MINUTES OF THE 82ND ANNUAL ASSEMBLY

Prefatory Notes

Time after time during the 82nd Assembly we lifted our hearts and voices in praise to God. As we reflect upon those days of sitting together in a heavenly place, we want to lift our voices again in thanksgiving to Him for the special manifestations of His presence which we experienced. Each song, each prayer, each message, each auxiliary program, in fact, all that transpired seemed to be especially inspired by God to touch and bless the 18,505 registered delegates to this spiritual feast.

The preaching was with power, the Word of God being burned into hearts who can hardly be the same again. There was an intense desire to hear from Heaven, and God surely has a way of ministering to hungry souls. A subject given special prominence in this Assembly was the matter of prayer. The one-hour prayer clinics with which each day began were surely a highlight for the large crowds which assembled early each morning. Our people continue to be stirred by a new dimension of praying.

In addition to those who were present from all fifty states, there were seventy-two other nations represented. Naturally, this represented a wide variety of cultures from around the world, and it was so pleasant to witness the unity with which they joined together to worship and serve the Lord.

Pre-Assembly events included, in addition to the services in the local churches on Sunday, an appreciation luncheon hosted by the Cleveland/Bradley County Chamber of Commerce, the Tomlinson College Scholarship Fund Banquet, the Annual Presbytery Meeting and Dinner and the Fields of the Wood Program.

We appreciate the good coverage provided by the news media, as well as the hospitality of the officials and citizens of Cleveland and Bradley County. Without this hospitality by the local citizens the motel accommodations would in no way be sufficient to house the large number of delegates.

Much work and planning went into this week-long gathering, and all who cooperated are to be commended for their labors. Every department of the Church was ably promoted, and we sincerely appreciate our faithful workers. To God be the glory for all that was accomplished, because it is for His glory that the Assemblies are conducted.

The 83rd Assembly will be held, God willing, September 5-11, 1988.

M. A. Tomlinson

PRE-ASSEMBLY SERVICE*Sunday Evening*September 6

6:30 Gospel concert hosted by Rob Allen.

7:00 Song service directed by R. Wayne Allen; Jenna Allen, pianist; Sonny Sample, organist. Romans 13:1-7 read by Allen Davis. Prayer by Ray Ammons at the pulpit. Requests for prayer were then received, and the congregation joined together in concert prayer for these requests.

7:25 As Carol Campbell sang, "He Knows What's Best For Us," an offering was received for Assembly Expense. Grace Willis sang, "Holy Ground."

7:35 General Treasurer Leonard Kendrick welcomed delegates from the North, South, East, West and around the world. He requested all Overseers present to join him on the platform for this time of welcoming delegates. He read Psalm 133, and the congregation joined him in singing, "Come and Dine" and "The Old Rugged Cross."

7:50 Prior to his message, E. L. Jones sang a chorus, "I Will Trust in the Lord," being joined by the congregation. His message was entitled, "Can These Bones Live?" (Ezekiel 37:3) and was interpreted from the platform by Jose A. Jimenez, Jr. (This message was published in the White Wing Messenger, dated October 31, 1987 and made available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.) Music for the altar service was directed by Nelson Raburn from Tennessee.

Monday, September 7
Afternoon

1:15 Organ music by Karen Williams. Song service directed by Vonnice Gilmer, Diane Hamm, pianist; Verona Rogers, organist. Terry Lineberry read 2 Corinthians 9:8-15, after which Fred S. Fisher, Sr. prayed. Requests for prayer were then received, followed by a concert prayer.

1:40 Opening of 82nd General Assembly by General Overseer M. A. Tomlinson. He said, "I'm thankful, and I know you are thankful, that the Lord has spared our lives one more year, and that He has given us this opportunity to have a part in the General Assembly. We want everyone to be so concerned about the Assembly that we'll pray every day that God will direct everyone that has a part." He then read Psalm 100 and prayed. After sounding the gavel he said, "Oh, it's wonderful that we can do business for God. We're supposed to do business for Him until He returns."

We want the Holy Ghost to be in everything that is done here and to have complete control. If the Holy Ghost is working, and we know it is the Holy Ghost, we want to yield to Him and let the regular program go. We have a program all right, each one has a program, but if the Holy Ghost takes over that time, we'll just thank the Lord for the visit of the mighty Spirit of God in our midst. Glory to God! Oh, I feel so good."

1:48 Appointment of Committees:

1:58 Prayer for the committees was offered by W. A. Howard. Then the song, "Pull Altogether," was sung by Roberta Matthews, Jenna Allen and Dorothy Creel.

2:10 Special songs: "O For a Thousand Tongues," by Tim Coalter, Peggy Burton and Mike Flippo; and "Let the Whole World Sing About Jesus," by Steve and Vonnie Gilmer and Carolyn Witherow.

2:15 "Holiness or Hell" (Hebrews 12:14) was the topic of a message preached by Harper Hunter. (This message was published in the White Wing Messenger, dated October 31, 1987 and made available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

3:05 The Ministerial Tribute Program was directed by Roy D. Mixon and had as its theme, "Jesus Holds All in His Hands." Dennis Shroyer led the congregation in singing, "Jesus, Hold My Hand," with Mike Flippo at the piano and Ron Scotton at the organ. A concert prayer was led by C. S. Pennington, E. H. Griffith, G. A. Wilson, M. T. Linkous and John A. Stubbs. "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Barbara Gilmer.

3:25 "Hold Fast to That Which Is Good" (2 Timothy 3:14) was the title of a message delivered by M. S. Curry. He referred to a verse of scripture in

2 Timothy 1:5, "When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also," and related the following story.

"I remember hearing about a ladies prayer meeting, where they were discussing when to start training a child. One lady said, 'Start at his birth!' Another one said, 'Start when he is one year old.' Still another suggested that it be when he was two years old. An old grandma with a bonnet on stood up over in the corner and said, 'You give that child a good mother twenty years before he is born and you'll have a good child.'" As I think about Lois and Eunice, I know this unfeigned faith had to dwell in them before they could give the proper instructions to Timothy.

"Now another very beautiful scripture is found in Acts 16:4, 5: 'And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem. And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.' Today, I found a bundle of decrees to bring along to introduce to you. (At this time Brother Curry displayed the book, Basic Bible Beliefs.) To me, every one of these teachings outlined in this book is a decree from the Lord. I like to back the devil up in the corner and get him by the chin whiskers and bump his head against the wall and read to him these beautiful, basic Bible beliefs.

"If you cannot explain why you believe in sanctification as a second definite work of grace, you need this book. If you cannot explain fornication and adultery, you need this book. It would do our ministers a world of good if they would rehearse these basic Bible beliefs.

"I traveled with my father for many, many years, and for years he preached what was known as Free Holiness. He did not believe in government. I called it 'wildcat religion.' His constant text was, 'We ought to obey God rather than men,' and that is still a famous text for the 'free from holiness' people.

"Paul wrote to Timothy, 'Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee' (1 Timothy 4:16). To the church at Ephesus he said, '... be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive' (Ephesians 4:14). His warning to the Colossians was, 'Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind' (Colossians 2:18). If there ever has been a time when our leaders need to pray for the discernment of spirits, it is today. Too many people are trying to build with 'untempered mortar' but it won't work.

"The Apostle Paul said, 'I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight

I, not as one that beateth the air' (1 Corinthians 9:26). I have never wanted to be an air-beater. You never accomplish anything doing that. When I preach things that do not coincide with these basic Bible beliefs, with this foundation, I am just beating the air.

"I recall the story of an old man who was driving a beautiful team of horses, hitched to a wagon. After awhile something happened to his wagon. An old farmer who had plowed to the end of his row observed this man as he was whipping his horses, urging them onward. He asked the old farmer how much farther it was to the top of the hill. The farmer replied, 'You are not going up a hill; the back wheels of your wagon are off, and your wagon is dragging.' So today, if you are out of line with these basic Bible beliefs, I'm afraid your wagon's dragging."

3:55 Special Recognition for Widows. The following "Tribute to Widows" was read by Brother Mixon.

"And she said to them, Call me not Naomi, call me Mara: for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me. I went out full, and the Lord hath brought me home again empty: why then call ye me Naomi, seeing the Lord hath testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me?" (Ruth 1:20, 21).

"The words from the mouth of Naomi sound bitter because the name Naomi means 'pleasant,' and Mara means 'bitter.' This pleasant lady was a refugee from her home because of famine and had fled to Moab which was the territory of her enemies. While there, she had several very shattering, heartbreaking experiences. Her sons married foreign girls, something which she did not approve, but the greatest tragedies were the death of her husband and her two sons. When she returned home, she was very discouraged, despondent, depressed, and embittered with her lot in life. She must have felt that a loving God had deserted her. She was crushed by her grief and could see nothing but sorrow. It was a situation which she felt she could not stand.

"Only those who have experienced such grief can understand how completely crushing it can be. The nature of grief is to leave one feeling like hope is gone, sometimes leaving even a tinge of bitterness. But this can blind one to the possibilities of what God can do with the tragedy of the loss of a companion. It would be an injustice to God to blame Him for tragedies. And it would be wrong to forget that the Lord can use tragedies to accomplish good things.

"In this tribute to our courageous widows, I want you to understand that crushing grief is a common existence for all humans. Being a Christian does not exempt you from it. But as a Christian, you are aware of the presence of the Lord as He comforts you by His Spirit, and that He can take all of the tragedies and griefs of life and accomplish His purposes. Sometimes grief and sorrow may blind one at the moment, but you may always rest assured that Jesus cares, and that He shares your grief and emptiness.

"Maybe some of you widows, like Naomi, have felt that hope was gone for a moment, but unlike Naomi, you live on this side of the Cross. You know that what has happened is never the end of the story. The Lord is at work transforming from 'Mara' to 'Naomi' and from 'bitter' to 'pleasant.'

"Life must go on. The world will not stop to grieve with you very long. Family and friends may slow down for a few hours or perhaps a few days to share your loss and offer comforting words, but then very quickly life goes on. You must either pick yourself up and go on, or get left behind. As a matter of fact, if you allow your mind to continuously dwell on your loss and the past, God may have to speak to you very bluntly and say: 'Get up and get on with the business of life.' The Lord does not want you to become paralyzed by your emotions. They can best be dealt with by action.

"There is an old English ballad that tells of a young man who led his troops forth into battle. In the heat of the fray, he was struck down. Stopping their battle, his loyal soldiers gathered around him, and at this point he opened his eyes and said:

I'm a little wounded, but I am not slain;
I will lay me down for to bleed awhile,
Then I'll rise and fight with you again.

"So, it is with each of you. No doubt, you have been wounded. You will cry awhile and bleed awhile, but then you will arise to fight the good fight as the Spirit of God leads, directs, and comforts your heart! You are very precious in the Lord's eyes. You are the apple of His eye.

"We know that God knows and understands your griefs and loneliness and that He shares your sorrows. He will help you and not allow you to be crushed and defeated or to withdraw from life. Rather, He will help you to live to comfort those who sorrow around you.

"Widows, we pray for you and we salute you. God bless and keep you."

The entire congregation stood at this time and prayed for the widows around the world.

4:05 Memorial Tribute to Our Deceased Ministers. "Holding to His Unchanging Hand" was the title of a tribute to those ministers who had gone on to be with the Lord this year, given below.

"And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of Mount Zion: the zeal of the Lord of hosts shall do this" (2 Kings 19:30, 31).

"We pay tribute to those today who have been faithful to the Lord and His Word. They have gone on to the place of rest. During their life span here on earth, they probably experienced some dark periods, but the Lord called them to lift up their eyes beyond the present and take a look into the future.

"The scripture which I have read refers to a time when the people of Judah felt that hope was gone, a time when it looked as if the armies of Assyria were surely about to overwhelm them. They were urged to look beyond all present distresses and realize that the Lord was in control. They were assured that there would be a 'surviving remnant.'

"Some of these to whom we pay tribute may have had some very trying days in their lives, some days so dark and cloudy until mere survival was an accomplishment. But as God promised Israel hope and that their life was going to be fruitful again, and His promises included renewed roots and renewed fruit, so we know today that the true Christian who falls asleep in Christ will soon come forth to newness of life and a new body, a body that will live forever.

"Our brave men and women whom we honor were not ministers preaching a superficial gospel. They did not offer world peace, success and prosperity to people if they would simply turn to Jesus. No, they knew that was not the Biblical picture. They knew that being Christians never exempted them from the crises of life. They knew that war, disease, tragedy, heartaches, sickness and death come to Christians just as they come to non-Christians.

"But, they knew the difference—the great difference. The great difference that is offered for the Christian is that life will never become rootless or fruitless. God's presence through His Spirit sustained them through all the crises that came into their lives.

"During their lifetimes it is possible that the enemy tried to dim their vision of God and His Son, that he tried to dim their vision of the Lord's plan, to destroy the image of their heavenly Father, but God was not the victim. God was the Victor in their lives. They knew that at Calvary the enemy tried to make Jesus be the ultimate victim, but there was the resurrection and Jesus became the Victor. He reigned in the hearts of those we honor today. They knew they would be 'more than conquerors' in Christ Jesus.

"Just as the great hope for the future of Israel caused the prophet to see the time when God's people would not be coming to Zion, but going out from the city of God as messengers that God would sustain through the many crises of life, so it is with those who hope, who live, who have their moving and being in Christ. Those we honor shared the good news with others. While they were here, they shared the joyful news of others coming to Zion. They worked at it as directed by the Holy Ghost. They yearned for more of the Millennium spirit, not just a fanciful daydream, but as a realistic vision, with the assurance that God's zeal and His passionate love for His creatures will fulfill His plans and purposes.

