80th Annual Assembly of the CHURCH OF GOD OF PROPHECY

Held in the Assembly Tabernacle
Cleveland, Tennessee, U.S.A.

September 3-9

1985

"Ye are come unto Mount Sion ... and to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly and church of the firstborn ... and to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant."

"Put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground."

Prefatory Notes

Hearts were stirred again and again in the 80th Assembly as God manifested His presence among the 19,328 registered delegates who were present for this spiritual feast. Each song, each prayer, each message, each auxiliary program, in fact, all that transpired seemed to be touched by God to touch and inspire His people.

How could we ever be the same again after sitting together in this heavenly atmosphere under the influence of such powerful preaching? The singing was beautiful, directing our hearts again and again in true worship. The emphasis upon soul-winning surely will have its effect, as we were challenged in a powerful way to share our faith.

In addition to those who were present from all fifty states, members came from seventy other nations. This Assembly represented a wide variety of cultures from around the world, but it was easy to sense that we all were one in the Spirit. It was pleasant to witness the unity with which all joined together to worship and serve the Lord.

Pre-Assembly events included, in addition to the services in the local churches on Sunday, an appreciation breakfast hosted by the Cleveland/Bradley County Chamber of Commerce, the Tomlinson College Scholarship Fund Banquet, the Annual Presbytery Meeting and dinner, and the Fields of the Wood Program.

The good coverage provided by the news media, as well as the hospitality of the officials and citizens of Cleveland and Bradley County is certainly to be appreciated. Without this hospitality by the local citizens, there would be no way to provide lodging for so many people. The motel accommodations would not be sufficient.

Much planning and labor went into this week-long gathering, and all who cooperated are to be commended for their efforts. Every department of the Church was ably promoted during the various sessions, and we sincerely appreciate our faithful workers. To God be the glory for all that was accomplished, because it is for His glory that the Assemblies are conducted.

The 81st Annual General Assembly will be held, God willing, September 1-7, 1986.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3

AFTERNOON

1:15 Organ music by Gloria Hart. Two songs led by Bob McDonald with Shirlene Stone, pianist; Jenna Allen, organist. Galatians 1:14 read by Terry L. Bear. Prayer at pulpit by David E. Smith, followed by concert prayer.

1:45 Opening of 80th Assembly by General Overseer. Are you happy that you have found the Church that Jesus established on Mt. Hattin when He called unto Him whom He would and ordained the twelve? That is when the Church of God started; He organized it in the name of His Father. We thank God that it is the Church of the Bible. Jesus is still watching over His Church. It seems that the closer we get to the coming of the Lord, or when we get to go to meet Him, it is getting dearer and dearer to me. I am thankful that I have had opportunity to be in all the assemblies except seven. Some of the flesh and blood of the former General Overseer is here in the 80th Assembly of the Church of God. It thrills me to have a part in the great Church of God each year. Read: 1 Peter 5:1-11; Isaiah 40:25-31.

We thank the Lord for the Word of God. (All bowed heads as General Overseer prayed.) (All raised their hands and praised the Lord.)

1:58 Appointment of Committees:

Foxx, Cephas Ferguson, Richard Morrow, Ralph Lester, Frederic P. Fleming, Orlander Barrett, R. V. Lee Pratt, William Blanscet, R. H. Bradley, William T. Pritchett

2:02 Prayer by M. T. Linkous for the Committees. "Pull Altogether" sung by Dorothy Creel, Jenna Allen and Roberta Matthews. Song by: Garry Lovette; Jan Slaton.

2:23 Let Freedom Ring—message by Harper Hunter, Field Secretary. Scriptures: John 8:31-36; Matthew 8:16, 17; Isaiah 53:4, 5; 61:1-3; John 16:8; Luke 13:10-12; John 10:10; Luke 13:12-17; John 11:44; Psalm 46:1; Luke 10:19. (This message was printed in the November 16, 1985 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be obtained on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

3:16 Ministerial Tribute Program, in charge of Roy D. Mixon, Director. Theme: Anchored to the Rock. Psalm 27:1-14. Concert prayer for our senior members. Prayer in concert by these national overseers: C. C. Shiakallis, Kenneth Nyamhuka, Armando Dorantes S., Richard E. Davis and Herman Ard.

3:27 Director honored widows Ethel Payne and Alice Moxley. This was for the purpose of honoring and expressing appreciation to all of our faithful widows of our Church ministers. "The Great Speckled Bird" sung by Sherry and Dennis Shroyer.

3:40 "... Not by might... but by my spirit"—message by H. M. Biggers. Excerpts: Zechariah 4:6. Zerubbabel needed direction from God. John 15:5. Without Him, we are nothing; with Jesus, God the Father and the Holy Ghost, all things are possible. Only by the Spirit was the house built in which Zerubbabel was engaged. We are engaged in building for God; it will take those filled with the Spirit to accomplish the task. In spite of difficulties, Zerubbabel continued to build. Jesus Christ is going to build His house according to the pattern in the Word of God. No secular arm, earthly politics nor suits of law shall ever be used for the preservation of God's Church. The candlestick in Zechariah 4:3 represents God's House; the two olive trees represents Joshua and Zerubbabel. God, give us men as said in Joshua 24:15. It takes a made up mind to serve God—not haphazardly. Zechariah is pointing toward the establishment of a new theocracy and onward to future glory of God's people under the Messiah who will purge away iniquity and will rule His chosen.

Referred to Matthew 16:13-18. Jesus declared that flesh and blood had not revealed this. His Church would withstand the fiery darts of the devil; come out victorious. The solidarity of the Church demands being grounded on the Word of God. Mark 3:13 tells what Jesus was talking about—I am going to build my Church. He organized, ordained and commissioned them to go preach the gospel in fulfillment of Psalm 72:16. Mark 16:17-20. Thank God for the solution in Ephesians 4:11-15. Jesus is the Head of the Church and He is going to see us through. John 10:9; 7:38. Obedience will accomplish the task. (Referred to the marriage in Canaan when Jesus turned water into wine.) Mary told the people that whatever He said, do it. The Groom is waiting; the Bride is making herself ready. Revelation 19:7. Let us keep on keeping on for God.

3:55 Sherry and Dennis Shroyer sang "My Anchor Holds."

3:58 Memorial Tribute to deceased ministers by Roy D. Mixon:

Psalm 78:1-7. These beautiful words penned by the Psalmist seem to apply to those to whom we pay tribute at this time. Men and women who bravely marched forward for a number of years on this earth, carrying forth the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ; men and women who were anchored to the rock, holding forth the words of eternal life, blameless and harmless, the sons and daughters of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse world, shining as lights in the world.

They recognized that they were chosen in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and without blame before Him in love. They left the testimony of being steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that their labour was not in vain.

They were blessed people here on this earth, because what greater blessing could a person have than to be adopted into the family of God, becoming an heir and joint-heir with Christ in all things, and having a divine revelation of God's purpose and plan on earth.

These precious people awoke to righteousness, watched, and stood fast in the faith. They taught their children and grandchildren about the great Church of God. They held fast to her Bible doctrines and passed it on to their offspring. They walked by faith and not by sight. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, kept their hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

It was their desire to walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, increasing in the knowledge of God, strengthened with all might according to His glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness.

Did they know troubles and afflictions? Of course they did! Because they were real people, like the real people of the Bible. When we read of Moses, we know what it meant to feel insecure. Many times that great man of God felt insecure. And the people he led out of Egypt cried hot, salty tears that left lines on their windblown faces. Their poor hearts pounded when they were scared. When they became tired and hungry, their poor heads ached. There were times when their eyes watered when they laughed, because they were real.

The Bible tells us that Jesus was a man of many sorrows, that He became tired, that He wept and that He prayed until His sweat became as drops of blood.

All of those who have gone on before us suffered afflictions, sorrows, endured hardships, hazarded their lives, wept tears of sorrow and remorse and laughed tears of joy and gladness. Thank God for these who have preceded us and the beautiful life they lived and the wonderful testimony they left behind. They would have each generation following them to continue in the things that they have learned, as the aged preacher, Paul the Apostle, wrote to Timothy in 2 Timothy 3:14.

These people whom we pay tribute to today were not only ambassadors of Christ as ministers of the gospel, but most of them were also parents and grandparents. They would pass the torch on to the younger generations with the words of the apostle . . . "follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, where unto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses." (1 Timothy 6:11, 12)

We salute the brave people today. They were anchored to the rock, the only rock in a moving, shaking world, a world whose very foundations are shaking like Lebanon, reminding us of the words of the writer of Hebrews in Hebrews 12:27.

With everything being shaken around us, thank God for people who would not be shaken, who would not become liberals, who would not be tossed to and fro and about by winds of doctrines, but remained steadfast, sure, sound and anchored. They fought a good fight, they finished their course and kept the faith.

God, we thank you for the lives of these beautiful people whom we have paid tribute to. They were real people whom we could see the fruit of the spirit manifested in. They loved you, your Word, your Church, their families, other people. Many of them sacrificed and gave of themselves and helped so many people in this world in spiritual and humanitarian ways. They did what they could—they did their best. We appreciated them and miss them here. We salute them.

Congregation stood in silent tribute to our deceased ministers as flag was lowered to half-mast by A. T. Wagar and taps played by Dennis Shroyer. Prayer by the General Overseer.

4:19 Emmitt Davis directed as 179, who have been members of the Church for more than thirty years, announced their names and number of years they have been members of the Church of God.

4:39 Message by William Marion. 2 Chronicles 32:7, 8. For sixteen years prior to the rule of Hezekiah, Judah had suffered tribulations and defeat by the enemy because the world had come into their lives. Ahaz had done so much against God. He closed the temples and took out the holy vessels of God and built statues of other gods. He offered his children as sacrifices to strange gods trying to get the attention of their Deity.

God did not bless them; they did not have the victory. If we have the victory, get deliverance and have revival, we will have to be sure that the world is out of our lives and that the Spirit of God is within. For us to defeat Satan, we will have to walk in the ways of the Lord. If one person is corrupt, does not mean that God stops the plan. God has a plan and His Spirit will take over and raise somebody up who will get the job done.

When Ahaz was doing this, Hezekiah, whom the power of God was dwelling in, stepped in office. He said that we are going to get back into the ways of God. He had to do a few things; the first was to open the church doors again. We can't have meeting without going to church. If you are not going to the sanctuary of God, you are not getting all you need. We are losing our desire to go into the house of the Lord. Hezekiah had all the idols taken down, as there was no room for Jehovah and the other gods. We might not be bowing down to an idol erected in our homes; but anything that takes our minds off God is idol worship in some way. My eleven-year old son has never witnessed the blue smoke; the balls of fire nor a move of God when people were slain that I have read about. I am tired of reading and talking about it; I am ready for it. I am convinced the reason it is not happening is that we have been too occupied outside the Church. Hezekiah confessed and acknowledged the sins of Judah. As a result of his obedience, Judah went into a major revival as told in 2 Chronicles 30. The 26th verse says they had gone 260 years without a move of God. I can't wait that long; I can't wait another year. I believe we are ready for an outpouring of God. I am not seeking after signs; I believe the signs ought to follow us. People were happy after the revival and things were going right. When God moves, the devil can't stand it and he starts a conflict.

Twenty-five miles away was an army from Assyria. They sent word to Hezekiah that they had destroyed all the rest of the tribes of Israel and were coming to get him; if he would surrender, they would let him go. The Spirit of God got on Hezekiah. He got the people together and said for them to be strong and courageous; there is more with us than with them. They were outnumbered, but he was not looking in the natural. He said that there is a heavenly host encamped about us. I don't believe we realize how much the angels of God are doing for the Church today. God has a mighty army that is able to defeat the enemy. Hezekiah knew what he was talking about and told them not to be dismayed that our God will help us fight our battles. The people rested upon the Word. The next morning 188,000 Assyrians were dead. The king heard that someone was warring with them, and he said we have to go defend our home front. When he got there, his two sons killed him. Judah was divinely protected. I want to be under the divine protection of God, the Holy Ghost fire and deliverance. In 2 Samuel 5:24, the Lord spoke to David and told that He would lead the battles. Isaiah 52:12. The Church is destined for protection for with us is the Lord God, who will help us and deliver us.

9:27 June 13 on Mt. Hattin and our Work in Israel and Egypt—Darrell A. Creel. Excerpts: Matthew 3:15. The Lord was on Mt. Hattin June 13. The Church was organized for the benefit of the world; we are sent as ministers to reach every person we come in contact with the full message of the Bible. We had singing, praying and preaching; the most important was praying for the Church of God around the world. The marker on Mt. Hattin is a reminder of what Jesus began and what we are to carry on. On the Mount of Beatitudes, Jesus preached the Sermon on the Mount; we have a marker there. The markers which get the most attention in Israel are the two in the Garden Tomb area. Thank God for the sacrifice on Calvary and because the tomb is empty; we have life and the promise of eternal life; His blood purchased the Church of God. This was His plan to perform His will in this world.

Egypt is very famous; but right now, there is a heavy river of confusion and deceit in that land. They have forgotten the spiritual matters. We thank God we have ministers there and that BTI has been there three years. These brethren care about you and realize that they are a part of the Body. As workers together, we will accomplish the mission that Jesus has sent us for.

In Israel is the town of Bethlehem where our Lord first saw life as we know it. He came down, suffered and lived as a man; He had temptations; He was victorious. At the age of thirty, He went to the river of Jordan and was baptized by John the Baptist. The Spirit descended, a voice came out of heaven saying, "This is my beloved Son, hear ye Him." He is still the Son of God; we must listen and obey. He has told us to go. He went in the wilderness of Judea and fasted forty days and nights and then the temptation came. He was preparing for the hard things that God was going to send. Then Jesus returned to the shores of Galilee and ministered to the lame, deaf, dumb and blind; He restored man to that perfect state with God. On the shores of the sea of Galilee, Jesus chose the people to carry forth the gospel. They worked with their hands and were willing to lay down everything they had for the gospel's sake. God help us as we seek to perform the miracles that He performed—the most important is saving souls. On the shores of Galilee: He fed 5,000, brought calm when the sea was raging—just as He brings peace to us when the storms are raging in our lives. He spoke about a harvest that is ripe—the world, the people, and He has sent us to labor in His field.

Jesus went into Jerusalem and faced opposition and traditions. He spoke to the Jews about humility; about bowing down to God instead of saying, "I am one of Abraham's children." Today there is much confusion; there are many centers of religion of various kinds; Jesus Christ has the same message: "I am the Way, the Truth and Life." Every year the Samaritians make sacrifices for remissions of their sins. They don't understand that one LAMB was offered. As Jesus walked the streets of Jerusalem, He taught us many lessons. He didn't just teach the Pharisees, the Scribes, the Samaritians and the ones around the city; He was teaching us. He told lessons about camels: It is harder for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God than for a camel to go through the eye of a needle. He talked about the goats and sheep. He didn't get confused—He knew what goats and sheep were. He is not deceived today. Jerusalem was the chosen city; it had all the privileges, much like the Church of God. He said be careful what you do with those privileges. Jesus said to Jerusalem that you have slain the prophets. In those streets, He preached about unfruitfulness—those who are unfruitful will be chopped down and cast into the fire; He was taken to a dungeon and persecuted. He was crucified on the hill called Golgotha—not because He had committed sin, but because we have. He purchased the Church of God. Am I here to be ministered unto or to minister? Am I here to be blessed or be a blessing? He has paid the price and sent us forth. Death was swallowed up in victory.

Again He returned to Galilee and said to the disciples to go to the uttermost part of the earth and carry this message—I am the Truth. He is the Truth and that is the message we preach today. We do the works of our Father. We are the walls and gates of Jerusalem preserving what God has given to His people. He sent us forth; we are His hands to the needy; His voice in the worldly wilderness. In this world, we are salt; we are lights of the world to carry forth what He began. We are called and chosen; we have the equipment; all He asks us to do is to perform what He has asked us to; we will have to do it now; Jesus will not delay His coming. The world is groaning for relief which will only come through Jesus Christ. The marker on Mt. Hattin commemorates Jesus setting forth His disciples and organizing His Church, but the beginning is not the end. We are part of the final chapter of what Jesus started that day. We are His markers, representatives of His truths. The world is waiting for the manifestations of the sons of God.

9:55 The Church of Prophecy Marker Association Program. Theme: The Church of Revelation, directed by Wade H. Phillips, General Secretary. Devotion by CPMA Committee. Roy Mixon read 1 Timothy 3:15; Leonard Kendrick led in concert prayer. Londa Richardson led in singing "When the Church of God Arises."

10:12 Mission Markers, a new deminsion incorporated into the department in line with the original intent of this auxiliary—to mark, maintain and beautify places in relation to the history in prophecy of the Bible Church. While touring in South America, God inspired the General Secretary as he saw the dire need for buildings for places of worship. What better way to mark the Church of God than to build buildings for them to worship in and work from? The Committee felt the same way; we incorporated this in February. More than one hundred people have responded with $500 or more. In many places we have built church buildings for $500; in some places sponsors have joined together; 25 states and two countries have responded; 59 individuals, 34 local churches. We have 115 mission marker sponsors and over $60,000 has come in. We are sending this money out as fast as it comes in. The Essex Church in Maryland only has six members; they have sponsored three mission markers and are working on the other three to be 100 per cent.

Pastor William Marion spoke: I didn't ask, but our local church sponsored two mission markers and working on the third. This program is God-sent. I do not believe you would have to beg; just present it and the people will respond under the anointing of the Holy Ghost.

State Secretary Ella Brantley commented: By building mission markers, we show our love and concern for souls to be able to hear the gospel so they can be saved, sanctified, filled with the Holy Ghost and learn about the great Church of God. My definition of a mission marker is a soul-saving station and that is what we need throughout the world—not just in other countries, but our churches need to be soul-saving stations. Nothing is more important than helping souls and getting them ready for heaven. When I first learned of this program, I thought that I could not promote this in our area when one-third of the churches don't own buildings. I became burdened and prayed that God would inspire our people who were able to purchase a marker. It didn't hinder our convention offerings. We have six markers.

State Overseer E. Eugene Johnson remarked: My first reaction when I heard about mission markers was that I wanted to be a part. I didn't know of any program in the Church where we could do so much for so many for so little. I prayed for a plan to inspire the mission-minded people in North Carolina. I contacted each district overseer asking him to challenge his district. We have sixteen mission marker churches that North Carolina has sponsored. The Church of God is mission-minded. I thought of the vision which came to the Apostle Paul when the man from Macedonia said to come over and help us; he immediately said, Let us go and help in Macedonia. People in these countries are my brothers and sisters. This is an integral part of the Great Commission; could be involved in making all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery by letting them know that we love not only in word but in deed. I challenge you to respond; the opportunity is here to build church buildings.

Mission Representative Raul Torres told of some receiving: There are not words to express the gratitude and appreciation this program is doing for our people. It is not that our people are lazy and have no initiative; they do not have the resources. This is an answer to prayer. The overseer of Chile prayed for a building in Santiago. They had rented an abandoned theater building and cleaned it up, which was worth over $70,000; back taxes were owed and a lot of complications. The overseer had an interview with the President's wife to see if she could intercede; they obtained that building for less than $23,000 with $3,000 down payment donated from the mission marker fund. When people pray, those who have the means yield to the Spirit, God joins us together and the glory of God is manifested. This has been a tremendous inspiration to our people in Chile. They are making believers out of many; as we join forces, we can defeat the enemy. Though the political situations around the world are dismal, with God nothing is impossible. Recently we purchased a church building, pews and everything with it in San Paulo, Brazil for $800. Peru was sent $2,500 to assist in their building program. They added over 1,000 to the Church this year. Soul-winning is not our problem. We must have a place to bring them and send them out so they can bring in more. The youth mission team in June had a crusade in the tabernacle in Chile. There are no churches in this vicinity; a church is to be organized soon. This is what the money is being used for.

Mission Representative E. E. Van Deventer expressed appreciation for receiving—the Third World countries are in dire need of places to worship. The mission of the Church is to reach all souls; the heartbeat of the Church must be missions. Our auxiliaries in the Church must work together to coordinate their efforts to reach out to people. Every auxiliary is a mission effort in the Church. Our offerings are not going to be hurt because we give to something else. I think your convention offerings will increase. There is money out there that would be given other ways. If we are to be that perfect man, we will be subject to God and the Church in everything, support every department, everyone will have a mission effort to reach people. Psalm 37:37.

Brother Phillips announced: We have supported this year—Thailand, Belize, Guatemala, Honduras, Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, Paraguay, Peru, Venezuela, Uganda, Kenya, Zimbabwe and several other countries; over 40 churches have been built or are being built in over 20 countries.

10:52 Singing by The Gospel Defenders.

11:07 Maintaining Our Heritage and Visualizing Our Future—Ted Carroll, Fields of the Wood. Remarks: Tourism has almost doubled; people are receiving divine revelation of the Church of God at Fields of the Wood; members are being taken in by the world's largest altar. God is opening up places to put up road signs to advertise Fields of the Wood; we advertise the Kingdom of God and the Church of the Bible. Individuals are giving property worth thousands of dollars on which to put up signs. God is helping the Church of God.

Maintain means to keep in proper position; visualize implies to form a mental image. In Exodus 13:1-5, God wanted Israel to maintain their identity. In Deuteronomy 32:7, God is speaking to us today. Everything we are doing in Fields of the Wood is Biblical and is to assist us in remembering who we are and where we are going. Fields of the Wood is what it is today because some sacrificed and worked. There is work to be done; not just one person, but the Body is made up of all of us. By our pulling together, sacrificing, loving and sharing we will get the work done. We are the world-wide Body of Christ. 2 Peter 1:12. Let go and let God use you; be Church of God; help us get the work done. Don't lose your vision nor identity. 2 Corinthians 6:17. I hope you have a proper vision of our future.

6:55 Concert prayer. Sound of trumpets ending the Call of Nations and States by Bahama Trumpeters. Bahama Band played as Assembly expense offering was received.

7:10 Perry Gillum introduced U. S. Senator James Sasser, who commented: Welcome to this place which we think the Lord has specially blessed. Quoted Matthew 5:14-16. These words expressed a challenge for the followers of Jesus nearly 2,000 years ago and it holds true today. We must lead by example. We are troubled and torn in this world; we must guard against secular influences devaluing the worth of Christian commitment. Through the ages, we see the course of history changed by those who stood against injustice, tyranny and evil could not prevail against love; history changed for the better by the actions of these individuals. With Christian witness, we can light the path to a better world here, and we can rejoice that God's work on earth must truly be our own.

7:15 Brother Gillum remarked and read a letter from President Reagan regarding the General Assembly. The Assembly stood and prayed for all people in authority throughout the world. The three General Field Secretaries laid hands on Senator Sasser as we prayed.

7:25 Greg Stephens led the Cleveland (Peerless Road) Choir in singing two songs. Susan Duncan and Dwayne Murray sang "Worship the Lamb of God." Moment of silent prayer.

7:50 "Then Thou Shalt See, and Flow Together"—message and altar call by Billy Murray, Assistant Editor. (Interpretation of Holy Ghost messages)

"Yea, I say unto thee my people, humble thyself, humble thyself, humble thyself. I say unto thee humble thyself. My Church, my Church, my Church, humble thyself, thus saith the Lord."

"Hear me, hear me, hear my voice. I call unto thee my people; know my will. Consider your ways; each one look not to your neighbor, look not to anyone, look to your ways; trust in your God. Have you repented? Have you come unto me; have you given me your wisdom; have you given me your understanding? You know about your own thoughts, how do you know? Have you heard my voice?"

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 6

MORNING

7:30 Sunrise service in charge of Joe Brookshire and Leonard Robinson. Organ music by Terry Stone. Music by Bahama Brass Band.

8:45 Two songs led by Greg Stephens with Michael Flippo, pianist; Ron Scotton, organist. Acts 2:38-47 read by Donnal Markham. Prayer by J. E. Elliott; concert prayer for requests.

9:03 Two songs by South Florida Mass Choir. (There was rejoicing in the Spirit.) Moment of silent prayer for Wiley Johnson, our oldest minister, who went to be with the Lord.

9:20 Former pastors of Brother Tomlinson sat on platform as his pastor Sam N. Clements delivered a message on The Issue of the Heart. Excerpts: Hebrews 3:7-15. Open-heart surgery has become an every day procedure; artificial hearts are being implanted. Man continues the experimentation with the heart. Spiritually speaking, man must have a new heart in order to have a right spirit. The sinful heart is evil; it cannot please God. 2 Corinthians 5:17. Israel had a heart problem; they had an evil heart hardened by unbelief, which will lapse into atheism, immorality and worldiness.

God desires to work miracles among us, but miracles have very little impact upon people until their hearts are changed. Miracles had little success on Pharaoh, on Egypt nor the Jews. A people backslid with a miracle for breakfast every morning. At the foot of miracle mountain, they built and worshipped a golden calf; they lost confidence in God.

Hebrews 3:8, 12. We need to listen and obey what the Holy Ghost saith. This has been a year of soul-searching for me since last year in our General Assembly the Holy Ghost called for Church-wide repentance. I am persuaded that the problem we have in the Church today is the problem of the heart. Joel 2:12, 13.

Impure hearts, even with right doctrine, will fail. There are laws and bylaws that must be kept. Sometimes we stress Colossians 2 to the neglect of Matthew 5. Jesus didn't come to destroy law; He came to fulfill it. It would be foolish to think that we could survive without certain guidelines by the Church. People will never live right and do right until we have a revival of hearts. Proverbs 23:7. 1 Peter 3:4 speaks of the hidden man of the heart. The condition of the heart determines the moral and spiritual welfare of a man.

Matthew 15 gives a sermon on the heart. The scribes and Pharisees accused Jesus' disciples of transgressing tradition by eating bread with unwashed hands. Jesus let them know that it was not unwashed hands that constitutes sin but dirty hearts. Mark 7: 2, 22; Acts 5:3. Ananias lied to the Holy Ghost and he fell dead; he had a phoney heart. Hebrews 4:12, 13. God will not tolerate hypocrisy forever in the Church. 2 Chronicles 25:1, 2.

We have in the Church professing Christians like Amaziah. They do what is right in the sight of the Lord; they appear to be a healthy Church member. It is possible for membership and church attendance to be maintained while one's heart is far from God. If you feel adherence to ecclesiastical rules and laws is a guarantee of spiritual well being, you are deceived. Legalism not only hardens hearts, it is hypocrisy. Unless service and worship is motivated by love of a pure heart, it is vain and carnal. Carnality has been the motivating force in our Church far too long. Carnality measures success by positions, numbers, buildings; in outward appearance; God looks at the heart. If we find favor with God, we are going to have to stop our carnal, incentive programs that are designed to make us look good and find favor with God.

In the Early Church, for ten days, no sermons were preached, no lessons taught; one person was healed. The structure of the Church is we have to teach whether we have inspiration; must preach whether we are anointed. They were to wait on God and tarry until they had been empowered by the Holy Ghost and received direction from Him. Twenty-seven chapters of Acts are action chapters. Without that time of heart-searching and waiting for the Spirit and without divine intervention, there would be no time of Pentecost, no ministry, no book of Acts and no Early Church. I feel the time has come when we need to stop our activities; our work programs, that cannot accomplish the task, and do some heart-searching and waiting on God for endowment of power. Is our hearts in evangelism; in reaching out to the lost; are we seeking God's will?

Activity without power is useless. The acts of the Church followed a baptism of fire; thousands were added to the Church, cities were turned upside down, sick were healed, demons cast out, dead raised; revival took place everywhere they went. The Holy Ghost has not changed; Jesus nor God have changed. The final acts of the Church will come when we have revival of hearts. Our lives are an echo of the heart. I don't want to be motivated by carnal incentive, but I want to be motivated by the Spirit of God. (prayer)

GENERAL OVERSEER'S ANNUAL ADDRESS

Before the Eightieth Annual Assembly of the Church of God

THE CHURCH OF GOD FLAG PLEDGE

I pledge allegiance to our Church flag, and to the doctrine for which it stands—one God, one Faith, one Mind, and one Church for all. Amen!

