Prefatory Notes

Many times during the 78th Assembly we lifted our hearts and voices in praise to God. Now that the Assembly is over and we reflect upon those wonderful days of sitting together in a heavenly place, we want to lift our hearts and voices again in thanksgiving to God for the special manifestations of His presence we experienced. Each song, each prayer, each message, each auxiliary program, in fact, all that transpired seemed to be especially inspired of God to touch and bless the 21,684 registered delegates to this spiritual feast.

The preaching was with power and the Word of God burned within hearts who had gathered together with a deep hunger to hear from Heaven. One could sense an excitement among the people who seemed eager to return to their fields of labor to proceed with the work of spreading this last days message in their communities and cities.

In addition to our people who came from all fifty states, there were fifty other nations represented. This number of people represented a wide variety of cultures from around the world, and it was so pleasant to witness the unity with which they joined together to worship and serve the Lord.

Pre-Assembly events included, in addition to the services in the local churches on Sunday, an appreciation breakfast hosted by the Cleveland/Bradley County Chamber of Commerce, the Tomlinson College Scholarship Fund Banquet, the Annual Presbytery meeting and dinner and the Fields of the Wood Program.

We appreciate the good coverage provided by the news media, as well as the hospitality of the officials and citizens of Cleveland and Bradley County. Without this hospitality by the local citizens the motel accommodations would in no way be sufficient to house the large number of delegates.

Much labor and planning went into this week-long gathering, and all who cooperated are to be commended for their efforts. Every department of the Church was ably promoted during the various sessions, and we sincerely appreciate our faithful workers. To God be the glory for all that was accomplished, because it is for His glory that the Assemblies are conducted.

The 79th Annual General Assembly will be held, God willing, September 4-10, 1984.

8:02 Which Hope We Have As An Anchor of the Soul—message by E. L. Jones, General Field Secretary. (He prayed.) Excerpts: The writer of Hebrews wrote under divine inspiration. There was constant threat of some relapsing into Judaism. One of the chief purposes was to show the transcendent glory of Christ and Grace Dispensation, as compared with Moses and the Law. Even though some were entertaining the new, they were holding to the old; nothing was greater to them than Moses, the Law and the Tabernacle. It was hard for them to see the glory of Jesus. A lot of people say they know God but their works prove they don't. Hebrews 1:1-6; Deuteronomy 6:4-9. They had been taught this through the years; it was to them like John 3:16 is to us. Deuteronomy 10:17; 7:21; 32:39; Exodus 34:14; Isaiah 46:10,11.

How could we reflect on the creation and not consider Who the Creator is. In the beginning was God. You don't have to read a long resume; and give DD's behind His name. That doesn't mean this was the beginning of God; but it shows when God began to reveal Himself through His works. 2 Chronicles 6:18; Psalm 139:3, 5, 7-10; Hebrews 1:1, 2; 7:14-17; 6:13-15.

Jesus taught us the fatherhood of God—the great and marvelous Spirit of the universe, Who omnipotent reigneth, and looks everywhere at all times. You don't have to defend Him or have to qualify Him. Jesus said when you pray refer to Him as MY FATHER. You worship God in your talk, when you sit down, when you rise up and when you walk by the way.

Abraham was spoken of as the first, if not the greatest, of the patriarchs, his background was idolatry; and he knew nothing about the living God. God spoke to him and told him to get out from his kindred into a land He would show Abraham. We are in troubled times, but we are not the only ones experiencing frustrations. He alludes to Abraham who separated himself from idolatry. God had told Abraham He was going to bless him; those that bless you, I will bless; he that curseth you, I will curse.

It was a time of trial waiting on the promise of God that he would have a son. Sarah was already past age. When Sarah invented that program with Haggai, Abraham went along with it. We have marvelous promises in the Church of God, but it seems like we are in a time of trouble and trial. God not only promised Abraham, but He confirmed by oath. We are taught in the Church not to swear, but God can swear because He can back it up. It is impossible for God to lie. Everything comes out of the mind of God. Not only Abraham did God bless, but many others mentioned in Hebrews 11. The Bible calls it faith. We have a hope if we will hold on. I will let nothing separate me now. Abraham was tested as many others; he obtained a new revelation of the Messiah when his son was returned to him.

Peter said to count it not strange when the fiery trials come. Don't you know God has pledged to care for His Church forever? Jesus said, I will be with you all way, even unto the end of the world. This is the promise of God, and salvation is free; Jesus is able regardless of the circumstance. Time fails me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Jephthah, Sampson, David, Samuel and the prophets who through faith subdued kingdoms, brought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the bonds of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness made strong; turned to fight armies, women received the dead raised to life again, others were tortured; Jesus spoke to the tomb of Lazarus and he came forth. I am looking for a better resurrection. Hebrews 10:22-24, 12:1,2; 2:1. If you are faithful, one day the Church of God will sit down. Don't trifle with God and the Church. 2 Peter 2:4-10. We may boldly say the Lord will help us in the Church of God. We are not afraid of the world, but the guy next to us or the committeeman across the table from us. I don't agree with everything I see, and God doesn't agree with everything He sees. 1 Peter 1:13-16. Church of God, be ye holy.

When I was at the convention in Belize, I sat at the same table each day to eat my meals. I noticed a little boat named Cry Baby, and it was tied to the pier. No one ever came and cut it loose, so it was not free to do as the other boats. It would struggle, crying out to be set free. I reflected how many in the Church today are tossing to and fro crying to be set free to sail up and down like other people—to do their own thing. The Church of God is anchored to Jesus Christ and cannot be cut loose. Does your anchor hold? The ships at sea drop their anchor down, but the Church of God's anchor goes up. It is tied to Jesus Christ. (Dale Vicars directed music and singing during altar service.)

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7

AFTERNOON

1:17 Organ music by Jenna Allen; two songs led by Duke Stone with Shirlene Stone, pianist; Gloria Hart, organist. Psalm 46 read by Allen Davis; requests for prayer were given and prayer by Roger Moore, followed by concert prayer.

1:46 Opening of the 78th General Assembly by the General Overseer. Read Isaiah 49:18-23; 2 Peter 1:4. A fervent hope which many Christians are proclaiming is the Second Coming of Jesus, which is a prominent teaching of the Church of God. We want to always keep the promise of His coming before us. The Church does not look for Jesus to come without preparations for His return being completed. Our commission is not just to go and make converts; but also to fulfill Jesus' words of, "Teaching them to observe all things . . ." as recorded in Matthew 28:20. The uniting of His children in one body is prominent among His teachings, and this is to occur before the Rapture. Isaiah 49:18. We believe that Jesus will gather in one the children of God who are scattered abroad. The Church's responsibility is to get in full accord with its Head for the finishing of this great work, and that is the purpose of our gathering in this Assembly. We must rid ourselves of all ideas and concepts, which cannot be reconciled with His Word as contained in the holy Scriptures. 2 Timothy 4:2. The Church will be sanctified with the "washing of water by the Word." (General Overseer prayed.)

2:29 Because of the Truth—message by M. T. Linkous, General Field Secretary. Excerpts: There are two kinds of truth: the human truth and the divine truth. Zechariah 8:16,17. (Brother Linkous prayed.) Evil imaginations helped to destroy the old world. We are responsible for one another and it is time that we do our best to uphold one another in truth.

When you go to court, you are to tell the truth. Truth can never be improved on; is strong enough to hold you and me up. When we tell the truth we are free from deceitfulness; it does not come in degrees; it is 100 percent all the time. We need to tell the truth in the Church of God. You don't have to force truth. We may make a mistake or even sin; it was not the truth which hurts; it was the sin committed. Truth won't hurt you.

We have been trying to find the keynote to more power; more help in the Church of God. God wants honest people to work through. I cannot expect God to bless me with His divine truth if He can't trust me with human truth. Suppose I owe a certain amount of tithes and only pay part. It is not the pastor I pay my tithes to that gives me my blessings; I pay my tithes and God will bless me. Leviticus 27:30. I believe that at least 10 percent of my salvation is finance. Malachi 3:10; Matthew 23:23. We can figure how much we don't owe; when we eat in a restaurant, you don't mind leaving the waitress a tip; that does not pay the bill. Church of God, it is time we quit tipping the Lord.

Thank God for the laity, but don't look at your pastor's car and where he lives to see whether you pay tithes. It would be a shame if I looked in the Assembly Minutes to see how much money we have at General Headquarters and say, "They don't need it; I will keep it." I want God to bless me and hear me when I pray; to open the windows of heaven and pour me out a blessing. If we want God to bless us, we had better honor and praise Him and serve Him in all truth. Psalm 60:4.

God gave the banner to the Church through divine revelation; accepted it through the General Assembly in 1933 because of the truth. You ought to be the happiest person in the world because you are a member of the Church of God. Don't ever be guilty of thinking you are going to leave it. The Church of God is going to feed its members; everybody is going to help one another. We must love, seek and keep the truth in order to rightly display the banner. Truth is being honest and reporting events factually; it is the will of God. I need not expect God to let me operate the gifts of the Spirit if I can't tell the truth nor love my brother. Isaiah 55:8, 9. The truth of God is beyond our human comprehension. God has solved that problem by divine revelation through His Word and His Son. John 17:17; 14:6; 8:31b, 32; 3:16. The Word, Prophets and Jesus are the TRUTH. Hebrews 1:1, 2; Psalm 60:4.

There is more to it than just getting saved, sanctified and baptized with the Holy Ghost. If you will continue in my Word, ye shall know the truth, and it will make you free—not free holiness nor from being governed, but free from doubt, foolish and unlearned questions which gender strife, finding fault with the Church and free from self-will. The Holy Ghost will take care of the Church of God. John 14:16, 17; 16:13, 14. We are seeking the mind of God. He has brought me thus far, and I am not going to back down now. The Holy Ghost is not only to shake our bodies, but, He is to guide us into all truth. We need not seek God for Divine Truth if we can't handle human truth. The Holy Ghost is not going to work Linkous' program; He is going to work His program which is to reveal unsearchable riches of divine truths to His Body. 1 Corinthians 2:9, 10.

It is time we be different from anyone else because of the truth. When God gets ready to finish this work, He will complete it. Don't you let the Church of God down; if you will tell, live, act and be the truth, God will favor Zion. 1 Corinthians 2:12, 13. As we take on the mind of Christ, we will be more receptive to the teaching of the Holy Ghost and will come into ever increasing understanding of the truth. Soon the Church will be ready for Christ to come and take away His Bride Who will be clean, pure, white and washed in the Blood of the Lamb without spot or wrinkle, because of the truth.

3:15 Ministerial Aid Program, directed by Roy D. Mixon, Director. Theme: Chosen Vessels. Brother Mixon led congregation in singing "Victory in Jesus." Concert prayer. "The Lord's Prayer" sung by Teresa Pittman; concert prayer in their native languages: Antonios Charalambou, Greece; Malvern L. Dube, Botswana; Felix Santiago, Puerto Rico.

3:36 Able Ministers of the New Testament—message by G. A. Wilson. Excerpts: 2 Corinthians 3:4-6. My text is saying that we must have superior ability in the New Testament, able to rightly divide the Word. This Book is the inspired Word of God. John 1:1, 2, 14. Jesus had no sermon; He spoke the Words of His Father. He as much as said that the things I do is what He has sent me to do. Able ministers will take more than secular training. Philippians 3:7, 8. Paul, even though he obtained knowledge as an able scholar, counted it all loss that he might gain. 2 Timothy 3:16. I need God to tell me what to do because all Scriptures are given by inspiration of God. Paul realized he had to have God working in his life—not inspiration of Paul nor commentaries, but inspiration from God. Colossians 2:2, 3.

Paul says that our sufficiency is of God—all that is needed. In Him are hid all the treasures. Man knows about man, but the things of God knoweth no man. God reveals them to us through the Spirit. 1 Corinthians 2:10; 2:1-5. The Holy Ghost knows the Word of God. We in the Church are going to have to recognize the Holy Ghost. When things come from God, that makes an able minister. We have had problems in the churches and have used everything we could think of and asked others how to solve them. The Holy Ghost searcheth all things of God, and where it is hid, He is able to reveal it to us. When Paul preached, he had love all over him. How could you preach on love if you don't love the people? Your faith cannot withstand the wisdom of men.

4:03 Song by Hickory Valley Trio (Chattanooga, TN).

4:08 Memorial Tribute by Director: Malachi 3:17. The first time I heard a minister in the Church speak concerning this particular verse of Scripture was in 1954 at the Georgia State Convention. The speaker was Bishop Charlie R. Payne. He had attended a funeral in another state and was relating how God had reached down and plucked a beautiful jewel.

In 1980, God gathered some more jewels and Brother Payne was one of them. Every year God gathers His jewels from various parts of the world. It seems that this year He has gathered a few more than usual; not only among the ministers whom we pay tribute to today, but also among the laity of the Church world-wide.

"They shall be mine, saith the Lord . . . when I make up my jewels." What an honor! To be the Lord's jewel means to be "a chosen one." These gallant soldiers of the cross, whom we pay tribute to today, are men and women who were chosen vessels of the Lord.

The word of the Lord came to them in 2 Timothy 2:20, 21. I feel that these brave men and women were vessels of honor . . . chosen of the Lord; men and women who followed after righteousness, faith and peace, and called on the Lord with a pure heart. They did not strive but were gentle unto all men, apt to teach and patient.

Some of them were Bishops, blameless, husbands of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behavior, given to hospitality, apt to teach. Others were Deacons, grave, who held the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience . . . men who were found blameless. Others were Evangelists, neglecting not the gift that was in them, meditating on the good things of God, taking heed unto themselves and unto the doctrine, continuing in them, knowing that in so doing they would save both themselves and them that heard. Some were elderly men who were grave, temperate, sound in faith, charity, and patience. And some were elderly women who behaved as becometh holiness. And there were others who had not yet reached into the senior years, but who showed themselves a pattern of good works. In doctrine they showed uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity and sound speech.

The Bible tells us that God knoweth them that are His. So, He has showed His Divine favor by making up His jewels, and extended mercy by sparing them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him. Some of them had retired from an overly-active work as a minister. Others had not yet reached physical retirement age. None of them went into "spiritual retirement," but kept right on climbing spiritual mountains, drawing ever closer and closer to the Lord. They feared the Lord, as spoken in Malachi 3:16.

Today, we have their names in a book of remembrance and we will call them as those who courageously fought a good fight, finished their course, kept the faith, and went on to receive their crown of righteousness.

"Oh God, today we are so thankful for these who have passed our way. They cried unto You with their voices and You heard them. You had mercy upon them according to Your loving kindness. You caused their hearts to indite good matters. You put Your Spirit in them, and caused them to clap their hands and shout with the voice of triumph, to rejoice in Thee and live a life of righteousness that others could imitate. They had a happy state, a godly state which was the secret place of the most High. They dwelt there with You under Your shadow. They brought forth fruit in old age; they were fat and flourishing. They showed us, O Lord, that You are upright, that You are our rock and that there is no unrighteousness in You.

"It is a good thing therefore, for us to give thanks unto You, O Lord and sing praises to Your name; and honor these today who have been conformed to the image of the Son of God. Blessed be the Lord forevermore. Amen and Amen."

4:48 Dependence on Christ and His Church—message by William M. Wilson. Excerpts: John 15:1-8. The Church has always been and always will be dependent upon Jesus Christ. We are at a very critical time in the Church of God; beginning a third generation this side of the Dark Ages. God has allowed us to do great things for Him, His Church and Jesus Christ. We face the next generation, should the Lord not return, with great anticipation of what God is going to do among us and in us; however, with uncertainties, fears and doubts about who we are and where we are going. Some reasons why we must depend on Him:

He is the vine. Before Jesus' crucifixion, He prayed, washed the disciples feet, taught them of the Lord's supper, talked to them. Psalm 80:8; Isaiah 5:7. Israel was the vine of God. Isaiah 5, God planted a vineyard but the vine brought forth wild grapes. God said He would cause this vineyard to become dry ground which brought forth no fruit. The vineyard of Israel ended up bringing forth no fruit. Zechariah 6:12. Isaiah says: he shall grow up before him as a tender plant and a root out of a dry ground. Jesus stood this night and proclaimed, "I am the vine." Jesus said I am the vine, My disciples are the branches, and My Father is the vinedresser. Church of God, we are the branches.

In a vine, only one large part is in the ground; connected to many branches dependent on the main vine. The vine can live without the branches but the branches cannot live without the vine. The branches are good for nothing except producing fruit; depend on the vine to be an anchor in times of storm; to provide water and mineral from the soil. The branches that are properly connected with the vine bring forth fruit. The vinedresser cuts off the branches that do not product fruit. Matthew 21:43. God planned that Israel would bring forth fruit in this world, but He took this Kingdom from them because there was no fruit. God has given His Kingdom; His riches unto a nation. We are known as a holy nation that would bring forth the fruits thereof. The only way for us to produce fruit is to allow the flow of life from the vine to flow into our hearts and produce His fruit in us. It is not possible for the branches to produce fruit by themselves.

Satan would like to bind our spirits by doubt, fear, sin, unbelief. Colossians 3:4. Jesus told Martha, I am the resurrection and the life; told His disciples, I am the way, the truth, and life. We need the life of Christ in the Church of God. 1 Corinthians 1:30, 31. He is our wisdom, righteousness. We need the gifts of the Spirit. He is life and anything that worketh death is not of Christ. The cross works death to the old man, to sin; but the end result is we are made alive unto God. Jesus went through the Cross that He might be released into His glory that He had with the Father before the world began. Ephesians 1:22, 23; Colossians 1:17-19. Paul said Jesus is to have preeminence; He is to have preeminence in all that we do as the Church of God. Judges 17:6.

In those days there was no king or anyone who had total sway in Israel, so everybody did what was right in their own eyes. This spirit would creep in among us if we are not careful. There is One with total control; the King of Kings of the earth and the heavens. "All authority is in me in Heaven and in earth." Genesis 49:10. The King has come. Let's let Him reign in the Church of God. The Father has said of the angels, you are spirits; of his ministers, ye are flames of fire; unto the Son, Thy throne, O God, is established forever and ever. 1 Corinthians 15:27. Right now all things are under Him, and in the end Jesus will deliver the kingdom to the Father that God might be all in all. He is the supernatural Son of God, and He wants to dwell in the Church of God. I am glad we are the Body of Christ; Jesus wants us to do more than just look and act like the body; He wants to fill us and live in His Body that we might be the embodiment of Jesus Christ. Psalm 24:7; 2:12.

The early Church brought forth fruit unto God. Read Acts: they baptized in His authority, healed and preached in His name. Temptations came to remove themselves from Christ, they would always say no, we are just men, it is Jesus who deserves the glory and honor. Eighty years ago this body of believers came out of the wilderness; Song of Solomon 3:6. Let the Church of God say today, "My beloved is mine, and I am His" and we will lean on the Beloved entering this third generation. Let anything that does not work life be done away forever, for we shall trust in the Son of God; He will not fail us.

Song by Filiberto Espinoza.

9:22 The Truth Shall Make You Free—message by Jose A. Reyes, General Field Secretary. Excerpts: 1 Timothy 3:15. In our covenant of joining the Church, we accepted all the Bible. This year is very significant to us: the President has proclaimed this the year of the Bible. This indicates that this nation needs a spiritual revitalization. This is the eightieth year of the arise shine of the Church. Two generations of workers have worked to edify the Body of Christ. Ephesians 4:17-20. Ephesians has been called the master plan of God for His Church; it reveals the doctrine and principles. The Holy Spirit warns us that the Church does not permit her style of life to conform to those who walk after the vanity of their minds.

Vanity in Greek signifies an illusion. Proverbs 23:7. That which I have in my mind determines how I behave, my form of life; dictate my procedures and walk. Scientists call the mind the most complex living mechanism; the most influence in how one conducts himself. Satan knows the importance of dominating the human mind; like never before he has dedicated himself to create a generation who has vain minds and illusions. Television is forming vain minds, replacing the world of reality. Christ called us to establish our lives in the Word of truth and not conforming to Hollywood.

God has given us four principal channels to receive into our mind. What you see and hear will influence how you live. The enemy is fooling by means of the theater, music and television. If we will employ more time on our knees with the Word of God, we will not have so much backsliding and have revivals. The solution for the battle of the Church is by edifying ourselves in the Word of God and in the knowledge of the truth that is Jesus Christ. In this final thrust, the task cannot be finished by weak individuals pushed by every wind of doctrine. Not even the gates of hell shall prevail against her. Our minds should be unconquerable fortresses against Satan; filled with the Word of God; a defence that will protect us from spiritual wickedness. When Christ was tempted by Satan, He confronted Satan with the Word. Deuteronomy 8:3; 6:16; 6:13.

The Lord tells us to resist the enemy by submitting ourselves. James 4:7. The Good Shepherd took time to teach and train His sheep, edifying their minds with the Word of God. They were disciples; the Church needs not only saved people and members, but we need disciples. Paul indicates that he taught the church in Ephesus all the counsel of God. We need to search the Word of God teaching our people the wisdom of God. The training used by the early Church produced a strong youth. 1 John 2:14. God help our young people in schools and universities who are being taught humanistic teachings. Ephesians 4:20; John 14:6. The truth that the Church knows is not theological philosophy.

The ministry of the Church should work toward perfection of the saints. Ephesians 4:13, 18, 22, 23; 3:10. A carnal mind cannot understand the things of God. In the Word we have the mind of God; we need to ingraft it in our lives and grow in the knowledge of the Lord. God has not finished giving all the revelation of His Word. Christ will use theocratic government when He comes back to rule for a thousand years. God desires to give the Church His wisdom in abundance; it must declare to the world the secrets of the wisdom of God. Let us give God thanks for our great heritage in the Church, but don't close the doors to the Spirit of God so He can reveal more of His wisdom. It is so important for the Church to go to the Word where there is safety. It is good to praise God for the past, but there is danger of depending on past experience. We need God to move in the way He dealt with A. J. Tomlinson and the pioneers of the Church. When God sent a restoration movement of the Holy Ghost, the people had to move freely under the guidance of the Holy Ghost in proper time.

The Holy Ghost is the greatest Person in the Church. John 8:32. Paul desired to know the truth—not the vanity of the world. Galatians 6:14. Christ wants a crucified and resurrected Church full of glory. Truth was the chief architect of the Church of God. Christ liberates us and brings unity to the Church. In Him abides all the fullness of God. Philippians 3:10. The Church will be sanctified by the truth and perfected by the washing of the Word. (Gave altar invitation; prayer. Ron Gardner Evangelistic Team directed music and singing during altar service.)

9:50 Excelling in Membership—sermonette by Carl Waden. Comments: It is a privilege to represent North Carolina. We are fortunate to be members of the Church of God. The love that we have for Christ and His Church is the reason North Carolina increased. There are some very important ingredients necessary to succeed. 1 Corinthians 14:12. It is important to seek to excel to the edifying of the Church. When we excel, we must excite, stir up, spur on, arouse, move, to stimulate others. Hebrews 10:24; Job 32:8; 2 Timothy 3:16, 17. Inspiration brings vision; vision brings zeal which will get the work done. I believe this is the Church of God of the Bible—not going to be. It is time we start believing and stop doubting this is God's Church. Proverbs 29:18. Thank God for a vision of the marking program. Isaiah 9:7. It may be a little unpopular to preach on these stones. The honor stone program is just as much a part of our message as John 3:16. Habakkuk 2:1-3. This is the time that we must write the vision.

10:00 Caretaker Ted Carroll told of our Identity in Fields of the Wood. Comments: Acts 1:8. Fields of the Wood represents the Church of God; approximately 100,000 people tour it yearly. The Lord is helping us to expose the Church to multitudes of people. We can be proud of what Fields of the Wood is doing for the Church of God. Denominational ministers come on chartered buses and use our facilities to baptize in water; they read the markers as they ascend Prayer Mountain to the altar to seek God. A lot of Floridians are moving into the North Carolina mountains. They invite their friends; they feel God's presence. We meet them on an individual basis; witness and share what the Lord has done for us in the Church of God. We are working with some touring agencies and they are scheduling Fields of the Wood as a regular stop on the Smoky Mountain Tour. We correspond and personally contact individuals who come; received some CPMA memberships through the mail from people not connected with the Church. We explain to them the Church of God and the function of the CPMA; they join. I felt inspired to open up the Assembly House and have guided tours. I am working with our pastors; many of them are bringing their entire membership on a tour. We have a spiritual heritage in the Church of God. My family and I want to do a good job for you in Fields of the Wood.

10:17 Identified in Walking by the Same Rule—message by Howard Hunt. Excerpts: Philippians 3:16. The Honor Stone Program encourages us to maintain what we have gained; helps to establish the local churches and ministers in the faith by keeping the Assembly recommendations before us and recognizing those who keep these. (He repeated the Church covenant.) John 8:12. If the sun ceased to shine, we would be engulfed in utter darkness; all vegetation would die. As the sun is the source of life in the physical realm, so is Christ in the spiritual realm. Christ said, "I am the light of the world." Psalm 40:7, 8; Hebrews 10:7. Jesus was identified in walking by the same rule. He wants us to see Him as the Messiah, the Saviour, the light, the truth, the Head of the Church. Matthew 16:13-18.

John 6:27. Many looked to Christ for bodily comforts; they missed the real point. There are those today who look upon Christ or the Church as an aid to their advantage in society, politics or business. They see in Christ not the light of life, but an aid to their ambitions. Some hold up the teachings of Christ as if the teachings alone would solve the difficulties of this sin-smitten world. The source must be cleansed before the water will be pure. When Jesus sent out the seventy and they came back rejoicing because the spirits were subject unto them, He told them not to rejoice because the spirits were subject to them but because their names were inscribed in the Lamb's book of life. He died that He might banish darkness forever. Christ said, "He that followeth me shall not walk in darkness."

Some will say that they did many wonderful works in His Name and He will tell them He never knew them. It means more than just hand, lip and head service or a cheap imitation to follow the Lord. We must be joined to the Church of God; do what we do because it is in our hearts—not because we took the covenant; it means heart and soul surrender. 1 John 1:7. Before we can fully understand Jesus' teachings, we must have the cleansing through His blood. John 12:35. There is danger for those who have seen the light; some have willfully closed their eyes to it; others are following afar off. If we had a 20/20 vision of the Church, we would not be stumbling over tithes, theocracy; whether this is Church doctrine; over the covenant; we would be able to see clearly. Unless we keep our eyes upon Jesus, we are lost. I am not worried about the Church nor Sister Hunt; I am worried about me; keep my eyes upon her and don't go looking around. Let us walk by the same rule and mind the same things.