"And now, they no longer come to Zion but live in the city of God, new Jerusalem, the heavenly city—the city not made with man's hands but made by the hands of God. Their dreams are now fulfilled. They live in a light that is not artificial, a light not of the sun or the moon, but the light of God's Son slain before the foundation of the world is the light of that city. They walk hand in hand with the fulness of the Godhead.

"Those of us who remain on earth who still experience the tragedies of life will hold to His invisible hand and be sustained by Him and have our vision of the future brightened and encouraged by His great love for them, for us and for others.

"O God, today we thank you for these beautiful and precious saints whom you have allowed to bless our lives in the world of turmoil. We thank you O God, for shining the light of your love into the darkness of our present crises, and for shining your light through these who have gone before us in the fulfillment of allowing Your glory to rest upon them and be seen in the midst of darkness, even gross darkness. We thank you, O God, that we are no longer captives of the past but that we have been freed for the present and the glorious future.

"O Lord, I know not how to end this prayer; neither do I want it to end, but I must close it in this tribute. But I thank you so much for loving us throughout all time and showing us that love incarnate in Jesus Christ. Help us to love you beyond measure. Help us to excel in that love. Help us to love people in the same manner. Help make our love active by helping others and bringing good to them. This we ask in the holy, loving name of Jesus thy Son, our Lord. Amen."

The deceased ministers were recognized by states and nations, and as their names were read the Overseers present came to the platform to hold small Church flags in memory of those who had gone on.

The Assembly stood in a moment of silence in their memory. A. T. Wagar lowered the Church flag to half-mast as Dennis Shroyer played taps. A prayer by the General Overseer concluded the program.

4:25 United States Senator James Sasser from Tennessee was introduced at this time and greeted the Assembly.

4:40 Members of the Church for thirty years or more were given the opportunity to come by the microphone and state the number of years they had been a member. This was directed by Emmitt Davis. 141 persons came by.

4:55 "If She Shines There, She Must Shine Here" (Revelation 21:1-3, 9-11, 22, 23), was the topic of a message preached by Bryan Groves from West Virginia, presented in an abridged form.

John, being exiled on the isle of Patmos, was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and was allowed to view the culmination of all things. He saw the wrath of God poured out on the world and the restoration of Israel. No doubt, the greatest thing that he saw was that vision of our future, the final home in the new Jerusalem.

It is impossible that anyone other than God Himself could construct and design such a place. It has a great and high wall which has twelve foundations with the names of the twelve apostles in them. It has twelve gates and the names of the twelve tribes of Israel are on the gates. All of these gates are of one pearl, representing Jesus Christ, and all of these gates on each side declare the universality of that city.

The true beauty and glory of the new Jerusalem is embodied in the fact that there is no temple there, "... for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it" (verse 22). If the new Jerusalem is our pattern, and it is, then the thing that makes the new Jerusalem shine is the same thing that is going to make the Church of God shine. What makes the new Jerusalem shine? Because the Church is there? No! Because Israel's there? No! Because the kingdom saints are there? No! It is because the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are there. His throne is there! And He rules and reigns supremely in that city.

If you were able to view the new Jerusalem, through the Spirit, the first thing that would catch your eye is that the city is aglow with the glory of God. When somebody comes into our midst, the first thing they ought to see is God Almighty being exalted and the power and glory of God in our midst!

The Psalmist wrote, "Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined" (Psalm 50:2). As we look outside our walls we ought to see a world that is lost and dying, a world that needs the Saviour, which needs to see the power and glory of God once again in New Jerusalem. There should be nothing earthly; however, at the present time the Church is earthly to a degree. Since this is a heavenly program, we need a visitation of the heavenly to give confirmation and conviction that this earthly program is right.

Paul wrote, "But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away: How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?" (2 Corinthians 3:7, 8). The ministration of the law was confirmed by a move of the supernatural.

When Moses came down the mountain he had the tables of stone, but there was more than just that. There were thunders and lightnings; there was a thick cloud. There was the voice of a trumpet. There was fear and trembling. There was smoke, the Lord descending in a fire. He had more than just a law to give God's people. God Almighty confirmed what he had been given with power and with glory.

In the wilderness, there was the cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night. When the Tabernacle was finished, the cloud came and settled on that Tabernacle. And as long as the cloud was there, the children of Israel stayed. When the cloud moved, they moved. That was what gave Israel conviction that what they had received was right.

There was the glory of God filling the place so that the priests couldn't stand to minister. We need that once again! We need a witness of the supernatural in our midst that this program is right!

The Questions and Subjects Committee report to the 79th Assembly in 1984 declared, "We cannot afford to continue the pursuit of our mission without convincing evidence of His presence and approval. There is no acceptable substitute for repentance when that is what God is calling us to do."

We take pride in saying that we're under theocratic government. The truth is, we probably have the title right now, more than the actual practice. There's more to theocracy than men appointing other men. Theocracy is built upon the premise that God speaks. If God ever quits speaking, theocracy can no longer be. But the truth is, God still speaks! God still gives direction! God still confirms!

Our real safety is not just in a multitude of counselors. If they're not spiritual, they can come into unity about a matter and still be all wrong. Our real safety is when God confirms what a multitude of spiritual counselors have searched out under the direction of God.

In 1906, in the First Assembly, A. J. Tomlinson was chosen to be the moderator. They continued choosing him every year until 1914. At that time, the Holy Ghost fell and placed His confirmation upon that man to lead them on for life. There were demonstrations of the Spirit and power of God. There was no doubt in anyone's mind that that was right, right then and there, because God confirmed it.

In 1933, when it was brought before the Assembly about a Church flag, that spiritual multitude of counselors had a proper interpretation of the Word. But there was more to it than just that. They had planned a dedication program, but when they got ready to dedicate it, God Himself stepped in and dedicated that flag. There was more than just a proper interpretation of the Word. God Almighty was confirming what was right. And we need that once again!

Theocracy can easily be seen in the early Church. Time after time, the Holy Ghost gave specific directions. In Acts chapter 13, prophets and teachers in the church at Antioch were ministering and fasting before the Lord and the Holy Ghost said, "Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them." That's theocracy!

In Acts 16:6-10, we read, "Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia . . . and were forbidden by the Holy Ghost to preach the Word in Asia, after they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not. And they passing by Mysia, came down to Troas. And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; there stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them." That's direction from God. That's theocracy.

We are in need of specific direction from the Holy Ghost in these unstable times. You see, God's agenda for the Church is complete, but the Church has not completed that agenda. And when we get together in this Assembly, in our state conventions, in our district conventions, in our youth conventions, in our local church services, whatever we do, it's not to make our will known to God, but to find God's will for the Church. We've got to find that divine plan that God has already laid out. That's why we've got to once again become a house of prayer.

Prayer is not a tool to get your will done in heaven! Prayer is a key that unlocks the portals of heaven to find God's will so we can put it in operation on this earth! That's why Jesus said His house would be called a house of prayer.

We must become a spiritually responsible people. In every instance in the Book of Acts, when the Holy Ghost gave specific directions, there was an accompanying spiritual responsibility. They were ministering and fasting at Antioch, and the Holy Ghost made some appointments. Peter was on the housetop at Joppa praying; Cornelius was fasting. Theocracy requires responsibility.

Many times people preach and say, "The Church of God is right where God wants it." Are we where God wants us when the Holy Ghost speaks and says, "I've called you to repent," and we have not repented? Are we where God wants us when the Holy Ghost speaks and says, "I want to work and move, but there are too many hindrances and obstacles. I can't move"? Are we where God wants us when the Holy Ghost speaks and says, "I've got a lot of other sheep ready for the fold, but you're not ready for them yet"? Are we where God wants us or is that just an excuse for our lack of spirituality and dedication to God?

Right now there is a spiritual separation taking place that's not visible to the natural eye. Although we can't see it, I believe we can sense it. Could it be possible that right now angels are walking up and down in our midst, marking the genuine from the hypocrites?

"And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it, Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes . . . because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation" (Luke 19:41-44). Israel missed out on the blessings of their visitation by Jesus. They were always looking to the future for the Messiah to come, not realizing that right then, right there, was the Messiah standing in their midst?

I've been hearing for twenty years what the Church was going to be doing twenty years later. So here I am, twenty years later, and the same conditions still exist. So what are we going to do? Are we going to preach that it is five more years down the road, or ten more years down the road?

At some point in time, our future has got to become present.

The Messiah didn't visit the Jews in the way they expected. He didn't come within their prescribed bounds, so they missed His visitation completely. Today, the Holy Ghost must be allowed the freedom to move and work as He will, and He is here right now, ready to give specific directions to the Church of God—if we will let Him!

Right now, the Holy Ghost is calling on us to completely follow Him. But there are many in our midst who do not want to do it. Last year the Holy Ghost spoke in the Assembly and said, "I've got a Church within a church. I've got a people within a people. I've got a nation within a nation." And to that nation, the Holy Ghost is bidding, "Come, follow me."

5:30 Adjournment.

Evening

5:40 Concert by Bahama Brass Band. After having played the song, "Come and Dine," the General Overseer requested that they sing this song, which they did. They marched off the platform, to return to the bandstand, playing, "Marching Homeward."

6:13 Song Service directed by Larry Womack; Terry Womack, pianist; Wilma Gonia, organist. Scripture reading was from 1 Thessalonians 3:6-13 by Dale Kitchens. Prayer was offered by William Henson, after which special prayer requests were prayed for by the entire congregation.

6:25 Announcements by Harper Hunter, Henry O'Neal, Perry Gillum and H. O. Callis.

7:03 Instrumental music directed by Jim Possinger as expense offering was received. Prayer by David Risch.

7:15 Welcome by Tennessee District 4, directed by Larry Wilson, overseer. Brother Wilson said, "In the ancient days men were organized by guilds, guilds of silversmiths, of weavers, of dyers, of stonemasons, etc. Today men and women are associated by many affinities and predilections. There are political groups, literary societies and business organizations, but all these are artificial and temporary.

"It is not so, however, in the family of God. Our relationships are not artificial. Whether we are from here or there, we are family; yes, we are one, washed in one blood, registered in one book, the Lamb's Book of Life. So, in behalf of the sixteen churches of District 4 we say, 'Welcome! Welcome home! You're our family!' " Local pastors and their companions were introduced who spoke briefly to add to the welcome.

7:25 Special songs, "Lord, Prepare Me to be a Sanctuary" and "Long, Winding Road," were sung by Ron Scotton, Peggy Burton and Mike Flippo.

7:35 A welcome to the delegates was extended by Cleveland and Bradley County civic leaders: Bill Schultz, Mayor; Donna Hubbard, County Executive; Tom Quinn, Executive Director of the Chamber of Commerce; Jim Williams, President of the Chamber of Commerce; Corkey Hoover, Editor of the Cleveland Daily Banner; State Representative Steve Bivens and State Senator Lou Patten.

8:05 Music by the Bahama Brass Band. The audience stood and rejoiced with a handkerchief wave.

8:13 General Field Secretary and Spanish Voice of Salvation Program, directed by Jose A. Reyes, Sr. A progress report was given by Olfa Reyes. Noe Gutierrez sang, "Born Again," in Spanish. The congregation was asked to stand and pray for all our people who were unable to come to the Assembly.

8:30 "The End of an Era" was the title of the message preached by Brother Reyes, interpreted by Jose A. Jimenez, Jr., from the platform. (This message was published in the November 14, 1987 issue of the White Wing Messenger, made available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.) Many responded to the altar invitation. The altar music was coordinated by Betty Luevanos.

Tuesday, September 8
Morning

8:00 Can Ye Not Tarry With Me One Hour?—Prayer Clinic conducted by Terry Mahan. From the Lord's model prayer for His disciples, this morning's prayer topic was on praise and worship—"Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name."

9:00 Music by Bahama Brass Band. Songs by Ruth Davis and Dale Moss.

9:30 Church of Prophecy Marker Association Program, directed by Wade H. Phillips, General Secretary. Theme: "Lord, Build the House." The congregation was led in worship as Roy Shewbridge shared Psalm 127 and the Voices of Praise choir from Toronto, Canada sang, "Stranger in Town" and "Oh, It Is Jesus."

9:55 "What's Happening in Fields of the Wood," by Richard Morrow. Brother Morrow shared with excitement some of the things taking place in Fields of the Wood.

"This has been an exciting, challenging and rewarding year. A lot of good things have happened at Fields of the Wood. We have baptized hundreds of people, and distributed between 15 and 20 thousand tracts. The second day I was at Fields of the Wood a young man came and got saved and that kind of thing has been happening all year.

"Different kinds of people come to Fields of the Wood. I had a pro-basketball player to knock on my door and say, 'I want to be baptized. God saved me and healed my body and my grandmother from a Baptist church in Georgia sent me here to be baptized.' He plays with the New Jersey Nets and he said, 'I'm going to bring a whole bunch of them back. I'm thrilled with this place.'

"One Baptist preacher came up to me and said, 'You see that man going up those steps?' I said, 'Yes sir.' He said, 'Now he didn't get saved here, but he was backslidden when I brought him here. I took him through this place, and before we got back home he said, 'Stop the car, I've got to get saved,' and today he's preaching the gospel. I want the Church of God to know that this place helped bring that man back to Jesus Christ!'

"Other Christians make up about eighty percent or more of the people that come to Fields of the Wood. They come in there and worship God, they baptize their members, they go to the altar, in the pavilion they sing, and praise God and shout. All of these things are taking place continually.

"Three weeks ago six denominational groups came. (I can't remember all of their names.) There were Freewill Pentecostal Holiness, Church of God of the Seventh Day, Church of God in Christ, and another Pentecostal church. It was not pre-planned that they should come together. They wanted to have a baptizing and as they gathered together some of our Church people came up, some local members. The Holy Ghost was moving so strongly among these people that as our members got out of their car, they began to praise God and speak in tongues, and fell right in among them. I was out there right in the middle of things and we were worshipping God.