THE BIBLE PLEDGE

I pledge allegiance to the Bible, God's Holy Word. I will make it a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path. I will hide its words in my heart that I may not sin against God.

INTRODUCTION

"Some trust in chariots, and some in horses; but we will remember the name of the Lord our God." (Psalm 20:7)

Israel was different from other nations. In this psalm David emphasizes that fact. They were not allowed by God to have chariots and horses like the other nations. The tendency would be too great for them to trust in their own military might. Their trust must be in God alone.

This was a hard lesson for this Chosen Nation to learn. Even David himself, who made this statement, had difficulty along this line, and one thing he did which displeased God greatly was the numbering of Israel's men who could bear arms. We read the following account: "And Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel. And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it." (1 Chronicles 21:1, 2)

Joab protested, reminding David that such an act would be a trespass against God, but the king's word prevailed against Joab's, and he set out to determine Israel's strength by the number of its fighting men. God allowed this numbering to proceed, but when it was completed, David's conscience troubled him. "... And David said unto the Lord, I have sinned greatly in that I have done" (2 Samuel 24:10)

"So the Lord sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men . . . And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the Lord stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces. And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, O Lord my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued." (1 Chronicles 21:14-17)

The destruction of seventy thousand men may seem to us to be a high price for what David did. Some might even feel that a census to determine how many men he had available as soldiers was justified, but God made this a point to be remembered: His people must place their trust in Him and Him alone, never in the arm of flesh.

God can use soldiers in a battle if He chooses to do so, and we read where on occasions He did; however, we should remember that this must be always at His discretion. He can use soldiers or He may choose other means for securing victories. Even when He does use them, small numbers do not make Him less able to achieve His purposes, nor do large numbers add any strength to Him. As Jonathan said to his armorbearer on one occasion, "... there is no restraint to the Lord to save by many or by few." (1 Samuel 14:6)

How prone we are to rely upon temporal things! They tend to bolster the human desire to be self-sufficient. Herein is there danger—they promote a reliance upon our own capabilities, pulling us away from total and absolute trust in God. Such is the spirit of the world, and this is what David was addressing when he wrote, "Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the Lord our God."

God gave the following warning to His people through Isaiah: "Woe to them that go down to Egypt for help; and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the Lord!" "Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the Lord shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together." (Isaiah 31:1, 3)

Over the past eighty-two years we have seen many changes within the Church. For the first few years there were no church buildings—the churches met in homes; now the Church holds title to property worth millions of dollars. Means of transportation, initially, were very crude; now not only do many possess nice automobiles, but much travel is done by planes with airlines taking our ministers all over the world.

Very little finance was available to our fathers who pioneered the work in the early nineteen hundreds. The former General Overseer told of times when he would set out on a trip in behalf of the work without sufficient train fare to reach his destination. He would use what money he had to purchase a ticket for a part of his journey; when he got that far God would somehow provide the means for another ticket. He put his trust in God.

In many parts of the world such conditions still exist, but as a whole, our financial situation is greatly improved. We need to thank God for all His blessings upon the Church. At the same time, however, we know that blessings can be allowed to become a curse. We must not allow any material or secular thing to become for us a source of reliance. Our trust must be wholly in God.

God can use what we possess, but He is not limited by what we possess. Jesus took five loaves and two fishes and fed five thousand men. If we had been there we might have calculated the need to be five thousand fish and barrels of meal before undertaking such a project. We must remember that God is not limited by what we possess, and our faith must be placed in His omnipotence rather than in temporal substance.

Until our faith in Him enables us to release unto Him that which we possess, trusting Him and not it, we will not please Him; neither will we enjoy the blessings of divine favor. If the five loaves and two fishes had not been released for Jesus' use, for Him to take and bless, there would have been no multiplication of this food.

Can we trust God today, or will we lean upon our own resources? I feel like we can say with David, "Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the Lord our God."

A CALL TO REPENTANCE

The 79th Assembly, held a year ago, approved a recommendation by the Questions and Subjects Committee which called for Church-wide repentance. Subsequently, on January 1, 1985, your General Overseer issued a proclamation that the year 1985 be a year of repentance for the entire Church of God.

We must not allow ourselves to feel that these actions were instigated by man, rather that we have received this call to repent from God Himself. Otherwise, we may make the mistake of regarding too lightly this divine mandate and thus suffer the consequences of our lightheartedness.

In Luke, chapter thirteen, we have the following account:

"There were present at that season some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

"And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things?

"I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

"Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower of Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

"I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

"He spake also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

"Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

"And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

"And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down." (vv. 1-9)

As Jesus spoke of these Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their own sacrifices, and of those eighteen people who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them, He emphasized the fact that these people who had died such tragic deaths had not done so because they were worse sinners than others. He said, "I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish."

The judgment of God is upon all unrighteousness. He is totally just and is no respecter of persons. His justice demands fairness in his judgments. As Jesus made this declaration of the necessity for repentance, He continued with a parable of the barren fig tree, which we understand to represent the Jewish nation. The judgment of the vineyard's owner against this unproductive tree was, "Cut it down." The fruit which its owner had expected was not being borne, and according to him it was occupying a place which a productive tree could fill. The dresser of the vineyard begged for more time: "Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down."

The dresser's plea for another chance was commendable, but God's judgment against this nation had already been made. The spiritual implication of this parable may be interpreted that a petition was being made to give the Jewish nation space to repent. History tells us that they did not repent, however, and that they were cut off. This was foretold by Jesus when He said to these Jews: "Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof." (Matthew 21:43)

While on earth Jesus established this nation of which He spoke, to replace the Jewish nation, a nation within whom the kingdom of God would operate. The fruits of the kingdom of God became evident very soon in the life of this new nation. Righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost flourished among its citizens. The operation of this kingdom was not in word but in power. This power affected not only the membership of Christ's Church; it had its effect in their reaching out to others, causing new people to join themselves to this new nation.

This power worked in the lives of its members because of the vital relationship they had with the Holy Ghost. They were alive in the Spirit, and the life they enjoyed they wanted to share with others. Mark stated it well when he wrote, "And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following." (Mark 16:20)

When we read the accounts of the Church's powerful ministry in the Acts of the Apostles, as they went forth to obey Christ's commission, and then read Christ's message given later to the seven churches in Asia through John the Revelator, we may wonder what could have caused this diminishing of spiritual power that had occurred in less than seventy years. In John's letters they are being called upon to repent: "Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent" was his message to the church at Ephesus.

The description we read in Acts, chapter nine, is "Walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, [they] were multiplied." "Thou hast left thy first love," was Christ's description of the Ephesians sixty years later. Of course, we know that their decline into apostasy continued until, finally, they were rejected by God as being unworthy to bear His name.

Paul gave warning to the Church as to what could happen when he wrote, "Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in. Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear: For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee." (Romans 11:19-21) This "fig tree" was replaced because it was barren, and the kingdom of God was given to "a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof." When this new nation ceased bringing forth the fruits of the kingdom of God, then God did not spare it either. He withdrew His Spirit from His Church and allowed it to be plunged into darkness.

In His providential wisdom God has now brought forth the Church in these last days, redeeming it from the apostasy into which it sank in the Fourth Century. It has been amazing to review the events which led to its arise in the Twentieth Century. Our hearts have thrilled to recall the dedication, zeal and commitment of the pioneers who were instrumental in the restoration of this spiritual nation. That the fruits of the kingdom of God were evident in their lives and ministry we cannot doubt, being manifested not in word but in power. Their testimony bore witness to righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost. These pioneers in the early nineteen hundreds had an effect upon the communities they entered. The message they carried was like a fire shut up in their bones.

It is always proper for us to examine ourselves to see whether we are being faithful to the principles they embraced, with the zeal and commitment they demonstrated, or whether like the churches in Asia we have drifted from the relationship with God which our forefathers knew. It is in order for us to do this as a Church, and it is also in order for us to examine ourselves individually.

When we review the "fruits of the kingdom" that we are bringing forth, in comparison to what should be taking place right now, we must conclude that the call to repentance in the Assembly last year was in order. Indeed, the drift from a vital relationship with the Holy Ghost that has taken place is far too widespread in the Church today.

Confessing this to be true was a necessary step, but confession is not repentance. Repentance involves turning from that which is wrong in order to turn toward that which is right. A year later now we must ask ourselves whether our spiritual drift has been arrested and whether we have been restored to the spiritual height adequate to pursue our work to its conclusion. If we are not convinced that this is the case, we must not rest until it is so. A part of the call for repentance adopted in last year's Assembly was, "We cannot afford to continue the pursuit of our mission without convincing evidence of His presence and approval." We must persist in whatever corrective measures are necessary for the restoration of spiritual power upon the last days Church.

If God spared not Israel, and if He spared not the early Church, can we expect Him to make a difference now? His eternal purposes call for a Church which will carry out His will, and His purposes cannot fail. The Scriptures declare that eventually He will present unto himself a glorious Church, having no imperfection. It shall have completed its mission.

It is up to us now as to whether we will heed God's call for repentance. He is awaiting our response. He will have a People! He will! He will!

"EXCEPT IT BE FOR FORNICATION"

"And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the begining made them male and female,

"And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?

"Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

"They say unto him, "Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

"He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

"And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marieth her which is put away doth commit adultery." (Matthew 19:4-9)

The Scripture is plain in its teaching of a man and woman becoming one flesh when they are joined together in holy matrimony. This is a union which only death can sever. Although Jesus said, "Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh" and "What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder," this has not kept man from using the instrument of divorce to attempt to dissolve the divine union of marriage.

Thus, the divorce and remarriage problem has been a subject that church groups have wrestled with for centuries. It is a subject which was discussed by the Assembly for many years before a satisfactory decision was reached and our present teaching on this subject was added to the teachings made prominent in the 22nd Assembly in 1927.

It was five years earlier in the 17th Assembly in 1922 that the General Overseer had given a lengthy treatment of this subject in his Annual Address, which seemed to satisfy the Church in its search for the Bible answer to this perplexing problem. The phrase, "except it be for fornication," was the part of Christ's statement that was most difficult to understand.

A. J. Tomlinson showed that for a person who had never been married to marry a divorced person, he was simply joining himself to another person's companion. This he called fornication. Since this was a sinful arrangement it was proper for him to put away that other person's companion and, inasmuch as he had never really had a true marriage partner of his own, he then would have the privilege of taking one in a marriage which God would sanction.

He and the other person's companion, though joined together by civil law had never become one flesh, because such a union was in violation of God's laws for marriage. They were, in fact, guilty of fornication. People might recognize them as being husband and wife, but God would not.

The General Overseer, after explaining such a condition, said, "Why can we not all agree that the fornication that permits a man to put away his wife and marry another is that where a man has another man's wife or a woman has another woman's husband?" This explanation has stood the test of time for more than sixty years now, and we believe this to be the correct interpretation of the phrase, "except it be for fornication" in Matthew 19:9.

This definition satisfied the Church so well that his explanation of fornication has been repeated time after time in our pulpits and in our Church literature throughout the years. In fact, we seem to have lost sight of the former General Overseer's restrictive definition of the word when he explained this to be the fornication which allows for remarriage. The implication was clear in his statement that there are other uses of the word fornication in the Bible which do not relate to one having another person's companion, uses which do not justify the putting away of a companion to marry another.

For example, Paul wrote in 1 Corinthians 10:8, "Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand." This obviously is a reference to the account described in Numbers, chapter twenty-five, which says "... and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab." (v. 1) The scripture goes on to tell about the destructive plague which God sent that killed this great number of Israelites to which Paul referred.

All fornication is wrong, being listed as a work of the flesh (cf. Galatians 5:19), but not all fornication is permissible as grounds for divorce and remarriage. The position of the Church was set forth in 1922 and adopted officially in 1927. It states, "The fornication that permits a man to put away his wife and marry another is that where a man has another man's wife or a woman has another woman's husband."

The explanation being given in this section of this address in no way alters the Church's stand against the divorce and remarriage evil. God's word for marriage is one woman for one man for life. Only death can dissolve a true marriage. I am simply calling to our attention the official position taken on the explanation of fornication in the 22nd Assembly. We should be aware that this word fornication has more than one application, but the fornication which allows for remarriage exists where a person is married to another person's companion.

This is the Biblical stand on marriage which can be taught without scriptural contradiction. Marriage as set forth in the Book of Genesis is as follows: "Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh." (2:24) Jesus reiterated this when He said, "Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder." (Matthew 19:6)

Divorces are useful in publicly and officially putting away someone else's companion to whom, without divine sanction, a person may have married. This would be a part of "fleeing" fornication. A divorce is not something, however, to be used in putting away one's own companion in an attempt to end a valid marriage. A true marriage can be ended only by death.

"... I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery." (Matthew 19:9)

THE ALL-NATIONS CHURCH

"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations..." (Matthew 28:19) These words of Jesus to His apostles fell on ears which at the time were dull of hearing. After all, to them salvation was of the Jews; so, how could they have comprehended the full meaning of the Great Commission? The life of their Master had been filled with incidents to point toward His being a Saviour for all mankind, but their eyes seem to have been blinded to this truth.

The announcement of His birth by the angel to the shepherds was "I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people..." (Luke 2:10) At His presentation in the Temple in Jerusalem Simeon proclaimed the Christ Child to be a "light to lighten the Gentiles." (v. 32)

To Nicodemus Jesus had said, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." (John 3:16) Again He said, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." (12:32)

During His ministry He had healed the daughter of a Syrophenician woman (cf. Mark 7:29). To the woman of Samaria at Jacob's well, with whom other Jews would not have conversed, He confessed that He was the Messiah, and she believed, as did several others of that city.

In spite of all that had been spoken of Him and all that He himself had done, taking the Gospel to those of other nationalities was slow to get underway. Following Peter's preaching to the household of Cornelius, however, with the result that many of these Gentiles were baptized with the Holy Ghost, it was not to be denied that the commission Jesus gave His Church, surely, was to extend beyond the Jewish nation. Though they were somewhat reluctant to do so, the Acts of the Apostles shows the Church reaching out to the nations.

The Church arose from its apostasy in these last days in the United States. Its initial membership was comprised of the people of this nation, but it was not long until the burden was felt for extending the last-days message beyond the borders of the United States. In 1909, A. J. Tomlinson and some others made their first missionary venture outside this country to the Bahama Islands.

From that time till now the Church has felt the weight of the Great Commission and has responded by reaching into many nations. At the last Assembly it was reported that we now have churches established in eighty-three nations. There has been a strong emphasis among us for a long time that this is an all-nations Church.

When the Church flag was introduced in the Assembly of 1933 it was stated that no lettering could be used inasmuch as it would be displayed in all nations. The term All Nations Flag was soon to be given common usage when speaking about our ensign.

At the present time the largest concentration of the Church's membership is in the United States; that is, it contains more members than any other single nation. However, the burden for reaching all nations bears heavily upon the members of the Church, wherever they reside. This is the way it should be, and we need to explore the possibilities that exist for taking the Gospel to every creature in the best and quickest way at our disposal.

Nationalities are seldom confined within the borders of their native lands any more. This scattering of different nationalities throughout the world can be a means for expediting the Church's work. Right here in the United States we have large concentrations of people from almost every nation.

Some recent statistics show that the United States is the fifth largest Spanish-speaking nation in the world. Los Angeles, California, we are told, is the second largest Mexican city, containing a Mexican population of three million, second only to Mexico City. Miami, Florida, is the second largest Cuban city, after Havana, with a population of seven hundred thousand Cubans.

The United States has the largest Jewish population of any nation, which is reported now at six and one-half million, while Israel has less than four million. Chicago, Illinois, is second only to Warsaw, Poland, with a Polish population of three million persons. We are told that there are more Samoans in this nation than the entire population of American Samoa.

The list could go on, with 1,354,000 Italians, 1,261,000 Germans, 850,000 Chinese, 800,000 Japanese, 600,000 Russians, 500,000 Greeks, 400,000 Koreans and 275,000 Vietnamese—all these plus millions of other nationalities right here within the United States.

There are other nations in which the situation is very similar. Within their borders are large numbers of immigrants. The fact is, we are being given an opportunity for spreading the Gospel that is unparalleled in our history. A real mission field exists within our borders.

Such terms as "iron curtain" and "bamboo curtain" have been coined, and we speak of the hope we have of some day penetrating these "curtains" or of their being torn down. The fact is we have easy access to these nationalities by the millions who are not behind these so-called "curtains." They have moved within our borders. Many of them, when evangelized, will be able to return to their home countries with this last-days message.

To some who feel called to do missionary work the idea of going to a strange country may seem romantic, but what about the citizens of these countries who live in your own city, state or nation? Why not minister to them there? Why wait until you can go to their native lands from whence they came? Surely, there is a way to reach people in these communities who will then become seized by a burden to evangelize their own people. Before this can happen to them, however, that burden to reach them must first seize us.

God so loved the world—and He still loves the world. It still is not His will that any should perish. His Church was designed to be an all-nations Church, and it must become an all-nations Church.

There is no room in the all-nations Church for prejudices of one nationality toward another or of one race toward another. There is no occasion for one to feel either superior or inferior to another. We often hear reference made to nations which have been slow to industrialize or to develop their resources as Third World nations. The Church's responsibility toward them is just as great as it is toward the affluent nations.

The poor of this world were given prominence in the ministry of Jesus, and His Church must exemplify His love to all men. Those citizens of Third World nations certainly are not third-class members nor second-class members of the Church of God. We have no such members. All of us are members one of another, and each member is important.

John the Revelator got a glimpse of things to come and wrote, "After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands." (Revelation 7:9)

This prophetic scripture should convince us that the Great Commission will be fulfilled. They were people who had been washed in the blood of the Lamb, and John said they were of all nations, kindreds, people and tongues. The Gospel had reached them and they had accepted it. Someone had taken it to them. To what extent will each of us be involved in the fulfillment of this prophetic vision?

May God stir us to lift up our eyes and look on the great harvest field that exists all around us! We do not have to wait "four months." The fields are white unto harvest now! God has given to us an All Nations Flag and this will be an all-nations Church. Amen.

A SOUL-WINNER FOR JESUS

"The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise." (Proverbs 11:30)

As Solomon beheld the righteous persons of his time and the influence their lives had on others he was moved to write, "The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life." The life of a righteous man will have its effect on those around him. What such a person says and does is likened to a tree of life; he will be nurturing souls with a nourishment which flows through him from a Higher Source.

Righteous people recognize that they are not living just for time, but for eternity. They have found the reason for living—to magnify the name of the Lord and draw others to Him. They are thus moved to see all people as creatures of God, many of whom are lost, knowing not why they were created, but living aimlessly from day to day. Compassion stirs the righteous to reach out to these lost souls, directing them to the One who has a plan for every life. God is the One who declared, "Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sinneth, it shall die." (Ezekiel 18:4)

Yes, the wages of sin is death; this is the judgment which God has made against all unrighteousness. But God, at the same time, so loved this world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. Knowing this to be true, those of us who have been rescued from the certain judgment of death now feel a compassion to rescue others from the awful fate of the lost.

O but this compassion to reach the lost must become greater! Surely, each of us wants to be a soul-winner for Jesus. It is a time of rejoicing in heaven when a sinner repents, and we rejoice also, but I feel we must confess that many of us are not taking seriously enough this matter of winning souls for the Master.

Every soul is precious to the Lord, and it is not His will that any of them should perish. Yet, we know they are perishing every day. Many of them are our own loved ones who are going into a Christless eternity.

Even when they are not our loved ones they deserve the chance to be delivered from their terrible lost condition just as much as any of us did.

What will it take for us to become powerful in soul-winning? First of all, we must make certain that our own relationship with God is real. It seems easy to get caught up in certain mechanics, carrying on our routines of serving God, without a deep compassion for lost souls.

When Jesus organized His Church on Mount Hattin, He saw the danger of His followers falling into the trap of routineness. He knew that they could become victimized by a spirit of developing certain forms of religion and merely following some given procedures. Losing the vitality of a deeply spiritual relationship with God they would not be serving Him through the power of an inner force, but would begin doing routinely only what was expected of them.

For this to happen would mean that His Church could do little more than the ceremonious Jewish religion which it was replacing. Therefore, after setting His Church in order, He proceeded to deliver to them His now famous Sermon on the Mount. It is noteworthy that this sermon dealt more with being than with doing.

He spoke of their being poor in spirit, meek, merciful, pure in heart, peacemakers, hungering and thirsting after righteousness. All of these are signs of a right relationship with God. Without this relationship the Church would find itself engaging in spiritual warfare while using carnal weapons. We will never defeat Satan by using his weapons. "For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds.)" (2 Corinthians 10:3, 4)

Satan can be dethroned from human hearts only by a power greater than himself. He does not willingly surrender his position of rule. We must, therefore, concern ourselves with being properly equipped for the battle of soul-winning. In this Sermon on the Mount Jesus referred to His Church as the light of the world. This is possible, however, only as the light from the Source of all light is allowed to radiate through us. We must allow nothing to exist in our lives which would dim the light of His presence. Therefore, He continued His sermon by warning against the selfish spirit of materialism. He said, "Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?" (Matthew 6:25)

Satan uses the cares of this life to distract us from what life really is all about. Life that is truly meaningful is one that is lived in harmony with the Giver of life. He said, "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." (John 10:10)

If we are going to be effective soul-winners for Jesus, we must possess a relationship with Him wherein those things He teaches take form in our lives. I'm afraid most of us devote more time to providing for the desires of the flesh than in helping lost souls see the beauty of Jesus, the beauty of Christ living in us. When He is in full control He directs us toward the beautiful life of self-denial, literally dying so that others might live.

Paul evidently had found this kind of life when he wrote, "for to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." (Philippians 1:21) For His Master he had "suffered the loss of all things, and [did] count them but dung." (3:8)

Paul lived for others. To the backsliding Galatians he wrote, "My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you." (Galatians 4:19) When he said, "I travail in birth again, he was indicating an earlier travail in order to bring them into the family of God. Being an ardent soul-winner, and having been instrumental in winning them, he could properly address them as "my little children."

We can only imagine what his travail in birth for them consisted of; we know his concern for souls made him willing to endure the same thing again, whatever it was. It must have been the same spirit which caused him to say, "I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart. For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh." (Romans 9:2, 3)

This is a strong expression, but this spiritual father of thousands wanted so much to see his people saved that he seemed willing to be lost if it could mean their salvation. What greater love could one know than this? To contrast this feeling of Paul's with the complacency demonstrated by many of us today could certainly bring our compassion for souls into question.

O for a greater burden for the lost! O to be a soul-winner for Jesus!

FAITHFUL MEN . . . TO TEACH OTHERS ALSO

"And he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him.

"And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach." (Mark 3:13, 14)

From the beginning of Jesus' public ministry He used a method that continued throughout the early Church's history. That method of ministry was the personal recruitment and training of workers for evangelism.

He began by recruiting two brothers, Simon and Andrew; then, a short time later, He called James and John, the sons of Zebedee. He literally poured His life into these men, as well as eight others, by personal instruction and evaluation on how to spread the gospel. When Mark wrote that Jesus called unto Him whom He would, we notice it was "that they should be with him." There can be no substitute for personal time invested in another person's life. If we are to make our converts effective soul winners, they must be with us and we with them in the specific business of soul winning.

After some time of their being with Him Jesus sent them out with power and authority over devils to preach the kingdom of God and heal the sick

(cf. Luke 9:1). This sending them out came only after Jesus had invested personal time in them. It was a quality time investment which went beyond that of a mass appeal with little personal involvement.

This method apparently brought results, because in the next chapter of Luke's gospel we read of Jesus sending out "other seventy also . . . into every city and place, whither he himself would come." (10:1) Can it be denied that the original twelve who were sent forth in chapter nine were instrumental in helping to recruit and train the other seventy who were sent forth in chapter ten?

It is without doubt that the early Church leaders continued this manner of soul winning, as we read of Paul's instruction to Timothy to commit the things he had learned "to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also." (2 Timothy 2:2)

It is upon these Biblical principles of Sharing Eternal Life that the Church's evangelism program is based. It is a method that has been used effectively both in the early Church and in the last days Church. A survey of some twenty-seven churches and districts during the past Assembly year reveals that there were two hundred and thirty souls saved directly through the Sharing Eternal Life ministry in these churches.

The Pape Avenue church in Toronto, Canada reported thirty converts through this ministry of personal evangelism. Of these thirty converts, ten have become members of the Church of God. Other churches might not have had this high a percentage to unite with the Church, but this may be, to a large extent, the result of inadequate follow-up. These statistics are proof enough that our SEL program is working and can work throughout the Church if operated properly with much prayer and personal visitation.

In order to make this ministry more effective for all our churches, the Evangelism Department has prepared two new manuals that explain in detail how this ministry can help you. They contain outlines for teacher's lectures and student's learning assignments which clearly explain the principles of Sharing Eternal Life.

Pastors, perhaps Sharing Eternal Life is the link that is missing that would create a strong chain of effective ministries in your local churches. Every leader in your congregation should be trained in Sharing Eternal Life. Why not commit this year to the purpose of training for soul winning?

YOUTH LIFE TEAMS

Since 1969, Youth Life Teams have been an integral part of our Victory Leaders work. Over the years, thousands of lives have been touched through the efforts of these teams. The records for this past year show that 740 teams were in operation throughout the Church, and over two thousand experiences were realized through their activities. We are thankful for what God has done through this program thus far, but we realize that the full potential of these teams has yet to be reached. Many of our youth have a desire to be usefully involved in Christ's work. They have found Him as their Saviour and their Lord and have a desire to be of service in His Church. Their energy and desire to serve must be channeled in the right direction or it will be wasted. In Proverbs 20:29, God's Word states, "The glory of young men is their strength . . ." and 1 John 2:14 says, " . . . I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one." These two passages of scripture teach us that one of the greatest attributes of youth is their strength. More and more, we are finding in the Church that this strength can be employed in useful means of service toward our goal of reaching every creature with the gospel. Our youth are becoming involved in several areas of the work.

This year through the efforts of the Youth Mission Teams to South America and the Caribbean, over one thousand experiences were realized in just two weeks of labor. This demonstrates what can be done when our youth apply their energy and zeal to the sharing of the gospel. Also for the past few years, several states and nations have involved their youth in state or national teams which have ministered in small churches and new fields during the summer. They have held crusades, Vacation Bible Schools, street meetings, improved buildings, and witnessed in their respective areas. Several experiences and church membership additions have been realized through these teams. These dedicated young people are to be commended for their efforts in this work.

With more and more of our young people becoming participants in sharing the good news of Christ, we believe that every local church can benefit by involving their youth in outreach activity. As the outreach arm of the Victory Leaders Band, Youth Life Teams can be used to channel the strength and devotion God is generating in the lives of our youth.

This year, the Victory Leaders Band department has revised the Youth Life Team manual to now include a new Director's Guide and also a Member's Guide. The Director's Guide can be obtained from the Victory Leaders Band department, and the Member's Guide is included in a packet which can be purchased from the White Wing Publishing House. This packet includes the Member's Guide, a New Testament with scripture passages marked for witnessing, and a Youth Life Team emblem.

Since the potential for our young people reaching out to touch their communities is so great and that potential has yet to be fully realized, we would like this year to be a special time when each local church seeks to implement this tremendous outreach tool of Youth Life Teams.

THE VOICE OF SALVATION

Jesus said, "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come." (Matthew 24:14)

For many years the Church has preached that this scripture will be fulfilled before the coming of the Lord. Some have wondered, "How can this take place? How can we get the last-days message into all areas of the world? What method can we use?" And we have prayed, "Oh Lord, show us the way. Open doors for Your Church."

