every department of our lives, it rules indeed; men around the world will say truly this must be the Church of God because no man can doeth these things except God be with them.

5:40 Assembly expense offering was received as: Jerry and Gene Smith played piano duet; singing by Harper Hunter; solo by Jerry Smith.

EVENING

6:00 Perry E. Gillum introduced Steve Hare, Pentecostal Faith Catheral, DE, who spoke briefly; read telegram from President Ronald Reagan. He introduced Tennessee Governor Lamar Alexander; Senators James Sasser and Albert Gore, Jr.; Sheriff Robert Lawson, Bradley County; Vinson Synan, Pentecostal Holiness Church, who spoke briefly; Harold Hunter and commended him for the way he represents the Church to the "world of scholars."

6:32 World Mission Program—directed by Adrian L. Varlack, Sr., General Secretary. Theme: Building According to the New Testament Pattern. Greetings and comments (86 nations represented; 44 national overseers present). Prayer for our people in other nations who cannot attend the Assembly and for them as they labor on the field.

6:45 Mission Representative Arthur C. Moss led congregation in singing How Great Thou Art; Ron Scotton, pianist; Alvin S. Moss, organist; Clayton Harris, saxaphone. Mission Representative Bobby R. Snow read 2 Corinthians 10:12-18; Hebrews 8:1-6. Mission Representative E. E. Van Deventer spoke briefly and led congregation in prayer for the Church around the world.

7:06 Introductions of missionaries, corpsmen and others by General Secretary; Mission Representatives made introductions. General Secretary explained Heritage Care Fund: C—Children; A—Aged; R—Relief; E—Education.

7:17 Heritage Care Fund—It's Helping Us—Jean E. Vital-Herne (Haiti): He described the property to be used as a Mission Home for Children. The main building was a former hotel; property will accommodate 100 children who will be trained by church leaders. There will be a primary school for the children of the home and the community. We plan to organize a local church in this city. These facilities will be used for church activities such as youth camps, ministers' meetings and retreats, training sessions for workers and BTI. Purchase of this property has impressed government officials and members of our church are rejoicing because this has been made possible. He expressed gratitude to the Church.

Brother Varlack made an appeal to those who were skilled in construction work and would have any free time to give to working on this project within the next twelve months to let the Mission Department know what you can do and when you would be available to donate time for this worthwhile project.

7:29 The King of Glory—sung by the Varlack Children and Esther Lopez.

7:32 World Mssion Corps Presentation by Mission Representative Raul Torres. This was initiated to give opportunity to those who felt a call into the mission field and as a channel through which lives can be touched with the gospel. In eleven years, many have served under this program, and it has been a blessing. There are those looking for something to do for the Master. I could not think of a greater opportunity than this. As it was in the days of Isaiah, so is it today—the Lord is calling, "Whom shall I send and who will go for us?" Matthew 28:20. Nine families and two individuals are currently active in the program. (He introduced those who were present.) Brother Torres expressed appreciation in behalf of the Youth Mission Board.

7:40 Brother Varlack made an appeal for those interested in serving in this program to notify the Mission Department. We launched the Mission Church of the year award to help boost our local churches in the mission work. This past year, the honor goes to Chatsworth, GA, Don Oliver, Pastor. Their World Mission offering for October, 1985 and March, 1986 was $9,674.40. They also had an increase of membership of nearly 12 percent. (Brother Oliver was presented a plaque.)

7:40 Parade of Nations. Prayer led by Brother Varlack for all nations. Song of Solomon 6:10; 1 Peter 2:9. Music by Bahama Brass Band as a young lady dressed in a bridal gown marched down aisle representing the Church, followed by a flagbearer representing Martinque—a new nation reached this year with the Church message. Flagbearers for nations where we have work marched down aisle to platform. Music was stopped abruptly signifying that our work is not finished. Cries could be heard from a group, "Somebody please bring us the message." Those representing nations marched on platform and laid down their national flags and picked up a Bible and Church Flag—the banner of love. Win the Lost At Any Cost played by band. Let's put down our differences, Church of God and rise to the task of the Great Commission. Psalm 119:105. The Church has not reached 127 nations. We have the Bread of Life, let's share it. John 6:51. Flagbearers held up the Bible as they marched out. Matthew 28:19, 20. Congregation joined the Bahama Band in singing Send the Light.

8:20 Building According to the New Testament Pattern—message and altar call by Adrian L. Varlack, Sr., World Mission Secretary. Scriptures: Hebrews 8:5b; cf. Acts 15:28; cf. Luke 22:24-27; cf. John 13:8, 9; John 13:13; cf. Matthew 10; cf. Acts 3:5-9; 2 Corinthians 4:18; cf. Acts 4:32, 37; Luke 7:22; cf. Luke 1:49-53; cf. Mark 12:37; summarized Luke 7:34-49; Acts 2:1-4; Acts 7:47, 48; cf. 1 Corinthians 6:19; John 17:20-23. (This message was printed in the October 4, 1986 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be obtained on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.) Ron and Debbe Craig directed music and singing during altar service.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 5

MORNING

7:30 Sunrise prayer service, directed by Paul Lane and Ivory J. James. Organ music by Tony Ferguson; music by Bahama Brass Band.

8:47 Two songs led by Bob McDonald with Michael Flippo, pianist and Ron Scotton, organist. Wallace Davis read 1 Corinthians 9:18-27. Prayer by E. L. Parker, followed by concert prayer for requests.

9:08 Two songs by the West Philadelphia Choir, PA.

9:16 A Renewed Vision—message by Sam N. Clements, Brother Tomlinson's pastor; thirteen former pastors sat on platform. Excerpts: Psalm 89:7. (Congregation joined in singing Doxology and a chorus of praise to the Lord; prayer and praises. cf. Exodus 40:34; 2 Chronicles 7:1, 2; Acts 2:2; Revelation 3:20.

The only answer to anarchy and apostasy is a renewed relationship with Jesus; He can walk and talk with us and we have an ear to hear what He is saying. The answer to apathy is revival in the Church. We must have the light of heaven to illuminate every darkened corner; expose every miserable creature of darkness; expose sin and hypocrisy and give us the power to overcome the darkness which threatens our spiritual existence. We manage to get things in reverse like Ahab and Jehoshaphat. We draw up our plans and ask God to bless our plans; we should ask God for the plans. It is time to realize that we can't make it in our strength and cry out with Jehoshaphat, "Neither know we what to do but our eyes are upon you (cf. John 15:5)." We lay plans, build churches, raise money, carry on programs, sing, even try to preach, without Him being near. We can do nothing pleasing nor acceptable in His sight unless the Spirit and the power of the Holy Ghost anoints us and gives us direction. Proverbs 28:19.

Vision means sight and in the widest sense denotes the revelation of God's will made through agents. Where there is no vision, the things seen, the power to see it, there is not real knowledge of God, no voice from heaven, the people cast off restraint; the Hebrew word for perish. Perish means to dissolve, separate, break up or go to pieces. Where there is no Word from heaven, no direct revelation from God to man, the people go to pieces and cast off restraint. When people have no clear vision of God, they are ignorant of His revelation, unacquainted with His will. The fatal affect of the absence of vision or revelation of God's will is confusion, disorder or rebellion. When people are uncontrolled, they fall into excesses; they are destroyed for the lack of knowledge of God's divine will. When there is no immediate direction from God, people follow traditional paths which yield very little progress. They lead us around in a wilderness rut. It is easy to become settled in a religious routine.

In spite of the call of repentance and the unction of the Holy Ghost to reform and go forward, some have found the grazing land east of Jordan quite prosperous and enticing; their roots have grown too deep; there is too much sacrifice to give up to move forward. God is calling us to a forward move; to leave the wilderness roots behind and go to His first promise to the Church. I am afraid the light has gone out in a lot of souls; some have lived in the dark so long until they have adjusted and developed a fear of light. God, deliver us from fear that binds us to our habitual ways and lead us again in the paths of righteousness and give us faith and courage to walk in the light as He is in the light. The Holy Ghost reveals things to us; we are confronted with new challenges; we are offered new insights; we fall back to unchanged opinions. We grow tired of the usual; we are afraid of the unusual. We long for refreshment that the Spirit brings, but we are afraid of the unknown. The greatest obstacle that Jesus encountered in His earthly ministry was the backward drag of a church that had no message for its generation; they had lost their way; they dated their glory in past tense; regarded with suspicion any messenger of hope outside their self-contained ranks. The tragedy is they failed to recognize their Messiah and never knew their day of visitation.

We must not let this happen to us. God help us to lift up our voice like a trumpet. Joel 2:1, 13. This cry was given when God was begging His people to return to Him. We should not be disturbed when the Holy Ghost calls us to repentance; we should rejoice and be glad that God hasn't forgotten about us. Revelation 3:19, 20. He is saying that He wants to come in, to talk and sup with you. Most people think of repentance in terms of sinners repenting and turning from sin. When God calls a church to repentance, this calls for reformation. We do not repent and go back into the same formality; He is saying repent and change directions. Malachi deals almost exclusively with reformation. Malachi 1:2. Israel was accused of despising God's name; they offered polluted sacrifices by failing to give their best. He wants the firstfruit. They were accused of serving for what they could get out of it; refused to serve unless they got what they wanted; in chapter 3, of having a distorted theology; had strayed from the truth. This message may be 2,500 years old; I declare it is contemporary to the Church of God today. We must return and do as the Lord has promised in verse 10: He said, when we return, He is going to bless. This will take place under the administration of the Holy Ghost. God is a God of revival, of wonders, can bring light out of darkness, deliverance out of defeat, blessing out of backslidding; can transform the wilderness into a garden; a desert into an irrigated land. Problems which have defied solutions will be resolved; situations that have resisted change will be transformed; tensions will be eased; pessimism will give way to optimism; fear will give way to confidence in the Lord.

This program is not over. God is speaking to the Church today because He loves us and wants to help us. He has given us direction and wants us to reform. The presence of God is in our midst to help, teach and direct us; to open our hearts and our minds to receive. When He comes, people will fear God; there will be a compelling presence that will send us to our knees; we will worship and bow down before Him. Matthew 28:20; 2 Corinthians 3:17. There is liberty; we are not bound; let us behold the glory of the Lord and be changed. Open the door, the King of glory is coming in. (There were praises to the Lord.)

sang: If It Had Not Been/He's My Comfort. Brother Tomlinson introduced his family.

10:07 GENERAL OVERSEER'S ANNUAL ADDRESS
Before the Eighty-first Annual Assembly of the Church of God

INTRODUCTION

"Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me." (Acts 27:25)

Two hundred and seventy-six men in a battered ship on the Mediterranean Sea were caught in a severe storm that had lasted for many days. Now they were in despair, having lost all hope that they would be saved. Paul was a prisoner on that ship, enroute to Rome, and in the midst of such trouble he stood forth in the midst of them and said:

"Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

"And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

"For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,

"Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Caesar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

"Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me." (vv. 21-25)

To make this public declaration in the midst of such fearful circumstances, one surely would have to be convinced of what he spoke. There was no uncertainty in the mind of this great apostle. His assurance was based upon a divine visitation. An angel had brought him a message from God.

They were not out of the storm, and some even worse trouble was on the way, but Paul's assurance of their ultimate survival was without question in his mind. Yes, the ship was going to run aground and be broken in pieces, but there would be no loss of life. This Paul knew, because he was in touch with God.

Ever since his encounter with Jesus Christ on the road to Damascus he had known he could depend upon God's word. Lying there on the ground that day, trembling and astonished, he had asked, "... Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do." (Acts 9:6) This first lesson was not an easy one for this strong-willed man—someone having to lead him by the hand, and his being without sight for three days, during which time he neither ate nor drank. But he waited on God's promise.

At the time of God's own choosing He sent Ananias to Saul to confirm His promise. It was a hard lesson but an effective one. Saul learned that the voice of God could come to an individual, that a man could indeed hear from Heaven, and that God's promises were dependable.

Later, toward the end of his ministry, we read of his testifying to the Ephesian elders, saying, "And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: Save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself. . . ." (Acts 20:22-24) There was no doubt in Paul's mind that he would be bound at Jerusalem, and so he was. He knew when God had spoken that it could be depended upon.

Paul's life and ministry after he met Jesus was not one of routineness within a religious form. He found a vital relationship with God which provided him a foundation for an unshakeable faith. So, in that storm-tossed ship he knew that he would not perish in the sea, nor would any of the other 275 men.

Such divine certainty is much in need today as we continue our journey upon troubled waters. To have an unfaltering faith, however, it is essential that we possess a communion with God, the same kind of personal relationship with Him that Paul had. What we know we must be assured of by divine revelation. This surely must be the idea conveyed in Christ's statement to Peter: ". . . and upon this rock I will build my church . . . ." (Matthew 16:18)

Peter's very positive declaration, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God," was a bold one, indeed. It was not a trite statement of common usage that he was merely parroting. He was stating a fact that had been revealed to him by God. He did not get it secondhand. The rock upon which Christ's Church is being built does not allow for a second-hand faith. We must know what we know by divine revelation. Only then can we teach and preach with a conviction that is convincing.

This kind of knowledge provides a certainty that cannot be had otherwise. To acquire such revelation demands a relationship with God that is fresh and alive. A form of religion is not enough. God is alive and His Church must be alive in Him. People today are needing divine direction, and they have every right to ask the Church of God, "Is there any word from the Lord?"

This is not a time for stale leadership. Leaders in God's Church must have "ears to hear" what the Spirit is saying to the churches. Paul was a positive leader because he was in touch with God. He knew what it meant to hear from Heaven. To be out of touch with Heaven invites a routineness in our programs that does little to excite people to a zealous pursuit of the Church's work. Indeed, it leads to apathy and carelessness.

Spiritual leaders are needed now who can arouse and motivate people to move forward in preparation for the Lord's return. The inspirational quality for such leadership will be found in those who possess the certainty of divine relation. Too many seem simply to be teaching what they have heard others teach and preaching what they have heard others preach, instead of going to God for their messages. Such teaching and preaching lacks the conviction needed to stir listless people.

It is surely time for the Church to be the Church, for it to function with the power and authority given by her Lord. Jesus Himself declared, ". . . My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me . . . ." (John 7:16) ". . . The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise." (5:19) It was this immediate contact He had with His Father that enabled Him to teach "as one having authority, and not as the scribes." (Matthew 7:29) The scribes lacked this spiritual contact and could teach only that which had been taught them by those who preceded them. They had no divine unction, no fresh anointing.

God is still speaking to us today through Jesus. When through divine revelation we are in tune with His voice, we can proclaim with boldness what he is saying. Then there will be no occasion for timidity or weakness of faith. Rather, it will bring the positive assertion: ". . . for I believe God, that it will be even as it was told me."

DARE TO BE DIFFERENT

"But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself." (Daniel 1:8)

It was a strange land into which Daniel and his friends had been brought. The religion and customs were different from what they had been accustomed to in the land of Judah. Far from home, it might have been more convenient for these young men to have blended in with their new surroundings. Their spiritual convictions, however, would not allow for compromise. Their faith in God gave them boldness to stand up for Him in an alien land. They dared to be different!

Not only was Daniel's courage demonstrated in refusing the king's meat, it was further manifested when the royal decree was issued that no one pray or "ask a petition of any God or man, except of the king" for thirty days (cf. Daniel 6:7). To do so was to be punished by death in a den of lions. "Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime." (v. 10) He was not intimidated by his ungodly surroundings. He dared to be different!

When Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold and commanded that, at the sound of certain musical instruments, all were to fall down and worship the image, there were three young Hebrews who would not bow.

They must have been very conspicuous, standing while the others were kneeling. The threat of a fiery furnace did not frighten them, however. Their faith in God sustained them, and they did not hesitate to stand up for Him while others were bowing. They dared to be different!

Although these young men were in captivity in a strange land, they knew they were still part of God's chosen nation, a peculiar people, having been divinely set apart from the other nations. They accepted and appreciated the fact that they were different.

For God's people to conform to a worldly society is to defeat His purpose for setting them apart. There should not be among righteous people any attempt at worldly conformity. Today, the Church's business is to help others bring their lives into conformity with God's Word, instead of attempting to conform to the worldly patterns which they display. We are to convert, not be converted.

Paul wrote, "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." (Romans 12:2) Worldliness and godliness just are not compatible.

There are two princes on this earth, who have totally different dominions. One is the prince of this world; the other is the Prince of Peace. The prince of this world rules in his kingdom of darkness. The Prince of Peace rules in His kingdom of light and life. The two kingdoms have no communion with each other. All of us at one time dwelt in the kingdom of darkness, but by the amazing grace of God we who accepted Jesus as Savior were miraculously translated into His kingdom of light.

The citizens of these two kingdoms are noticeably different from each other. Their life styles are not the same. Within the kingdom of darkness there is rebellion against God, living for oneself. Within the kingdom of light there is submission to divine authority; therefore, there is peace. It is a high and precious privilege to have escaped the bondage of Satan's kingdom, and to have been accepted as a son of God in a heavenly kingdom. It is an honor to be different from the world, to be identifiable as a child of a Heavenly Father.

One might wonder how citizens of this heavenly kingdom could be attracted by worldliness, why they would be allured by what the world has to offer. When Christians dislike being different, when they begin drifting toward worldly conformity, evidently they are finding the prince of this world more attractive than the Prince of Peace. O what deception! Yet, there are some among us who have drifted so close to that from which they once were delivered that it is kind of hard to distinguish them from the world. I am not referring just to their physical appearance, but also to their life styles which denote an undue attachment to worldly values.

Now we do not seek to be different just for the sake of being different. But as the Church is being transformed into the image of Jesus Christ, we will become more and more different from the world. The effectiveness of our ministry as the Church of God rests in the quality of this difference, a quality that resides in such virtues as purity, love, faith and godliness. These are qualities that the world does not know.

When the Spirit has control of our lives we will manifest the fruit of the Spirit. Where fleshly lusts are being evidenced we may know the Spirit is not in control. The flesh and the Spirit are contrary one to the other. John wrote, "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world, And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever." (1 John 2:15-17)

We are not of this world, even as Jesus was not of this world. He did not have to try to be different; He was different. So it is today with those who are yielding themselves to His lordship. They are different!

Peter wrote, "But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light." (1 Peter 2:9)

To show forth His praises is to show forth or demonstrate His virtues. The virtues of godliness and purity cannot be matched by anything Satan has to offer. They are without equal in his dominion. Being called out of darkness into His marvelous light, we must radiate His light in a darkened world. This will not be done by seeing how much like the world we can become. We must dare to be different!

GOD'S AMAZING GRACE

"The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." (2 Peter 3:9)

We have preached about it, we have sung about it, we have marvelled at it, but we still comprehend so little about God's amazing grace. Fallen man, in rebellion against his Maker, has never deserved the love and the attention he has received from God. We stand justified today, in fellowship with Heaven, through no merits of our own, but by His wonderful grace.

Many times we have failed the Lord, but not one time has He ever failed us. It was in the 79th Assembly in 1984 that a call for repentance by the Church was made. It was a time for confessing that we had drifted from a vital relationship with God. The following January your General Overseer proclaimed 1985 to be a year of repentance for the entire Church of God.

Drifting is something that happens so gradually that it often is not immediately recognizable. When finally it is brought to our attention that we have suffered such a spiritual drift, we might be prone to refuse an objective judgment because of the natural tendency to excuse or justify ourselves from this accusation. While this might have been the case with some of us during these past two years, I believe that most of our people have accepted the fact that there was a need for repentance.

Many have sought the Lord honestly and sincerely, seeking His forgiveness for having failed and fallen short of His will. We do not know the extent to which this has occurred, and we do not see all that has happened and is happening in the hearts of individuals. The effects of this season of repentance are not obvious in every case. There is clear evidence, however, that something good has happened among God's people who have been honest and sincere with Him in this matter.