10:43 Identified by Spirituality and Holiness—message by Rena Varlack. Excerpts: (repeated the Church covenant) 1 Peter 1:13-15, 16; Psalm 93:5. We need to understand that we are the Church of the Bible—not a denomination; but the Church that Jesus established. We are a selected people for a specific job. Holiness does not hide; it is going to shine. Peter said to be holy in all manner of conversation. Satan tries to work on the mind. We are a chosen generation. If it took submission to God to be holy, it will take that to continue to live holy. Jesus was spat upon, ridiculed, criticized, but He stood His ground. He gave up a life of holiness that we might be holy. He said, "Be ye holy for I am holy." 1 Peter 2:4, 5; Matthew 4:4; Psalm 93:5; Hebrews 12:14. Because of wrong identity, many have made the wrong decision. We are the Church of God and we are guiding people in the right direction. Brother Pruitt said in the White Wing Messenger, "Discipleship to the Lord requires a complete resignation from anything or anyone who will stand in the way of full commitment to Him." Let us fully commit our way unto the Lord. Holiness does not come from the General Assembly, the General Overseer; it comes from God. We have to unload ourselves of everything that stands in the way and put on righteousness. Job 29:14. Jesus has appointed us all and He has to be subject to the Father. Why is it hard for us to submit to those over us in the Lord and live righteous before God? Let's tolerate and love one another and share our blessings. It is not by the shout but by the degree of holiness and spirituality that people will know we are the Church of God. God does not deal with us on what people think about us nor what we think of ourselves, but on the basis of righteousness and uprightness of the heart. Isaiah 55:6, 7.

11:05 Starshp Zion—demonstration by Teresa Sallee. This depicted two pilots in space and showed that the Church will reach perfection and must have total cooperation.

11:18 The King's Messengers sang two songs.

11:28 Maintaining the Identity of the Church—message by Wade H. Phillips, General CPMA Secretary. Habakkuk 2:2, 3; Ephesians 3:9, 10. Ephesians 5:30-32 indicates that the "great mystery" is the relationship between Christ and the Church. Some have defied the Church; others have dethroned the Church from its rightful position. The Church of God has been delegated with authority from God to do His business in this world. Paul speaks of the Church as a body. The Bible uses many parallels, types and shadows to depict more fully the "great mystery." In some ways, it is like a building and the members are as lively stones built upon a spiritual house. In another sense, it is like a household of faith with people of all nations being grafted in together as a family. In many ways, the Church is like Mount Zion because: Old Testament Zion was the chosen City of God: Psalm 48:2; 125:1; 132:13; the Lord reigneth in Zion.

The analogy as a sheepfold or fold reveals the oneness and protective criteria of the Church. The metaphor of the Church as the faith reveals the depth of its mystery. The Church is not called the reason but the faith. Many people feel they must intellectually comprehend everything; God's ways are higher than ours; He is the Head of the Church of God, which is flesh of His flesh and bone of His bone. I do not understand why the General Overseer makes some of the appointments; I don't think he understands everything that he does; we cannot understand everything about the Church because it has a divine transcendence. 1 Corinthians 12:27, 28. Jesus is the Head of the Church; the Saviour of the Body; the Founder and the Fulness of the Church; He is our ALL. We sometimes boast about the General Assembly being the highest authority in the Church; God is the only One worthy to rule the Church of God. The Word of God is infallible and is the only foundation of the Church of God; the General Assembly is a help.

God has set in the Church, apostles, prophets, teachers, miracles, gifts of healings, helps, governments and diversities of tongues. The Church is not built upon the apostles nor prophets; it could not have been built upon a backsliding Peter. We are built upon that higher power that moved upon Peter to write the Word of God—the divine inspiration, not Peter. Judas was an apostle; we are built upon that divine office that Judas filled temporarily.

God set in the Church miracles; miracles are happening in the Church of God! God set government in the Church; although man in government is not doing right does not obscure my vision of the Church's sure foundation. God is going to perfect the Church. The Church is called a holy nation; everyone in the Church is not holy. The government of the Church is holy. The government initiated by God will end up holy. God set diversities of tongues to be exercised in the Church. There is a transcending essence about the Church that is beyond you and me. If this were not true, in 325 A.D., the Church would have ceased to exist, but only the members in particular went into apostasy. The divine principles of the Church remained fixed and awaited someone to embrace and espouse them.

A. J. Tomlinson went upon the mountain in 1903; found the Church of God declaring that it takes the whole Bible rightly divided. There were no members, but he found it on Burger Mountain. He stated in his annual address in 1921, "This is what makes it a theocratic form of government; the Bible settles everything." Not just preachers, but every member needs to get into the Word. The analogy of the Church as the Body of Christ reveals the Headship of Christ and the Church as a living organism. David saw her as a queen in Psalm 45:6; Peter and John confirm that she shall rule and reign with Him; in Genesis, Rebecca as Isaac's wife reveals the Church in her prophetic role as the Church of prophecy; She is typified in Exodus as the Church in the wilderness; and later with Joshua as the Church triumphant! Ruth revealed the union of Jews and Gentiles into one body. Eve, mother of all living; God took a rib from Adam and formed Eve and made flesh of his flesh and bones. While Christ was hanging on Golgotha, His side was opened, and there came forth blood and water to purchase the Church of God. The covenant we take means more than just quoting it. Song of Solomon 6:8-10; Isaiah 2:2, 3. The reason we are not gaining more members in the U.S. is the devil has caused us to doubt and be silent about this divine institution. Paul calls the Church a virgin in 1 Corinthians 11:2. She is a virgin then, or she never could be—one loses her virginity, she can never regain it. The Church of God is a virgin; if there are a hundred prostitutes in it. Her doctrine and government are virgin—pure and holy. If the Assembly wanted to change her doctrine, it could not; it is subject to the Word of God. There is not a channel in the Church that could change its standard on divorce and remarriage. The Church is a city that hath foundations whose Builder and Maker is God; we cannot destroy these foundations.

10:16 World Literature Outreach by these Overseers: David Kim, Korea—told of the blessings of the Lord in Korea. In 1969 we had 3 churches in Korea, 167 members; today there are 32 churches; 5,946 members. Sunday school literature and tracts have been printed in Korean. I had a revival and a man, who had been sick for a long time, was given our literature. The Lord healed and saved him; he gave $50.00 for the World Language (presented it to Brother Garcia).

Darrell A. Creel, Egypt—told of 18 tracts and 4 books being printed in Arabic. The Church has been organized in Egypt for almost fifty years; only in the last two years have we had something for them to study. Lot of people are in the doctrinal ditch because the blind have been leading the blind. Through literature, we are able to give sight. There are positive signs of Egyptians understanding Church doctrine. The Body of Christ course and Volumes I and II BTI books have been translated into Arabic. Cornelius was a devout man, but he needed Peter, who knew more than Cornelius. The Eunuch read; how could he really know what he read unless somebody explained it? The whole Arabic world is beginning to open to the doctrine of the Bible as shared to us by the inspiration of the Holy Ghost.

Sherman Allen—Our people in Sierra Leone have been asking for literature in their tongue. We are working on translating two of the major languages of the people in Sierra Leone. A little lady greeted me saying, "We have been hearing about Church of God, but now we can be a part of what is happening; can live the way the Bible wants us to." The Church cannot shirk its responsibility; a whole continent is saying "Give me to eat."

I have received requests from Ivory Coast wanting to go to nations where people are starving for the Word. This is what giving the message of eternal life is all about. We can't tell them about Jesus and leave them. Doors are closing fast. If we do not rise to that challenge, we might not have a second chance. Church of God, none other can fulfill that challenge. The availability of literature to circulate among these nations is very crucial and it is a crucial hour.

10:36 Message by Felix R. Garcia, World Language Secretary. Excerpts: Literature is the strongest factor in winning a new convert. Records kept gives us factual information. Church history clarifies the steps of progress; our reporting system enables us to compare our past; to learn what has contributed to our success or failure. Lamentations 3:40. Literature is essential to the growth and stability of the Church members. Our mission as the Church embraces a big responsibility. No one else can take the total message of the gospel to the rest of the world. We must expose our people to the unique message of the Church; it helps us to share with others to grow and be well rooted. Literature is the answer to combat our deficiency in growth and stability. Literature will bless the Church numerically, spiritually and financially. John 8:31, 32.

One of the greatest problems in the countries is that people have not been able to continue in the Word; have not known the truth; no one has provided them with something to read. In the past 15 years, our Spanish churches have grown because we have more literature in that language than in any other besides English. Our World Mission Drives show a tremendous increase; we have produced literature and got it in the hands of the people. This work is worth being involved in. The Church has been in Jamaica for sixty years and it is strong; they have all the literature of the Church in their language. The Church is strong in India; we have provided literature for them. The Lord has blessed our work in Haiti; we have our literature in French. The Church in South Africa is growing because the overseer produced literature, and the Lord has given a great increase. The Lord is blessing the Church in Zimbabwe; we have provided literature right away and taught the people how the Church operates and their responsibilities. We have been in Cyprus, Germany, Egypt, Greece, Sierra Leone and other nations for many years and have not shown substantial growth. It is not the missionaries' fault; it is largely to be blamed on our not having the Church literature in their hands as soon as it was organized. When they have literature, they are stable. This stunted growth is not lack of potentials, cultural barriers, traditions, but our inability to comprehend the importance of our Church literature. We must continue to work for the Church; however, we must not neglect the element that will give people stability. The great commission to the Church is to go into all the world with this glorious message. It will be utterly useless to preach this in a language other than that which is understood by those we are trying to evangelize. The Body of Christ should not be content to be such a privileged group only to exist as such. We should fulfill God's wishes by self-denial and sacrifice. When true loyalty exists, there will be no need to repeat a former command. The Lord has spoken to the Church, and it should be enough. Mark 16:15.

This is our responsibility. It should not be necessary for the Holy Ghost to give us a message again and again to take the gospel to the world. In some of these countries people don't understand about the Church, the flag, not wearing gold; sometimes don't know about the covenant. The sooner we get them acquainted with all of this, the sooner they will learn that this is God's Holy Church. Some of the teachings are vague to them because they have never read and studied. In these last days, before the doors close in these countries, we need to get into the spirit of this program, and it is important that we give unto God—not just finance, but the full integrity of our service. Money is needed, but there is a spiritual outreach that we need to go with to the ends of the world. It is marvelous to see the changes, growth, stability and their faith in God. This will come with the study of the Word of God; we need to put it in their hands. I am challenging us to go to the ends of the world with this great message of Christ and His glorious Church. Men preach their philosophies, teach their theologies; the Church lives and practices the Bible rightly divided, and that is what we want to teach the world. We need to do it in the most expedient way. Thank the Lord for your offerings and gifts; what you give unto the Lord is important. I have heard of some with great sacrifices giving unto the Lord; I want us to continue; by the help and grace of God, we will reach all the world. The coming of the Lord hinges upon the publishing of the Word in every language. I want God to stir us and that the ministry will feel the responsibility to preach the gospel like it is, and the Church feel the responsibility to put that gospel in print. Pray that God will stir the people and provide the talent and funds for us to do this great work. We have just begun, and I am asking God to help us do more and faster. (Concert prayer. "Send The Light" was sung; prayers as people brought their offerings. Bill Marion directed music and singing during altar service.)

Boyd Thornton read Psalm 95:1-7; prayer led by Don Slayton. Medley of songs by Dwayne Murray, assisted by Beth Murray and Peggy Burton. Read Revelations 5:1-14; 4:1; led in prayer.

7:28 Be Ye Reconciled to God—message by Billy Murray, Assistant Editor. Excerpts: 2 Corinthians 5:18-20. (Led in prayer.) Man was estranged from God; no hope for initiating reconciliation with his Creator. Jesus died not only that man could achieve freedom from sin; all who found this freedom from sin could be perfectly reconciled. 1 Corinthians 1:10; John 17:21-23. God's purpose cannot be altered by conditions. Colossians 1:20-22. The perfection God demanded could not be brought to pass through anyone who was imperfect. It is through Jesus that all things will be reconciled to God. Ephesians 1:10.

The closer believers approach unto Jesus Christ, the closer they will be to one another. There may be some strange sounding things coming from the Church of God that is not conducive to bringing His sheep. A Scripture attesting to Christ's immutable nature is Hebrews 13:8. The Church is not immutable; we members of the Church of God have an immutable commitment to the immutable Word of God, promising to walk in its light to the best of our ability. It pleased God that the Church be an instrument in His divine plan of reconciling the world unto Himself. The Church is Christ's Body; it is significant that God's title for His Church is The Church of God; the Church which Jesus purchased with His blood; its Head is God in Christ. Are we willing to take and keep it The Church of God?

The Bible is plain for a system of government for God's people; theocracy is much more than a system; more than obeying those over you in the Lord. The Church is an organized people given designated leaders by God. Hebrews 13:17; 1 Thessalonians 5:12, 13. The rule in the Church is not meant to be an authoritarian lordship. 1 Peter 5:2, 3. We are to respect the positions of those in leadership. It is the responsibility of leaders to set the pace of theocracy—God-rule in their lives and ministry—not as lords. God's people like sheep are waiting to be fed. There is need for leadership in the Church of God—not cracking the whip over people to remind them who is the boss. They need one setting the pace toward perfection. Full reconciliation is what perfection means; leaders will think less of their authority and be overwhelmed with their responsibility. Another principle in theocracy is unanimity in our decision making. Church of God is not a democracy; not whatever the majority says; an intellectual agreement among us is not necessarily theocracy. At Babel, they were in unanimous accord; out of accord with the Divine. If all were in unity with Him, we will be in unity with one another. When His children are well enough acquainted with Him, they will flow together in Him. Only an imperfect acquaintance with Him keeps us separated. This is the Church of God; be reconciled to God, and we will send forth a voice that is not divided; it is the voice of the Shepherd—Jesus Christ and His sheep. A low view of God is causing most of our problems in the Church. There is a tendency for us to feel more highly toward our wisdom than we ought to. We may boast of our forms and methods in which we expect God to involve Himself; He will retain His sovereignty; pursue His purposes according to the counsel of His will.

His ways are perfect; His plans for His Church are perfect. Any alteration would make it imperfect. The doctrine of the Church cannot be changed; it is the immutable Word of God. Matthew 5:48; John 17:23. Almighty God is not a man that you can change. Hebrews 12:2. He is the absolute authority in the Church. We are commissioned to carry this gospel to the ends of the earth. The quality of our faith and experience outweighs the importance to articulate our beliefs. We possess the Divine nature because of the work of God's Spirit in our lives. 1 Corinthians 4:7. The Holy Ghost revealed things and you received them. God gave it to you; our dependence is on God. Praying breaks you down to where God can do what He wants. When you get to where you do understand, you get to feeling you were smart. God gave you the capacity for humbling yourself so He could reveal to you. When we possess a boastful nature, we tend to regard ourselves elevated above others. You have nothing you did not receive by God's graciousness. The concept of one church for all believers is a precious truth. In God's Holy Nation, there is no provision for second-rate citizenship. The worldly system for seniority and special privileges will not work in the Church. Although Paul was late getting into the Church, he was not behind. Psalm 110:1; Hebrews 10:13; 1 Corinthians 15:24-28.

The Holy Ghost is the administrative one; He does the work of Christ, whose work will be fulfilled which God, the Father put in His hands. Matthew 28:18; 1 Corinthians 15:24, 28. God has initiated a plan through His Son and the Holy Ghost to accomplish His purpose; death is the last enemy that shall be destroyed. The more immediate purpose to be fulfilled is the perfection of the Church; Jesus has made adequate provisions to destroy any power which would attempt to prevent the perfect unity of His believers. Acts 10:13-20. God forbid that we throw away the doctrine of the Church. Ephesians 2:14-16. For us to find this that we are seeking will require the destruction of the flesh. He is Head of the Church; will reign until He has put down all rule and authority and power. Everything which exalts itself against the knowledge of God will be vanquished. Don't think of that as things outside the Church altogether; some things inside the Church are going to be put down. Nothing will prevent the purpose of God. Romans 9:28.

I don't want my imaginations to become a stumbling block for my brother; or some knowledge I have that seems so right that I stand for it no matter how it affects you. God's Word is unalterable truth; you are in a very dangerous place to try to tamper with that. I am willing to accept it as God's Church—not ours. I want to see theocracy; don't abandon the concept. The Word of the Lord said He is going to reconcile His children in one Body; present to the Lord a glorious Church not having spot or wrinkle. You have nothing to boast nor glory of. Anything you have that is spiritual or a divine nature, God gave it to you; glory in what He hath revealed to you. (Beverly Brooks directed music and singing during altar service.)

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 9

9:03 Two songs by South Florida Mass Choir.

9:21 Eleven former pastors of Brother Tomlinson sat on the platform as his pastor, Sammie N. Clements, delivered a message on Word Plus Spirit. Excerpts: Word Plus Spirit will equal life. John 6:63; 1 Corinthians 2:1-5; 2 Corinthians 3:5, 6. The Church of God to whom Paul was writing was a spiritual church; not to be manipulated by human motivation and ingenuity; by the Spirit and power of God; a church that prayed in the Spirit. Acts 4:31; 1 Corinthians 14:15; 2:4. It wasn't a preaching contest to see who could outpreach the other, or who could impress the audience. I just want the Spirit of God to minister; our sufficiency is of God. There is evidence that we may be becoming a letter-oriented church, mainly because of our conception that doctrine or the storing of correct knowledge in the mind is spirituality. Edification is not a question of doctrine but of the Spirit. Any doctrine that does not result in the reviving of the Spirit is dead letter. You can know and preach the letter and people can still go away hungry and die. Some have said that sound doctrine has put a lot of people sound asleep. 2 Corinthians 3:6. They went forth preaching love, and the Spirit working with them. God doesn't confirm theories, ideas and opinions.

Foolish stories, funny jokes, worn out phrases, cliches and stale-canned sermons will never bring revival to the Church of God; it will take the Word, plus the anointing of the Spirit to feed the Church of God. One man said that our problem is we have too many dead preachers in too many dead pulpits, giving out too many dead sermons to too many dead people. The administration of the law is death; the Spirit is life; righteousness is life. If the Word we preach is not alive and fresh from God, anointed by the Holy Ghost, we are just beating air. The Jews rested strongly in the letter which killed. The Jews never rested more firmly in the letter of the law than many Christians do today in the letter of the gospel. The letter must be seasoned with the Spirit and anointing from the Holy Ghost; when it goes forth, it will bring life to the Church of God. Proverbs 20:27. God will guide us through His Spirit. Many times we seek guidance through other means. We lean heavily toward intellectual reasoning. Romans 8:14. God is a spirit and man is a spirit. That spirit is living in the compass of fallible human flesh; when our spirit touches His Spirit and is ignited by the Holy Ghost, we can be of service to God and give a light to the world. Our minds can acquire a storehouse of knowledge; if we do not minister in the Spirit, there is no edification. It is not enough to stand in the pulpit and speak eloquently and have the approval of men. If this anointing is there, the Word will live and have its effect. Emphasis on the ministry in the last few years has been on education; it is vital to keep up with the times; to be all things to all people. If it was necessary for Jesus to have the anointing of the Spirit, how do we think we can get along with any less in the Church? Peter talked of Jesus being anointed with the Holy Ghost and He went about doing good. Isaiah spoke of the time when Jesus would be anointed of the Lord. 1 John 2:27.

The Old Testament tells about Samson; when the Spirit of the Lord came upon him, he had great strength and power; but he laid his head on the lap of Delilah; he had a vow unto God that he would not cut his hair nor drink strong drink. He revealed his secret to Delilah; she cut off his hair; his strength was gone. He was bound, backed against a post; his eyes drilled out. He was mocked; the crowd hissed, "Where is your God, Samson?" Samson prayed, "Lord, restore my strength one more time." The Spirit of the Lord came upon him; he pulled the pillars of the mighty temple; it fell and Samson died a hero. The early Church preached the Word and were accused of turning the world upside down. Great numbers were added to the Church. Before many years, she cooled off and finally went into darkness. Eighty years ago the Church broke loose from the Dark Ages. Revival in the Holy Ghost movement of the early 1900's was strong. Worldliness and pride crept in and she laid her head on the lap of Delilah again; she lost the anointing and effectiveness she had experienced in her early days. The world has mocked, jeered and criticized her.

Atheists have declared, "Your God is dead." The sad part is there haven't been any Elijahs to challenge them and prove them wrong. That folly and foolishness is about to end. Look around you, listen to the preaching of the Word; the prayer of the Church is, "Lord, restore one more time." There is anointing, her strength is returning and the power and Spirit will be victorious. Isaiah prophesied of the arise shine; it is about time for her to shine. Under the anointing and power of the Holy Ghost, we can see more people brought into the harvest in one generation than has come from Adam until now.

Before the Seventy-eighth Annual Assembly of the Church of God

THE CHURCH OF GOD FLAG PLEDGE

I pledge allegiance to our Church flag, and to the doctrine for which it stands—one God, one Faith, one Mind, and one Church for all. Amen!

THE BIBLE PLEDGE

I pledge allegiance to the Bible, God's Holy Word. I will make it a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path. I will hide its words in my heart that I may not sin against God.

INTRODUCTION

"But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God." (Acts 20:24)

Neither count I my life dear unto myself—this statement provides a clue toward understanding what makes the Apostle Paul stand out as a giant among the leaders of the Church of God for all times. He had conquered all carnal fear. He moved resolutely toward the goal of finishing the course he felt his Master had prescribed for him. Indeed, at this time he could identify fully with an earlier statement by his Lord who had said, "My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work." (John 4:34)

It was on his journey toward Jerusalem that he had a brief meeting with the elders of the church at Ephesus. His testimony to them was that he was going to Jerusalem, "... not knowing the things that shall befall me there: Save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me." (Acts 20:22, 23) He went on to tell them that he would see their face no more, and he found great consolation in the assurance that he had not shunned to declare unto them all the counsel of God.

Journeying on to Tyre, where he tarried with some of the saints for seven days, the Spirit again gave warning about the impending danger awaiting for Paul at Jerusalem.

From there he sailed to Caesarea. While abiding in the house of Philip, a prophet named Agabus came from Judea to further confirm what the Holy Ghost had been saying in every city which Paul had visited. Luke wrote: "And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem. Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done." (Acts 21:11-14)

A man of lesser courage would have given in to the persuasion of his friends, but something within Paul was driving him onward to do what he felt he must do. It was not that this man of God was acting recklessly or in a foolhardy manner. The reason for not counting his life dear unto himself was so that he might finish his course and ministry which he had received of the Lord, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

Now we know that he was arrested at Jerusalem, and his imprisonment eventually carried him to Rome. And while some may argue that Paul should have stayed away from Jerusalem, no one can deny the blessings of his epistles that were written during his imprisonment at Rome. Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, 2 Timothy and Philemon—what inspiration and guidance these epistles have brought to the Church. Solitude which is directed by God can bring benefits which continued mingling with people may not bring.

The course of least resistance is not generally the best route for us to pursue. Metal will never receive its temper outside the fire, nor can God's people receive that refinement they need by avoiding opposition. The fact is that we live in a hostile world. The same powers that were arrayed against our Lord Jesus and against this Christian hero named Paul are firmly committed to stopping the Church of God today.

Let us not think we can avoid conflict; nor should we shrink from it. On the contrary, the desire to identify with Christ in the fellowship of His sufferings will cause us, even as it did Paul, to count not our lives dear unto ourselves. People of lesser courage have followed the path of compromise. Not only does this indicate defeat for them, but they have thus become arrayed with the forces of Satan, rather than firmly opposing him. His distorted half-truths which such compromisers convey are designed to diminish the power of truth. Nothing less than the truth will suffice in this battle against evil.

The Church needs thousands of men and women today who fear nothing but God. Their dedication to finishing the work must be marked by the kind of courage demonstrated by Paul. He would have been justified in the eyes of the people to have stayed away from Jerusalem and to have continued his ministry among those who were manifesting their love and concern for his well-being.

Their care for him which was evidenced by their weeping must have been touching to this man of God. But notice his reaction: "What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." He remembered that it was at Jerusalem that his Master had been condemned to death and crucified, and he was ready, if God willed it, to take part in the same kind of suffering.

Courageous men of Paul's mettle do not look for easy places to serve the Lord. Doing God's will is what is important to them. Political maneuvering is out of character for those who identify with the One who bore His cross to Golgotha and was there shamefully crucified. Those men who seek their own advancement and position instead of serving in the will of God, even when it means self-denial and suffering, are not worthy of bearing the name Christian.

To the Galatians Paul wrote, "... for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus." (6:17) Being beaten with stripes above measure, being beaten with rods on three occasions, being stoned at Lystra and drug out of the city to be left for dead—he could readily say, "I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus."

And now he was saying to these saints at Caesarea, "I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." This would be only another way of identifying further with his Master. Compare Paul's courageous and unselfish spirit to that of ministers who have stooped to seeking positions that are self-serving in guaranteeing them certain standards of living, and one can see how such persons earn for themselves disfavor and rejection by God.

These times demand, and God is calling for, men and women of courage. For people with personal ambition and selfish motives, there just is no place. Strong men, brave men, men who count not their lives dear unto themselves are the ones who will survive in this battle and get the work done. I believe there are thousands of such men and women in our ranks now, and thousands of others will be joining us soon. God knows who they are.

CONTENDING FOR THE FAITH

"Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints." (Jude 3)

This faith of which Jude writes was delivered once for all. It cannot be improved upon by any additions of man nor by any of his subtractions. It is perfect because its Author is perfect. Jesus Christ alone is the author and finisher of our faith. Any alteration of that which is perfect would of necessity make it imperfect. This faith which was authored by Jesus Christ needs no improvement.

The Church's responsibility is to give faithful support to that which has been committed to it. We battle an adversary whose tactics from the beginning have been to undermine the Word of God. And we must admit, with regret, that he has succeeded in causing many throughout the years to depart from the faith. They have been seduced to turn aside to that which seems more attractive at the moment. But thank God for those who have resisted him and have remained steadfast in the faith.

The Church of God must remain firm in its resolve to be faithful to the Word of God which came down from Heaven. This Word which was made flesh—Jesus Christ—established His Church for that purpose and declared, "The gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Paul declared it to be "the pillar and ground of the truth." Now, we should not regard what we have received as being just certain articles of faith to be preserved. This is a faith to be lived. When its principles are observed and practiced in our lives we will shine forth as lights in this world of darkness.