Since this past Assembly, the Lord has opened doors in a miraculous way. He has shown that He can move when none can hinder.

This year the Voice of Salvation has expanded its coverage to reach 99 per cent of the United States through high-powered radio stations. And people are listening to radio. In fact, we are told that the average number of radios per family in the United States is six. According to a recent survey, 95 per cent of all people over twelve years of age listen to the radio each week, and eight out of ten of the people listen five days a week. The mail response to our broadcast each week is evidence that people are listening to the Voice of Salvation.

By the help of the Lord, a network of shortwave stations has also been scheduled. Through this network some two-thirds of the world can now hear the Gospel preached by a Church of God preacher. People in the Soviet Union, or Iran, or China, or Africa, and all through Latin America are able to hear the message of Jesus Christ and the last-days Church of God.

Many people in these nations listen to English radio broadcasts and particularly American programs to help them to learn English. But while they are concentrating on learning English, the Spirit of the Lord can penetrate their hearts with the Word of God. Not only is the message of the Church broadcast over this shortwave network in English, but also in Spanish, French and Greek. Millions can hear the message in their own language. The Lord said He would do a quick work and cut it short in righteousness. Who knows? Maybe He has started it.

With the increase of cable television stations there have been many requests for television programs produced by the Church. The Voice of Salvation minister has informed me that television programs are now in production. These programs will deal with issues that face our society and give a Bible answer to the problems. Let us pray that the Lord will help us to fill the world with His doctrine.

Something that is under consideration that I would like for you to help me pray about concerns the General Assembly. As you know, only a small number of our people are able to attend, but it now may be possible for many to enjoy the Assembly at home or at a local church.

This could be accomplished by a satellite. A major part of the Assembly could be videotaped and broadcast by satellite to all of North America, the Caribbean and Latin America. Those with a satellite dish could watch the Assembly in their homes. Or, perhaps two or three churches or districts could pool their finances and rent a receiving dish for a small fee.

Those who could not attend the Assembly could then gather in a central location and watch portions of it by satellite on a large television screen. I'm sure that you will hear more about this in the Voice of Salvation program on Sunday night. I just wanted to briefly mention it, so that you could join me in prayer about the possibility of such a venture for next year.

In order to help our people who cannot attend, video cassettes will be available of this General Assembly. During the past year many of our churches have shown various programs of the Assembly and have been greatly blessed. We thank the Lord for the invention of the equipment that we can use to get this last-days message to the world, and to teach and train our people. Overseers, pastors and auxiliary leaders, let's utilize the available materials to make our efforts more effective for the Lord.

SOCIETY OF SERVANTS

In recent years a need has been recognized for a greater fellowship among certain professional and business people who are members of the Church. Following consultation with the General Overseer, some initial work has been done to create an organized group of such people, and this group has adopted for themselves the title Society of Servants. This society is offering the business and professional expertise of its various members to the Church in any way that the Church may experience the need for and request their services.

For more than a year this group has been organized and has been instrumental in giving assistance to some specific projects within the Church. We recognize that even with the best and noblest intentions, societies such as this which are entirely self-governed face inherent danger which, being brought under the governmental structure of the Church might be avoided.

This is not to criticize what has been done already in the formation of this Society of Servants. It seems necessary for some preliminary work such as has been done to precede consideration by the Assembly as to whether such a program could or should be incorporated into the Church's structure of operations.

I believe this society could serve the purpose of providing a special fellowship for its members and also provide some business expertise and professional counsel when called upon by the Church as special needs arise. If this Assembly should approve, it could function under the supervision of the Public Relations Department.

I am asking the Questions and Subjects Committee to give this their attention and if in their judgment this is an item that should be presented for the consideration of this Assembly, they can bring the necessary recommendation in their report.

CONCLUSION

Great times are ahead! My father said many times when he was here that the Church is preparing for the greatest event the world has ever known—the second coming of the Lord. We know this to be true. Just think of Jesus' sudden appearance, the graves bursting open and the dead in Christ rising to meet Him. The all-glorious Church of God will welcome her Beloved Bridegroom and its members will rise from all parts of the world to accompany Him to that great marriage feast of which we have spoken so often.

This sounds almost too good to be true, but it is an arrangement which God has made from the foundation of the world. We do not know the exact time when this blessed event will take place, but by God's grace we will be ready for it.

The year we have just concluded has been a year when many victories were won. The Lord has been very gracious, and we have enjoyed His presence in the battles we have fought. There is no way to value the precious souls that have been delivered from sin. Many, also, have been sanctified, baptized with the Holy Ghost, baptized in water, and added to the Body of Christ.

Many saints have been set free from the restrictions of mortal bodies, and they are now at rest with the Lord. They are awaiting His return at the time of the Rapture, when they will be coming back with Him to take upon themselves their glorified bodies.

If you have not accomplished all you desired to do this year, don't be discouraged. God knows the efforts you have put forth and He will reward you. We cannot relive the past, but a new year awaits us with new opportunities. Let us take on courage and go forth in a power that is greater than all our problems. Who knows what a year will hold? I believe this will be a year of victories for the Church of God.

Let us stand now and join together as a mighty army, full of the Holy Ghost, and sing our Battle Hymn in the spirit of power and victory.

12:03 "At the Battle's Front" — led by Liston Pritchard with Jenna Allen, pianist; Mary Lois Hamm, organist. Dismissal prayer by E. J. Bias. Scott Belt directed music and singing during intermission.

AFTERNOON

12:46 Sunday School Program directed by Caroline S. Ledbetter, General Secretary. Theme: Now Is The Time. Prayers: In French—Levi Clarke; in Spanish—Phil Pruitt; in English—Floyd Collins.

1:04 Ecclesiastes 3:1-8, 17—responsive reading by the Assembly. Choruses led by Debbe Craig. Sister Ledbetter read Psalm 34:1-10.

1:36 To Remember Love Goes on Forever—sermonette by Edna Rye. Comments: John 3:16; Ephesians 3:18, 19. The breadth of God's love is stated in John 3:16: "For God so loved the world . . ." regardless of how unlovely we are. The length of God's love: "... that he gave his only begotten Son . . ." He paid the price for you and me. It is wonderful to think of the redemption of mankind, but I like to think how Jesus gave His life for Edna. We have no conception of the price of His love—His anguish on the cross; nails pierced His hands that He might put gifts in our hands; He became poor that we might become rich; He left His home in heaven and made His bed in a rock stall; He wore a crown of thorns so we might have the Crown of Life. He gave everything that we might have salvation. Isaiah 53:4, 5.

Aren't you glad that we are all included in "whosoever believeth in Him"? We just have to believe in Him. The fool and the wayfaring man don't have to err—just believe in Him. Acts 16:31 expresses the height of

His love. Love is everlasting life and goes on forever because God goes on forever. Paul said, "To know the love of Christ which passeth not . . ." The world is to know the love of God by our love one for another. Love is the badge of discipleship. John 13:34, 35. Our love is directed toward God and then toward people. Mark 12:30. They learned to love each other and their enemies.

Love is the first and great commandment; a crown of all graces; love builds. The Church needs a fresh baptism of love—return to our first love. 1 John 4:19. This is the sweetest love story to me; He loved us when we were so unlovely. The love of Christ is inseparable. Romans 8:35-39. Some say that you don't know what I have to go through; Paul challenged heights, depths, the present and the future by asking "Who will separate us from the love of God?" The Lord told the children of Israel that "... I have loved you with an everlasting love." If any have left our first love, may we return to our first love and seek God for a fresh baptism of His love.

1:48 Ron and Debbe Craig sang "Love Lifted Me"—the Assembly joined in.

1:52 Now Is the Time to Remember Our Commitment to Our God—sermonette by Ed Dowdell: Commitment is the Biblical concept of covenant—two join together to form a firm relationship. God is the superior initiator of the covenant that we enter into; we are the recipients. We cannot negotiate with God what we will accept or reject.

There are two in a covenant or commitment—the first is God. God moved toward man as told in Isaiah 53:6, 7, 10, 11. God took the initiative. God set the conditions that His Son would die for sinful man. We cannot negotiate what we do in our part of the commitment. Acts 2:37, 38. God has reached out His Son to us in love. What do we do with the commitment that God is making to us? Acts 2:38. Peter is saying that you must turn from your ways and turn back to God. People want religion, but they don't want commitment. John 15:9-16.

Repent, be baptized, continue in My love. My love continues in you if you keep My commandments. God revealed Himself to us in Jesus Christ—the living Word. Commitment or covenant is a vital relationship with Jesus Christ. The way we commit ourselves is that we live like Jesus lived, love God, love one another, obey Him; and we go and bring forth fruit.

The Great Commission in Matthew 28:19, 20 says for us to make disciples and get them to become like Jesus. You can't bring forth fruit if you bypass loving God and your neighbor. It all goes back to God's commitment to us and our commitment to God. Romans 12:1, 2. We must always bring to remembrance the covenant that God made with us in Jesus Christ and we with Him. We must love one another, love God and obey Him. Romans 13:11. Our complete salvation is drawing nearer; it is also drawing near for those who don't know Him. We are commanded to love God and to go and bring forth fruit. Sometimes our lives are weak—not because we don't love God enough but we don't allow God to love us enough. If we become what God wants us to be, we need to constantly remember God's covenant with us. He loves us and He wants us to love Him and bring forth fruit for the Kingdom of God.

2:07 Musical selections by Miami Junior Choir.

2:24 To Be His Servants directed by Debbe Craig. "Make Me a Servant" in sign language by Kim Cardin. Debbe Craig sang "Make Me a Servant"; congregation joined in. Prayer.

2:33 Now Is The Time To Be Listening Servants—message by General Secretary. Scriptures: Summarized Acts 21 and 22; read 21:37, 39, 40; 22:22, 40; summarized 1 Samuel 3; summarized Jeremiah 1; Jeremiah 37:17; summarized Acts 10:13-34; summarized John 6:9-26. (This message will be printed in the February 22, 1986 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be obtained on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

Assembly Expense Committee Report

We, your Assembly Expense Committee, submit the following report to the 80th General Assembly.

We recommend that churches having less than 50 in Sunday School average contribute $2.00 annually to Assembly Expense; churches with Sunday School attendance between 50 and 100 contribute $3.00 annually; and churches averaging over 100 contribute $5.00 annually.

We recommend that each Victory Leaders Band contribute $2.00 annually; the Womens Missionary Band contribute annually a total of $2.00; and each minister, including deacons and lay ministers give $1.00 annually.

We recommend that pastors be responsible for collecting the Assembly Expense dollars for the auxiliaries and forward same to the respective state or national office, with the overseer to be responsible for collecting the dollars from ministers under his supervision. These funds are to be mailed to the General Treasurer as soon as collected. Funds received toward the end of the year may be included with convention auxiliary reports to the General Treasurer.

The above recommendations are made without changes to previous reports.

Your Committee offers this description of the manner in which Assembly Expense monies are spent: cover costs involved with publication of the Assembly programs, audio expense, lot attendants' salaries, tabernacle maintenance, police salaries, housing, telephone, twice-annual meetings of Assembly-appointed committees, public relations, certain musical expense, plus various incidental expenses involved with the preparation for and the operation of the Annual General Assemblies.

4:32 Assembly Band Movement Program directed by William H. Brooks, General Secretary. Theme: Feeding the Flock. Prayer.

4:35 Devotional directed by Evelyn Collier. Matthew 18:10-14 was enacted—The Good Shepherd. Roberta Matthews sang “The Lost Sheep.”

4:46 Bread Alone and the Bread of Life—sermonette by Floyd Collins. Comments: Matthew 4:2-4. Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness and was tempted of the devil. After fasting 40 days and nights, the devil came to Him. It is evident when you don’t have the devil with you, He will come to you. This was a meeting between the prince of this world and the Prince of Peace. Matthew 4:1-5; Deuteronomy 8:3. Bread represents the temporal, physical, and non-spiritual things of life. Satan was trying to solicit Christ to cooperate with a compromise in order that they might get a program together. Jesus said, “Man shall not live by bread alone.” The underlying principles of Jesus’ mission was to do the things that pleased the Father. God’s Church cannot be built on bread alone. Matthew 6:30-33.

It is imperative that man have materialistic resources as long as he has life, but it is of utmost importance that he keep things in proper perspective. If the devil could have gotten the Son of God to begin God’s divine program on bread alone, he would have undermined the whole program of God. It is a sad day in the Church of God when you can get more people to attend a bread alone gathering than a Bread of life gathering. Satan could not trick the Son of God because he was talking not to bread alone but to the Bread of life. 1 Timothy 3:15. John 6:26, 32, 33, 35, 36, 48-58, 66-68. The Word of God that is the lifeline for the Church of God.

The theme suggests feed the flock. Figuratively this term applies to Israel in their relationship to Jehovah when they entered into that covenant with God; it applies to the New Testament Church. Sheep have to be fed sheep food. It is very important to know what you are eating. One group in the Church are being fed sheep food; they are happy. Another group don’t want sheep food; another group wants sheep food and the shepherd won’t feed them. Feeding the flock is a part of eating; eating is a part of feeding. Availability of food does not necessarily mean consumption of that food. Matthew 3:2-8. There wasn’t anything wrong with the seed but the ground on which they had fallen. You who are eating and growing, keep on eating. You who want to eat and the shepherd won’t feed you, don’t run him off.

Jeremiah 20 beginning at the 9th verse tells of a preacher having an encounter with the system because he proclaimed the Bread of life. He was going to quit but he realized the Word of God was shut up in his bones. There was a time when Israel was estranged from God. God spoke to Ezekiel and led him into the valley of dry bones. God asked Ezekiel if those bones could be restored back to Him? Ezekiel said that you are the One who called me and made the whole earth; all I know God is, Thou knowest. That is the attitude that the Church must take. God, we don’t know where to go; but Thou knowest. Ezekiel began to preach and he heard a shaking in the valley. When the Bread of life flows through a body, you have a shaking in the Church of God. 1 Peter 5:2. The Chief Shepherd is coming and He will give you a crown.

5:10 Keep Divine Intervention Active in the Local Churches—testimony by Clive Jared. Divine intervention in Bible days dealt with God acting to cause people to hear Him. The prayers for divine intervention over the last two years have brought results; we need to keep this active in our hearts and minds. Divine intervention will not come in a routine manner; the people of God must pay the price. Sometimes we expect great answers for very cheap praying. We must seek God and humble ourselves until He rains righteousness upon the Church. It will take righteousness to exalt this holy nation before the eyes of the world.

When we lose the leadership of the Holy Ghost, we get ourselves in a mess. Israel did when they left off following God. Divine intervention usually comes when there is a crisis; we are in crisis times. The Church of God should not be in crisis. We must be willing to do something about the conditions. Psalm 107:27. Our leadership comes from God and His Word. God is our deliverer. We are facing various crisis. There is a sin crisis; Noah's generation had a sin crisis. Noah preached righteousness and built the Ark. This was God's intervention. The Church of God must preach righteousness and keep building His Plan that will be divine intervention for this world. There is a spirit of rebellion in the world; it spills over into the Church. Israel rebelled; some repented and were saved. The earth swallowed up those who didn't repent.

Israel was in a crisis at the Red Sea; some wanted to go back to Egypt; leadership said to stand still and see the salvation of the Lord. The Jews were in crisis when Queen Esther went before the king. The Jews would have perished from the earth if the will of man had been accomplished. Haman hanged on the gallows instead of Mordecai; the Jews were divinely delivered. The army of Israel and Saul were in crisis when they faced the Philistines. There came a boy who believed in God and divine intervention; he challenged them with, "Is there not a cause?" Church of God, there is a cause to seek God for divine intervention. Israel was in crisis when it didn't rain for three years; a man prayed; God intervened. God will always intervene when we seek Him with all of our hearts. Sometimes we feel that the Church is in a doctrinal crisis; the doctrine is correct but some want to change it and feel that demand will get it changed. Some want to pattern after others as Israel did, but they lost the fear of God.

Much of the crisis of Israel was because of what they believed and practiced. Divine intervention will cause us to believe and practice the Word rightly divided. We need more who will accept the responsibility of leadership—not just a glamorous position; those who will feed the flock of God. We need revivals, growth; a greater concern for others. The Early Church had crisis: Ananias and Sapphira lied; God intervened and He brought fear on the Church. We must walk honestly before God. Many are playing while others are praying. Let us repent, Church, and be examples. I feel that divine intervention is on its way and greater blessings will be poured upon the Church. The Church is destined to make it. People may fail but this is the apple of His eye, His dove, His undefiled. Let us rise up and seek God and go forward and see God bring revival to the Church of God.

5:27 Song by Tony Coile.

5:34 Feeding the Flock—message by William H. Brooks. Scriptures: Psalm 79:13; Mark 1:35; Isaiah 40:11; 1 Samuel 17:34, 35; John 10:11; Matthew 2:6; Exodus 3:1, 12; 3:8, 10; Psalm 23:5; John 15:15; Romans 5:8; Genesis 31:40; 33:13; John 10:4; Psalm 95:7; 119:176; Isaiah 53:6; Jeremiah 23:1; Ezekiel 34:2-4, 6; Zechariah 10:2; Matthew 9:36; John 10:3, 27; 1 Peter 2:25; Acts 20:35; Job 29:15, 16; Romans 15:1; Hebrews 12:12, 13; 1 Samuel 25:11, 24; Galatians 3:13; 1 Corinthians 9:22, 23; John 17:12; John 15:16; Hebrews 13:17; 1 Peter 3:15; Ephesians 6:15-18; Colossians 3:12-14; 2 Peter 2:15; 1:3, 4; 3:8, 9. (This message was printed in the November 16, 1985 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be ordered on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

EVENING

6:08 Praise service conducted by Edna Rye with Texie Jestes and Warren Roney singing. Perry E. Gillum introduced these Church of God officials: Raymond Crowley who spoke briefly; Lewis Willis who commented. Brother Gillum read telegrams from: Marilyn Loyd, U. S. Congresswoman; Tennessee Governor Alexander.

6:53 Evangelism and Home Mission Program, moderated by Verlin Thornton, Director. Theme: Eyes On the Harvest. He introduced our national evangelists. Cloths that had been previously anointed by the Cleveland senior ministers were brought to the platform and all joined in praying over the cloths. These were distributed by the ushers.

7:06 Harvesting Through SEL—Sharing Eternal Life Presentation by Randy Howard. (He used SEL materials as visual aids and told many results of those who shared SEL.) Comments: Matthew 28:19, 20; Luke 10:20; Acts 1:8. This year I have felt a fulfillment in my ministry that I had never sensed before—I shared the gospel of Jesus Christ. Acts 8:4. Church of God, we have a challenge in SEL: the laity and ministry joining hand in hand to be witnesses unto the Lord. We are going to witness in our communities, states, new fields and neighbors. This is a command of Christ, and to help us, we have developed some material to give guidance in the Sharing Eternal Life ministry. We have updated the manual which gives step by step how to take trainees through this; we have a Trainee Guide; a revised SEL Workers' Handbook. SEL may not have worked for you, but don't give up on a commission from the Word of God. Jesus said, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." We cannot give up on this commission.

Where you live, God has souls; all He needs is an ambassador—a witness. God is looking for you to rise up and share eternal life. Sharing Eternal Life is real; it is happening; it works. God says, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." Oh for a mighty army to rise up in the Church of God to go aggressively and share the news of the gospel. It can work in your small church; it can work in your large church. It can work because it is New Testament evangelism; it is the call of the Lord; God will be with us. God has souls out there; he can lead you to souls. (He asked every pastor to stand and called some to platform who had been working in the SEL plan to join him in prayer support.)

Pastors, God has made us shepherds. The challenge is to us to equip our laity that they will share eternal life; leave the walls of our church building and reach souls who will never come to where we are; we must go to them. It is the way that Christ taught us and we must follow Him. Pastors, we must be doing this; the Spirit is stirring us. We are going to have prayer for the pastors. As we begin seeking God and yielding to this witness, God will work. (Called Evangelism Director to join pastors standing and all joined in a concert prayer.)

7:34 Song by Adoration. Short testimonies on Home Missions as a Harvest Tool: Scott Gillum told of preaching in another church; it became part of the Church. Steve Ferreira told of winning people to Christ in a nursing home and a new field. Clive Jared told of organizing six churches this year in ethnic neighborhoods.

8:01 Support for the Harvest—offering as The Leroy Curry Family sang. Boyd Thornton prayed for the Lord to bless the offering. Solo by Jeff Burkhardt: "People Need the Lord."

8:17 Eyes On the Harvest—message by Verlin Thornton. (In a sentence summary, he told the main thought in each chapter of the Gospel of Matthew.) Scriptures: Matthew 9:36-38; Genesis 3:15; Revelations 22:17; Matthew 9:37; Luke 10:2, 49; John 4:35; Matthew 5:28; Summarized Luke 16; Galatians 5:22, 23; Ephesians 6:12-14; Matthew 9:38; John 14:1. (Ended with prayer and congregation joining in singing "A Soul Winner for Jesus.") This message will be printed in the November 16, 1985 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be ordered on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.

8:59 Praises to the Lord of Harvest directed by William Marion. Acts 2:1. He asked a brother to go to each aisle and lay hands upon each door and rebuke the devil. Mighty concert prayer. Led congregation in singing "I'm a Child of the King."

9:08 Divine Healing message by Bruce Scotton. Brother Scotton had us to sing more of the song. Comments: Your world is not in this world; your inheritance is not of money, gold nor property; your inheritance is in King Christ. (He read a newspaper article about the healing service which appeared in the Chattanooga Times September 15, 1940.) Acts 1:8-11; Mark 16:15-18; Malachi 3:1-3. I have wondered why Jesus had to come, why couldn't the prophets and men of old do something? I have found that from the beginning, everybody that God tried to use messed up on the Lord. The Bible says Noah was a man of God; he became a husbandman and drank wine and drank away his salvation. Abraham couldn't bring healing to the world; he lied to those in authority that his wife was his sister. Moses couldn't do it; he had the blood of that Egyptian soldier on his hands. Samson was the strongest man, but he messed up with Delilah. Samuel couldn't do it; at times he was too stern and mean. Saul couldn't do it because he was jealous and insecure. Jealousy is hurting us today. Mark 9:42. David was the apple of God's eye, he messed up with Bethsheba.

Jeremiah was a great man, we read about him crying. We need men of God to stand up to the devil and let him know we still preach divine healing in the Church of God. Ezekiel was a good man; at times he was too mystical and apocalyptic. Isaiah was a great man; he couldn't bring healing to the world because at times he was critical. He told the Lord that he dwelt in the midst of an unclean people and nobody was saved. Somebody is going to make it in.

Jesus had to come to redeem man from his fallen state and bring salvation and healing to this world. The Bible says that He was adored in heaven and worshipped by the angelic choir. At the age of twelve, He was sitting among doctors and lawyers and baffled their minds at His wisdom. At the age of 33 years, they took the Lamb of God to the torture hall. They thought they were hurting Jesus, but they did not know that when they hit Him, that was for cancer, for high blood pressure, leukemia, for blind eyes, etc. Isaiah 53:5. They took him to Golgotha; they thought they were killing him. They laid the cross on the ground and nailed Him to it. John 12:32.

9:45 Kim Garnier sang "Rise and Be Healed." Music by Bahama Band as 3,036 were prayed for and anointed; approximately 20,000 anointed cloths were distributed. Altar call by Bruce Scotton. The Blankenship Family directed music and singing during altar service.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 7

MORNING

7:30 Sunrise service conducted by Jimmie Twitty and Wayne Kinder. Organ music by Rhonda Sloan. Music by Bahama Brass Band.

8:45 Two songs led by Pauline Norris with Jeanette McKenzie, pianist; Winston Williams, organist. Ephesians 1:15-23 read by Felton Pratt; prayer by Allen Stockdale, followed by concert prayer for requests.

9:05 Message by Celestino Zeron S. Isaiah 55:6 (concert prayer). Excerpts: We observe the urgent call of God to His people; call upon Him; observe that the time is short; we have time to seek Him. Our attitudes must be righteous before God. The Word of God is for our instruction. Romans 15:1. Millions are seeking God, but will they find Him? Genesis 25:30-34 gives an account of a man who had opportunity to seek the Lord; he was careless. Esau took for granted and very lightly the Holy things of God;

he exchanged his holy privilege for something earthly; he despised his birthright. Hebrews 12:16, 17. If God speaks to us, our responsibility is to listen today; what we plant today, we will harvest tomorrow. God knew Esau would lose because of his unfaithfulness; the moment of reality appeared; Esau wanted to receive his gift. His father brokenheartedly told Esau that he had lost; there is no blessing for him. Genesis 27:33-36.

Esau did not recognize his mistake; blamed his brother for taking his blessing. The sinner is not sincere to accept his errors; blames his brother. That we recognize our mistakes is symbolic of Christians. Can we recognize when we fail the Lord that the wrong is ours? Romans 11:16. Our duty is to recognize the supremacy of God; He has called us; taken us from a bottomless pit and has cleansed us with His Blood. We cannot change the purpose of God; we have been saved by His mercy. You do not merit to be what you are; you did not buy it. We must acknowledge that we are nothing without the mercy of God. When we acknowledge this, nothing can hinder us. God deserves all glory and honor for His Church. Isaiah 58:2. He tells in the chapter for them to loose themselves from chains of unrighteousness and seek Him and find Him. Are we willing to loose ourselves from burdens and chains and approach the Lord? Ephesians 3:21. We cannot err in loving the Church more and Christ less. As the Church, it is our duty to give honor and glory and exaltation to God. Jesus died for us; He deserves honor. The Lord is allowing us opportunity to seek Him while He may be found. The servant does not command; he obeys. God loves us, but He will not tolerate our rebellions. Malachi 1:2-6. God is calling the Church to honor Him; God wants His people to give Him the honor that He deserves. If we find Him, we must accept His Lordship; we must hear the Lord and do as He says. Whatever we build will be destroyed if it is not according to the Word of God. The Word tells us how to grow. Our lives should be edified according to the example of Christ and not according to our mode. Where is my honor; where is my fear? The sin of Esau was to profane the Holy things of God. Some times we have little estimation for men of God. The things that are of God are Holy. Let us value what belongs to God, which many times we take for granted. Esau desired the blessing, but he was not willing to pay the price of obedience. When he wanted to seek God, it was too late. When the rich man arrived in hell, he called upon God. It was too late. We can give all we have, can fast and do many other things; if we do not humble ourselves, we will not see His glory. I do not want to hide behind the cloak of appearance nor live on emotions.

It is time for the Church to look to heaven. Daniel 4:34. God wants each to say that we need Him; we need a revival, a transformation. When God calls us to seek Him, we always think of the other person. Nebuchadnezzar sought the Lord, blessed the most High, worshipped Him and recognized Him as Lord. He didn't need years to acknowledge God. He humbled himself, gave way to God in His heart, his eyes were opened; he began to bless and worship the Lord. God has to do a work in us. There is no other greater than Him. Whom God desires to humble, He will humble. Nebuchadnezzar acknowledged that he was nothing. To seek God is important, but most important is to find Him. The most important is not the beginning of our race, but our final point. Let us seek the Lord while He may be found.

9:46 Spanish delegation sang two songs.

9:52 Victory Leaders Band Program, directed by William M. Wilson, General Secretary. Theme: ALIVE . . . In '85. Music by Bahama Brass Band as the Victory Leaders from around the world entered the tabernacle praising God, waving banners and displaying much zeal; Steve Gilmer, coordinator.

10:08 The congregation sang "O Magnify the Lord"; mighty prayer by Willard Boyles. Kathy Payne read Romans 6:11-13. Singing led by Londa Richardson, assisted by Greg Stephens, Mike Flippo and Peggy Burton.

10:30 Two songs by David Baroni. (Interpretation of messages by Holy Ghost—after people laid hands on one near them and prayed that God would meet their needs.)