"They had already baptized about 25 people (this started at one o'clock in the afternoon), when one minister kind of took charge and said, 'We'll continue our service in the pavilion as soon as I can change clothes.' Within about five minutes, the pavilion was full, the hillside was full. It looked like a June 13th program. The Holy Ghost was still falling and for three and a half hours they worshipped God. People are really excited about what God is revealing to them. Let's let the light shine."

10:05 Prayer for Fields of the Wood Ministry, by Ted Carroll. (Commendation was given to Brothers Morrow and Carroll for their hard work in Fields of the Wood.)

10:15 "Where There is a Will, There is a Way," testimony by Ken Evans, Jr. Ken is an eleven-year-old boy from North Dakota who was inspired to raise funds for a mission marker. In answer to prayer he was provided a job as a newspaper carrier which enabled him to raise $500 for a mission marker.

10:23 "The Regions Beyond Through Mission Markers," by Lanny Carter from Virginia, who had gone with a group during the past year to Central America to help build mission markers. His testimony was fervent.

"And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them" (Acts 16:9, 10).

"Notice that Luke said that after he [Paul] had seen the vision, immediately 'we' endeavoured to go.' Why would they follow this man? Paul was a leader who had their confidence.

"If we are going to do anything for the Lord we are going to have to go on a vision. We must be led by the Holy Ghost. God will have His way if we will yield to His Spirit.

"As I was praying about going to the regions beyond, during last year's Assembly, I asked, 'God, where are they?' He said, 'First, you've got to go to the regions beyond in your own personal experience.' Worldly minded persons cannot build the Church of God. It is a spiritual house.

"The reason we are building buildings is so that people may come and find the Lord Jesus Christ as their Saviour. As they find out about the Church of God they themselves will become living witnesses unto Him.

"I enjoyed laying bricks, what little I could do. I enjoyed working with meager tools. When you go into some of these countries you will not have a power saw. You will not have a level. You will use a plumb bob to find out if a wall is plumb. On our trip we were able to see two buildings go up.

"I believe God is going to touch other hearts, that they will be willing to go at their own expense to help build buildings for our people. There is a blessing when we give freely of ourselves."

10:35 Voices of Praise Choir returned to sing, "Stand by Me" and "God Said It and I Believe It."

11:00 "Except the Lord Build the House" (Psalm 127:1), message by Wade H. Phillips. (This message was published in the October 31, 1987 issue of the White Wing Messenger, and made available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

8:20 Expense Offering.

8:30 A Time of Worship, directed by Larry Duncan. The congregation joined together in lively worship as a large number of choruses were sung. A special song, "God's Worthy," was sung by the Voice of Praise trio from Union Grove, Mississippi. Esther Lopez sang, "The Lord's Prayer."

9:05 "Thy Kingdom Come" (Matthew 6:10), message by Billy Murray. (This message was published in the White Wing Messenger dated, October 17, 1987, and made available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.) At the conclusion of the message all were asked to stand and pray for one another, for God's kingdom to come in individual lives.

10:13 Altar invitation with many responding. Music directed by Bubba Cardin.

Thursday, September 10*Morning

7:30 "Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples."
—Prayer Clinic conducted by Terry Mahan. This morning's prayer topic was on daily provisions—"Give us this day our daily bread."

8:30 Piano music by Derrick Moss.

8:40 Two songs led by Ken Baker; Shirlene Stone, pianist; Jeanette McKenzie, organist. Romans 12:9-21 read by Jerry W. Hogue. Prayer by Horatio Cameron, followed by concert prayer for requests that were made known.

8:55 "Identity Crisis," message by J. Wendell Lowe, presented in an abridged form.

"In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes" (Judges 21:25). "Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, Nay; but we will have a king over us; that we also may be like all the nations; and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles" (1 Samuel 8:19, 20).

There has been much said in the past few years about the identity crisis of young people. They search for meaning and purpose in their lives. Our culture has produced a generation which has problems finding its way in a crooked and perverse world. These young people are products of school systems that teach that man came from monkeys, that God no longer exists, that the individual is supreme, that government can handle all our problems, that the courts can answer all our questions and that Mom and Dad are no longer necessary.

This self-seeking generation has sat at the feet of teachers espousing secular humanism, teaching that prayer has no place in one's life, that sin guilt is not for real, that there is no right or wrong, that it is only relative to the situation. They have heard that the family is obsolete, that the marriage covenant has no true meaning, that divorce is the answer to settling marital problems and that homosexuality is a decent, viable alternative life style. They have been led to believe that living together outside of marriage constitutes no evil, that pornography and the sexual exploitation of children harms no one, and that man needs no Saviour, but that he can save himself.

This generation witnessed the breakdown of the family, a weakening of law and order, the deterioration of moral and ethical values, while crime, immorality, and divorce have sky-rocketed to record levels. They have looked on while the courts of the United States have saved the tiny snaildarter fish, while at the same time allowing a million unborn babies a year to be legally put to death. This generation has been encouraged to challenge all authority, including parental authority, civil authority, and even godly authority. Is it any wonder these young people are facing an identity crisis? Is it any wonder that they are asking, "Who am I? Why am I here? What is my purpose for living?"

In the past few years I have seen some parallels between what is happening in the world and what is happening in the Church. Within the Church there are those who despise and challenge divine authority. There are some who say, "I'm an individual, and I'll walk as I feel and not be directed by the General Assembly, those over me in the Lord, or anyone else. Some are disavowing the Body concept, not caring about fellowmembers. They say that God works through great individuals instead of through the Body of Christ. It is true that God works through individuals who consecrate their lives to Him, but not for the promotion of the individual. The glory and the honor of God is what it's all about.

There are some who no longer know for sure whether this really is the Church of God of the Bible, the exclusive Body of Christ. Some are no longer sure that the Church covenant places one in the Body.

There are those who are having problems making up their minds as to what is right and what is wrong. Some no longer know for sure whether divorce and remarriage really constitutes sin. But the Bible is still explicit, leaving no room for question or doubt.

I'll be the first to admit that the Church, in its present state, is not so beautiful, but when I talk about the great Church of God, it's from a vision, what I see when we allow the kingdom of God to be in us the way it ought to be. The concept of the Church's being presented to Christ as a chaste virgin without spot, without blemish, is still a beautiful concept, and let us not fail to preach it.

During the thirty-five years of my ministry there has been a time when we didn't seem to give enough glory and honor to the Head of the Church. I don't want to be guilty of that. We must not glory in ourselves, but in Christ, but let us not fail to preach and teach the concept of the Church.

Vision brings hope, purpose, strength and steadfastness, but if the devil can get us to doubt who we are, what our goal, what our purpose and our mission are, he can reduce us to beggars with no sure message. Oh, Church of God, let us take on new courage, new strength and new hope.

Our former General Overseer was searching for, and proclaimed that he had found, the Church of God of the Bible. I believe he did. The "White Wing Messenger" still has on it the slogan, "The whole message for the whole world." The devil would have us compromise and water this message down.

Oh, I know how discouraging it is to gather week after week in small and struggling churches, but compromise is not the answer. The answer is for us to truly be the Church of God—the Church of love! the Church of power! the Church of truth!

Israel had an identity crisis and wanted to be like other people. They became so rebellious that they rejected God and asked Samuel to give them a king so they could be like the other nations. That was not the answer for them and it is not the answer for us today.

Does accepting Christ as Saviour and Lord automatically unify all believers that Jesus prayed for, or is there a deeper essence to divine unity? By the new birth we become brothers and sisters in Christ, but if we examine closely the prayer of Jesus, we will see that He was praying for a visible unity that could be seen by the world. Paul wrote, "Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment" (1 Corinthians 1:10). There is a unity that goes beyond just being in the family of God, and this is a unity that will be seen by the world.

Paul wrote to the Ephesians, "Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish" (Ephesians 5:25, 27). The unity of the Church is more than some spiritual essence that cannot be seen; it is a unity that can be seen by the world—a unity of purpose, a unity of doctrine, a unity of government.

Paul wrote to the Corinthians, "That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another" (1 Corinthians 12:25). Do you think that the denominational system fits this concept of unity of mind, of purpose, of doctrine, of love? Denominationalism was born out of disagreement and confusion. God is going to have a people who will be covenanted to keeping His Word, who will humbly submit themselves to His divine government in this world.

Let's not lose our identity. The body concept is beautiful; it is a sound Biblical principle. I still believe that God has entrusted to the Church of God the whole message for the whole world. I don't want to see the Church deified—our glory is only in the Head, Jesus Christ. But neither do I want to see it trampled on and belittled.

Another doctrine that the devil is challenging is the concept of the covenant. God has always worked through covenants. He made a covenant with Abraham and promised to bless him and his seed after him. He reaffirmed that covenant with Isaac and Jacob. Several hundred years later God called Moses to lead the children of Israel out of Egypt. He gave the commandments, and the children of Israel took another covenant. This was a covenant saying they would obey all the words of this law (cf.

Exodus 19:3-8).

According to Jeremiah 31:31, 32, they broke that word covenant. "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the Lord." Yes, they broke that word covenant, not the seed covenant. When we invite Christ into our hearts by faith we are saved and we become a part of the family of God. According to Romans 4 we also are made partakers of Abraham's seed. That's the seed covenant which prefigures salvation by faith in Christ.

How do we become a part of the Body of Christ, the Church? I believe the word covenant in the Old Testament prefigures the word covenant we take today to become a part of the Bride. We become espoused to Christ as His Bride. Isaiah wrote, "For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee" (Isaiah 62:5). Paul wrote, "For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church" (Ephesians 5:31, 32).

To the Corinthians, Paul wrote, "For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit" (1 Corinthians 12:13). There is a spiritual bonding that takes place when a man and woman are legally joined together in holy matrimony. So it is with taking the covenant for membership in the Body of Christ. The covenant I took almost forty-two years ago to be a member of this Body is still precious to me. Oh, hallelujah! □

MINISTERIAL AID COMMITTEE REPORT

June 1, 1986 through May 31, 1987

The Ministerial Aid Committee had 12 monthly meetings; approved 47 applications for retirement, 12 for disability, 27 widows, and 1 lay employee. Total number of applications approved this year was 87. We presently have 443 persons receiving retirement benefits, 253 receiving disability benefits, 190 receiving widow's assistance and 16 lay employees. The total number of persons receiving Ministerial Aid benefits is 902. The Ministerial Aid Committee processed 88 death records and approved death benefits to be paid to family beneficiaries in the amount of $62,400.00. This includes 79 ministers, 9 widows of deceased ministers and 1 widower. We provided 63 Church flags which were presented by the officiating ministers to the deceased ministers' families. A Church flag memorial certificate was also sent to the families.

The Ministers Retirement Tax-Shelter Annuity Plan presently has 387 participants. This includes 93 ministers who administrate their personal tax-sheltered annuities. Deferred Compensation benefits paid by the World Headquarters from individual ministers' tithes to individual ministers' annuities totaled $178,724.56.

The Ministerial Aid Committee is prayerfully concerned regarding the needs of our worthy ministers and widows. We are endeavoring to assist each applicant as funds are available on the basis of faithfulness in the ministry as well as years actively engaged in ministerial service.

A beautiful "In Appreciation" certificate was presented to each recipient of Ministerial Aid for faithful service.

The Group Life Insurance Plan has been administered by the Church Benefit Association and Life Insurance Company of North America. This report shows claims paid by LINA from June 1, 1986 until May 31, 1987. LINA processed 76 policies resulting in $137,000.00 death benefits paid to beneficiaries of Church members. The total of all policies processed was 152, resulting in $235,500.00 death benefits.

Life Insurance Company of North America (LINA) has also activated the Accident Plan of Insurance now available for all members of the Church.

We sincerely appreciate the services of this very fine insurance company and express our gratitude to all departments of the Church who share their funds in support of caring for our Senior Ministers and their families.

Respectfully submitted,

WORLD MISSION COMMITTEE REPORT

June 1, 1986 through May 31, 1987

We greet this 82nd General Assembly in the wonderful name of Jesus our Lord. We confess Him to be the Head of the Church and Saviour of the Body. To Him be glory in the Church, world without end.

We count it a high and sacred honor to be laborers together with God and with our faithful brethren who willingly and unselfishly serve our Lord. On the field they serve as Overseers, Missionaries, Pastors, Evangelists, Mission Corpsmen, local leaders and volunteers. This year their cumulative efforts were prospered by the Lord and 163 new churches were organized and 15,813 new members covenanted with the Church. This year under the direction of Overseer Sherman Allen and his faithful workers, the Church has been organized for the first time in the West African country of Burkina Faso. We praise the Lord for the new challenge to evangelize this area.

In our efforts to continually promote the work and improve our effectiveness, we held International Leadership Conferences for the Caribbean Area (Kingston, Jamaica), South America (Belo Horizonte, Brazil), Central America and Mexico (Guatemala City, Guatemala), and Europe, Africa and Middle East (Dorfweil, West Germany). Delegates were comprised of leadership from all levels of the Church. Together we reviewed the work in the regions, focusing on the need to encourage greater evangelism and to enhance the unity of the Church through meaningful contacts and frequent interaction.

Our hearts go out to several of our brethren who have lost loved ones this year, some through violent means. We have had to help with a number of emergencies during the course of the year, including flood damages in Chile, and effects of the continuing civil war in Nicaragua. Distressing news has also reached us from Peru and Haiti due to the political turmoil in certain areas of those countries. Of course, we continue to be concerned about international terrorism, socio-political upheavals and the economic troubles that plague modern society. However, the work continues to grow and prosper as our brethren serve the Lord with unflinching courage and devotion.