We have received numerous reports which give witness to the amazing grace of God. We know that He is grieved when His people fail Him, but we should all thank Him for His mercy in calling us to repentance. Then, we should thank Him further when His grace of forgiveness is bestowed, to where souls can enjoy His loving favor.

We received the following testimony from the Overseer of Missouri:

"As a whole and generally, Missouri has taken the matter of repentance as a time of self-examination and commitment to seek God and follow His leading. This decision has been evidenced in a number of specific ways in some of our local churches. The recent very unusual revival of seven weeks duration in the church at Raytown was wholly or in part, at least, the result of openness and honesty with God in both worship and observance of Christian responsibility in every area.

"The more the people yielded to God, the more of God's glory came down and they found themselves in the atmosphere of a self-perpetuating revival whose momentum was sustained as the Spirit had His way. Lives were touched deeply; spiritual stirring resulted in positive change; lifestyles were altered; Christian perspectives were awakened and given release; there were miracles of healing, restoration, and problem solving; new inspiration took hold; and it is our hope and belief that this church will never be the same after this special visitation from God."

The record of this seven-week revival shows 135 salvation experiences. For this we give praise to God, and we thank Him for His amazing grace. There are other churches that have experienced special blessings of unusual nature. Wherever God's call to repentance has been taken seriously and His people have humbled themselves before Him, His amazing grace has been evident in changed lives.

He is not a God who would call people, then ignore their response to His call. The sacrifice of His only begotten Son at Calvary expresses the seriousness of His love and concern for our needs. We cannot understand such love, but we surely thank Him for it. This is why we call His love and grace amazing. It is amazing love! It is amazing grace!

This is not to suggest that His call to repentance has been fully satisfied, that it is something which now may be put behind us while we move on to something else. The posture of a people humbling themselves before God is one that can never be abandoned by His Church if we are to have divine favor. There must be a continuing searching of hearts, an opening of ourselves to divine illumination and conviction. And when we are convicted, with broken spirits for having displeased our dear Lord, we must be ready to fall on our faces before Him, asking for forgiveness. Then we cannot continue in the ways for which we have been convicted. There must be a submission to walk in His way. Repentance, after all, means turning from and quitting what we were doing that was wrong.

O what a gracious God we have—One who is longsuffering, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance! It was Jeremiah who wrote, "It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness." (Lamentations 3:22, 23)

We know that He is a God of judgment and that He does not allow sin to go unpunished, but we rejoice that in His great love He sent Jesus, who was "wounded for our transgressions" and "bruised for our iniquities." When we fail we have an Advocate and in His name we can return to God.

O how He loves us! It was this love for His Church that brought to us a call for repentance. He could have cut us off, but He was merciful. Now, let us continue to prayerfully examine our relationship with Him. We dare not be among those of whom we read in Hebrews 10:29 who have, "done despite unto the Spirit of grace." Rather, let us respect and appreciate the amazing grace of God.

Reflecting upon the song by John Newton we can also say that it is grace that has brought us safe thus far, and grace will lead us home—God's amazing grace!

MANIFESTING THE FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,

"Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law." (Galatians 5:22, 23)

In his letter to the Galatians, Paul contrasted the works of the flesh with the fruit of the Spirit. Both of these may be identified by the sources from which they spring. The flesh is carnal, and it is not to be expected that it can be the source of any works which please God. To the Romans this apostle wrote, "For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing . . . ." (Romans 7:18)

Only that which has its source in God is good. All that originates in Him is good because He is perfect in goodness. Paul wrote, "For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness . . . ." (Ephesians 5:9) If we manifest any virtues which meet His approval, any virtues in which He delights, it will be that which is of divine origin and not of ourselves.

The fruit of the Spirit is exactly that—it is the Spirit's fruit. It may be seen in our lives, but its source is God. Its manifestation in our lives is the indication that we have entered into a divine relationship, that our lives are under the influence of the Holy Ghost. A person in whose life there is an absence of love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness and temperance cannot be identified as a truly spiritual person.

A Spirit-filled person will manifest the fruit of the Spirit. This is true because such a person does not really live his own life. It is rather as stated by the apostle Paul when he said, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me . . . ." (Galatians 2:20)

The life which Christ lives within us will be a life that glorifies God. It will not be a life which displays carnal attitudes. These are not of God, but of the flesh. Adultery, fornication and uncleanness, along with wrath, strife and envyings, are works of the flesh, and when these things show themselves in a person's life it is a sure sign that he is carnal, no matter how spiritual he may claim to be. The love that he professes is not divine love, and the faith he may claim to have is not acceptable for divine worship.

Only that which comes from God is fit for worshipping and serving Him. Actually, we love Him with the love we receive from Him. It is the love which is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost. We believe Him with a faith that He imparts to us. The faith which He honors is described in His Word as the fruit of the Spirit; also, as a gift of the Spirit. It is much more than positive thinking by the human mind. It is the manifestation of the Spirit, working in and through us, but never having its origin in us. Nothing that has its source in us is acceptable for our use in approaching God. "For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing . . . ."

Inasmuch as we are restricted in our own abilities to demonstrate those virtues which bring praise to God, we may understand why we have the scriptural admonition to be "filled with the Spirit." This is the divinely appointed means by which we may " . . . shew forth the praises of him who hath called [us] out of darkness into his marvelous light." (1 Peter 2:9)

This world needs to know the better way which is offered in Jesus Christ. They have within them the hunger of immortal souls. The desire is there for peace, for joy, for love. How will they find it? Those who are filled with the Spirit must manifest peace, joy and love before them. "Let your light so shine before men," Jesus said, "that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." (Matthew 5:16)

He said, "Ye are the light of the world." (v. 14) Now we know we are only vessels and that it is Christ in us who is the true Light, even as we know our "good works" which they will see are not really our works, but that it is Christ working through us. Nevertheless, this is God's plan for bringing light to men who are in the darkness of sin, and we bear a heavy obligation to them to make certain they can see our good works, that His light shines through us. For this to be, the flesh with its works must be crucified, and we must indeed be filled with the Spirit.

The purpose of the Holy Ghost is to reveal Christ, and when He is in control of our lives those spiritual traits that were seen in Jesus, those qualities that astonished those who observed Him, will be reflected in the lives we live. The fruit of the Spirit is identifiable as being the same spiritual traits manifested in Christ's life, "Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not . . . ." (1 Peter 2:23) Can anyone deny that Jesus was longsuffering? Well, Paul included longsuffering as the fruit of the Spirit.

Paul's writing on this subject was not mere theory. His testimony to the Corinthians was, " . . . being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it." (1 Corinthinas 4:12) He knew the blessing of being filled with the Spirit wherein those qualities that Christ demonstrated would be seen in him. Was this not true also with Stephen who could pray for those who were stoning him, "Lord, lay not this sin to their charge" (Acts 7:60)? This corresponds so well with Christ's prayer for those who were crucifying Him, " . . . Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do . . . ." (Luke 23:34)

Is this not the key to the early Church's powerful ministry—the fact that they were filled with the Spirit, that they went forth in the power of the Spirit? Even their enemies could recognize that some power was controlling them, apart from themselves. This enabled them to love with the love of the Lord, to demonstrate a joy that was unspeakable and full of glory.

It was this joy, which was the fruit of the Spirit, that enabled the apostles to rejoice that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for the name of Jesus when they were beaten at the hands of the Jewish council (cf. Acts 5:40, 41)

We are involved today in a spiritual warfare. It is a battle that can be won only by spiritual people. Carnal people can go through all the forms of religious activity, being professors of salvation, but they cannot illuminate darkened lives with the light of Jesus. It takes spiritual people to do spiritual work. A positive identification of true spirituality is the fruit of the Spirit. O may it abound in the Church of the living God!

DIVINE BLESSINGS

"Blessings are upon the head of the just . . . ." (Proverbs 10:6) There is no substitute for divine blessings. We absolutely are not self-sufficient. Each child is born with a nature to become independent. This seems necessary in order for him to develop a trust in himself, to regard himself as being capable of personal achievement and growth. His quest for independence in this regard is wholesome.

This human nature does not leave us, but as one begins a new life in Christ it is essential for him to recognize that in the spiritual life he is not independent, nor will he ever be. The Christian's strength lies not in his own human abilities. The needs that he has cannot be supplied apart from divine blessings. The child of God longs for these blessings which bring an enrichment to his spirit, an enrichment that cannot be derived from any other source. The wise man wrote, "The blessing of the Lord, it maketh rich . . . ." (v. 22)

God inspired the prophet Malachi to write: "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it." (Malachi 3:10)

Many have equated this blessing with material benefits, but surely it is much more than that. Tithing and giving is a form of worship, and as we worship God in this manner, from our hearts, it brings a rich blessing to the human spirit. As we honor the Lord with our substance and sense His approval upon our sincere worship, we feel enriched by the blessing of divine favor.

Many of us have experienced these blessings for a long time, and we would not think of failing to worship in this manner. But we want everyone to know the blessedness of honoring the Lord with their tithes and offerings.

The Assembly last year approved a tithing campaign, to be conducted in January, February and March. Just how extensively this was promoted, we do not know, but we are thankful for all who became tithers during this campaign. The records from all the nations are not available at the time of the preparation of this address, but here in the United States the records indicate an increase during this period, over the same period a year ago, of $930,000. That means almost a million dollars more tithes came into our local churches in this nation alone during January, February and March.

For this we give thanks to God. We pray that all those who began tithing during this campaign have felt it to be such a personal blessing that they will never discontinue its practice. We want to keep on promoting this form of worship until every member of the Church of God will be a faithful tithe-payer. Tithing, which is practiced with the right spirit, surely will bring divine blessings which we cannot afford to be without.

TOMLINSON COLLEGE

On September 20, 1966, Tomlinson College opened with an enrollment of forty students. It was the privilege of the General Overseer to be present in the opening service on the day the first classes were held. Now, twenty years later, we can look back upon its development and thank the Lord for His help and guidance along the way.

As with the beginnings of any institution of this nature there have been struggles which called for evaluations and reappraisals as we have progressed to this point. From the beginning it has been emphasized that Tomlinson College is a Church of God institution and that its purpose is to serve the Church in its ongoing ministry. It was begun as a two-year liberal arts college and as such has gained accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. All who have served as a part of the administration and faculty are to be commended for their dedicated service to make Tomlinson College a school of excellence.

The 2,700 students who have attended Tomlinson College are scattered throughout the world. Many of them are making significant contributions to the upbuilding of the Church, and for this we are thankful. It is still our intent to make the Church's college a place where students can learn in a spiritual environment, where they will receive a quality education that is foundationed in the Holy Scriptures.

Consideration is being given to expanding the college's ministry by adding two years of additional Biblical Studies with the thought of phasing into a four-year Bible program, while retaining a two-year liberal arts program. This, no doubt, could be very beneficial to ministerial students who now are having to turn elsewhere for their Biblical studies if they choose to pursue a college education.

In order to determine the feelings of our people and the degree of support this idea would receive, I am suggesting that the Board of Trustees conduct a survey and submit their findings to the General Overseer's office prior to the 1987 Assembly. This is a matter to be approached prayerfully. We surely want to follow the Lord's will.

OUR CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES

The importance of ministering to children was recorgnized early within the Church, and in the First Assembly in 1906 it was urged that we have Sunday Schools in order to teach children to reverence God's Word, the house appointed for worship, and to elevate the morals of a community. Most of our churches have accepted this recommendation without reservation, and Sunday School has probably been our most consistently operated auxiliary.

Later, some local churches began special training for the children in groups which came to be called Gleaner Bands. In the 43rd Assembly it was recommended that the Gleaner Bands be adopted to function as part of the Victory Leaders Band, ministering to those children under twelve years of age. The training our children have received in the Gleaner Bands has been invaluable.

In the 1960's it was recognized that further attention needed to be given our children and a ministry called Children's Church was begun in several local churches. The 64th Assembly recommended the adoption of this ministry, and hundreds of our churches are now conducting Children's Churches and our children are being blessed through this ministry.

While the Gleaner Band has been promoted by the Victory Leaders Department, the General Sunday School Secretary has been asked to promote and supervise the Children's Church ministry. It is generally recognized that the Gleaner Bands deal with teaching and training the children, while Children's Church involves the children in worship. There is a need for both of these ministries. We need strong, active Gleaner Bands and strong, active Children's Churches, and there is no need for there to be any conflict between the two. In fact, they should complement each other.

It has been felt for some time now that these ministries to our children should be strengthened, that in too many places they are not receiving the attention they deserve. If we fail our children during the time when they are most impressionable, it will be hard to compensate for such failure later on.

Perhaps the time has come for a department devoted entirely to the ministry of children to be established. If so, this department could promote and supervise both Gleaner Bands and Children's Church. By this means promotional ideas for these two ministries could be correlated so that in each local church the activities used in one would complement the aims of the other.

We want our local Gleaner leaders and Children's Church directors to know their work is very important and to feel the strength of the entire Church's support. It is possible that other ministries for our children could be developed through this department, such as Children's Crusades or Backyard Bible Clubs.

Some of the programs within the Church include both children and adults, and it would probably not be feasible to attempt to separate the children from all other departments. For example, Sunday School includes children, as does Vacation Bible School and Youth Camp, but inasmuch as adults also are included in these functions they could remain under their present departmental supervision.

It might be necessary at the present time to appoint someone to direct this new department who will be over another department also, thus filling a dual role. This would not mean, however, that the Department of Children's Ministries would be under, or secondary to, another department. It would be given the same recognition as any other department which might have a full-time director.

I will ask the Questions and Subjects Committee to give this subject their attention during the coming year, and if they feel it worthy of the Assembly's consideration to bring a recommendation before this body.

CONCLUSION

As we glance backward at the work accomplished during the past year, we give praise to God for every soul who was saved, sanctified or baptized with the Holy Ghost. There is no way to estimate the value of one soul. It is surely rewarding to feel that we have been instrumental in some way toward helping another person obtain deliverance from the awfulness of sin.

Of course, we never seem to accomplish all that we desire to get done. There were others we wanted to get saved who still are lost. There were new fields we wanted to enter to plant the Church of God, but we were hindered from doing so. But we must not spend too much time in looking back. The greatest effect that a backward glance at this time can have upon us is to create a determination to do more in the year ahead.

We are preparing to enter a year of new opportunities and new challenges. It is important that we be spiritually prepared to grasp these opportunities and go through the doors God will open. We must never forget the terrible plight of the unsaved or how thankful we should be to be safe within the fold God has prepared for His sheep. This thankfulness can be expressed best by involving ourselves wholeheartedly in an effort to reach others.

As we stand upon the threshold of a new Assembly year we must be possessed by the same spirit which caused Jesus to say, "I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day." It is just a little while until our allotted time for working will be over. Some will receive their summons home before another Assembly. Just think how glorious that will be for those who have been faithful! But until that time we want to be identified with our Master, of whom it was written. "The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up."

This fervent zeal, the fire of the Holy Ghost burning within our bones, will not let us rest until this last days message has gone into all the world. Let us stand now and join together in singing from our hearts our Battle Hymn. It is great to be a soldier in God's great army!

11:35 At the Battle's Front—led by Liston Pritchard with Jenna Allen, pianist; Mary Lois Hamm, organist. Dismissal prayer by Sidney A. Cooley. Music and singing during intermission directed by John and Catherine Payne.

Brother Wynn introduced: R. O. Covey and presented him with a copy of the Sermon On the Mount, which was prepared by him, as well as the Know Your Bible Series; Dean Chatham a copy of a supplement to the Body of Christ course—much of the material was prepared by her.

1:30 Two songs by Ron Scotton with Michael Flippo, pianist; two songs by the Kings Messengers. Congregation stood and praised the Lord.

1:50 BTI in Nicaragua—Ernesto Castro, vice president. Comments: This has been one of the greatest advancements to the work in Nicaragua. In 1984 was our first BTI and we had problems of renting proper facilities because of the political situation; most people do not want to rent for that cause. We rented some shacks; before closing, owners asked for the place and we had to get another facility to conclude our school. In 1985 we had the BTI in our homemade facilities. This year, we had it in our national facility where we have our tabernacle. We do not have proper facilities to accommodate such a school. Some shacks were built out of bamboo sticks; some slept on boards; others slept in the open air. Our greatest problem was food. The government allowed us only eleven ounces of rice a student for two weeks. Prior to the school, we instructed those who would be attending to set aside rice, beans, sugar and other items they could bring to the school. This year we had sufficient food; the government did not permit a teacher to come in and help us; it had to be done with national teachers. This coming year we are going to have an extension school—one will be in the jungle where contras of the war is taking place. We have faith that the Lord will continue to help us. Pray for us that some day we can have proper facilities to conduct our BTI. Regardless of circumstances, our whole heart is to give to Christ and His Church. (Congregation stood and prayed for Nicaragua.)

2:10 I Attended the All New Advanced Studies Course—Aaron Waggett. Comments: These studies were a help to me. We realize that these are critical times in the world and in the Church. We need God's help and I feel that God has given these studies to aid the Church in her hour of need. The Church is being bombarded with questions from within. I feel this is God's way of giving us answers from His Word. 2 Timothy 2:15. The Holy Ghost and Word sprang anew in my life; it gave me reassurance. This would help bring the ministry together; we need to come together and I feel it is an answer to our needs. I am convinced more than ever that the ship of Zion is still seaworthy; she will take every storm and make it. I found out that the ship of Zion is still on course and headed for glory. The Captain is still holding on to the tiller; man hasn't taken over. The ship of Zion still has provender for its passengers; you don't have to get off and go to McDonalds. God has it aboard the old ship of Zion. Stay on it and take this course; God will bless you.

2:15 Song by Esther Lopez, assisted by Ron Scotton and Peggy Burton.

2:22 Walking In The Light—message by Jose M. Rivera, BTI Representative. Scriptures: 1 John 1:5; Isaiah 5:20, 21; (concert prayer) Genesis 1:1-3; John 1:9, 10; (repeated the Church covenant) cf. 1 Timothy 3:15; cf. John 5:39; Exodus 24:7; Romans 11:21, 22; Hebrews 3:6, 12, 16; 4:1a; Ephesians 6:11-13; Hebrews 4:12; Matthew 13:28-31; John 9:4; Psalm 36:9;

Ephesians 5:8. (This message was printed in the November 29, 1986 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be obtained on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

2:57 Concert prayer for BTI throughout the world, led by General Overseer.

3:00 Assembly Band Movement Program directed by J. E. Brisson, General Secretary. Theme: Bind Us Together. Bind Us Together and I Love You With the Love of the Lord led by Larry Duncan with Kim Lynch, pianist and Ron Craig, organist.

3:10 ABM leaders prayed for the unity of the Church and the backslidders, followed by band leaders' rally. Each band leader was given a sign with the ABM logo on it. All over the tabernacle the band leaders lifted their signs signifying members offering shepherding care one to another.