"My people, my people, I say unto thee, I am the Lord thy God. I say unto thee, I am the God Who healeth all thine diseases. I say unto thee this day that I am that God that is about to bring restoration to your land. I say unto you this day, do not doubt and be weary, for yea I say unto you I am about to move in great and mighty ways. I am about to send healing throughout the land. I am about to save souls like you have never seen before. I am about to sanctify and fill with the Holy Ghost like you have never seen before. I say unto my people, look unto me and do not doubt. Do not be weary for I say I am going to move. I say unto you look unto me, I am your God, and I will touch you so you will walk in the ways of my Word and follow me. I will move upon you thus saith the Lord God Jehovah."

(Rejoicing and praying and another interpretation.)

"Honor the Lord thy God. Some fail because they do not believe. Come unto Jesus. I was crucified, but I am alive again. I am in this present day; I am in this place today. Believe me when I call. Believe me I am here; I am with you; I will not leave you; I will not forsake you. Those who do not believe, it may be too late; it may be too late. Believe me that I am here."

10:56 "Young Man, I say unto thee, ARISE"—message by General Secretary. Scriptures: Luke 7:11-16; Mark 5:41; John 11:40; 2:19; summarized: 1 Corinthians 15:45-58; John 5:2-8; Isaiah 35:8; Hebrews 12:14; summarized parable in Luke 15; Isaiah 60:1; Ephesians 5:14; Isaiah 52:1, 2; Colossians 3:11; Revelation 1:9, 10, 12-19; Galatians 2:20; read John 4. This message was printed in the November 16, 1985 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be ordered on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.

1:16 TC Making a Difference by Alumni:
Johnny McDaniel commented: TC is making a difference in the lives of more than two thousand young men, women, ministers and others in the U.S. The Bible knowledge integrated with God's Word, which we call the TC curriculum, provides a closer walk with God and a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ. Many of our Church leaders are TC alumni and good reports are received of their work. Numerous professional people started their training at TC. In their communities, they are letting the world see that Jesus made a difference in their lives. It has been said that TC is too expensive. Value is in getting what you really want. TC Boosters and Church, my challenge to you is to make a difference. Our young people need to know; we need your cooperation for the cause of Christ and His Church. As opposed to humanistic secular education, our young people can get a Church of God Christian education. We invite you to visit the college.

Steve Huff, president for the Alumni Association, The Tomlinson College Flame presented awards: The Craig Chapel Memorial Scholarship awarded to Tom Weill; the Distinguished Alumni Award was awarded to Gary and Bonnie Holcombe. Luther Cooke told of attending TC and the Biblical studies at TC. Scott Gillum told of receiving the Bible Award and also in spirit. Testimony in song—address by President. TC is fully equipped spiritually and vision and insight upon the world are expressed.

2:13 Reaching Upward to Glory—message by James Stone. Excerpts: Colossians 1:23, 25-27. Paul is talking about his ministry in the Church of God. I refer to Paul as one of the greatest Church of God preachers we have ever known. (Brother Stone prayed.) Acts 2:43. Acts records thirty-six divine interventions in the Early Church. The shadow of Peter healed; Phillip transposed; Tabitha raised from the dead; Elymas was causing problems and was blinded by Paul, and on and on. Acts reveals that in thirty years of Church history, God intervened in the Early Church: Cornelius and Paul's vision; Ananias and Paul's vision; Phillip's experience with an angel. Eleven visions were witnessed by members of the Early Church; the leadership of the Early Church heard voices of angels or the Lord fourteen times. Is there any wonder that the historians recorded that many wonders and signs were done by the Apostles—thirty-six definite interventions. The Early Church had a move of God with wonders and signs; experienced the glory of God. My desire and prayer is that the latter day Church of God can experience the same. I want to experience a genuine move of God in the Church of God.

I wish to analyze a miracle in the Early Church. When we read a statement like in Acts 2:43, some times we forget about the individual. What a shame to rejoice over the glory of God and fail to receive our miracle! Not only do you and I need a miracle, but the Church needs signs and wonders. I am not discouraged; the Church may be in a tight place; I have a message from God: Church, this is the year for the Church's miracle; the year for the manifestation of the glory of God. Acts 3:1-9; 4:22.

Can you imagine how this man felt when he got his miracle? Probably most of his years, he was daily carried and laid at the gate at the temple and begged for alms. In the year of his miracle, it probably started as another day: to feel the pain of someone carrying him; to see healthy people walk by; to hear his lonely cry for alms; to taste the agony of helplessness. This would not be just another day; to those passing by, it probably was just another day for feeling sorry for the man, whom they probably thought, I wish he would die. This would not be just another day; this would be his day—the day of his miracle, the miracle of his forty some years. It would be the year to feel the power of God; to see the signs of God's healing hand; the year to hear the wonder, "Rise up and walk."

To some, this may be just another day; this is the year thus saith the Lord God, for your miracle. This is the year for the Church's miracle; for the manifestation of the glory of God. I want to taste the glory of God. There is a mystery involved in this; a mystery that our fathers knew. I am not talking about dying to worldly flirtations; dying to carnal desires; about being dead. Greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world. I am not talking about crucifying the world, carnal desires; specific sins; about crucifixion of self; I am talking about being dead. Galatians 2:20.

We need to stop trying to live for Christ and let Christ live for us. Acts 3:12, 13. The God of our fathers glorified His Son Jesus. Pilate denied the Holy One and granted a murderer to the people; killed the Prince of Life, whom God had raised from the dead.

In the Twentieth Century Church, we pray for God to confirm our ministry with miracles. In the First Century Church, they prayed for God to glorify His Son Jesus. God hath glorified His Son; He lives; He lives in me; Jesus is the hope of my glory; the Lord of the universe; He is the great I Am. I will glorify the King of Kings; the Lamb; the Lord of Lords for He is the hope of my glory and for the Church.

3:00 White Wing Publishing House Program, directed by Henry O'Neal, Business Manager. Prayer by Frank Howard; music by Pape Avenue Brass, Toronto, Canada.

3:07 Sunday School Literature—Perry E. Gillum, Editor. The Church recognized long ago the value of literature. All through the records of the Assemblies, you can see over and over the emphasis placed on Church of God literature written, edited, published and distributed by the Church of God. It is important that we have placed priority upon development of our own literature. God has helped us through the years to provide literature for this world.

This year, it was my privilege to meet Brother O'Neal and National Overseer Sherman Allen in West Africa, where we met with a group of French-speaking Christians who were not part of our Church. The words spoken to me by the pastor of that group: "Sir, we have been studying the Church's literature for two years and we are now ready to unite with the Church of God. We have received a revelation of the Church of God of the Bible." We want to print what God says; the Word of God to touch men, women, boys and girls and bring them into the One Fold, which is God's divine eternal Church of God. I understand that three independent churches have already united this year with our Church in West Africa as a result of studying Church of God literature. To God be the glory, great things He is doing.

3:22 Brother Gillum introduced Sunday school literature writers; Rob Allen explained the new Sunday school literature available.

3:35 Happy Harvester celebrating its 40th Anniversary—Edna Rye and Texie Jestes, associate editors at its beginning, in absence of Editor Ora Mae Willing.

Sister Rye spoke: Texie, Ora Mae and I were riding through the mountains of North Carolina; the Lord revealed to me that the Sunday school had to get behind prison bars and get to the shut-ins. I knew that God would provide a way. I kept praying and travailing; later I told Texie that she was going to sing behind prison bars and Ora Mae was going to write. God opened the doors in November, 1944 for us to have the first prison service in Tennessee: 600 in attendance; 90 gave their hearts to the Lord. In 1944, the VLB's in Cleveland helped us wrap 1,000 New Testaments that the Free Literature Department gave us to take to the prisoners in Nashville. We had a service and distributed them. The next week, a letter was received from one of the prisoners saying that was the first Christmas present he had ever had; had started reading the New Testament. God has blessed the Happy Harvester; thousands have been blessed by it that we don't know about. (Texie sang "I Must Tell Jesus.")

3:46 Louis Sullivan recognized authors this year: Perry E. Gillum, James Stone, R. L. Black, Buford Johnson, Garry Brackett, William Wilson, C. T. Davidson, Prince Hartley, Joe White, Don Yancey, Teresa Sallee, Paul Cook. (Each was presented a copy of their book.)

3:56 Music by Pape Avenue Brass, Toronto, Canada.

4:03 White Wing Messenger—Billy Murray, Assistant Editor. I think about those who have published books, but we put one out every two weeks. We try to make the White Wing so you would not be reluctant to share with any of your friends to represent the Church of God. I hope you are doing that and that it is getting the exposure that the Lord desires.

I would like to emphasize the cost to you. Not many magazines can be purchased and delivered to your home for 30 cents an issue. This could not be done unless it is so generously underwritten by the Church; it carries no commercial advertisement. You actually pay to defray getting the paper to you; it costs $12 or $13 a year to get the paper printed and mailed to you. The Publishing Committee felt that this is a valuable enough minister that we could devote some of our tithe funds to its support. The Assembly asks the Publishing Committee to decide upon the rate. We hardly know what to do. The General Church is underwriting on this paper over $100,000 a year. This is one of the biggest bargains you will get. We want you to have it; reluctant to raise the subscription rate for fear it would reduce the number who could subscribe to it. Many have written complimentary things; they are always encouraging; we have some constructive criticism along; we appreciate that. We are trying to make this an excellent publication for the Church of God.

(Brother O'Neal held up a copy of the very first White Wing Messenger printed in Indonesian on our printing press there. Overseer S. B. Pardede said that nothing as exciting has happened in Indonesia.)

4:11 Testimony by Paul Cook: About two years ago, I had brain cancer—five operations in one year. God healed me. I learned that God can't use you unless you are broken open. The last time I saw the doctor, I asked him if he had ever seen a miracle, and he said, "No." He looked at me and said, "Surprising, but you look better every time I see you; the best thing about it, God has been with you."

4:19 World Literature Outreach: Herman Ard, Philippines—The Great Commission in Matthew 28:19, 20 is not just a suggestion by the Lord, it is a command. If we teach someone, we need something for one to read. God has given us the commission to go and teach all nations. When I arrived in the Philippines, I studied the situation with fifty million people, 11 languages—70 major languages. I said, "O, Lord, how shall we reach these people; we do not have literature for them to read." People would ask for literature to be used in teaching the people. Can you imagine going to Sunday school with no systematic study of the Word of God? Humanly we cannot do it; with God all things are possible. A commercial printer wanted $1,500 a quarter to print the Sunday school commentary in one dialect. We came to the conclusion that we could serve more people by printing our own literature. The Publishing House purchased us an offset table top printer, heating machine, computer and quality printer. We are going to print the commentary; the Still Small Voice in three of the dialects, which is to be in our churches by the first quarter of 1986. I believe a systematic study of the Word of God will stabilize our people in the Church of God.

The first term BTI lessons are being printed in the Sebuano language. Pray that God will supply the needs of the people. In many places the call is to come over and help us; in the Philippines it is send us something to read. When we get the White Wing Messenger and tracts in English to our people, they will go to someone who can read it to them in their dialects. Their faces light up when they see literature in their dialects. We have a responsibility to the world.

Sherman Allen, Ivory Coast (French)—Four years ago a young man came across some of our literature. He read the doctrine and teachings of the Church over and over and the Lord started working. He soon became a member of the Church of God. Something happened that he could not stay in the Church; he left and took with him all this literature; he continued to preach the Church of God doctrine outside the Church. About eighteen months ago, he heard about my arrival in the capitol of Ivory Coast; he came to me and told me that he would like for me to administer the Church covenant to him. He went from village to village contacting the French-speaking people. A group of Ivorians became restless in their church; the young man gave them literature explaining the Church doctrine. They decided they wanted to be a part of the Church. I organized two churches—52 and 34 members. Just before leaving for the Assembly, I took my first visit into the interior of the country; organized a church with 22 members. All of this was possible because of one man and some literature. We have 30 new fields going; 3 are ready to be organized. I am amazed at the possibilities that exist in the Ivory Coast because somebody sent some literature; somebody read the literature; the Holy Spirit worked in the heart of this man.

Ruben Carmona, Mexico (interpreted by Felix Garcia)—We are happy that the Lord has permitted us to dedicate our new building for our publishing house in Mexico. It is exciting to be able to send our literature to all Latin America. It is proven that people retain more of what they read than just listening to. I visited Cuba in March; they used Sunday school quarterlies printed in 1950. That is all they had as Bread of life. We are having problems in Nicaragua; Communism is extending all through Latin America. Thank God for the Spirit in the Church that will provide the Bread that our people need. When a door is closed, God has the power to open it. We treasure our facilities as special and care for it that way. When the packages are mailed to Latin America, we gather for prayer and feel the glory of God. Someone compared our warehouse to the warehouse of grain that Jehoshaphat had in Egypt. We don't want to retain it all for Mexico; if we give it to others, God will continue to bless us with the freedom that we need to distribute the Word of God from that place.

The bottom floor of the building houses printing facilities; second floor is the administration area, including a two-bedroom apartment. The rent on this apartment pays the utilities for the whole building; we don't have any liabilities. The third floor has a suite to accommodate visiting ministers. Offices of the national overseer are in the building.

Song by Pastor Noe Gutierrez, Mexico. (Brother Garcia announced that we have our first literature in the Dominican Republic. Will be printing all the tracts for that country and some neighboring countries.)

Juan Valera, Dominican Republic—The White Wing Publishing House will very soon have a house of her own. In about 1940, the tract on the Important Bible Truths of the Church found its way to the Dominican Republic. The tract ignited the spiritual life of a group of brethren who consequently gave origin to the Church of God in Santo Domingo. The Dominican Republic will print literature and it will supply and be self-supporting very soon. Pray for the Dominican Republic.

5:00 World Language Update—Felix Garcia: We are excited about the publishing house in Indonesia. Gary Glover stayed three months in Indonesia; he took people who never have been associated with printing and trained them. The material for the White Wing Messenger is supplied by the World Language Department. Isaiah 55:11. (Reading about the value of the printed page.) We hear many times about the effect of people receiving literature. We cast our bread upon water, and we know what God will do. God's program will be successful.

A man came to where Kenneth Nyamhuka was working and handed him a tract. He couldn't find the man; he took the tract home and read it to his mother. They decided to contact the Church. Brother Mixon organized the Church in Zimbabwe; today there are 20 churches and 6,300 members. See what one tract can do! Literature is a major role in the Church. I have been amazed how God's hand has been in this work and multiplying our funds. Zechariah 4:6. The Church is involved in translation of literature in 53 languages; 8 started this year. I was concerned about Rumanian literature, as there are several places where Rumanians attend our churches. Brother Harold Hunter met some Rumanians in the School of Theology who wanted to translate the Church literature in their language. We have 19 tracts ready to be printed. There are 85 people working in the translation of Church literature. There is great joy when you see a product in the hands of people and they read it and ask their way to Zion and come into the Fold. This is God's work; the Lord will provide the necessary funds that this work will continue. So many of you have given in the World Literature Outreach. The Mission Department is reaching out into the world; it is our duty to supply the literature. It is going to take men who will work; men who have no tools for the harvest will have a difficult time. Let us pray for the Lord of the harvest to supply the men and the tools. (Prayer and many came with offerings.)

5:35 Concert by Pape Avenue Brass, Toronto, Canada as people continued to bring offerings. Brothers O'Neal and Garcia held offering up and all joined in dedicating it to the Lord. The Brass Ensemble continued to render music during short intermission. Music and singing by: King's Messengers, VA; Chicago (69th Street) Choir.

EVENING

6:08 Assembly expense offering was received by ushers as the choir sang. Prayer led by the General Overseer for requests, included prayer for offering.

6:24 World Mission Program, directed by Adrian L. Varlack, Sr., General Secretary. Theme: "... Ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit." (Ephesians 2:22) Greetings and comments.

6:31 Mission Representative E. E. Van Deventer led in singing "How Great Thou Art"; Mike Flippo, pianist. Congregation praised God. Mission Representative Arthur C. Moss read Ephesians 2:11-22. Mission Representative Raul Torres led in praying for the 89 nations where we have members.

6:55 Introduction of missionaries and others by General Secretary; Mission Representative Bobby R. Snow introduced mission corpsmen; Jan Slaton led corpsmen in dedication and responsive reading; they prayed prayer of dedication. The Varlack Children sang "Jesus Christ Is the Way."

7:19 A People From Among the Nations (Parade of Nations): Revelation 7:9, 10. Bahama Brass Band rendered music as sixty young ladies came down aisles bearing flags of nations where the Church is established. They circled platform; woman carrying the Church Flag, followed by women carrying flags of our new nations reached—France, Cameroon, Benin and Guadelupe. These were welcomed into the Holy Nation by E. E. Van Deventer. Proverbs 14:34. New nations representatives laid down national flag and took the All Nations Flag; other national representatives did the same; thus, signifying our laying aside all differences and making us One in the Spirit. "When the Church of God Arises" by Bahama Band as national representatives marched around platform.

Congregation joined in singing and a handkerchief wave as we worshipped God.

7:50 The Shaping of A Nation—message by General Secretary. (This message was printed in the October 5, 1985 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be purchased on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

8:59 Altar call by Chris Stathis. Dave and Diane Hutch directed music and singing during altar service.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 8

MORNING

7:30 Sunrise service conducted by Robert Allen Briner and Doyle Passmore. Organ music by Willystene Calfee; music by Bahama Brass Band.

9:00 Local Church Outreach and Personal Evangelism—Roy Cantrell. Excerpts: Acts 2:41-47. The master plan that God has set out for the Church of God is very simple. The formula in these verses is: purity, prayer, power and the poor. It will take the power of God and certain ingredients if we evangelize the world for Jesus.

When I first went to the Gallatin Church, we had a wonderful service; dismissed and was shaking hands; I heard the voice of a lady in the back crying out, "Somebody help me." I had been praying that God would speak to my local church about outreach. I went to the woman; God had prepared her to show this church that He wanted it to reach out through personal evangelism. She said, "I have been coming to church, but I am still not saved; I need to know if I am going to heaven or hell." I shared the gospel with her; she was saved, sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost; joined the Church a year later. God can touch your church; it must be through His methods and formula; it cannot be our plan. Acts 2:42.

The first ingredient of that local church through outreach and personal evangelism is purity. There is no use for us going out with books under our arms, plans in our heads unless we are living up to the Bible and the doctrine that God has given us. Hebrews 4:12. If you witness, you can't teach that all you have to do is believe on the Lord and stay like you are. You have to tell them that God's Word says you change. We need the truth to take to people, saturated by the power of God. It is purity; holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord. The Church of God is not going to change this for you nor me; it is the same yesterday, today and forever. We need a revival of this Book before we try to have a revival in the world. I still believe that people get saved, sanctified, filled with the Holy Ghost, get a vision of the Church of God by the Book. The Early Church believed in purity; they taught purity; preached purity; lived holy. If we have evangelism outreach, our members need to get on their knees before God and go back to the old paths; to the Book and take a look at ourselves.

The next ingredient is prayer. They were steadfast in the apostles doctrine and prayer. I do not understand prayer; but I do know it works; it touches people's lives. We had better not go unprepared. We need the Book and prayers. We give up too easily. The Holy Ghost said to me the other morning, "Don't dig them up, dig around them." We are too quick to dig them up. Don't call something barren until God does. Some would have written Peter off; God didn't. John 21 tells of Jesus winning him back. We don't take love and hide sin; love will look beyond it—that ugly attitude and spirit.

I worked with Charles Hawkins, Sr. in Jackson, MS. I had prayed my heart out; his family had too. I was called one Sunday saying that Charlie was sick; I knew it was urgent; the Holy Ghost can tell you whether it is God. If your heart isn't tenderized, it won't tenderize the hearts of others. Jesus could tell that it was a touch of an interested person when the woman touched Him. Charlie repeated what I told him to and I went through the gospel plan; he prayed; he was saved. The Holy Ghost revealed to me that he was a brand plucked out of the fire. A. J. Tomlinson went up the mountain without a vision and came down with a vision because he prayed. One day I received a call to meet two ladies who had been praying for a lady at work and she was under conviction. She is now our VLB director in Gallatin.

The third ingredient of the Early Church's ministry is power. They got their feet on the Word of God; talked to their Father and went out believing that God was with them. There were signs and wonders done. Your neighbors are dying and going to hell because we have not gotten our feet on the Book and gotten down to business in prayer and believing in miracles and the power of God. Mr. Brown (80 years of age) attended the Gallatin Church. People had given up on him; I don't believe God can't save after one is a certain age. The power of God can break hearts. Acts 16:14 says that God opened Lydia's heart. When I visited Mr. Brown, he would say, "Get out of here." I kept loving him and working with him. One day he got sick and told his wife to call the preacher. I took him through the plan of the gospel and had him to repeat after me and ask forgiveness for the way he had treated Jesus and others. He later died and went to heaven because the church prayed and believed in the power of God. You can't expect God to stand by you if you are not on the Book; not talking to Him; can't expect miracles unless you believe in Him.

The last ingredient is the poor. God loves the rich and the poor. We think of souls as spirits; it is dealing with arthritis, migraine headaches, bad attitudes, warped personalities. We want people who are not problems; who don't talk hateful; the shepherd knows how to deal with it through the Word, prayer, through the power of God. One hundred children were burned in a fire in a school where thousands of dollars had just been spent on a sprinkling system; somebody forgot to hook it up. If our local churches don't get concerned and reach out through personal evangelism, people are going to perish around us because we are not hooked up. I have the best fire fighter, the Holy Ghost, to keep people out of hell. I listened to a news commentator telling of some horses winning a race; paper work had been done and the money paid; it was found that something not legal had been put in those horses. The commentator said, "They are paper champions." If all your minister's certificate is doing is hanging on the wall, you are a paper champion. The Church gives you authority; God gives the power. We don't need paper champions in the Church of God but champions for Christ.

9:45 Womens Missionary Band Program, directed by Elva Howard, General Secretary. Theme: People Serving People. Comments; congregation joined in praises.

9:50 People—a musical presentation, directed by Peggy Burton; the Howard Family served the Word in between songs and choruses. "Make Me a Servant"—pantomimed by Kim Garnier.

10:09 Improving Your Serve—message by Eva Morrison. Excerpts: Three commands—Matthew 10:1. The twelve disciples were being sent to minister to the lost sheep. Summarized Luke 10:1-20; labourers are few. Matthew 28:18-20—the Great Commission. Luke gives the command to preach repentance and remission of sins unto all nations through the redemptive works of Christ. Mark 16:15-20. The first command—to minister to the lost sheep was no ordinary task; healing the sick and cleansing the lepers, raise the dead, were not Jewish customs; sent as sheep among wolves. The second commission implied the breaking down of cultural and racial barriers; heralding the good news that the Kingdom of God had come. The third commission involved commitment—going beyond familiar geographical areas and cultures, languages and people. Jesus, Who takes away the sin of the world, showed His disciples the scope of His ministry. John 3:16, 17. God sent His Son that the world through Him might be saved, rescued, healed, delivered and redeemed.

For those disciples to become proficient workers, they had to see the world through the eyes of the Master. God saw man in his fallen state; took upon Himself the form of a servant; suffered death on the cross that He might destroy the works of the devil. Luke 4:18. I see the King having come from the wilderness of Judah, of temptation; having gained the victory. He came from the wilderness in the power of the Spirit; the Servant of Jehovah. He walked in the synagogue on the Sabbath day and quoted Isaiah 61:1. He saw mankind brokenhearted, crushed by grief and penalty of sins; as captives for the sinful nature; saw them blind, groping for light. He saw man put down by the devil, unable to lift himself up; confused and unable to receive deliverance. A divine perception of the world's plight will impel us to step out and advance on the enemy's territory. We must defy death, all manner of diseases, despair, hopelessness. We must loose the prisoners with love and compassion; deal with eternal life for all. Jesus said that I give you power to tread upon serpents; to walk into voodoo camps. It is time for the Church to stop being afraid of Satan.

A pharmacist could not hear; I wrote this message on paper: "This is your Christmas gift from God Who so love the world that He gave His only begotten Son . . ." He was saved by the power of the gospel. I crawled through a broken door and got into a woman's apartment and told her that Jesus loved her. She was dying, but she received salvation. We need to defy death; see beyond the physical beings of people. We cannot heal the sick, raise the dead and cleanse the lepers if we live unrighteously. Jesus is our example of true servanthood. He saw the Samaritan woman who was so poor in moral and social graces that she appeared not to know right from wrong; was brokenhearted, imprisoned by sin, blinded by the gods of this world; Jesus gave her eternal life. God sent His only Son to condemn sin in the flesh.

The disciples went into the city to buy meat; they did not like cross-cultural evangelism. John 4:34. We must finish the work; know our neighbors. Your neighbor is anyone who is without Christ. It is imperative that we cast off carelessness, lest we be found guilty of the sin of Sodom; where was luxury and immorality. 1 Corinthians 13:1. Let the Church return to its heritage of power through prayer and holy living, miracles through faith, breaking down of strongholds through fasting, the winning of souls through personal witnessing; Holy Ghost revivals through confession and gospel preaching. Let your homes breathe the presence of God, even the family altars; the church sanctuaries echo the praises of God and the Word of God—not jokes. Let our altars be filled with sinners weeping. We have a gospel of hope; let us go in the power of the Spirit and improve our serve.

10:38 Serving through the Helping Hand Ministry—Sherman O. Allen. Comments: Luke 6:38; Psalm 69:19; Ecclesiastes 3:1, 2. You have played a valuable role in supporting so many dedicated missionaries. We, the recipients of the Helping Hand Ministry wish to convey to you a very big THANK YOU. Psalm 68:19; 2 Timothy 3:1, 2. We do not want to be unthankful for what we receive; thank you for everything you have given; above all, thank you for your helping hand in prayer for us on the mission fields. We recognize that the way to open up heaven for great blessings is to be thankful for the little things; the way for the giver to receive more and have more is that you give more. "The more you give, the more you will receive." The giver gets the greatest blessing. Acts 20:35. You would not know what it means to ride on a donkey, bike or car to minister to lost souls; the gratitude of having a building after worshipping under trees; to receive monthly financial assistance, which enables you to have food on your table; to wear a pair of shoes after walking many miles on blistered feet. This is what you have done in the Helping Hand Ministry this year.

These are only some of the sufferings you have helped to relieve; we are thankful and appreciate every expression of love. You are saying by your giving that you are behind us with your prayers and support. Last night we experienced the excitement of knowing that four new nations were added to the family this year. This is what it means to be a part of this great nation of God. There goes a responsibility to help these.

10:50 Opportunity to serve by giving an offering. Singing by the Ladies' Retreat Choir. Prayer for one another and praising God.

11:22 Prayer by Frank Howard.

11:30 Love Wears a Towel—message by Elva Howard, General Secretary. Scriptures: John 13:4, 5, 12-17; 12:1-3; Luke 7:38; 1 Corinthians 11:26; Philippians 2:1-5; John 13:7; 2 Corinthians 5:14; 1 John 3:16, 17; Galatians 6:1, 2; Matthew 5:23, 24; Mark 11:25, 26; Luke 6:37; James 2:13; Romans 12:1, 2; Matthew 5:43-46; Hebrews 13:2, 3; 2 Corinthians 12:15; Mark 16:20. This message has been printed in the October 5 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be obtained on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.

12:06 Closing prayer by Ina Mae Tomlinson. Gospel concert during intermission directed by Christine Hawkins.