Despite extremely high inflation and very drastic currency fluctuations, the countries continue to support the world-wide efforts of the Church, contributing the equivalent of (U.S.) $296,283.00 to the October and March World Mission Drives. Together with North America both Drives totalled (U.S.) $874,705.00. The portion contributed by the countries represents a substantial increase over last year in their currencies, but shows less when converted to U.S. dollars due to the aforementioned drop in exchange rates.

We are faced with the ongoing task of reaching the world for Christ, and we must not only rededicate ourselves but re-double our efforts. Expenditures authorized by the World Mission Committee:

10:11 Report of Assembly Expense Committee. Report accepted upon a motion by T. A. Cook, MS, seconded by Walter Griffiths, OH.

ASSEMBLY EXPENSE COMMITTEE REPORT

We, your Assembly Expense Committee, submit the following report to the 82nd General Assembly.

We recommend that churches having less than 50 in Sunday School average attendance contribute $2.00 annually to Assembly Expense; churches with Sunday School average attendance between 50 and 100 contribute $3.00 annually; and churches averaging over 100 in Sunday School attendance contribute $5.00 annually.

We recommend that each Victory Leaders Band contribute $2.00 annually; that each Women's Missionary Band contribute $2.00 annually; and each minister, including deacons and lay ministers, give $1.00 annually.

We recommend that pastors be responsible for collecting the Assembly Expense dollars for the auxiliaries and forward same to the respective state or national office, with the overseer to be responsible for collecting the dollars from ministers under his supervision. These funds are to be mailed to the General Treasurer as soon as collected. Funds received toward the end of the year may be included with convention auxiliary reports to the General Treasurer.

The above recommendations are made without changes to previous reports.

Your Committee offers this description of the manner in which Assembly Expense monies are spent: covers costs involved with publication of the Assembly programs, audio expense, lot attendants' salaries, tabernacle maintenance, housing telephone, twice-annual meetings of Assembly-appointed committees, public relations, certain musical expense, plus various incidental expenses involved with the preparation for the operation of the Annual General Assemblies.

GENERAL PROPERTIES COMMITTEE REPORT

We wish to express our thankfulness for the Lord's blessings upon our deliberations and decisions in all the matters we have considered during this Assembly year.

All the properties that are a part of our headquarters complex, along with the Tomlinson College properties have been kept in good repair. Limited improvements have been made in some of our buildings and some additional paving has been done to increase the parking capability of the Tabernacle parking lot. Two portable buildings were installed at Tomlinson College to afford temporary relief to the need for additional facilities there.

Inasmuch as the twin-engine plane which the Church has maintained for the General Overseer's use was felt to be no longer needed, it was sold this year, the funds generated by this sale being returned to the General Tithes Fund.

We are thankful for the cooperation we have received in all areas of our responsibility, and for the privilege to serve the Lord in this capacity.

CHURCH BOOSTERS COMMITTEE REPORT

Section 1

Church Boosters Committee

From 1937 through 1987 the "Church Boosters" Committees have been "boosters" to all of our church ministries. Then, as now, the "Church Boosters" consisted of men who believe in boosting the Church of God and all of its ministries. Thank God for men who believe in the Church of God and practice the rightly divided Word of God teachings of the Church of God.

In the spirit of past and present Church Boosters Committeemen, we urge all to boost the Church of God—the Body of Christ—by a submissive spirit, a positive attitude, a sensitive ear and an obedient will to the guidance of the Holy Ghost as He leads the Church to fulfill her scriptural mission in this world.

With renewed energy and zeal let us go forth from this 82nd General Assembly with all of us being "Church Boosters."

SECTION 2

Voice Of Salvation

Much of the world has fallen under the influence of communism and other forms of repressive governments which have greatly hindered the normal approach to missionary activity. It has been said that 75% of the population of the world cannot be reached through the conventional means of evangelization. But, thank the Lord, there is virtually not one square foot on earth that isn't reached by radio signals. The Church should continue to use this means of communication to proclaim the message of Jesus Christ unto the end of the world.

The television has also become a great means to both communicate the gospel to the unsaved, as well as to feed the believers with the true Word of God.

The Spanish Voice of Salvation celebrated its first anniversary of the 30-minute weekly television program, which has been broadcast over Rock Christian Network (via satellite), and also over other television stations and cable systems in the United States and Latin America. Sixty-five television programs have already been produced in Spanish, which have been a blessing already.

This month the English Voice of Salvation started to telecast the thirty-minute program over Rock Christian Network and other local stations in the States. For this we thank God.

We encourage our churches and members to give their support to this new area of the work of the Communications Department, the television ministry, which is starting to develop. These are tools that can be used to take the gospel of Jesus Christ to the millions of people who need the Lord.

SECTION 3

Commendation for Support

We highly commend each and every one for their faithful support to all aspects of the Church work. The many prayers you've prayed, your liberal and unselfish giving, and your tireless labor is a testimony to the sacrificial spirit, earnest love and concern you have for the welfare of the Church. Without such financial, spiritual and physical contributions, much progress would not have been realized. But because you've kept your eyes on the prize and your heart in the work, your support came forth time and time again. The work is not complete. And it will continually require "that which every joint supplieth" as we move forward. But God is not unrighteous to forget your labor of love. God bless and prosper you as you faithfully support His Church.

Greater Effort Required

As the world seemingly gets smaller, and great distances are travelled in shorter time, and the return of our Lord being so close, it forces the Church to reassess her commitment to reaching this lost and dying world. Therefore, we would like to encourage each local church to continue to support each auxiliary offering. We commend you for your faithfulness in the past. We have a great responsibility to fulfill the Great Commission. This will require and possibly even impose a greater financial load, but God shall supply every need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. God bless you every effort.

Tomlinson College—the Choice to Make!

Tomlinson College is now into its twenty-first year of operation! God's hand has been upon our college since its small beginning in 1966 and TC continues to serve the Church through its unique blend of Scholarship with Spirit! Nearly 3000 students have been a part of the Tomlinson College family through these two decades and of these, about 500 ministers are serving the Church and over 1,000 others are working in Church-related capacities.

We are excited about the prospects of the Bible Studies' Program at TC being expanded to a four-year curriculum while retaining the two-year Liberal Arts Program. Along with this academic progress, even more spiritual emphasis is evident at TC with the addition of a full-time chaplain on campus and a regular schedule of three chapel services every week. Where else but at our own college would you find every staff person Holy Ghost-filled?

Tomlinson College needs the support of our people—our church leaders, members and friends. More of our high-schoolers should be encouraged to choose TC. Let us continue to provide scholarships for our students enrolling at TC; perhaps, even local churches might consider scholarship assistance for those attending from their local church. Some senior youth camps are now presenting a scholarship each year to a deserving high school graduate who attends camp. This helps encourage more students to choose TC.

The Heritage Care Fund each year provides financial undergirding for Tomlinson College, with 35% of these offerings being allocated for the operation of our Church college. We need to zealously promote this means of assisting TC financially! This past year a new computer lab was added at a cost of $35,000. Also, a bookstore is now provided in a portable building on campus. These are important additions and funds from Heritage Care helped make this possible.

By the will of God, Tomlinson College came into being! It's going to make it, it will succeed, "because God don't sponsor no flops." Let's be supporters of our official institution through prayer, verbal and financial support and by continuing to send our young people as students, a choice they'll be glad they made!

Section 6 The Need for Doctrine

1 Timothy 4:16: "Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee."

Psalm 119:89: "For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven."

In the Word of God we find the true doctrine of salvation. Taking the Word of God, rightly divided, gives us the doctrine of the Bible, salvation and hope for eternal life which the Church teaches.

John 7:16: Jesus made this statement, "... My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me."

As holy and upright as Jesus was, He did not believe it wisdom to come with some other doctrine of men, but to stick with that which was settled in heaven. He desired the favor of Almighty God to be in His ministry.

2 Timothy 2:19: "Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity."

If we are to be His, we must believe His Word from our pure hearts.

Matthew 15:8, 9: "This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

"But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

The commandments of men cannot give deliverance from sin, neither eternal life. In these closing days of time, may we receive such a hunger for the wholesome Word of God. We, as ministers, should be able to deliver His Word as it was done in the days of Christ's ministry. People are hungry for the Word which has astonishing effect upon hearts today. The writer mentioned that it will "both save thyself and them that hear thee."

To be able ministers of the New Testament, we must be filled with the Holy Ghost, who is our Teacher and Guide. I am sure we desire the whole truth, which He alone is able to guide us into and show us things to come.

The "multitudes in the valley of decision" desire to see a more perfect way. Sticking to the doctrine and seeing the Word of God confirmed will give them spiritual insight and understanding to walk in the light of His Word. A city set on a hill cannot be hid, so likewise, the true doctrine which comes from God will not be hid but will guide men and women to be ready for His coming.

Jude 3: "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints."

This was not a carnal effort. The writer was speaking about earnestly contending for the faith—praying, fasting, seeking the favor of God for His divine direction and understanding. A minister motivated by the Lord in His Church will present the gospel of Christ and will declare that His coming draweth nigh. The scoffers who are walking around fulfilling their own lusts are saying very boldly, "Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation" (2 Peter 3:4).

These elements will not delay His coming. We must firmly preach, practice and believe the Word which was delivered unto the saints.

1 Timothy 6:19: "Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life."

Discontinuing of Church Boosters Committee

The Church Boosters Committee, formerly called Auxiliary Boosters Committee, has served the General Assembly for many years, promoting all phases of the work of the Church. But, in recent years the auxiliaries and various departments boost their work effectively by displaying booths in the Tabernacle corridor and in Assembly programs. Therefore, this Committee feels it would be best that the Church Boosters Committee be discontinued.

10:40 Report of Questions and Subjects Committee. Report accepted upon motion by E. C. McKinley, TN, seconded by Walter Griffiths, OH.

Note: A Department of Children's Ministries was recommended; also, an enlargement of the Executive Committee and a statement concerning the General Trustees. These subjects were held over until the next Assembly.

QUESTIONS AND SUBJECTS COMMITTEE REPORT

Once again we assemble here from many nations to make our reports, to plan the direction of our work, to be instructed, and especially to worship our wonderful Lord. "Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable."

We all recognize the need for the Spirit of the Lord to bind us together, that we may be open to one another, and to Him, as we seek His direction in the business of the Church.

With the moderator's permission we invite this Assembly to stand and pray together that everything done here today will edify the Body of Christ.

The Questions and Subjects Committee has met throughout the year in sessions of several days each for prayerful deliberation and research of questions and subjects which have come to us. A great number of matters have been dealt with through correspondence. Other issues are still being studied for future consideration by the Assembly.

We move the adoption of the following resolutions by this Assembly.

Section 1

Expanding Tomlinson College's Ministry

In his address to the 81st Assembly, the General Overseer asked that "consideration be given to expanding the college's ministry by adding two years of additional Biblical studies with the thought of phasing into a four-year Bible program, while retaining a two-year liberal arts program."

In the past year the College Board of Trustees has conducted a survey of our people and has received a strong response in favor of adding two years of religious and Biblical studies.

We move that the College Board of Trustees be authorized to proceed in this direction.

Section 2

The Teaching Ministry

We move the adoption of the following amendment to the ruling relative to "The Teaching Ministry" as passed in the 67th Assembly, 1972, AM, p. 134, Sec. 3, Par. 3:

It is required of all candidates for the teacher's license (Authorized Teacher's Certificate) that they successfully complete the following courses: Called To Teach, General Bible Study (or its equivalent), and Body of Christ.

State/national overseers may make exceptions to these requirements when it is obvious that the financial status of the candidate would not permit compliance, or when the required material is not available in the language of the candidate, or when the candidate is not literate enough to meet the requirements. However, caution should be exercised in allowing for exceptions to the fundamental requirements, since it is clear that if one is to teach, he first must be taught.

(Note: The earlier ruling "encouraged" the taking of these courses rather than "requiring" that they be completed.)

Restoring Fallen Ministers

The Apostle Paul referred to ministers as "stewards of the mysteries of God" (1 Cor. 4:1). He wrote, "Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful" (v. 2). When a person is called by God into the ministry, and set apart with due recognition by the Church for this high calling, it is expected that his life be above reproach. A minister must be faithful in all things.

When a minister goes back into sin and it brings reproach upon the name of Christ it places a blot upon the Church's image before the world. We want to be merciful, and we dare not fail to forgive one who truly repents of having failed the Lord; however, it is necessary that a person prove his faithfulness as a Christian and as a member of the Church before returning to the ministry. To be licensed too soon before demonstrating his faithfulness in all things does damage to the image of the ministry of the Church of God.

Acknowledging that this is a matter that may have been considered too lightly in the past, we recommend the following for the Assembly's adoption:

When a minister's license or ordination has been terminated due to his having fallen into sin, he may not be reinstated until he has undergone an extended time of help and counseling directed toward his being completely rehabilitated, and until the confidence of the church is fully restored as to his readiness to be a minister in the Church of God of Prophecy.

The primary help and counsel should come through his pastor and local church. However, where possible, it is highly recommended that the overseer also be directly and actively involved in the restoration process.

The factors relating to the minister's having fallen into sin should be explored and properly identified so as to prevent any recurrence.

Although we are reluctant to set a specific time period for effecting the full restoration of each fallen minister, no one should be relicensed until he has established a proven record of faithfulness and integrity. In some cases, this might require a year; in others, a longer period may be needed, depending upon the degree of damage suffered from the seriousness of the sin, and the rate of progress being made by the candidate.

With the underlying principle involved in discipline being redemptive, justice can best be served with mercy. A local church should readily extend its support and strength to a minister who is repentant.