3:18 Winning Our Families—testimony by Roy Suggs: My father was a minister for many years and there was not all types of counseling and close continuity with the family because my father was so concerned about everybody else's family; he didn't have time to share with us. He lost six of his children for awhile. Two of us are saved today. I have learned that we must stand upon God, study His Word, pray and talk to God. Several years ago I was serving in the military and the Lord gave my wife and I a daughter. I became saved and a deacon in the Church; my first member to receive in the Church was her. She got mixed up with others in high school. We moved from Maryland to Michigan. She had only been there a few weeks when the teacher took her and other girls and they were sharing drugs and all kind of things. She graduated from high school, and I spoke at her graduating exercise. The next Sunday, I went to youth camp; the next day, my wife called stating I had to go home that our daughter had run away. I went home and to the police department; I thought the law enforcement would help; it turned me to God; we began to pray. I went to state convention; my wife called and said that Teresa had come home. After a few days, she left again and was in and out. As a pastor, I went before my local congregation and said to them, "I'm going to offer my resignation . . . I haven't been able to keep my family together; I cannot instruct you to keep your family together." They prayed for me and refused to accept my resignation. My daughter became pregnant. Soon I received an invitation to go to her wedding and give her away; the man had been married before with two children. I told her that I loved her dearly, but I couldn't attend the wedding; after the wedding is over, I will visit you; I did. The child was born; I thought my grandson was contaminated and I wouldn't touch him. I began to pray; the child was a product of sin; he did not commit the sin. I took him in my arms and loved him. I was a bishop in the Church and my own home was falling apart. Wife and I were praying; she nearly had a nervous breakdown. I talked to my son-in-law on many occasions; the first time I talked with him about my daughter, he said, "I'll kill her before I will give her up." I kept praying and talking to God. Two years ago, my daughter called wanting to come home. She didn't have any money. I told her I would get her an airplane ticket. We were in a revival at church; the next night she went to church and God saved and sanctified her. My two grandchildren are saved. God answers prayer. I laid myself on the altar and asked God to take me but to spare my daughter until she was saved. She has come a long way, and I believe I will see her become a member of the Church of God. We have to keep our families before the church; request prayer for them—not just a general prayer; request God to touch your family. We have a way of talking about everything and praying for everything but our immediate family. We have a system in the Church to help take care of them. If we don't spend as much time trying to save people who are backslidden, as we do trying to get them in the Church originally, God is going to hold us accountable for them. Galatians 6:1. My daughter said that not one from that church had talked to her. That is a sad commentary; some of the history of our church over the years. I feel like the tide is changing and we are turning the corners. I want our hearts touched where we can rescue our families and those who are dying without God.

3:34 Winning The Lost—sermonette by Earlean Emerson: It is by the grace of God that I am what I am. Tony Ledbetter's mother called me many times for prayer for Tony to be saved. His mother shared her concern with another lady. The two agreed to set their clocks at twelve o'clock midnight and they got up and prayed. It wasn't long until Tony was saved, sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost; now he is one of our young pastors in Alabama.

Danny Pierce on the second Sunday of January asked all members and those attending that week to make a list of all the unsaved people in their community in Green Hill, SC. They listed more than one hundred thirty names; they were to tell each that their names were on the list and they were praying for them. Brother Pierce appointed a squad prayer committee of five whose only job in the church was to pray. They prayed over the list daily. The Lord saved 8 in a short time; 2 not on the list prayed through in the local church; 13 new people started attending the church.

In our last revival, we made a prayer list. One girl had been backslidden five years who got saved, sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost. It didn't matter what she had been into; God loves them and you and I should love them. Love of the Lord is necessary for us to be soul winners for Jesus. So many ministers who have lost out with God. Satan has attacked the ministry and their families, as well as the membership. I went to a revival where there was a young girl who had done everything. The local church had done everything they knew to do. I asked permission to visit with her. I told her I loved her, God loves her and the Church loves her and shared Scriptures with her. The Word of God is more powerful and sharper than any two-edged sword if it is used in love. She wept and got saved. If we will do our part, God will do His. Mark 12:29. He says that we should love Him with all our hearts, soul, might and all of our strength. You cannot do this and not have compassion for the lost. Revelation 2:4 tells of the Church leaving its first love; Hosea talks about bands of love; Paul says that we should be knit together in love and the love of Christ constraineth us. Love will band us together like a mighty army for God.

Briefly summarized Numbers 31; 32. God told Moses to avenge the Children of Israel of the Midianites; they won the battle. They wanted to stay on this side of Jordan. Are we content to sit in our churches? The battle had been fought; their land could be possessed. Christ fought the battle for me. Moses told Gad and Rueben that you must go to battle with the rest of Israel to conquer Canaan land. You can't sit down because your church is paid for, your building is full and you have musicians. God, help us to have a mission and ABM spirit. The Lord said if they did not conquer the land they would sin against Him. It is not enough just to pay tithes, give mission offerings, be regular attenders at church; we must rescue the lost.

Asked every woman to stand who has an unsaved husband. Asked her husband to stand—some thought it was impossible for him to come back to the Lord. He is saved, sanctified, filled with the Holy Ghost and a member of the Church of God. You sisters get hold of the prayer bells and keep ringing until God answers. 2 Peter 3:9. You are going to have to love your husbands with the love of the Lord and realize it is the devil talking through them. (Everyone stood who had a son or daughter, mother or father that is lost. Win the Lost At Any Cost sung by Shina and Gina Parris.)

4:02 Remarks by General Secretary; he led the congregation in a mighty prayer for salvation of our families.

4:18 Honoring former ABM Secretaries on the 70th Anniversary of this auxiliary—by General Secretary. The Biblical model of leadership is built on the concepts of a servant serves by leading; a leader leads by serving. Jesus demonstrated these in His ministry. Luke 22:27. Serving is the theme in the four Gospels. Jesus washed their feet, calmed their storms, taught them in their confusion, prayed for them in their weakness; He fed the hungry, healed the sick, cleansed the lepers, clothed the naked, guided the lost and forgave the penitent. These leaders continue to be the most humble and warmest servants to lead in the Church of God: E. H. Griffith, Harper Hunter, M. T. Linkous, Alvin Brantley, Eugene Weakley, William H. Brooks. (Each was presented a book God's Power to Prayer. J. F. Curry is deceased.) Prayer by former Secretaries.

4:30 What Do You Do With Smoking Flax?—message by General Secretary. Scriptures: Revelation 2:1-5; cf. Revelation 1; Isaiah 42:3; Matthew 12:20; 11:29; 5:3, 5; cf. 18:4; Luke 14:11; 18:13, 14; 22:17; Colossians 3:12, 13; Galatians 5:22-25; 2 Chronicles 7:14. (This message was printed in the November 29, 1986 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be obtained on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

5:00 Bind Us Together led by Larry Duncan as band leaders waved their banners.

5:03 Broadcast Record Club Singers in charge of Thomas Duncan, Communications Business Manager. Songs by: Warren Roney; Kelly Brothers, SC; Dorothy Creel; Kings Messengers, VA; Harper Hunter; Sterling Sisters; Elaine Linkous; Earlean Emerson; Pam Sherr; Dora Hernandez.

EVENING

6:02 Evangelism/Home Mission Program directed by Verlin D. Thornton, Director. Theme: Let the Redeemed . . . Say So! Psalm 107:2 Comments by Brother Thornton; introductions of National Evangelists—each told of some happenings in their revival work.

6:20 Sing Praises—led by Wayne and Linda Little. 1 Peter 1:18, 19; Sister Little led in singing Redeemed; Adana Pense, pianist; Shirlene Stone, organist. John 13:33, 36; 14:2, 3. Congregation joined in singing When the Redeemed Are Gathering In. Brother Thornton led in praising God.

6:30 Recognition of Prayer Partners. Those who have joined this group are retired ministers and their wives. The Department sends itineraries of national evangelists to the prayer partners who pray for the revivals. The retired ministers in Cleveland anointed and prayed over the prayer cloths to be distributed. National Evangelists led the Assembly in praying that the anointed cloths would be blessed of the Lord.

6:45 Overseer Willie Boone gave this testimony: The Home Mission Program really works. In 1980, when I went to Southern New England, we had a little more than 200 members and 11 churches. In the first ministers' convention, I organized the Program. We didn't have money; I asked each member to give a dollar a day for fifty days. We raised $10,000. We organized 5 missions and 1 church the first year. Since then, we have had 5 to 6 missions in operation and organized 3 to 4 churches a year. The past six years, we have organized 11 churches, bringing the total of churches to 22 and 570 members. The Overseer of New York and some of the saints there came in each year and brought a different choir. Some sent offerings. I feel this is a good way for the little states; a big state give a helping hand to raise money to bring in evangelists. When they write me about a church, I write them that I am sorry I don't have a church, but I can give you a whole city. We in the Church of God are ONE Church—the great Speckled Bird. It is time to reach all nations. We can organize the SEL Program and train; if we don't do something about it, the Lord will come back for His Church and we won't be ready. Let's build the Church of God. When Jesus told the Church to go into all the world and preach, He told us that He would be with us. We are brothers; let's work together.

6:54 Institutional Chaplain Dean Yancey gave this testimony: He has been a prison chaplain for two and a half years and has led over 120 men to the Lord. This is a field that Jesus required that we reach in order to get the joys of the Lord. Matthew 25: 36, 43. There are many ways you can help; go see the chaplain of a prison and try to set up a ministry. Maybe you don't preach; you can write letters. Many of their families have disowned them and they are rejected by society and a letter letting them know that you love them in the name of Jesus and are praying for them will mean a lot. In Tennessee, we are going to start a program entitled "Adopt An Inmate." We are trying to get each church in Tennessee to adopt at least one inmate and work with him and his family; try to get the family in church. Pray for me as I try to get into prison ministries and the jails and work for the Lord and the Church.

Brother Thornton mentioned that Bo and Ramona Robinson have been working in Aberdeen, SD. The state is sponsoring them now, and they are continuing their work there. We like for people to do new-field work, endeavoring to plant new churches. They are expecting to organize that work in the near future.

6:58 William Blanscet told of working in a new field in Mountain Home, ID: This is exciting Church of God business. My Overseer wrote asking me about my work next year. I had spent twenty years in pastoral work; I said I would like to stay in my local church. He asked me how I would like to be supported in a new field. I thought about it and prayed and finally accepted. Mark 1:38. We went to the Chamber of Commerce and got information of the size of town; how many churches; determined that about 10,000 people there were not going to church. We had difficulty finding an affordable place to live. We kept praying and finally bought a house. We did census work; I visited 160 homes in two weeks. In the first 35 homes, I had 8 ready for Sunday school, and no place to go. I located an empty building belonging to a dentist. I called him and he said to come over and he would help me get the building cleaned up. I went to his office and he told me that the building might fall down but I could use the dentist office without cost. We had 8 the first Sunday. I believe that my salvation depends upon me reaching souls. I must be a missionary; I can't go across the water; I can be a missionary at home to my neighbors, friends and relatives. So must you be a missionary. The Lord gave us a nice home and we have a place now to go back to and invite people to Sunday School. This is a good opportunity. My wife and I integrate every church we go to. We need to worry about winning souls—not whether they are Black, Thai or Caucasion. It is an opportunity to reach out in these small areas with small finances. Pray that God will give us a good church.

7:10 Song by Nelda Tomlinson.

7:15 Randy Howard—SEL Coordinator: Evangelism is exciting—evangelizing cities, prison ministries, home ministries, chaplaincies in hospitals, etc. Sharing Eternal Life, personal evangelism, can fit into every one of these areas and your life. SEL is alive and it is growing. I was with Pastor Don Knoblich in Tacoma, WA. On Sunday afternoon a team went out. The young lady, whose house we went to said that she had grown cold in her relationship with the Lord; had moved from Mississippi with her husband in the military and didn't attend church. Every Sunday morning she woke up wondering what they are doing in church. She knew her place was in God's house. This morning as I was thinking, God impressed on me that somebody is coming today. We shared the gospel with Sandy and the Spirit preceded us into her heart. She received Eternal Life and rededicated her life. How many cities are there people who are thinking, "I ought to be in Sunday school this morning." They are feeling the Spirit calling them and just waiting for someone to go to them. God is waiting on someone to Share Eternal Life. Many congregations are joining to begin the ministry of SEL. It will be the most rich thing that you have ever done. The Evangelism Department has joined forces with the VOS Department and have made a video of the teaching sessions of SEL. For $35, you may buy the teaching tapes to go with the manual that we produced last year; tapes may be rented for $12. Witnessing cannot be taught in class sessions. It is caught when we take people into the homes and share the gospel. Please don't leave out the witnessing experience when you use the videos. Take your people into the homes and train them. This year we are going to have regional seminars, especially for pastors. Overseers are welcome, as well as district overseers and the laity. If someone cannot come to your church to present the seminar, please try to go to a regional seminar. We are rising to become the marching army of God. Personal evangelists have shared this glorious gospel story and let the redeemed say so in the streets, our homes, the communities and outside the walls of our sanctuaries.

7:28 Prayer led by Brother Thornton for offering received to be used for the National Evangelists. Ron and Jessie Acker sang Majesty; Linda, Wayne and Andrea Little sang We Shall Overcome.

6:40 Henry Willis told of his evangelism work around the world: My wife and I have been in the Evangelism Department eight years; have travelled over a lot of states and around the world. Three years ago we went around the world and this year we did again. We ministered in several Spanish churches in California with God giving many salvation experiences; in a revival in Hawaii, we had a beautiful baptismal service; went to Western Samoa the first time and organized a church at the end of the revival; this year, a building had been built and I conducted the revival in it. In Australia, our first stop was in Brisbane where Tim and Billie Rae Charles are pastoring. Young people come there from New Zealand and work with the people in the street. Many of the street people came to the revival. God blessed in Aubrey; in Penrith—a neighbor was baptized with the Holy Ghost. Went to their Greek Church and one man received the Holy Ghost. One night, he spoke in Chinese through the Holy Ghost and ministered to people. Had a revival in a Spanish church in a shopping center. Many were saved, sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost. Went to Christchurch, New Zealand; had the first revival ever in that church. A couple who lives there had made contacts. An elder in the Presbyterian Church came. He laughed in the Spirit and I asked him if he would like to receive the Holy Ghost. He said, "If I'm supposed to, I'd like to." The Holy Ghost fell on him in a dynamic way. They have a mission going there now and this brother is attending. The harvest is ripe; so much to be done and we are doing such a little compared to the needs. I appreciate all who had anything to do with our trip. (Had Ken and Lorenda to stand. Three years ago, I was in a revival in Cordova, Alaska. He wouldn't come but his wife did. We prayed for him, and after I went to Thailand, we received a letter saying that Ken had been saved. Two years ago he prayed through here to the Holy Ghost.) There are great things ahead. Revival is on the way; if we don't have revival, it is not God's fault.

7:55 Grace Willis and the Gospel Carriers, FL, sang Don't Give Up On the Brink Of Your Miracle. Prayer by Alva Wilson.

8:05 The Main Thing—message by Verlin Thornton, Director. Scriptures: 1 Timothy 1:15; Colossians 1:16-19; John 1:29; 10:10; Luke 19:10; John portrays Christ variously in his Gospels: Chapter 4—Soul Winner; 8—Defender of the weak; 10—Good Shepherd; 14—Great Consoler; 14:1-3, 6; 15—the True Vine; 16—Holy Ghost Baptizer (v. 7); 17—the Great Intercessor and our Sanctifier; 19—the uplifted Savior; 20—the Conqueror of death; 21—Restorer of the penitent; John 17:18; 20:21; 3:16, 17; Matthew 28:18, 19; 16:17, 18; Revelation 22:17. .(This message was printed in the November 29, 1986 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be ordered on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

8:00 Bill Marion led in singing O Magnify the Lord. Psalm 34:1. Mighty concert prayer with all joining hands. National Evangelists laid hands on Brother Mojica for God to bless the healing message.

8:45 Believe—annual healing message by Miguel Mojica, Overseer of Venezuela. Comments: Jeremiah 8:22; Genesis 2:17; 3:7. The only person who can cure man is God; He does when He wants to; to whom He wants to and where He wants to. God is the Master Physician; He has the power to heal the sons and daughters in Zion. It is said that God helps those who help themselves. I think we have helped ourselves so much in Zion that we have left God out. There are people all over the world praying and fasting. We need the unction of the Holy Ghost; the flowing of the Spirit. Scriptures: Luke 8:43-48; John 5:5; Leviticus 17:11; Hebrews 13:8; Mark 16:18; James 5:16; 2 Chronicles 7:14; Isaiah 53:5. (Brother Mojica told of many healings.

9:40 Jeff Burkhardt sang Rise, and Be Healed. Music by Bahama Brass Band as 2,644 were prayed for and anointed; approximately 20,000 anointed cloths were distributed. Altar invitation by Miguel Mojica. M. C. Jackson directed music and singing during altar service.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6

MORNING

7:30 Sunrise service directed by Randy Arnold and Charles Blaniar. Organ music by Sheena Newman; music by Bahama Brass Band.

8:45 Two songs led by Greg Stephens with Shirlene Stone, pianist and Winston Williams, organist. Galatians 6:1-10 read by Roger Wessel. Prayer by Malcolm Berseygay, followed by concert prayer for requests.

8:58 Learning To Obey—message by David Ortiz L., Overseer of El Salvador (interpreted by Raul Torres). Excerpts: Philippians 2:5-11. Those things which formerly could not be seen already existed. When God created man, He endowed him with certain qualities that would distinguish man from the rest of God's creation; man can decipher between right and wrong. Ecclesiastes 7:29. Man has created his problems; he was not created to make problems. The cause of such problems is disobedience from the very beginning; even when man was instructed what to do. Genesis 2:17. God knew He was creating a man subject to passion and in need of learning how to obey.

Obedience makes the difference between the person who serves the Lord and the one who does not. In order to reach the depth of obedience, the Word gives as our example Jesus Christ to enable us to follow. Some want to obey at times but their inner condition does not permit them to do so. Hebrews 5:7, 8. This manifests to us that it is necessary to learn to obey. Having this example, I believe we can put it into practice.

Obedience of children to their parents is a great need in our day. We need to teach them in our homes that they must learn to obey. Ephesians 6:1, 3. We can recall through past experience that we had to be instructed through the path of righteousness. We had to be taught to honor our parents; obey their advice. We Christians believe that the Lord can help us to direct our children through the path of obedience. In many cases, we want them to obey; but we do not demonstrate obedience to them in word and deed.

Titus 2:5. Some may feel that I am entering territory in which I have no business; however, I feel that obedience includes obedience of the wife to her husband; servants to their masters—Ephesians 6:5; to the laws of the land—Titus 3:1.

Other things are necessary to instill obedience but the depth of the message is obedience to God—not just an obedience invented by the mentality of man; but that portion written in the Holy Scriptures. Deuteronomy 13:4. This not only implies to the prescribed obedience, but includes obeying His voice. Exodus 19:5. What a privilege through the submission of obedience to become a peculiar treasure in the hands of the Lord. The obedience prescribed by the Word of God should not be conditional or for the sake of convenience. Many speak of obedience, referring to the type that they feel they can benefit; will not obey if they cannot benefit. This is not in accordance to the will of God. Some say that they will obey everything that the pastor says because he desires a position; many times they will deceive the pastor and get appointed to a position. It will not last because this is not the manner in which the Lord desires us to obtain a position. One can have a reciprocal form of obedience—give me and I will give you. It is not that way with God and His Church. Our thinking should be of the future—not how to receive benefits. It is of vital importance that we be conscious of the fact the only obedience which will give us positive results is that which stems from the heart. Obedience is a distinguishing characteristic of the saint. 1 Peter 1:14. This type of obedience holds God's promises. Deuteronomy 11:13, 14. Our forefathers had to obey; what God promised them at His appointed time, He fulfilled it. They did their part, not only to inherit the blessings; but to leave us a Biblical example of obedience which stems from a heart toward God. Joshua 1:7. There is danger in deviation: it causes damnation to fall upon cities; the fields; our goods; the earth; our coming in and going out.

We do not have the ability within ourselves to obey. Man's continual longing is that of doing wrong; we have someone we can go to. 2 Corinthians 3:4, 5; Psalm 119:35; 143:10. If we do not practice obedience, others will; the blessing which should have been for you will be given to someone else. The believer needs to ask the Lord how to obey; we must learn how. We need to prepare ourselves through obedience to be able to participate in that which is manifested to us in the Scriptures. Daniel 7:27. We shall see and be partakers of these glorious events only if on this earth we learn to obey. When our physical strength is weakened, the power of the Lord can provide physical and spiritual strength. May the God of peace enable us to do His will.

9:35 Victory Leaders Band Program, directed by William M. Wilson, General Secretary. Theme: For This Cause. Concert prayer for our Victory Leaders. Ron and Debbe Craig led in singing as Victory Leaders marched in auditorium, waving their banners and manifesting much zeal; Steve Gilmer coordinating.