1:55 Bible Training Institute in: SPAIN—Vice President Jerry Madrid commented: Through your generous giving, we have had the first and second terms of BTI in Spain, which covered our members in Portugal and Belgium. Thank God that we can train them and establish them in the doctrine. Spain is predominately Catholic. The new democracy which is being formed gives us freedom of religion on paper; but there is not the freedom that is necessary to worship and work. This year we rented a technical school building, which is run by Catholics. It was well furnished and comfortable. Our work in Spain is four years old; there is great need for established leadership. BTI was established for us to learn to teach it to others; thank God He is helping us to do that. We have had some spiritual battles in this area. Pray for the Lord to touch families and a number of people who next year will be taking first term. An interpretation of a message by the Holy Ghost confirmed that this is the doctrine we are to become established in. Lot of new people are coming who have read the prominent teachings of the Church. One problem is that other people have taught a doctrine; but did not live it. It is very difficult for people to let go because of traditions, but I believe God is working; BTI is helping greatly.

THAILAND—Vice President Gary Holcombe commented: There are many words used in the Thai Language that special attention has to be given to tones, which is nothing like English. It is not a simple matter of translating a sentence into Thai. Before we could have the school, translations had to be done just right. Fortunately Boonyong Bureenok, a native and graduate of Tomlinson College, spent many hours on translation. These are babes in Christ; 95 per cent serve Buddha. I thank God for the privilege of placing in the hands of babes material that gives the structure of the Church so they can read and comprehend what we are trying to do. Their questions have to be answered. They say they want more and take it home and put it in practice. Seemingly the people have indeed tried to put some of what they have learned into operation. Some Buddhists came to classes; eleven gave their hearts to the Lord. We had the Lord's Supper and feet washing; in Thailand, touching the feet is taboo. The highest insult to anyone is for one to show the bottom of his feet. We were amazed to see the people wash the saints' feet, sing and pray. Two Buddhist young ladies were cooks in the school. They came to listen in on the services; they accepted Jesus Christ. They participated in the Lord's Supper and were baptized in water. The Spirit of God was with us. BTI opened up something new and wonderful to us; it gave them the printed page. I have heard that many other people are interested in taking the first term courses.

2:18 I was a Student in the all-new Advanced Studies Course—comments by Bill J. White: It was three great weeks of fellowship, study and worship. There was: the excitement of Foster Bell teaching Church growth; J. E. Brisson sharing his years of experience in the work of the ministry; professional experience of Steve Parker teaching the counseling ministry; the Holy Ghost ministered to us on several occasions. I am a strong advocate of BTI Advanced Studies Course. The weekend services were outstanding, where some of the greatest men of God preached powerful, Holy Ghost-inspired messages. Yes, I was a student in the new Advanced Studies Course in BTI, and I highly recommend it to every person who will make arrangements to attend.

2:25 "Holy, Holy, Holy" sung by Noe Gutierrez; Peggy Wynn led in concert prayer.

2:29 All Truth—message by Ray C. Wynn, General Superintendent. Scriptures: John 16:7-13; 1 John 1:9-11; Matthew 16:17; 1 Timothy 3:15; 2 Timothy 2:1-4; Matthew 23:1-7, 13-15. This message will be printed in the March 8, 1986 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be obtained on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.

3:00 Prayer for Bible Training Institute throughout the World, led by M. A. Tomlinson.

3:02 Military Service Program, directed by Bobby R. Snow, Representative. Comments and introductions; the M. S. Curry Family sang "The Great Speckled Bird" (four generations represented).

3:22 Ministering to the Military—Chaplain Douglas Stephenson, Germany, commented: The military chaplaincy is fulfilling the commission of the Church to minister to the world. Laymen are ministering, too; our works in Thailand, Korea and other parts of the world are direct results of the military men and their families being faithful to minister. Thirteen years ago, I stood in this Assembly as our first chaplain; thank God for the fruitful ministry to represent Christ and His Church. It is not my seminary training, education nor military training that helps me to minister; it is the grace of God and inspiration of His Holy Spirit. We know how to pastor, to chaplain, do prayer breakfasts, do retreats; I pray for the time when we get back to our dependency on God and trust Him for fresh sermons and inspiration. It is easy to go on canned sermons. God help us not to depend on our experience for today's needs to minister. Chaplains are full-time ministers giving full time to Christ and His Church—it is challenging and rewarding. Unfortunately, the chaplaincy has had a bad name by some who have lived like the men. When those men look for help, they want a man of God who can get through to heaven. Many of our chaplains and their families live far away from Church fellowship. Thank God they have maintained contact with the Church and worked and supported the Church wherever they have gone. The chaplaincy is rewarding materially. You don't have to wonder whether the money is going to be there to move; the army will move you and your furniture. It is rewarding spiritually for a young man to be delivered from drugs or alcohol and find purpose and meaning in his life. A young married man was about to send his family home. The commander and I began working and praying with them. They came to know Jesus and had a turnabout in their marriage and got involved in the fellowship of a church. I count it worthwhile the time and effort to go through military training. We do not live by the power of our own flesh, but by the power of the Spirit of the living God. It is an honor and privilege to represent Christ and His Church in the military chaplaincy, world-wide ministry that reaches out and touches the lives of untold numbers. I thank God that He gives the opportunity to help lead people into a deeper walk with Him.

Overseer Dennis Howard commented: When I went to Germany, I could see a great loneliness and chaos in the service personnel's thinking, lot of questions, tensions and uneasiness; longing for fellowship. In our gatherings, they would flow together and there was harmony, unity and warmth. It blesses my heart to know that these people who are giving their time in serving their country have opportunity to worship together. We minister to some Germans and British. They are giving their lives for their nations; yet they want to share what God has given them. Christian service among military families is neglected. Those who have a spiritual experience don't stay on the installations, they find a place where they can worship God. These people are evangelists in uniform. They are serving their country; serving in God's army and sharing the love of Jesus Christ. There are many stresses; they never know where they are going to be stationed. We have ministers and members around the world who are serving in the military forces. We are to lift these up in prayer. This is an area we have grossly overlooked in evangelization. If we touch the military with the love of Jesus, you touch that nation. I try to contact all whose names I receive from the Military Department, through parents, pastors and other referrals. This is sometimes difficult because of terrorism and other problems; many live under bomb threats. People are scared all over the world. Many of their families can't stand the pressure. We need to go to the military installations in the US; broaden out into other areas where we can minister to military people who are longing for somebody to minister to them. Make it a mission field. I have witnessed to two-star Generals; they raised their hands and praised the Lord and spoke in tongues. It doesn't make any difference what rank they are, they have a soul and need Jesus.

Pastor Douglas Rising commented: Through the providence of God, I went to Germany and worked with the military. I have seen hundreds come to Jesus. I have a heavy burden for our military. I am afraid the Church is not aware of their needs. These men have been hailed as heroes in two world wars; have been disgraced in others; yet they are ready to go around the globe to answer any threat to your freedom. They need to be honored for what they are endeavoring to do. Many have come out of the military who are now working in the Church of God. I am afraid they have been in the spotlight when there was war; at other times not. Proverbs 29:18. You are their hope; you can reach out to them and touch lives. I have met men from all walks of life; I have been changed by them. Those who have heeded the call into the ministry, nothing is too difficult; they will go any place. It should not take another police action or a war for us to wave the flags and hail them as heroes. Because of the military, we now have churches in Germany, Finland and Japan. These men are evangelists and missionaries. I have been there; they need your support and prayers.

As a state military representative—In the US, we are several million strong; I am afraid they are not receiving much attention. Some pastors, near military bases, have not endeavored to reach out to the military. People are perishing because you lack the vision. My wife is in charge of a Bible study on the base in Ft. Jackson, SC; souls and marriages have been saved. Catholic women have been saved, sanctified and baptized with the Holy Ghost. I encourage any activity in any area where there is military. It is a vast field; let me encourage you to be involved with the military, cooperate with the bases, the chaplains, anyone else in authority. Come under their authority and work hand in hand. I believe that together we can see more accomplished in this Department.

5:11 Song by Catherine and John Payne. (Sister Payne prayed.)

5:20 Message by Catherine Payne. Excerpts: Romans 8:28-31, 35, 38. The best example of this is Joseph; his brothers were jealous of him. The Lord was working in his life; he told his brothers that he didn't have anything against them; God had it in His plan. There are things that frustrate us; we have victory in the Lord. When the most powerful Being in the world is on our side, we don't need to be concerned. Romans 8:32. In all of these things, we are conquerors through Him that loved us. That means that our enemy is more than defeated. He is our Lord, our Saviour, our Healer, our Redeemer and our victory. We don't have to be up and down; we can live a victorious life. We can be established because in everything we are more than conquerors. 2 Corinthians 5:7.

We don't live and walk by feelings; we walk by faith. Recently my husband and I were in a service, and in the altar service God was doing wonderful things. We prayed for a young lady, and I felt the Lord touch her. She testified to the Lord healing her. No one believed her; I didn't know what it was all about. I told her later that I felt the Lord touch her and the Word tells me it takes two of us to believe; I am believing with you. Two months later I received a long distance call from her pastor. He told me that the young girl had been dying with leukemia. She had an attack and was taken to the hospital. The girl kept saying that it wasn't the cancer, that she was healed. The doctor said to call the pastor. After examinations, the doctor came to the girl's bedside and said that this is not cancer; it is a bronchial attack; your cancer is gone; your body has begun repairing itself. We don't know what happened, but we know we didn't do it. We give God the glory for it. Before she knew, there was victory and faith in her heart. I believe the attack was brought on so they might see the glory of God. "All things work together for good to them that love the Lord . . ." If we believe in Him and have confidence in Him, He will not fail us. Isaiah 61:1-3.

I think of the three Hebrew men in the fiery furnace; about Daniel in that hungry den of lions; about that angel who locked those mouths. God is no respecter of persons. What He did for the greats in the Bible, He will do for you and me. To give to them beauty for ashes; the oil of joy for mourning; the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness that they might be called trees. I have seen the Redwoods in California. They are firmly planted, rooted and grounded. If a storm comes along, it doesn't bother them. The Lord came to win our victory that we might be called trees of righteousness. He cannot be glorified in one who bears His Name and is not faithful to Him; one who is up and down. 1 John 5:4.

We can overcome this world, because we are overcomers in Christ. Our victory is our faith. It is believing in the Lord and the victory even before victory comes. When I was born, the doctor said I was deformed; he told my grandmother that I would never live; told my mother that if I lived, I would always be deformed, maybe never walk and have brain damage. When mom took me home, she said, "Lord, I don't know what to do with this child; You have given her to me; I don't know how to pray; I don't ask you to heal her; I don't ask you to let her die; I simply give her to you; I trust you unconditionally that however best you can be glorified in Cathy, she is Yours." One day the Lord walked by and mom touched the hem of His garment and left me in His hands. As time passed, mom noticed that I began to change; in a short time, I was normal. When I went to school, they wanted to promote me from the first grade in two weeks. I thank God for it, because He did it. We are serving a supernatural God; He is able to minister to your needs. He sees your distresses; He is moved; He gave His blood for you. (She requested Mike Flippo to go to the piano; John Payne led in singing "Reach Out and Touch the Lord." Sister Payne encouraged all to receive their needs.)

6:46 Remove Not the Ancient Landmark—message by David Donaldson. Excerpts: God has led us a long way from Burger Mountain; He has given us many people and churches. A landmark is used to indicate a boundary, directions or distinguishing locality. Romans 15:4; Hosea 5:10. The leaders of Judah had become too daring because of pride and trusted in the arm of flesh instead of obeying God. They had forgotten where they came from. Proverbs 16:18; 3:5-10. In essence, the princes of Judah were saying that they did not need God to guide them. We have gotten smart; we have a great Bible college; none of us are smarter than God. Revelation 22:18, 19.

We must not allow knowledge to replace inspiration of God's Word nor become like any other religious group instead of the Church of God of the Bible. 2 Timothy 3:1-5. Beware of the danger of formalism. The Church of God has always existed on the power and inspiration from God; stay in the good Book for out of it comes the issues of life. Education alone will not get the job done. We must not become Twentieth Century Pharisees who keep strict adherence and observe customary forms but deny the power of God. The Early Church fathers depended solely upon the Holy Ghost. We need the Holy Ghost and fire witness just as Peter and those other one hundred nineteen members in the Upper Room waited until the promise of the prophet Joel when he said, "In the last days, I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh . . ." 2 Timothy 3:10-14. We must remain steadfast in the Scriptures and hold to the important Bible truths. These vital points of the New Testament doctrine are some of the prominent teachings of the Church of God. They were taught and practiced by the Early Church. I am not afraid of progress, but I am afraid of compromise. We must take a stand as Daniel and the three Hebrew boys.

The old landmark is repentance; Jesus told Nicodemus that he must be born again. We must preach the born-again experience as outlined in the Bible. Don't remove the old landmarks—justification, regeneration, born again, sanctification. What is wrong with many of us Twentieth Century Christians is that we haven't experienced sanctification. Sanctification will keep you—not day by day but instantaneously. Romans 6:1, 2. Paul was sanctified; knew how to give praise in much and when he didn't have so much. Some of us have a problem with Adam's greed. Titus 2:11, 12; 1 Peter 5:8; Hebrews 12:14. Holiness must be practiced in this dispensation that is so close to the coming of our Lord; water baptism and baptism of the Holy Ghost. Matthew 3:11. We have stopped preaching fire. Acts 2:15-17. If the only evidence you have is speaking in tongues, I am afraid you don't have the Holy Ghost. After Peter was baptized, he didn't have a year-long crusade; on the same day 3,000 souls were added to the Church.

They didn't stop when they were baptized with the Holy Ghost. We leave our comfortable churches and go out into the streets, the highways and hedges and compel them to come in. Peter, James and John were going to the temple. We don't go to the temple on Wednesday anymore; we have counsel meetings instead of prayer meetings; talk about finance more than about people's souls. They were going to a prayer meeting; on their way, they met a man who was begging. They didn't say we don't have time. "Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have . . ." We can't remove Jesus for any other name. Acts 4:10, 12—a brother and sister were lying. The people brought their possessions and laid them at the feet of the apostles. If you have the Holy Ghost and fire, you don't need any one to prompt you about giving money. Brother Ananias and Sister Sapphira were not ready to give in.

Church of God pastors, we need to preach under the anointing of the Holy Ghost; God will work in our congregations; the Holy Ghost, speaking in tongues, full restoration of the gifts to the Church, signs following believers, fruits of the Spirit, divine healing, the Lord's Supper, washing the saints feet, tithing and giving, restitution where possible, pre-millennial second coming of Jesus, the resurrection, eternal life for the righteous, eternal punishment for the wicked, total abstinence from all liquor or strong drinks. Proverbs 20:1; against the use of tobacco, opium, morphine; on meats and drinks; on the sabbath; against wearing gold for ornament. I was disturbed this year when someone told me that there are no New Testament scriptures to support the Church being against wearing gold for ornament. We cannot stray and compromise. Last year in the General Assembly, we were told that we need to repent. Some of us need to publicly acknowledge that we have erred from the principles of this God-given Book. We have gotten too smart; don't know how to follow God any more. John 2:5. We have our big degrees; we know about homiletics, theology; the Church needs to stay on our knees until God answers by fire.

7:24 Music by Bahama Band as Assembly expense offering was received. Prayer for offering and requests.

7:42 Voice of Salvation Program, directed by D. Elwood Matthews, Minister. Theme: Touching Lives. Congregational singing led by Foster Bell. Concert prayer; then praising God; Teen Talent Awards.

8:01 VOS Communicates in: BAHAMAS—Barbara Williams: VOS has been broadcast at 10:00 a.m. each Sunday over the Voice of The Bahamas for more than thirty years; in Freeport, Grand Bahamas each Sunday at 8:00 a.m. the past five years. Year after year reports are received from the management telling us that the VOS programs are consistent in quality and favorability. Throughout the islands of the Bahamas, thousands look forward to the broadcast; several acknowledged Christ as a result of VOS. The response to the sermons has been overwhelming; several have been led to the Church. VOS is an integral part of the Church in the Bahamas.

PHILIPPINES—Don Slaton: April, 1984 was the first broadcast in the Philippines. Many souls have been touched with the message of Jesus Christ and the Church. Many times Communists keep ministers out of areas; they cannot hinder the VOS from preaching in those remote areas. One day a captain in the police force knocked on my door. Fear gripped me; because in the Philippines, you don't want the police visit your house as there is corruption in the government. He related to me: I live in constant fear of death; last Sunday morning in the police station, a voice on the radio said that this is the VOS coming to you, and I listened; the Word of God pricked my heart; I gave my heart to the Lord. As I ministered to him, he got rid of this fear, and I presented him a Bible from the Bibles for Missions program. A Filipino lawyer who is director of the Full Gospel Business Mens' Association told me that he has never missed a VOS broadcast. We have received more than two hundred Bibles and distributed them to our members. This is a blessed gift to them. They are happy that we have our radio program; many say they go to their neighbors and tell them to listen. VOS is carrying the message to many, who I may never see and know the extent this program has reached the lost until we stand before the Lord and find out how many have been won by this program.

ALABAMA—Ron Martin: The VOS ministry is alive and doing well in Alabama. Recently I did a phone survey of the stations that broadcast VOS in our state; the general consensus of the station managers was that it is one of the top programs on their schedules; professional broadcasters recognize VOS as a top quality program. We have added new stations this year. One is in Birmingham, a super 50,000 watt station; and affiliate in Nashville, TN. It has the potential of reaching more than six million people. The manager agreed that if we conduct a VOS crusade, they will give free advertising and do a live remote broadcast of one of the services. I believe the Spirit of God is moving on station managers. In five-night VOS rallies, our people gave through pledges and contributions over ten thousand dollars. Juanita Mojica recently visited one of our local churches; the local church was moved because many of our members in other countries have no Bibles. The children's church in that church gave $500 for Bibles for Missions. We use the spot announcements on two top television stations; we believe in VOS in Alabama, and we believe in the Church of God. (Congregation joined in thanking God for what is being accomplished.)

8:16 Two songs by VOS Singers.

8:25 Various Ministries of VOS—Dan Howell: Calls to our prayer request line increased 33%; mail response increased 32%; the last two years, our listeners response has increased over 70%. VOS can be heard in four languages in two-thirds of the world. One of our ministers spoke about VOS going on the air in Grantsville, MD; we prayed for God to open up a new field. They ordered a number of door hangers and canvassed the city. In May, they received a telephone call inviting them to have prayer meeting in a home, which they are having regularly now. VOS is an extension of the local church.

The Bibles for Missions ministry has grown and we are handling several thousand dollars a year; this year, God helped us provide Bibles to twenty-seven countries. Bibles for Missions is building a school in Haiti which will accommodate about 250 students; you are investing in people; we want to send a Bible to every student when it opens.

Let me urge you to enroll in the Daily Walk Club—a Bible study guide. This will provide fresh inspiration; there is an enrollment fee of $15 per year.

The 30-second radio and television spot announcements are available. Television stations using the announcements in: Iowa, Texas, South Carolina, North Carolina, Pennsylvania and Ohio. These provide free air time for us to present a message from the Church.

The TBN Satellite Network, CA, has been providing free air time for about a year. A 30-minute television program is now in production. Our target date for the pilot program is January; satellite is well within our reach. The Lord prompted me to investigate the possibility of satellite coverage for the General Assembly. I found that we can lease a company's satellite uplink for as little as $15,000 or $20,000. People in faraway places could rent a dish. The company says the space we would lease that their signals reach as far South as Venezuela; goes North into Canada. People who live in between all these points could sit at home and watch the General Assembly. This satellite company goes into 300,000 homes by cable; outside people would have access.

8:44 Robert Pruitt prayed for offering which was received as these singers blessed us: Betty Barker; Men of the Cloth. Prayer by Terry Mahan.

9:10 Song by Roberta Matthews, accompanied by VOS Singers.

9:20 A Time For Valor—message and altar call by Communications Minister. Scriptures: Text—Hebrews 11:32-34; 1 Corinthians 14:33; Summarized Isaiah 57; Psalm 31:24; Psalm 27:14; Jeremiah 32:14; Psalm 107:9; John 14:1; Psalm 119:165; Psalm 34:17; 30:5; 1 Samuel 15:22; 1 Peter 5:6; James 4:7; 1 Corinthians 10:12, 13. This message was printed in the November 30, 1985 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be obtained on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House. Music and singing during altar service by VOS Singers and Garfield Williams.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 9

MORNING

7:30 Sunrise prayer meeting conducted by O. R. Collins. Organ music by Sonny Samples. Music by Bahama Brass Band.

8:50 Two songs led by Phil Barker with Diane Hamm, pianist; Sonny Samples, organist. Luke 6:43-49 read by Richard Mendivil. Prayer by Lafoy Parker, followed by concert prayer.

9:03 Together For Progress—message by Ray Payne. Excerpts: We have tried many methods and programs to fulfill the commission, but you cannot improve upon the plan introduced by Christ. He took twelve men, who became dynamic religious zealots who fanned evangelism through the world. The world was in utter confusion; the Early Church prayed down unity. This unity and love among the believers caused them to speak the same message and live the same religion; one in spirit. They lived and died for the gospel; their method was: Jesus taught His disciples; they taught the converts. Acts 2:46, 47; 20:20. The Lord is calling the Church out of this torn up world and showing His power through sanctified people who will dare to use His name and live like the Bible teaches; His Spirit within us causing us to want to get the work done. Progress is slow; we are hindered; we will not be defeated. The Church will finish the work and victoriously overcome this world. This unity is the prayer Jesus prayed in John 17:20-42. There is no man-made utopia to initiate plans to bring about this glorious thing. Through the eye of faith and total surrender to God, He will bring us together in this end time. There is no spirituality nor salvation apart from Jesus. We must have complete identity with him. Ephesians 2:6; Philippians 4:13; Romans 8:37.

This is what motivates Christian living; identify with a winner. Jesus walked on the water; stilled the storm; escaped murderers; multiplied food; dispelled diseases; astonished legal experts; raised the dead; defeated demons; lived faith; fulfilled the law; healed the sick. He reached all classes of people; forgave sins; caught fish; fed His friends; endured hardness; embraced the thief; hell could not break Him; death could not hold Him; He was never defeated. I am serving an alive God; the Church is destined to fulfill prophecy. Romans 8:17. His Name is on my account; it is a guarantee of payment. Isaiah 59:19; He'll go with you all the way.

Another togetherness is the unity of the Body of Christ. Psalm 133:1; Ephesians 2:22. You may be a beam, plank, ornamental piece, floor; but every part is needed; leave the choice to the Master Carpenter. Striving together for the faith of the gospel will accomplish this. He didn't say that I will give you a larger salary or to become better known; the aim Jesus left us is to promote the gospel; you can't do it fighting one another. Pray, love, comfort one another. Another togetherness in 1 Thessalonians 4:17. This means that the godly people who have gone on, someday we will be caught up together to meet the Lord in the air.

It must start with leadership. There must be unity between the general, state and local leaders. The enemy knows his time is short; he is trying to stop the program of God. The ministry must compliment one another; work together for the advancement of the Church. Our personal ambitions, opinions and philosophies must be laid at the altar and allow the Holy Ghost to give us direction. If we are not making progress, we must find the cause; get back to the New Testament. Time demands that everyone do his best to get the job done. Leaders, if your work becomes difficult, don't give up. If you are working for money or prestige, you are going to fall; you have to work in the ministry to make it work for you. We rejoice over what the Early Church did; we are equally responsible to carry out the Great Commission. Christ came to save those who are lost. Matthew 4:23; John 7:46. Jesus did not come seeking a name. It seems men of our time are wanting prestige. You don't get glorified, God does! John 12:32. Lift Jesus up; let the world know that He is God of all.

At the close of His ministry on earth, Jesus placed the responsibility for continuing His Church into the hands of His followers. Divine business was transferred to the Church, which He gave His blood for. Acts 20:28; John 20:21; Luke 10:3; Matthew 10:16; John 21:16; Luke 14:23; Mark 16:15; Acts 1:8; Matthew 24:14. They accepted the challenge and shook the world under the anointing of the Holy Ghost. From the Early Church history emerges a pattern of gathering and scatterings. I see nothing but victory for God's divine Body. When a church is not challenged, it becomes passive and unprogressive. We need to be busy in the Body of Christ. The purpose of the Church is to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. You must be an abiding force against sin and evil; God, give us boldness to move out of the church and homes and touch people with the gospel. This world is hungry for the power of God; we cannot be just another church. Acts 2:17. It is not enough to say we are a Bible-believing Church; we must be a Bible-practicing Church. Jesus prayed to the Father that we may be one. There is going to be a melting time; we are going to see a revival.

Together in holiness which cannot be changed by compromising. Some profess holiness; the outward appearance screams that it is not genuine. They change their standards; you can't change God's. Psalm 93:5; 29:2; Genesis 1:27. He made this earthly family, the Church and gave wonderful privileges; but there were restrictions. Genesis 2:17. It was so from the beginning as now; we are in this world, yet not of this world. The devil has launched an attack on our families. Together we can get on our knees and stop the enemy from invading our homes, churches and keep from losing precious people. It is time to stand for truth and righteousness. God organized the Church and ordained it to be one in Christ. God is coming back for a Church that has made herself ready. Harvest time is here; where are the laborers? It will take every one to get the harvest ready. The task is great and time demands we hurry. Over three billion people must be evangelized. Whole nations need the gospel; we cannot fulfill the commission unless we move together into the harvest. This is our hour in the Church.

9:45 Song by Brian Ladd. Willard Boyles reported results of Assembly Altar Services: 18 saved, 17 sanctified, 33 baptized with the Holy Ghost.

Report of General Field Secretary and Spanish Communications Minister

August 1, 1984 through July 31, 1985

Sermons	190	Added to Church	4
Saved	64	Homes visited	69
Sanctified	15	Bible lessons	44
Filled with Holy Ghost	4

Our hearts are filled with joy for the blessings God has bestowed upon the Spanish VOS. We are now broadcasting over 162 radio stations throughout Latin America, the Caribbean Islands, several states in the US and through several shortwave stations that beam to areas in Asia, Africa, China, India and Indonesia. We are now reaching 28 nations. We have received thousands of letters giving testimonies of healing and spiritual help received through the program. Many expressed the blessing of the correspondence courses—the Body of Christ and the General Bible Knowledge. We distributed 599 units of the Body of Christ and 95 certificates were issued; 1702 units of the General Bible Knowledge course—257 certificates were issued.

Represented Headquarters for the conventions in Venezuela, Western Samoa, Germany, Finland, Belgium, California (South) and California (Spanish); conducted revivals in Texas,

New York, Belgium, Florida, Australia and California.

Conducted a Cross-Cultural Seminar, in which several of the state overseers, pastors and other leaders of the Hispanic churches in the United States participated. A Communication Seminar was held for national overseers, state and national communication directors and other leaders.

This year we have produced four television specials, which have been aired in some countries of Latin America and the United States. In cooperation with Trinity Broadcasting Network (TBN), I produced 13 thirty-minute TV programs of Bible teaching based in the book of James. This series was televised via satellite on about 300 television stations in the US and in Central America; participated in the TV program "Praise the Lord" on channel 40, Los Angeles, CA.

The Hispanic population has spread all over the world, and the Spanish VOS is doing its best to reach them. We are now on stations that reach areas for our first time: Southeast Asia, India, Mongolia, Peoples Republic of China, Southern Asia, Eastern USSR and Indonesia.

I attended the National Religious Broadcasters Convention in Washington, D.C. The Spanish VOS received an award for fifteen years of excellence in broadcasting in the Hispanic NRB session. Radio announcer Olfa Reyes, and myself were invited to participate in two workshops at the Hispanic session of the convention. I participated in the Latin American Evangelist Convention where I was elected to serve on the Board of Directors, and I attended several board meetings. I attended the Convocation for the Evangelization of Ethnic America in Houston, TX; represented the Church in Chicago at the Hispanic Consultation meeting hosted by the American Bible Society. A book that we just published in Spanish: The Hispanic in United States a Challenge and an Opportunity for the Church, will be one of the official books of the convocation. I have been elected to serve as vice-president of the National Organization for the Advancement of the Hispanics (NOAH).