When his restoration is considered to be complete, the candidate may then be set forth for the ministry, with the approval of the overseer. He will be reinstated by following the procedures required of all candidates for the ministry.

Section 4 Editorial Committee

The 72nd Assembly in 1977 approved the following recommendation: "We recommend that the present 'Editorial Committee on Doctrine' be changed to 'Editorial Committee on Church Doctrine, History and Polity' in the interest of Church unity; and that this committee make final decisions on all materials published by the Church, through any of its official departments, relative to Church doctrine, history or polity. We further recommend that all such materials be duly approved before they are used in any official way, and that such designation be stated on the printed item" (Assembly Minutes, page 136).

It is to be understood that much of this material may contain subject matter which the Assembly might never address. Therefore, it must not be construed that the Editorial Committee is acting for the Assembly in giving its approval on such subject matter, but is merely giving its approval for publication. At the same time, material should not be approved for publication which is in conflict with the intent or the spirit of a previous Assembly ruling.

Visual and Honor Stone Departments

Some of the existing ministries of the Church of Prophecy Marker Association have been under review for some time by the CPMA Committee which has recommended some departmental adjustments. In keeping with their recommendation, inasmuch as the Voice of Salvation is operating and maintaining a growing visual ministry, we recommend that the existing Visual Department of the CPMA be transferred to the supervision of the Voice of Salvation.

The Honor Stone Program which was adopted in the 44th Assembly in 1949 has been administered by the Church of Prophecy Marker Association since that time. In recent years the awarding of Honor Stones has been replaced with honor certificates. After a review of this program by the CPMA Committee, and in keeping with their recommendation, we recommend that the Honor Stone Department be discontinued and that the matter of honoring churches be handled by the Assembly Band Movement Department.

Section 6

In keeping with the mandate from the General Assembly to review and update These Necessary Things, we move the following resolutions be approved by the Assembly:

General Assembly Committees

A. Questions and Subjects—

1. The members of the Questions and Subjects Committee are appointed by the General Overseer at the Assembly for the ensuing Assembly year.
2. Questions and subjects which would seem to require General Assembly action must first be presented to this committee for its review. If a matter can be settled in the committee on the basis of previous Assembly rulings without further procedure, it would not be brought to the Assembly floor. Otherwise, the committee may present the matter in its official report to the Assembly for action.

Matters of an emergency nature not included in the official report may be introduced by the moderator.

B. Ways and Means—

1. The members of the Ways and Means Committee are appointed by the General Overseer at the Assembly for the ensuing Assembly year.
2. It is the function of this committee to receive and study any proposals concerning Church finances, which may be resolved as follows:

Some may be settled in the committee on the basis of previous Assembly rulings. Others may be presented to the General Assembly for action.

C. Watchmen—

1. The members of the Watchmen Committee are appointed by the General Overseer at the Assembly.
2. It is the function of this committee, when the General Assembly is in session, to keep order, and to maintain control within the auditorium and in its general area outside. For example, this committee would be responsible to prevent the distribution of unauthorized literature, the propagation of false teachings, the sowing of discord among the people, unsuitable attire, solicitors, and any other disruptive activities.
3. Committeemen will show courtesy to all, and when force is needed, an officer of the law will be called to take charge of the situation.

D. Counseling Committee—

1. The members of the Counseling Committee are appointed by the General Overseer at the Assembly.
2. The committee meets during the General Assembly for the purpose of counseling with any member or minister who may have an adequate cause to bring before the committee. After the counseling session, the committee will determine whether the matter should be brought to the Questions and Subjects Committee, the Ways and Means Committee, or another Assembly committee.
3. It is advisable that the other established administrative procedures be used where possible before bringing matters to the Counseling Committee.

Note: All reports by the above committees are reviewed by the moderator before being presented to the Assembly.

With reference to the Assembly Expense Committee, we recommend its discontinuance, with its responsibilities to be handled in the future by the Ways and Means Committee.

The Church Boosters Committee, formerly called Auxiliary Boosters Committee, while having served a useful purpose in the past, does not seem as necessary as it once was, with the auxiliaries and various departments receiving a continuous boost throughout the Assembly in the attractive display booths in the Tabernacle corridor. We, therefore, recommend the discontinuance of the Church Boosters Committee.

State-to-State Ministering

In the report of the Questions and Subjects Committee to the 48th Annual Assembly of 1953, the question was asked, "What about pastors and evangelists coming from one state to another to evangelize or pastor without permission of the overseer of the state into which they come?" The answer given and approved by the Assembly was as follows: "This committee recommends they have the approval of the overseer of the state into which they come."

Since this ruling is no longer relevant concerning pastors, inasmuch as pastors are appointed by the overseer, we recommend the following revision:

Licensed and ordained ministers have been examined and approved by the Presbytery as being duly authorized to preach in the Church of God of Prophecy. If for some reason an overseer objects to a particular minister who desires to minister within his area of supervision, the basis for his objection should be communicated directly and personally to the particular minister.

If this is done, it would not then be necessary for every minister in good standing to secure approval before preaching in another state or nation.

Where a minister feels that an overseer's objections are unjust, the matter may be brought to the General Overseer who will either hear the case himself, or he may appoint a select committee to assist in resolving the situation. We must endeavor always and in every way to relieve tensions between fellow licensed ministers, endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Youth Life Team Guidelines

The 65th Assembly in 1970 adopted guidelines for Youth Life Teams, which now may possibly need some revision or updating. We recommend that these guidelines in the future be established by the Victory Leaders Department rather than by the Assembly.

Requirements for Special Honor

The 58th Assembly of 1963 established the requirement for the length of a revival in order for a church to receive an honor stone. Also, the 61st Assembly in 1966 approved additional honor by the Honor Stone Department to churches showing membership increases of at least 5%. We recommend for adoption that in the future such requirements be established by the department responsible for setting the standards for honoring our churches and ministers.

The Church Membership Covenant

The following Question and Answer was approved in the 27th Assembly in 1932:

“Question: When does a person become a member of the Church . . . —when he takes the covenant to accept the New Testament as his only rule of faith and practice, or when he is given the right hand of fellowship, or does it require both of these?

“Answer: The main thing is the covenant administered by a person vested with the proper authority, but the right hand of fellowship is considered a part of the ceremony” (Assembly Minutes, page 53).

We recommend this ruling be replaced with a more comprehensive statement which follows:

The Biblical word translated covenant is defined as “a formal, solemn and binding agreement.” The first covenant between God and His people Israel is recorded in Exodus 19:5, 6. There God promised to make these people, who already were under the Abrahamic covenant, that was marked by circumcision, a peculiar treasure unto Himself above all people. By this additional covenant which entailed obeying His voice and submitting to His words, they would become a holy nation.

God’s initial covenant to Abraham (Genesis 17:7) prefigured the covenant of grace which came to its fruition in Jesus Christ. Every born again believer thus becomes a child of Abraham (Galatians 3:7). The covenant God entered into at Mt. Sinai with these children of Abraham symbolized a covenant that was to go beyond just being born again and experiencing circumcision of heart. This is the covenant which gives rise to God’s holy nation under grace (1 Peter 2:9).

While the actual formula of covenant during the days of the apostles cannot be precisely substantiated, the principle is definitely scriptural. Jesus said, “I have given them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them” (John 17:8). Again He said, “. . . they have kept my word” (v. 6). That they were committed to the Word there can be no doubt.

This is the principle behind taking the covenant to become a part of the Church of God.

A. Purpose

Closely connected with the making of a covenant was the sealing and establishing of it by the observance of a ritual which expressed acceptance of its terms and warned violators of certain judgment.

Blood sacrifices of animals were fundamental in the sealing of the Old Testament covenants between God and His people (Ex. 24:4-8; Lev. 17:11; Heb. 9:1-13). But the New Testament was sealed by the blood of Christ. "Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us" (Heb. 9:12).

The New Testament in Christ's blood is the basis of all Christian covenants, but none other approaches its significance. Indeed, were it not for the shedding of His precious blood, His death and resurrection, there would be no Church, and no basis for Christian unity (1 Cor. 15:14).

B. Administering the Membership Covenant

1. To become a member of the Church, the Body of Christ, one first must be living under the covenant in His blood, that is, he must be a true child of God which occurs at the time of the new birth. Only then is he eligible to be united with the visible Body which is His Church (Eph. 1:22, 23).

2. The covenant of church membership is a solemn agreement between the members of the Church, and with God, that they will faithfully hold to the fundamental doctrines and requirements of the Scriptures as interpreted and endorsed by the General Assembly.

3. Those eligible members who are united to the Church by covenant affirm the following statement: "Will you sincerely promise in the presence of God and these witnesses that you will accept this [the] Bible as the Word of God—believe and practice its teachings rightly divided—the New Testament as your rule of faith and practice, government and discipline, and walk in the light to the best of your knowledge and ability?"

4. The minister who administers this obligation should see that every applicant replies in the affirmative. In taking the obligation, applicants should think of it as being an unending commitment to the Word of God (John 17:6; Acts 2:42).

5. Having accepted the foregoing explanation and taken the sacred covenant, the applicants are usually requested to kneel in holy reverence before God, while the minister prays and asks God's guidance and blessings upon the new members, and to place them in the body as He sees fit, to make them fruitful, and that He will keep them true and faithful until death or until His coming.

6. When the prayer is ended, members will file by and give the new members the right hand of fellowship. The church clerk will record the names of the new members on the church roll, along with other vital information, including their addresses and telephone numbers, where applicable.

7. The administering of the covenant, the prayer, the right hand of fellowship, and the recording of the new member's name on the church roll are extrinsic acts which are confirmed by the more intrinsic act in which God by His Holy Spirit baptizes each one into the one body (1 Cor. 12:13).

8. The minister should help prepare prospective members for church membership by offering either personal or class instructions on the fundamental doctrines of Scripture and membership requirements. Those who cannot accept the doctrinal position of the Church, or who may have serious reservations regarding membership requirements, would need more time for study before becoming members.

Section 11 Discipline of Members

Several statements appear in the Assembly Minutes regarding backslidden members and the approach toward disciplining them.

In the 31st Assembly in 1936 the following question and answer is given:

"Question: After a member has been excluded and then comes back, should he take the covenant again as at the first?

"Answer: This has been the practice all the years. He should take the covenant as a new member. If he has been backslidden he should be baptized over" (Assembly Minutes, page 82).

In the same Assembly the following statement was approved: "Backslidden members are members of the Church—the body, Ephesians 1:22, 23—until action is taken by the Church to exclude them. This is verified by Paul [in his epistle] to the Galatians when he wrote them about being bewitched and fallen from grace and still in the Church which is the body" (Assembly Minutes, page 82).

In the 53rd Assembly in 1958 the following was approved, "We also desire to restate the recommendation of the Assembly that in no case should a member be turned out of the Church until the pastor has contacted that member and exerted all possible influence to save him. In case it is not possible to contact him personally, he should be contacted by letter or other means and notified well in advance of the action being

We recommend these three rulings be replaced by the following resolutions:

1. The early Church found it necessary to exclude disloyal members, as shown in 1 Cor. 5:11 and 2 Thess. 3:6. Jesus also taught that it is sometimes necessary to withdraw fellowship from offending members of the body (Matt. 18:17). In order that the Church may express its disapproval of the offender's sin or wrongdoing, and that the discipline may help to bring him back into fellowship, excluding the member from the fellowship of the Church may be imperative in some cases.
2. In no case should a member be excluded from the Church until the pastor and other caring members have contacted that member and exerted all possible influence to restore him in the spirit of Galatians 6:1. In the event it is not possible to contact him personally, he must be contacted by letter or other means, and every possible effort made to restore him. If the member refuses to be reconciled after every reasonable means has failed, before action is taken to disfellowship him, he should be notified by letter or other means well in advance (at least one full week) of the scheduled local church conference in which action is to be taken relative to whether or not his membership shall be retained.
3. Backslidden members are members of the Church until action is taken by the Church to exclude them. This is verified by Paul to the Galatians when he wrote them about being bewitched and fallen from grace and still in the Church which is the body of Christ (Gal. 3:1).
4. Private Offenses. These are offenses of one member against another, or against a very few persons, which violate the divine law and do wrong or injury to particular individuals.
  - A. Following the principle in Matthew 18:15-17, in seeking to restore the offender, one should go to him in "the spirit of meekness," telling him his fault. If he listens, then the brother has been gained. If he refuses, he should be approached with two or three others (possibly the pastor and band leader, or another member), and if the offender still refuses to be reconciled, it should be told to the church. The restoration of the offender is the aim always, but if that fails, he may have to be excluded from the church membership when nothing more can be done to restore him.
  - B. If the church has no alternative but to exclude the offending member, he should then "be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican" (Matt. 18:17).

- (1) Even so, the excluded one should be made to know that the church will readily receive him back into fellowship when he has made proper restitution.

- (2) When a member is excluded, a record must be made in the church's minutes showing the cause for which the offender was excluded. Caution should be exercised in recording charges which could be interpreted as being libelous. In some instances it may be advisable to consult with the state/national overseer. The clerk should notify the excluded member by letter, noting the action taken by the church in conference, and the date and time of the meeting.

5. Public Offenses. Public offenses are more notorious in nature, and less personal in their focus. For example, they would generally include gross immorality, spreading false doctrine or sowing discord in the church. Paul admonished Timothy, "from such withdraw thyself" (1 Tim. 6:5). In Romans 16:17, he enjoined the church to "mark them which cause divisions and offenses contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them." Before action is taken against a member, all possible efforts should be made to restore him.

6. While concern and compassion are to be manifested toward any erring member, including a minister, local churches do not discipline an errant minister, though they are to be involved in his restoration. Any necessary disciplinary action against a minister will be taken by the Presbytery. Should the Presbytery deem it necessary to terminate his ministry, he may then be dealt with by the local church as a disloyal member, providing he cannot be restored.