9:50 Worshipping the Lord. All joined hands dedicating the service to the Lord. Debbe Craig led in singing. Ron Craig read Mark 16:17, 18. State secretaries on platform; youth directors circled platform. They raised their hands toward congregation and prayed; gave a wave offering to the Lord.

10:23 Two songs by Tabernacle Concert Choir, Nassau, Bahamas.

10:33 GOING—testimonies by: Catherine Payne who told of youth life teams going and working; Bill Kaber told of having a Bible run—presented Bible to Governor of Missouri; Ruben Mancia told of youth life team working in West Los Angeles, CA.

10:45 Let Us Sing Songs of Praise—sung by Greeks Zenophon Ioanides and Yesoumis Anastasiou.

10:50 Ministering to the Youth of His World—audio visual presentation narrated by Dan Howell. Slides were shown of various activities of the youth ministry: Gleaner band, camping program, publishing of the gospel, youth mission teams and International Youth Conference.

11:05 Presentation by the General Secretary for the leading Victory Leaders Band of the year—Nicosia, Cyprus.

11:10 Song by the Sojourners—Mike Pugh and Jesse Allen.

11:20 For This Cause—message by General Secretary. Scriptures: Ezekiel 1:25-28; 2:1, 2; 1 John 3:8; cf. Matthew 21:12, 14; cf. Malachi 3:1; cf. Ezekiel 1; Ecclesiastes 12:1; cf. Philippians 1:23, 21; summarized 1 Samuel 17, 18, 19; 2 Samuel 3:1; cf. Acts 2:2-4; Isaiah 10:27. (He asked all to stand and get a prayer partner and pray one for another that there will be fresh oil poured upon each; they will get filled with the fire of God.) This message was printed in the November 29, 1986 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be ordered on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.

AFTERNOON

12:05 Dismissal by all saying "Thank you Father, Son and Holy Ghost." Gospel singing during intermission directed by Pape Avenue Brass, Canada.

1:00 Tomlinson College Program, directed by President Emerson Hall. 20th ANNIVERSARY SPECIAL. Introduction of Board members and faculty.

Comments by the President: God divinely established three basic institutions among men to accomplish His purpose in this world. Genesis chapters 1 and 2 tell of God establishing the institution of the family; Genesis chapters 9 and 10 tell of God establishing nations; Matthew chapters 16 and 18 tell of God establishing the Church. School is not a separate divine institution and must come under the other established institutions. There is nothing in the Scriptures to indicate that the school is to be operated by the nation or government. The Bible teaches that the function of education belongs to the family, especially the father; and to the Church as referenced in Genesis, Ephesians 4 and Matthew 28. Unfortunately Christian families and the churches have largely, by default, let the government take over education of our children.

The Christian School Movement is belated but very necessary. We thank God that His Church has elected to fulfill its Biblical responsibility in educating its children. The sole purpose of TC is implementing teaching goals of the family and the Church. TC is Biblical; on God's Program; has served the family and the Church. The college family is growing daily.

Reflections of the Past by Instructor Jackie Bailey: One of the most memorable aspects of TC is the warm feeling of family. It doesn't matter where you come from or what your past has been; you are always welcome.

1:10 Trio sang: The Family of God/God's Wonderful People.

1:14 The Family of God by E. E. Van Deventer. He acted as grandfather to Zack and Andy and took us through the TC Family Album. Summary: The idea of the Family of God is extremely important to us in the Church of God. Many times we feel closer to our brothers and sisters in the Church than we do to our natural family. Teaching and training the ministry and laity in the Church has always been of prime concern. Christ taught and trained His disciples for three years; then commanded them to go teach all nations. A. J. Tomlinson recognized this need; he had Bible school in his home in 1918; later he asked the Assembly to establish a Bible training auxiliary. Our BTI Department trains members in the Bible and in Church doctrine. This has been a help to the Church in schools throughout the world. M. A. Tomlinson recognized the great asset of BTI; in 1950, the Assembly passed to establish a school for the children in our home for children and others. In 1964, M. A. Tomlinson presented the Assembly with the need for the Church to sponsor an institution of higher education; appointed a committee to study this need and the findings presented to the Assembly in 1965; the Assembly approved the establishing of a college and adopted the name Tomlinson College in honor of A. J. and M. A. Tomlinson. Classes began in the Fall of 1966 at the Tennessee Headquarters in Madison, with an enrollment of 40.

J. D. Wilkinson told of the first seven years: Traditions were established; the first Spiritual Emphasis week; we started with five full-time staff members. What I see today is fulfilling the dreams of those who looked into the future. One of the first signs that went up was Tomlinson College—Scholarship With Spirit. The idea of a four-year Bible College is part of the dream. We saw the future: classes available for ministers, extension program. I am grateful to have had a part in the beginning of this. We had to depend on God. I feel like I can say on behalf of the Committee of Education, "Keep right on; this is what God wants; this is what we want to see."

The Assembly accepted that we should be a liberal arts college with a strong Bible emphasis. We want to develop a quality program that would compare educationally with any other college within the framework of Christian principles. In 1967, the college was located in Cleveland with an enrollment of 74. We had temporary housing and inadequate space. Out of the first class of only 23 graduates has come many succes stories. These former students represented their class: Bruce and Molly Wyatt sang two songs; solo by 1970 graduate Bonnie Holcombe; solo by 1975 graduate Ron Scotton; trumpet solo by 1977 graduate Greg Stephens; song by 1978 graduates Shirlene and Duke Stone and Tim Coalter; piano solo by 1980 graduate Tony Ferguson; solo by 1982 graduate Nelda Tomlinson.

In December, 1983 the college was accredited. In these twenty years more than 2,500 students have attended the college and more than 1,000 have graduated; nearly 500 are licensed ministers; 86 are bishops; 10 are under appointment as Overseers; 8 are serving in the World Mission Corps; many are pastors, state secretaries and evangelists.

Johnny McDaniel presented the Craig Chappell Memorial Scholarship to Carlos Parker.

Steve Huff presented the Alumni award to Al and Angie Wessel. She spoke briefly: No matter the achievements, the fame and the degrees we may earn, if we lose Jesus we have lost our life. It is the desire of Al and my family to use the talents that God has given us to further the Church of God.

President Hall thanked all who had helped to bring the college to where it is today. We presently have external classes in South Carolina, Alabama, North Carolina with an enrollment of 254; planning two classes in Tennessee and one in Virginia this Fall. Materially we started with very little; we have come a long way and have a long way to go. There is a bright future.

2:32 Jerry Adams, Director of Institutional Advancement, spoke: A college education costs today. Somebody has to pay the bills. Basic places to go: students tution, Federal Government, industry and foundations and people who believe in what the college is all about. We have to have a way of funding what happens at Tomlinson College. The General Church is very generous—takes care of maintenance and gives an annual grant. We received more than $800,000 from the Government in student aid last year. That is the only aid we accept from the Government. If we accepted grants, etc., there would be strings attached. This is a Church of God college; we don't want the Government telling us how to run it. Foundations and coporations mostly prefer to give to schools not so closely tied to a church. We have started the Annual Fund, which is an opportunity for people to give to the college so that we can keep the cost of students down. The faculty and administration have contributed. You could recommend people whom you think would want to contribute. You may give through deferred giving, life insurance policies, annunites, endowments, etc. Let God move on you. I believe He is in this program and that it is time for TC to move foward; we need your help.

2:40 Solo by Reggie McDougle.

2:42 James Stone, Dean of Academics, spoke: Matthew 26:36. I think TC has come to where we want to be like Jesus and pray, "Not my will, but thine be done." There is a new vision at TC; a new revelation, commitment and concern. It is a desire for God's will to be done. We are willing to pray that prayer in 1986. Even though it is a prayer for the cross, I think we are willing to take the challenge. We know Sunday is coming with a four-year Bible program; with the power of the resurrection sweeping through the campus.

2:45 Gary Riggins, Admissions Director, spoke: On behalf of the faculty, staff and administration, our job is to stand on the edge of the third decade of service and look in the future of TC. The first twenty years, we witnessed the birth and watched it mature. As we become of age in our twenty-first year, our dreams are still for Christ-centered and people-oriented education. Our family dreams of a Church college where our students will continue to expect more than an education; that difference translates into discipleship. TC is a place where our students not only are distinguished by their scholarship but by their spirit. We dream of growth; there is love at TC and people do real Christian service. It is a place where the faculty, the staff and the students can learn to see and appreciate people and Jesus Christ; everyone who attends is a special person. I would like for us to recognize our family members. (Asked present faculty, staff, administration and students to stand. Then all former members stood; all relatives of each stood.) These are all special family members; they have paid the bills. (Everybody related to anyone who was standing were asked to stand; all his brothers and sisters in Christ stood.) This is your family; be proud of your accomplishments.

Larry Duncan led in singing The Family of God as all greeted each other.

President Hall commented: For more than eight years, I have observed the campus life of your students; watched them mature; sharing and caring for one another. I have seen them accept Christ, sanctified, receive the Holy Ghost and baptized in water. I have seen them worshipping, praying and rejoicing together. I have seen them when they were to be commended; when they were to be corrected. I have been privileged to watch the greatest young people in the world—our children—grow spiritually, morally, ethically, culturally, socially, intellectually. If you could see them as I have, you would agree that TC renders an invaluable service to God, the family and the Church.

An offering was received for a fund to supply students with needs when they are unable to meet their commitments.

3:00 White Wing Publishing House Program, directed by Henry O'Neal, Business Manager; commented briefly. Ruben Carmona, Overseer of Mexico, prayed.

3:08 Song by the Hallelujah Chorus, TN.

3:12 Perry Gillum, Sunday School Literature Editor, spoke: Every program in the Church, I feel, must have a Biblical mandate. The Sunday School Literature Department has that mandate; it is found in Matthew 28:19, 20. Jesus commanded His Church to teach all people, nations, tongues and kindred. In order to teach, we must have published material. Thousands of people around the world are involved in this great literature movement. It takes writers, editors, publishers, translators, distributors of literature and teachers. I am pleased that early in the Church history, after the Arise Shine in 1903, our forefathers saw the need of publishing literature. We have a full graded Sunday school curriculum in the English language and a facsimile of that curriculum in sixteen other languages. That is just a beginning; although it is quite an accomplishment for the Church. There are many other languages that God must help us with in reaching the millions who need to hear the gospel message of Jesus Christ. (His staff spoke briefly: Rob Allen, Donna Brogdon and Lou Ewasko. Had current Sunday school literature writers to stand as their names were called.)

3:26 Brother O'Neal expressed appreciation of our writers and all of his workers. Song by the Hallelujah Chorus.

3:30 Louis Sullivan recognized authors this year: J. E. Elliott, Harper Hunter, Wade Phillips, Henry E. Griffin, Jr., R. O. Covey, James Stone and Perry Gillum. (Each was presented a copy of their book.)

3:38 White Wing Messenger promotional by Henry O'Neal: Other than the activities of the General Overseer's office, I think that publishing the White Wing Messenger is the single most important thing that we do in the General Offices. It is an enormous blessing. In most places in the world, their first request is how can they get the White Wing. It carries the communication link between all of us. We have started a promotional campaign called "Share the Messenger." We have contacted the state offices and literature representatives. This program is to write the subscriptions for those who have either never had it or who have not subscribed for two or three years. You can subscribe for someone who has never received it. Presented certificates to: Londa Richardson, TN, initiated this drive to write subscriptions to the White Wing; Willard Boyles, AL, the greatest promoter of literature in the Church; Bobby Patterson, East Lake Highlands, AL; Faye St. John, Leeds,AL; Betty Boyette, Twilleytown, AL.

3:50 Song by Noe Gutierrez.

4:02 World Literature Outreach—comments by Henry O'Neal and these overseers spoke:

Jorge Marrero, Guatemala: The printing press has been a strong force in the development of our Church work around the world and helps us to communicate to men. I have no doubt that God has provided these means. The greatest responsibility of printing the Word rests upon the publishing house. They have provided literature for all the world that has been reached by the Church. The devil is trying to interfere with the Church literature reaching other countries. In Nicaragua, it is impossible for them to receive Sunday school literature. God is making it possible that we print our literature in Guatemala. We will do all that we can to get Sunday school literature to these neighboring countries. In Honduras and El Salvador, there are problems in their receiving literature; with our printing literature, those problems are being solved. In Guatemala, we constructed a building and named it Lillie Duggar, because she worked very hard for the Church. We want to continue working for the Church of God and the Church literature. I believe that the World Missions Department desires to reach every part of the world with the message of the Church of God. In Guatemala, we are very happy to be involved in this.

Chris Stathis, Greece: This has been an important year for the Greek community around the world; they have literally spanned the globe. All over the world, they form together to make Greek neighborhoods. Many do not adapt to the language of other countries. We are thankful that the Lord has initiated a way for us to start generating Church literature in Greek and sending it around the world. We now have Greek-speaking churches, not only in Greece, but in Cyprus, England, Canada, Australia and other places. In the heart of the Greek world, Athens, Greece, we now have the facility to put together Greek material. It is good to be able to see what we believe instead of just hearing it. We are printing tracts and the White Wing Messenger in Greek which we are sending around the world. Hopefully we can print Sunday school literature too. We expect that this will grow and play a vital part in the Greek Church at the end of time.

Sherman Allen, West Africa: The Bible tells us that God's people are to weep with those who weep and to rejoice with those that rejoice. Approximately fifteen months ago, the Lord gave us a breakthrough among French-speaking people in West Africa. Brother O'Neal shared with us his desire to do something for the Church of God in West Africa that would last until the Lord returns to take the Church from this world. He asked me what single project would I like to undertake in West Africa. Since my involvement in West Africa, it has been a dream to have a place where we could bring together our people for fellowship, studies, have BTI and can grow together as one people. We have purchased two plots of land; will have our ground breaking soon and begin to build our West African complex. Our publishing facilities will be housed there. There will be a conference room which can be divided into three separate rooms for BTI; will have dormitories to house 180 students; will be used for national conventions. South Africa has publishing facilities which could probably print in French whatever we need; if we should receive anything from South Africa, many countries will not handle those packages and they will be returned to South Africa. The way around the situation is not to grumble and complain; do something where we are. Would appreciate any help to equip the building; we are going by faith. There are seventeen nations in West Africa with only five not speaking French. It is not possible to go to a Frenchman with English material. We have possibilities of opening up the Church in French-speaking Togo and Burkina Faso. The time is now.

Barend Botha, South Africa (Afrikaans): We are excited about the work of the Church of God in South Africa and around the world. Since we got the revelation of the Church in 1976, we started translating, teaching and preaching. We have a lot to learn; don't know as much as you in the United States; you have had much patience with us and we can work in the beautiful Church of God. As the light gets brighter, more doors open and we are working with more zeal and power. Recently we held two ministers' meetings and we took back issues of Sunday school literature and thousands of tracts. The people are just grabbing, they are so hungry. We receive letters from people outside the Church many times a week to send tracts. Daily we get letters from our people and others—we must send them literature with haste so that everybody can work. We translate everything we receive from General Headquarters that seems important. We have Sunday school literature and BTI lessons and some other literature in Afrikaans, there are nine or eleven more languages in our country that must hear the message of the Church of God. We believe the day will come that all these people will understand and hear in their languages.

4:34 Raleigh (State St.), NC Choir sang two songs. Brother O'Neal announced that they raise more than any other church for World Literature; Billy Siler is pastor.

4:50 Comments by Brother O'Neal. The Gary Glover Family came to platform. They have given six years of their lives in Africa assisting in printing, building and equipment. George Smith, manager, was present.

4:52 Dedication of our White Wing Publishing House in Brakpan, South Africa: Perry Gillum, Master of Ceremonies; Overseer Malvern Dube, Botswana, read Mark 16:15-20. Remarks by Gary Glover and George Smith. A plaque was presented to Brother Smith for the publishing house. For the official act of dedication, Brother O'Neal read the minister's part; Felix Garcia led the people. Members of the Church Publishing Committee were on the platform. Dedicatorial prayer led by M. A. Tomlinson joined by other members of the Committee.

5:03 Military Service Program, directed by Bobby R. Snow, Representative. Salute to those serving God and country; comments and introductions by Brother Snow.

5:12 Chaplain Dan Kurbis spoke: 2 Corinthians 5:20 speaks of my life as a Navy Chaplain. I am an Ambassador for Christ to tell a dark world that Jesus is everything they need. I minister to a very small and specialized young segment of the population; serve primarily as a counselor and advisor. I have very little pulpit responsibility; sow seed where it has never been sown before; that is exciting. A goodly portion of my energy is spent in crisis counseling—dealing in death, divorce, abuse and mental strain from job and family. I live in an almost complete non-Christian environment, which is often hostile to what I represent. In many instances I am not welcome where they work because I represent something they are not ready to deal with. Jesus told us we would be persecuted, not be loved and they would treat us as they did Him. I serve with the ready strike force that has the capability to almost annihilate the earth—the Palarois Missilery submarine squadron in Charleston, SC. These men live continually on the edge of peace and sudden destruction.

This community of the Navy probably has the highest divorce rate of any because of the nature of the work. The people I serve with are of high caliber, highly trained; under very difficult pressures. They live seventy days under water with no communication with the outside world. My office is my feet; I walk all day from submarine to submarine, piers and the docks. I move around the men, eat with them; when I go to sea, I am with them twenty-four hours a day. Then I am able to share what Jesus can really do for them. In one three-year tour, I will probably see more people and have a chance to witness to more people than the average pastor would in his lifetime. I don't have to knock on doors nor go anywhere, they are brought to me. Thank God for the opportunities to walk about with freedom and regardless of rank, to walk up to anybody and ask them if they know Jesus Christ as their Saviour.

5:27 Offering was received while William Marion and helpers sang I'm A Poor Rich Man.

5:33 Representative commented on retreats for Service personnel.

Dennis Howard, Overseer of Germany, told about the retreat in Germany: With our Christian people who are in the military, this is their life style for the number of years they are in the service. They need love and concern just like anybody else. Some times they stay there, be saved, sanctified, filled with the Holy Ghost and join the Church. They can do just as much good in your local church as anybody else; many are talented and gifted of the Lord and they wish to share that with your local church. They want to be accepted as a child of God and as a Church member. Cities near the military installation enjoy the economic benefits of their presence; they look upon them many times as second-class citizens; they are first rate. Every year the military makes adjustments in the requirements for those becoming a part of the military. Those who remain in the military must go through various stages of learning to increase their technical skills and abilities and to meet certain categories of learning in order to increase in their rank. We have people in there who are intelligent; wanting to do something, not only for their country, but to help them and their families. While serving overseas, they are under constant strain; divorce, and other type of abuses are very high due to the stress factor.

When I was in the military, there was homosexuality, drunkenness, drugs and so on that are readily available. The military is trying to control these things; nevertheless, it is very high. One young man told me that he had had many offers to pastor a large church but he said that God called him to be an evangelist; if ever there is an evangelistic field, it is in the military. Many of our military people have a call on their lives and are working under stress and danger, but they are holding the standard of God high and are proclaiming Jesus Christ. They are not wearing just a military uniform of the world, but they are clothed with the armor of God and are winning souls for Jesus. We are admonished through the Scriptures to pray for those over us; if there is anything we can do more of, it is to pray for our young men and women who are in the armed forces—not just United States, but in other countries. In Germany, approximately 90 percent of the membership is military. I appreciate their prayers, support, work and their labors. Many are serving in some of your churches and states who were won to the Lord in Germany.

It is our prayer that you would pray for the work in Germany and Holland and the military installations. There is a great outreach in these countries and throughout Europe. It is our desire not only to reach the German and Dutch, but there are thousands of military people and we have a commission to reach them. We take it with joy because they are souls and we want them to serve in God's army when they return to their homes. Please pray for our work and reach out to those in your area who are wearing uniforms and watch them, not only go to war against a foe, but go against Satan and they will fight just as hard to lift that standard high.