When we became members of the Church of God we embraced a covenant to accept the Word of God as our rule of faith. We agreed that it would govern and discipline us. His Word is perfect, and a faith based solely upon His Word will be a perfect faith. What a glorious government for God's people this constitutes! We call it theocracy—government by God. Now we know that our understanding is limited at this time, and the operation of theocratic government is not perfect; yet, it is a principle we have embraced which we dare not let go.

There are those who would have us believe that true theocracy is not attainable in this world, but such people have a shallow understanding concerning God's eternal purpose for His Church. To allow ourselves to be influenced by such thinking, after God has so graciously revealed this precious truth to us, would put us among the number about whom Paul wrote whose faith had been overthrown (cf. 2 Timothy 2:18). How sad it is to see those whose vision was once bright, having been illuminated by the Holy Ghost, fall victim to men who are reprobate concerning the faith.

Jude felt it needful to write to the Church, exhorting them to earnestly contend for the faith. And the need for such exhortation is just as great today. He warned of certain men who had crept in unawares, apostate teachers, whose purpose was to overthrow the faith of the believers. He used some rather strong language to describe these men as filthy dreamers, saying that they would despise dominion and speak evil of dignities. He went on to say "these speak evil of those things which they know not." (v. 10)

Jude's description of these false teachers corresponds well with that given by Peter in his second epistle: "But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities. (2:10) Self-willed people naturally despise government because they want their own way. Being puffed up in the vanity of their own minds, they presume their thinking to be superior; therefore, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

What makes this condition even sadder is that very few of these people seem to be able ever to recover themselves from this spirit which takes hold of them. This is because they are unable to see themselves as they really are, being blinded by an exalted opinion of their own importance. No doubt, they could have escaped such a sad condition if they had only taken heed to Paul's counsel when he wrote: "... but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves." (Philippians 2:3)

Since Satan's tactics remain much the same today as in the days of the apostles, men and women who will contend for the faith are in great demand. Jude's use of the word contend indicates that there will be a struggle—a struggle between right and wrong. The truth is, there is a battle raging now, and God needs soldiers who are convinced of the cause in which they are engaged. This is not a time to be neutral.

To profess neutrality is to have given up the fight, which indicates no further opposition to Satan's attempt to destroy the principle of theocracy from among us. To not oppose him is to aid him. To the church at Thessalonica Paul wrote, "... we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention." (1 Thessalonians 2:2) In his use of the phrase, "with much contention," we cannot think he was speaking of being contentious in the manner which we associate with evil; rather, he spoke of the fact that he was doing battle—he was in a struggle against wrong.

The Church needs men and women who will speak forth the words of truth with a strong voice, men and women whose vision is clear and who have no hesitation in standing flat-footed for the Church of God. This is no time for wavering. Remember who the Author of our faith is. The faith to which we are committed did not proceed from the minds of men—it is not mere humanistic thinking. It is divine, proceeding from the mind of God. It is a faith we can stand for with full assurance, because of the great confidence we have in our Lord Jesus Christ.

NOT HIS WILL THAT ANY PERISH

"The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." (2 Peter 3:9)

O what compassion our Lord has! The Psalmist in more than one instance described Him as being full of compassion. In studying the life of Christ we read, "And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them. . . ." (Mark 6:34) We may well question ourselves as to just how much compassion we are now feeling for the multitudes who are still lost.

Since we met together in the Assembly last year, we are told that approximately fifty million souls have gone into eternity, the vast majority of them dying unprepared to meet God. And they continue to go out every day. I am convinced that little will be done to stop this dreadful plunging of souls into an endless hell until we who have been redeemed are seized by a burden for their plight.

Just how great a burden for the lost is gripping us today? When you awoke this morning, did you feel concern for the thousands who will die lost before today's sun sets? As you prepared to come to this Tabernacle, what degree of compassion stirred your heart toward those who are doomed?

In last year's Annual Address the Sharing Eternal Life plan was introduced. Many of our people responded to this endeavor to reach lost souls, and as a result a large number of those who were lost a year ago now have their names inscribed in the Book of Life. This is cause for rejoicing! We are made to wonder just how much larger this number would be if all our people would have become fully involved in this soul-winning effort, being gripped with a genuine burden that was produced by hearts filled with compassion.

O how terrible it is to be lost! Yet, those who are lost have their senses dulled to the awful state they are in. Only those who have been made sensitive to sin's awfulness by the Holy Ghost can truly realize the sad plight of these doomed souls. We just must not allow ourselves to become complacent about such a serious matter.

Sharing Eternal Life must continue. We are thankful for the participation we had last year. Many attended the regional seminars that were conducted by the Evangelism Department, which were designed to acquaint a limited number of our people with this planned approach toward winning souls. From the reports we have received there was much zeal generated in these special meetings among those who attended as leaders from their areas.

Now we must forge ahead toward a greater involvement. It was never intended by our Lord that just a few would do all the work. "Every member a worker" must become a reality. We have made a start, and a few of our people have become acquainted with what we had in mind when this subject was introduced last year. But the majority of our members somehow were not affected by this plan of evangelism. This must change!

At the same time we know that the mere mechanics of any plan that is set forth will not produce spiritual results. So again this year we are also calling for an all-out effort in Intensive Intercession for Divine Intervention.

For the kind of revival we are needing in the Church I feel we must intercede with God for a renewing of compassion—the kind of compassion which produces a heavy burden for the lost. The Psalmist prayed: “Wilt thou not revive us again?” As His Church let us pray, “Wilt thou not intervene, O God?” We must have His intervention to lift us beyond mediocrity to become powerful in reaching the lost.

Prayer changes things! During last year when our churches through their prayer bands were engaged in the designated period of intensive intercession for divine intervention, there was probably more intensive praying going on among our people than at any time previously. And I believe that all of us can testify that it made a difference. Excitement was evident as different ones desired to share with us the good things they were experiencing in their churches as a result of this kind of praying. And it should not have ended. There is no place to stop praying while so much work remains undone.

Since this endeavor was spearheaded by the Assembly Band Movement last year, I believe it would be good to follow the same channel again this year. The idea of small groups praying together is Biblical, and history has proved their effectiveness. The General ABM Secretary will be organizing and promoting this year's campaign, and I want to encourage all our pastors and band leaders to accept the challenge of praying for divine intervention.

Our rate of reaching souls must be accelerated; we are not moving fast enough. Only God knows what will be needed to change us from our ordinary pace to that of doing exploits. Ordinary service will not be sufficient. That which is commonplace must give way to the supernatural. Right now our services are conducted in a manner that is much too predictable. When God intervenes, the change will be such that the results will be astonishing.

Now we are not seeking miraculous manifestations of God's presence and power for the purpose of drawing attention to ourselves. Rather we are seeking that kind of intervention which will enable us to move forward in reaching souls for the Master, hastening toward His glorious appearing, that time when our work will be finished.

We pray for an intervention that will displace all listlessness and indifference among us and fill us with a holy zeal. The time is late and the needs are so great; we cannot wait longer. Since it is not His will that any should perish, we will not please Him with efforts that fail to rescue the perishing. God will help us!

The compassion we possess which causes us to reach out for the unsaved around us will cause us also to be burdened for those among us who are overtaken by Satan's craftiness. We will not be satisfied to let them drift on in sin. Neither will we be pleased to just exclude them from the Church. O how sad to think of the large number who already have been turned over to Satan by lukewarm churches which lacked that love which wins and restores.

Compassion for one another will cause us to weep when one of our own brothers or sisters falls into sin. It will give us no rest until the fallen one is restored to the safety of the Church's loving fellowship.

Full of compassion—that is surely the thing we are needing to minister successfully in the Church of God.

CONFIRMING THE WORD

"So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God. And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen." (Mark 16:19, 20)

The message the early Church carried was powerful, and they delivered it with power. The result was that the Lord worked with them, confirming the Word with signs following. It was a message fresh from Heaven whose power penetrated human hearts and transformed lives. It was not difficult to detect it as being far different from the prevailing philosophies of that day because it carried the divine confirmation of signs and miracles.

There can be no doubt that this manner of confirming His Word which God did increased the effectiveness of the early Church's ministry. And it is no different today. We cannot hope to present the gospel of Christ as a mere philosophy of a man who lived two thousand years ago, and expect it to penetrate hearts. Our preaching and teaching must be accompanied by the confirmation of a living Person whose presence and power is obviously with us now. We should expect signs and miracles to follow our ministry.

We should not expect Him, however, to honor and confirm anything less than that which He commissioned His Church to carry. It is His Word which He will confirm, not a message that has been watered down and distorted by prevailing ideas or the traditional thinking of our society. It is the Living Word, Jesus Christ, who gives power to the written Word, and He will not give power to utterances which He Himself cannot accompany.

As we know, His promise of "...lo, I am with you always" is a conditional promise. For Him to be with us we must make certain that we are doing those things which qualify us to "be with Him." There must be a reason, when a God-called minister delivers messages continually which receive no confirmation by God, such as was evidenced by those in our text: "And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following."

I believe God is just as concerned about the effectiveness of His Word now as He was then. And we know that His Word is unchanging—it is as powerful now as it ever has been. When we have so many sermons reported monthly by our ministers with so few conversions, it makes us wonder what is wrong. God hasn't changed.

Two things stand out in the account of the early Church's success: the message they carried was powerful, and they delivered it with power. Since we can all agree that the Word of God is powerful and that it is unchanging, it would be well to consider the manner in which we are delivering it.

Of the apostles it was written: "And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all." (Acts 4:33) Their baptism was with the Holy Ghost and fire, and this fire burned within their hearts. They were not preaching a second-hand experience. Jesus Who had been raised from the dead had now come unto them and baptized them with the Holy Ghost. He had told them before His ascension: "But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me. . . ." (Acts 1:8) Now the Promise had come, and His power was real, and the effectiveness of their ministry is a matter of record.

Paul, whose ministry began later, "was not a whit behind" any of the other apostles. He wrote to the Corinthians: "... my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power." (1 Corinthians 2:4) On another occasion he wrote about this power, which he said, "... worketh in me mightily." (Colossians 1:29)

I wonder if some of us have not become too businesslike in our ministries. We know how to say the right things; we know the doctrine and how to present a good defense for particular points of doctrine. But we must not forget the purpose for the doctrine—it is to work in men's hearts, changing and shaping lives. And we cannot penetrate men's hearts with mere intellectual presentations of the Word. Our preaching must be in demonstration of the Spirit and of power!

This power will come, not just through study, as important as study is for a minister, but a preacher who expects to be anointed when he gets into the pulpit must find time to commune with God in prayer. Sometimes a minister will use a sermon which someone else prepared and delivered under great anointing, thinking the same sermon might have the same effect for him as it did for the other minister. Most often he learns to his regret a truth that has been stated many times: "You can preach another man's sermon, but you can't preach his inspiration."

We just must not continue ministries void of the power of God. God will confirm His word with signs following when both what we preach and the power of our preaching pleases Him. Yesterday's inspiration will not do for today's preaching. Truth never changes, but we can have fresh insights into the eternal truth. The Church cannot live in the past nor can we minister effectively to this generation with an inspiration that was given for a generation no longer with us.

I believe the Word of God is as relevant to people's needs today as it ever was, and as it penetrates hearts it will draw a response. Since God is unchanging, His love and concern for this generation is surely as great as it ever has been. What is needed then is that we all get under the burden of adequate spiritual preparation.

Do you believe God is still ready to confirm His Word? Do you believe that such confirmation is essential for the rapid spread of this last days message? Are you hungry for a ministry that is effective because of the power of God being manifested among us? Are you ready to pay the price of adequate preparation?

If we are ready, I believe God stands ready, and that there can be a new era for the Church's ministry. Ministers, I challenge you to dig into the treasures of the Word. Spend time alone with God and allow Him to anoint you with a fresh inspiration for declaring the eternal truth. Then go forth with power and watch God confirm His Word with signs following!

THE CHURCH OF GOD FLAG—FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY

It was during his Annual Address to the Assembly in 1933 that the subject of a Church flag was introduced by General Overseer A. J. Tomlinson. After giving a comprehensive summary of the Scriptures pertaining to the flag, he made the following explanation:

"All of these verses together tell the story of the flag, and also tell how the last days movement is going to draw the people of all nations. The red of the flag represents the blood of our Saviour, the blue represents truth, and white, purity. The purple of the sceptre, star and crown represents royalty or kingship. We are to go through any oppositions and set up our flag of victory on the territory we take for our King.

"We could not include any letters or writing, because the flag is to represent the Church in all nations and languages. When we establish a church we will soon want to raise our flag over the place, and nearby should be the flag of the nation in which we are establishing the Lord's Church."

It was on the following day, Saturday, September 16, 1933, at exactly 2:50 p.m., Central Standard Time, that the Questions and Subjects Committee presented their report which recommended the adoption of the flag, and this report was accepted by the Assembly. Following its acceptance the General Overseer gave some additional explanation, which was in turn followed by great rejoicing and demonstrations of the Spirit. According to the records the Holy Ghost manifested Himself so powerfully that the General Overseer, who had considered a special dedication of the flag, felt no further dedication to be necessary, inasmuch as the Holy Ghost had dedicated it Himself. L. A. Moxley, who as an Assembly clerk wrote about this time on program, said, "Thus closed the most wonderful dedication service that I have ever had the pleasure of witnessing. Surely the angels of heaven were rejoicing, and many will remember it for years to come."

This mighty act of divine approval meant much to those faithful saints in 1933 who had just come through ten years of reconstruction. Their determined attempt to preserve theocracy, as the only acceptable form of government for God's Church, had made them the objects of frequent ridicule, even by those whose earlier fellowship had been so precious to them. They accepted the flag as a fulfillment of a prophecy by David who wrote, "Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth." (Psalm 60:4) To them this banner represented a divine sanction upon their faithfulness to the truth.

Today, in this year of its fiftieth anniversary, this flag still carries deep meaning for the Church of God. Perhaps its greatest importance is to remind us of our responsibility to the great Head of the Church, Jesus Christ. We owe everything to Him for without Him there would be no flag; indeed, there would be no Church.

The red in the flag still represents the precious blood He shed for the remission of our sins and for the purchase of the Church of God. The white signifies a purity which God demands for those who would see Him, a purity which is possible only because Jesus died for us. The blue serves as a reminder of our commitment to the Truth, which Jesus declared Himself to be. Purple is an indication of royalty, and while we are referred to as a royal priesthood, what royalty could we possess apart from our King.

When we look at the emblems in our Church flag we are reminded again of Jesus. The scepter denotes power or authority. Who is the real Authority within the Church? It is none other than the Head of the Church—Jesus Christ. We owe to Him absolute submission of our wills, along with all our plans. We view the star as being symbolic of the bright and morning Star, while the crown signifies kingship. Our King of kings must be recognized as having complete dominion within this holy nation. There must be no attempt to usurp authority and dominion which is His alone.

A pledge of allegiance to our Church flag is in reality a pledge of allegiance to the lordship of Christ. Physical things must never be allowed to become objects of worship. God alone is worthy of worship. But physical objects can be useful in drawing our attention to those things which are spiritual, those things which are divine. And it is to this end that the flag serves a useful purpose on this fiftieth year since its adoption.

It is a reminder that only the acceptance of Christ's complete rule and lordship justified the stated intentions of the Church in the early years of this century to be the Church of God. No people with a lesser commitment need have laid claim to being His Church.

A reexamination of the prophetic verse, "Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth," serves to remind us of two things: the fear of God and the truth. At a time when the fear of God has been diminished in so many hearts by the desire for popular approval, it is good to be reminded that a requisite for receiving the banner of truth in 1933 was the Church's fear of God. This is still the key to success and victory for God's Church in this day. We may take a clue for this from an account written about the Church in the New Testament. Luke wrote, "Then had the churches rest throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied." (Acts 9:31) They walked in the fear of the Lord, and so must we.

Inasmuch as this banner is to be displayed because of the truth, unless we retain a steadfast loyalty to the truth we will be hypocritical to continue its display. But we must not lower our flag. Rather it should be hoisted high as a demonstration of our resolve to remain the pillar and ground of the truth. When we became members of this holy nation our covenant was to this end, that we would accept the Bible as God's Word and that we would believe it and practice it to the best of our ability. God's Word is truth; it is perfect; it is beautiful. The beauty of the flag is not just in its beautiful colors and design; its real beauty is in Whom it represents—Jesus Christ, the Way, the Truth and the Life.

A TRANSITION TIME FOR THOSE APPOINTED BY THE GENERAL OVERSEER

At the Assembly each year one of the final things on program is the appointments of those workers who will be working directly under the General Overseer's supervision. The practice we have been observing is that upon their appointments these workers assume immediate responsibility for the work to which they have been appointed.

Inasmuch as it generally takes some time for those who are given new assignments to get relocated, it appears that some inconveniences and hardships may be created by the practice of having to immediately assume the new duties.

In the case of pastors, auxiliary secretaries and district overseers, the practice of allowing a few days, and in some cases a few weeks, following their appointments before their new responsibilities begin seems to have made the transition easier for them.

It might be beneficial to adopt a similar practice with reference to those receiving General Appointments. If the current terms of those under appointment could end on the last day of the month in which the Assembly is held, the time of transition might be made a little easier.

If the Questions and Subjects Committee feels this is a subject worthy of consideration by the Assembly, they may present it in their report.

CONCLUSION

This Assembly concludes another year of preparation for Jesus' return. The years seem to go by so swiftly, and we seldom get done all we desire to accomplish. Yet, as we reflect upon all the souls who have been saved, sanctified, baptized with the Holy Ghost and added to the Church of God this year, we want to lift our hearts in praise to the Lord. He has been with us, even as He promised, and His fellowship has been a blessed experience.

What we have done is now on record. No effort for Him has gone unnoticed. Every prayer we have prayed, every witness we have given, all the work we have done—these things have not only enriched our own lives, but they have helped assure others of our love for God and of our concern for them.

We must not spend too much time in reflecting upon the past, however. Our greatest victories lie ahead. A new year will bring new opportunities. God will open doors for the advancement of our work, and we must be prepared to take advantage of every opportunity He thus gives us. It is so important that we maintain a spiritual readiness for all the Lord may have in mind for each of us as individuals. This is a spiritual work which cannot be done by carnal people. O we must be filled with His Spirit!

Life seems so short. Many of our fellow laborers who began this past year with us have now completed their labors and have gone on home. We can only imagine how glorious their homecomings must have been. The burden of finishing the work must be borne by those of us who yet remain here.

None of us know how much more time we are allotted before our summons will come to join those who have preceded us. Some of us who are here today are very likely attending our last Assembly. We must allow nothing to keep us from finishing our course with victory.

The days ahead will demand a special kind of courage. The fainthearted will not survive. An inspiration for the kind of courage we shall need will be found by looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith. He is our Great Example of steadfastness to the course which was prescribed for Him by His Father.

In a spirit of love and devotion to Him, let us stand now and lift up our voices together as we sing our beloved Battle Hymn.

NOTE: When the section was presented on the Church Flag, representatives of 43 nations marched around the platform with Church flags. Verlin Thornton, assisted by Clemmie Gladney who wrote the song, led in singing The Banner of Love. Those who were in the Assembly when the flag was introduced fifty years ago stood.

12:00 At the Battle's Front was led by A. J. Coalter with Jeanna Lee Allen, pianist; Mary Lois Hamm, organist. Dismissal prayer by C. S. Pennington. Gospel Concert during intermission directed by Phil Pierce.

AFTERNOON

1:00 Sunday School Program directed by Caroline S. Ledbetter, General Secretary. Theme: God Cares . . . We Care . . . ? Prayer by Allen Davis, Edna Rye, J. C. Cagle, followed by concert prayer.

1:12 Singing led by Esther Osborne. Scripture readings by these state secretaries: Tommy Ray, Martha Henderson, John Bosio, Johnny McDaniel, Diane Harris. Esther Osborne led in singing The B I B L E. Singing by: little Tiffany Stone; David and Rita Baroni; the Talbott Family; the King's Messengers; Memorial Park Avenue Choir, MI; prayer by state/national secretaries; solo by Gerdia Shewmaker.

2:39 The Big Question—message by Caroline S. Ledbetter, General Secretary. Excerpts: The Sunday school ministers to children, young couples, families; every race and every language. The care of God is reflected in the coming of Jesus; He shows us His care as He: reached out and touched the leperous man who was made whole; made mud out of the dust of the earth and put it on a blind man's eyes, when he followed the command of Christ came seeing from that pool; when He went to Calvary. As the Church of God, we are responsible to care. The world will never know that the Church of God cares if you and I don't care. Psalm 42:4. David was in a cave by himself; he didn't think anybody cared that he was alone, but soon he was rejoicing; he found that God had not left him alone. He hasn't left any of us alone. Luke 10:25, 26, 29b. How are you reading Deuteronomy 6:5; Leviticus 19:18; Luke 10:30-37? Who am I supposed to be concerned about?

The question is not whether God cares; He has expressed His care to this world, and we are responsible as the Church of God to show forth His love through our care. That road was rocky, narrow and a lot of sudden turns; robbers all through those hills; he fell among thieves. He is lying on the side of that road; a priest came back from Jerusalem. He went to the other side of the road and continued his journey; he did not care. He was more concerned that he might defile himself ceremoniously. This man had been beaten and left for dead. Everything he had was gone and this churchman just stepped over a little closer to the other side and went on down the road. The chains of ceremony were more upon him than the love of God. 1 Thessalonians 2:2, 4, 7, 8.

It is no ordinary privilege to work in the Sunday school. We were bold in our God, because we were allowed by our God, and we were willing in our God to share the truth. With all of this allowed, in all that willingness, there has to be a gentleness, a caring, a love that holds all this up. Then comes a Levite, who had been doing his duties. Some of us have been busy doing our duties and forgot to care about people, to be concerned and that the Word of God was given for people. The Levite was even more heartless than the first. Some of us are scared to minister some ways to our Sunday school. We are forgetting that God is able to keep us when we are doing what He wants us to do. God cares and the Church must care; do I care? The Samaritan came along; when he saw the man lying there, he felt a compassion. Lord don't let us get so bound together in love that it ties us up that we can't do what we need to do; that we can't reach out and love and care for people. The mellow feeling that made him stop and render immediate first aid—right then do something, not send somebody else back to help. He bound up his wounds. If you know John 3:16, you know enough to show that you care. He took him where he would get more help. He expressed his care in a true neighborly love. He had a sensitive heart; we must be tender before God if we show the care that we should. Jesus said to help those whose trouble seems to be of their own making; those who are not of your nationality; those who seem as though they don't really want your help. He revealed the hollowness of religious lip service. The song Love Lifted Me was personified in some people, who were walking, talking, breathing agents of His love. They told me that God cared; the Church of God cared; they showed me that they as individuals cared. God cares; we have got to care; it starts by individuals caring and expressing our care. Do you care about those neighbors and your family? If we don't care, the world does not know that the Church of God cares nor that God cares. The big question is do I care?

3:46 Assembly Expense Committee Report

We, your Assembly Expense Committee, beg leave to submit the following report to the 78th General Assembly:

We recommend that churches having less than 50 in Sunday School average contribute $2.00 annually to Assembly Expense; churches with Sunday School attendance between 50 and 100 contribute $3.00 annually; and churches averaging over 100 contribute $5.00 annually.

We recommend that each Victory Leaders Band contribute $2.00 annually; the Womens Missionary Band contribute annually a total of $2.00; and each minister, including deacons and lay ministers give $1.00 annually.

We recommend that pastors be responsible for collecting the Assembly Expense dollars for the auxiliaries and forward same to the respective state or national office, with the overseer to be responsible for collecting the dollars from ministers under his supervision. These funds are to be mailed to the General Treasurer as soon as collected. Funds received toward the end of the year may be included with convention auxiliary reports to the General Treasurer.

The above recommendations are made without changes to previous reports.

As a matter of information, your Committee offers this description of the manner in which Assembly Expense monies are spent: They cover costs involved with publication of the Assembly programs, audio expense, lot attendant's salaries, bus services relative to Assembly activities, utilities, various auxiliary promotional expenses, tabernacle maintenance, police salaries, housing, telephone, twice-annual meetings of Assembly-appointed committees, public relations, certain musical expenses, plus various incidental expenses involved with the preparation for and the operation of the Annual General Assemblies.

In conclusion, this Committee wishes to recognize the representation of Bishop M. T. Linkous throughout the year as he meets with various departments of the Church, relative to Assembly Expenses.

5:13 Assembly Band Movement Program directed by Eugene Weakley, General Secretary. Theme: Unifying Fellowship (John 17:21, 23) Devotional led by Norma King. John 4:24; song; Revelations 4:1, 2, 10, 11; 5:1-9; song and congregation worshipped the Lord and rejoiced; concert prayer.

5:50 Divine Intervention—Where Do We Go From Here?—message by Joe White. Comments: We have never seen uncertainty and despair like today. World leaders are trying to find answers to the world's problems. Jesus Christ is the hope of this world. It is the same throughout the church world. Never has there been such a time of denominationalism and confusion. Even in the Church of God, there seems to be some confusion as to where we go from here. Last year the General Overseer through the ABM called upon the Church for prayer for Divine Intervention. This is the only answer for the Church. It is time that we confess before God that all of our schemes and gimmicks have failed. Our answers lie not in committee meetings but in prayer meetings. It is time the Church did as Solomon called upon the Children of Israel to do. 2 Chronicles 7:14. John 17, Jesus prayed that His: glory would be revealed on them; Word would be preached by them; joy would be manifested through them; love would prevail in them.

In the Church in the wilderness, God's glory was seen in the form of a cloud by day and a fire by night. When Solomon built the temple in Jerusalem, God's glory was seen in the form of smoke; it was not God's plan to dwell in temples. Since the Garden of Eden, He had wanted to dwell in man. When He was crucified, the veil of the temple was rent from top to bottom. The way was opened in which God's presence could be in men and not in a temple. On the Day of Pentecost, God's glory was seen on the 120 who gathered in the Upper Room; 3,000 people were added; as Peter entered the gate and the lame were healed, 5,000 were added. Ephesians 23:21. Then came A. J. Tomlinson and the arise shine of the Last Days Church of God. I have read numerous accounts of balls of fire appearing over buildings and blue smoke in the services. All of these were manifestations of the presence of God which brought revival. When the glory of God is manifested, we will not need contests, programs nor gimmicks, but we have substituted everything else for the glory of God and have miserably failed. I call upon the Church to repent; we need the Glory of God in our midst.