Section 12 The Bride of Christ

Reference to the Church as the Bride of Christ is one of several beautiful analogies given in the New Testament setting forth the relationship between Christ and His Church. The central New Testament passage concerning the Church as the bride is found in Revelation 19:7-9. The model is that of the Jewish betrothal and marriage, rather than that of the Western model.

According to this model, the Church is now the espoused wife of Christ who is preparing herself for presentation to the Bridegroom at the time of the rapture.

We move that this section replace an earlier statement on this subject in the 21st Assembly, 1926 and in the 27th Assembly, 1932 (These Necessary Things, Eleventh Edition, pages 14, 15).

Section 13

The Wife's Effect on the Status of a Bishop or Deacon

The following question and answer is from the Twelfth Assembly in 1916 (Book of Minutes, page 237):

“Question: When a deacon’s wife backslides and goes into sin, should he be put out of office?”

“Answer: Anything that would prevent the ordination of a deacon would be a cause for recalling his credentials. In such a case, however, necessary steps should first be taken to reclaim the backslider. When the wife of a deacon backslides there is indication of some wrong elsewhere besides in the wife. All necessary Bible instruction should be followed before recalling such a one from his position.”

We recommend this be restated, to read as follows:

When the wife of a deacon or a bishop backslides and falls into sin, great effort should be made to restore the backslider. If she will not be restored, his ordination shall be terminated (1 Timothy 3:11), and in the case of a bishop or a preaching deacon his status shall be changed to that of a licensed minister.

There is to be no change of status in the case of a deacon or bishop who is widowed.

Section 14

Swearing in Court

In the 13th Assembly in 1917 the following question and answer was given:

Question: “Can we be compelled by the laws to hold up our hand and swear in court?”

Answer: “No. The law provides that we can affirm without holding up our hand.”

The answer was given with the view to the religious freedom granted citizens in the United States, to which the Church was principally confined in 1917. Recent investigation has revealed, even in the United States, that although a person will be excused from swearing, being allowed to affirm instead, he may not in every court be excused from raising his hand.

In whatever nation the Church may exist, members should refrain from swearing (Matthew 5:34-37).

Section 15

Annual Summary of General Assembly Proceedings

The 30th Assembly in 1935 adopted the following recommendation: “That each year every pastor deliver to his congregation a message in which the proceedings of the General Assembly shall be summarized for the information of every member. This summary to be prepared, each year, by the General Overseer . . . and an individual copy forwarded to every pastor in advance so as to have the same business acts, teachings and recommendations of the Assembly given to the congregation of every Church of God throughout this nation and foreign countries. The General Overseer is to set the date for all pastors to deliver the message on the proceedings of the Assembly" (Assembly Minutes, pages 68, 69).

The 18th Assembly in 1923 adopted the following: "In order to make the actions of the Assembly valid and effective for the local churches, the overseers and pastors were instructed to go to the local churches and get each one to ratify the actions of the Assembly by acceptance. This is in harmony with New Testament order, for at the Assembly at Jerusalem men were chosen to carry the letters and decrees to the churches for their acceptance and practice (Acts 15:22, 27, 30; Acts 16:4).

We recommend that these be replaced with the following statement:

The General Overseer is responsible to see that a summary of the business acts of each Annual Assembly be prepared as soon as possible following its adjournment, and distributed to each local church. The Pastor is responsible to read these business acts to his congregation to familiarize them with the proceedings of the Assembly.

Section 16 On Our Church Flag

In the 43rd Assembly in 1948 it was recommended "that this Assembly prohibit any church, Sunday School, or individual outside or inside the Church attempting to draw or have drawn the likeness of this flag unless authorized by the General Overseer and the General Properties Committee, as our flag is the property of the Church. This is absolutely necessary in order to keep the flag standardized so that every flag will be exactly alike in design and form . . . ."

In reconfirming the above-stated recommendation we further recommend that discretion be used with regard to allowing the reproduction of the Church flag upon items which might desecrate its sacred meaning. It should not be reproduced on items of clothing where it is subject to being soiled or defaced. Should such items be found for sale our people should refrain from purchasing them.

Afternoon

1:00 Sunday School Program—directed by General Secretary Harold Hunter. Theme: “Blessed are . . .” Concert prayer of praise led by Brother Hunter.

1:05 Devotions led by Dian Hodge and Berchards Jacobs.

2:20 “They Who Put Their Trust in the Lord,” message by Aston R. Morrison, presented in an abridged form.

“Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

“The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his anointed, saying,

“Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

“Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

“Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

“Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him” (Psalm 2:1-3, 10-12).

“As king of Israel, David was familiar with the situations of his time. He was speaking from an experiential and also a prophetic perspective. As king, he encountered and observed the nation in their antagonistic attitude toward Jehovah, the only true God.

“As a prophet under the influence of the Holy Spirit, he was counting the universal past of human history and observing the multiplicity of atheistic concepts, ideologies and philosophies which would be waging war against God and His operation, against His supremacy and sovereignty.

“Our time is characterized by the same age-old undermining activities by the powers of darkness. These perilous activities are descending upon modern man in a devastating form, like the disastrous effects of tornadoes, tidal waves or volcanic eruptions. These anti-God, anti-Christian concepts leave men destitute of their trust in God.

“It is to be understood ever, that it shall not be well with the wicked, of those who do not put their trust in God. But as the scripture says, ‘They that trust in the Lord shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth forever’ (Psalm 125:1). Trust in God involves accepting Him in the totality of the revelation which He has given of Himself. In the context of this revelation, we see Him as the Eternal One, the God of the entire universe.

“In the context of this divine disclosure of himself, the admonition came to Israel: ‘Hear O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might’ (Deuteronomy 6:4, 5).

“The totality of our being—all our soul, all our heart and all our might—must be involved in the worshipping of Jehovah. By the confinement to such dimension of love for God, and therefore trust in Him, Israel would be recipients of His blessings.

"A summary of such blessings has been listed in Deuteronomy 28:2-6. In Philippians 4:19 Paul summarizes them: 'But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.' 'As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about his people from henceforth even for ever' (Psalm 125:2). We discern here a sense of stability, of divine protection. Those who trust in God are blessed with divine reinforcement. They are protected on every hand.

"David said, 'The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing' (Psalm 34:10). God shall supply their needs.

"Israel, in its history, is an example of God's favor upon a people as long as they maintained their trust in Him. They were successful. Five chased a hundred and a hundred put ten thousand to flight (Leviticus 26:8), because God was with them. The Church in these last days will experience the same increase, the same prosperity, the same victory and power over the forces of evil, as it maintains its trust in the Lord.

"To be blessed is to be having with you the full favor and prosperity of God. God is more than enough, and He is able to make us bountiful, helping us to grow, helping us to multiply, helping us to show forth His power and His glory.

"Those who fail to put their trust in God will be lost forever. David says, 'The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God' (Psalm 9:17). But they that put their trust in God shall be multiplied now and forever. David was established in the trust of God through the well organized religious educational system that was instituted through the Mosaic dispensation.

"Let the Sunday School in these last days, with its code of teaching, instill the trust of God in the hearts and souls of boys and girls, men and women, so that we shall be able to stand up to the forces of darkness that are influencing our age. I can attest to the great ministry of the Sunday School, to the importance of its ministry to the Church. Yes, it is teaching boys and girls, men and women under the influence and power of the Holy Spirit to put their trust in God."

1:43 "Those Who Celebrate," by Paulette Wilbanks. A promotional for "Celebration Saturday."

1:46 "The Broken," by David Welch. A demonstration showing the growth of a Sunday School teacher. This showed a teacher working with a child, following him through his teenage years, his career age and as head of a family. The vision of the teacher becomes a reality as the student brings his family to stand for God.

1:58 Announcements and introductions. Twelve Hours of Prayer, as a fall activity. Brother Hunter introduced his staff, then his wife Sondra, who boosted the Heritage Care Fund, using visuals.

2:12 "The Children Who Lead," children and adult choirs from Lamora Park, Battle Creek, MI.

2:27 Responsive reading of Psalm 118 by State/National Sunday School Secretaries.

2:32 "The Peacemakers" (Matthew 5:9), message by Harold D. Hunter. (This message was published in the White Wing Messenger dated, November 14, 1987, and made available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

3:21 "I Go To The Rock," song by Reba Spencer.

3:26 Ordination Message, by John Doroshuk, presented in an abridged form.

"And he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him.

"And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach,

"And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils" (Mark 3:13-15).

"Mark goes on to name the twelve apostles. First of all, Jesus selected them and then He ordained them. I believe this is very significant.

"Later He said, 'Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit . . .' (John 15:16).

"Peter wrote, 'The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

'Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

'Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock.

'And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away' (1 Peter 1:1-4).

"In this portion of scripture, he specifically addresses the elders.

"Allow me to relate to you a very special vision that was seen by a fellow minister in the Church of God, who affirms that he was in the Spirit. God allowed him to look into heaven, and when he saw the awesomeness and the greatness of heaven he fell down as dead. In his vision of the glory of the Almighty he saw some very unusual creatures, plus billions of angels. Our fellow minister, John, the beloved Apostle, also saw twenty-four elders there.

"The term elder, in reference to the twenty-four elders, is the same term used of the front-line ministry in the New Testament. We find terms like, bishop, elder, deacon, shepherd, pastor, servant. These are somewhat synonymous and are all used in reference to taking care of the flock of God. Elders in God's Church on earth are an extension of the pattern in heaven.

"The twenty-four elders are the examples of the highest form of servanthood. To be chosen and ordained as an elder is to be chosen for the highest form of servanthood on earth.

"As we look at the twenty-four elders we can use them as wonderful examples of worship, seeing them falling on their faces before Him. They are also examples of submission. They cast their crowns at Jesus' feet, and they fell on their faces before Him, which showed submission. This is something we sometimes have to work at. It's important to be submissive.

"Elders are also examples in labor. The very picture shows that they sit before the throne of God. They have crowns that signify rulership. Of course, it is not just an authority which says, 'You do this, you do that,' but it is carried out in labor. All this is fulfilled in the elders of the Church today as they care for God's heritage, the Church of God.

"In the Old Testament, we find that God chose Moses to lead the people of Israel. When he came down the mountain, from his meeting with God, his countenance was radiant. But God let Moses know this was not a one-man program. God gave him some elders. These elders were not selected by some kind of democratic process, but by the immediate direction of God. God confirmed their selection, causing His spirit to be poured out on all seventy of them.

"There are some beautiful analogies in the relationship of God's dealing with us as the Shepherd and His sheep. How can an elder be a shepherd and also a sheep? We have to understand the setting of the sheep and shepherd. The shepherd was the one who went before the sheep, but in every flock there was an old ewe. As she responded to the shepherd the other sheep responded to him.

"Just a few days ago, a brother in the church up in Valleyview, Alberta took me for a boat ride. We went down the river to a particular place and he began to tell me how his dad used to take the sheep across the river in the shallow part of the rapids over to the other side where there was a nice pasture. He said on some occasions he would be leading those sheep across when the lead sheep would not quite follow, but began to go sideways. About fifteen or twenty sheep would begin to follow her. Many times his sons would have to go into the water to rescue sheep. Why? Because that lead sheep was not following the shepherd.

"Elders, you are sheep, just as are the members who are sitting on the pew. But God has chosen you as a lead sheep. As you respond to the Shepherd, the other sheep will follow.

"Then, the shepherd has others to assist him. There are the sheep shearers and others who will clean up the waste and take care of the physical facilities.

"Deacons, it is your responsibility to shear the sheep, to clean the barns, to bring in fresh straw—all it takes to make the sheep comfortable. Yes, deacons are important. Thank God for good deacons. When the devil dumps garbage in the church, that's the time for the deacons to get in there and clean it out. Goats love to live in garbage, but not sheep.

"Ordination is the channel God has chosen for the Church to give recognition to those He has chosen. Those who are to be ordained are already doing what God requires of them. Ordination does not make one a greater individual. It makes him a part of God's greatness in leading His people."

3:55 Ordination Service. 1 Timothy 3:1-13 was read by Brother Doroshuk. The bishops came first to the platform to be ordained by the laying on of hands by the presbytery, while their wives stood; then the deacons.

5:24 “The Church Triumphant” (Matthew 16:17, 18), message by Calvin Jones, presented in an abridged form.

“And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. And I say unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it” (Matthew 16:17, 18).

“To the mind of man it may seem strange how God works His sovereign will; however, it must be kept in mind that God has a master plan for humanity which individuals may never understand. There are many things, however, that we may understand through the Holy Scriptures, which provide us doctrine and light we need to accomplish God’s will.

“The mystery of the Church itself was hidden in God for many ages, but it is not hidden any more from those who will hear and believe. The revelation of the Church as the Body of Christ is accepted by faith, faith that is based upon evidence found in the Word of God. The doctrine of the Church is not only truth accepted by divine revelation, but it is truth that can be defended in the Scriptures. Paul wrote, 'How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery . . . which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit' (Ephesians 3:3). The Holy Ghost has opened our understanding to many things in recent years that were not revealed earlier.

"The coming of Jesus was for the complete redemption of fallen man. Jesus came also for the establishing of a sheepfold, the Church.

"The time had come for testing the disciples' faith. They had walked with Jesus and had seen Him heal the sick, feed the hungry multitudes, call the dead back to life and calm the stormy sea. Now Jesus wanted to know if they really knew who He was. He asked, 'Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?' (Matthew 16:13). They responded: 'Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets' (v. 14). He pressed the question further: 'But whom say ye that I am?' (v. 15). It was the impetuous Peter who cried aloud, 'Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God' (v. 16). Jesus showed His approval of the answer Peter had given and said, 'Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-Jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock, I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.' The Church could not be built without understanding, completely free of doubt between Christ and His disciples.