5:44 He Touched Me by William Marion and helpers.

5:50 Comments by Brother Snow: He asked pastor in Dothan, AL and Pastor Bill Elder in Pasco, WA to stand; introduced Douglas Cruz, pastor in Belgium. Many are pastoring or have pastored while serving in the military. They have made many sacrifices.

Sermonette (primarily Scriptures) by Brother Snow—Called Unto Holiness: Scriptures—1 Thessalonians 4:7; 1 Peter 2:21-23; Hebrews 12:14; Isaiah 6:1-7; Matthew 15:16-20; 1 Peter 1:14-16; 2:12; 2 Peter 2:7; 3:11, 12, 14; Ephesians 3:3; 4:22-24, 29; Psalm 15:1, 2; 24:3, 4; 1 Corinthians 6:12, 13, 19, 20; 10:23, 21, 32; 15:34; Galatians 5:22-25; Ephesians 4:20-24; 1 Timothy 6:6, 11, 12; Ephesians 2:21, 22; 1 Thessalonians 3:4, 7; Titus 2:9-12; 1 John 1:6, 7; 1 Corinthians 10:23, 31, 32; 2 Corinthians 6:14-17; 1 Timothy 5:22; Hebrews 12: 1, 13, 14. Here are a number of things listed in the Scriptures as holy: ground, Sabbath, convocation, nation, place, linen coat, house, tithes, censers, bread, seed, covenant, anointing oil, jubilee, field, water, ark, city, Word, ones, of holies. All of these touched by God making them being called holy. None of the things are holy; they must first be consecrated or sanctified. Only God is Holy.

EVENING

6:10 Amazing Grace—children's musical directed by Debbie Wilson, OH.

6:40 Congregation stood and praised God for Grace and joined in singing Amazing Grace.

6:50 Introductions by Perry Gillum and each spoke briefly: Congresswoman Marilyn Lloyd of Tennessee—congregation joined in prayer for Mrs. Lloyd and all in authority; Raymond Crowley, General Overseer of the Church of God; Lewis Willis, Church of God; Morris Mills, Red Bay, AL; Dewayne Cody, pastor of Bethel Church of God.

7:15 Voice of Salvation Program, directed by Elwood Matthews, Communications Minister. Theme: Let My Spirit Go. Concert prayer. Brother Matthews announced that we have been on satellite and many requests have come in. Prayer for the requests and for those viewing the program.

7:20 Ron Scotton led Mass Choir in singing: Glorify The Lord and How Great Thou Art/Majesty. Ron Craig led congregation in singing How Great Thou Art. (Everyone glorified the Lord.)

Jose Reyes, Spanish Communications Minister, testified: We are broadcasting in Spanish in six continents over 173 radio stations. In Bolivia, our work was started by a contact through the VOS. A brother took the Body of Christ course, joined the Church in 1974; he is now Overseer of Bolivia where we have 50 churches and over 1,000 members. Colombia was reached with people who came to the Church through the VOS; our broadcast in Chile was used to start a work. We have organized a church in California this year; in Puerto Rico, there is a mission to soon be organized. A radio station in Nicaragua wants the VOS every day free. Next day a radio station in Florida is going to broadcast a program that will reach Cuba. The Lord is opening so many doors I cannot tell you. In Puerto Rico, 23 stations broadcast VOS; 5 broadcast free every day. In television, we are only starting. TBN has called for a program; they put it on over 300 television stations. One network is interested in our teaching people; they have called and will put it over 300 stations. RCN, Virginia Beach, has donated three months free. In Puerto Rico, two channels are donating time every day; in Guatemala, the program is being televised. Latin America is hearing the VOS and seeing the television program and people are responding. It is wonderful to preach the gospel and to present the message of the Church of God.

Tony Charalambou, who does our Greek program: My wife and I have worked with the Greek people for many years. Presently we are pastoring two churches in Toronto, Canada; are involved in a Bible School; helping in the production of Greek television programs. These programs are going to New York, Pittsburgh, PA; many parts of Florida, Chicago, IL; recently transmitted from Lebanon; it can be seen in the costal cities of Cyprus. It is a special privilege to help in the production of the Greek VOS programs. A shortwave station in Milano, Italy will transmit these programs to Greece and Cyprus, where the majority of Greeks live. I am representing the world-wide character of the Church of God—not only in English and Spanish, but in Greek and French. We hope very soon it will be in many more languages. The Word of God is going all over the world and the Church of God is covering the globe. We believe that there will not be any part of the earth that will not be covered with the full gospel before the Day of the Lord.

7:45 Comments by Thomas Duncan, Communications Business Manager: The Lord has opened some wonderful doors of opportunity for the expansion of the broadcast outreach of the Church. I can remember the excitement some years ago when one local radio station carried the Church programming and five other stations in the U.S. broadcasted the Church messages. We had faith in the Lord and sought His guidance. We have been inspired many times by the Scripture: "To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven." We believe that when the proper time comes for advancement—not only in the communications work of the Church—but in different parts of the work of the Church—the work can prosper. Programs are going out from this General Assembly to several continents; some by television satellite. We thank the Lord for making possible the use of the broadcast media for the Church that the message of God's Word—the last days message—can go forth and reach many people. I think of this as a comparison to the Lord multiplying the loaves and the fishes. When a minister on the VOS delivers the Word of God, that message is multiplied over many times. The broadcast media can be used effectively for the Church work. The Scripture tells us: "For the earth shall be filled with knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea." We believe the time is at hand when many countries of the world will receive the message of the Word of God as proclaimed by ministers of the Church and those who are working so faithfully to share God's message with the world. For the first time, programs during this Assembly are being broadcast in the city of Rome and other cities in Italy. From a station in Turkey, these programs are being broadcast directly into the Soviet Union. This is a first for the Church. We thank God for His blessings.

7:55 Voice of Salvation Singers sang Jesus Is Alive and Well; His Name Is Higher.

8:04 Brother Matthews reported about the satellite program. It takes a barrel of money to do this (had two large barrels, open at both ends). Gave testimonies and told of healings from satellite coverage. If three more satellites were connected, the General Assembly could be seen world-wide. Opportunity was given to contribute for a television program. Someone has to sow before there is any kind of harvest. The Church in the last days has something to say to this generation; we need a program to do it and it takes money. Ushers passed out forms to fill in to be a part of the television ministry. Pledges were received. Prayer by Brother Matthews.

8:22 Mike Mangrum sang People Need The Lord. Offering was received while Men of the Cloth (Ron Hamm, Bill Marion, Tim Coalter, Dennis Howard) sang Just A Little While.

8:40 Let My Spirit Go sung by Roberta Matthews, backed by VOS singers. Sister Matthews testified and there was rejoicing and praising God.

8:50 Luke 24:49; Acts 1:1-5. Prayer of thanks and praises. Let My Spirit Go—message and altar call by Communications Minister. The Scriptures say we have received: an abiding guest, the breathe of God, the Comforter, the Deliverer, the earnest of our inheritance. a fresh anointing, our Guide, the Healer, our Intercessor, joy unspeakable and full of glory, our keeper, our liberty, a miracle worker, the necessity for God's people, our victory and the wind of God. Scriptures: cf. Acts 6:10, ll; cf. Genesis 37:24; 1 Corinthians 11:28; Psalm 129:33; Christ is the Alpha and Omega, the Bread of Life, the Bridegroom, the Chief Cornerstone, the Door of the sheep, the Everlasting Father, the first begotten of the Father, the Great High Priest, the Head of the Body, the image of the Invisible, our Lord, our soon coming King of Kings and Lord of Lords, the light of the world, Lord of the harvest, the Messiah, the Nazarene, our Passover, the Prince of Peace, the Resurrection, the Son of God, the Shepherd of the sheep, the Truth, the Unspeakable gift, the Vine, the Way; John 12:32; cf. Acts 4:31; cf. John 4:24; (had handkerchief wave) cf. Luke 10:19. (This message was printed in the November 29, 1986 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be ordered on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.) Altar music by VOS Singers; Wanda Sloan directed music and singing during altar service.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 7

MORNING

7:30 Sunrise service directed by James Dyer and H. E. Smith. Organ music by Betty Hayes; music by Bahama Band.

9:15 Harper Hunter led congregation in prayer for God to anoint the messenger. God is the God of the Valley—message by Edna Rye. Excerpts: 1 Kings 20:28. For seventeen days, the Syrian army surrounded the small troops of Israel. Ben-hadad was certain of victory as he was joined by thirty-two other kings; his army outnumbered the army of Israel ten to one. The Israeli army won a victory over the mighty army of Ben-hadad who had been drunk. This time he was taking no chances. After Ben-hadad's army was defeated, the servants explained it was because the Israelites served a God of the mountains. The Israelites were lured into the valleys because it was thought that God was just a God of the mountains (cf. Hosea 2:14, 15). (cf. Psalm 121:1; 87:1) The Israelite army struck from all directions; the Syrian army fled. Many people think that God is only a God of the mountains—in prosperous times.

Job proved that he served not only a God of the mountains, but a God of the valleys. Job prospered; everything was swept away, except a poor nagging wife who wanted Job to curse God and die. If Job had been like some today, he would have thought that he better do what his wife said. Job said, "You speak like a foolish woman." Job praised the Lord. As he sat in the ash heap and people making fun of him and scratching his boils, he searched for God in the valley. He looked on the right and on the left, behind and before; he couldn't find Him. Job did not stop searching.

He said that when I am tried I shall come forth as gold and I know that my Redeemer liveth. Job 19:25-27.

We are serving a God of the valley and the mountains. God is with us in the valley of weeping; He doesn't leave us in the moment of sorrow. Psalm 84:5. This valley comes to us all; worse for some than others. At times we might understand the reason; more often we won't. God is not obligated to let us understand. Illness ravishes our physical bodies; we face the loss of a loved one; oppression comes; testing and trials befall us; people misunderstand us; loved ones turn their backs upon us. There are times when the place of tears becomes so severe that we feel as Elijah when he asked God to let him die. Elijah got in such a valley after his great victory in the destruction of the prophets of Baal. God was with Elijah in the valley; he was ministered to by God and the angels (cf. Psalm 28:6). We can face this valley by growing bitter and angry with God or we can make this valley a well. In the midst of the desert, we can plant a garden; by the help of God, we can dig a well. That is what Abraham and Joseph did; what Paul did in the Philippian jail. We will not be defeated; our God is with us alway. God Almighty is in the circumstances with us. Romans 8:35-39. Hosea encouraged Israel when he said that he would give her the valley of Achor—meaning trouble. God promised to make this valley of despair a door of hope. Many times we walk in the valley of trouble, disappointment, financial problems and heartaches. Each has his valley of trouble; Christ is the Lily of the Valley and brightens any valley. Matthew 11:28. The problems don't always vanish, but He gives us victory over them. Real victory is a gift the same as salvation. 1 Corinthians 15:57. God was with Daniel in the lion's den; the Hebrew children in the fiery furnace (cf. Daniel 3:20-27). Paul prayed three times that the thorn might be removed. God's answer was, "My grace is sufficient for thee." Paul said that he knew how to be abased and how to abound. Abounding can be very dangerous, or it can be a time of revelation from God. Jesus promised that He would never leave us nor forsake us. Psalm 40:2.

Moses was a meek and mighty man of God; on one occasion he prayed for God to kill him. God came to his rescue and gave him the solution. John 16:33; 1 Peter 5:7; Psalm 138:7; 50:15; 91:15; 42:5, 6. When we are in the valley, it is good to remember past victories. We will not be cast down.

There is the valley of death. Psalm 23:4. If we are faithful to the end, He will walk that valley with us. 1 Timothy 4:6-8. When He takes us through the valley, it is that we may realize His power by His victory. Many times we don't see Christ so much when we are on the mountain top as we do when we are in the valley. 1 John 3:2. Yes, our God is God of the Valley.

9:44 Womens Missionary Band Program, directed by Elva Howard, General Secretary. Theme: Vessel To Vessel. Comments by Secretary. Mary Nell Adkins led in singing I've Just Come To Praise The Lord; Jenna Allen, pianist.

9:50 Singing by Ladies Retreat Choir led by Mary Nell Adkins with Jonell Klapp, pianist; Betty Barker, organist.

10:20 Scripture reading by all WMB Secretaries—John 15:16; 16:33; Jeremiah 1:6-8; Isaiah 6:8; 2 Timothy 2:2. Prayer by Felicia Payano.

10:36 Challenge—Pouring In—sermonette by Joyce Cannon. Excerpts: Isaiah 44:1-3; 55:10, 11; Joel 2:28, 29. Since the angels proclaimed, "Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth, good will toward men"; John the Baptist said, "Behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sins of the world"; Jesus hung on the Cross and said, "It is finished . . . "; the Holy Ghost fell; the days of Jesus Christ, our God has poured out His grace, Spirit and Word on all flesh. I can stand all day with my vessel turned upside down and never receive what God wants me to. Until I turn my vessel right and allow God to pour in, there will be nothing in my vessel. We as earthern vessels determine how much or how little of God we will allow in. Whatever God can get past my ideas and opinions, that is how much will get in my vessel. Acts 10:34. When God created you, He gave you capacity to hold His Spirit. It is how you view your Creator.

The woman at the well didn't know why Jesus asked her for a drink of water. The reason is that she had a low opinion of herself. Our ability to receive is only limited by our idea of ourselves. The view of God changes our perspective. Jesus said to the woman "You ask me for a drink"; when you take a drink of Jesus Christ, you don't take a little drip; a well of springing water.

Acts 20:22; John 7:38. If we fill our vessel with other things, we expect God to mix it. God doesn't mix with temporal things. We put our money in a vessel thinking it is going to fill up the God-sized vacuum. Nothing but God fits in the vacuum. We put our personal relationships in the vacuum; nothing did it until Jesus arrived. The woman had to find Jesus to fill up her vessel. Those temporal things must be emptied and the Word of God has to be hidden on the inside for the Spirit and the grace of God will mix with nothing else. God pours out grace and the Spirit; He has already given the Word and He expects you to open it up; put faith inside. It is even more than your natural food. We must eat it as Isaiah—esteem it more than our necessary food; Job desired it more than gold; David fasted for understanding of it; Daniel rejoiced in it as one who finds great spoil. Meditate on it; hide it in our hearts until God's Word abides in us richly. When the grace and Spirit of God mixes with the truth, ministering becomes a natural result of pouring in the vessel.

Pouring out comes in the manifestation of the presence of Jesus Christ. When it is in there, it naturally pours out and flows over the side. Pour it in Father; help us to open our vessels, lay aside our opinions and empty out everything else so that we can be filled with the Spirit, grace and Word of God so we can pour out to others.

10:47 Slide presentation of Helping Hands Ministry; Sherman Allen, Missionary; Harold Hunter, Narrator. Offering was received for the Helping Hands Ministry. Song by Earlean Emerson.

11:08 Introductions; Praise led by the Howard Family. Prayer by Frank Howard.

11:30 The Irony of Being Emptied—message by General Secretary. Scriptures: 2 Kings 4:1-7; cf. 1 Kings 18:4; cf. Matthew 26; 10:39; cf. Luke 6:38; John 12:25; cf. Jeremiah 48:10-12; cf. AFTERNOON

12:32 Closing prayer by Ina Mae Tomlinson.

12:33 Willard Boyles reported results of altar services: 46 saved, 31 sanctified, 45 baptized with the Holy Ghost.

12:35 Report of Counseling Committee

The Counseling Committee met in five counseling sessions and spent several hours counseling with a number of people.

We appreciate the adequate facilities provided for the Committee meetings; also, waiting room for those seeking counsel.

All persons presenting subjects to this Committee have been counseled and the subjects have been prayerfully considered, some of which we felt deserved further consideration before being presented to the presbytery or Assembly committees. Other subjects which we felt would be a blessing to the entire body have been passed on to the committees to be disposed of at their discretion.

We wish to commend all those who came before this Committee for the good spirit manifested. We found a great concern among the ministry, a great love for the Church of God and its teachings, and a strong desire to promote the doctrine of the Church instead of ideas and opinions.

The Editorial Committee on Doctrine, the Questions and Subjects Committee, and the Ways and Means Committee are standing committees throughout the year and may be contacted any time on doctrinal questions or anything not clearly understood.

12:41 Watchmen Committee Report

It is with deep respect that this Committee brings greetings to the 81st General Assembly. Every member of this Committee would like the entire Church to know that individually and jointly we count it an honor to serve the General Assembly of the Church of God. While we all hope to constantly dwell under the protection of the most High God, all of this Committee especially seek that protection for the General Assembly throughout the time it is convening. We are glad to report again that the hand of our God has been upon this Assembly in a marvelous way.

We are most gratified for the manifestation of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost that was so prevalent throughout this entire Assembly. Because of His divine presence, the Church should never be complacent again. From this day forward we should take God at His Word and reach forward for greater victories in every phase of the work.

With the consent of our Moderator, we feel that it would be in order for the entire Assembly to stand and give unto God a special applause of praise for his marvelous blessings.

Praise His glorious name for helping us to have a great Assembly.

Report of General Field Secretary and Spanish Communications Minister
August 1, 1985 through July 31, 1986

Sermons	216	Bible lessons	39
Saved	121	National conventions	2
Sanctified	12	Ministers'convention	1
Received Holy Ghost	4	District convention	1
Homes visited	45

We are appreciative to the Lord for blessing the Spanish Communication Ministries: The Voice of Salvation radio program and the television ministry, "Sharing the Bread of Life."

Our radio program is now broadcast over 173 radio stations throughout Latin America, the Caribbean Islands, Australia, several states in the US and through several shortwave stations that reach areas in Asia, Africa, China, India, Europe and Indonesia. We are now reaching 34 nations.

We have received thousands of letters requesting Bible courses and expressing gratitude for these; many testimonies of how God has blessed them through the program. Besides the General Bible Knowledge and the Body of Christ courses, this year we have offered a new course, The Study on the Book of James. General Bible Knowledge 1,139 units distributed; 172 certificates issued. The Body of Christ course 656 units distributed; 54 certificates issued. The Study on the Book of James, 250 units distributed; 44 certificates issued.

I was the Headquarters Representative for the conventions in Colombia and West Texas; conducted revivals in Alaska, Texas, New York, Belgium, Florida, Georgia, and a city-wide crusade in Hanford, CA. We had radio rallies and special promotion services in Colombia, Dominican Republic, Puerto Rico, and Canada.

Conducted a cross-cultural seminar during the last Assembly; several state overseers, pastors and other leaders of the Hispanic churches in the US participated. During the year I conducted cross-cultural seminars in several of the States; lectured on cross-cultural evangelism at CBN University in Virginia Beach, VA and at the School of Theology in Cleveland, TN. I was chosen to serve as part of the Hispanic Task Force for the American Bible Society.

whose purpose is to seek ways for the translation and distribution of Spanish material to reach the Hispanic in the US with the Gospel.

The series of television programs recorded last year in cooperation with Trinity Broadcasting Network (TBN) were edited for our use; televised on RCN television network, and on channels 64 and 68 in Puerto Rico. TBN requested another series for their Spanish program, which was in April.

We recorded in our facilities another series of television programs based on the book of Nehemiah; a booklet outline was prepared for the listeners and viewers.

I had the priviledge to accept, in behalf of the Spanish Voice of Salvation, an award that radio station Radio Cristo, in Chicago, conferred to us at their annual banquet. Attended the National Religious Broadcasters Convention in Washington, DC where I was elected to serve as president of the Hispanic division of NRB; this has become a great asset to the Church. Represented the Church in the World Congress on Evangelism—Amsterdam '86; also at the Convocation for the Evangelization of the Hispanics in California. At this meeting, the book we published last year, "The Hispanic in United States a Challenge and Opportunity for the Church," was used as textbook; it was used at the Convention of the National Organization for the Advancement of the Hispanics held in Virginia Beach, VA.