John 17:8, 14, 17. One of the greatest dangers facing the Church is the substitution of the Word. Jesus rebuked the Pharisees. Mark 7:9. I have heard preachers twist the Scriptures to meet their private interpretations; people say we must protect the doctrine of the Church. If our doctrine is based upon the Scriptures (I believe it is), it will defend itself. It is time for the Church to earnestly contend for the faith that was once delivered to the saints. Amos 8:11. There is a famine in the world, even in the Church. Ministers, give them the Word; don't water it down or twist it around. John 17:13, 26. Philippians tells of Paul and Silas being in prison and at midnight the praises of the Lord was so strong, they began to sing. We know the results of that praise service. Nehemiah 8:10; Isaiah 12:2, 3; Ephesians 5:19. Church, we need the joy of the Lord in our lives and our services; let our praises flow from the heart. There is no pretense in the love of God. It gives, shares and cares. The love of God does not ask if it is a limit-paying church; it loves the pastor even if he offends you; loves your brother if he abuses you. It is the kind of love that reaches up and says, "Lord, forgive them, they don't know what they are doing." It will cause every member to have the same care one for another; when one suffers, we all suffer. This love has feelings: it hurts, rejoices, cares, gives and goes. Church, if we will put these divine principles into operation, we will have Divine Intervention.

6:07 Song by The Jubilations, TN.

6:10 Restoration by Yellow Ribbon Fellowship—message by Clive Jared. Comments: Galatians 6:1; 2 Timothy 2:24-26. Brother Weakley attended our ministers' convention, and he brought the thought of the song, "Tie a Yellow Ribbon Around the Old Oak Tree." The Lord was impressing me to find something to stir the people through the state to be concerned about reaching our backslidden members. God helped us to plan for Yellow Ribbon Months—April and May. Churches and pastors worked on it long before the months. Yellow ribbons were made and put on: steeples of churches, church doors, pews, limbs of trees in the church yards. Members pinned ribbons on themselves; the news media in some areas picked up on this. The concerned ministry and laity were encouraged to visit every member in that local church—not just backsliders, but strays; relatives of present and former members. There are multitudes of people who fall in these categories. If we could reach one out of every ten, we could double our membership. I am happy to report that forty-four of the backsliders in our state were affected by this plus many other contacts and people who are invited to come to church. Some words in that song about the old oak tree are, "If you still want me, I still want you." This is quite a challenge; would they always know that we want them? It is our responsibility to reach those people. Hebrews 13:3. The father of the prodigal son had the yellow ribbon spirit; the elder brother didn't have too much of a spirit of the yellow ribbon. I wonder if we are showing the concern and giving the attention to these people who need our help. Church, we need to have a spirit of meekness, love and unity. Look at my ribbon, and not just see a ribbon, but know from our hearts that we are concerned about bringing them back into the fold and they will be welcome to return home. We do not want to compromise, but we need to instruct those who oppose that God will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth. There are a lot of backsliders around this world and may God give us the spirit to reach out to them and say, "We want you to come home and acknowledge the truth, repent and be recovered from the snare of the devil."

6:25 Unifying Fellowship—message by Eugene Weakley, General ABM Secretary. Excerpts: John 17:20-23. Our General Overseer has requested the ABM to again spearhead this endeavor of intensive intercessory prayer. Its purpose is not for seeking divine intervention as just another program but for it to become a vital way of life for the Church. Along with intercessory prayer, the early Church gave great attention to the Word and fellowship. Acts 2:42, 43, 47; John 17:22, 23; Galatians 1:6-8; 6:1. Fellowship has a truth and doctrinal element. When this is threatened, New Testament fellowship is impossible. We must be able to distinguish between areas of truth and areas where we as a Church do not yet know. I don't think Paul and Peter lost fellowship over their different viewpoints, or Paul and Barnabas over methods. Truth and fellowship can't exist without each other; yet in search for truth, love must produce forbearance for each other. Ephesians 4:3, 11. We can't fellowship unfruitful works of darkness, but calling human frailties works of darkness is not forbearance.

Paul at Corinth encountered a problem of fellowship that had arisen over leadership. 1 Corinthians 1:10. This was not a doctrinal issue but preaching styles or hero worship. The essential work is God's leaders are servants. When Paul speaks of the relationship of worldly wisdom and the gospel, he is telling they are using worldly wisdom and aren't humble and giving glory to God. The church at Philippi had threats of disunity. There must be a striving together for the furtherance of the gospel. Paul appeals for unity and points to the example of Jesus. The root was pride. Philippians 2:3. There can be no unity without humility which comes from a fellowship with Christ. 1 John 1:3; 1 Corinthians 1:9; Philippians 1:5, 12. Paul didn't keep the Church on defense but offense. We blame each other for our lack of growth, when the real reason is we quit attacking the devil and attack each other. Hospitality is a great force for fellowship. It was taught in the Old and New Testaments. Matthew 25:35; Romans 12:13; 1 Peter 4:9. The early Church went house to house breaking bread. They exhorted and encouraged one another.

It is no coincidence that our band services have been recommended for the home. Hospitality is not just to our brother in whom we share a common ground, but any whom Christ has received. Romans 12:13; 1

Timothy 6:19; 1 Corinthians 9:12-15. We have a Biblical obligation to seek to restore fellowship. Matthew 5:23, 24; 18:22. In 1 Corinthians 5, Paul required a man who was guilty of fornication to be excommunicated. The man in 2 Corinthians 2 saw his mistake and repented. Paul told the church to forgive him lest Satan get the advantage of the church. The church took action and kept the holiness of God; if they did not go the route of love, their firmness could have become harshness. 2 Corinthians 7:12; 5:13, 14. Extremism is dangerous and destructive. We have been very strict and harsh at times; in an attempt to use love, we have allowed compromise. Whenever God's holiness and the purity of the Church is at stake, there must be as much love as firmness. When we act in a conference without tears, it is evident we are not ready to act. When love is not present, Jesus gives the world the right not to believe us. John 13:35; 2 Corinthians 5:13, 14; Romans 5:5. We must display a oneness among ourselves to attract the other sheep. 1 John 5:1.

Not only are we to display oneness, but the kingdom saints are to see the Church. Isaiah 60:4. God help us to seek a new depth of love; it is our greatest weapon. 1 John 17:26. No amount of fellowship, organization, or even Biblical admonishment will produce fellowship. Without love, fellowship is only a word. If you love only those who love you, what reward have you? We can't be just another social club. You can't put on this love—it is a gift. Matthew 17:23. The Holy Ghost unites as it did at Pentecost. It is easier to preach or write on love than to love. We are not condemned for failing to try to reach people with our message, but what about loving them for Christ's and their sakes? We can tell people God loves them, but do we love them? Divine Intervention would come overnight if in our prayers we would let the Holy Ghost speak to us of our lack of love for our brethren and we would leave our gift at the altar and go and be reconciled. Praying for one another produces real care. Babylon, the mother of confusion, stands like Goliath the giant did against David's brethren and the hosts of God's people. The battle is so severe that armies of the Lord can't arise and show the world the oneness it must in order for them to believe. This sin and curse upon God's people must be slain. Jesus is going to use the Royal Law of Love and slay this giant of division that separates God's people. Someone like David must come to view the battle, find the answer and take away the reproach from Israel or God's heritage. Like David, they must not let the criticism of their brethren's misunderstanding their purpose deter them. 1 Samuel 17:28, 29. Now is the time to do more than view. John 18:37. David was doing what he was anointed to do. Kingship calls for leading battles—not following—and giving victories. We may for a time go on killing bears and lions but that must not be our ultimate goal. The time has come to challenge Babylon—not with the program of man. It is a life or death struggle. Giant Babylon comes in her shiny armour, worldly wealth and political influence, but we go in the strength and the name of the Lord of hosts. 1 Samuel 17:45, 46. The devil is trying to bring a show of unity to this world. Revelation 18:1-8, 20. (Concert prayer led by Brother Weakley.)

7:23 Praise service conducted by Edna Rye with Warren Roney and Leon Schneider leading choruses. Ushers received Assembly expense offering.

8:43 Message on divine healing by Jerry P. Smith, NC. Excerpts: Psalm 78:19, 20 (He prayed.) Divine healing is an established doctrine in the Scriptures and in the Church. We don't have to try to explain it; we don't have to justify its scriptural value nor document its effect. The Church has recognized that divine healing is provided for all in the atonement. Isaiah 53:5; Psalm 103:2. We don't hear divine healing preached as often as we used to. Could it be that the ministry feels the Church has a perfect understanding of the doctrine of divine healing—it is up to them whether they are healed; or that the ministry is finding it too hard to preach something they find it hard to practice? (Told of his being healed of a stomach problem.) The Holy Ghost anointing will not come until we make the personal commitment to God to trust Him for healing of our bodies. We need a commitment from the ministry to trust God for the healing of our physical beings. I have prayed, "Oh, Lord, while you are healing our bodies, could you touch our vision as well." Matthew 17:14-21.

The lunatic's father asked Christ for mercy. James 5:15; Matthew 17:21. You can get rid of it if you will pray and fast. (Told of God healing his father and the members fasted and prayed until God answered.) Isaiah 38:3. We talk about worthy or unworthy. Hezekiah was tied to God by the Law; we are tied by grace. He had his upright walk with God; we have the stripes; he didn't have the grace nor stripes. Many of you are faithful, but neither faithfulness nor your worthiness will heal you. (Summarized Luke 7:1-10. Told of miraculous healing of his mother-in-law.) Jesus asked a man, "Wilt thou be made whole?" This means was it his desire to be healed. You have to make a commitment to God and want to be healed. The woman who had the issue of blood wanted to be healed. She wasted her money with physicians; went through the press to get to Jesus; she desired to be healed. Blind Bartemaius when others said to be quiet, he cried the louder for Jesus to have mercy on him. The Bible says that God hath placed gifts of healing in the Church. We shout about this being that Church. I believe it.

Jill Kendrick sang Rise and Be Healed. Music by Bahama Brass Band as 2,921 were anointed and prayed for; approximately 17,000 anointed cloths were distributed to the congregation.

10:36 Evangelistic message and altar call by A. J. Creel. Blake and Teresa Payne directed music and singing during altar service.

9:00 Preparing the Ark for the Other Sheep—message by Jose M. Rivera, Panama; interpreted by Raul Torres. Excerpts: Isaiah 6:1-8. The prophets of God came out victorious in some battles; frustrated in others. Isaiah tells a parable of a vineyard; chapter 6 tells of the vision. Upon that altar he sees the Lord in all of His majesty. This determined the way his ministry would go. He was seeking the Lord on His throne; he not only saw the Lord but he saw celestial beings called seraphims which signifies “the burning one,” and they glorified God. We must glorify God. The foundations of the temple were shaken; the house filled with smoke. It is important for us to know in the Church of God what is divine and what is not. The reaction of this prophet was “Woe is me.” He thought he was God’s voice; but when he saw the majesty of God, he confessed, “I am of unclean lips.” Nebuchadnezzar considered himself a genius; God let him see his ignorance; Belshazzar thought he was complete; God told him, “You have been weighed in the balances and found wanting.” When Paul was persecuting the Church, the Lord let him see himself. God wants us to see our shortcomings before we see others.

When God called Moses, he said, “I have never been of eloquent speech”; Jeremiah said, “I am slow of speech and a child”; Paul said, “Lord, what would thou have me to do?” John the revelator fell as dead. Isaiah had to be burned by the fire of God that he could be liberated to serve the Master. Some before they are prepared want to say, “Here am I, send me”; they do not want that fire to burn all of those things that are an obstacle to the Church. Matthew 24:37. This program is of God. I believe that Noah did not like the animals that went into the ark; the ark was not Noah’s—it was God’s. We hear people saying that they don’t like types of people; it is not our purpose to like nor dislike. God likes them; everyone must enter into the ark—the Church. It was not Noah searching for them; God brought them to the ark.

Today the Lord is sending many nations, races and people to the Church of God. How prepared are we to receive these people so they can feel welcome in the Church? We have to expect some external and internal obstacles—political, fight for power, financial and racial. Ministers, just as Isaiah was burned and prepared, that fire of God must burn from our minds things that have to come out so the Church can launch forward: hate among the countries, vain ideologies, liberal structures, humanism, self-sufficiency of the nations that are influential in its citizenship. Christ said, "My kingdom is not of this world." God has a holy nation in this world with a flag that regardless of all the differences of the world, we unite under that flag and protect ourselves. We are one body, one mind and our life is not in this world.

The cry of missions is FUNDS. The early Church sold all its possessions that the program of God could go forward. I am not referring to garage sales. I don't believe we have a lot of rich people in the Church, but we do have a lot of unnecessary things. I do not know if the form of completing God's program is that we will have to begin to part with our possessions.

9:38 Victory Leaders Band Program, directed by Terry L. Mahan, General Secretary. Theme: In His Hands a Vessel Surrendered. Grand entrance of Victory Leaders marching, waving banners and Bibles, praising God, and seated in auditorium; Terry Cox, coordinator.

10:12 Solo by David Baroni; duet by David and Rita Baroni. Randy Howard read Matthew 21:8, 9; led in singing two songs; 1 Corinthians 14:15. All worshipped and praised the Lord. Prayer in Spanish by Alfredo Saucedo; prayer by William Wilson. Song by Peggy Burton and group.

10:52 In His Hands a Vessel Surrendered—message by Terry Mahan, General Secretary. Excerpts: Summarized Acts 9—the story of a man who had an encounter with Jesus; surrendered to Jesus. He would never have the same: priorities, find the same goals; he surrendered his vessel into the hands of the master potter who began remaking him and molding him from a distorted lump of clay into a vessel that was suitable for the infilling of the Holy Spirit for the glory and honor of God. May our vessels be so surrendered to the Lord that we feel His hands as He molds us. Perhaps He has to rebreak us; or we have gotten so self-sufficient. Some of you may be so crushed you don't know what way to turn; why don't you surrender it all into the hands of the Master and let Him remold you?

I remember as a child in the Sunday school class about the story of Saul and his encounter with the Holy Spirit on that road to Damascus when Jesus showered His light on him. I was captivated that God was so powerful that He could take a man who was against Him and change him. Before Saul decided to serve God, Jesus chose Saul. He said, "He is a chosen vessel unto me." Everyone else thought that Saul would kill all the Christians. Can you imagine a God so full of love, grace and mercy that He chose a person like Saul? I don't know why God chose me, but I would be pleased to serve Him wherever He wants me; I believe this generation of young people are willing to serve the Lord where He wants them to. The broken vessel lay beside the road, who just moments before was arrogant and self-satisfied. One touch of the Master's hand, and he was so broken he said, "Lord, what will you have me do?" What can so change a man that one minute he was ready to destroy everyone that believed in Jesus; the next he was willing to do whatever Jesus wanted him to. He got a vision; an encounter with Jesus Christ. He was heavily steeped in the education of his people; he knew that burst of light could only come from God. It didn't take Paul long to calculate the facts; immediately his life was changed.

How many of you are on the road to Damascus and you are broken, crushed and your whole world is about to cave in on you? Look up to the Master and ask Him what He would have you do. Saul surrendered himself in prayer. It was as though God used temporary blindness to block out the things of the world so that Saul could concentrate three days preparing before he would proclaim the name of Jesus. It is important that you prepare yourself before you proclaim something; prepare ourselves spiritually. It takes more than just knowing steps of how to win a soul; or how to sing. We need to prepare and surrender ourselves to the Master. Pentecost was preceded by a prayer meeting. What would you do for three days if you were blind to everything of this world, you wouldn't have any books; nothing except sitting in darkness and communing with God. I have never seen a generation that is so tuned and committed to the Word and to times of prayer and communion. They want to be saturated with the Spirit of the Lord and be surrendered into His hands. I believe we are about to see a spiritual harvest in the Church of God. I see a generation of young people who are committed to the Lord and His Church. Note how the Lord used the Church to minister to Saul. God could have done the full conversion without using anyone else. When you have gone as far as you think you can and have about given up hope, He whispers your name to someone to pray. Don't give up when you feel your vessel being broken. Just know that the Master is getting you ready. Annanias stood in the gap and built a hedge around Saul. Annanias went and laid hands on Saul; something happened to that vessel. His eyes had been in blindness; when the Holy Spirit touched him, it drove those scales off his eyes; he was ready to boldly proclaim the name of Jesus Christ. Oh that God would touch us again! Great is the sound of joy when scales fall from our eyes and we get a good vision of who Jesus Christ really is. I want Him to touch my eyes afresh. (Asked all to raise their hands and ask the Lord to give them a fresh touch; let those scales of burden and your job drop and His freshness burst through.)

11:12 "Touch Me Lord, One More Time"—sung by Reggie McDougale and some TC students; there was praising and worshipping the Lord, which continued as Dennis Roach read Psalm 27; Ingrid Hutchinson and Johnny McDaniel read Psalm 46; chorus led by Randy Howard; song by Barry McDonald, Mike Flippo and Bruce McDonald.

11:42 Monologue by Ron Craig based on Mark 5:1-15—the delivered man who was possessed with a legion of devils. Ron and Debbie Craig sang “That’s What Jesus Is To Me.”

11:55 Brother Mahan challenged the young people to set them free; those needing help from the Lord raised their hands and those near them laid hands on them. The young people were admonished to recommit their lives to God and the Church. Some were saved; Kevin Parker testified to being saved. (Keyboard concert by Jim Possinger and Ron Scotton; brass concert by Pape Avenue brass, Canada/East, during intermission.)

AFTERNOON

1:00 White Wing Publishing House Program, directed by Henry O’Neal, Business Manager. Prayer by J. E. Elliott; comments by Brother O’Neal. Three songs by Children of Light, AK.

1:15 Outreach '83 Recognitions: see White Wing Messenger—September 24, 1983 issue; Self-Denial Report on page 34.

1:20 Introduced Willard Boyles who is the instigator of the Victory Leaders raising funds to print literature. She spoke briefly encouraging us to continue to work at the publishing of the gospel.

1:24 Sunday School Literature Boost—Perry E. Gillum, Editor. Comments: It is the responsibility of the Editor to develop and prepare for distribution all the official Sunday school curriculum used by our local churches around the world. It is the responsibility of the White Wing Publishing House to publish that material and make it available; glad to be a part of the great literature work in the Church. It is a great work; it is more important today because of the eminent coming of the Lord. Literature is going to play a major role in the end time bringing everyone together, studying, walking by the same rule, minding the same thing, believing and practicing all together. I believe our Sunday school literature will play an important role in helping to accomplish this great and wonderful walking in unity. (Told of new literature available this year. See SS Literature Editor's Report on Monday. Read names of SS literature writers and introduced those who were present. Expressed appreciation to each, as well as his office staff.)

1:37 Merchandise Department Presentation—Louis Sullivan. He introduced those who had authored books this year and gave titles of the books and materials. Betty Barker wrote the song "The Year of the Bible"; she and others sang it.

1:51 Two songs by the Benson Family.

2:03 World Literature Outreach: Mexico—Ruben Cormona. I appreciate the literature of the Church. Starting this quarter, all of our Spanish Sunday school literature will be printed in Mexico City and distributed to the countries in Latin America. The minutes of the General Assembly last year were printed in Mexico in Spanish and distributed. I believe the Holy Ghost moved upon you to give so generously to increase our literature for the whole world. The printed Word will be a great impact to other organizations. Our Latin people have been blessed by having quite a bit of literature in Spanish. We are hungry for the things of God.

El Salvador—David O. Linares. Approximately thirty years ago the message of the Church came to El Salvador. The greatest part of the work was because of literature we received. The Lord is blessing us to receive our literature periodically. I express appreciation to all who have contributed to this great work. About eighty percent of the Church has been educated exclusively with literature of the Church. We are making efforts to cooperate with the White Wing Publishing House. We are not able to pay all the expenses. It is imperative for us to have literature. Two denominational congregations and their pastors have joined the Church directly because of the literature of the Church of God. We are not allowed to use time for radio, television nor newspapers; we go to places with our printed literature and teach the people.

Haiti—Jean E. Vital-Herne. We have many tracts printed in French. Other church organizations pick up our literature and get knowledge about what we teach. All of our Sunday school booklets are printed in French; the Called to Teach course—I taught the course to more than one hundred and fifty people. The BTI books, the Body of Christ, Bible Truths, General Bible Knowledge courses; many of our auxiliary materials are printed in French. The White Wing Messenger is received regularly. In Haiti you cannot find much Christian literature, so they read our White Wing Messenger. People outside the Church are interested in our literature. Our people of Haiti are praying that this work can continue.

Botswana—Malvern L. Dube. I distributed some tracts in Hironi, the capitol city of Botswana, going from house to house and in the townships. I discovered that many were interested in the question of divorce and remarriage. Many would read and others ask questions. One man asked me to visit in the evening; at his house, he told me that he was saved years ago and had been preaching ever since but the way your Church teaches on divorce and remarriage is quite strange to me. He said, "I had better discard all I have learned before and join the Church which explains the Bible more than any other organization I have come across." Through this contact, we organized a church in Hironi. Our people appreciate what you have done, and thank you for making it possible for the World Language Department, White Wing Publishing House and the Sunday School to produce in our language. The Word, if printed in the language of the people, has power to change lives. I believe that is going to happen in our country.

(Adrian Temple, LA, was introduced. He owns a print shop, and has printed and donated all of our tracts in the Korean language.)

2:38 "I Pledge Allegiance"—song by Bo Robinson.

2:35 Fifty Years With the Church Ensign—What Does It Represent and What Does the Future Hold?—message by A. R. Morrison. Excerpts: Psalm 60:4; James 1:16; Acts 15:18. All things pertaining to the Church have been planned by God; He unveils them as He pleases. It is obvious that during these fifty years since the flag has been in existence, it has played a unique role in the operation of the Church; been used on numerous occasions on national and international levels to indicate His will and direction for the Church; the spirit of truth inspired the creation of the banner of truth.

One of the most outstanding demonstrations of the flag in indicating His will for the Church was in the selection of our present General Overseer. A flag was wrapped around his body; a small flag in his hand. The Holy Ghost at this crucial time in the history of the Church of God used the flag. Tragedy would have been the lot of the Church if this divine direction had not been given in which the flag was an instrument. All God's people must be submissive to the advice of the Good Shepherd as He directs this great nation under the ensign of the truth. In the history of Israel, there appeared a mighty display of the presence of God among them; the Church should welcome the recalling of God's dramatic manifestations among us; He is the same yesterday, today and forever; His people must be the same. God's sheep are sensitive to His voice. The Last Days Church experiences moments of exceptional displays of the presence and direction of God. It was necessary for the church in the wilderness to recall those manifestations; it is in order for the Church today to refresh its memory of the high points in its history. One of these was the introduction of the Church Flag in the 28th Assembly, 1933.

Israel in the Old Testament was given the status of a church as recorded in Acts 7:38. The New Testament Church is given a status of a nation; Israel was called a church. 1 Peter 2:9. It was God's intention when He gave the flag that the Church would be permanent. The territory of the Church is the whole world. Matthew 28:19. The all nations flag unites all people under theocratic government. The economy and inheritance of the Church are in the riches of the promises of God. Isaiah 6:4-6. The culture of the holy nation is righteousness and its language is holiness. In Jeremiah 31:35, the Lord guarantees the permanence of the nation of Israel. Matthew 16:18; Numbers 1:1, 52. The instructions came when Israel was preparing for battle. It is not without battles that the Church must be in possession of all the promises of God. Song of Solomon 6:4; Galatians 3:29. Paul describes the Church in Ephesians as the Body of Christ; in Galatians 6:16, it is called the Israel of God. When Israel was being emancipated from Egypt, God instructed that the standard be raised; when the Church emerged from the Dark Ages, God gave the revelation of the flag. Isaiah 59:19. The Church on its march toward the final consummation of God's plan must be marked with the fear of God. Psalm 14:12, 14; Exodus 18:21. It takes leaders who fear God to take the Church to its destiny. 2 Samuel 23:2, 3.

The Church is not these ultramodern buildings; it is real people. The favor of God is a necessity for the success of the Church. When Israel lost the fear of God, it initiated the corruptness of other nations to their destruction. If the Last Days Church loses the fear of God, it will initiate the corruptness of the denominations. Proverbs 19:23; Ecclesiastes 12:13. The duty of the Church is to fear God as it operates under the banner of truth. When Israel lost the favor of God, the enemy triumphed over it. Truth implies all facts as they relate to God in His supreme administration; an integral part of administration is the theocratic government of the Church. The flag is an identification of God's government. Christ is truth and was truth in the world. He was identified by a piece of cloth—the babe was wrapped in swaddling clothes. His Church is identified by a piece of cloth. 1 Timothy 3:15. The Church is the foundation and groundwork of the truth. The flag is not for decoration. Let the Church go on in full assurance that we are flying the flag for the truth and the Church of God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

3:34 Tomlinson College Program, directed by Emerson Hall, President. Theme: Scholarship with Spirit. Music by Bahama Brass Band as 443 students and alumni marched in and around the platform carrying banners showing years TC has been operating—1968-1983. Music by TC students band. A student read Psalm 150:1-6; prayer by college personnel, joined by congregation.

3:51 TC Choir sang "Let's Just Praise the Lord" and "Let Us Sing Glory and Praises."

4:14 Reggie McDougle sang "Jesus Is the Cornerstone/Rock of Ages." Musical by TC Band: "The Old Rugged Cross." Choir and Band: "He Shall Wipe Every Tear From Our Eyes." Alumni Duke and Shirlene Stone and Tim Coalter sang two songs.

4:30 Singing by TC Chorale; remarks by Jerry Adams. Two songs by students choir; musical by band.

4:45 Comments by President Emerson G. Hall: Several of you have questions on accreditation and the progress the college has made. In October, 1979, the college went into a candidate status for accreditation with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. That is normally a six-year program to proceed from a candidate status to full accreditation; however, we received our final evaluation in April of this year. We have responded to the evaluation and expect to hear on our accreditation within ninety days as to the decision by the association for the college for accreditation. Help me pray that we will receive that accreditation.

Our enrollment this year is 270, and we thank the Lord for increase over last year. We are just about to capacity; the girls are squeezed a little. We appreciate their patience; as we expand and the enrollment grows, we expect to expand the college. We have a beautiful campus, well maintained by our General Properties Maintenance. Preliminary plans have been made for construction of an additional classroom building, which is very much needed. As funds are available, perhaps we will be able to build this soon. (He introduced the Board of Trustees, staff and faculty as each stood.)

The college is an educational institution of the Church and for the Church, functioning under God's divine guidance; operated by God-fearing men and women.

"The Lord is my rock; my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength . . ." Psalm 18:2.

Deuteronomy 32:4: "God is the rock. . ." He is immutable, immovable, and He is to all that seek Him an unpenetrable shelter; all that trust Him is an everlasting foundation. Are you glad you are building on that everlasting foundation? Are you on the rock?