"To think that Jesus Christ established more than one Church with a variety of teachings and doctrines is completely absurd. Solomon wrote, 'There are threescore queens, and fourscore concubines, and virgins without number. My dove, my undefiled is but one; she is the only one of her mother, she is the choice one of her that bare her' (Song of Solomon 6:9). Jesus knew the Church would be opposed but He gave assurance that the gates of hell would not prevail against it.

The Church believes in the leadership of the Holy Ghost, that God, through His wisdom, works through leaders to lead it on to victory. Man is not a legislator of divine leadership. God is the Legislator, and men are only used to carry out God's government when moved upon by the Holy Ghost.

"God's ultimate goal is to bring together all of His people into one fold. Jesus said, 'And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring . . . and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd' (John 10:16). Many have asked, 'How is this going to come about?' It will come to pass through the preaching of the truth, the operation of the gifts of the Spirit, and by the power of God's Spirit.

"Let us lift our banners high and rejoice greatly and claim all that God has promised. Don't settle for less! God has spoken it, it shall come to pass!

"To appreciate God's Church, there must be a love and spiritual understanding of its teaching and doctrines. Those who have this love and understanding will stand by and be ready to defend these teachings.

"The time has come that we can no longer afford to be void of the fullness of the Holy Ghost. We live in a time of crisis, and unless the Spirit of God blows through the Church like rivers of living water, we are going no place at all.

"God will bring all honest hearted Christians together. They will desire the truth, confirmed by the operation of the gifts of the Spirit. They will know that God's plan is for one Church. Isaiah 45:14 is prophetic in nature, but it's a great scripture: 'Thus saith the Lord, The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee; and there is none else, there is no God.'

"Again Isaiah wrote, 'Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side. Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee' (Isaiah 60:4).

"This is not a time to be fearful. This is not a time to fall back into doubt. We must be a militant Church! We must raise a war against sin and shame, against the devil and all of his imps!

"I have read the last chapter and I know the finale of the Church triumphant. John wrote, 'Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb' (Revelation 19:7-9)."

Evening

6:15 Assembly Expense Offering. Special singing by Ron Craig Singers and music by Jerry and Eugene Smith.

6:30 World Mission Program—directed by Adrian L. Varlack, General Secretary. Theme: "... Unto the uttermost part of the earth." Special prayer for flood victims in Venezuela. Mission Representatives E. E. Van Deventer, Bobby R. Snow and Arthur C. Moss introduced their families.

Brother Varlack introduced his family and office staff.

6:48 Psalm 117 read by Janice Varlack.

6:54 Song by Spanish-speaking Overseers, "We Shall Wear a Crown." As they continued singing the congregation joined with them, singing in English and Spanish. A great time of praising the Lord. There was a handkerchief wave as the Assembly sang, "Victory in Jesus." The Holy Ghost blessed in a mighty way. (Excerpts from a message in tongues) "Hearken to My Word! Exalt My Word! Humble yourselves; there is too much flesh, there is too much carnality. Call upon Me and I will answer you . . . I will bring forth healing and righteousness as a mighty stream . . ."

7:25 Mission Representative Raul Torres was called upon to introduce Overseer Roberto Lam, from Cuba. Brother Torres apologized to his family for not introducing them, choosing to give this time to Brother Lam, who had been unable to attend the Assembly for 32 years. He received a standing ovation. This was an emotional moment for Brother Lam and for the Assembly, as he addressed the congregation briefly. (Excerpts) "I thank the Lord for His great love and mercy. I feel so happy—I think my heart will jump out of my chest. I bring you special greetings from the Church in Cuba. How many will pray that Cuba will be won for Christ? (He asked for a show of hands.) I have a big family here. You are my brothers and my sisters.

"Many times we do not understand the will of the Lord. God knows all things; He knows when to do all things. What is theocratic government? What is He governing? Our hearts? Our homes? Could it be that we are doing only what is convenient? Are we willing to obey Him—to do His will?

"Brethren, God is demanding of us sacrifices. How can we go on if we are not willing to die for Christ and His Church? Can God do with your life whatever He desires? Can we say, 'Have Thine own way'? A verse of scripture that has governed my life is 1 John 1:7, 'But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.' God bless you. Amen."

8:05 "Partakers of the Afflictions of the Gospel" (2 Timothy 1:8), message by Ernesto Castro Martinez, Overseer of Nicaragua, presented in an abridged form.

"I feel happy, content and privileged to be a partaker of the afflictions of the gospel. I am Nicaraguan and I love the mission program. Had it not been for the mission program Nicaragua would not have known about the Church.

"If it becomes necessary for me to offer my life for Christ and the Church I will gladly do it. I can say with the Apostle Paul, 'But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God' (Acts 20:24).

"I am a soldier of Jesus Christ. Nicaragua is a country where all you hear of is war. People are running around asking, 'Who won the battle?' I can say for the Church that we have never lost a battle. While we have our problems, the hand of the Lord has not been shortened. In six years the Lord has given us 83 churches. He has delivered me from ambushes and from death. Theocratic government is still operating in Nicaragua. Wherever you go you can see the Church flag waving.

"In order to see the glory of God, you must sacrifice. If Christ overcame, I can be more than a conqueror. I recently had a meeting with some people from the government, and they said all our pastors between the ages of 22-45 must be recruited to go to the mountains and fight. Most all of our pastors fall in that age group. I will be left because I am an elder. If they refuse to fight they will be considered revolutionists. If they do fight they will fall into the hands of the Contras.

"But God is God! What He promises, He does! If He was with the church in the wilderness, He will be with us."

8:34 A Time of Thanksgiving—Mission Representatives led in giving thanks to God for the victories won in many nations.

8:43 Special Singing by the Varlack children, "Blessed Assurance."

8:50 Testimony by Lois Francis from England who served with the World Mission Corps in Sierra Leone. She attributed her accomplishments directly to prayers being prayed for her back home.

8:56 Testimony by John Doroshuk concerning his trip to Haiti this year where he labored with the people in repairing a building.

9:03 Announcement of Mission Church of the Year award. This award went to the church at Hudson, New Hampshire, David Newlun, Pastor.

9:07 Parade of Nations—59 young ladies dressed in red robes with sashes bearing the names of countries around the world where we have churches marched into the auditorium carrying the flags of these countries. Brother Varlack stated that the Church now operates in 90 nations with a membership of 172,000, but that there are 133 unreached nations.

The new nation in which the Church was established this year was Burkina Faso in West Africa, having a population of 6,900,000. To the saints in Burkina Faso the Assembly said, "Welcome to the Church of God." During a skit Brother Varlack read a challenge to the Church to which the congregation responded by singing, "Yes, Lord, Yes!"

9:38 "Preparing to Reach the Uttermost Part of the Earth" (Acts 1:8), message by Adrian L. Varlack. (This message was published in the White Wing Messenger dated, October 3, 1987, and made available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

10:28 Altar invitation by Lloyd W. Samuels. Altar music coordinated by Ron and Debbe Craig.

Morning

7:30 Can Ye Not Tarry With Me One Hour?—Prayer Clinic conducted by Terry Mahan. This morning's prayer topic was on relationships—"Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors."

8:30 Music by Bahama Brass Band.

8:47 Congregational Singing, led by Larry Duncan; Debbie Shewbridge, pianist; Garnett Craig, organist. Hebrews 12:22-29 read by B. J. Taylor. Prayer led by Samuel Rymer, followed by concert prayer for requests.

9:05 Two songs by Compton Choir, from Los Angeles, California.

9:20 "Changed to His Image" (1 Corinthians 2:3), message by Sam N. Clements, the General Overseer's pastor. All Brother Tomlinson's former pastors who were present were invited to sit on the platform at this time.

"In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple . . . Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone . . ." (Isaiah 6:1, 5).

"Isaiah had a unique experience. Through a vision he had a personal encounter with God. I feel that we must have a similar experience, that we must see Him for ourselves if we are going to be effective ministers to this world. When a man really sees God, he will see himself as he is; he will never boast of himself again. In God's presence we are made to realize how small, how weak, how insufficient we really are.

"Christ made the difference in the first century Church and the difference in the twentieth century will be Christ. 'That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life . . .' (1 John 1:1). These men had actually seen Christ. They had heard Christ. They had touched Him; they preached Christ and the Church resulted. God's method is a message and the message is Christ.

"Until we have a real encounter with God, a crisis experience similar to Isaiah's vision, our loyalty at the most will be a sentiment and not a constraining power. We have sought to advance through various means. We have thought that if we could build greater buildings, if we could move into new areas or locate in different places that this would be the answer to church growth. But these things have not brought revival to our churches.

"We have sought advancement in education, and this is very much needed, but we cannot minister from our studies alone. It is not the intellect that touches men's hearts, but the Spirit of Almighty God. Christianity cannot be reduced to study; it would produce only a nation of experts in religious law, no different from the Scribes and Pharisees.

"From what we learn about Isaiah, he was an educated man, able, prepared. He was a prophet, a statesman, a theologian, an artist with words, but like many preachers he had preached for years without ever having seen God.

"There are those among us today who are qualified counselors, adept administrators, great organizers, even powerful preachers, who have never had a personal confrontation with the Almighty God. They have the written record of God's Word, but it has never burned in their hearts like a fire as it did in the heart of Jeremiah. They have never experienced Isaiah's transport into the heavens to see the Lord high and lifted up. They can give book reviews; they can give pep talks, even moralizing sermons and legalistic lectures, but they cannot say, 'Thus saith the Lord,' because they have neither seen Him nor heard from Him. We need a word from God today. We need someone who can say, 'Thus saith the Lord,' who can say, 'It seems good to the Holy Ghost.'

"At this crucial point we must have a word from Heaven. We know how to carry on church activities if the Holy Ghost never comes near, but until we get a glimpse of the glory of the Lord and are transformed into His image by His Spirit our work, our labor, our preaching and our teaching is in vain.

"Isaiah saw the holiness of God, the vastness of God, and he stood in awe. He stood in reverence and adoration. After this vision Isaiah could reveal an entirely new and different dimension about God. Until we have been with Jesus, until we have seen Him, until we have touched Him, until our spirits have been ignited by Him, we are in no condition to try to reveal Him to the world.

"Here lies the problem of this generation. They have not seen Him for themselves. They are living on hand-me-down inspiration. They have not been given the freedom to explore and to find Christ for themselves. They have been given a product rather than a formula. They have been asked to maintain rather than to build. People do this in the business world all the time. They risk, they work, they sacrifice to build a business; they want something to give their children. They don't want them to have to go through what they went through in order to build the business, so they give them a product rather than a formula. The children fail because they were not allowed to risk, to explore. They are expected to have the same vision, the same feeling, the same appreciation for the business as the man that took all the risks, that paid the price. But they just don't have it; they don't feel it.

"The restoration plea of the Church today is a plea for the formula. We cannot just give this generation a product, handing them a set of rules, telling them what we want them to know, putting them inside a fence and then expecting them to grow. Each generation must rediscover Christ for themselves.

"Give me freedom to explore. If I fall down, help me get up. If I err, correct me; I stand to be corrected, but don't lock me in a box and expect me to grow. Simply handing down a product and telling our children to do this or that because the Church says to do it makes the children of the explorers enemies of the exploration. But truth discovered personally is a motivation to obedience. Truth discovered personally is the path to true freedom. There must be personal encounters with God.

"The Jews failed because they had their law but they did not have God. They had the product but they had lost the formula. What it took to bring the Church out of the Dark Ages, it's going to take to carry it on. If it took agonizing prayer, fasting, an honest searching of the Scriptures for the light of truth, it will take no less today. We simply cannot continue in the same light and live on the same experiences our fathers knew.

"Our experiences may not be the same as Isaiah's, Paul's, John's or A. J. Tomlinson's. But wherever I am, when my spirit touches His Spirit and my eyes behold His glory, there is where my change will come. There is where I will walk out of darkness into the light. There is where I will walk out of fear into heavenly joy. There is where I will walk out of weakness into power, out of the natural into the spiritual.

"Some of you need a fresh vision, a personal touch, that personal encounter to look up out of your trials and pressures. If you can look up out of those things, high and lifted up is One who is on His throne. And He is saying, 'Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden and I will give you rest.' He is the One which was, which is and which is to come, the Almighty God. He is the One that Herod could not destroy, that demons could not entice, that sin could not contaminate and that the grave could not hold. He is alive forevermore, and He is here today to change your life."

10:00 Song arrangement by Verlin Thornton. Members of the Tomlinson family sang a medley of songs. Brother Tomlinson introduced his wife and family.

10:15 Pledge to the Church Flag and to the Bible.

THE CHURCH OF GOD FLAG PLEDGE

I pledge allegiance to our Church flag, and to the doctrine for which it stands—one God, one Faith, one Mind, and one Church for all. Amen!

THE BIBLE PLEDGE

I pledge allegiance to the Bible, God's Holy Word. I will make it a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path. I will hide its words in my heart that I may not sin against God.

GENERAL OVERSEER'S ANNUAL ADDRESS
Before the Eighty-second Annual Assembly of the Church of God

INTRODUCTION

(An Encounter With God)

Isaiah knew the meaning of an encounter with God. He could pinpoint the time when it happened; it was the year when King Uzziah died. He could describe it vividly. The Lord was sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up. He saw seraphims worshipping Him, crying, "Holy, holy, holy" (Isaiah 6:3).

As such a scene burst upon his sight, it reduced Isaiah to a degree of humility wherein he could cry from his heart, "Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts" (v. 5).