I served on the Communications Committee, Ministerial Aid Committee and Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine.

Report of Public Relations Director and Sunday School Literature Editor
August 1, 1984 through July 31, 1985

Sermons/lessons	64	Filled with Holy Ghost	4

Sanctified	4

I have worked closely with the General Overseer representing his office at public functions such as the United Bible Society Council meeting, White House Presidential briefing on state of affairs around the world, National Religious Broadcaster's Conference, as well as other religious convocations in various locations. In civic affairs, I have represented his office in numerous local functions. Presently I am serving as a member of the Board of Directors of the Cleveland Bradley Chamber of Commerce; on the Board of Directors of the United Way; the Mayor's Blue Ribbon Committee of United Way.

I have produced and aired the Religious News International weekly broadcast with Evelyn Gillum and Dan Howell reporting; engineers, Thomas Duncan and Brent Daniel.

Public Relations: we have developed the Laymen's Community Relations outreach project which was introduced at the presbytery meeting. State/national Overseers will direct this project in their respective state or nation.

As Sunday School Literature Editor: I have administrated the office affairs with a dedicated and committed staff; the valuable ministry of our Sunday School literature writers is appreciated. Our Literature Department continues to develop and introduce new Bible studies. We have a goal of completing 12 elective Bible studies before the 1988 General Assembly.

New studies added this year:

PERSONAL CHRISTIAN GROWTH: The challenge to continue to grow and mature in Christ is presented in this study. Continued growth comes through study and application of important principles such as faith, learning to balance grace and works, and relating to the rest of the Body of Christ.

DISCOVERING THE BODY OF CHRIST: Getting in and getting involved in the Body of Christ, the Church, is the theme of these lessons. The past, present and future states of the Church are explored as well as concepts such as the covenant.

CHANGES IN PRESENT CURRICULUM:

The ADULT TEACHER'S GUIDE, introduced in September of 1984, is a companion to the ADULT TEACHER'S COMMENTARY. Various study helps and background information make it a valuable tool in thorough preparation of a lesson. NEW SECTIONS such as a Teaching Methods Chart, discussion on student-centered teaching, and a lesson plan and method for each lesson make this an exciting addition to the curriculum.

JUNIOR CURRICULUM CHANGES:

This will replace BIBLE ORBITS and its teacher's guide. Three pieces, beautifully illustrated and printed in four colors, are available to make your juniors more enthusiastic about learning God's Word.

BIBLE ADVENTURES is a colorful workbook filled with interesting Bible stories, classroom activities, such as puzzles and games, etc. A different approach each week will help to keep juniors interested in Bible study.

JUNIOR TEACHER'S GUIDE helps the teacher in providing the students with a challenging Bible lesson every week. A four-step lesson plan... special tips and practical helps... an important section on leading juniors to Christ and discovering their spiritual needs... plus invaluable teacher growth sections for continued teacher training.

CREATIVE TEACHING AIDS PACKET contains a varied assortment of aids, such as posters, records, film strips, games, song folders. These extra tools make a lesson complete and reinforce important Bible truths in a manner to which juniors can relate.

CURRICULUM UP DATE is being published quarterly in the joint interest of the Sunday School Literature Editor's Department and the White Wing Publishing House to help keep the worker involved in Sunday School and Christian Education up to date regarding the developments, trends and news related to Sunday School curriculum, as well as teaching aid tools and research.

Report of the World Language Secretary

August 1, 1984 through July 31, 1985

"... Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts." Zechariah 4:6. Translation and the World Literature Outreach works must be accredited to the mighty works of God. I have experienced the thrill and excitement of promoting this work as I now know the joy and great sensation of seeing the product in the hands of the people.

The Thrill of Promotion: It seems as though the Lord has injected the total Church with the excitement of the language and World Literature Outreach work. The Church literature in their own language is truly the greatest gift we could give this spiritually hungry world, as it will help people get saved, sanctified, baptized with the Holy Ghost and receive a vision of God's Church. This last days message in their own language will enable anyone to grow spiritually and be ready for the ultimate goal of every Christian—the coming of the Lord.

Many are still sending in their love offerings to support this work. Our goal is to provide everyone with the Church literature they need to make it through this life and enter into everlasting life. I wish to thank everyone for their generous contributions. It is impossible to publicly acknowledge every gift; however, I do this by correspondence. You have made this work possible. There is no other way we could have been able to accomplish what has been done.

The Joy of Production: Because of your dedicated giving we are now involved in translation and preparing Church literature in many languages. The White Wing Publishing House staff around the world is to be commended for getting this translated literature printed in the most expedient way possible.

We are now involved in the translation and production of our Church tracts and literature in 53 languages. We have 85 translators—full time and part-time. We now produce some Sunday School literature in 16 languages; the White Wing Messenger is now being produced in 7 languages.

The White Wing Publishing House and our printing facilities in India, South Africa and new facilities in Mexico and Indonesia have long range plans to expand to other strategic areas of the world. It is an awesome responsibility when we consider the total spectrum of our field of labor. We are fully aware of the cost involved; this great undertaking will be successful. "... The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this." Isaiah 9:7.

Our New Challenge: This work continues to expand; this is God's work and we must work believing that He will be with us. Our new challenge goal is 5,000,000 (million) dollars. I believe that God will open the doors and provide these funds. The world does not hesitate to ask huge sums to finance their material goals. The Church will step out by faith and believe God to multiply our funds and we too shall reach our goals. John 14:13. The youth of the Church loves challenges. The greater the impossibility, the greater opportunity to test our faith and reach out to God for a miracle. Together, the youth of the Church and all other visionary individual contributors will get this work done. The Lord will provide.

Personal Report: Attended: 4 ministers' conventions; 4 state/national conventions; 3 literature conferences; 5 youth conventions; New York Mens' Day; Mexico White Wing Publishing House Dedication; Society of Servants activities. Visited: Brazil, Mexico, Kenya, South Africa, Germany, Greece, Italy, Dominican Republic, Philippines, Indonesia, Korea, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Singapore, Arkansas, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, California (Spanish), New York, Massachusetts, Oklahoma, Kentucky, Connecticut, South Dakota. Taught in Cleveland BTI. Served on these committees: World Mission, Church Publishing and Communications; served as Managing Editor of the International White Wing Messenger published in Spanish, French, Telugu, Indonesian, Zulu and Afrikaans.

Conclusion: Thanks to the World Language Department staff for their untiring service and devotion to this translation work. I love the Church of God. I shall work for her without reservation. She is my life and I will gladly serve God and His Church and do my best for her. I give God the glory in all things.

Report of Ministerial Aid Director
August 1, 1984 through July 31, 1985

I have administered all of the Ministerial Aid Department business which has been directed to World Headquarters through the Ministerial Aid Committee and a competent office staff; planned the special Ministerial Aid Edition of the White Wing Messenger; edited the monthly bulletin, "The International Connector" of which approximately 9,000 copies were distributed. I made a special trip to Minneapolis, Minnesota to collect all group insurance records and terminate our contract with IDS.

I assumed the responsibility of the administration of the group insurance plan through Church Benefit Association, succeeded in obtaining the services of Life Insurance Company of North America, and obtained the services of Canada Life for permanent group insurance. I directed the business of Tax-Sheltered Annuities and Deferred Compensation of individual participants with United Benefit of Omaha.

I planned and moderated a special banquet for the seniors; visited many states and retired ministers and sick people in connection with Ministerial Aid activities and represented General Headquarters at several funerals; represented General Headquarters at conventions in Panama, Kansas, Nebraska, Utah; taught Doctrine in Cleveland BTI.

I served as Secretary of the Ministerial Aid Committee and Secretary of the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity, and Doctrine; also served on the CPMA Committee; attended special services in the Fields of the Wood. I have written thousands of letters and traveled many thousand miles this year for the glory of God.

Report of Communications Minister August 1, 1984 through July 31, 1985

The Lord has blessed the Voice of Salvation this year with several super stations (50,000 watt) being scheduled, giving us nighttime coverage throughout the United States and Hawaii. The Voice of Salvation is being broadcast throughout two-thirds of the world via shortwave, for which we thank the Lord.

The thirty-second "Info-Capsules" are shown throughout the United States on the Trinity Broadcasting Network. The Daily Walk Devotional Guide continues to inspire thousands of people. Twenty-seven countries were provided Bibles through the Bibles for Missions outreach.

Videotapes have been produced by the VOS to be utilized by local churches or individuals. These include: Focus on Fields of the Wood, Interviews with M. A. Tomlinson and Ina Mae Tomlinson, Focus on Ladies Retreats, Highlights of International Youth Camp, a lecture on Divorce by Jan Couch, and thirty-six hours of the General Assembly.

Production has begun for a series of thirty-minute television programs focusing on current issues to be aired in 1986. VOS rallies have been conducted in 4 states. I conducted 7 VOS crusades; the VOS has produced several promotional brochures and a quarterly newsletter.

I served as a member of the Youth Mission Board and the Communications Committee and as devotional coordinator for BTI in Cleveland.

Report of Communications Business Manager

August 1, 1984 through July 31, 1985

Outstanding advancements have been achieved in the Communications work of the Church. God has blessed us and caused His face to shine upon us in providing much additional broadcast coverage for the Church radio programs. In April, we scheduled the international DX Radio Network to air the English, Spanish, French and Greek Voice of Salvation programs weekly and Gospel Concert Hall for airing three times each week. This network is composed of powerful short-wave radio stations located in Argentina, Bolivia, Burma, Italy, Turkey, Venezuela, Zaire and local stations in Bolivia, Brazil, Indonesia and Peru. Our broadcasts are now within the radio reception range of many millions of listeners who could not receive them until the DX Radio Network began airing them. Both the English and Spanish Voice of Salvation programs have added several stations in the United States and the Spanish program has had quite an increase in Latin American stations.

We have received good cooperation of state and national overseers and communications directors in the work of expanding the Church radio coverage during the year.

The operation of Broadcast Distributors, Broadcast Record Club and Majestic Sound Studio have provided much needed financial support for our work. A major source of support has been the annual general appropriation of funds for which we are most appreciative.

I have attended one district convention, one state convention, Audio Engineering Society Convention in New York City, a special AES seminar in Nashville, Tennessee and the NRB Convention in Washington, D.C.

I have also provided technical assistance to several local churches relative to their sound systems; supervised the audio operations of the 79th Annual Assembly of the Church; the audio operations of the Cleveland Bible Training Institute; directed the work of my office, staff, answered correspondence, operated Broadcast Distributors, Broadcast Record Club, served on the Communications Committee and the Music Committee.

The Church programs scheduled for weekly broadcast are as follows:

Voice of Salvation (English)	240	Voice of Salvation (Greek)	3
Voice of Salvation (Spanish)	162	Gospel Concert Hall	135
Voice of Salvation (French)	4

Report of Director of Evangelism and Home Missions Representative

August 1, 1984 through July 31, 1985

The theme for Evangelism and Home Missions endeavor for this Assembly year is "Eyes on the Harvest," based on the admonition given by our Lord in John 4:35, "Say not ye there are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest."

We give thanks to God for all who have served faithfully this year in all phases of evangelistic and home missions endeavor.

In this year's course of events I have personally been involved in the following activities:

I served on four General Headquarters Committees (Communications; Church Publishing; World Missions; Youth Mission Board). I represented the General Overseer's office to one ministers convention, one national convention, and three state conventions. I taught in Bible Training Institute in the Philippines and in Cleveland, Tennessee.

I conducted four revivals, taught three Sharing Eternal Life Seminars, conducted one National Evangelism/Home Missions Exchange, attended two evangelism clinics and visited the states of Iowa, Idaho and Arizona in the interest of evangelism.

I assisted in Youth Mission Team Orientation in Miami, Florida and served as evangelist with the Barbados team.

I attended two seminars on church planting, conducted a Music Seminar in Fairbanks, Alaska, and was guest speaker for a couples retreat in California (South).

Along with other headquarters staff members, I attended a special day of activities at Tomlinson College designed to better familiarize General Headquarters workers with the goals and activities of TC. This department has been endeavoring to help design a course of study through the college to prepare ministerial students to be new church planters when they graduate from TC.

I have corresponded with all state overseers and many state evangelism/home missions directors. I have corresponded regularly with all national evangelists.

We are grateful for the updating of two Sharing Eternal Life Training Manuals of instruction in this worthy training program. We are presently involved in developing a Home Missions manual called MAPS (Mission Action Plans Sourcebook).

Report of World Mission Secretary August 1, 1984 through July 31, 1985

Having obtained help from God, I have made 31 visits to 9 states and 15 countries besides attending to the world-wide business of the Church under the World Mission Department. During these visits I preached and taught 110 sermons and lessons and attended 11 conventions. I served part of the year as Overseer to Egypt, Greece and Israel, moderating conventions in each of these and directing and teaching in Bible Training Institute in Cairo. I also assisted in 2 International Leadership Conferences in Central and South America and with the 1985 Youth Mission Teams.

I was privileged to direct the organization of our first Church in the country of France on June 25, 1985. I served on these boards and committees: Ministerial Aid, World Missions, Youth Mission, Church Publishing and Bible Training Institute.

I owe a great debt to my faithful office staff, the mission representatives and all the overseers and missionaries. Their love and prayers helped me through the year and I give thanks to the Lord for them.

Report of Mission Representative to Mexico, Central and South America

August 1, 1984 through July 31, 1985

"Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness." These words spoken by the Psalmist David is my expression of thankfulness unto the Lord for His goodness to my family and me throughout the past year. It has been a very busy year with many victories.

I served on these committees: World Mission and Youth Mission Board. My travel took me to 19 different nations in Latin America, Europe and the Caribbean Islands. I visited ministers conventions in Venezuela, Argentina and Cuba. Taught BTI in Brazil and Cleveland; represented General Headquarters at nine national conventions.

It had been over twenty-four years since one from General Headquarters had made an official visit to the Island of Cuba. I was able to visit there in March. The Church in Cuba is moving forward within its restricted bounds. There is a good spirit of unity among the Church people and they are anxious to maintain a continual contact with the rest of the Body. Please continue to pray for our people in Cuba.

In March and April, I coordinated and moderated the International Leadership Conferences in Lima, Peru; South America and Mexico City, Mexico, with 145 delegates representing 22 nations. There were outpourings of the Holy Ghost melting the hearts of those present and binding us together as a mighty army. The purpose of these conferences is being fulfilled and many wonderful results are being experienced. To God be the Glory!

Moved from England to Germany in October, 1984; introduced L. R. Stephens and wife to South Africa in October. While with them, I suffered a heart attack which confined my activities to rest and recuperation until the last of November when I returned to my home and office now in Dietzenbach, West Germany.

For three months I underwent stringent physical examinations by the USAF Regional Hospital in Wiesbaden, West Germany. The test results proved that the hand of God had intervened and my physical condition was improved amazingly.

I attended the national conventions in Cyprus, Sierra Leone, Ghana, Kenya, Bloemfontein (South Africa) and Botswana. Travelled to Ivory Coast and met Sherman Allen; we went to Cameroon where we set the first Church in order the last of May.

I attended the German and England national conventions; accompanied Adrian Varlack in setting the first Church in order in Alfortville, France during June; made several more visits to France.

During my visits I conducted training sessions and assisted the overseers.

Report of Military Service and Asia, Australia Mission Representative

August 1, 1984 through July 31, 1985

1 Timothy 1:17. My appreciation to all laborers responsible for raising mission funds; national/state overseers and members with whom I have worked this year.

Attended the 79th Annual General Assembly in which I served on the Counseling Committee; directed Military Service Program and reception; served on World Mission Committee.

I have combined some of the work of these two offices where our military personnel are stationed and we have mission interests. Visited: Australia, Indonesia, Korea, Philippines, Singapore, Alabama, Hawaii, Tennessee and Virginia. Attended two national conventions and one ministers' convention; served as principal and taught in Indonesia BTI. Made photographs of various church activities which have been published in the White Wing Messenger and The Sentinel.

MILITARY SERVICE DEPARTMENT

I visited with military personnel in the United States; attended one National Conference on Ministry to the Armed Forces (NCMAF) in Washington, D.C.

Our Chaplaincy program presently consists of: Maj. Douglas Stephenson, Maj. Guy Lindsey and Capt. Gerald Moates on active duty in the Army; Lcdr. Daniel Kurbis and Lt. Bill Reed, active duty in the Navy; Capt. Jon Stovall on active duty with the Air Force; Capt. J. E. Brisson with the Civil Air Patrol, presently inactive. We have two new chaplains: 1Lt. Kurtes Quesinberry, active duty Army and Lt. Anthony Charles, Army National Guard.

A retreat was conducted in Berchtesgaden, West Germany as well as other special activities in many areas. A special prayer day on the third Sunday in February, in behalf of those in the military service, was observed by the Church.

The Servicemen's Center in Langen, West Germany continues to operate under the direction of Overseer Dennis Howard and those assisting him; they are to be highly commended for their labors of love.

The Sentinel mailing list numbers 1,007; of these 765 are individual recipients, 242 distributed at the general offices and mailed in bundles to pastors, overseers and others who work with the military. There have been 12 issues of the department's monthly publication printed and approximately 207 packets containing 12 tracts and 2 copies of The Sentinel mailed to military personnel on our mailing list. The department had two mailings furnishing information about ministering to the military. A regular flow of mail is received and answered.

The Church and its Representative and Ecclesiastical Endorsing Agent is listed with the Department of Defense, National Conference on Ministry to the Armed Forces (NCMAF), the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, the Civil Air Patrol, and the Air Force Reserve Chaplaincy program and corresponds with the Chief of Chaplains for each of these branches of the military service.

Report of General Sunday School Secretary

August 1, 1984 through July 31, 1985

Revivals	1	Saved	1
Sermons	112	Homes visited	36

I continue to find the work of the Sunday School Department to be both challenging and rewarding. Many times portions of the work seem quite staggering; but from the depths of my heart, I join the Apostle Paul as he declares to the Corinthians, "... my grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness..." It is through the strength given by God and the continued support of each overseer, state/national secretary-children's church director, pastor, superintendent and the lay leadership that any strides have been possible.

I have attended and participated in: 1 ministers' convention, 16 area Sunday school training sessions, 1 state Sunday school conference, 1 TIPS session at Tomlinson College, 1 youth convention, 2 state conventions. I prepared for and directed the meeting of the state/national Sunday school and children's church directors prior to the 79th Annual Assembly; had oversight of Sunday school workshops and children's church sessions conducted during the 79th General Assembly. Joined with Victory Leaders Department in a Celebration Saturday for the children—ministered to approximately 850 children during the two one and a half hour sessions.

I attended and taught workshops at the International Christian Education Convention in Detroit, MI; represented the Church and taught four workshops in the Greater Los Angeles Sunday School Convention; taught in the Cleveland, Tennessee BTI. Worked with members of the faculty of Tomlinson College and the General Victory Leaders Secretary in preparing for a special weekend of training emphasis at Tomlinson College. Prepared these materials in English:

1985 Sunday School Week and High Attendance Day materials using for the theme "You're Invited ... To Be Our Guest."

1986 Outreach Campaign material using for the theme "Now Is the Time ..."

1985-87 Sunday School Superintendent's Planning Calendar

Sunday School Helps and Hints (a quarterly publication for Sunday School workers distributed with Sunday School Literature)

On Your Mark ... Get Set ... Grow! (a quarterly publication for children's church directors compiled by Kathy Creasy, this is distributed through the offices of the state/national children's church directors/boosters.)

Two new Administrative Literature pieces entitled "Building Bridges to the Single Adult," and "Planning for Outreach Activities." This increases the total Administrative Literature pieces available in the English language to fourteen.

Made revisions in several pieces of Sunday school materials.

Children's Day 1985 (Theme: Tender Care for those Tender Years) was jointly sponsored by the Sunday School and Victory Leaders Departments. Materials were prepared to assist in the promotion in which we recognize the value of the children to each family and local church. Materials were available in English, Spanish, and French languages. We continued to note a marked increase in participation of our churches; the reports received were both encouraging and enlightening.

Additional material is being provided in both French and Spanish languages. Published "Helps and Hints for Sunday School Workers" in Spanish and French, and the publication, "On Your Mark ... Get Set ... Grow!" in Spanish, which are inserted in the appropriate White Wing Messengers.

Stamp and Coupon Program (which is being phased out):

Amount received on accounts	$230.00
Accounts receivable	$235.91

I managed the affairs of the Department and have corresponded on a regular basis with Sunday school secretaries, children's church boosters, and the overseers, thus keeping a vital line of communication open to benefit the overall progress of the Sunday School Department. I have endeavored to answer all correspondence regarding the activities of the Department; I sought input from others.

I have written the state and national Victory Leaders Band secretaries, state and national camp directors, state and national overseers monthly and answered daily correspondence.

I was assistant editor of the monthly youth publication, the Victory Leader (English, Spanish and French), which appears in the White Wing Messenger. I edited The Branch newsletter (English) which was mailed every two months to college students and single adults in the United States and Canada.

With the assistance of my staff, we have compiled and published a new Gleaner Composition IV (puppet and child evangelism program book) and a new Gleaner Handbook; compiled and published the Idea Book for state and national secretaries, and the Victory Leaders Band Ministries Calendar for 1985; expanded and printed the Youth Life Team Manual to include a director's manual and member's packet consisting of a member's manual, Youth Life Team logo patch, and personal worker's New Testament; planned and directed the twenty-second International Youth Camp at the Ponderosa Southern Baptist Assembly campground in Larkspur, CO; the First South American International Youth Camp Outreach in Cordoba, Argentina. I have overseen the compilation of the Guidepost (an idea book for camp directors), the International Youth Camp Staff Manual, and the International Youth Camp Yearbook, as well as a series of camp lessons for use by state and national camps.

I attended the Maryland/D.C. minister's convention, taught workshops at the International Sunday School Convention, helped co-sponsor and taught workshops at the T.I.P.S. Conference at Tomlinson College, and conducted workshops for youth workers in England, Michigan and North Carolina; attended a Christian Camp International Conference in Washington, D.C., and a National Youthworkers Conference in Atlanta, GA; coordinated and conducted Super Saturday Midwest in Branson, MO; conducted a tour of state senior camps in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida.

Our department spearheaded the World Literature Outreach promotion; prepared and supplied materials for International Youth Week (English, French, and Spanish).

I served as secretary of the Youth Mission Board and participated in the planning and orientation of the Youth Mission Teams. This year there were seven Youth Mission Teams with results as listed below. I served as evangelist for the team to Haiti.

Experiences—Youth Mission Team endeavors:

Guayaquil, Ecuador: 100 Saved, 60 Sanctified.

Bogota, Colombia: 32 Saved, 33 Sanctified, 4 filled with Holy Ghost, 57 healed.

Santiago, Chile: 86 Saved, 42 Sanctified, 52 filled with Holy Ghost, 40 healed.

Port-au-Prince, Haiti: 236 Saved, 30 Sanctified, 46 filled with Holy Ghost.

St. Vincent, Windward Islands: 13 Saved, 19 Sanctified, 10 filled with Holy Ghost, 7 healed.

Barbados, Windward Islands: 66 Saved, 31 Sanctified, 34 filled with Holy Ghost.

Antigua/Montserrat, Leeward Islands: 15 Saved, 21 Sanctified, 35 filled with Holy Ghost, 7 healed.

Nevis, Leeward Islands: 55 Saved, 30 Sanctified, 16 filled with Holy Ghost, 16 baptized in water, 12 joined the Church.

I served on the Bible Training Institute staff and taught at the schools in London, England and Cleveland, Tennessee; served on the Church Publishing Committee, the Communications Committee, and the Music Committee.

Many positive signs have been noted among our young people this year. To God be the glory for every advancement. I am especially grateful to all of God's people who have shown interest in our youth.

Report of General Womens Missionary Band Secretary August 1, 1984 through July 31, 1985

Sermons	105	Prayer meetings	51
Saved	40	States visited	16
Sanctified	43	Mission fields visited	4
Baptized with Holy Ghost	43	Ministers' convention	1
Homes visited	55	State/National conventions	4

The mission work continues to be both pressing and exciting. Pressing because there are so many calls that cannot be filled at this time, and exciting to be a part of the new vista of service we are entering.

I have been in contact with all the state/national secretaries through correspondence as well as with many of them personally. The department has compiled and printed in English, French and Spanish, except the last two:

- Mission Crusade Planning Booklet
- Women in Profile #7 (the planning booklet for ladies' functions)
- White Wing Messenger insert known as "Women in Profile"
- Helping Hand Ministry Brochure
- Ladies Regional Retreat Brochure

This is the third year of Women Ministering Biblically; there have been many interesting reports concerning the results. Several states are involved in: Bible studies which include neighborhood coffees, Bible reading during break on the job, and Bible reading to shut-ins; prayer groups, visitations in hospitals, convalescent centers and private homes; ladies' breakfast/luncheon, ladies' day and ladies' retreats.

I express thanks to individuals and local churches who have participated in the Helping Hand Ministry; I acknowledge the state/national secretaries and overseers who have boosted this program. A great spirit of concern has accompanied the donations. Because of this, we have been able to assist more fields with buildings, transportation, ministers' support and other needs. Many of these have responded with gratitude for the kindness their brothers and sisters in Christ have shown. This is a gigantic program and even though we have done well this year, there are still several countries that did not receive any type of help from donors.

I have corresponded with the national overseers regarding their needs which are now printed in the new Helping Hand Ministry brochure; had regular correspondence with the state/national secretaries; served on the Youth Mission Board and assisted with the Youth Mission Team Orientation in Miami.

Taught in Cleveland BTI; worked closely with the students in the Advanced Studies Course and taught one course. This is a great opportunity to be involved with the training of God's special people (His servants).

The mission rallies in the States and on one mission field were well attended; conducted a special Family Seminar and attended three couples' retreats to teach the Family Seminar material. This area needs our immediate attention; these were most fulfilling.

Thanks to the state/national overseers who have supported the regional ladies' retreats; directed 12 regional retreats. Approximately 3500 ladies attended. The results will live long in the hearts and lives of those who were blessed by attending.

MINUTES OF THE 80TH ANNUAL ASSEMBLY

This report comes about through the untiring efforts of people around the world . . . overseers, state/national secretaries, district boosters, pastors, local leaders, members and my office staff who worked for the great mission cause. Thanks to all of you; thanks, most of all, to the Great Head of the Church of God, Jesus Christ, who has given the grace, strength and motivation through the Holy Ghost for us to accomplish the work.

Report of Tomlinson College President
May 1, 1985 through July 31, 1985

William E. Gailey served as president of the college through April 30, 1985, at which time he resigned. An interim president was appointed on May 1, 1985. Therefore, this report covers the period of May 1 through July 31, 1985.

As interim president, and with the approval of the Board of Trustees, a reorganization was effected on June 1, 1985, which included major changes in administrative assignments and organizational structure.

The continuing education activities have continued to increase to an all-time high in correspondence course enrollment of 220; the extension school in Greenville, SC had an enrollment of 27 for the Spring semester and 32 for the Summer semester. We are very encouraged and thankful for the interest shown by the ministry and members of the Church.

Several campus improvements were made during the Summer months, some of which were paving of roads and parking areas, painting and refurbishing dormitories, and new lounge furniture.

We appreciate the good support by the general maintenance department, general headquarters officials and committees, overseers, pastors, members and friends of the Church.

A special thanks to the college administrators, staff, faculty, my secretary, and all personnel for their allegiance to the mission of the college.

Report of General Church of Prophecy Marker Association
Secretary and Fields of the Wood Manager
August 1, 1984 through July 31, 1985

Sermons	239	Received Holy Ghost	9
Converted	27	Homes Visited	171
Sanctified	18

Have answered all mail received in the office; corresponded with national/state secretaries regularly; and sent copies of materials as they developed; developed materials and revised The Honor Program; wrote articles for the White Wing Messenger.