Jesus said in Luke 8:13: "They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away." Thank God that we know of the Rock and are building on an everlasting foundation.

4:50 Band played as choir sang, "Standing On the Solid Rock."

4:54 Rightly Dividing the Word of Truth—message by Robert E. Rawlins. Excerpts: 2 Timothy 2:15, 16. Rightly divided does not mean that every individual is free to accept or reject Scripture by exercising his opinion. The Scripture is rightly divided by the whole Church meeting in the General Assembly, as it is outlined in the New Testament. In an individual interpretation, there is danger; in the multitude of counselors there is safety. God is not going to allow His Church to drift into heresy; He will correct any errors in human judgment which might arise in the Assembly. 2 Peter 3:16; Matthew 22:29; 24:45. The care of ministers must be to approve themselves unto God, to be accepted of Him; must be workmen. Workmen who are unskilled, are unfaithful and lazy, have need to be ashamed. Their work is to rightly divide the Word of truth—not to invent a new gospel. It requires great wisdom, study and care to rightly divide this Word of truth. James 1:5. Timothy must study in order to do his work well and so do we. The heretics thought their performances might recommend them, but the apostle called them profane and vain babblings. 2 Timothy 2:17, 19. They erred concerning the resurrection of the dead. They did not deny the resurrection but they said that it meant a spiritual resurrection only. There is a spiritual resurrection but there is to be a real resurrection of the body. 1 Corinthians 15:19.

Many people are studying. Church of God members tune in to the air waves and sometimes bring what we hear into the Church, therefore causing confusion. We need to study with the Spirit of God directing us. I am afraid at times we let our knowledge of the Word supercede the Spirit of the Word. We must know the Scriptures in order to use them. Matthew 4 tells of Jesus fasting forty days and nights. Satan knew the Scriptures and tempted Jesus. Jesus knew the Scriptures and let Satan know that man shall not live by bread alone. Satan led Jesus to the temple in Jerusalem; showed Jesus the kingdoms of the world and offered to give them to Jesus. Jesus said that we are not to tempt God. Satan attacks your weak points; he is the prince of the air; he desires to draw us back into captivity. Jesus tells us if we keep His commandments and walk in His ways that what we ask He will give us. We have come from the wrong side of the tracks and gone uptown; left the Spirit of the Lord on the other side of the tracks. When we gather in our fancy church houses, we must make sure the Spirit is with us. The sheep are coming; we have a work to do. Sometimes we don't really want to share the Word of God like we ought to, we feel so inferior because of small numbers; you and God are a majority. Satan knew God; Jesus saw Satan fall from heaven; he is still the prince of the air. Sometimes we lose the importance of the Holy Ghost, thinking He is for jumping and shouting. He is to lead us and guide us. If I am going to see eye to eye with you and you with me, we must remove barriers that are hindering us from growing. In the world, there are classes, but in the Church of God there are no classes; we are all baptized into one spirit. I think we are losing the importance of real sanctification, which is when the old man dies; we no longer have individuality; we shed it and become Christ's. There are no differences between the Holy Ghost, the Father and Jesus. We have differences in the Church of God; we must do like Paul said to grow up in Him and become that perfect man in Jesus Christ. Rightly dividing the Word is not just putting a message together; it means understanding what the Spirit is saying. Don't study for self-gratification but that you may win men unto Jesus, so we can disciple for Christ. We need to win souls to God and let Jesus bring them to the Church. We must preach, testify and worship Him. God will do the drawing.

5:28 ENCHANTED JOURNEY—a splendid performance of a children's musical based on PILGRIM'S PROGRESS, directed by Sondra Hunter, assisted by children from Alabama and Tennessee. The Spirit of the Lord came down and everyone was touched.

E. Van Deventer welcomed Belgium.

Message and interpretation: "Yea, a small stone shall become a great mountain and shall tread down every kingdom of the earth. Yea, I shall go with thee, I am thy head, I am thine head, yea, when I return every nation shall have heard of me and my Church. Yes, they shall all hear."

Salute to the Church Flag led by Mission Representatives: Bobby R. Snow, Australia, Asia and South Pacific; Raul Torres, Central and South America and Mexico; A. C. Moss, Caribbean Islands; E. E. Van Deventer, Europe, Africa and Middle East. Pledge to the Church Flag by entire Assembly. Bahama Band played "Tis a Glorious Church" as those carrying the flags marched out. Handkerchief wave and worshipping God.

8:42 Dimensions of Biblical Unity—message by Adrian L. Varlack, General Secretary. Excerpts: John 17:20-23. This gives us a glimpse of God's desire for the unity of His Church. Christianity for the most part has accepted an invisible unity of spirit; an invisible spiritual unity of all believers in the family of God. Refer to Romans 1 and 2. To accept the chaotic conditions among Christians as the Church is to confess that our Lord is unable to accomplish His purpose. His claims to unity and oneness, to being the only mediator between God and man is not attested to by the state of what the world now calls the Church. I do not disagree with those who claim the unseen oneness of all believers in Christ. This is a sound biblical fact and I accept it as the family of God. I cannot agree that this invisible dimension is what our Lord had in mind when He prayed in John 17. There would be no point to His prayer if the unity for which He prayed was not visible. How will the world know unless they can see. Men make the error in assuming that what is, is what God designed to be. Beginning from the premise, the Bible is made a tool of human fallibility rather than the Word. The Church of God must never yield to such pressures and influences; there would be complete destruction of the very purpose for which the Church was set in order.

As the salt of the earth, the Church must influence the world and not be influenced by it. If the Church is to be recognizable by the world as the embodiment of the principles taught by our Lord, that Church must attempt to implement, not to theorize, those principles which are consistent with the Word. The nature of the Church is settled by the Word of God. In general, the secular world nor the religious community has taken very seriously our preaching of the visible unity of the Church. We are mocked and shunned as religious fanatics—not only by the world, but by some Christians who have trouble reconciling what we say and what we do. No one could charge the early Church with religious frivolity or playing church. They were regarded as those who turned the world upside down. The problem lies not with our message but with our moral and spiritual condition. Matthew 23:2, 3. We don't need to sit back and think that because we have correctness of doctrine that we have moral soundness. The pharisees could tell what was right, but their message was not authenticated by practice.

Fifty years ago the Church of God was not simply a message our forefathers proclaimed; it was an experience they lived and is why they had such power with God; they were persecuted for they upset the religious world. If it was necessary to do that to get started, it is necessary for the Church to do that to finish. They were not seeking the acclaim of the world and the favor of God. They were sold out to Him as His Church. We don't have to prove to God that we are His Church. God has set the pattern in His Word. Let us wake up that we have to take measures to implement what the Bible says. Their unity, deeds, Christian care for one another was open to world inspection. The Church of God to them was not just a doctrine to be preached; they put their all into what they were doing. We don't need to be afraid of the Holy Ghost making errors. Let us get rid of our fear of wildfire so the Holy Ghost fire can be in God's house. They believed in the baptism of the Holy Ghost and that the Holy Ghost was a person to be followed. The Holy Ghost can lead the whole world. John 14:16, 17; 1 Corinthians 2:9, 10.

It is necessary to have organization in the Church; if we don't know how to follow the leading of the Holy Ghost, our churches will be like social clubs. The early Church was not popular; they were known in hell as well as being registered in heaven. It is time that we become known for doing and preaching what is right—they were put in jail. Sin is on every hand; we must lift up our voices. When we catch the vision of where we are going and doing, we won't worry about what the world has to say. Not only does the world not take us seriously, sometimes we don't take ourselves seriously. 1 Corinthians 12:12-22. We are a body and every part is necessary. God's design for the Church includes every person of every race and nation. This is the Church of God, and I have a place in it; and so do you. People all over the world are sacrificing for the Church of God to accomplish the work that the Lord gave her to do. I am against the principle which despises the poor. We don't need to require them to be wealthy to be equally members of the Church of God.

We must recapture the concept of God that drove our fathers to their knees. We need to review our priorities toward the Lord's work; develop a serious concern for our brothers and sisters in other lands. John 13:35. For eighty years we have heralded this message of one united visible Church made up of fleshly bodies under covenant; others are beginning to issue this same call. I say to the Church of God, let us not lose by default that which was given us by revelation. Let the Church be the Church.

9:59 Levi Clarke gave altar invitation. The Singing Jones', NC, directed music and singing during altar service.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 11 MORNING

7:30 Sunrise service conducted by Charles Blaniar and Horatio Cameron. Piano music by Willystene Calfee; Phil Hoover, organist. Music by Bahama Brass Band.

9:00 Womens Missionary Band Program directed by Elva Howard, General Secretary. Theme: Light a Flame. Devotional by Kathy and Rick Creasy; Randy and Bess Howard. Prayer by Randy. These Scriptures were read: Matthew 5:16, Acts 2:1, 2 Timothy 1:1, 6, Jeremiah 5:14; 20:9, Matthew 24:12, Revelation 2:2.

9:15 David Baroni sang, "Keep The Flame Burning." 2 Corinthians 4:6; prayer of praise by congregation. Gloria Hart and Jo Nell Adams led the Ladies Retreat Choir in singing; Jonell Klapp, pianist; Jenna Allen organist.

10:06 Our Light Is a Lifeline—Carolyn Erwin. (She told of women ministering Biblically in Kentucky.) One of our prayer groups started when a school teacher had the neighborhood children gather at her home to wait for the bus to go to school; she prayed with them before they left for school. From this came about a prayer group meeting every Tuesday with the mothers. At the state convention, a lady brought us a notebook of prayer requests and answers for four years. In our ladies day, Charlotte Collins spoke and the power of the Holy Ghost surged through the auditorium and scores of ladies jumped to their feet and the Lord met their needs. God is doing great things through ladies when we minister Biblically. I have conducted Mission Saturdays in districts—a covered dish affair, or meet at a restaurant. Purposes of these Mission Saturdays were to: worship God and to enlarge our vision of missions. Sister Nyamhuka, a national overseer's wife, told me if she had a sewing machine, garments could be made so that all could attend church. I shared this with my overseer and others. We called our offering "Sewing Machines for Missions." Many have contributed to this, as well as material. This helped to boost our state convention mission offering. We ministered to each other and shared. People have troubled homes, wayward children, financial problems. I want to light someone's candle this year by the power of the Holy Ghost.

10:15 Who Will Give Them Light?—message by C. C. Lanter. Excerpts: Matthew 28:19, 20; Acts 1:8. According to statistics, there are almost five billion people in the world with two hundred and twenty-five thousand being added each year. We like to think of them as living in a foreign country, but some live across the street from you and me. You and I will give an account to God of the way we have practiced this commission. We have listened to radios and televisions and heard of ministers reaching thousands. It seems that this may have minimized our responsibility. Can anyone else do our work? I have believed for years that God gave the Church a message that must be preached throughout the whole world. We have set back many times feeling that because our neighbors go to some organization that everything is well with their souls. While we are watching television, people are walking down our streets waiting for an opportunity to walk into your neighbor's home and teach them a doctrine that will take them into darkness.

When I was in North Dakota, we had a severe winter. Hundreds of deer and antelope starved to death and their stomachs were full. When the snow was so deep they could not get the grass that gave nutrition, they ate dried grass. I am afraid that thousands are starving to death with their stomachs full. Because they listen to television or have a prayer meeting in their homes does not mean it is well with their souls. Somebody has to take the doctrine to them. The Word of God will sustain them. Our General Overseer had as the theme of our Presbytery Meeting "Empowered to Witness." You say that you have been trained to witness; it takes power to witness for God; a light to be a light. You can hold a stick up, but it will not give light unless there is some fire in it.

I grew up where we didn't have electricity in our home; our light was a kerosene lamp. My mother thought she was a clean housekeeper. My father wired our home. With all the fancy light fixtures he put in, there was still no light. When it got dark, the power company turned the power on. My mother examined her house and was astonished. She told my dad to turn it off, but she realized she needed to get the vessel cleaned up. The Bible says that after ye receive the Holy Ghost that power will come upon you that will compel you to witness for Jesus Christ. Ask God to empower you to witness for God. No wonder we fail in our witnessing. Lot of times all they see is the vessel and not any light. When I was in Hawaii working as a building contractor to raise funds for our local church, I met a Christian Japanese contractor. Trying to impress him I told him I was a Christian. He looked at me and said, "Let me hear your testimony." We are supposed to give our testimony. Isaiah 6:5-7. He didn't feel worthy to be a light of God, but he said, "Here am I Lord, send me." That is my challenge to you. Dedicate your life to Jesus and give them light.

10:33 RESPONSES—I WILL GIVE MY LIGHT: To My Fellow Students. (Jose Reyes, Jr. was absent; Sister Howard told of his accomplishments.) Jose graduated from the Cleveland High School (TN) this year with nationwide honors; awarded the golden medal by the President of USA for being an outstanding student as well as a Christian. He was president of the Cleveland High student body and is going to college on a scholarship at Duke University, NC. He is a challenge to all young people to give light.

To My Countrymen—Katja Koymari. (She is from Finland and heard about the Church in a language class in Germany.) I was five years of age when my parents moved from Finland to California, where I learned to speak English. When I was thirteen years of age, I was practicing yoga and reading all the books I could lay my hands on dealing with spiritualism, etc. I didn't see the danger and was depressed and confused. When I was fifteen years of age, my parents moved to Germany. At school I got saved, and asked our Overseer Larry Turner if I could go to his church. They spoke in tongues, prayed aloud; I had never heard that. I went back because God had a plan for my life. I dated my Sunday school teacher, Art Smith, who taught me the basic teachings of the Church. My friend from Finland visited us, and I took her to church. She told another girl in Finland; when I went back, there were three of us who had seen something we were excited about. I didn't have a vision of the Church; started visiting other churches. For me to get the vision, it came by comparing other churches. I attended a Lutheran group; ended up teaching Sunday school. My mother resisted strongly. The girls realized the little Lutheran group was turning into a Church of Prophecy Sunday school. We received material from the White Wing Publishing House and the Voice of Salvation cassettes; translated these into Finnish. In 1981, Brother Van Deventer went to Finland and organized the Church with five members; a year later we got our pastor Charles Shirley. Then we had eleven members; when we left Finland, we had twenty-five members. I told my sister, my brother, my girl friend; they told others. I wasn't planning on lighting a light. I just shared what I was excited about, that is why it is important to share your light. God had a plan for my life and for Finland it is just beginning. We have problems; we want to get the whole country for Finland.

(Demonstration by Maryland delegates: "Win the Lost At Any Cost" was sung as ladies carrying placards marched around the platform with sayings such as—I minister to the sick; visit the sick and shut-ins; give home care to the dying; minister to more than fifty children in my home; am a nursing home volunteer; have a visitation ministry, etc.)

To My Family—Pat Anderson. (Introduced family.) About twelve years ago, Amanda was dedicated to the Lord. We needed God's wisdom; we wanted her to be like Jesus. I wanted my home to be filled with love—God is love. Deuteronomy 6:6-12 tells about teaching our children to walk in the statutes of God. I felt my children do not need posters hanging over their rooms with earthly heroes; I put posters so they will know who watches over them and protects them. Our homes must be a house of prayer. I don't believe parents can be too overly protective of what this press of the world offers. We must give reasons for do's and don'ts from only the Word. I cannot depend upon teachers, band leaders nor grandparents to teach my children to walk in the statutes of God. I must be a stable light for my family. The light is promised to the righteous in Psalm 97:11. Proverbs 22:15. Sometimes I have to pull out a rod of correction. This is very hard when we hear so much on child neglect, abuses and hatred. It is child abuse when we don't love, correct and chasten our children. God chastens those He loves. If I don't teach my children to obey me, how will they learn to obey their Heavenly Father. At discipline time, we show them why discipline has to be applied. The motto doesn't work with my children — "Don't do as I do, but do as I say do." We memorize Scriptures together, read the Bible and pray and go to church together. When I do not permit my children to go along with the crowd, I create something they will be happier with; to the glory of God. I want a stable life and a secure child; I must be stable and secure in the Word. 2 Timothy 1:5. I read it to my daughters this way: "When I call to remembrance, the unfeigned faith that is in thee (Amanda and Elizabeth), which dwelt first in thy grandmothers Alma and Jane, and thy mother, Pat, I am persuaded that it will be in thee also."

11:01 Through the Mission Doors—Dan Howell told about these dedicated women who are serving on the mission fields as they marched across platform and Eliza Moss lighted candles: Eva de Coronel, Argentina; Advira Thompson, Bahamas; Wilma Knights, Trinidad; Laverne Davis, Canada (East); Ruth Doroshuk, Canada (West); Rosa Nellys de Marrero, Guatemala; Nereyda Valera, Dominican Republic; Clara Scroggins, Australia; Juanita Mojica, Costa Rica; Shirley White, England; Regina Fowler, Germany; Isabella Williams, Turks Islands; Adolfin de Liberato, Mexico (North); Judith Torres, Colombia; Margarita Madrid, Spain; Ellie Charalambou, Greece; Viola Graham, Jamaica; Sharon Corbett, Japan; Verona Rogers, Virgin Islands; Lydia Santiago, Puerto Rico; Teresa Gladis Ortiz, El Salvador; Felecia Payano, Honduras; Doris Ard, Philippines; Bonnie Holcombe, Thailand; Hermine Barclay, Uganda; Fausta Vital-Herne, Haiti; Beauth Moss, Bermuda; Diana Pruitt, Paraguay; Janice Slaton, Philippines; Glenda Shroyer, Germany; Joyce Endecott, Netherlands Antilles.

11:42 Helping Hand Offering was received—$23,355.02, as Jason Mounce sang two songs. Prayer by Frank Howard.

11:52 A Consuming Fire—message by Elva Howard, General Secretary. Excerpts: Exodus 24:17; 1 Kings 18:24; 2 Chronicles 7:1-3. Since early times, fire has played an important part in the lives of men and nations. We must remember fire is fearful, awesome, destructive and protective. Fire denotes power. In the Word, fire was God's power to destroy or protect; always its manifestations were to show His power. God's flame is eternal. Hebrews 12:29. In the Midianite bush, he was the great I AM; the ever present, powerful and eternal one; in the wilderness, fire protected the entire camp through the night. Fire stood between Israel and their enemy; in the tabernacle, fire consumed the sacrifices. Fire is a symbol of God's presence and power; succeeded the sacrifices—never preceded them. The sacrifice was placed on the altar, fire consumed; His awesome presence filled the people with fear. Hebrews 12:21. Before experiencing the power of the Almighty there has to be preparation. Men of old willingly gave themselves. Isaiah 6:1; before experiencing power, there has to be some preparation. It imprisoned them to a life of sacrifice. Isaiah saw the Lord high and lifted up; Moses heard a voice out of heaven and on earth saw His great fire; Isaiah said He touched his mouth and put words in it; Ezekiel said a whirlwind came out of the north with a great cloud enfolding itself; Paul was not disobedient to the heavenly vision. Proverbs 29:19. We need a vision of God. I want the fire, but I must remember that the vision caused them to lay their lives on the sacrificial altar. How many times have you said that if things don't get better, I will give up? That is not vision. Jeremiah 29:9; Revelations 12:11. These were not bound by chains of men; the love of God apprehended them. They got arrested by Jesus; they willingly offered themselves. The fire of the Holy Ghost on the inside burns out selfishness, Jewish customs and their evil speaking. In the wake of that came the eternal flame of love for the brethren, God and for the cause. Matthew 10:39; Romans 12:1.

It is easier to give money than to give ourselves. For us to tell the world that we care, we have to give of ourselves. God saw the people on the altar dead to themselves, their ambitions, their future and filled only with love. This ignited the flame of His approval and they were consumed. They didn't live anymore for themselves; it was Christ living in them. Colossians 1:27; Mark 16:20. We make all kinds of excuses for why we don't see miracles—signs shall follow them that believe. Acts tells of the indwelling of the Holy Ghost; it was not an indwelling of a few minutes of speaking in tongues as the initial evidence. Cloven tongues like a fire sat on them. Yes, they had it but more importantly it had them. They didn't stop with Acts 2, they walked over into Chapter 3 in the flame of the Spirit. Through the name of Jesus, people believed; Elisha's bones caused a dead man to live; the shadow of Peter healed people. Daniel prayed and slept with lions until his release; Peter was bound with chains and slept beside the guards when an angel set him free. Notice Luke 1: Jesus was led in the wilderness, came out in the power of the Spirit. Most have a wilderness experience. These trials are for our spiritual maturity to burn out dross and learn of God's unsearchable riches. Matthew 3:12 refers to what will happen to those who do not believe; what will happen to believers. Chaff is anything which keeps us from God or any other person. Most of our chaff is self-centeredness and ill-placed money. Let God burn out the chaff and defeat this giant of despair. Micah 7:8.

We are going to have to take command over the devil. Then we will quit dwelling in Acts 2 and come over in Acts 3 and command people's healings and devils taken out. Peter and John sat at the gate beautiful; they told the crippled man that such as I have, give I to thee. I believe there will be a great surge of the power of God and all these wonders will take place. Jordan will never roll back until people step in; walls of Jericho will never fall until people march. God did the work; they were the human agents in which the Holy Ghost worked. Yes, we are the light of the world. Let us go in the flame of the Holy Ghost. We are preaching a revival in the Church of God; we are awaiting new strength and power. We are on Mt. Zion; we need to shout and praise God for what He is going to do. Israel lost the ark because of sin. David had never seen the ark; he cried to God for the ark to come home; it was a sign of God's glory. When the ark started home, David knew that to Israel the glory of the Lord was coming again.

12:19 Congregation praised the Lord; dismissal prayer by Ina Mae Tomlinson. Gospel concert during intermission directed by Charlotte Collins.

1:44 Two songs by the Cleveland, TN (Wildwood Ave.) Choir.

1:59 BTI in Panama—Jose Rivera, vice president. Comments: Central America is a prime place for the anti-christ nations to take over. Nations are asking the President of the USA to help them train their soldiers to receive military equipment. This is the one way they can resist the invasions in their area. The Church of God in this area of war and rumors of war is training our members to be prepared for the great ingathering of the other sheep. Regardless of conditions, we know that every knee shall bow and every tongue shall confess that Jesus is Lord. The Church was organized in Panama in 1936 among the English-speaking; in 1963, it was spread among the Spanish. For twenty years, only our ministers and leaders attended BTI; they had to travel to other nations. Ray C. Wynn arranged a self-support school in Panama in February this year. The city mayor loaned us a building; 108 students. The teachers were all Panamanian. The joy was so great that the students didn't mind inconvenience of facilities. We look forward to a 1984 BTI, because we love the Church of God and want to be prepared to do our best for Christ and His Church.

BTI in Jamaica—Lesmon Graham, vice president. Comments: In the 1950's, BTI was established in Jamaica; it was discontinued in 1960's; returned in 1975. These schools have proven great blessings to the work and the ministry. Our ministers and leaders are better able to teach the doctrine of the Church and the Bible. Many students travel far and made great sacrifices. A number of Christians of other organizations are attending the school. There will be no difference within the Church as members are taught the same thing all over the world. The Word of God cannot be interpreted to suit customs and traditions. Jesus said, "What I say unto you, I say unto all." That which God has designed for man's spiritual maturity is the same for all His people. I am pleased that BTI is a stream to help the Church take the message into these nations where there are restrictions of aliens entering, so that we will all speak the same thing. Isaiah 52:8.

2:14 Benjamin Lawrence told of new correspondence course Know Your Bible Series; post graduate course being offered in 1984. Songs by David and Rita Baroni.

2:32 The Word—message by Ray C. Wynn, General Superintendent. Excerpts: (Concert prayer.) There is great need in the world. One religious editor said regarding President Reagan's declaring 1983 the Year of the Bible, "Why is the Book that is always at the top of the best seller list also at the bottom of the most read list?" It is easier to read about the Bible than to read the Bible. You may have stacks of Bibles, but the important thing is that we read and study it. John 5:39. I believe it must be on our daily menus. In a classroom in our school in Jamaica, a teacher erected a sign: "A book shut tight is but a block of paper." Church, we need to open the Book of all books. We cannot close our hearts and just open the Book. There is a need in the Church for fresh commitment to the Word of God. It is popular to be born again—to be a Jesus People. I am not so sure it is popular to practice the Words of Jesus. I believe He is saying that if you take me, you have to take the Word. James 1:19-25.

Your salvation must be based upon the Word. You cannot have filthiness and the Word dwelling in the same temple. The Word will be deeply embedded in the heart. God wants us to apply what we have heard—not have a credibility gap and deceive ourselves. If our testimonies are truth, we must be a doer of the Word. It took more than words to convince Jacob that Joseph was alive. Genesis 45:26-28. When he received the evidence, Jacob revived and accepted the report. I wonder if some of our problems are that we do more talking than action. It is said that the Word: discloses the mind of God, reveals the state of man, points the way of salvation, the doom of sinners and the happiness of believers. Its doctrine is holy; its precepts binding; its history true; its judgment unchangeable. It contains light to direct you, food to sustain and comfort you. It is a traveler's map, we cannot afford to guess our way; the pilgrim's staff; the pilot's compass; the soldier's sword; and the Christian's character. The Word is the character of all true liberty; forerunner of civilization; mold of institutions and governments; the fastener of law; the secret of national profits; the God of history; the mainspring of literature; the friend of science; the textbook of ethics; the life of the intellect; the answer to the human heart hungerings; the soul of all heartbeats; the illuminator of darkness; the enemy of oppression; the uprooter of sin; the main textbook in the Church of God. We need to open the Book every day. Psalm 119:89; Isaiah 40:8; Mark 13:31; 1 Peter 1:25; Job 23:12—I believe he had his priorities right. Psalm 119:140—Sometimes man may be full of hot air but God's Word is not. Jeremiah 23:29; Ephesians 6:17; Hebrews 4:12.

The Word undresses the mind, thoughts and intents of the heart because it is alive. Colossians 3:16. We have had too many little dabs concerning the Word; it needs to swell in our hearts. God's Word is unchangeable. James 1:17. There is no unsteadiness, wavering, fluctuating nor unsteadiness in God's Word. Nations, governments, styles, weather and you and I may change, but God's Word is immovable. I feel that many have the spirit of a chameleon—a relative to the lizard family. It is an attractive creature which does not appear harmful. It has a long tongue covered with a sticky substance. He catches insects and doesn't have to move because he has that long tongue. The Church lizard is not only known for its dangerous tongue but its ability to change its color to its surroundings.