I helped in coordinating the National Hispanic Evangelists for the United States; wrote two Bible study courses which have certificates for radio and television audiences; wrote three articles for the White Wing Messenger that were translated for the Spanish issues; have written articles for several Christian publications and magazines.

I served on these Headquarters Committees: Communication; Ministerial Aid; Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine.

Report of Public Relations Director and Sunday School Literature Editor

August 1, 1985 through September 1, 1986

Sermons/lessons	80	Received Holy Ghost	28
Converted	25	Homes visited	88
Sanctified	19

I have worked closely with the General Overseer, representing his office at called meetings and conventions; namely, the United Bible Society Council meeting, the White House Presidential Briefing on the religious state of affairs around the world, the National Religious Broadcaster's Conference, and other religious activities conducted in various locations of the world.

In civic affairs, I have represented the General Overseer's office in numerous local, state, and national functions; presently serving as a member of the Board of Directors of both the Cleveland/Bradley Chamber of Commerce and the United Way of Bradley County. I am also a member of the Mayor's Blue Ribbon Committee of the United Way.

I have produced and aired the Religious News International weekly broadcast, with Evelyn Gillum and Dan Howell as reporters. Appreciation is expressed to Communication Business Manager, and Engineer, for their professional assistance in the production of these news broadcasts.

In the area of Public Relations publications, we have developed and published the following:

Public Relations CLIP IT—a camera-ready clip art communications resource book for local churches; the art work includes clip art, advertising mats, flyers, and spot radio announcements.

TRUTH—A new four-page Public Relations brochure has been produced and made available to local churches.

As editor of Sunday school publications, I have administrated the office affairs with a dedicated and committed staff. The very valuable ministry of our Sunday school literature writers is appreciated.

The Sunday School Literature Department continues to develop and introduce new elective Bible studies which have become a vital teaching tool in our total literature curriculum. Our goal is to complete twelve elective Bible studies. We now have six completed and published; two new studies have been added this year, they are:

ISSUES—This is a study of current world social themes with a biblical perspective. Some of the subjects studied are the sanctity of life, secular humanism, the sexual revolution, and the Bible as the only authority to govern humanity.

ISSUES DISCUSSION KIT—The DISCUSSION KIT is the teacher's tool for the ISSUES Bible study series, which includes a discussion guide and teaching aids for use with the student's book.

GETTING A GRIP (Student)—This is our first elective Bible study for young teens; it is written for young teens of the 80's, with interesting graphics and topical studies, such as "Who is God to me?"; "Excuse me God, I'm having fun"; "The heat is on" (peer pressure).

GETTING A GRIP (Leader's Guide)—includes complete instructions and overhead transparencies and hand-out masters for each lesson. It is simple to use and utilizes a wide variety of teaching methods from discussion to role-playing.

CHANGES IN THE PRESENT CURRICULUM:

Revisions in the Pre-Primary and Primary Curriculum Teaching Format

Ongoing evaluations of our children's curriculum have revealed certain weaknesses that are within our capacities to upgrade with development, writing, and art. These evaluations have been conducted both through in-office studies and surveys of key Christian education personnel on the field. The needs were shown to be in the following areas:

The provision of a variety of visual aids
Emphasis on behavior as well as knowledge
Emphasis on the building-block system of teaching
Built-in teacher development and training
The revisions include:

The addition of a Creative Teaching Aids Packet—is a separate collection of lesson-correlated visual aids, such as flannelgraph art, games, and craft patterns, printed in two colors, and packaged in a 9-1/2" x 12-1/2" envelope containing 20-30 pages.

Revision of the Teacher's Manual for Little People—Basically the same copy remains, with graphic and editorial changes that will provide instructions for use of the Creative Teaching Aids Packet. The craft patterns are to be removed and placed in the packet. More specific learning objects are to be added. The new format is to be about 60 pages.

Addition of a Teacher's Development Section the Teacher's Manual for Little People—A two to four-page insert with exercises for teacher training and growth is being added.

The reordering of the current lesson sequence into a building-block format. This involves restructuring the quarters into smaller units (i.e., three per quarter) emphasizing review.

CURRICULUM UPDATE—is a quarterly publication printed in the interest of Sunday school literature promotions by the Sunday School Literature Editor's office and White Wing Publishing House.

To help keep Sunday school and Christian education department personnel up to date regarding the developments, trends, and news relating to Sunday school curriculum, as well as teaching aid tools and resources.

Report of the World Language Secretary
August 1, 1985 through July 31, 1986

1 Chronicles 16:23-25. I feel this has been a year of advancement for the Church. The World Language Department has truly been blessed of the Lord; thank Him for His mighty power and strength.

I express my sincere appreciation to all the Church for your support and prayers. You all are worthy of commendation. I shall not forget your generous financial support and surely your prayers have been of great strength. The Lord too shall not forget your contribution: "For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister." (Hebrews 6:10) Yes, your works and labor of love shall not be forgetten; God will remember and repay you.

This has been a year of building and reaching out to cover more ground with our translation work. Our plan to "Conquer a Language," our systematic approach of preparing the essential literature, is still in effect and our goals are still attainable. We will, "Declare his glory among the heathen; and his marvellous works among all nations."

Our World Literature Outreach is working very well. Special efforts are being put forth in strategic places around the world:

Greece—the Lord has helped us stablize our translation work. We have established our translation center and word processing facility in Athens; purchased computerized equipment. We are translating our Church literature and simultaneously recording it in computer memory ready for typesetting. We will soon have a complete line of our Church literature: tracts, Sunday school, administrative.

Samoa—The World Literature Outreach has made initial investment to purchase property and construct facilities to provide accommodations for our translation teams and literature preparation equipment. This center will serve to train workers for the Samoan Islands. We will soon have a complete line of our Church literature: tracts, Sunday school, administrative.

Ivory Coast—In Western Africa the advancement of our literature work has been slow and painful; but we are now ready to move forward. God has given the Church inspired and spiritual leaders in this area. The World Literature Outreach has made investments to purchase property and begin construction of our translation and publishing/printing facilities for several countries and languages in that area of the world.

Philippine Islands—our translation work is progressing slowly. We are endeavoring to translate and publish tracts and Sunday school literature in several languages; have purchased a modern computer for word processing, a small plate maker and an offset printer; have engaged in some serious efforts to provide all the Filipino people with the last days' message. Consideration is being given to the expansion of our literature work there. We are searching for property to locate our literature team, purchase better equipment and provide a distribution center. We are asking God to help us. This is a very ambitious undertaking; however, I know that God is great; He is certainly concerned with souls and we are depending on Him to open the doors.

I thank the Lord for the many members and friends who have supported the World Language Department and World Literature Outreach program. It would be impossible to follow through with the Church's projects without your support in prayers and generous gifts and offerings. God bless you.

Personal Report: Visited—Connecticut, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Tennessee, Texas, California, Arizona, Utah, Florida, Alabama, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Michigan, New Mexico, Honduras, Guatemala, Mexico, West Germany, South Africa, Greece, Brazil, Kenya, Argentina, Canada. Attended—6 state/national conventions; 4 ministers' conventions; 4 church literature conferences; Mexico Youth Rally; Costa Rica International Youth Camp; 1 district convention; youth conventions in Canada (East) and Louisiana. Taught in Cleveland, TN and California (Spanish) Bible Training Institutes. Served on these Headquarters Committees: World Mission, Church Publishing, Communication, as managing editor of the International White Wing Messenger which is prepared for translation and processing in our Department; it is printed in these languages: Spanish, French, Telegu, Indonesian, Zulu, Afrikaans, Greek.

I have also had the privilege of working in the development of the Church's fellowship of professionals and businessmen called "Servants." I am sure this group will prove to be a great blessing to the Church.

Conclusion: I want to express my sincere appreciation to all the office staff of the World Language Department in the USA and in several countries around the world. Their work's greatest reward is in the form of souls saved, sanctified, filled with the sweet Holy Ghost and added to the great Church of God. One thing we do know "So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." (Isaiah 55:11) Thanks to my family for their understanding support.

Report of Ministerial Aid Director
August 1, 1985 through July 31, 1986

I have administered all of the Ministerial Aid Department business which has been directed to World Headquarters through the Ministerial Aid Committee and a competent office staff; planned the special Ministerial Aid Edition of the White Wing Messenger, edited the monthly bulletin, "The International Connector" of which 9,000 copies were distributed.

Assumed responsibility of administration of group life insurance plan and accidental insurance carried by Life Insurance Company of North America and managed the business of Tax Sheltered Annuities and Deferred Compensation of individual participants with United Benefit of Omaha.

I planned and moderated a special banquet for the seniors, attended a retreat in Virginia, visited many states and retired ministers and sick people in connection with Ministerial Aid activities and represented General Headquarters at several funerals, representing General Headquarters at conventions in Cyprus, Australia, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, and Iowa.

I taught in the Cleveland, TN and West Coast, Portland, OR Bible Training Institutes; visited England and conducted services in London. I served as secretary of the Ministerial Aid Committee; secretary of the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine; also served on the Church of Prophecy Marker Association Committee. I have written thousands of letters and traveled many thousands of miles this year for the glory of God.

Report of Communications Minister
August 1, 1985 through July 31, 1986

The Lord has richly blessed the Voice of Salvation ministries this year. We are broadcasting in several new areas and God is to be praised for opening these doors.

We received 7,371 letters, 6,143 prayer requests and mailed 4,801 special offers.

The Department has experienced a tremendous growth in the video area. Several new tapes have been produced, including an overview of mission markers. We have taped TV programs for the Spanish VOS.

Again this year I have served as Director of the Music Department. Several projects were completed to benefit the church in general.

This has been an extremely busy year and the Lord has helped the VOS to extend its reach for which I am most grateful.

The staff of the VOS and the Music Department are to be commended for their concern for and dedication to these ministries; who have been greatly responsible for the growth of these ministries.

Report of Communications Business Manager
August 1, 1985 through July 31, 1986

Excellent progress has been attained in the Communications work of the Church this year. The Lord has blessed us with inspiration and strength and caused His face to shine upon us in providing additional broadcast outlets for the radio ministry of the Church. The assistance of state/national overseers and communications directors in the work of expanding the Church's radio coverage during the year has been very good.

Broadcast Distributors, Broadcast Record Club and Majestic Sound Studio have provided much needed financial support for our work. Also, a major source of support has been the annual general appropriation of funds for which we are most appreciative.

I have attended 1 district convention, 2 state conventions, the Audio Engineering Society Convention in New York City and the NRB Convention in Washington, DC.

I have also provided technical assistance to several local churches relative to their sound systems; supervised the audio operations of the 80th Annual Assembly, the audio operations of Cleveland Bible Training Institute, directed the work of my office staff, answered correspondence, operated Broadcast Distributors, Broadcast Record Club and served on the Communications Committee. I arranged for the 81st General Assembly to be broadcast in Europe, Africa, Asia and South America via the DX Radio Network consisting of AM, FM and shortwave radio stations.

The Church programs scheduled for weekly broadcast are as follows:

VOICE OF SALVATION (English)	140	VOICE OF SALVATION (French)	4
VOICE OF SALVATION (Spanish)	173	VOICE OF SALVATION (Greek)	3

COMMUNICATIONS DEPARTMENT FINANCIAL REPORT

INCOME		EXPENDITURES
Brought forward	$ 2,316.70	Broadcast Distributors	$149,064.87
Broadcast Distributors	217,326.34	Voice of Salvation	129,806.75
Voice of Salvation	49,900.00	Broadcast Record Club	13,664.87
Broadcast Record Club	24,843.66	TOTAL	$292,536.49
TOTAL	$ 294,386.70	Balace brought forward	$ 1,850.21

I wish to commend the Communications Minister and staff, Spanish Communications Minister and staff, Tony and Ellie Charalambou on their good work in the broadcast ministry during the year; also the fine assistance of my office staff.

Report of Director of Evangelism and Home Missions Representative

August 1, 1984 through July 31, 1985

With great emphasis on being a Soul Winner For Jesus by our General Overseer, and a theme of Eyes on the Harvest from the Evangelism/Home Missions Department, we have enjoyed increases in all areas of evangelistic endeavor around the world.

Statistics demonstrate the following:

	1985	1986	Increase
Sermons	556,451	586,250	29,806	(5%)
Saved	76,472	81,052	4,580	(5.9%)
Sanctified	43,981	49,083	5,102	(11.6%)
Holy Ghost	24,767	25,503	736	(2.9%)
Water Baptisms	24,333	28,374	4,041	(16.6%)
Added to Church	19,389	23,824	4,435	(22.8%)

Statistics for the National Evangelists (nineteen in all) show the following results:

	1985	1986	Increase
Saved	1,535	1,885	350	(22.8%)
Sanctified	1,243	1,460	217	(17.4%)
Holy Ghost	581	901	320	(55%)
Water Baptized	187	271	84	(44.9%)
Added to Church	124	148	24	(19.3%)

We give glory to God for His favor given to the efforts of evangelists, pastors, and personal soul winners this year.

My personal activities involved attending ministers conventions in Mississippi and Illinois; toured Illinois with Overseer in promotion of the SEL ministry; visited in North Dakota and South Dakota in February in the interest of Home Missions work.

I participated in a one-day seminar dealing with big city invasion for Tennessee and a weekend conference in Virginia on home missions. My wife and I attended a homecoming service in Anderson, South Carolina where I was guest speaker.

I planned and directed the second annual Evangelism/Home Missions Exchange at Lake Junaluska, NC. Attended a regional convention in Mexico City, Mexico where I preached twice, conducted classes on SEL and began planning for a city-wide crusade in that city in February or March of 1987. Please pray for its success.

I served as Bible instructor for first term in the Cleveland Bible Training Institute and coordinated and taught in the first SEL elective class for BTI. This will be an ongoing class for the Cleveland school.

Assisted in conducting the Youth Mission Team orientation in Denver, CO for teams going to South Dakota and Arizona. During the two weeks of Youth Mission Team activity, I visited with both teams in their respective states, as well as Idaho in behalf of home missions interests.

I represented the General Overseer's office to state conventions in Missouri and South Dakota, and assisted in the dedication of the South Dakota state parsonage after its remodeling.

In outside church activities it was my privilege to attend the Congress on Hispanic Evangelism in Los Angeles, CA and the International Conference for Itinerant Evangelists (Amsterdam '86) in Amsterdam, Holland; attended a two-week class on Ethnic Evangelism at the Church of God School of Theology in Cleveland, TN.

Our Department gave substantial support to Joseph and Ramona Robinson who are working in a new field in Aberdeen, SD, where we anticipate a new church being organized before the end of 1986.

Served on these General Headquarters Committees: World Missions, Communications, Church Publishing, and the Youth Mission Board; have corresponded with all national evangelists on a monthly basis, as well as all state overseers and some national overseers at various intervals.

Deepest appreciation to my office secretary and my family for their many prayers as I traverse this globe with the message of Jesus Christ.

Report of World Mission Secretary
August 1, 1985 through July 31, 1986

Through the mercy and sustaining grace of our loving heavenly Father, I was able to make a total of 31 appearances in 12 countries and 8 states on behalf of the Mission work this year. During these visits I preached and taught 89 times while attending 10 conventions, 1 International Conference in the Philippines and various other meetings and services including Bible Training Institute in Cleveland, Tennessee. Ten experiences were reported in our revival meeting.

I supervised the work of the World Mission Department which included writing a monthly letter to the overseers in the countries, preparing promotional materials, answering much correspondence, drafting legal documents, counseling and consulting with overseers and mission representatives, etc. In addition, I served on the following boards and committees: Ministerial Aid, World Missions, Youth Missions, Church Publishing and Bible Training Institute.

I owe a great debt to my faithful and efficient office staff, the mission representatives, overseers, mission corpsmen and fellow workers at headquarters. Their love, prayers and tolerance helped me through the year and I give thanks to our Lord for them.

Following is the statistical report on the countries:

Report of Mission Representative to Mexico, Central and South America
August 1, 1985 through July 31, 1986

"O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good: because his mercy endureth for ever." (Psalm 107:1)

I thank the Father, Son and Holy Ghost who have endowed me with their presence and have watched over my family during my times away from home.

Sincere appreciation to Wade Phillips, who has been a tremendous blessing to Latin America through the Mission Marker Program. This gesture of concern and brotherhood has sparked a zeal toward a "body" concept. The gratitude which these brethren feel is of such that words cannot convey.

There are yet many souls to be won for Christ and His Church; however, there are many wonderful events taking place in Latin America; we give God the glory. Many of the countries in this area continue to experience good growth, despite the turmoil in the land. People are being miraculously healed by the power of God. Thousands of souls are hearing the message of Jesus Christ, the Saviour of the world, and they are also coming in contact with the Body of Christ.

I had the privilege of visiting the Island of Cuba again. Ruben Carmona, Overseer of Mexico, made the trip with me, and we celebrated with them during their national convention. The people there are very excited about the doors that are opening for the Church. Roberto Lam, Overseer of Cuba, is in good health and is doing a fine job in leading the Church. Continue to pray for Cuba.

I have served in the World Mission Committee and the Youth Mission Board; visited 21 countries and 2 states; attended one ministers' convention. I served as General Headquarters Representative in 9 national conventions and served as an instructor for BTI in Brazil and Cleveland, TN. I also served on the staff to the International Youth Camp held in San Jose, Costa Rica.

To God be the glory. I covet your prayers for Mexico, Central and South America.

Tracts and publications were given out on occasion; visited 14 countries; attended these national conventions: Botswana, Swaziland, Sierra Leone, Ivory Coast, Finland, and Kenya; participated in Bible Training Institute in Finland, Greece, Kenya and South Africa.

I served as Overseer of France, Belgium and Egypt. Made several trips to France and Belgium as they had lay ministers for pastors and I had to officiate in the business meetings and the ordinances of the Church. Visited Egypt for a ministers' meeting. The national conventions in these three countries were called off due to the terrorist activities and because we were unable to obtain a place to conduct the conventions in Belgium and France. Revivals were conducted in France and Belgium: Levi Clarke in Alfortville, France and Juan Cain in Brussells, Belgium.

Duties Performed: Thank God for a good year's work and the progress made in all the islands. Attended the 80th General Assembly, Tomlinson College Banquet and General Overseer's banquet; attended Tomlinson College Board meetings before and during the Assembly. Taught in Bible Training Institute in St. Vincent and was the speaker for the closing of BTI in Trinidad; visited Puerto Rico to inspect property to be purchased for the development of our national youth camp centre and to construct a national tabernacle; assisted with the construction of several church buildings in the Bahamas. Assisted in the purchase of property in Haiti to be used for an orphanage. Visited the newly organized church in Guadeloupe and made a trip to Martinique to secure a building for a place of worship. Wrote five official letters to all national and regional overseers, except Brother Lam in Cuba, who was in contact with Raul Torres. Other personal letters were written to overseers and many telephone calls made to keep in constant contact with the overseers and to know of the state of the work all over the region.

Four issues of the Caribbean Messenger were published this year. Our Caribbean office secretary serves as assistant editor of the Caribbean Messenger and field clerk. My thanks to our General Overseer, World Mission Secretary and office staff.

Report of Military Service and Asia, Australia and Pacific Islands Mission Representative

August 1, 1985 through July 31, 1986

"He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law." Isaiah 42:4

My appreciation and thanks to all laborers responsible for raising mission funds; national/state overseers, members and friends, both civilian and military, with whom I have worked this year. I esteem you very highly for the work's sake.

Attended the 80th Annual General Assembly in which I served on the Counseling Committee; directed Military Service Program and reception; secured location and moderated International Leadership Conference in Metro Manila, Philippines. Served on World Mission Committee.