Supervised the continuation of Fields of the Wood renovation and the opening of the Park Area and Nature Trails. The Nature Trails were officially opened at a ribbon-cutting ceremony at the Pre-Assembly Program this year; I was in charge of the Thanksgiving and Easter Pageants; assisted General Overseer in the June 13 Anniversary Program; the First Assembly House Program; and the Pre-Assembly Program.

Initiated and developed the Mission Markers Program; this provides funds for buildings and worship facilities in economically depressed areas of the world. Realized a great deal of success with the Program. Initiated or effected building programs in over twenty countries this year. To God be the glory and the economically depressed saints the benefits.

Taught BTI in Cleveland, TN and England; taught classes in IYC. Represented General

Headquarters in these national/state conventions: Colombia, S.A., Trinidad, W.I., Kentucky, Maryland/D.C., and Delaware/New Jersey. Represented General Headquarters in Louisiana Ministers Convention. Guest speaker in South Carolina men's retreat and Peru Leadership Conference. Held CPMA rallies and/or seminars in Maryland/D.C., Delaware/New Jersey and Kentucky; conducted revival/crusades in South Carolina, Tennessee, Kansas, Virginia, and Georgia. Attended ministers conventions in these South American countries: Venezuela, Peru, Chile, Argentina and Mexico—departmental business, and reorganization of Mexico.

The replica of the "Place of the Skull" (a Calvary scene) in Fields of the Wood is being developed.

My appreciation for the faithful assistance of our office staff, national/state secretaries, pastors and leaders, the CPMA Committee, Fields of the Wood staff and workers.

Served on the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine. Many hours were spent reading manuscripts and church-related materials for approval for printing and circulation. Served on Bible Training Institute Committee. Personally corresponded with vice presidents, state and national representatives to secure places for schools and setting in order the administration for the schools that I was directly responsible for.

God has given us another inspirational and informative year for the teaching ministry. In the classrooms, God supplied the divine unction and inspiration to teach and as a result the needs of the students were met. In all of our schools this year, this seems to be the general feeling of the students.

I appreciate the General Overseer, General Superintendent, BTI Representative, office personnel and people on the field for helping me in so many ways to serve the Church; to "God be the Glory."

Ministerial Aid Committee Report

June 1, 1984 through May 31, 1985

The Ministerial Aid Committee had 12 monthly meetings; approved 48 applications for retirement, 12 for disability, 25 widows, and 3 lay employees. Total number of applications approved this year 88. We presently have 366 receiving retirement benefits, 235 receiving disability benefits, 179 receiving widow's assistance and 13 lay employees. The total number of persons receiving Ministerial Aid benefits is 793. The Ministerial Aid Committee processed 77 death records and approved death benefits to be paid to family beneficiaries in the amount of $61,450.00. This includes 67 ministers, 7 widows of deceased ministers, 1 widower, and 2 lay employees. We provided 30 Church flags which were presented by the officiating ministers to the deceased ministers' families. A Church flag memorial certificate was sent to the families.

The ministers' Retirement Tax-Sheltered Annuity Plan presently has 327 participants, including 59 ministers who administrate their personal tax-sheltered annuities. Deferred Compensation benefits paid by the World Headquarters from individual ministers' tithes to individual ministers' annuities totaled $145,384.52.

The Ministerial Aid Committee is prayerfully concerned regarding the needs of our worthy ministers and widows. We are endeavoring to assist each applicant, as funds are available, on the basis of faithfulness in the ministry, as well as years actively engaged in ministerial service.

A beautiful "In Appreciation" certificate was presented to each recipient of Ministerial Aid for faithful service.

The Group Life Insurance Plan was administered by the home office of IDS Insurance Company from June 1, 1984 until October 1, 1984. IDS processed 33 policies resulting in $43,000.00 death benefits paid to beneficiaries of Church members.

Church Benefit Association administered the insurance accounts beginning October 1, 1984, and processed 32 policies, resulting in $37,000.00 death benefits. The total of all policies processed was 65, resulting in $80,000.00 death benefits.

We express our sincere appreciation to all departments of the Church who share their funds in support of caring for our senior ministers and their families.

WORLD MISSION COMMITTEE REPORT

June 1, 1984 through May 30, 1985

Psalm 29:1, 2. Our gratitude and thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for His goodness and mercies upon the mission work. We express our gratitude to our faithful overseers, missionaries, pastors, evangelists, World Mission Corpsmen and local workers through whose efforts 205 new churches were organized in the countries and 15,437 new members were added to the Church. Churches were set in order for the first time in Cameroon, Benin, France and Guadeloupe. Praise the Lord for this new challenge to evangelize these areas and expand into others.

1985 Youth Mission Teams visited 8 countries and reported 1,017 experiences. Twenty of our Mission Corpsmen served in 11 countries this year.

International Leadership Conferences were held this year for Central and South America. Delegates comprised leadership from all levels of the Church who reviewed the work in their respective regions, focusing on the need to promote evangelistic efforts to the unreached areas and enhance the unity of the Church through continued meaningful contacts and frequent exchanges.

Drastic currency devaluations in many of the countries continue to erode the value of their giving when measured against the U.S. Dollar, but despite this, the World Mission Drives for October and March increased U.S. $23,366.00 over last year for a total of $388,945.00.

We are keenly aware of the continued suffering of God's people in several areas of the world, and we deplore those policies under which harassment and religious persecution exist. We will continue to state this position repeatedly as a means of identifying with our people in their suffering, assuring them of our prayers and assistance. We are very much aware of the unfinished task that lies ahead and ask the prayers of the Church that our efforts will be equal to the task.

10:12 QUESTIONS AND SUBJECTS COMMITTEE REPORT

We are deeply grateful for God's mercy and grace that have been extended to His Church for another year. Our minds surely have been drawn to the hopelessness of pursuing divine work apart from divine favor. All those faithful members who are giving themselves to devout prayer and supplication are, no doubt, experiencing a deepening relationship with our Lord that is vital for fulfilling the mission to which we have been called.

We wish to offer special thanks to God for the manner in which He has strengthened and inspired our General Overseer in his leading the Church another year, and especially in the delivery of his Annual Address to this Assembly. For this we wish to offer an opportunity for all to stand now in an expression of thankfulness as we praise the Lord.

This Committee has spent much time in prayerful deliberation of the many questions and subjects which we have received. Several letters have been written in response to matters which in our judgment did not require Assembly action, while other subjects are still under consideration. For these we ask sincerely for your continued prayers.

We offer the following items for your consideration and decision.

Section 1Authorization to Perform Weddings

The 73rd Assembly in 1978 adopted the following recommendation:

"We recommend that non-permanent male evangelists, twenty-five years or over, be granted temporary permits to perform marriage ceremonies, as the necessity arises, provided they follow the instructions set forth by the General Overseer and comply with the laws of the state wherein they reside. Said permit may be requested by the non-permanent evangelist through the office of the State Overseer and should expire at the close of that calendar year. We further recommend that the permanent license be requested by the State Overseer to the office of the General Overseer.

"The said permanent license and permit to perform marriages be issued only to a male evangelist if he has:

1. Set churches in order in new fields
2. Or, if he has successfully pastored churches
3. If he has been a faithful licensed evangelist for at least two years
4. If considered eligible by the State Overseer and the General Overseer.

"Said permit or permanent license may be recalled by the Presbytery when deemed necessary."

We recommend that this section be changed to read as follows:

A minister not holding the license which authorizes the performing of marriages, who is at least twenty-one years of age, and who in the opinion of the State/National Overseer is capable of pre-marital counseling and performing marriages, may be given a special permit to do so upon the request of the State/National Overseer.

Such permit shall expire at the end of the calendar year or it may be recalled by the Presbytery when deemed necessary.

Section 2

Compilation of Assembly Rulings

In revising the book, These Necessary Things, in an endeavor to keep our people abreast of current Assembly rulings and practices in convenient form, it is apparent that many Assembly decisions are somewhat overlapping.

We recommend in the interest of brevity and greater facility that in preparing for the next edition a general revision be made of numerous (but not necessarily all) Assembly rulings now on record, bringing related rulings together into concise statements, but without changing the original intent or meaning of any; also, that it include clear reference to the Assembly Minutes in which each ruling was made official by the Assembly.

We recommend that some capable person, or persons, be selected by the Church Publishing Committee, to do the editorial and composition work on this revision, and that the final draft be approved by said committee and the General Overseer before its publication.

This book is to be kept updated by subsequent revisions as deemed necessary by the Church Publishing Committee.

In the event, during any revisions of this book, it is determined that there are subjects which require further Assembly action, the Church Publishing Committee may submit them to the proper Assembly Committee to be brought before the Assembly in due order.

It appears to this Committee that the two books, These Necessary Things and Church Business Guide, could be combined into one volume. We suggest that this possibility be explored, and if determined to be practical by the Church Publishing Committee, an appropriate title be chosen for the one new publication.

Section 3 Christian Lifestyles

An acknowledgment of a drift from a vital relationship with the Holy Ghost, along with a call for repentance, was made in the 79th Assembly. While drifting from such a relationship many have been overtaken by a materialistic hunger for things, many of which often are no more than prestige or status symbols which appeal to the fleshly pride of life. We must be concerned about the growing pervasiveness of this materialistic spirit among us.

We have tended to estimate even one another too much in terms of what they do, or do not, possess. In so doing, we have made the possession of things an unholy standard by which to measure the worth of our brothers and sisters. Our repentance must be marked by our turning from the inordinate love for material things, coupled with a commitment to lives of simplicity and moderation in all things.

The simple life is centered in the grace of God and is realized in the imitation of the life and teachings of Jesus, who for our sakes became poor that we through His poverty might be rich. He taught us by precept and example that "a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth" (Luke 12:15).

To seek "first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness" is His command to His Church, rather than all those things after which "the Gentiles" seek. Jesus has indeed called us to abandon the world's materialistic lifestyle of an endless quest for more, and to adopt the approach of self-denial for the sake of the unfinished task of taking the gospel to the world.

Since covetousness can possess the poorest among us as strongly as the richest among us, we would caution against a judgmental attitude which would be exercised against those whom the Lord has materially prospered through honorable means.

It is understood that this resistance against covetousness must be exercised voluntarily, resting upon each individual's spiritual commitment. We are yoked to Him, and it is our holy calling to keep in step with Him. We feel that the voice of this Assembly must be raised against the worldly spirit of materialism and especially against its incursion into the Body of Christ.

Report of Counseling Committee

The Counseling Committee met in five counseling sessions and spent several hours counseling with a number of people.

All persons presenting subjects to this Committee have been counseled and the subjects have been prayerfully considered, some of which we felt deserved further consideration before being presented to the presbytery or Assembly committees. Other subjects which we felt would be a blessing to the entire body have been passed on to the committees to be disposed of at their discretion.

We wish to commend all who came before this Committee for the good spirit manifested. We found a great concern among the ministry, a great love for the Church of God and its teachings, and a strong desire to promote the doctrine of the Church instead of ideas and opinions.

The Editorial Committee on Doctrine, the Questions and Subjects Committee, and the Ways and Means Committee are standing committees throughout the year and may be contacted any time on doctrinal questions or anything not clearly understood.

General Properties Committee Report

We, the members of the General Properties Committee, hereby express our thankfulness for the Lord's blessings upon our deliberations and decisions in all the matters we have considered during this Assembly year.

All the properties which are a part of our headquarters complex, along with the Tomlinson College properties, have been kept in good repair. At the White Wing Publishing House there has been some extensive remodeling with the addition of 6,000 square feet of floor space. An addition to our warehouse on Mouse Creek Road provides an additional 5,000 square feet of storage space which was much needed.

Along with the redesigning of some offices in the Assembly Tabernacle to facilitate video and television recordings of the Assembly programs, three screens and projectors were installed for the benefit of those persons seated to the rear of the speaker's platform. We feel this will be of special benefit to those who must occupy the seats equipped with head sets for translation purposes, plus others seated in the back half of the Tabernacle.

We are thankful for the cooperation we have received in all areas of our responsibility, and for the privilege to serve the Lord in this capacity.

Report of Tomlinson College Board of Trustees

August 1, 1984 through July 3, 1985

The Board of Trustees conducted two meetings during the past year: September 1984, and April 1985.

We express our sincere appreciation to the General Overseer, the laity and ministry of the Church worldwide for their support of Tomlinson College. We further acknowledge the efforts of the College President, administration, faculty, and staff. Due largely to their efforts, the Church is enabled to provide a program of study to our students that offers the distinctive blend of "Scholarship with Spirit."

Tomlinson College, a fully accredited two-year institution, continues to make progress in fulfilling its unique mission within the Church. The Board notes particularly, the success of the College in developing and providing continuing education programs such as courses by correspondence and extension classes. We covet your continued prayers on behalf of the College and its ministry to the Church.

The Board gratefully acknowledges the contribution made by William Gailey during his tenure as President. Brother Gailey has returned to a secular position at Rollins College. We express our gratitude for the dedication of Emerson Hall to the College, as demonstrated by his willingness to serve as interim President during the period, May 1, through September 30, 1985.

We are pleased to acknowledge scholarship and endowment support for the College and its program expressed by a variety of associations, professional organizations and individuals this past year. The Board acknowledges and expresses its appreciation to nations and states that have provided scholarship support for students from their respective areas.

Daniel E. Ramsey has served as Chairman this year and is completing nine years of service on the Board. To him, we express our sincerest appreciation and admiration for his continuing devotion to Tomlinson College.

White Wing Messenger

The White Wing Messenger has been the official publication of the Church since 1923. For more than sixty years this proclaimer of good tidings has been a medium for keeping our churches in close contact with General Headquarters and with one another. There is no way to estimate the value of this messenger as it makes its way regularly to the homes of thousands of all around the world.

Not only is it refreshing to learn about God's blessings upon His Church, through reports of revivals and the ingathering of souls, but the substantive content of the messages provides soul food. While a vast number of people just would not want to be without the White Wing Messenger, many of our people are not availing themselves of the blessing it could be to them.

This Committee feels that every pastor should make it an item of priority to see that no Church of God home is without the White Wing Messenger, as we should be eager to share it with non-members. God has given us a valuable tool in this vital publication finds its way into the hands of readers.

Section II Local Outreach

It has been said that our business is people. If people don't come to us and we people, we're out of business. The hour is late; therefore, we can not afford to exhaust energies within the walls of our church buildings. The seed must leave the barn. In times past, ambulances were employed for speed in delivering the sick to the hospital. They carried a few basic medical supplies; too many never made it to the hospital. There the ambulances of today are fully equipped with trained paramedics, able to begin rescue efforts immediately. In like manner, many of those we have witnessed to never made it to the church to be ministered to. The Word of God is not bound, so let us begin rescue immediately. Sharing Eternal Life, the new honor stone requirements and messages preached in this Assembly point unmistakably to outreach undertakings that will make the message and love of our Lord foremost in every community. Let us reach out and be a soul winner for Jesus (Acts 8; 16:13).

Section III Tomlinson College

Tomlinson College, as it enters twenty years as an institution of higher education and it places emphasis upon "Scholarship With Spirit," benefits the Church yearly from graduates who either take their training into the churches ministry, and/or into leadership of our local churches. TC, with renewed emphasis from all the administrations, staff members and faculty, is providing to men and women, not only an academic education, but is integrating the Holy Scripture with the education to better service the entire ministry. TC, with an enrollment of 225 and a capacity of 260 students, is looking to our parents throughout the world to lend their support. It would be good for our states and local churches to realize that their finances are needed. Presently only 55 percent of the states give Assembly offerings to support the college. Less than 60 percent of the states and nations give scholarships of any size to their students. The cost of educating a TC student is 40 percent more than the tuition the student pays. From the standpoint of cost for the students in 1984-85: it was $844,394.00, 48 percent was from Federal grants, work studies, scholarships, and incentive grants. The students borrowed 49 percent from lending institutions, with 3 percent coming from state and/or local churches. In this year of rededication for Christ and His Church, let us appropriately place our values in proper perspective and commitment to our college-age men and women: Let us help them with out support and stand by Tomlinson College with a renewed spirit of giving and prayers.

Section IV Youth Life Teams

Glory of young men is their strength . . . (Proverbs 20:29) unism, terrorism and various other "isms" have furthered their respective causes by channeling the potential of their youth. The greatest cause known to man remains the reach the gospel to every creature." (Mark 16:15) We need to channel the strength of our young people to the furtherance of this great cause. The membership of our Victory Leaders Bands are of this Assembly indicates that the potential of our annual Assembly of 1989, the Youth Life Team concept was approved by the membership of our Victory Leaders Bands are of God and the Church and are fully dedicated to the cause of the Gospel and zeal to win souls.

The Voice of Salvation

Matthew 24:14 will be fulfilled before the
...can this take place; how can we get the last days
...Oh Lord, show us the way; open doors for

For many years the Church has preached that Matthew 24:14 will be fulfilled before the ...coming of the Lord. Some have wondered, how can this take place; how can we get the last days ...message into all areas of the world? We have prayed, "Oh Lord, show us the way; open doors for Your Church."

Since this past Assembly, the Lord has opened doors in a miraculous way. He has shown that He can move when none can hinder.

Our world has become a "global community." In the 1980 census, 100 million citizens of the United States identified themselves with different cultural groups that speak about 200 different languages. We need to preach to these people in their language. Studies recently conducted reveal that these American subcultures that live in our midst are as isolated from the message of salvation here as they were in the countries of origin. This happens in spite of the fact that the Gospel is presented in the English language, 24 hours a day, every day, by means of massive communication. The reason for this is that since they don't understand the message, it loses its significance for the majority of the ethnic groups of our pluralistic nation.

We need to pray so the Lord will give us workers that could present the message of Christ and His Church through communication in many more languages—to reach people in this nation and in other nations throughout the world. This is the decade of communications, and the Church should use these means to the maximum. This year the English Voice of Salvation has expanded its coverage to reach 99 per cent of the United States through high-powered radio stations.

In the United States, there are more than 23 million Hispanics, making this the fifth largest Spanish-speaking nation in the world. These people need to be reached, so God has allowed us to have 25 radio stations in the most densely Hispanic populated areas that are broadcasting the Spanish Voice of Salvation.

We need to pray for God to give us the vision of the importance and potential this mas communication media, offers to the Church.

By the help of the Lord, a network of shortwave stations has also been scheduled. T this network, two-thirds of the world can now hear the Gospel preached by Church ministers. People in the Soviet Union, Iran, China or Africa, and all through Latin able to hear the message of Jesus Christ and the last days Church of God. No of the Church broadcast over this shortwave network in English, but al Greek. Millions can hear the message in their language. The Lord sr cut it short in righteousness. Who knows? Maybe He has st of cable television stations there have been many req
the Church. The Voice of Salvation ministers ha pective. These programs in English, will be available in the near future so they may be used in the promotion of the last days message and will deal with issues that face our society and give a Bible answer to the problems. Let us pray that the Lord will help us to fill the world with His doctrine. (Isaiah 40:9)

Section VI

Fishers of Men . . . Soul Winners for Jesus

This Committee shares the fervency of our General Overseer's challenge to be Soul Winners for Jesus! It is time to give priority to our supreme task of winning lost souls and discipling them.

Consider the true account of Flight 401 which was bound for Miami from New York City loaded with holiday passengers. As the huge aircraft approached the airport, the light that indicates proper deployment of the landing gear failed to come on. The plane flew in a large looping circle over the Everglades, while the high-priced crew checked out the light failure. Their question was, had the landing gear actually not deployed or was it just the light bulb that was defective? First, the flight engineer fiddled with the bulb. He tried to remove it . . . then another crew member tried, then another. Finally, all eyes were on the little light bulb . . . and no one noticed that the plane was losing altitude . . . and then, it dropped right into a swamp . . . killing a number of people!

While the experienced crew messed around with a seventy-five cent light bulb—an entire airplane and many passengers were lost. They forgot the most basic of all rules of the air—don't forget to fly the airplane!

This can happen to a local church. The leadership crew can become so engrossed with insignificant matters, they lose sight of the primary objective of the church. We can become too preoccupied with "things" rather than ministering to the needs of people.

Too many churches are not "fishers of men" but are merely "keepers of an aquarium." It has been estimated that the average church member has heard 6,000 sermons, prayed 10,000 prayers, sung 20,000 hymns, but has won zero sinners to Christ!

Church, we must take this seriously! The supreme task of the Church is not merely to "hold the fort" till Jesus comes. The truth is we may lose our own people if we do not get them involved in personal soul winning! We must never forget that the Holy Ghost was not given as a nursing mother to fretful children, but as the Captain of a mighty host. Our song should be, "Like a Mighty Army Moves the Church of God!"

The Public Relations Department has developed an inspirational plan called Layman's Community Outreach, which emphasizes personal soul winning as the daily life style for Christians. Let us give attention to this plan as well as our Sharing Eternal Life thrust for soul-winning preparation.

Come on Church, let us accept our responsibility. The call to each of us from the Lord is to follow Me and I will make you fishers of men!

Ways and Means Committee Report

We, your Ways and Means Committee, after much prayer and careful consideration, wish to submit the following report:

WHEREAS, James Stone, Jr. and Hector Ortiz have served the General Assembly so faithfully as members of the Ways and Means Committee for several years, we wish to extend our sincere appreciation for their dedicated contribution while serving on this Committee.

SECTION 1 TITHING

“Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation. Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.” (Malachi 3:8-10)

As the Church has sought to understand those principles in which God delights, the conclusion was reached many years ago that tithing is approved by God.

The paying of tithes by Abraham was not an empty ritual which he felt compelled to perform: rather, his giving of the tithes to Melchizedek was the result of sincere worship and gratitude to God for His blessings. The enemies had been captured, Lot and the people who were taken captive were released, and all the goods were brought back. The scripture says in Genesis 14:20, “. . . And he [Abraham] gave him [Melchizedek, the king of Salem and Priest] tithes of all.”

The Scripture reveals that others would use this means to express their gratitude to God. This pleased God so much that Israel, His holy nation, was given, in God's law to them, tithing as one of the means in which they could have His pleasure.

Judah was in need of the blessings of God. The Prophet Malachi instructed them as to the things they must do in order to receive from heaven these blessings. Tithing and giving into the storehouse—God's house—were included. Their withholding of these was called “robbing God.” Their forgetting God and their ingratitude to Him had brought a curse upon them. This curse had sealed the windows of heaven.

In the 79th General Assembly, General Overseer M. A. Tomlinson stated: “When His people fail to tithe, the greatest tragedy is not the loss of finances to the Church; it is the loss of blessings suffered by the people who fail to worship in a manner which He approves. And God who owns the cattle on a thousand hills is not robbed so much of material assets as He is robbed of His people's devotion.”

Tithing does provide meat in the Lord's house, but more than that, it opens the windows of heaven. The Church of God needs the financial benefits derived from all her people, both ministers and members, being faithful in these matters, but most of all, we need the “pouring out” of God's blessings upon us.

God says, “Prove me.” Church of God, there is no other way except God's way. Let's prove Him this year!

We recommend that an annual tithing drive be promoted in the months of January, February and March. Also, that the White Wing Publishing House make available promotional materials for the State and National offices to mail to the local churches for this special drive.

We recommend that the State and National offices fill out the form and send to each local church, listing the tithes paid into that treasury in these months of the previous year, and that the local church fill in the information for this year and mail it back to the respective State/National office. This will allow the Overseers to review what has been accomplished during this drive.

SECTION 2 ALLOTMENT ADJUSTMENTS

Under the present financial system, page 139 of the 1984 Assembly Minutes, it reads:

"The Assembly recommends that the Executive Committee be authorized to adjust the allotments for Pastors, State Overseers and General Workers from year to year based on the previous year's cost of living index."

We recommend this be changed to read as follows:

"We recommend that the Executive Committee be authorized to decide the allotments of Pastors, State Overseers and General Workers each year."

SECTION 3 RENT AND UTILITIES ALLOTMENT

Under the present financial system, page 139 of the 1984 Assembly Minutes, it reads:

"We recommend that the sum of $550 received each month by the General Appointees and State Overseers be designated for rent and utilities. Should the rent and utilities be under the above amount, the remaining amount would be included as income. Where feasible, this is also applicable to pastors and full-time evangelists. (NOTE: This recommendation is for income tax purposes only and involves no extra allotment.)"

We recommend this be changed to read:

"We recommend that $800 of the allotment received each month by the General Appointees and State Overseers be designated for rent and utilities where applicable. Should the rent and utilities be under the above amount, the remaining amount would be included as income. Where feasible, this is also applicable to pastors and full-time evangelists and State Workers. (NOTE: This recommendation is for income tax purposes only and involves no extra allotment.)"

If applicable, the State Finance and Appropriations Committee must draft a resolution for the State Overseer and State Workers. Also, the local church conference must draft a resolution for the Pastor, each setting a reasonable amount for the rent and utilities. This amount should not exceed the $800.

SECTION 4

LOCAL CHURCH FINANCE COMMITTEE

We recommend that the local church finance committee be called the Finance and Appropriations Committee, which would be responsible to recommend to the local church conference the disbursement of the local church's portion of surplus tithes. This committee could also be used to assist the Pastor, should he deem it necessary, in formulating other financial recommendations to the conference.

SECTION 5

PERSONAL FUND-RAISING

We would like to bring to your attention the 1962 Assembly Minutes, section 8, page 134, which reads:

"In the past, missionaries and other workers have conducted fund-raising campaigns among the various states, raising money for the country to which they have been assigned or for other projects. We recommend that all campaigns of this nature be approved by the General Overseer and the State Overseer of the state in which they expect to work. All funds raised in such campaigns should be given to the local church treasurer who will, on the first day of the month, send it to the General Treasurer with the information as to its intended use.

"This recommendation does not include love offerings given to these workers for their personal use."

We recommend this be changed to read:

"In the past, missionaries and other workers have conducted fund-raising campaigns among the various states, raising money for the country to which they have been assigned, or for other projects. We recommend that all campaigns of this nature be approved by the General Overseer and by the State Overseer of the state in which they expect to work. All funds raised in such campaigns should be given to the local church treasurer, who will send it, along with his monthly report, to the General Treasurer with the information as to its intended use.

"This recommendation does not include love offerings given to these workers for their use."

SECTION 6

LOCAL CHURCH'S PORTION OF SURPLUS TITHES AND PASTOR'S EXPENSES

Under the present financial system, page 112 of the 11th Edition of These Necessary Things, it reads:

"The General Assembly has authorized that first consideration be given to the Pastor's expenses when disbursing surplus tithes. The amount of surplus tithes proposed for the Pastor's expenses be determined through love and unity of the Spirit"

QUESTION: What is meant by "first consideration be given to the Pastor's expenses"?

ANSWER: First consideration means a reimbursement be given to the Pastor for expenses incurred as a direct result of his/her ministry, where funds are available. The Pastor's expenses should be given first priority.

We recommend that the Pastor submit to the local church Finance and Appropriations Committee a statement of expenses for the fiscal year ending the last Sunday of June. The total amount agreed upon by the committee will be presented to the church conference for their approval of disbursement.

SECTION 7 FOURTH SUNDAY OFFERING

The General Assembly has designated the fourth Sunday offering to be received as an expense offering for the State/National Overseer as a means of keeping him on the field.

We refer to the 11th Edition of These Necessary Things, page 109, which states:

"The fourth Sunday is set by the General Assembly for every local church to receive an expense offering for the Overseer of the State or Nation."

Presently 90% is designated to the State/National Overseer and 10% to the State or National treasury.

The Assembly also designates that should the Overseer's expenses exceed the fourth Sunday offering, the excess tithes, if there are any in the treasury, may be used to supplement the fourth Sunday offering.

After careful review and consideration of this subject, we recommend that the State/National Overseer receive the full amount of the fourth Sunday offering which shall continue to be designated and used as Overseer's expenses.