This trait in a child of God is to be condemned. The Church lizard seems to be fully in the Lord's service; yet enjoying the pleasures of the world and changes to fit every crowd. The chameleon or the Church lizard does not have the Word of God abiding within. James 1:27. The Word cleanses and purifies. Ephesians 5:25-27. I am afraid this Scripture has become too familiar to us. Paul gives a picture of the beauty of the Church when it is presented to Christ. There is no other way, substitute nor short cut. The glorious Church that Paul speaks about will never come about by just singing about it. You cannot have a march and get rid of the spots; just waving the Church Flag will not eliminate the wrinkles and you cannot shout out sin. Bible beauty will come only when we measure to the Word. It is time we stand up and declare we are against ugliness in the Church of God.

3:00 Prayer led by General Overseer, as someone stood by a flag on the platform of every nation where we have BTI, as we joined in praying for BTI the world over, especially that we can take BTI to Nicaragua.

Stovall; Vernon Riggins, hospital chaplain. 3:29 Singing by the Ron Hamm family as offering was received. Representative introduced military personnel seated on platform. Maj. Guy Lindsey led in prayer for our military personnel.

3:47 God Can Use A Soldier—message by Bobby R. Snow, Representative. Excerpts: I would like to point out the significance and the importance of an obedient soldier. Acts 15:14, 7-9. We are talking about a work of God. God doing the visiting; God taking out the Gentiles a people for His name. The point I would like to get to is how God did it. Isaiah 11:10. Acts 15 is a historical record of a church assembly where a doctrinal point was settled—that of circumcision; never again has the question arisen and given a problem to the Church.

Peter made reference to the Gentiles, and I would like to show you how this door was opened. Acts 10:1-8. Cornelius was a centurion; a Roman soldier. A centurion had command of one hundred men. Cornelius, a soldier in the Roman army, before he became a Christian, to qualify him as a centurion, he was a devout man. I wonder how devout we are in the performance of our duties and our responsibilities to God and to the Church. We have taken the covenant to take the whole Bible rightly divided. It is also said of Cornelius that he feared God and all his house. Cornelius not only feared God, but all of his house. Can you say that about those in your household—that everyone fears God as you fear God? Luke says Cornelius gave much alms to the people; prayed to God always. It was through this man that God opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

Acts 14 tells of Paul and Barnabas preaching and going through the area of Asia Minor making several contacts of the local churches and preaching. It was the custom of the Apostle Paul, when he went preaching, and entered into a community to always go to the synagogues first, because the gospel was to the Jews first. Then the door of faith was opened to the Gentiles. The Church today is basically composed of Gentile people. How many Jewish Christians do you know? I know there are certain religious organizations that have Jewish outreach ministries, and they claim a number of Christian Jews; the door of faith was opened to the Gentiles. Peter described that there had been much disputing and discussion over the question of circumcision. Acts 15:7. Peter went to Cornelius, preached and the Holy Ghost fell on these people. Six Jewish brethren accompanied Peter; I suppose there were some observers. They wanted to see what was going to happen because Peter was going to visit some Gentiles. This was an uncommon practice among the Jewish people. When the Phoenician woman came to Jesus for healing of her daughter, Jesus almost didn't pay her any attention. Matthew 15:26, 27. If you are born again by the Spirit of God, sanctified by the blood of Jesus and baptized with the Holy Ghost, these are not crumbs. God opened the door of faith through the Gentiles; He used a Roman soldier to do it.

God used a Gentile king to cause Mary and Joseph to go from Jerusalem to Bethlehem for Jesus to be born. Fourteen hundred miles from Jerusalem in Rome, the Caesar issued a decree that all the world should be taxed and everyone should return to their home town and pay their taxes. God can use an obedient soldier. This devout man Cornelius, God used for His glory. David's 23rd Psalm is very rich and a blessing and encouraging. We would consider him a soldier. Matthew 8:5-13. I say that the Scripture supports this idea that God can use a soldier. We are not advocating war; we are advocating serving God. You may be caught in circumstances you may have no control over. Out of Germany, many ministers have come to TC for training and have gone to their fields of labor and are working in the Church of God. I know that God can use obedient soldiers. Paul admonished Timothy to endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. They told me when I was in the army that a good soldier grumbles and complains (Church of God members must make good soldiers). God can use obedient soldiers.

5:01 Maintaining the Spirit of the Church —message by Joy Nicholson.
Excerpts: As a young Christian, my belief in the Church of God of the Bible was challenged. God showed me the Church in the Scriptures—that she fits the pattern as the last days Church that Jesus set in order. We must maintain the Spirit of the Church; the Church is to keep and guard the faith; to pass it on to others; to go into all the world and to preach the gospel and teach them to observe all things that Jesus has taught us; to gather all of God's children into one fold to be made perfect in one body. Everything the Church does must glorify the Father; Jesus glorified the Father in everything. The gates of hell shall not prevail against the Church. A house may get covered with dust; it is the same house; it just needs cleaning. The Church is yet in the imperfect state; it is not going to be our final state. Do you suppose that Noah got discouraged because it was taking so long to build the ark? Genesis 6:22.

The Apostle Paul suffered many things for the gospel's sake, even from Church members. Man didn't give him his revelation and man couldn't take it away. If the Church were already perfect, God would not have had to set pastors, teachers and evangelists in it for the perfecting of the saints and edifying of the Body of Christ. God put the Church here and no one can do the work that He has given us to do. Many outside the Church are getting people saved; receiving the baptism of the Holy Ghost; Christians still need the safety of the fold. Children of God need an ark of safety from man-made doctrines, confusion of denominationalism; advantage of theocratic government. Romans 3:1-4. The Jews were God's people, but the Church is the Bride of Christ. Some don't understand how all of God's children are to be gathered into one body before the rapture. When the time came, the Spirit of the Lord moved into the feet of those animals and they moved toward the ark.

The Spirit of God is reaching out today and people are receiving the Holy Ghost; that same Spirit is touching people's hearts and telling them that God has a fold in this world. These who have the Holy Ghost, the Spirit of God is going to move them to the pillar and the ground of the truth. Isaiah 5:26. He is going to lift up the ensign. These people who are murmuring and complaining, the Spirit of the Lord is going to move upon them and they are going to make their way to Zion. Noah didn't give up just because the majority of the people didn't believe in the ark program. Faith in Christ saves us from sin, but the Church of God is the vehicle by which the saints will be lifted up before the great tribulation. When I became the bride of Jim Nicholson, I kept my family name of Shupe; I still bore the characteristics of the family; I was still the same person. I added an additional name by taking a covenant with my husband. When I was born again, I became a part of God's family; I bore the name of Christian. As I learned to love Christ more, I wanted to be a member of His Body; I took a covenant and became a part of the Bride of Christ. Being a member of the Church won't save us; we must be born again. Ephesians 5:31, 32. This is a covenant relationship. We must first be a son or daughter of God before we are eligible to become a part of the Bride of Christ. We enter the family of God by conversion, but we enter the Church of God by covenant. John 1:12; Isaiah 62:5. We become a part of the Body of Christ the same way as a man marries a virgin. Isaiah 62:2; John 17:11. Jesus said that I want you to keep them in your name, Father—the Church of God. This is the Church of God of Prophecy; it was prophesied. It has been hid from a lot of people, but the Lord has revealed it to us that this is the Church that He purchased with His own blood. Isaiah 56:1-8; 2:2; 51:1. Christ is the Head of the Body, and it is this everlasting joy on the Head that is going to bless the rest of the Body. Jeremiah 50:5; Zechariah 2:10,11. Jesus left His Church on earth; He has given us a work to do; a standard to lift up and live by. 1 Peter 2:9. One of our purposes is to show forth praises of Him. Ephesians 3:21. Unto God be glory in the Church.

EVENING

5:34 Broadcast Record Club Singers directed by Thomas Duncan, Communications Business Manager. Songs by: Ron Hamm Family; Kim Garnier; The King's Messengers, VA; Harper Hunter; Betty Snyder; Oklahoma Convention Quartet; Jill Kendrick; Reggie McDougale; New Dawn Singers, GA; David Baroni.

6:36 Perry E. Gillum read letters from Tennessee Governor Lamar Alexander; for the White House inviting J. A. Reyes to a special meeting.

6:41 Evangelism/Voice of Salvation Program directed by Elwood Matthews who led the congregation in prayer. These Scriptures read by congregation in unison: John 20:21; Mark 16:15; Matthew 28:18-20.

6:51 Song by David and Rita Baroni; prayer by Steve Perez; singing led by Verlin Thornton; Mike Flippo, pianist; Ron Scotton, organist. John Newkirt testified of God healing his wife who had a serious injury; a woman who attended his revival in Massachusetts who was deformed.

7:17 Go To Your Community—R. L. Black. Comments: Genesis 1:8; Matthew 28:19, 20. Jesus was a personal evangelist. John wrote of twenty days of the Lord's life; He talked to a prostitute; to the socialite; to the lawyer; the student; to persons of other ethnic groups; many people along the way—the beggar, the blind, invalids. He had time for all of them. Many of you are sharing in the Sharing Eternal Life Plan. We do evangelizing in the homes; people receive experiences. I would start personal evangelism in my church; would do it myself until I could get others to help; get as many as I could involved in trying to win my community to the Lord. It is the greatest thing that has ever hit us in this day when personal evangelism is beginning to move in our ranks and stir us up and cause us to really want to go for the Lord Jesus Christ.

7:27 Song by National Evangelists Quartet.

7:37 Go To The Nations—Henry Lee Willis. Comments: John 4:31-35. Had crusades in Washington; Bethel, Alaska; Hawaii; Samoa; Australia; Philippines; Thailand; India; Athens, Greece. Attended the convention in Israel; met a mission team in Thessaloniki, Greece; Rome; England. In every place, people have read the Word, or heard about it somehow, even in Russia. Statistics show we have more than four billion people in the world. The largest increase in population the last twelve months that has ever been registered. It looks impossible to go into all the world and preach the gospel. Matthew 9:35-38. Some things about the Word are going to take effort and dedication for us to finish what the Lord has asked us to do. As you go, Jesus will go with you. When we get to the rapture, everybody will be the same. What a glorious time it will be.

7:52 Offering was received as these sang: Pastor's Quartet; Nelda Tomlinson; Voice of Salvation Singers.

8:13 Voice of Salvation Ministries—Dan Howell. Comments: Video Tape Ministry— may obtain highlights of the Assembly; cassette tapes provided to missionaries; Cassette Tape Ministry—may receive a sermon a month; 30-second radio/TV announcements available through the White Wing Book Centre; Bibles for Missions—many Bibles are sent to nations where people do not have them; the VOS Program—we are not just interested in having a program, but we want our broadcast to be directed by the Spirit and power of God—one that touches people's lives with the life-changing gospel of Jesus Christ.

8:35 Song by Roberta Matthews. GO—message by Elwood Matthews, General Evangelism Director/Radio Minister. Excerpts: Mark 16:15-20. They were told to go, but they didn't go until they were ready. The majority have not gone; nor are we prepared to go and effectively present the gospel. The early Church went after they were filled with the Holy Ghost and fire. Time is short; people are dying; hell has opened its mouth and we must move. I would like for us to consider some areas in which we may need to go. I am convinced we must go; I have no doubt that we will go. First we must go down, then up and then to. Go down on our knees in prayer meetings. We are told to pray without ceasing and to fast. Matthew 6:5, 6. If you turn your lives over to a life of prayer, you had better expect something to happen. We preach that prayer changes things; it is not always what we want to happen. Spiritual-minded people like spiritual-minded people; a man who is more concerned about everything else than spirituality has no time for the spiritual mind. If the early pioneers of the Church crawled on their hands and knees with their faces on the floor in order to get the direction and moving of God, can we do less? God wants people who will pray one for another; watch and pray; pray for the sick and they will be healed; pray for laborers.

It will be necessary for us to go into the Bible for our self-edification spiritually to give an answer to people. We must study to show ourselves approved unto God. This Book unites us; also divides us. Some will see one Scripture one way and another another way. It identifies us. It divides us because we don't rightly divide it; when rightly divided, it unites us. It is easy to read into this Book what we want it to say. Our job is to read out of it what God is saying to us and to the Church. Matthew 5:14. Jesus was the light of the world and then told the Church that ye are the light of the world. It is true that Christ and the Church are the light of the world.

It is necessary to go to—the brethren. There is a need for us to go to each other and have a good feeling among ourselves. Rather than going to everybody else, Jesus said that we are to go to that person and tell him his fault alone. We had better listen to what the Bible says and go to one another if there is trouble. The Bible says, “Judge not.” Matthew 5:23. I know if I have damaged someone's influence, there is a sense of guilt on me. I have to ask the man. Until we do, we are in trouble with God. We don't want to be in trouble with God if we are to reach out and do this work. We are getting ready to leave this world, and this is a step we must take if we expect the glory of God to come down on us. When we go down, we have to have the victory. Then we are ready to go out to the religious world. Jesus went to the Pharisees. He went to those who were without hope. There was no condemnation on Him. Peter made a little trip and got a little criticism and he backed up. Paul went to the Gentiles wherever he could find them. Some are going with the Sharing Eternal Life Plan; some are going in other methods.

We are to go with concern. Romans 10:1. Paul went with conviction—not just making a trip. We must be concerned about the lost and about the Church of God. 2 Corinthians 5:11; 1 Corinthians 2:4. New day is dawning for the Church of God. (Summarized 1 Kings 18.) We must be able to go with the Lord working with us confirming the Word with signs following. The Spirit of God is the only thing that will get the work done. I am not talking about fanaticism. Let's give vent to the Spirit of the Lord—not emotionalism. God wants to move for us. Let's not be afraid of the Spirit of God.

(Interpretation of message by the Holy Ghost: "Yea, thus saith the Holy Ghost, he that hath an ear to hear, let him hear. Ye have entered into a new generation—into a new era. My Spirit is among you, and it is working; it is separating those that will be led by My Spirit and those that are in the flesh. I say unto you the things of My Spirit are foolishness unto the flesh. Oh, the things that are in the Spirit they shall not bow to the flesh. Oh, the age of the supernatural is among you, and I am raising up an army of men that fear Me that shall walk by My Word according to My Spirit and My glory. It shall be seen upon them, thus saith God.")

I want to be a part of this last days conflict. God is no respecter of persons; He wants to finish up this work for His Body; the Bridegroom wants to come for His Bride. (Gave altar call. Music and singing directed by Bo Robinson.)

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 12 MORNING

7:30 Sunrise service conducted by L. B. Baggett and Thomas McTaggart. Organ music by Barbara Hatfield; music by Bahama Brass Band.

8:53 Two songs led by Jenny Chatham; Darel Talbott, pianist; Diane Hamm, organist. Mark 13:28-37 read by E. Howard Steen. Prayer by Buford Lanter, followed by concert prayer.

9:07 The Holy Ghost in Prophecy—message by John A. Stone. Excerpts: (He prayed.) 2 Peter 1:19-21. With the emphasis on the Word of God, sometimes we overlook the emphasis on the Spirit of God. It is important that the Holy Ghost work in the Church today as He did then. We think more about the sure word of prophecy. Acts 12:15. The Holy Ghost was on the prophets in such an intensity they had no control.

Jeremiah 25:11 concerns the seventy years of Babylonian captivity. Israel had disobeyed the sabbatical year for about 490 years. The Holy Ghost worked through the fulfilling of the prophecy; worked with Daniel as Nebuchadnezzar wanted the Chaldean Language taught so Israel could learn the cultural identity of Babylon; the Holy Ghost helped Daniel to use this communication to teach Babylon the identity of God; helped Daniel not to defile himself as meat was offered to him. The three Hebrew children were in this same captivity; the Spirit of God helped them to bow only to God. After the seventy years, the work of God and this prophecy did not stop. Jerusalem was desolate and the temple destroyed. The Spirit of God inspired Israel to return and rebuild. After several years, God sent Haggai to inspire them; the Holy Ghost to direct them. The will of man caused Israel to sin. I took the work of God through the fulfillment of the prophecy. They were driven by the winds of the Holy Ghost, even though they were in captivity.

We are the Church of God in a time of fulfillment of prophecy. We will only receive the results we desire when are are moved by the Holy Ghost. Prophecy is not restricted to a particular prophet or generation. Disobedience always brings bondage. While Israel was hearing the prophecy of Jeremiah, many laughed. Lot of disobedience today has the same attitude. Babylon represented the world; Israel is representative of the Church. Church, in a sense we are wearing the same shoes Israel wore when they were in Babylonian captivity. Israel couldn't go outside the borders; we cannot step outside the world into the Promised Land until the appointed time just as Israel could not step into the land of Jerusalem until the seventy years had been fulfilled. Just as Babylon, the world wants us in this confine to teach us their language. I am afraid some have already learned the alphabet. Daniel learned the language, but he used it to communicate the identity of God. As Babylon, the world wants to feed us their meat; too many of us are sitting at the table. We are being driven by self-will instead of the Holy Ghost. Paul gave us a test in 1 Corinthians 12 to determine where the winds are coming from (read verses 1-3). Our conversations should be directed by the Spirit; we cannot have an effective testimony except by the Holy Ghost. Their sayings were taking them away from the divinity of Christ. They were reverting to their old ways and philosophies. The power of the Holy Ghost does not destroy, tear down or take away from Jesus. It is necessary for the Holy Ghost to abide and operate in the Church. Scriptures must be interpreted by the light of the teachings and practices of the Church. God is our Father in the faith; the Head of the house; the Church is our mother in the faith. Galatians 4:26.

When Adam and Eve sinned and God walked into the garden, they hid themselves; because of sin and self-will they hid. We hide in many ways. Sometimes we ministers are ashamed of our reports; we pad our reports. We hide behind the mediocre standards of others. That is a false wall of security. To please God in all things, He wants me in the center of His will. God talked to Adam; he could no longer hide. Adam hurled the blame to his companion. He told God that He gave her to him; Eve said it was the serpent's fault. When continuous non-growth in our local churches, too many times we hurl the blame at the Church—teachings, financial system, exclusive doctrine. While there may be room for some improvement in these areas, that is not the problem. Too many of us are being borne on by winds of self-will—not winds of the Holy Ghost. We need to turn loose of our wills and intellect and let the wheel of God guide us. We are fulfilling prophecy. God is important business; we cannot accomplish it other than by the Holy Ghost.

9:35 Song by the Kingdom Heirs, UT.

I have worked closely with the General Overseer's office relative to the general public relations, representing his office at public functions; produced and aired the Religious News International weekly broadcasts with reporter Evelyn Gillum.

In the area of Public Relations, we have developed:

COME SHARE THE EXPERIENCE OF FIELDS OF THE WOOD, a promotional brochure. Also, directed an extensive distribution campaign placing the brochures in business places in the Tennessee/North Carolina areas. Youth groups who assisted with this project were: Tennessee—Cleveland/Peerless Road, Chattanooga/Hickory Valley, Knoxville/Arrowhead, Marshall Norris and the youth of North Carolina.

FOCUS ON PUBLIC RELATIONS, a handbook for local, state and national public relations directors.

INTRODUCING THE CHURCH OF GOD OF PROPHECY—Historically, Spiritually—Its Ministries, a brochure giving a thumbnail sketch in promotion of the general Church work.

A GIFT FOR YOU, a single cassette tape packet to be used when visiting shut-ins, etc.

CHURCH OF GOD FLAG, a brochure explaining the meaning of the symbols, colors and purpose of the Church flag.

TELEVISITATION brochure revised.

GOD'S PROMISES, a book of Scripture verses.

PICTORIAL DIGEST, a booklet of photographs of all properties of the Church developed in conjunction with Coppinger's & Affiliates.

WELCOME VISITOR, a folder for use by local churches which is distributed through the White Wing Publishing House.

In civic affairs, I have represented the Church in numerous public functions and served on the Cleveland/Bradley Chamber of Commerce Assembly Assistance Task Force. I am serving on the Board of Directors of the United Way; served as an advisor to National Committee on the Year of the Bible, a national campaign proclaimed by the President of the United States, Ronald Reagan.

We have worked with U. S. governmental officials as well as with other nations relative to the ministries of the Church of God; attended the Congressional Prayer Breakfast in Washington.

As Sunday School Literature Editor, I have administrated the office affairs with the capable assistance of the department staff and Sunday school literature writers.

This is a highlight year for the Sunday School Literature Department in that our Sunday schools have been provided with a new, comprehensive nursery curriculum designed to teach basic Bible truths on the age level of two and three year old children. The Bible stories are reinforced with a variety of craft projects, puppets, props and flannelgraphs. The nursery course involves children in a joyful, absorbing, and growing awareness of the God who made them and loves them.

Included in this curriculum is the Nursery Teacher's Guide containing everything a teacher will need to teach a class effectively. Complete instructions on establishing centers and other creative activities to involve young minds and hands are also included.

The MAKE-IT/TAKE-IT book provides a take-home paper for further developing the lessons taught in the classroom in the child's home environment. Included are finger puppets, mobiles, stickers, fold-and-color punch-outs—to be used with a lesson-related story.

The multi-media packet of creative teaching aids contains helps to create a meaningful knowledge of God as well as developing a personal spiritual capacity. Instructions for the use of these aids are included.

We have also developed a new elective studies series of curriculum which will provide lessons for 52 weeks. They have been designed to be used in new mission endeavors, a class of new converts, or a newly organized Sunday school or church. The complete series includes four main subjects: "Introduction to the Christian Life," "Introduction to the History of Christianity," "Introduction to Personal and Church Growth," and "Introduction to the Body of Christ." Within the scope of our long-range plans will be a wide variety of studies on contemporary subjects for in-depth Bible studies.

The Teacher's Guide and the Student's Book in the first series, "Introduction to the Christian Life" is available now for our Sunday schools and local church Bible study groups to order.

Report of World Language Secretary

August 1, 1982 through July 31, 1983

Psalm 145:9-13. We have much to praise and thank the Lord regarding the World Language Department and the Church's World Literature Outreach; we can truly say, "the Lord is good to all; and his tender mercies are over all his works." Truly this has been a year in which we've seen the mercies of the Lord favor the Church. I thank the Lord for the privilege of being involved in several new projects which include the beginning of the translation of our Church literature into the Japanese and Kinyarwanda languages. This year we've reached out to contact all the Spanish overseers thus creating a greater awareness of the Church's translation and literature work.

Spanish Literature

The World Language Department has been working to improve Church literature production and save the Church funds. May, 1983 the White Wing Publishing House established a distribution office of all Spanish literature in Mexico City. We have assisted in the arrangements to print all tracts and Sunday school literature in Mexico. This will certainly prove to be one of the most advantageous and profitable moves the White Wing Publishing House has done.

God has truly blessed the Church with many friends who feel the burden of this great literature outreach work and many have demonstrated their love for God and His Church by sharing generously of what God has given them. I thank you and pray God's blessings upon you and your loved ones. You have demonstrated what the early Church was exhorted to do in Acts 20:35. The World Language Department has received by mail this year $107,679.06 for the World Literature Outreach work. Your generosity is known unto God and He will reward you as He promised.

Report of Communications Department Business Manager

August 1, 1982 through July 31, 1983

For gracious blessings in our communications work in Puerto Rico, Dominican Republic and several of the United States, we give glory, honor and praise to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

The English Voice of Salvation has achieved important radio coverage in: Seattle, Washington; Houston, Texas; Milwaukee, Wisconsin; San Juan, Puerto Rico; Newport News, Virginia; Nashville, Tennessee, and many other locations. Through the addition of WLAC, a 50,000 watt AM radio station in Nashville, Tennessee, we have provided Voice of Salvation radio coverage throughout the eastern United States and into eastern Canada and the Caribbean area.

The Spanish Voice of Salvation has secured additional radio coverage in: Washington, D. C.; Boston, Massachusetts; in the Texas cities of Houston, San Antonio, Roma and Post; Chicago, Illinois; Berlin, Wisconsin; Lompoc, California, and several stations in Puerto Rico, Dominican Republic, Central and South America. The scheduling of these stations was made possible through the splendid cooperation of the respective state and national overseers.

Gospel Concert Hall has entered a new dimension of program production and its radio coverage has been greatly enhanced through schedulings on eighty stations in Taiwan.

Broadcast Distributors and Broadcast Record Club continue to work hand in hand as a financial supplement for the broadcast work of the Church. Broadcast Distributors maintains extensive dealerships in professional audio and radio equipment which is exchanged for airtime, and is also available for Church sound systems and other applications. Promotions have been conducted for the Broadcast Record Club in Virginia, North Carolina, and Mississippi, which have produced approximately three hundred new members. The club has released several fine records which have brought many compliments on the quality of these productions.

Majestic Sound Studio has provided valuable services to radio programs and LP album recordings with its fine array of top professional equipment.

I have traveled in Puerto Rico, Dominican Republic, and in several states in behalf of the Communications work; attended one district convention, two state conventions, the National Religious Broadcasters' Convention, and a White House Briefing on the Latin American situation; assisted in Kentucky with audio engineering relating to their youth camp sound system.

I have supervised the department's engineering operations and the work of my office staff, answered correspondence, operated Broadcast Distributors and Broadcast Record Club, served on the Communications Committee and Music Committee.

SERVICEMEN'S DEPARTMENT

I visited our military personnel in the United States and several other nations; spoke in four retreats; attended Chaplain Guy Lindsey's promotion ceremony from captain to major and also the 208th anniversary service of the Military Chaplaincy at Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Alabama.

Our Chaplaincy program presently consists of: Maj. Douglas Stephenson, Maj. Guy Lindsey, and Capt. Gerald Moates on active duty in the Army; Lcdr. Daniel Kurbis and Lt. Bill Reed, active duty in the Navy; 1 Lt. Jon Stovall on active duty with the Air Force; Capt. J. E. Brisson with the Civil Air Patrol, presently inactive.

Retreats were conducted in Berchtesgaden, Germany; Fairbanks, Alaska; Waianae, Hawaii; and Seoul, Korea. These retreats are a blessing to our military personnel. Classes are taught to meet the needs of those in the military. Spiritual blessings being received from the Lord occur on a regular basis.

The servicemen's center in Langen, Germany continues to operate under the direction of Overseer David Fowler and those assisting him; they are to be highly commended for this labor of love. The overseer of Hawaii is operating a servicemen's center in the Waipahu area.

The Servicemen's News mailing list numbers 1,005; of those, 749 are individual recipients, 256 are distributed at the general offices and mailed in bundles to pastors, overseers, and others who work with the military. There have been 12 issues of the Servicemen's News published and approximately 230 packets with 12 tracts to each packet mailed to military personnel. A regular flow of mail is received and answered in this department.