I have combined some of the work of these two offices where our military personnel are stationed and we have mission interests. Visited: Alabama, Alaska, Idaho, India, Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Philippines, Singapore, Tennessee, Thailand, Washington and West Germany. Attended 6 national conventions and 2 state conventions. Served as national overseer of Philippines, also was vice president of BTI and taught in that school; served as principal and taught in Indonesia BTI. Made photographs of various church activities which have been published in the White Wing Messenger and The Sentinel.

MILITARY SERVICE DEPARTMENT

I visited our military personnel in the United States and several other nations; attended and spoke in two retreats; attended and spoke at Christmas banquet Hope Mills, NC.

Our Chaplaincy program presently consists of: Major Douglas Stephenson, Maj. Guy Lindsey, Capt. Gerald Moates and Capt. Kurtes Quesinberry on active duty in the Army; Lcdr. Daniel Kurbis and Lt. Bill Reed, on active duty in the Navy; Capt. Jon Stovall on active duty with the Air Force. 1LT Anthony Charles has been endorsed to change from Army National Guard to Army Reserve. Charles Knauer has been endorsed for Air Force Reserve. Capt. J. E. Brisson with the Civil Air Patrol, presently inactive.

Retreats were conducted in Berchtesgaden, West Germany and Anchorage, AK as well as other special activities in many areas. A special prayer day on the third Sunday in February was observed by the Church in behalf of all in the military service.

The Servicemen's Center in Langen, West Germany continues to operate under the direction of Overseer Dennis Howard and those assisting him; they are to be highly commended for their labors of love.

The Sentinel mailing list numbers 1,134; 867 are individual recipients, 267 distributed at the general offices and mailed in bundles to pastors, overseers and others who work with the military. There have been 12 issues of the Department's monthly publication printed and approximately 235 packets containing 12 tracts and 2 copies of The Sentinel mailed to military personnel. The Department participated in two pastoral mailings furnishing information about ministering to the military. A regular flow of mail is received and answered.

The Church and its Representative and Ecclesiastical Endorsing Agent is listed with the Department of Defense, National Conference on Ministry to the Armed Forces (NCMAF), the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, the Civil Air Patrol, and the Air Force Reserve Chaplaincy program and corresponds with the Chief of Chaplains for each of these branches of the military service.

Report of General Sunday School Secretary
August 1, 1985 through July 31, 1986

I continue to find the work of the Sunday School Department to be exciting, challenging and rewarding. Its through the strength given by God and continued support of each overseer, state/national secretary-children's church director, pastor, superintendent and the lay leadership that any strides made during the year have been possible.

Attended and participated in: 1 state auxiliary TIPS session; 1 state youth and children's workers conference; 10 area Sunday school training sessions; 1 district youth meeting; 1 youth convention; and 3 state conventions.

Prepared for and directed the meeting of a state/national Sunday school and children's church directors prior to the 80th Annual Assembly; had oversight of the Sunday School Workshops and Children's Church sessions conducted; joined with the Victory Leaders Department in offering Celebration Saturday for the children—we ministered to approximately 900 children during two sessions.

Attended and taught workshops at the Mid-Atlantic Sunday Schools Convention in Charlotte, NC; attended the Greater Los Angeles Sunday School Convention; taught in the Cleveland, TN BTI. With the assistance of the Department and White Wing Press personnel, prepared these materials in English:

1986 Sunday School Week and High Attendance Day; theme—"Just For You"

1987 Outreach Campaign materials; theme—"Let Jesus Color Your World With Love"

1986-88 Sunday School Superintendent's Planning 12 Booklets of Bright Ideas for various age groups (this is a compilation of ideas taken from Helps and Hints)

Sunday School Helps and Hints (a quarterly publication for Sunday school workers distributed with the Sunday school literature

On Your Mark . . . Get Set . . . Grow! (a quarterly publication for children's church directors compiled by Kathy Creasy and distributed through the offices of the state/national children's church directors/boosters.)

One new Administrative Literature entitled "Teacher Self-Analysis and Improvement Guide" increases the total Administrative Literature to 15 pieces available in English

Made adjustments in several existing Sunday school materials.

Children's Day 1986 (Theme: New Horizons) was again jointly sponsored by the Sunday School and Victory Leaders Departments. Materials were prepared to assist in the promotion of this day in which we recognize the value of the children to each family and local church. Made materials available in English, Spanish, and French. We continue to note an increase in participation by the local churches. I feel the results of this special time of recognition for the children can never be properly judged by information given on the report.

Provided additional material in French and Spanish. From responses received, this is meeting a real need and is greatly appreciated. Published "Helps and Hints for Sunday School Workers" in both Spanish and French, and the publication, "On Your Mark . . . Get Set . . . Grow!" in Spanish. These materials are placed in the appropriate White Wing Messengers. Made additions to the administrative literature available in Spanish and French.

I sought to manage the affairs of the Department and have corresponded on a regular basis with overseers, Sunday school secretaries and children's church boosters, thus keeping a vital line of communication open to benefit the overall progress of the Sunday School Department. I have endeavored to answer all correspondence regarding the activities of the Department; sought input from others when questions may have needed special attention or information outside my personal resources.

I thank my office staff for their efforts on behalf of all Department responsibilites.

We realize in this critical time that our young people are our greatest asset as a Church and it has been an honor to be their servant-leader this year. During the past year, I have communicated with the state/national secretaries monthly through letters and through the Servant Update (a bulletin type resource letter).

I was assistant editor of the monthly youth publication, the Victory Leader (English, Spanish and French), which appears in the White Wing Messenger. I edited The Branch newsletter (English) which was mailed every two months to college students and single adults in the United States and Canada.

With the assistance of my staff, we have compiled and published two new resource books for local Victory Leaders Band directors, "Ministering to the Youth of His World" and "Reflections", compiled and published the "Idea Book" for State and National Secretaries, and the "Victory Leaders Band Ministries Calendar." We have also compiled a new Gleaner resource letter, "Gleanings for Gleaners" to be released quarterly. We have printed a new Youth Mission Team brochure, as well as compiling a Camp Resource Manual notebook for use by our state and national camps. I have overseen the compilation of the Guidepost, an idea book for camp directors, the International Camp Staff Manual, and the International Camp Yearbook, as well as a series of camp lessons for use by state and national camps.

I directed the twenty-third International Youth Camp at our own Camp Maranatha in High Point, NC with 249 in attendance; directed an International Youth Camp Outreach for Central America in San Jose, Costa Rica where 21 workers were certified as camp directors.

This year, I planned and moderated our first General Youth Conference, May 23-25, 1986, in Chattanooga, TN; 854 youth and workers came together for this weekend full of worship, sharing and learning; 25 workshops were conducted along with several general sessions. Many lives were changed through this ministry.

I attended the Georgia minister's convention, taught workshops at the I.C.E.A. Convention in Detroit, taught in a T.I.P.S. Conference in South Carolina, spoke at retreats in Kansas and North Carolina, in youth conventions and rallies in Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, East Texas, Southern California, Northern California, and Mexico and also attended national and state conventions as assigned by the General Overseer.

Our department spearheaded a Free Literature fund drive and a World Literature Outreach promotion entitled, "Piercing the Darkness," and supplied revised materials for International Youth Week.

I served as secretary of the Youth Mission Board and participated in planning and orientation of the Youth Mission Teams. This year there were two Youth Mission Teams to North America* with results as listed below.

Experiences 1986 Youth Mission Team endeavors:

Phoenix, Arizona: 38 saved, 34 sanctified, 2 received the Holy Ghost, and a new church was organized.

Aberdeen, South Dakota: 7 saved, 5 sanctified and 5 received the Holy Ghost.

*The European and African teams were cancelled this year due to the hostile world situation.

I served on the Bible Training Institute staff in Cleveland, TN, and on the Church Publishing Committee, and Communications Committee.

I am thankful for God's protection, anointing and strength this past year. The blessings of the Lord have been upon our young people and to God be the glory for every one that has been saved, sanctified, filled with the Holy Ghost and added to the Church of God.

It has been a great year, and I trust I have been a profitable servant for the Church, specifically to the women of the Church to whom I am responsible. Throughout the years, the mission work has continued to expand and new areas of service continues to challenge us. I pray that we will enter these avenues and, in so doing, conquer the vast unknown that lies before us. I have been in contact with all the state/national secretaries through correspondence, as well as with many of them personally. The Department has compiled and printed:

Mission Crusade Planning Booklet
Women in Profile #8 (the planning booklet for ladies' functions)
White Wing Messenger inserts known as "Women in Profile"
Helping Hand Ministry Brochure
Ladies Regional Retreat Brochure

The above materials, as well as all the instructional materials, have been printed in English, French and Spanish except the last two brochures and the Women in Profile Booklet #8.

The state/national secretaries' reported a decided move by the women in the area of Women Ministering Biblically. Bible studies have been reported which include: neighborhood coffees, Bible reading during coffee breaks on the job, Bible reading to shut-ins, backyard Bible clubs for neighborhood children. There has been an increase in the number of prayer groups as well as visitation, such as: shut-ins, convalescent centers, hospitals and private homes. A various number of activities for ministering to women were reported: ladies' breakfast/luncheon, ladies' day and ladies' retreats. There has been a great deal of interest shown by some states to conduct ladies' retreats.

My thanks to individuals and local churches who have participated in the Helping Hand Ministry; I acknowledge the state/national secretaries and overseers who have boosted this, and it has been an outstanding year for the program. A great spirit of concern has accompanied the donations. Because of this we have been able to assist more fields with buildings, transportation, ministers' support and with various other needs. Many of these countries have responded with gratitude for the kindness their brothers and sisters in Christ have shown.

This is a mammoth amd fascinating program when individuals realize they are personally helping someone on the mission field. This year we hope to bend our efforts in assisting the missonary with transportation. We will keep using the slogan, "Wheels for Missions." We will also endeavor to support more and more ministers. It is our desire to relieve the financial family burden of these people so they can give their time to the ministry.

I have corresponded with the national overseers regarding their needs which are now printed in the new Helping Hand Ministry brochure; had regular correspondence with the state/national secretaries by sending resource material intermittently throughout the year and served on the Youth Mission Board.

I was involved with the teaching ministry in the Cleveland, TN BTI; was happy to work closely with the students in the Advanced Study Course; conducted some mission rallies; taught the family seminar material in four state couples' retreats; prepared and taught a lesson concerning the pressures of the modern family in the International Youth Conference in Chattanooga.

My special thanks to the state/national overseers who have supported the Regional Ladies' Retreat program. This year I directed 11 regional retreats, including Canada, England and Honduras. The Honduras retreat included the Central American countries and was directed with an entire Spanish staff. Approximately 3700 ladies attended these retreats. There is no written record to give the results, such as the number receiving the various experiences of salvation. We only know that in each of these there were times when the power of the Holy Ghost swept through the buildings and many received the experiences of salvation as well as experiencing long lasting encounters with God that changed lives and hearts for a lifetime.

To God be the glory for all He has done. Thanks be unto God for men and women in all ranks of the ministry and serving in various offices, state and national, as well as the faithful members who have worked to make this report possible. Thanks to all of you, and my office staff.

Report of Tomlinson College President
August 1, 1985 through July 31, 1986

The college appreciates the good support by the general church maintenance department on the upkeep and repair of the campus facilities and grounds. We also would like to thank the general headquarters committees, overseers, pastors, state boosters, and members for their continued support.

The Department for Institutional Advancement was instituted for the purposes of establishing fund raising programs—i.e.—annual fund, scholarships, gifts, grants, etc.; also to introduce college improvement programs.

There is continued growth in the External Studies program. There are presently classes in South Carolina, North Carolina, and Alabama. Two classes in Tennessee and a class in Virginia will commence this fall. The total enrollment is expected to exceed 300. We appreciate very much the manner in which these state overseers and churches are fully behind this important ministry of Tomlinson College.

Several improvements have been made during the summer break, one of which was the installation of central heat and air in the girls' dormitory.

The college was fully accredited with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December, 1983. A standard practice in maintaining accreditation is to conduct periodic self-studies. The study is directed by the association and is very comprehensive. Its purpose is to maintain and improve institutional effectiveness and to provide the college's constituencies and the public with reliable professional judgments about quality education. Tomlinson College is presently in its first self-study which will be concluded in December, 1988.

A special thanks to the college administration, staff, faculty, all employees, and to my personal secretary for their allegiance to the mission of the college.

Have answered all mail received in the office; corresponded with national/state secretaries on a regular basis, and sent copies of materials as they developed.

Developed materials and revised The Honor Program.

Supervised the special CPMA edition of the White Wing Messenger and wrote several additional articles; also authored the book entitled, "God, the Church, and Revelation."

Supervised the continuation of Fields of the Wood development, including the construction of the Golgotha marker, and the Biblical Memorial Park marker. The Golgotha marker was dedicated during the Pre-Assembly Program this year; and the entire Park was re-dedicated. This was possible only with the hard work and capable assistance of Ted Carrol, Superintendent/Minister.

I was in charge of the Easter Program and Pageant; assisted General Overseer in the Thanksgiving and June 13 Anniversary Programs, the First Assembly , and the Pre-Assembly Programs.

Continued to boost and develope the Mission Markers Program, which provides funds for buildings and worship facilities in economically depressed areas of the world. A great deal of success has been realized. Initiated over 100 building programs in over 30 countries this year. To God be the glory, and to the economically depressed saints the benefits.

Taught BTI in Cleveland, TN; taught classes and preached in IYC in North Carolina. Representative to these state conventions: Michigan, Oklahoma, Wisconsin. Representative to Missouri Ministers' Convention. Guest speaker in Southern California Men's Retreat, Michigan Winter Retreat, and Oregon Youth Retreat. Representative to these youth conventions: California (Spanish), Pennsylvania, New Mexico, Florida. Held CPMA rallies and/or seminars in California (North), South Carolina, and Oklahoma; conducted revival/crusades in California (North), South Carolina, Kentucky, Maryland, and Georgia. Made trip to Central American/Carribean countries: Dominican Republic, Panama, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, El Salvador, Guatemala and Honduras; where we made a Mission Marker Film, entitled, "Making A Mission Possible." The film focuses on missions and the progress of the Mission Marker Program in these areas.

My appreciation for the hard work and faithful assistance of our CPMA office staff, national/state secretaries, pastors and leaders, the CPMA Committee, Fields of the Wood staff and workers, and especially to the General Overseer, for their cooperation and assistance in the wonderful accomplishments realized by the Department this year.

I served on the Editorial Commiteee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine. Many hours were spent reading manuscripts and church related materials for approval for printing and circulation.

It was a pleasure and experience to serve on Bible Training Institute Committee. Attended the regular and called meetings, when I wasn't on the field and discharged my duties as a committeeman.

Delightfully coordinated my efforts with the General Superintendent, General Representative, office secretaries and supply coordinator to fulfill my obligations. I personally corresponded with vice presidents, state and national representatives to secure places for schools and setting in order the administration for the schools that I was directly responsible for.

This has been another inspirational and informative year for the teaching ministry. In the classrooms, God supplies the divine unction and inspiration to teach and as a result the needs of the students were met. It is good to know the Truth and be set free by the same. This seemed to be the general feeling of the students in all our schools this year.

I appreciate the General Overseer, General Superintendent, Bible Training Institute Representative, office personnel in the department, people on the field and my family for helping me in so many ways to serve the Church as representative of Bible Training Institute and to "God be the Glory".

This has been an inspirational year that has edified me in different ways. I have seen wonderful things happen with many lives that I have been in contact with over twenty nationalities with the same hunger.

I appreciate the Lord for His mercy and the General Overseer, General Superintendent, office staff, general headquarters personnel, state/national overseers, my students and my family for their support and prayers this year. If we were able to be a blessing to someone, to God be the Glory.

NOTE TO MINISTERS AND TREASURERS: Fill in all reports accurately and completely. Write or print plainly. If assistance is needed, write to L. F. Kendrick, Box 2970, Cleveland, Tennessee 37311-2970.

TITHES: Members should pay their tithes into the treasury of the local church where they are members. Ministers send the tithes of income from the ministry with their monthly reports to the General Treasurer, and tithes on income outside the ministry are paid into the treasury of the local church where they are members.

The treasurer of the church is to send 10 per cent of tithes received each month with the treasurer's report to the appropriate address.

United States, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands—L. F. Kendrick, Box 2970 Cleveland, Tennessee 37311-2970.

Other reports should be addressed to The Church of God of Prophecy, General Headquarters Field Office in your respective area, or contact your Overseer.

The Assembly recommends that the Executive Committee be authorized to decide the allotments of Pastors, State Overseers and General Workers each year.

The Assembly recommends that the allotment of the General Overseer and that pay for incidental expenses plus any and all personal necessities be left to the discretion of the Executive Committee.

The treasurer of the local church sends 10% of the tithes received each month to the treasurer of his state or nation and 10% to General Treasurer. The pastor's allotment is paid from the balance, not to exceed the amount set by the Executive Committee; any remainder goes into the surplus tithes.

We recommend that the sum of $800 received each month by the General Appointees and the State Overseers be designated for rent and utilities. Should the rent and utilities be under the above amount, the remaining amount would be included as income. Where feasible, this is also applicable to pastors and full-time evangelists. (Note: This recommendation is for income tax purposes only, and involves no extra allotment.)

Surplus tithes accruing in any local church are to be left in the tithe fund account of the local church treasury until after the last Sunday in June, at which time it is properly divided: 10% to be sent to the General Treasurer to be used at the discretion of the Executive Committee; 25% to be sent to the state or national treasurer to be used at the discretion of the State or National Overseer and Finance and Appropriations Committee and the 65% left in the local church should be presented by the local Committee as a proposed budget plan for approval by the local church conference. First consideration be given to the pastor's expense in the ministry; said expenses being already defined in the Church Business Guide.

The Assembly recommends that all local church treasurers mail their reports to the state or national treasurer no later than the 5th of each month. From the funds received, the State or National Overseer would receive his allotment and expense (if funds are available) according to the rulings of the General Assembly.

The Executive Committee agrees that all General Appointees receive an allotment of $1,781.00 monthly, if funds are available; and that incidental expense incurred by these General Appointees be left to the discretion of the Executive Committee.

Overseers in the United States are to receive no more than $1,781.00 monthly, plus an amount not to exceed $200 a month for office expenses from the tithes received from the churches, if funds are available. Any funds in excess of this amount received by the treasurer are to be kept in the state treasury to be placed in the general state fund for the state work, especially to assist pastors of weaker churches.

The Executive Committee agrees that the pastor receive an amount not to exceed $1,781.00 monthly from the tithes of the local church after General Headquarters and the State Overseer have received their portions, if funds are available. This does not include offerings and poundings received by the pastor.

Allotments for Overseers outside the United States where there is not sufficient tithes to cover the allotments the remaining portion be supplied by making transfers of Tithe Funds between countries where this is legally permissible and from the United States Tithe Fund in other cases, if funds are available, and that each Overseer should receive an allotment in the currency of the country or the territory he represents according to the average prevailing wage rates of each country.

The Assembly has ruled that tithes are for the support of the ministry only. Surplus tithes received at General Headquarters are disbursed at the discretion of the Executive Committee. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all tithes sent to General Headquarters. We recommend that the tithes of non-members that are paid into the local church treasury be paid through the regular channel the same as the tithes of members.

The Committee calls your attention to the fact that it does not say of ministers only; rather, of the ministry only. Ministry is defined as the office, duties, or functions of a minister; the building in which the business of the ministry is transacted; thus, the ministry includes any and all phases of the Church ministry, such as church property, equipment, maintenance, etc.