SECTION 8 CONCLUSION

All other financial matters not amended or adjusted by this report are to be continued as before and will be listed in the Assembly Minutes under the heading "Present Financial System," These Necessary Things, and Church Business Guide.

We also acknowledge all letters and requests that have been submitted to this Committee and appreciate the concern of our people everywhere. You are to be commended for your tireless efforts and devotion to the cause of Christ and His Church, remembering 1 Corinthians 15:58.

12:59 The General Overseer thanked the Father, Son and Holy Ghost and all who assisted in the General Assembly. He called H. L. Martin to platform and told how he attained his goal of 500 members in Toronto, Canada. He stated: the church was organized in 1969 with 3 members; in 1985, there are 519 members. People is our vision; I love people; work sixteen hours a day for the Church. Go where the people are.

1:05 Ministers' Consecration Service: "Heaven Will Be Worth It All"—song arranged by the Cowan Sisters. Female ministers prayed; male ministers prayed; all prayed in concert.

Present Financial System

NOTE TO MINISTERS AND TREASURERS: Fill in all reports accurately and completely. Write or print plainly. If assistance is needed, write to L. F. Kendrick, Box 2970, Cleveland, Tennessee 37311-2970.

TITHES: Members should pay their tithes into the treasury of the local church where they are members. Ministers send the tithes of income from the ministry with their monthly reports to the General Treasurer, and tithes on income outside the ministry are paid into the treasury of the local church where they are members.

The treasurer of the church is to send 10 per cent of tithes received each month with the treasurer's report to the appropriate address.

United States, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands—L. F. Kendrick, Box 2970 Cleveland, Tennessee 37311-2970.

Other reports should be addressed to The Church of God of Prophecy, General Headquarters Field Office in your respective area, or contact your Overseer.

The Assembly recommends that the Executive Committee be authorized to decide the allotments of Pastors, State Overseers and General Workers each year.

The Assembly recommends that the allotment of the General Overseer and that pay for incidental expenses plus any and all personal necessities be left to the discretion of the Executive Committee.

The treasurer of the local church sends 10% of the tithes received each month to the treasurer of his state or nation and 10% to General Treasurer. The pastor's allotment is paid from the balance, not to exceed the amount set by the Executive Committee; any remainder goes into the surplus tithes.

We recommend that the sum of $800 received each month by the General Appointees and the State Overseers be designated for rent and utilities. Should the rent and utilities be under the above amount, the remaining amount would be included as income. Where feasible, this is also applicable to pastors and full-time evangelists. (Note: This recommendation is for income tax purposes only, and involves no extra allotment.)

Surplus tithes accruing in any local church are to be left in the tithe fund account of the local church treasury until after the last Sunday in June, at which time it is properly divided: 10% to be sent to the General Treasurer to be used at the discretion of the Executive Committee; 25% to be sent to the state or national treasurer to be used at the discretion of the State or National Overseer and Finance and Appropriations Committee and the 65% left in the local church should be presented by the local Committee as a proposed budget plan for approval by the local church conference. First consideration be given to the pastor's expense in the ministry; said expenses being already defined in the Church Business Guide.

The Assembly recommends that all local church treasurers mail their reports to the state or national treasurer no later than the 5th of each month. From the funds received, the State or National Overseer would receive his allotment and expense (if funds are available) according to the rulings of the General Assembly.

The Executive Committee agrees that all General Appointees receive an allotment of $1,729.00 monthly, if funds are available; and that incidental expense incurred by these General Appointees be left to the discretion of the Executive Committee.

Overseers in the United States are to receive no more than $1,729.00 monthly, plus an amount not to exceed $200 a month for office expenses from the tithes received from the churches, if funds are available. Any funds in excess of this amount received by the treasurer are to be kept in the state treasury to be placed in the general state fund for the state work, especially to assist pastors of weaker churches.

The Executive Committee agrees that the pastor receive an amount not to exceed $1,729.00 monthly from the tithes of the local church after General Headquarters and the State Overseer have received their portions, if funds are available. This does not include offerings and poundings received by the pastor.

Allotments for Overseers outside the United States where there is not sufficient tithes to cover the allotments the remaining portion be supplied by making transfers of Tithe Funds between countries where this is legally permissible and from the United States Tithe Fund in other cases, if funds are available, and that each Overseer should receive an allotment in the currency of the country or the territory he represents according to the average prevailing wage rates of each country.

The Assembly has ruled that tithes are for the support of the ministry only. Surplus tithes received at General Headquarters are disbursed at the discretion of the Executive Committee. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all tithes sent to General Headquarters. We recommend that the tithes of non-members that are paid into the local church treasury be paid through the regular channel the same as the tithes of members.

The Committee calls your attention to the fact that it does not say of ministers only; rather, of the ministry only. Ministry is defined as the office, duties, or functions of a minister; the building in which the business of the ministry is transacted; thus, the ministry includes any and all phases of the Church ministry, such as church property, equipment, maintenance, etc.

HERITAGE CARE FUND: [Mission Homes for Children] All Heritage Care Fund offerings remain in the local church treasury and are turned in at the state/national convention and Assembly. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 10% to be returned to the local church; 20% to be retained by the state/national treasury for improving, building and maintaining the headquarters; the remaining balance to be subsequently divided: 10% to the general treasury, 10% to the state/national treasury, 10% to Ministerial Aid, 35% to Tomlinson College and 35% to Mission Homes for Children. The General Treasurer sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state/nation to the respective state/national treasurer for the general state/national fund. The Assembly has recommended that 10% of the Assembly offerings of the Heritage Care Fund be retained by General Headquarters for General Properties, 40% for Tomlinson College and 40% for Mission Homes for Children.

EMERGENCY FUND: All ministers and members are to pay one dollar a year, or the amount set by the World Mission Committee where applicable, into the treasury of the local churches where their memberships are, and the treasurer sends the emergency dollars as collected with his monthly report. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all emergency money sent to General Headquarters.

GENERAL PROPERTIES FUND: The Assembly recommended that the General Property Dollar be discontinued.

The Assembly recommends these portions be designated as General Properties Fund:

1. Not less than 50% of the CPMA membership each year after 10% is deducted for Ministerial Aid;
2. 50% of the CPMA state convention offerings which presently remain in the state treasury;
3. 10% of the state and national convention offerings and Assembly offerings of Bible Training Institute.
4. 10% of the Assembly offerings of Heritage Care Fund.

The Assembly recommends that if there should be any deficit occurring in the General Properties Fund in making the monthly payments, such deficit be paid from the General Fund.

MISSION MONEY: The second Sunday mission offering and mission money raised by other means remain in the local church treasury and are turned in at the state and national convention and Assembly. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 10% to be returned to the local church; for the improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state convention mission offering is to remain in the state treasury. The General Treasurer receives 10% of the balance and the state treasurer keeps 10%, or an equal amount. Half of the remainder (40% of the balance after the state deducts the state headquarters maintenance portion) is left in the state for the general state fund, and half sent to the General Treasurer as world mission money.

The General Treasurer receives all mission money collected in the March and October drives for world missions. It is to be sent with the local treasurer's monthly report. All mission offerings at the Assembly are turned in to the General Treasurer as world mission money. The General Treasurer sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of the mission money sent to the General Treasurer.

FIRST SUNDAY OFFERING: Each local church receives an offering for the pastor on the first Sunday of each month.

DISTRICT OVERSEERS SUPPORT: The Assembly recommends that a love offering be received for the district overseer in his district convention. If the district overseer is requested by the State Overseer to perform a duty involving considerable expense, the State Overseer will be responsible for such expense.

FOURTH SUNDAY OFFERING: The local church treasurer sends the full amount of the Fourth Sunday offering to the State/National Treasurer to be designated and used as Overseer's expense. If there is not sufficient fourth Sunday offerings to cover his expense as Overseer, the excess tithes in the state treasury may be used to supplement the fourth Sunday offerings. DO NOT send any of the fourth Sunday offerings to the General Treasurer. Each local church should receive poundings for the Overseer once or twice a year.

VICTORY LEADERS OFFERING: All money raised for the Free Literature Fund by the Victory Leaders is given in at the state or national convention and Assembly. Money for the expense of the band should be received in a special offering. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 10% to be returned to the local church; for the improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state or national convention free literature offering is left in the state treasury. The General Treasurer receives 10% of the balance and the state treasurer retains 20% for the general state fund. The balance is sent to the White Wing Publishing House. The Assembly Free Literature Offering is given to the World Language Department. The White Wing Publishing House sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all free literature and world literature outreach monies received by the White Wing Publishing House, and the balance is disbursed by the Church Publishing Committee.

ASSEMBLY EXPENSE: To assist in the expense of the annual assemblies, the State Overseers are asked to collect funds each year and send to the General Treasurer.

a. The Assembly recommends that churches having less than 50 in Sunday School contribute annually $2.00 to Assembly expense; churches with Sunday School attendance between 50 and 100 are to contribute $3.00 annually; and churches averaging over 100 in Sunday School are to contribute $5.00 annually.

b. The Assembly recommends that each Victory Leaders Band contribute $2.00 annually; the Assembly recommends that each Women's Missionary Band contribute $2.00 annually, and that each minister, including deacons and lay ministers, contribute $1.00 annually.

c. The Assembly recommends that the pastors be responsible for collecting the Assembly Expense Dollars for the auxiliaries and forward to the State Overseer, and the State Overseer be responsible to collect the dollars from the ministers in his state. These funds are to be mailed to the General Treasurer as collected. The final report of the Assembly expense should be given by the Overseer with the state convention report to the General Treasurer, and the State Secretaries be responsible to the State Overseer to boost and assist in collecting these funds.

CHURCH OF PROPHECY MARKER ASSOCIATION: To be a member of the Church of Prophecy Marker Association, you pay $5.00 a year, and it may be paid any time during the year. For the local church to receive credit in the Honor Program, it must be paid before the honor sheet is filled in by the pastor; in other nations, to become a member you pay an amount set by the Overseer and CPMA Committee.

CPMA offerings remain in the local church treasury and are given in at the state convention. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 10% to be returned to the local church; 20% of the CPMA state convention offering remains in the state treasury for improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters; 10% of the balance is sent to the General Treasurer, and an equal amount, or 10% is sent to the state treasurer for the state work, and an equal amount, or 10% is sent to the General Treasurer for the Ministerial Aid Fund. Of the amount presently remaining in the state treasury, 50% is to be sent to the General Treasurer for the General Properties Fund. Not less than 50% of CPMA membership fees each year, after 10% is deducted for Ministerial Aid, is to go to the General Properties Fund.

BIBLE TRAINING INSTITUTE: The Assembly recommends that the pastors be responsible for conducting weekly classes in the local churches to acquaint our people with the doctrine and practices of the Church. Offerings received in the classes are turned in at the state convention to assist Bible Training Institute in teaching the Church doctrine in other nations. It is recommended that 10% of state and national convention offerings and Assembly offerings of Bible Training Institute be sent to General Headquarters for the General Properties Fund.

Deeds for Church Property

The following resolution was adopted by the 58th Annual Assembly of the Church of God of Prophecy, held in Cleveland, Tennessee, September 10-16, 1963:

WHEREAS it has been advised by competent attorneys that specific mention of proper authorities be stated in an effort to ease the complications arising in our endeavors to be recognized by the courts, and to facilitate the handling of deeds to our church properties,

BE IT RESOLVED that trustees to hold title to local church property for the Church of God of Prophecy with international headquarters at Cleveland, Tennessee, be selected by the local church either in a regular or called business meeting, said trustees to be vested with authority to bargain, buy, sell, convey or encumber such property by mortgage or otherwise only when authorized to do so by the local church in regular or called business meeting, and with the consent of the General Trustees.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said consent of the General Trustees be evidenced by a separate writing or by the signature of the Chief Clerk of the said General Trustees, such documents to be notarized.

BE IT RESOLVED that state church trustees appointed by the State Overseer to hold title to property for the Church of God of Prophecy with international headquarters at Cleveland, Tennessee, be vested with authority to bargain, buy, sell, convey, or encumber such property by mortgage with the consent of the General Trustees. This applies to property being held by state trustees where churches have been disbanded or are too weak to function and to property which has been given to the state. All other property with title in the state trustees or a state Holding Association may be disposed of or mortgaged only by the consent of the state convention in session (modified in 1981).

Note: The following Warranty Deed form has been prepared by the General Trustees and should be used where it is possible to do so. Blank forms may be secured from the General Trustees.

World Must Be Evangelized

It will take good organization and systematic methods to accomplish this task.

God's power is demonstrated in proportion to the unity and oneness of His people.

The members of the early Church were all of one accord, steadfast in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and the multitude that believed were of one heart and one soul, and great grace was upon them all and mighty results followed as a consequence of their perfect unity and careful organization.

We must banish from our minds the thoughts of individual or local independence and haphazard spasmodic efforts.

Pull together, pull at once, pull steadily all the time is the road to success.

All members should be ready to center their minds and prayers on the one thing, as a unit, when calls for special prayer are made. Each should feel his or her part of the responsibility, remembering that when one member fails, it cripples or dwarfs the body until the matter pending may fail.

Local Church Officers and Leaders

1. Pastor: It is the duty of the State or National Overseer to supply every church under his jurisdiction with a pastor. Pastors are to be appointed at the state or national convention and vacancies will be filled as they occur. The duties of the pastor expire at midnight the last Sunday in July at the church he is leaving and automatically begin at the same time at the church to which he is moving.

2. Clerk: The local church clerk is to be appointed by the pastor at the same time as the other leaders and officers by the pastor during the first two months of his pastoral year; said appointments to be ratified in the following quarterly conference.

3. Treasurer: The treasurer is appointed in the same manner as the clerk. It is advised that one person serve as both clerk and treasurer when satisfactory to the local church. The treasurer will receive and disburse all funds of the local church including tithes, auxiliary funds and special funds and will maintain an accurate record of all receipts and disbursements.

4. Auxiliary Leaders: Leaders for the five auxiliaries—Sunday School, Womens Missionary Band, Victory Leaders Band, Church of Prophecy Marker Association, Assembly Band Movement—are appointed by the pastor during the first two months of his pastoral year.

Each pastor, with the assistance of the deacons, should divide his members into bands of ten or twelve and appoint a leader for each band. The leader should keep in touch with each member of the band, and if any should move away, communication should be kept up by correspondence. This is for the mutual, spiritual, temporal, and social benefit of the members. The pastor should keep in close touch with the band leaders.

5. Local Trustees: Trustees to hold title to local church property are selected by the local church in a regular or called business meeting and are authorized to bargain, buy, sell, convey or encumber the local property only when authorized to do so by the local church in a regular or called business meeting, and with the written consent of the General Trustees.

6. Other Officers and Leaders: The Assembly has authorized the pastor to appoint a Church Literature Representative, Public Relations Director, Bible Training Institute Booster and any other leaders during the first two months of his pastoral year.

Business Meetings

Each local church should hold a regular business conference quarterly. It has been the practice to observe the first Monday night in January, April, July, and October for the conference. A meeting may be called any time by the pastor or State Overseer. A short business meeting may be held at the beginning or close of a meeting for worship.

The pastor should act as moderator of all business meetings. If there is no pastor, the State Overseer has authority to act or appoint a licensed male minister to preside. Where one pastor has the care of several churches, he may arrange the business meetings for his convenience.

Every member should attend every business session if possible. Women are to take no open part in discussing or deciding questions, but should always be there and silently pray that God will give wisdom and direct the men.

Matters should be discussed with love, humility and meekness. No votes should be taken to decide questions. Everything should be done with one accord and questions settled by mutual agreement. If there is division on a matter, hold it over until all can agree. If one should seem obstinate and contrary, do not run the matter over him, but take up his case and investigate the cause of his obstinacy; if he shows a good spirit so that he can be heard, then show him courtesy. If he proves to be wrong, deal with him as the Bible directs. Then, take up the original subject and dispose of it in harmony and love.

If a matter cannot be settled satisfactorily by the local church, they should call for the assistance of the State Overseer. If they are still unable to reach a satisfactory conclusion, it should be referred to the General Overseer.

No one should give a message in tongues to the church unless there is an interpreter present, and then only one at a time and not more than three in a whole session.

Suggested Arrangement and Order of Business

Moderator, clerk, treasurer should occupy seats on the platform. Deacons and other ministers seated nearby.

Song service and prayer. Scripture lesson, and prayer by the moderator asking for wisdom and direction. Song.

Clerk read minutes of last regular meeting and any called meetings.

Correction of minutes, if any.

Treasurer give report of finances and always give an itemized statement of receipts and disbursements and balance in treasury.

Leader of the WMB give report of the work of the band, including finances, receipts and disbursements.

Victory Leaders Director give report of the work and progress of the band, including finances, receipts, and disbursements.

Pastor give report of the ABM work, amount of money raised monthly, numbr of strays found and brought back (Luke 15:4-6), and give account of every member of his flock (Hebrews 13:17).

Report of CPMA Leader—number of members and receipts.

The Sunday School Superintendent give report of the work and progress of the school, including finances, receipts and disbursements.

Report of church literature representative.

Report of non-preaching and trial deacons and lay ministers.

Acceptance of transfers.

Members to transfer.

Unfinished business.

New business.

Miscellaneous business.

Adjournment by prayer.

Advice to Members

As a member, you count one and should attend every regular service as far as possible. Remember no one can fill you place and the service will be that much dwarfed and crippled without your presence.

Show love and fellowship to everyone without partiality. Don't wait for others to greet you but you greet them.

Show special courtesy to strangers who may attend one of your services.

As a rule, take part in the singing.

Be ready for vocal prayer when called on or prompted by the Spirit.

Be ready for testimony when such is in order.

Stand by your pastor or appointed leader and assist him in every way you can.

Always pray silently for the preacher while he delivers the message. Always live a consecrated life at home and abroad so no one can justly think or speak of you as a hypocrite.

Guard your conversation. Be careful what you say about a brother, sister, or anyone else.

Don't be a critic and try to find something in others to criticize.

Examine yourself occasionally and see if you are in the faith.

Don't yield to discouragement or despondency.

Be cheerful and happy and try to make others the same.

Spend as much time as you can in secret prayer. Give yourself all you can to intercessory prayer. Daily prayers and study of God's Word are necessary and very important for the spiritual welfare of each child of God; therefore, everyone is urged to faithfully maintain as far as is possible family worship at home at least once a day.

Your dress should be with moderation, neat and clean, but not for show. Moderation includes paying moderate prices for clothing, wearing dresses of high-enough necklines, low-enough hemlines, sleeves of reasonable length. The wearing of extremely sheer fabrics is unbecoming to a saint and the wearing of shorts in public should never be practiced. You should never wear gold for ornament or decoration. Finger rings, bracelets, earrings, necklaces, locketts and large showy pins—these are also unbecoming to a saint of God. Rouge, lipstick, nail polish and extremely costly perfumes are used to satisfy the pride of life and therefore they should have no place in the lives of those who love God. Please read and study these Scriptures often: 1 Peter 3:3, 4; 1 Timothy 2:9, 10 and 1 John 2:15-17.

You should not permit yourself to be trapped by worldly attractions. The Bible says, "Neither give place to the devil." Dabbling with worldly amusements like professional ball-games, horseraces, stockcar races, wrestling arenas, skating rinks, motion picture houses or drive-in theaters, bowling alleys and going swimming where men and women both use the same bathing area would give the devil a foothold or place in your life.

Always tithe your income and put it in the church treasury. Make freewill offerings other than your tithes.

Younger members should not keep company or associate too intimately with worldly outsiders.

Because of the ever-increasing number of broken homes, separations, divorces and remarriages, the greatest care should be taken with much prayer and consideration regarding proposed matrimony.

A member who may have a living companion should not marry another under any circumstances even if divorced. Neither should a member marry anyone who has a living companion although such a person may be divorced.

Children are an heritage from the Lord. Those who have children are responsible to teach them at an early age to reverence the house of God. This should be done by setting a good example before them and by instructing them with such a good spirit that they will have a strong desire to serve the Lord. MINISTERS are to meet all of the requirements in being examples to the members by keeping their children under reasonable control at all times and by restraining them from running about over the house of God, especially while the services are in progress.

The White Wing Messenger is a very important part of the Church of God. It should be read regularly by every member and your interest in advertising the Church should be so great that when you have finished reading your copy, you would pass it along to someone else. Every member who possibly can should subscribe, and each minister is asked to be a "paid-up" subscriber and an earnest worker for our church paper—The White Wing Messenger.

These are the last days and perilous times have come and it will require much watchfulness and humble prayer for you to so live and act that you will never bring reproach on the worthy name of Christ and His Church that you so much love.

Never form too close an intimacy with the opposite sex even if they are brothers and sisters in the Lord. Give no place to the adversary. Abstain from the very appearance of evil.

These kindly instructions and advices are given by those who are watching for your soul as they must give an account (Hebrews 13:17), and it is hoped they will be received with the same meek, gentle spirit in which they are given.

Duties of State and National Overseers

Each overseer is to have the oversight of his state, nation or territory, and together with the General Overseer, will form the presbytery in his respective area. In addition to his general responsibility for the work under his jurisdiction, he will be responsible for specific duties:

To conduct or order a general evangelistic campaign during the year. If there are only a few churches in the state or area assigned him, he will serve primarily as an evangelist, evangelizing in new fields and endeavoring to establish new churches. If his area has a large number of churches and ministers, he will be responsible to organize and direct the evangelistic efforts of his workers in new fields.

To see that every church is supplied with a pastor.

To divide his state or territory into districts and place over each district an overseer as previously practiced. This is not a rule, but it is considered best when there are sufficient churches to make it practical. He should conduct district meetings at intervals during the year where special instructions concerning the work can be given.

To hold one general convention each year in the area most convenient for members from all the churches to attend.

To secure the name and address of every bishop, deacon, and evangelist under his jurisdiction and keep a record of these so he can report to the General Overseer, if necessary. He will also issue lay minister's certificates and keep the necessary records concerning them.

Keep an accurate record of the location of every church and the number of members in his territory, keeping a record of the increase so this information can be reported each year. This can be done by keeping in touch with the clerks of the churches. Every minister and clerk should take an interest in imparting this information to the overseer. All new organizations should be reported to the overseer.

To visit every district and church, if possible, and look after the interests in every way, as a pastor over a large circuit.

Duties of District Overseer

The district overseers are to be appointed by the State Overseer:

To moderate business conferences for women preachers who may be acting as pastors and for male pastors who are not licensed.

To do evangelistic work in his district. If he has a district with no churches, it is his duty to evangelize and organize churches.

To conduct district conventions according to the instructions of the State Overseer.

To assist the State Overseer, when called upon, in all things relating to church work and he is subject to the State Overseer.

Obligation for Membership in the Church of God of Prophecy

Will you sincerely promise in the presence of God and these witnesses that you will accept this Bible as the Word of God—believe and practice its teachings rightly divided—the New Testament as your rule of faith and practice, government and discipline, and walk in the light to be best of your knowledge and ability?

The minister who administers this obligation should see that every applicant replies in the affirmative. In taking the obligation, applicants should think of it as being a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

Teachings of the Church of God of Prophecy

The Church of God of Prophecy stands for the whole Bible rightly divided—the New Testament as the only rule of government and discipline.

Important Bible Truths:

REPENTANCE—Mark 1:15; Luke 13:3; Acts 3:19.

JUSTIFICATION—Romans 5:19; Titus 3:7.

REGENERATION—Matthew 19:28; Titus 3:5.

BORN AGAIN—John 3:3; 1 Peter 1:23; 1 John 3:9.

SANCTIFICATION subsequent to Justification—Romans 5:2; 1 Corinthians 1:30; 1 Thessalonians 4:3; Hebrews 13:12; 1 John 1:9.

HOLINESS—Luke 1:74, 75; 1 Thessalonians 4:7; Hebrews 12:14.

WATER BAPTISM—Matthew 28:19; Mark 1:8-10; John 3:22, 23; Acts 8:21, 36-38; 10:47, 48; 16:33; 19:3-5.

BAPTISM WITH THE HOLY GHOST subsequent to cleansing, the enduement of power for service—Matthew 3:11; Luke 24:49-53; Acts 1:4-8.

SPEAKING IN TONGUES as the evidence of the Baptism with the Holy Ghost—John 15:26; Acts 2:4; 10:44-46; 19:6.

FULL RESTORATION OF THE GIFTS TO THE CHURCH—1 Corinthians 12:1, 7-10, 28, 31; 1 Corinthians 14:1.

SIGNS FOLLOWING BELIEVERS—Mark 16:17-20; Romans 15:18, 19; Hebrews 2:4.

FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT—Romans 6:22; Galatians 5:22, 23; Ephesians 5:9; Philippians 1:11.

DIVINE HEALING provided for all in the atonement—Psalm 103:3; Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17; James 5:14-16; 1 Peter 2:24.

THE LORD'S SUPPER—Luke 22:17-20; 1 Corinthians 11:23-33.

WASHING THE SAINTS FEET—John 13:4-17; 1 Timothy 5:10.

TITHING AND GIVING—Genesis 14:18-20; 28:20-22; Malachi 3:10; Matthew 23:23; Luke 11:42; 1 Corinthians 16:2; 2 Corinthians 9:6-9; Hebrews 7:1-21.

RESTITUTION WHERE POSSIBLE—Matthew 3:8; Luke 19:8, 9; Romans 13:8.

PRE-MILLENNIAL SECOND COMING OF JESUS: First, to resurrect the dead saints and to catch away the living saints to meet Him in the air—Matthew 24:27, 28; 1 Corinthians 15:51, 52; 1 Thessalonians 4:15-17. Second, to reign on earth a thousand years—Zechariah 14:4, 5; Luke 1:32; 1 Thessalonians 4:14; 2 Thessalonians 1:7-10; Jude 14, 15; Revelation 5:10; 19:11-21; 20:4-6.

RESURRECTION—Isaiah 26:19; Daniel 12:2; John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15; Revelation 20:5, 6.

ETERNAL LIFE FOR THE RIGHTEOUS—Matthew 25:46; Luke 18:30; John 10:28; Romans 6:22; 1 John 5:11-13.

ETERNAL PUNISHMENT FOR THE WICKED no liberation nor annihilation—Matthew 25:41-46; Mark 3:29; 2 Thessalonians 1:8, 9; Revelation 20:10-15; 21:8.

TOTAL ABSTINENCE FROM ALL LIQUOR OR STRONG DRINKS—Proverbs 20:1; 23:29-32; Isaiah 28:7; 1 Corinthians 5:11; 6:10; Galatians 5:21.

AGAINST THE USE OF TOBACCO IN ANY FORM, OPIUM, MORPHINE, ETC.—Isaiah 55:2; 1 Corinthians 10:31, 32; 2 Corinthians 7:1; Ephesians 5:3-8; James 1:21.

ON MEATS AND DRINKS—Romans 14:2, 3, 17; 1 Corinthians 8:8; 1 Timothy 4:1-5.

ON THE SABBATH—Hosea 2:11; Romans 13:1, 2; Romans 14:5, 6; Colossians 2:16, 17.

AGAINST WEARING GOLD FOR ORNAMENT or decoration such as finger rings, bracelets, earrings, locketts, etc.—Isaiah 52:2; 1 Peter 3:3; 1 John 2:16.

AGAINST BELONGING TO LODGES—Matthew 5:34; John 18:20; 2 Corinthians 6:14-17; James 5:12.

AGAINST SWEARING—Matthew 5:34; James 5:12.

AGAINST DIVORCE AND REMARRIAGE EVIL—Matthew 5:32; 14:3, 4; 19:3-12; Mark 10:12; Luke 16:18; Romans 7:2, 3; 1 Corinthians 5:1-5, 13; 6:9, 13, 16-18; 7:2, 10, 11; Revelation 2:20-22; Acts 15:28, 29.