Report of General Sunday School Secretary

August 1, 1982 through July 31, 1983

Sermons.....	189	Holy Ghost.....	5

This year has been filled with great excitement and anticipation as I endeavored to fulfill my responsibilities. The work in the Sunday School Department continues to prove extremely challenging and personally rewarding. Many times portions of the work seem quite staggering, but from the depths of my heart I join the apostle Paul as he declared to the Corinthians, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for my strength is made perfect in weakness . . ." It is through His strength and the continued support of each overseer, state director, pastor, superintendent, and lay leadership that has made possible the strides in our total Sunday School ministries during this Assembly year.

Attended and participated in:

Area Training Sessions.....	26	Youth Conventions.....	2
Ministers' Conference	1	State Conventions	3

Ladies Retreat	1	International Camp.....	1

I prepared and directed a meeting for the State/National Sunday School and Children's Church Directors prior to the 77th Annual General Assembly; had oversight of Sunday School workshops and Children's Church sessions.

I attended and taught workshops at the International Christian Education Convention in Detroit, Michigan; taught in Cleveland, Tennessee and the East Coast, Bible Training Institutes. It was also my happy privilege to work with our General Headquarters personnel in preparing for the Victory Leaders Departments, Super Saturday, a multimedia presentation entitled, "Lord of the Far Horizons." This was prepared for and presented on this special day, directed by the General Victory Leaders Secretary; attended and taught in International Youth Camp, Larkspur, Colorado. This was a highlight of my life, as I saw God work in wondrous ways to minister and meet the needs of His people.

These materials were prepared in the English language:

1983 Sunday School Week and High Attendance Day material
(God Cares . . . We Care . . . Let Us Share His Love With You)

1984 Outreach Campaign material
(Jesus is Alive—Welcome to His House!)

1983-85 Sunday School Superintendent's Planning Guide

Sunday School Helps and Hints (a quarterly publication for Sunday School workers that is distributed with the Sunday School literature)

On Your Mark . . . Get Set . . . Grow! (a quarterly publication for Children's Church Directors compiled by Kathy Creasy, this is distributed through the office of the State/National Children's Church Directors/Boosters)

A new Sunday School report book

Prepared a new Mission Home for Children brochure, providing pictorial information regarding our four Mission Homes for Children around the world

It has been possible to make available for the first time a special packet of posters promoting the various special days on the Sunday School Calendar.

Children's Day 1983 (Theme: Here I Am Again!) was jointly sponsored by the Victory Leaders and Sunday School Departments. We prepared additional materials to assist the promotion of this recognition for the children. We were able to make this available in the English language through the White Wing Publishing House: posters, bulletins, certificates for the children and an Idea Book for this special day. Some of this material was available in the Spanish and French languages.

The response was amazing from the local churches throughout the world that participated in this special event. I feel certain that only time and eternity will reveal the true results of this special time of recognizing the children.

We have made available the High Attendance Day and Outreach Campaign material in Spanish and French; made the Children's Day Posters available in these two languages. From the response received, this was greatly appreciated.

We have placed in publication "Helps and Hints" in Spanish and French, and "On Your Mark . . . Get Set . . . Grow!" in Spanish this year. These are inserted in the appropriate White Wing Messengers, thus saving on postage and other related costs.

Served on the World Mission Committee; supervised the stamp and coupon program until the time of its phasing out during this year. On behalf of the World Mission Committee, thank you for your response to this work over the years. Many dollars have been gained and saved through your efforts.

(You will note an amount shown in our accounts receivable. This should be taken care of within the next few months, and thus, completely clear the stamp and coupon program.)

I have corresponded on a regular basis with the Sunday School secretaries and the overseers, thus allowing for exchange of ideas which I feel has greatly benefited the overall outlook for the work of this Department. I endeavored to answer all correspondence regarding the work of this Department as it came to my attention; sought input from others on questions that may have needed special attention.

I have written the state and national Victory Leaders Band secretaries, camp directors, and overseers monthly and answered all the daily correspondence.

I was assistant editor of the monthly youth publication, the Victory Leader (English, Spanish, and French), which appears in the White Wing Messenger; edited the Campus Contact Newsletter (English and Spanish) which is mailed to college students around the world.

With the assistance of my staff, we have compiled and published a new program book, the Victory Leaders Composition, III; compiled and published the Idea Book III for state and national secretaries, and the Victory Leaders Band Ministries Calendar, a descriptive booklet of the departments within the auspices of the Victory Leaders Band and a monthly planning calendar for youth directors.

I have arranged a series of camp lessons and planned and directed the twentieth International Youth Camp at Ponderosa Southern Baptist Assembly in Larkspur, Colorado; compiled the Guidepost for camp directors, the International Youth Camp Staff Manual, and the International Youth Camp Yearbook.

I prepared and taught three workshops at the International Christian Education Association Convention; taught workshops for the Victory Leaders Band and Sunday School Conference in Virginia; planned and coordinated Super Saturday II.

I spearheaded the World Literature Outreach promotion; prepared and supplied materials for International Youth Week (English and Spanish); assisted in the planning and orientation of the Youth Mission Teams; participated as an evangelist on the team to Zimbabwe; served as the Board Secretary to the Youth Mission Board.

I served on the Bible Training Institute staff for the Cleveland school; served on the Church Publishing Committee and the Music Committee.

I appreciate the faithful support of each local, state and national Victory Leaders Band director, all camp directors, Gleaner leaders, pastors, overseers, and my office staff.

"The Lord has done great things for us whereof we are glad." We have scaled some high mountains in the mission work; experienced some low valleys due to the instability of our economy and the political unrest in many nations; through it all, the Lord has given us a great year.

The department has compiled and printed: Mission Crusade; Women In Profile, a handbook for ministering to women (4th Edition); Women Ministering Biblically. Prepared and printed Women in Profile in French, English and Spanish White Wing Messenger. Designed the new brochure for Helping Hand Ministry and prepared for print mission lessons for BTI post graduate school.

The challenge to women through the theme, Women Ministering Biblically, has been an invigorating program. Reports are evident that many ladies have become involved with ministries within their reach, thus realizing personal growth. States, districts and some local congregations have ministered to the ladies through various activities.

I wish to thank all the donors for the Helping Hand Ministry. The response has been gratifying and because of this generosity, many of the mission fields received assistance with either buildings, transportation, or ministers' support. This is very encouraging to them to know that someone cares about them as an individual mission field. This avenue of service is challenging.

I have corresponded with the state/national secretaries on a regular basis through the medium of organized resource material; corresponded with the national overseers regarding their needs as can be reviewed in the Helping Hand Ministry brochure.

I served on the World Mission Committee, on the Youth Mission Board, and assisted with the Youth Mission Team Crusade by serving as evangelist in Finland.

The highlight of the year was two memorable mission trips. One was to six of the South American countries and one to three South African countries. I conducted some training sessions, was in mission rallies and found myself involved in an all-out traveling revival. I met with the ladies in all of these countries, either by special sessions as in South America, or in a Ladies' Retreat as in Zimbabwe and South Africa.

I taught Bible classes in the Cleveland BTI and also participated in the Seminar of Servitude by conducting a class, "The Minister and His Family."

I would like to give special commendation to the state/national overseers who have supported the Regional Ladies' Retreat endeavor. This year, I directed nine Regional Retreats (including Canada) and three National Retreats. These were attended by 2,833 ladies. My soul magnifies God for what He is doing for the ladies of the Church of God in retreats, Mission breakfasts and/or luncheons, and Ladies' Day activities.

This report would not be possible if it had not been for the many who have boosted and worked for missions. The splendid cooperation of the overseers, the work of the state/national secretaries, the district boosters, pastors and local leaders is appreciated.

Report of Tomlinson College President and Church Pilot

August 1, 1982 through July 31, 1983

The college has made good progress in several areas. One of great interest to the college and the Church is the advancement toward accreditation with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. Subsequent to an updated membership application, the association assigned an evaluation committee to visit the college on April 5-8, 1983, which was a final review and analysis of all aspects of the college's operation as related to the standards for accreditation. The college responded to the committee's report and is now awaiting a decision on its membership application.

Many improvements have been made on the existing campus building and grounds. Preliminary plans have been developed for a much needed classroom building.

As confirmed by the fiscal year 1983 certified annual audit, the college is presently in a sound financial position. However, operating expenses and institutional equipment costs are continually on the rise. Therefore, plans have been made to develop a program which will provide for additional sources of revenue as well as endowments, scholarships, etc.

Special appreciation is given to Harrison E. Price who has contributed several thousand dollars for ministerial scholarships; also to the many contributors to the M. A. Tomlinson Scholarship fund.

The external studies program has been approved and will be activated immediately following the college's accreditation.

We wish to extend our thanks to the general Church, overseers and staff, pastors and members for the contributions and support of the college and its programs.

During this year I supervised the upkeep of the church airplane. It is in an excellent airworthy condition. I flew the General Overseer upon his request.

I attended four state conventions and national and state educational meetings.

Taught BTI in Cleveland, Tennessee; attended these state/national conventions: Egypt, Greece, Bahamas, Canada (West), Oregon, Washington, California (Spanish). Seminars, rallies, other work: Virginia, Georgia, Washington, New York, Pennsylvania, East Texas, South Carolina, North Carolina, Michigan, Tennessee, Israel.

Have written or edited these booklets: the Doctrine of Perfection and the Honor Stone Program; CPMA Program Booklet—a booklet of plans, skits, poems, songs, etc., to assist local leaders; and an Instructional-Guide booklet, which covers the areas of the CPMA origin, organization, function, and purpose.

In the Honor Stone Program, local churches will be recognized this year with either a silver, gold or white stone. The requirements for the stones are stated in the new Honor Stone Program booklet; certificates corresponding to the stones will be sent to the local churches, making the program universal.

Have answered all mail received in the office; corresponded with the national/state secretaries on a regular basis, and sent copies of new materials as they developed.

Have managed Fields of the Wood—with the capable assistance of Ted Carroll, Minister/Superintendent—including the refurbishing of over fifty markers; the development of three new minor markers; developed some new materials for Fields of the Wood, including a colorful Guide Map for tourists and a follow-up ministry.

I was in charge of the Thanksgiving and Easter Pageants; assisted the General Overseer in the Commemorative 80th Anniversary Program, June 13; the First Assembly Program; and the pre-Assembly program.

Plans have been made with the CPMA Committee's approval to build four new markers this year: the one in Manteo, NC will depict the relationship of the airplane's invention and successful flight by the Wright Brothers and the restoration of the Church in prophecy; to be erected in Fields of the Wood: a Twenty-third Psalm marker; one Shepherd, one Fold marker on the road to All-Nations Cross; a Golgotha marker (scene) will be developed on the hill above the tomb. A new picnic area is being developed around the pond (Alaska has contributed a special offering toward this work).

My appreciation to our CPMA office staff, national/state secretaries, pastors and leaders, the CPMA Committee, the Fields of the Wood staff and workers, and especially the General Overseer, for their cooperation in the accomplishments of the CPMA Department this year.

Served on the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine; attended committee meetings. Spent many hours reading manuscripts and Church related materials for approval for printing and circulation. I served on the Bible Training Institute Committee.

Delightfully coordinated my efforts with the General Superintendent, General Representative, office secretaries to fulfill my obligations. Personally corresponded with vice presidents, state and national representatives to secure places for schools and setting in order for the administration for the schools that I was directly responsible for.

This has been a great year for the teaching ministry. Divine unction and inspiration has been supplied by God in the classrooms to meet the needs of the students. As a direct result of God's blessing, Bible Training Institute has been very informative and a source of spiritual strength. This seems to be unanimously expressed by students in all schools.

I appreciate the General Overseer, General Superintendent, Representative, office personnel and people on the field, for helping me in many ways. To "God be the glory!"

9:49 Questions and Subjects Committee Report

We are deeply grateful for God's blessings upon the work of His Church another year. We freely acknowledge our dependence upon His sustaining power and grace. For the strength and guidance He has provided our General Overseer, we are especially thankful. At this time we wish to offer opportunity for a voluntary expression of love and appreciation for our beloved leader in behalf of his continuing faithfulness and dedication to the office he fills in the Church of God.

This Committee has spent much time in prayerful deliberation of many questions and subjects which have been submitted. Several letters have been written in response to matters which in our judgment did not require Assembly action. We offer the following items for your consideration and decision.

Section 1 Dissolution Resolution

The United States Internal Revenue Service Form 1023, which is an application for tax exemption, states specifically that no exemption will be given to the institution which does not have a dissolution resolution. Since we have no formal resolution, we propose the following statement to be adopted by the General Assembly and published in our Assembly Minutes:

Dissolution Resolution

If a church ceases to function or if it dissolves, the title to its real property and all other assets vest in the state trustees, who have the power to convey, mortgage or dispose of any and all properties of the said church with the consent of the General Headquarters trustees. [Adapted from MINUTES, 76th Assembly, 1981, page 135; Questions and Subjects Committee.]

All the assets of the Church of God of Prophecy, real and otherwise, are irrevocably dedicated to the furtherance of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ and ministering to all people within the guidelines established by Scripture as interpreted by the General Assembly. No part of the net earnings of the Church shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons. The General Assembly and/or the General Headquarters Executive Committee are authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to distribute funds that are received in accordance with the guidelines set forth in the section of the Assembly Minutes entitled, "Present Financial System," which guidelines do not violate Internal Revenue Code provisions against distributing Church monies to benefit a member, private person, officer or trustee.

If the Church liquidates or dissolves, in part or in whole, after providing for the payment of all its debts and obligations, the remaining assets will not inure to the benefit of any private person or persons, but all such remaining assets will be distributed to a nonprofit organization, or organizations, which are organized and operated exclusively for religious and/or charitable purposes which are exempt under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, under which section the organization or organizations shall have established tax exempt status.

This same principle applies to all properties of the Church in all countries, even though the tax structures may differ from those of the United States.

Section 2 Lay Ministers

The person who is licensed as a lay minister has acknowledged his call to the ministry of the Word of God. This high calling demands a time of devoted preparation for the person who will become a leader of men. He will need the support and guidance of his local church during this time, among whom generally are those who have helped provide nurture for his spiritual life.

Having received his lay minister's certificate he will begin a period of intense preparation, equipping himself both spiritually and intellectually for this new phase of his life. He will want to establish a record of his ministerial activities through reports to his Overseer, who will be interested in observing his ministerial development. It is his local church, however, with whom he should retain the closest relationship, for it is the local congregation who will help to guide him in the development of his ministry, and who will eventually make the decision for setting him forth as a minister in the Church of God.

With this in mind, we recommend that the lay minister submit a report quarterly to his local church conference of his work during the previous three months. This could be done in much the same manner as the auxiliary leaders give reports of their work in these conferences. This will enable the local church to have a better view of the progress being made by the lay minister toward readiness for their recommending him to become a licensed minister.

Duplicate reports could be submitted to the clerk of the conference, who would retain one for the church's files while sending the other, along with the auxiliaries leaders' reports, to the State or National Office. This would take the place of the monthly reports now being made to the Overseers by lay ministers. The reports included in the ministers' Assembly Minutes could be used for this purpose. Instead of using them as monthly report forms, he would use them to submit duplicate reports quarterly to his local church conference.

When the local church concludes that a lay minister has satisfactorily prepared himself to become a minister in the Church, they could make known their feelings to the State or National Overseer, who could make the recommendation, at his discretion, that the candidate be set forth in regular conference.

Section 3

Reporting of Non-Preaching Deacons

There seems to be some dissatisfaction regarding the reporting of non-preaching deacons. The change from monthly to annual reporting has not been viewed by many Overseers as the answer to this problem.

We hereby recommend that non-preaching deacons report quarterly to the local church conference, inasmuch as their ministry relates more to that of serving the local church. These reports could be prepared in duplicate and presented in a similar manner as the auxiliaries leaders' reports. One would be kept for the local records and one would be forwarded to the State or National Overseer. The report to the General Offices would continue to be an annual report.

The report forms could be designed to include information relative to the deacon's local duties that would be of interest to a church conference and provide information that the State, National, and General Offices would need. The trial deacon would be provided with the same type of forms and report quarterly to the local conference.

Section 4

Minimum Age for Bishops and Deacons

Inasmuch as the permanent ministers license fills a need which once existed and enables a minister to perform functions beyond those allowed by the regular minister's license, and sensing the need for enhancing the stature of the office of bishop in the Church, we recommend that the minimum age for a bishop hereafter be set at age 30. "Not a novice" as mentioned by Paul as a requirement for this office would indicate the need for maturity. This would apply also to the deacon. Those who already have been licensed as bishops and deacons would not be affected by this recommendation.

Section 5

Term of Office for General Appointees

To make the transition easier when changes in appointments are made by the General Overseer, we recommend that the term of office of those under his appointment end on the last day of the month in which the Assembly is held. This would be more consistent with the practice observed now for pastoral appointments.

Section 6

Special Provision for Marriage Certification

It has been brought to the attention of this Committee by our World Mission Department that there are certain cultures in some nations, which are considered by those nations to be inferior, to the extent that they are denied certain privileges and recognition that is important toward their eligibility for membership in the Church.

In some places the governments in power refuse to give certification to marriages in these so-called subcultures, which forces these people to remain unmarried (even according to their cultural traditions), if they desire to become members of the Church. It is the feeling of this Committee that in such situations the Church can certify these marriages which are performed in harmony with the Scriptures. We recommend that the presbytery take such action as is necessary to give relief in these situations.

In such cases couples desiring membership in the Church should appear before an authorized minister to take or reconfirm their marriage vows for proper documentation, a record of which would be maintained, both in the national office of that country and in the World Mission Department.

Section 7

Study of Financial Structure

We recommend that the Ways and Means Committee be authorized to make an extensive study of the Church's financial structure, with consultation privileges which they deem necessary, in order to ascertain the short and long term needs of the Church. The finding of this study would be submitted to the General Overseer for proper consideration.

Questions and Answers

Question: Should people be baptized in water who continue to live in fornication or adultery?

Answer: A prominent teaching of the Church is repentance. Repentance results from godly sorrow and involves both the confessing and forsaking of one's sins. Until a person forsakes his sins it cannot be said he has truly repented, and until a person has repented he should not be baptized.

Question: When the first companion of a man who is living with a second companion dies, is it necessary for him to take the marriage covenant with the second companion again?

(Following considerable discussion, it was agreed that this question be held over until the next Assembly.)

World Mission Committee Report
August 1, 1982 through July 31, 1983

Psalm 92:5. Again we feel it necessary to bring before our people the lateness and urgency of the hour in the face of a rapidly deteriorating world situation. We have continued to witness the ravages of war, political and economic repression, and deprivation.

We must not be deterred from our purpose to fulfill all that our Lord has commissioned the Church to do. Much prayer is needed that the Lord of the Harvest will send forth laborers into His harvest.

The Committee commends our faithful overseers, missionaries, pastors, evangelists, World Mission Corpsmen and other local workers for their labors of love. Preliminary figures show over 200 new churches organized on the mission field this year and an addition of over 11,787 members to the Church. Through the efforts of Mission Representatives: Bobby R. Snow and E. E. Van Deventer; Overseers: H. Larry Biggers, S. B. Pardede, Daniel J. Corbett, Jerry Madrid; Pastor Phillip Reyes and the Evangelism Department, the first churches were organized in Western Samoa, Malaysia, Japan and Belgium. These works are small and struggling, but they represent the entrance of the Church in new territory. This brings to 83 the number of countries where the Church is established.

In June, 1983, Youth Mission Teams converged on seven countries and their efforts resulted in 725 spiritual experiences, and the prospect of two new local churches.

Despite depressed economic conditions, our people in the countries have increased their freewill giving substantially. The October and March World Mission Drives reached $277,417.00. The Committee is pleased that the mission field is sharing in the world-wide support of the Church and her mission.

Special donations continue to be made through the World Harvest Fund to missionaries and projects abroad, which provides a much needed supplement to our regular efforts. All such offerings should be mailed to the World Harvest Fund, stating to whom or for what purpose the offering is intended. Following is a report on funds received and disbursed through WORLD HARVEST:

Report of Counseling Committee

The Counseling Committee met in five counseling sessions and spent several hours counseling with a number of people.

All persons presenting subjects to this Committee have been counseled and the subjects have been prayerfully considered, some of which we felt deserved further consideration before being presented to the presbytery or Assembly committees. Other subjects which we felt would be a blessing to the entire body have been passed on to the committees to be disposed of at their discretion.

We wish to commend all those who came before this Committee for the good spirit manifested. We found a great concern among the ministry, a great love for the Church of God and its teachings, and a strong desire to promote the doctrine of the Church instead of ideas and opinions.

The Editorial Committee on Doctrine and the Questions and Subjects Committee are standing committees throughout the year and may be contacted any time on doctrinal questions or anything not clearly understood.

Report of Tomlinson College Board of Trustees

August 1, 1982 through July 31, 1983

Each Trustee on this Board gives honor to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost. We reverence the Lord Jesus as the Head of the Church and acknowledge the authority He has vested in the General Assembly and the General Overseer. We feel privileged to serve God and His Church as Trustees of Tomlinson College. We hold this trust as sacred.

The Tomlinson College Board of Trustees held two series of meetings during the period covered by this report. The first series occurred in September, 1982, ancillary to the General Assembly. The second took place in May, 1983.

We continue to be impressed and gratified by the dedication and efforts of the administration, staff and faculty of the college. We publicly commend them to this Assembly.

The accreditation process, begun a few years ago under the leadership of President Hall, appears to be in its final phases. The accrediting association will be meeting in December and should make a decision at that time.

Enrollment for the fall semester is at full capacity. We are thankful for the continued strong interest in the college.

Progress regarding the Master Plan approved by the Assembly has been noted in prior reports. Most recently preliminary plans for a classroom building have been approved.

Because of the Board's conviction as to the universality of the Church and the need for the college to reflect her world-wide mission, the Board has established by its own initial contribution a scholarship fund for students who are members of the Church in good standing in countries other than the United States. We invite participation in this fund by others who feel as we do.

Other notable endowment and scholarship funds have been received. We deeply appreciate this generosity and encourage such contributions.

Roy H. Cantrell, our Chairman, has served faithfully as a Trustee for seven years. He has been a valuable contributor to the Board and the College. We thank God for him.

Church Boosters Committee Report

We, your Church Boosters Committee wish to submit the following report:

Section I

Emergency Fund

Although the impact upon the victims of an emergency may be inescapable, yet the burden of the aftermath can be shared. Most emergencies make unannounced visits, requiring instantaneous action from a source prepared for such occasions. We urge each member to faithfully contribute to this fund as outlined by the General Assembly and/or the World Mission Committee. Many requests for emergency assistance are made each year by our ministers in need. In view of this, we call on each pastor to pursue the goal of being 100 percent. We call on each member to be consumed by a spirit of compassion that is equivalent to the needs.

Section II

Communications Department

We are grateful to God and to those in charge of the Communications Department for their efforts, both past and present, in employing the means of radio and television to broadcast the message of Christ and His Church.

We commend them in the production of the TV spots. We encourage all overseers and pastors to take advantage of this new way of taking the message of hope and peace to the people and to promote the Church. These TV spots are available in English and Spanish.

We commend the efforts made this year in the production of a television special in Spanish. Television time in Latin America in many cases, could be secured free of charge, or at very reasonable cost. We encourage pastors and overseers to use this program in your community.

It is our responsibility to reach every one with the Gospel and these means of communication could help the Church in this great task.

Section III

Post Graduate Returns

In Cleveland, Tennessee, May 6-25, 1984, the all-new Bible Training Institute ADVANCED STUDIES course will be available to a limited number of BTI graduates. The 1984 enrollment will be limited to 150 students. The Committee has recommended that the course be made available to ministers only for the first few sessions. Non-ministers may sign up later when space is available.

Something New

Bible Training Institute Department is now offering a new home or group study course just off the press. The KNOW YOUR BIBLE SERIES course consists of twelve lessons on the Judges of Israel. This course is available now. Be one of the first to enroll. Price $3.00. Certificate will be issued upon satisfactory completion of course.

Section IV

White Wing Messenger

The White Wing Messenger is our official Church publication, which is devoted to the general interest of the Church of God. This publication has kept the Church of God throughout the world in close contact with General Headquarters and with one another and has been a blessing to the readers. It is always a source of encouragement to read of great revivals, of ingathering of souls, many healings, new churches set in order and the general growth of the Church and spread of the gospel, besides the benefits derived from the soul food.

Every minister, leader and member is kept abreast of the Church's progress by the information supplied in each issue. In the 27th Assembly Minutes, this paper was described as "A welcome visitor that could not be dispensed with." Because of the blessings received from the paper and the need of each member being well informed, every Church home is encouraged to be a subscriber and every Church member a reader.

Section V

Christ's Commission—Our Commitment

The General Overseer made this stirring statement prior to the Assembly: "There is a burning desire within me to see the Church of God grow. It is my prayer that during this Assembly you will experience a moving of the Holy Ghost which will send you home with a greater urgency to reach the unreached in every community, village, town and city of your particular country or state."

Church of God—we have no choice! We must carry this message throughout the world. Jesus Christ said: "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations and then shall the end come." Matthew 24:14.

We must use every tool at our disposal to accelerate the spreading of this message. The Sharing Eternal Life Plan, which was presented a year ago, is one of these tools. In the local churches, where this program has been implemented, it is proving successful.

We can't stop now. On with the message, on with the New Testament plan of evangelism. This is the Bible way of making our churches grow. More of our local churches need to utilize this outreach strategy as it will produce.

The Divine Mandate is . . . GO YE INTO ALL THE WORLD . . . AND MAKE DISCIPLES! It is time we made Christ's commission the Church's commitment!

Section VI

The All Nations Flag

"Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah." Psalm 60:4.

It was fifty years ago in the General Assembly of 1933 that this prophecy found fulfillment. Following the adoption of the flag by the Assembly, God manifested His favor through mighty outpourings of the Holy Ghost. So great were these manifestations that the General Overseer said: "I had intended to have a formal dedication of the flag, but since the Lord has so wonderfully taken control of this service, we will just consider it dedicated by the Holy Ghost."

This Committee encourages our people to be more mindful of displaying the flag. Therefore it seems necessary to reiterate a portion of the Questions and Subjects Committee Report of 1933 which reads:

"We further recommend that this annual assembly prohibit any church, Sunday School, or individual outside or inside the Church, attempting to draw or have drawn the likeness of this flag. This is very necessary in order to keep the flag standardized so that every Church of God flag will be exactly alike in color, design and form."

"I pledge allegiance to our Church Flag and to the doctrine for which it stands, one God, one faith, one mind, and one Church for all. Amen."