HERITAGE CARE FUND: [Mission Homes for Children] All Heritage Care Fund offerings remain in the local church treasury and are turned in at the state/national convention and Assembly. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 10% to be returned to the local church; 20% to be retained by the state/national treasury for improving, building and maintaining the headquarters; the remaining balance to be subsequently divided: 10% to the general treasury, 10% to the state/national treasury, 10% to Ministerial Aid, 35% to Tomlinson College and 35% to Mission Homes for Children. The General Treasurer sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state/nation to the respective state/national treasurer for the general state/national fund. The Assembly has recommended that 10% of the Assembly offerings of the Heritage Care Fund be retained by General Headquarters for General Properties, 40% for Tomlinson College and 40% for Mission Homes for Children.

EMERGENCY FUND: All ministers and members are to pay one dollar a year, or the amount set by the World Mission Committee where applicable, into the treasury of the local churches where their memberships are, and the treasurer sends the emergency dollars as collected with his monthly report. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all emergency money sent to General Headquarters.

GENERAL PROPERTIES FUND: The Assembly recommended that the General Property Dollar be discontinued.

The Assembly recommends these portions be designated as General Properties Fund:

1. Not less than 50% of the CPMA membership each year after 10% is deducted for Ministerial Aid;
2. 50% of the CPMA state convention offerings which presently remain in the state treasury;
3. 10% of the state and national convention offerings and Assembly offerings of Bible Training Institute.
4. 10% of the Assembly offerings of Heritage Care Fund and Bible Training Institute.

The Assembly recommends that if there should be any deficit occuring in the General Properties Fund in making the monthly payments, such deficit be paid from the General Fund.

MISSION MONEY: The second Sunday mission offering and mission money raised by other means remain in the local church treasury and are turned in at the state and national convention and Assembly. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 10% to be returned to the local church; for the improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state convention mission offering is to remain in the state treasury. The General Treasurer receives 10% of the balance and the state treasurer keeps 10%, or an equal amount. Half of the remainder (40% of the balance after the state deducts the state headquarters maintenance portion) is left in the state for the general state fund, and half sent to the General Treasurer as world mission money.

The General Treasurer receives all mission money collected in the March and October drives for world missions. It is to be sent with the local treasurer's monthly report. All mission offerings at the Assembly are turned in to the General Treasurer as world mission money. The General Treasurer sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of the mission money sent to the General Treasurer.

FIRST SUNDAY OFFERING: Each local church receives an offering for the pastor on the first Sunday of each month.

DISTRICT OVERSEERS SUPPORT: The Assembly recommends that a love offering be received for the district overseer in his district convention. If the district overseer is requested by the State Overseer to perform a duty involving considerable expense, the State Overseer will be responsible for such expense.

FOURTH SUNDAY OFFERING: The local church treasurer sends the full amount of the Fourth Sunday offering to the State/National Treasurer to be designated and used as Overseer's expense. If there is not sufficient fourth Sunday offerings to cover his expense as Overseer, the excess tithes in the state/national treasury may be used to supplement the fourth Sunday offerings. DO NOT send any of the fourth Sunday offerings to the General Treasurer. Each local church should receive poundings for the Overseer once or twice a year.

VICTORY LEADERS BAND OFFERING: All money raised for the Free Literature Fund by the Victory Leaders is given in at the state or national convention and Assembly. Money for the expense of the band should be received in a special offering. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 10% to be returned to the local church; for the improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state or national convention free literature offering is left in the state treasury. The General Treasurer receives 10% of the balance and the state treasurer retains 20% for the general state fund. The balance is sent to the White Wing Publishing House. The Assembly Free Literature Offering is given to the World Language Department. The White Wing Publishing House sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all free literature and world literature outreach monies received by the White Wing Publishing House, and the balance is disbursed by the Church Publishing Committee.

ASSEMBLY EXPENSE: To assist in the expense of the annual assemblies, the State Overseers are asked to collect funds each year and send to the General Treasurer.

a. The Assembly recommends that churches having less than 50 in Sunday School contribute annually $2.00 to Assembly expense; churches with Sunday School attendance between 50 and 100 are to contribute $3.00 annually; and churches averaging over 100 in Sunday School are to contribute $5.00 annually.

b. The Assembly recommends that each Victory Leaders Band contribute $2.00 annually; the Assembly recommends that each Women's Missionary Band contribute $2.00 annually, and that each minister, including deacons and lay ministers, contribute $1.00 annually.

c. The Assembly recommends that the pastors be responsible for collecting the Assembly Expense Dollars for the auxiliaries and forward to the State Overseer, and the State Overseer be responsible to collect the dollars from the ministers in his state. These funds are to be mailed to the General Treasurer as collected. The final report of the Assembly expense should be given by the Overseer with the state convention report to the General Treasurer, and the State Secretaries be responsible to the State Overseer to boost and assist in collecting these funds.

CHURCH OF PROPHECY MARKER ASSOCIATION: To be a member of the Church of Prophecy Marker Association, you pay $5.00 a year, and it may be paid any time during the year. For the local church to receive credit in the Honor Program, it must be paid before the honor sheet is filled in by the pastor; in other nations, to become a member you pay an amount set by the Overseer and CPMA Committee.

CPMA offerings remain in the local church treasury and are given in at the state convention. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 10% to be returned to the local church; 20% of the CPMA state convention offering remains in the state treasury for improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters; 10% of the balance is sent to the General Treasurer, and an equal amount, or 10% is sent to the state treasurer for the state work, and an equal amount, or 10% is sent to the General Treasurer for the Ministerial Aid Fund. Of the amount presently remaining in the state treasury, 50% is to be sent to the General Treasurer for the General Properties Fund. Not less than 50% of CPMA membership fees each year, after 10% is deducted for Ministerial Aid, is to go to the General Properties Fund.

BIBLE TRAINING INSTITUTE: The Assembly recommends that the pastors be responsible for conducting weekly classes in the local churches to acquaint our people with the doctrine and practices of the Church. Offerings received in the classes are turned in at the state convention to assist Bible Training Institute in teaching the Church doctrine in other nations. It is recommended that 10% of state and national convention offerings and Assembly offerings of Bible Training Institute be sent to General Headquarters for the General Properties Fund.

Deeds for Church Property

The following resolution was adopted by the 58th Annual Assembly of the Church of God of Prophecy, held in Cleveland, Tennessee, September 10-16, 1963:

WHEREAS it has been advised by competent attorneys that specific mention of proper authorities be stated in an effort to ease the complications arising in our endeavors to be recognized by the courts, and to facilitate the handling of deeds to our church properties,

BE IT RESOLVED that trustees to hold title to local church property for the Church of God of Prophecy with international headquarters at Cleveland, Tennessee, be selected by the local church either in a regular or called business meeting, said trustees to be vested with authority to bargain, buy, sell, convey or encumber such property by mortgage or otherwise only when authorized to do so by the local church in regular or called business meeting, and with the consent of the General Trustees.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said consent of the General Trustees be evidenced by a separate writing or by the signature of the Chief Clerk of the said General Trustees, such documents to be notarized.

BE IT RESOLVED that state church trustees appointed by the State Overseer to hold title to property for the Church of God of Prophecy with international headquarters at Cleveland, Tennessee, be vested with authority to bargain, buy, sell, convey, or encumber such property by mortgage with the consent of the General Trustees. This applies to property being held by state trustees where churches have been disbanded or are too weak to function and to property which has been given to the state. All other property with title in the state trustees or a state Holding Association may be disposed of or mortgaged only by the consent of the state convention in session (modified in 1981).

Note: The following Warranty Deed form has been prepared by the General Trustees and should be used where it is possible to do so. Blank forms may be secured from the General Trustees.

World Must Be Evangelized

It will take good organization and systematic methods to accomplish this task.

God's power is demonstrated in proportion to the unity and oneness of His people.

The members of the early Church were all of one accord, steadfast in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and the multitude that believed were of one heart and one soul, and great grace was upon them all and mighty results followed as a consequence of their perfect unity and careful organization.

We must banish from our minds the thoughts of individual or local independence and haphazard spasmodic efforts.

Pull together, pull at once, pull steadily all the time is the road to success.

All members should be ready to center their minds and prayers on the one thing, as a unit, when calls for special prayer are made. Each should feel his or her part of the responsibility, remembering that when one member fails, it cripples or dwarfs the body until the matter pending may fail.

Local Church Officers and Leaders

1. Pastor: It is the duty of the State or National Overseer to supply every church under his jurisdiction with a pastor. Pastors are to be appointed at the state or national convention and vacancies will be filled as they occur. The duties of the pastor expire at midnight the last Sunday in July at the church he is leaving and automatically begin at the same time at the church to which he is moving.

2. Clerk: The local church clerk is to be appointed by the pastor at the same time as the other leaders and officers by the pastor during the first two months of his pastoral year; said appointments to be ratified in the following quarterly conference.

3. Treasurer: The treasurer is appointed in the same manner as the clerk. It is advised that one person serve as both clerk and treasurer when satisfactory to the local church. The treasurer will receive and disburse all funds of the local church including tithes, auxiliary funds and special funds and will maintain an accurate record of all receipts and disbursements.

4. Auxiliary Leaders: Leaders for the five auxiliaries--Sunday School, Womens Missionary Band, Victory Leaders Band, Church of Prophecy Marker Association, Assembly Band Movement —are appointed by the pastor during the first two months of his pastoral year.

Each pastor, with the assistance of the deacons, should divide his members into bands of ten or twelve and appoint a leader for each band. The leader should keep in touch with each member of the band, and if any should move away, communication should be kept up by correspondence. This is for the mutual, spiritual, temporal, and social benefit of the members. The pastor should keep in close touch with the band leaders.

5. Local Trustees: Trustees to hold title to local church property are selected by the local church in a regular or called business meeting and are authorized to bargain, buy, sell, convey or encumber the local property only when authorized to do so by the local church in a regular or called business meeting, and with the written consent of the General Trustees.

6. Other Officers and Leaders: The Assembly has authorized the pastor to appoint a Church Literature Representative, Public Relations Director, Bible Training Institute Booster and any other leaders during the first two months of his pastoral year.

Business Meetings

Each local church should hold a regular business conference quarterly. It has been the practice to observe the first Monday night in January, April, July, and October for the conference. A meeting may be called any time by the pastor or State Overseer. A short business meeting may be held at the beginning or close of a meeting for worship.

The pastor should act as moderator of all business meetings. If there is no pastor, the State Overseer has authority to act or appoint a licensed male minister to preside. Where one pastor has the care of several churches, he may arrange the business meetings for his convenience.

Every member should attend every business session if possible. Women are to take no open part in discussing or deciding questions, but should always be there and silently pray that God will give wisdom and direct the men.

Matters should be discussed with love, humility and meekness. No votes should be taken to decide questions. Everything should be done with one accord and questions settled by mutual agreement. If there is division on a matter, hold it over until all can agree, If one should seem obstinate and contrary, do not run the matter over him, but take up his case and investigate the cause of his obstinacy; if he shows a good spirit so that he can be heard, then show him courtesy. If he proves to be wrong, deal with him as the Bible directs. Then, take up the original subject and dispose of it in harmony and love.

If a matter cannot be settled satisfactorily by the local church, they should call for the assistance of the State Overseer. If they are still unable to reach a satisfactory conclusion, it should be referred to the General Overseer.

No one should give a message in tongues to the church unless there is an interpreter present, and then only one at a time and not more than three in a whole session.

Suggested Arrangement and Order of Business

Moderator, clerk, treasurer should occupy seats on the platform. Deacons and other ministers seated nearby.

Song service and prayer. Scripture lesson, and prayer by the moderator asking for wisdom and direction. Song.

Clerk read minutes of last regular meeting and any called meetings.

Correction of minutes, if any.

Treasurer give report of finances and always give an itemized statement of receipts and disbursements and balance in treasury.

Leader of the WMB give report of the work of the band, including finances, receipts and disbursements.

Victory Leaders Director give report of the work and progress of the band, including finances, receipts, and disbursements.

Pastor give report of the ABM work, amount of money raised monthly, numbr of strays found and brought back (Luke 15:4-6), and give account of every member of his flock (Hebrews 13:17).

Report of CPMA Leader—number of members and receipts.

The Sunday School Superintendent give report of the work and progress of the school, including finances, receipts and disbursements.

Report of church literature representative.
Acceptance of transfers.
Members to transfer.
Unfinished business.
New business.
Miscellaneous business.
Adjournment by prayer.

Advice to Members

As a member, you count one and should attend every regular service as far as possible. Remember no one can fill you place and the service will be that much dwarfed and crippled without your presence.

Show love and fellowship to everyone without partiality. Don't wait for others to greet you but you greet them.

Show special courtesy to strangers who may attend one of your services.

As a rule, take part in the singing.

Be ready for vocal prayer when called on or prompted by the Spirit.

Be ready for testimony when such is in order.

Stand by your pastor or appointed leader and assist him in every way you can.

Always pray silently for the preacher while he delivers the message. Always live a consecrated life at home and abroad so no one can justly think or speak of you as a hypocrite.

Guard your conversation. Be careful what you say about a brother, sister, or anyone else.

Don't be a critic and try to find something in others to criticize.

Examine yourself occasionally and see if you are in the faith.

Don't yield to discouragement or despondency.

Be cheerful and happy and try to make others the same.

Spend as much time as you can in secret prayer. Give yourself all you can to intercessory prayer. Daily prayers and study of God's Word are necessary and very important for the spiritual welfare of each child of God; therefore, everyone is urged to faithfully maintain as far as is possible family worship at home at least once a day.

Your dress should be with moderation, neat and clean, but not for show. Moderation includes paying moderate prices for clothing, wearing dresses of high-enough necklines, low-enough hemlines, sleeves of reasonable length. The wearing of extremely sheer fabrics is unbecoming to a saint and the wearing of shorts in public should never be practiced. You should never wear gold for ornament or decoration. Finger rings, bracelets, earrings, necklaces, lockets and large showy pins—these are also unbecoming to a saint of God. Rouge, lipstick, nail polish and extremely costly perfumes are used to satisfy the pride of life and therefore they should have no place in the lives of those who love God. Please read and study these Scriptures often: 1 Peter 3:3, 4; 1 Timothy 2:9, 10 and 1 John 2:15-17.

You should not permit yourself to be trapped by worldly attractions. The Bible says, "Neither give place to the devil." Dabbling with worldly amusements like professional ball-games, horseraces, stockcar races, wrestling arenas, skating rinks, motion picture houses or drive-in theaters, bowling alleys and going swimming where men and women both use the same bathing area would give the devil a foothold or place in you life.

Always tithe your income and put it in the church treasury. Make freewill offerings other than your tithes.

Younger members should not keep company or associate too intimately with worldly outsiders.

Because of the ever-increasing number of broken homes, separations, divorces and remarriages, the greatest care should be taken with much prayer and consideration regarding proposed matrimony.

A member who may have a living companion should not marry another under any circumstances even if divorced. Neither should a member marry anyone who has a living companion although such a person may be divorced.

Children are an heritage from the Lord. Those who have children are responsible to teach them at an early age to reverence the house of God. This should be done by setting a good example before them and by instructing them with such a good spirit that they will have a strong desire to serve the Lord. MINISTERS are to meet all of the requirements in being examples to the members by keeping their children under reasonable control at all times and by restraining them from running about over the house of God, especially while the services are in progress.

The White Wing Messenger is a very important part of the Church of God. It should be read regularly be every member and your interest in advertising the Church should be so great that when you have finished reading your copy, you would pass it along to someone else. Every member who possibly can should subscribe, and each minister is asked to be a "paid-up" subscriber and an earnest worker for our church paper—The White Wing Messenger.

These are the last days and perilous times have come and it will require much watchfulness and humble prayer for you to so live and act that you will never bring reproach on the worthy name of Christ and His Church that you so much love.

Never form too close an intimacy with the opposite sex even if they are brothers and sisters in the Lord. Give no place to the adversary. Abstain from the very appearance of evil.

These kindly instructions and advices are given by those who are watching for your soul as they must give an account (Hebrews 13:17), and it is hoped they will be received with the same meek, gentle spirit in which they are given.

Duties of State and National Overseers

Each overseer is to have the oversight of his state, nation or territory, and together with the General Overseer, will form the presbytery in his respective area. In addition to his general responsibility for the work under his jurisdiction, he will be responsible for specific duties:

To conduct or order a general evangelistic campaign during the year. If there are only a few churches in the state or area assigned him, he will serve primarily as an evangelist, evangelizing in new fields and endeavoring to establish new churches. If his area has a large number of churches and ministers, he will be responsible to organize and direct the evangelistic efforts of his workers in new fields.

To see that every church is supplied with a pastor.

To divide his state or territory into districts and place over each district an overseer as previously practiced. This is not a rule, but it is considered best when there are sufficient churches to make it practical. He should conduct district meetings at intervals during the year where special instructions concerning the work can be given.

To hold one general convention each year in the area most convenient for members from all the churches to attend.

To secure the name and address of every bishop, deacon, and evangelist under his jurisdiction and keep a record of these so he can report to the General Overseer, if necessary. He will also issue lay minister's certificates and keep the necessary records concerning them.

Keep an accurate record of the location of every church and the number of members in his territory, keeping a record of the increase so this information can be reported each year. This can be done by keeping in touch with the clerks of the churches. Every minister and clerk should take an interest in imparting this information to the overseer. All new organizations should be reported to the overseer.

To visit every district and church, if possible, and look after the interests in every way, as a pastor over a large circuit.

Duties of District Overseer

The district overseers are to be appointed by the State Overseer:

To moderate business conferences for women preachers who may be acting as pastors and for male pastors who are not licensed.

To do evangelistic work in his district. If he has a district with no churches, it is his duty to evangelize and organize churches.

To conduct district conventions according to the instructions of the State Overseer.

To assist the State Overseer, when called upon, in all things relating to church work and he is subject to the State Overseer.

Obligation for Membership in the Church of God of Prophecy

Will you sincerely promise in the presence of God and these witnesses that you will accept this Bible as the Word of God—believe and practice its teachings rightly divided—the New Testament as your rule of faith and practice, government and discipline, and walk in the light to be best of your knowledge and ability?

The minister who administers this obligation should see that every applicant replies in the affirmative. In taking the obligation, applicants should think of it as being a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

Teachings of the Church of God of Prophecy

The Church of God of Prophecy stands for the whole Bible rightly divided—the New Testament as the only rule of government and discipline.

Important Bible Truths:

REPENTANCE—Mark 1:15; Luke 13:3; Acts 3:19.

JUSTIFICATION—Romans 5:19; Titus 3:7.

REGENERATION—Titus 3:5; Ephesians 2:1, 4, 5.

BORN AGAIN—John 3:3; 1 Peter 1:23; 1 John 3:9.

SANCTIFICATION subsequent to Justification—Romans 5:2; 1 Corinthians 1:30; 1 Thessalonians 4:3; Hebrews 13:12; 1 John 1:9.

HOLINESS—Luke 1:74, 75; 1 Thessalonians 4:7; Hebrews 12:14.

WATER BAPTISM—Matthew 28:19; Mark 1:8-10; John 3:22, 23; Acts 8:21, 36-38; 10:47, 48; 16:33; 19:3-5.

BAPTISM WITH THE HOLY GHOST subsequent to cleansing, the enduement of power for service—Matthew 3:11; Luke 24:49-53; Acts 1:4-8.

SPEAKING IN TONGUES as the evidence of the Baptism with the Holy Ghost—John 15:26; Acts 2:4; 10:44-46; 19:6.

FULL RESTORATION OF THE GIFTS TO THE CHURCH—1 Corinthians 12:1, 7-10, 28, 31; 1 Corinthians 14:1.

SIGNS FOLLOWING BELIEVERS—Mark 16:17-20; Romans 15:18, 19; Hebrews 2:4.

FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT—Romans 6:22; Galatians 5:22, 23; Ephesians 5:9; Philippians 1:11.

DIVINE HEALING provided for all in the atonement—Psalm 103:3; Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17; James 5:14-16; 1 Peter 2:24.

THE LORD'S SUPPER—Luke 22:17-20; 1 Corinthians 11:23-33.