11:02

Ways and Means Committee Report

Prayer. To the only wise and sovereign King we raise our hearts in praise and adoration. Our sincere plea is, "Not our will but Thine be done. For it is unto Thee that we look with eager anticipation for divine intervention. We do not lean on our own understanding, but join the Psalmist of old in his earnest prayer: 'As the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress, so our eyes wait upon the Lord our God, until that he have mercy upon us' (Psalm 123:2)."

Whereas, Floyd D. Collins has served the General Assembly so faithfully as a member of the Ways and Means for several years, we wish to extend our sincere appreciation for his dedicated contribution while serving on this Committee.

Section 1

Financial Records

Since the work of the Church is increasing and more is demanded from those who are responsible for the financial records, we recommend that the closing of the fiscal year for the General Treasurer, White Wing Publishing House and Tomlinson College be May 31. We further recommend that these fiscal closings be accomplished by an auditing process. We also recommend that state and national conventions give proper consideration to matters of fiscal closing and if the political situations permit that consideration be given also to matters of auditing state and national financial records.

Internal Funding

In the arrangements of financing the construction of the tabernacle, the 64th General Assembly, 1969, designated that ten percent of the Ministerial Aid Fund and ten percent of the Mission Funds be committed for General Properties. In view of the fact that good progress has been made in the total indebtedness of the General Properties, we recommend that the above cited practice be discontinued and that those funds remain in the respective departments.

Section 3

Emergency Fund

We recommend that the Emergency Fund be continued and that each member contribute one dollar or its equivalent to this fund. We further recommend that the Emergency Fund recipients be licensed ministers, such as bishops, ordained deacons and evangelists, as well as those under State or National appointment; however, we also recommend that in other cases of very tragic emergencies, that the General Overseer and the Executive Committee be empowered to use their discretion in such matters.

Section 4

United States Internal Revenue

This Committee is appreciative of the study completed by the Executive Committee concerning the United States tax matter. Due to the complexity of the Internal Revenue rulings, and that local churches are at different levels of growth and economic functions; we recommend that a copy of the study made by the Executive Committee be made available to the State Overseers and their State Finance and Appropriations Committees, and that they seek competent tax attorneys to know how to advise their respective churches with regard to this tax matter.

Section 5

New Field Allocation Guidelines

The Lord of the harvest may have given His Church the "golden rule" of new field work in Mark 1:38, which declares: "And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth." The imperative challenge to go into the next town is the purpose of the New Field Allocations.

In view of a seven-year survey of New Field Allocations and Church growth by the Ways and Means Committee, we recommend the following:

1. That a new field be considered as the initial effort to develop a new church.
2. That a new field mission, is when a group of people in a certain locale are organized similarly to a regular church, such as, mission appointee, secretary and treasurer, and some auxiliary leaders. The mission status is for teaching and training of non-members in preparation for membership.
3. That in the organizing of a mission, great care should be exercised not to institute a tithing system that when said mission becomes a church, conflict will develop from two different tithing systems. We further recommend that tithes of non-members paid in a mission be divided as follows: 10% to the State Headquarters, 10% to the State New Field Allocation Fund and 80% for the support of the mission appointee.
4. That New Field Allocations be placed in the state treasury as a separate account, known as the State New Field Allocation Fund, these funds to be used only for new field work and missions, as designated above.
5. In order for states to continue receiving New Field Allocations, the respective states should organize at least one new church every three years, said period to begin from October 1, 1983.
6. That the New Field Allocations remain as outlined in the Ways and Means Committee Report to the 77th General Assembly of 1982.

Section 6

Auxiliary Incentive

(After considerable discussion, this was held over until next Assembly.)

Section 7

Accrue ment

The Ways and Means Committee report to the 57th General Assembly of 1964, Section I, reads: "We recommend that a portion of the fund in General Headquarters be placed in savings accounts at the discretion of the General Overseer and the General Treasurer. Interest accrued on these savings will be placed in the Ministerial Aid Fund." We recommend that this be adjusted to read: We recommend that some of the funds of General Headquarters be placed in savings accounts, at the discretion of the General Overseer and the Executive Committee, and that the interest accrued from these savings accounts be placed in their respective departments, and that the decision as to where to place the interest of the tithing fund be left to the discretion of the Executive Committee.

Section 8

Continuance

We recommend that all other financial matters, not amended or adjusted by this report, continue as before.

We also hereby acknowledge all letters and requests that have been submitted to this Committee and appreciate the concern of our people everywhere. We can assure you that your concerns are being reviewed and deliberated, as we seek for divine guidance.

This Committee desires to commend our people for their tireless efforts and devotions to the cause of Christ and His Church. We are thankful for the permanent status that the Ways and Means Committee has been granted by the Assembly, since this has enabled us to begin a more in-depth study of the financial system of God's Church. A seven-year survey has been accomplished by the Committee, and certain economic indicators concerning our cash and expenditure flow have surfaced that will necessitate all of God's people to be more faithful to our financial responsibilities. In certain cases our savings accounts are what have enabled General Headquarters to maintain its ever-increasing responsibilities and outreach. No system can ever prosper or survive if wrong attitudes or "selfism" becomes the main concern. We are one people, one brotherhood, one Church, and by His Grace we'll find the way, for He who leads us is The Way, for we are not "sufficient of ourselves to think anything as of ourselves, but our sufficiency is of God" (2 Cor. 3:5).

Watchmen Committee Report

We are especially grateful for the spiritual emphasis manifested in this Assembly. The powerful messages, beautiful ministries of music and drama, thoughtful business sessions and mighty praying has convinced us that this Assembly is a milestone in the history of the Church. We further wish to express that the assistance of the General Overseer in this his 40th year of service has been as faithful and courteous as ever. We are indebted also to the Superintendent of Operations for his guidance and direction in the daily operations.

We have had some problems this year, most of which have been resolved with love and consideration. However, we do have a recurring problem which the Superintendent of Operations expressed personally to this Assembly concerning some of our children playing outside of the tabernacle. It is the belief and scriptural hope of this August body that the Church of God will soon embrace thousands and millions more of God's children. For our present peace and with the expected inflow of many sincere dedicated sheep it is the view of the Committee, we should address ourselves to this problem now. We are gathered here for the highest causes God can entrust to mankind. We appeal therefore to this Assembly to join us in a unified expression of your support our Superintendent of Operations and General Overseer in a firm and adequate response to the problem.

We feel that the Superintendent of Operations may wish to advise the overseers and pastors of the need for good counsel and instructions to all parents at the local level each year prior to the General Assembly. Parents should not bring children here and turn them loose to their own devices.

This Committee appeals to this Assembly and the Church Body in general for more guidance at the local level regarding reverence and respect in the house of God and for property dedicated to God's service. We sincerely wish to serve God in a pleasing and humble manner.

Present Financial System

NOTE TO MINISTERS AND TREASURERS: Fill in all reports accurately and completely. Write or print plainly. If assistance is needed, write to L. F. Kendrick, Box 2970, Cleveland, Tennessee 37311.

TITHES: Members should pay their tithes into the treasury of the local church where they are members. Ministers send the tithes of income from the ministry with their monthly reports to the General Treasurer, and tithes on income outside the ministry are paid into the treasury of the local church where they are members.

The treasurer of the church is to send 10 per cent of tithes received each month with the treasurer's report to the appropriate address.

United States, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands—L. F. Kendrick, Box 2970 Cleveland, Tennessee 37311.

Other reports should be addressed to The Church of God of Prophecy, General Headquarters Field Office in your respective area, or contact your Overseer.

The Assembly recommends that the Executive Committee be authorized to adjust the allotments for pastors, State Overseers, and General Workers from year to year, based on the previous year's cost of living index.

The Assembly recommends that the allotment of the General Overseer and that pay for incidental expenses plus any and all personal necessities be left to the discretion of the Executive Committee.

The treasurer of the local church sends 10% of the tithes received each month to the treasurer of his state or nation and 10% to General Treasurer. The pastor's allotment is paid from the balance, not to exceed the amount set by the Executive Committee; any remainder goes into the surplus tithes.

We recommend that the sum of $550 received each month by the General Appointees and the State Overseers be designated for rent and utilities. Should the rent and utilities be under the above amount, the remaining amount would be included as income. Where feasible, this is also applicable to pastors and full-time evangelists. (Note: This recommendation is for income tax purposes only, and involves no extra allotment.)

Surplus tithes accruing in any local church are to be left in the tithe fund account of the local church treasury until after the last Sunday in June, at which time it is properly divided: 10% to be sent to the General Treasurer to be used at the discretion of the Executive Committee; 25% to be sent to the state or national treasurer to be used at the discretion of the State or National Overseer and Finance and Appropriations Committee and the 65% left in the local church should be presented by the local Committee as a proposed budget plan for approval by the local church conference. First consideration be given to the pastor's expense in the ministry; said expenses being already defined in the Church Business Guide.

The Assembly recommends that all local church treasurers mail their reports to the state or national treasurer no later than the 5th of each month. From the funds received, the State or National Overseer would receive his allotment and expense (if funds are available) according to the rulings of the General Assembly.

The Executive Committee agrees that all General Appointees receive an allotment of $1,690.00 monthly, if funds are available; and that incidental expense incurred by these General Appointees be left to the discretion of the Executive Committee.

Overseers in the United States are to receive no more than $1,690.00 monthly, plus an amount not to exceed $200 a month for office expenses from the tithes received from the churches, if funds are available. Any funds in excess of this amount received by the treasurer are to be kept in the state treasury to be placed in the general state fund for the state work, especially to assist pastors of weaker churches.

The Executive Committee agrees that the pastor receive an amount not to exceed $1,690.00 monthly from the tithes of the local church after General Headquarters and the State Overseer have received their portions, if funds are available. This does not include offerings and poundings received by the pastor.

Allotments for Overseers outside the United States where there is not sufficient tithes to cover the allotments the remaining portion be supplied by making transfers of Tithe Funds between countries where this is legally permissible and from the United States Tithe Fund in other cases, if funds are available, and that each Overseer should receive an allotment in the currency of the country or the territory he represents according to the average prevailing wage rates of each country.

The Assembly has ruled that tithes are for the support of the ministry only. Surplus tithes received at General Headquarters are disbursed at the discretion of the Executive Committee. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all tithes sent to General Headquarters. We recommend that the tithes of non-members that are paid into the local church treasury be paid through the regular channel the same as the tithes of members.

The Committee calls your attention to the fact that it does not say of ministers only; rather, of the ministry only. Ministry is defined as the office, duties, or functions of a minister; the building in which the business of the ministry is transacted; thus, the ministry includes any and all phases of the Church ministry, such as church property, equipment, maintenance, etc.

MISSION HOMES FOR CHILDREN: All Mission Homes for Children offerings remain in the local church treasury and are turned in at the state or national convention and Assembly. For improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state convention Mission Homes for Children offering remains in the state treasury. The General Treasurer is sent 10% of the balance and the state treasurer keeps 10%, or an equal amount. Send balance to the General Treasurer for the support of Mission Homes for Children and Tomlinson College. The General Treasurer sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Assembly has recommended that 10% of state and national convention offerings and Assembly offerings of the Mission Homes for Children be sent to General Headquarters for General Properties, and 40% for Tomlinson College.

EMERGENCY FUND: All ministers and members are to pay one dollar a year, or the amount set by the World Mission Committee where applicable, into the treasury of the local churches where their memberships are, and the treasurer sends the emergency dollars as collected with his monthly report. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all emergency money sent to General Headquarters.

GENERAL PROPERTIES FUND: The Assembly recommends that the General Properties Fund be continued and that each local church raise or collect one dollar per member, (where the dollar is not the monetary system—the amount is to be set by the World Mission Committee according to the economic and monetary condition) and that these funds be collected at the beginning of the Assembly year with the last Sunday of December being a rally day to finalize the collecting of these funds. This General Properties Fund money should be mailed to the General Treasurer or General Field Office, immediately after the last Sunday of December.

The Assembly recommends these portions be designated as General Properties Fund:

1. Not less than 50% of the CPMA membership each year after 10% is deducted for Ministerial Aid;
2. 50% of the CPMA state convention offerings which presently remain in the state treasury;
3. 10% of the state and national convention offerings and Assembly offerings of the Mission Homes for Children and Bible Training Institute.

The Assembly recommends that if there should be any deficit occurring in the General Properties Fund in making the monthly payments, such deficit be paid from the General Fund.

MISSION MONEY: The second Sunday mission offering and mission money raised by other means remain in the local church treasury and are turned in at the state and national convention and Assembly. For improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state convention mission offering is to remain in the state treasury. The General Treasurer receives 10% of the balance and the state treasurer keeps 10%, or an equal amount. Half of the remainder (40% of the balance after the state deducts the state headquarters maintenance portion) is left in the state for the general state fund, and half sent to the General Treasurer as world mission money. The General Treasurer is sent 5% of the 40% portion remaining in the state treasury for the state convention mission funds to assist in the support of widows of deceased ministers.

The General Treasurer receives all mission money collected in the March and October drives for world missions. It is to be sent with the local treasurer's monthly report. All mission offerings at the Assembly are turned in to the General Treasurer as world mission money. The General Treasurer sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of the mission money sent to the General Treasurer.

FIRST SUNDAY OFFERING: Each local church receives an offering for the pastor on the first Sunday of each month.

DISTRICT OVERSEERS SUPPORT: The Assembly recommends that a love offering be received for the district overseer in his district convention. If the district overseer is requested by the State Overseer to perform a duty involving considerable expense, the State Overseer will be responsible for such expense.

FOURTH SUNDAY OFFERING: The fourth Sunday is set by the Assembly for every local church to receive an expense offering for the Overseer of the state or nation. The local church treasurer sends 10% of this offering to the state treasurer for the state treasury; the balance of this offering is sent to the state treasurer for the expense of the Overseer. If there is not sufficient fourth Sunday offerings to cover his expense as Overseer, the excess tithes if there is any in the state treasury may be used to supplement the fourth Sunday offerings. DO NOT send any of the fourth Sunday offerings to the General Treasurer. Each local church should receive poundings for the Overseer once or twice a year.

VICTORY LEADERS OFFERING: All money raised for the Free Literature Fund by the Victory Leaders is given in at the state or national convention and Assembly. Money for the expense of the band should be received in a special offering. For improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state or national convention free literature offering is left in the state treasury. The General Treasurer receives 10% of the balance and the state treasurer retains 20% for the general state fund. The balance is sent to the White Wing Publishing House. The Assembly Free Literature Offering is given to the World Language Department. The White Wing Publishing House sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all free literature money received by the White Wing Publishing House, and the balance is disbursed by the Church Publishing Committee.

ASSEMBLY EXPENSE: To assist in the expense of the annual assemblies, the State Overseers are asked to collect funds each year and send to the General Treasurer.

a. The Assembly recommends that churches having less than 50 in Sunday School contribute annually $2.00 to Assembly expense; churches with Sunday School attendance between 50 and 100 are to contribute $3.00 annually; and churches averaging over 100 in Sunday School are to contribute $5.00 annually.

b. The Assembly recommends that each Victory Leaders Band contribute $2.00 annually; the Assembly recommends that each Women's Missionary Band contribute $2.00 annually, and that each minister, including deacons and lay ministers, contribute $1.00 annually.

c. The Assembly recommends that the pastors be responsible for collecting the Assembly Expense Dollars for the auxiliaries and forward to the State Overseer, and the State Overseer be responsible to collect the dollars from the ministers in his state. These funds are to be mailed to the General Treasurer as collected. The final report of the Assembly expense should be given by the Overseer with the state convention report to the General Treasurer, and the State Secretaries be responsible to the State Overseer to boost and assist in collecting these funds.

CHURCH OF PROPHECY MARKER ASSOCIATION: To be a member of the Church of Prophecy Marker Association, you pay $5.00 a year, and it may be paid any time during the year. For the local church to receive credit in the Honor Stone Program, it must be paid before the honor sheet is filled in by the pastor; in other nations, to become a member you pay an amount set by the Overseer and CPMA Committee.

CPMA offerings remain in the local church treasury and are given in at the state convention. These offerings are divided by the state treasurer; 20% of the CPMA state convention offering remains in the state treasury for improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters; 10% of the balance is sent to the General Treasurer, and an equal amount, or 10% is sent to the state treasurer for the state work, and an equal amount, or 10% is sent to the General Treasurer for the Ministerial Aid Fund. Of the amount presently remaining in the state treasury, 50% is to be sent to the General Treasurer for the General Properties Fund. Not less than 50% of CPMA membership fees each year, after 10% is deducted for Ministerial Aid, is to go to the General Properties Fund.

BIBLE TRAINING INSTITUTE: The Assembly recommends that the pastors be responsible for conducting weekly classes in the local churches to acquaint our people with the doctrine and practices of the Church. Offerings received in the classes are turned in at the state convention to assist Bible Training Institute in teaching the Church doctrine in other nations. It is recommended that 10% of state and national convention offerings and Assembly offerings of Bible Training Institute be sent to General Headquarters for the General Properties Fund.

World Must Be Evangelized

It will take good organization and systematic methods to accomplish this task.

God's power is demonstrated in proportion to the unity and oneness of His people.

The members of the early Church were all of one accord, steadfast in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and the multitude that believed were of one heart and one soul, and great grace was upon them all and mighty results followed as a consequence of their perfect unity and careful organization.

We must banish from our minds the thoughts of individual or local independence and haphazard spasmodic efforts.

Pull together, pull at once, pull steadily all the time is the road to success.

All members should be ready to center their minds and prayers on the one thing, as a unit, when calls for special prayer are made. Each should feel his or her part of the responsibility, remembering that when one member fails, it cripples or dwarfs the body until the matter pending may fail.

Local Church Officers and Leaders

1. Pastor: It is the duty of the State or National Overseer to supply every church under his jurisdiction with a pastor. Pastors are to be appointed at the state or national convention and vacancies will be filled as they occur. The duties of the pastor expire at midnight the last Sunday in July at the church he is leaving and automatically begin at the same time at the church to which he is moving.

2. Clerk: The local church clerk is to be appointed by the pastor at the same time as the other leaders and officers by the pastor during the first two months of his pastoral year; said appointments to be ratified in the following quarterly conference.

3. Treasurer: The treasurer is appointed in the same manner as the clerk. It is advised that one person serve as both clerk and treasurer when satisfactory to the local church. The treasurer will receive and disburse all funds of the local church including tithes, auxiliary funds and special funds and will maintain an accurate record of all receipts and disbursements.

4. Auxiliary Leaders: Leaders for the five auxiliaries—Sunday School, Womens Missionary Band, Victory Leaders Band, Church of Prophecy Marker Association, Assembly Band Movement—are appointed by the pastor during the first two months of his pastoral year.

Each pastor, with the assistance of the deacons, should divide his members into bands of ten or twelve and appoint a leader for each band. The leader should keep in touch with each member of the band, and if any should move away, communication should be kept up by correspondence. This is for the mutual, spiritual, temporal, and social benefit of the members. The pastor should keep in close touch with the band leaders.

5. Local Trustees: Trustees to hold title to local church property are selected by the local church in a regular or called business meeting and are authorized to bargain, buy, sell, convey or encumber the local property only when authorized to do so by the local church in a regular or called business meeting, and with the written consent of the General Trustees.

6. Other Officers and Leaders: The Assembly has authorized the pastor to appoint a Church Literature Representative, Public Relations Director, Bible Training Institute Booster and any other leaders during the first two months of his pastoral year.

Business Meetings

Each local church should hold a regular business conference quarterly. It has been the practice to observe the first Monday night in January, April, July, and October for the conference. A meeting may be called any time by the pastor or State Overseer. A short business meeting may be held at the beginning or close of a meeting for worship.

The pastor should act as moderator of all business meetings. If there is no pastor, the State Overseer has authority to act or appoint a licensed male minister to preside. Where one pastor has the care of several churches, he may arrange the business meetings for his convenience.

Every member should attend every business session if possible. Women are to take no open part in discussing or deciding questions, but should always be there and silently pray that God will give wisdom and direct the men.

Matters should be discussed with love, humility and meekness. No votes should be taken to decide questions. Everything should be done with one accord and questions settled by mutual agreement. If there is division on a matter, hold it over until all can agree. If one should seem obstinate and contrary, do not run the matter over him, but take up his case and investigate the cause of his obstinacy; if he shows a good spirit so that he can be heard, then show him courtesy. If he proves to be wrong, deal with him as the Bible directs. Then, take up the original subject and dispose of it in harmony and love.

If a matter cannot be settled satisfactorily by the local church, they should call for the assistance of the State Overseer. If they are still unable to reach a satisfactory conclusion, it should be referred to the General Overseer.

No one should give a message in tongues to the church unless there is an interpreter present, and then only one at a time and not more than three in a whole session.

Suggested Arrangement and Order of Business

Moderator, clerk, treasurer should occupy seats on the platform. Deacons and other ministers seated nearby.

Song service and prayer. Scripture lesson, and prayer by the moderator asking for wisdom and direction. Song.

Advice to Members

As a member, you count one and should attend every regular service as far as possible. Remember no one can fill you place and the service will be that much dwarfed and crippled without your presence.

Show love and fellowship to everyone without partiality. Don't wait for others to greet you but you greet them.

Show special courtesy to strangers who may attend one of your services.

As a rule, take part in the singing.

Be ready for vocal prayer when called on or prompted by the Spirit.

Be ready for testimony when such is in order.

Stand by your pastor or appointed leader and assist him in every way you can.

Always pray silently for the preacher while he delivers the message. Always live a consecrated life at home and abroad so no one can justly think or speak of you as a hypocrite.

Guard your conversation. Be careful what you say about a brother, sister, or anyone else.

Don't be a critic and try to find something in others to criticize.

Examine yourself occasionally and see if you are in the faith.

Don't yield to discouragement or despondency.

Be cheerful and happy and try to make others the same.

Spend as much time as you can in secret prayer. Give yourself all you can to intercessory prayer. Daily prayers and study of God's Word are necessary and very important for the spiritual welfare of each child of God; therefore, everyone is urged to faithfully maintain as far as is possible family worship at home at least once a day.

Your dress should be with moderation, neat and clean, but not for show. Moderation includes paying moderate prices for clothing, wearing dresses of high-enough necklines, low-enough hemlines, sleeves of reasonable length. The wearing of extremely sheer fabrics is unbecoming to a saint and the wearing of shorts in public should never be practiced. You should never wear gold for ornament or decoration. Finger rings, bracelets, earrings, necklaces, locketts and large showy pins—these are also unbecoming to a saint of God. Rouge, lipstick, nail polish and extremely costly perfumes are used to satisfy the pride of life and therefore they should have no place in the lives of those who love God. Please read and study these Scriptures often: 1 Peter 3:3, 4; 1 Timothy 2:9, 10 and 1 John 2:15-17.

You should not permit yourself to be trapped by worldly attractions. The Bible says, "Neither give place to the devil." Dabbling with worldly amusements like professional ball-games, horseraces, stockcar races, wrestling arenas, skating rinks, motion picture houses or drive-in theaters, bowling alleys and going swimming where men and women both use the same bathing area would give the devil a foothold or place in your life.

Always tithe your income and put it in the church treasury. Make freewill offerings other than your tithes.

Younger members should not keep company or associate too intimately with worldly outsiders.

Because of the ever-increasing number of broken homes, separations, divorces and remarriages, the greatest care should be taken with much prayer and consideration regarding proposed matrimony.

A member who may have a living companion should not marry another under any circumstances even if divorced. Neither should a member marry anyone who has a living companion although such a person may be divorced.

Children are an heritage from the Lord. Those who have children are responsible to teach them at an early age to reverence the house of God. This should be done by setting a good example before them and by instructing them with such a good spirit that they will have a strong desire to serve the Lord. MINISTERS are to meet all of the requirements in being examples to the members by keeping their children under reasonable control at all times and by restraining them from running about over the house of God, especially while the services are in progress.

The White Wing Messenger is a very important part of the Church of God. It should be read regularly by every member and your interest in advertising the Church should be so great that when you have finished reading your copy, you would pass it along to someone else. Every member who possibly can should subscribe, and each minister is asked to be a "paid-up" subscriber and an earnest worker for our church paper—The White Wing Messenger.

These are the last days and perilous times have come and it will require much watchfulness and humble prayer for you to so live and act that you will never bring reproach on the worthy name of Christ and His Church that you so much love.

Never form too close an intimacy with the opposite sex even if they are brothers and sisters in the Lord. Give no place to the adversary. Abstain from the very appearance of evil.

These kindly instructions and advices are given by those who are watching for your soul as they must give an account (Hebrews 13:17), and it is hoped they will be received with the same meek, gentle spirit in which they are given.

Duties of State and National Overseers

Each overseer is to have the oversight of his state, nation or territory, and together with the General Overseer, will form the presbytery in his respective area. In addition to his general responsibility for the work under his jurisdiction, he will be responsible for specific duties:

To conduct or order a general evangelistic campaign during the year. If there are only a few churches in the state or area assigned him, he will serve primarily as an evangelist, evangelizing in new fields and endeavoring to establish new churches. If his area has a large number of churches and ministers, he will be responsible to organize and direct the evangelistic efforts of his workers in new fields.

To see that every church is supplied with a pastor.

To divide his state or territory into districts and place over each district an overseer as previously practiced. This is not a rule, but it is considered best when there are sufficient churches to make it practical. He should conduct district meetings at intervals during the year where special instructions concerning the work can be given.

To hold one general convention each year in the area most convenient for members from all the churches to attend.

To secure the name and address of every bishop, deacon, and evangelist under his jurisdiction and keep a record of these so he can report to the General Overseer, if necessary. He will also issue lay minister's certificates and keep the necessary records concerning them.

Keep an accurate record of the location of every church and the number of members in his territory, keeping a record of the increase so this information can be reported each year. This can be done by keeping in touch with the clerks of the churches. Every minister and clerk should take an interest in imparting this information to the overseer. All new organizations should be reported to the overseer.

To visit every district and church, if possible, and look after the interests in every way, as a pastor over a large circuit.

Duties of District Overseer

The district overseers are to be appointed by the State Overseer:

To moderate business conferences for women preachers who may be acting as pastors and for male pastors who are not licensed.

To do evangelistic work in his district. If he has a district with no churches, it is his duty to evangelize and organize churches.

To conduct district conventions according to the instructions of the State Overseer.

To assist the State Overseer, when called upon, in all things relating to church work and he is subject to the State Overseer.

Obligation for Membership in the Church of God of Prophecy

The minister who administers this obligation should see that every applicant replies in the affirmative. In taking the obligation, applicants should think of it as being a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.