The encounters with God which each of us has from time to time are different. None of us might have had an experience just like the one described by Isaiah, but however it may occur, when we realize we are experiencing a divine visitation it produces a feeling of unworthiness. We at once will feel like falling down before Him.

It was on the backside of a desert that God visited Moses. By means of a burning bush the Lord attracted his attention. When Moses approached the bush God called to him out of its midst saying, "Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I. And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob" (Exodus 3:4-6).

No doubt, Moses had heard about Abraham's encounters with God. The experiences of his forefathers had been passed down from generation to generation. He had surely heard about Jacob's vision of a ladder at Bethel, when Jacob had declared "How dreadful is this place!" (Genesis 28:17). It is certain he had been told how Jacob later wrestled all night with an angel. Now, however, Moses himself was standing in the presence of the Almighty. It was, indeed, holy ground. The scripture says, "And Moses hid his face" (Exodus 3:6). When any mortal recognizes that he is standing in God's presence, it is awesome.

When Joshua, having crossed over Jordan, approached Jericho he saw a man standing with a drawn sword. Supposing him to be an ordinary human Joshua went to him and asked, "Art thou for us, or for our adversaries?" (Joshua 5:13). The reply he received must have been startling for this leader of God's people. It was, "Nay; but as captain of the host of the Lord am I now come. And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and did worship, and said unto him, What saith my lord unto his servant? And the captain of the Lord's host said unto Joshua, Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy" (vv. 14, 15).

Prior to this encounter Joshua probably felt very much in charge. This feeling changed suddenly, with Joshua now having his face to the ground asking, "What saith my lord to his servant?" When he recognized the One in whose presence he was standing he was ready to change from giving orders to taking orders.

This One whom Joshua met that day, the One whom Moses met at the burning bush, is the only One capable of leading and directing His people. It is important that we have eyes to see Him and ears to hear Him as He makes Himself known in our midst. It is possible to have minds of our own, so made up that we become unaware of His presence and totally unresponsive to His visitations.

Such was the case with Balaam as he journeyed to meet the king of Moab. God's anger was kindled against him because he went, and He sent his angel to stand in his way. The animal Balaam was riding on was more perceptive than was this prophet who was attempting to override the will of God. Though he beat the animal, his attempt to proceed on his journey was to no avail. The animal could see the angel with the drawn sword.

When finally Balaam's eyes were opened to where he could see the angel he fell flat on his face and acknowledged that he had sinned. It was only God's mercy that spared this prophet from being slain. We too can be thankful for God's mercy toward us at those times when we have not been spiritually perceptive or sensitive to His presence.

Who can deny His presence with us during this 82nd Assembly? He is speaking to us, and we must listen. We dare not be headstrong, determined to do things our own way. We rather want to recognize that we, like Moses and Joshua, are standing on holy ground. In the awesomeness of His presence we must bow in total submission to His power and authority over His Church.

A passage from Hebrews, chapter twelve, seems appropriate at this time:

"For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

"And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more . . .

"But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,

"To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect . . .

"See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven" (vv. 18, 19, 22, 23, 25).

We have not gathered here this week for a mere social gathering. Many of you have come from great distances. Some have made great sacrifices to be present. God who searches every heart knows our sincerity. He knows our earnest desire to hear Him and to be responsive to His voice.

I believe He wants to be as real to us as He was to Jacob, to Moses, to Joshua, to Isaiah. Yes, God is unchanging, and the purposes for His Church which He purchased with the blood of His Son are going to be fulfilled. The encounter with God which we are experiencing this week can have far-reaching effects. Can we say with Samuel of old, "Speak, Lord; for thy servant heareth"?

HE THAT HATH AN EAR

"He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches . . ." (Revelation 2:7).

Seven times the Head of the Church spoke through His servant John, admonishing each of the seven churches in Asia to give heed to the Spirit's message to them. The Holy Ghost had come to reprove them and to lead them forward in righteousness, but only as they were willing to listen would they benefit from His visitation.

Some sixty years had passed since the Day of Pentecost when the Holy Ghost had descended in such a powerful manner. Judging from the description of these seven churches, by the One whose judgment is perfect, most of them had drifted from that vital relationship with the Holy Ghost which they once knew.

In its early years the Church had been very conscious of the Spirit's direction. Philip received guidance directly from God while he was in Samaria. Later we find him in a desert where an Ethiopian eunuch was returning from Jerusalem: "Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. And Philip ran thither to him . . ." (Acts 8:29, 30). The result was the eunuch's conversion and baptism.

It was on a housetop at Joppa that Peter had a vision: "While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them" (Acts 10:19, 20). The result was Peter's ministry to the Gentiles in the house of Cornelius, with the Holy Ghost being poured out upon them.

We see God working somewhat differently on another occasion in the church at Antioch: "Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers . . . As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. So they being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed . . ." (Acts 13:1-4).

Whereas the Spirit worked directly with Philip and with Peter, we find Him working at Antioch through certain prophets and teachers, concerning Barnabas and Paul's ministry. Being sovereign, He can use whatever means for directing people that He chooses to employ. Regardless of the differences in approach for giving them direction, the Church was aware that He was their Guide and that apart from Him they could do nothing. So, they maintained a sensitivity to divine direction.

This pleased the Lord, and the results of their labors bore evidence that He was in charge. "And they went forth and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following" (Mark 16:20).

As we study the history of our pioneers in this twentieth century, we sense that the same kind of immediate direction by God was provided for them. There did not appear to be any stress between their respect for Church government and their determination to hear and respond to the voice of God. Government that is being administered by the Holy Ghost will never be at odds with what the Spirit is saying to individuals.

It seems that in the latter half of this century there has been a diminishing of individual burden for the Spirit's immediate direction. More and more it appears that we just wait for those over us to give us our assignments. Oftentimes, this results in an apathetic, prayerless posture as we just leave it to them to do the praying, to get in touch with God in behalf of His will for us.

Now we appreciate those leaders God has given, but it was never intended that they do our praying for us, the praying we should be doing in an endeavor to be wholly directed by God. Each of us needs to seek His face, asking for daily guidance, listening to His voice and moving in responsiveness to His bidding.

A Christian is not required to get all his direction from a human leader.

God speaks to individuals. It is an individual call from God that a person receives when he gets saved, when he is sanctified, when he is baptized with the Holy Ghost. Everyone who receives a divine call into the ministry receives it directly from God. It is a very personal thing. This call is not conferred upon a person by the Church. A person's pastor or overseer has nothing to do with this call to preach; it comes from God.

An overseer has the responsibility to see that each congregation within his state or nation has a pastor, but he cannot give direction to everyone's ministry. We should not expect this of him. Several states right now have more than twice as many ministers as they have churches. Right here in Tennessee, for example, there are over four hundred more licensed ministers than there are churches. For each of these ministers to wait for the overseer to direct his activity is unreasonable.

Each minister should be in constant communion with God, listening to His voice, asking God to direct his ministry according to His will. We have hundreds of towns and communities which have not been penetrated with this last-days message. If everyone who has been called of God and set apart for the ministry was listening obediently to the Spirit, would we have so many communities without a witness?

I am afraid too many are depending too much for their direction upon the organization that has developed, rather than seeking God for the direction He will give. Organization is to be appreciated, and it is designed to foster harmony within the Church. We must never be despisers of God's government. When the Holy Ghost is in charge of our organization, and of every minister and member, there will be no conflicts that cannot be easily resolved.

We want to encourage all our ministers and members to establish a communion with God to where the Spirit can speak to their hearts and direct them daily to people who need them, to people with whom the Spirit is also dealing, preparing them for a visit. The fields remain "white unto harvest," while hundreds of ministers are idle, waiting for an overseer to appoint them to a certain place.

Cannot the Spirit direct men today as He did Philip to the Ethiopian eunuch and as He did Peter to the household of Cornelius? Is it not still possible to have a visit by God through a vision such as Paul experienced when "There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us"? (Acts 16:9).

Such sensitivity to the Spirit is certainly scriptural. It is something that was respected and appreciated earlier in this century at a time when the Church was experiencing great growth. Yes, we teach and appreciate good organization, but we must not substitute organization for a vital relationship with the Holy Ghost by individuals whom He can use as He is allowed to direct their steps.

He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit is saying. O God, give us ears to hear Your voice and grace to obey! A lost world, whom God loved so much that He gave His Son, awaits our responsiveness to the Holy Ghost.

THE DAY OF PENTECOST

"And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father. . . . For John truly baptized with water: but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence" (Acts 1:4, 5).

Jesus had finished His work and was now preparing to ascend into heaven. The men to whom He was speaking were not new converts. They had walked with Him for over three years. Following His instructions they already had preached in His name, healed the sick, cleansed the lepers and cast out devils. Now, however, with His departure at hand they were about to enter a new phase of ministry. They needed something special, and the Lord's command was that they not depart from Jerusalem until they had received the "promise of the Father." He declared, ". . . ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence."

From the Mount of Olives they went into Jerusalem, and Luke says, "These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren" (v. 14).

Jerusalem was not a friendly place to be. It was here their Lord had been crucified a few days earlier. They had thought it best, as His followers, to stay out of sight. When Jesus had arisen from the dead and appeared to them the scripture says, ". . . the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews" (John 20:19). They had returned to Galilee, a safer place, and the Lord had visited them there. Now, however, they had come back to Jerusalem to witness His departure to the Father, and His instructions were that they were not to leave Jerusalem until they were baptized with the Holy Ghost.

People to whom God assigns heavy responsibility seldom know at the moment just how great that responsibility is; it is only seen later by those who study their place in history. Such was the case with these men who had been set in the Church as apostles. They were foundation stones whose lives and teaching (which they had received from Jesus) provided the foundation upon which Christ's Church was to be built, against which the gates of hell would not prevail.

They were not supermen—just ordinary men who had been chosen for an extraordinary task. The Master's charge to them was, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations . . . Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you" (Matthew 28:19, 20).

How could they possibly fulfill such a commission? The One who gave them this charge knew their limitations, and that is why He told them not to attempt it until they were "endued with power from on high" (Luke 24:49). This supernatural power, this "power from on high," would be absolutely necessary for them to succeed.

They would be battling "against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places" (Ephesians 6:12). Human wisdom, human strength, human ability would not be sufficient. They needed something from Heaven, and that is what they got!

"And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance" (Acts 2:2-4).

They were filled with the Holy Ghost! They were filled with power! What a difference this power made. It could not be contained behind closed doors. It spilled out into the streets of Jerusalem. Only a few days earlier, in a moment of fear, Simon Peter had denied being a disciple of Jesus, emphasizing his denial by cursing and swearing. At the same time, the other disciples had forsaken their Master and fled. Now, however, Peter stood boldly, with the eleven, and lifted his voice to preach to the multitude who had been drawn together by the miraculous power of the Holy Ghost. "These are not drunken as ye suppose," he declared, "But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel" (vv. 15, 16).

Observe Peter's boldness as he said, "Ye men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know: Him . . . ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain: Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death . . . God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ" (vv. 22-24, 36).

What a difference this Holy Ghost power made. It was demonstrated first in the disciples, then in the multitude who had come together. ". . . they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?" (v. 37).

The Day of Pentecost—just one day—but what a difference that one day made in the history of the Church. There had been so many questions in the minds of the apostles. They seemed bewildered, uncertain as just how to pursue their mission. Following His resurrection, Jesus had appeared to them on several occasions, but just as suddenly He would be gone, and then they would feel leaderless. At one time it appears that they decided to return to their former pursuits. "Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee" (John 21:3).

The power and fire which came upon them on the Day of Pentecost, however, removed their uncertainty and frustration. Suddenly, they found themselves caught up in a power that was beyond themselves.

It was a power that possessed them so completely that they were accused of being drunk. Many among us do not have to wonder what they were experiencing, being able to identify fully with the phrase "drunk in the Spirit" or "lost in the Spirit," being so completely under the Spirit's control that we are not truly ourselves.

On the other hand, we may wonder how many among us have never had such an experience, or indeed how long it has been since, because of Holy Ghost power, we could have been accused of being "drunk on new wine," as the disciples were on that day.

What effect would another one day such as this have on the Church now? We must admit that we are beset with doubts, with uncertainties, that many are experiencing frustration, much like the disciples prior to the Day of Pentecost. It was the power and fire of the Holy Ghost that turned things around for them. Nothing less will be sufficient for us.

We must have an enduement of supernatural power. Can we expect it to ever happen again—that in one city three thousand people can be added to the Church in one day? It will not happen as the result of human planning or human strategy. It will happen only through the display of divine power—Holy Ghost power. Let us pray for, and let us expect, a mighty outpouring of the Holy Ghost and fire.

The following lines from the song, "Pentecostal Fire Is Falling," seem very appropriate:

Pentecost can be repeated,
For the Lord is just the same,
Yesterday, today, forever,
Glory to His precious name!
Saints of God can be victorious
Over sin and death and hell;
Have a full and free salvation,
And the blessed story tell.

The last verse of this song points the way for a glorious renewal of the Day of Pentecost:

When the Church of Jesus tarries,
Pentecostal fire will fall.
Sin and wrong will be defeated,
Sinners on the Lord will call.
She will march to glorious victory,
Over every land and sea,

Lifting high the blood-stained banner,
Holiness her motto be.

The early Church received the same commission we have received: "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." But at the same time He literally said, Don't go without the power—" . . . tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high" (Luke 24:49).

Where we are seeing so much activity without accomplishment, the Master's instructions to the apostles are good for us, also. Tarry—wait—stop your going—cease from your fruitless activities—until ye be endued with power from on high. Time spent in seeking God is not wasted time—it is time well spent.

Do you want to see the Day of Pentecost repeated? Can we see it repeated? I believe we can. Amen!

(Following this section on "The Day of Pentecost" the General Overseer had the congregation stand and sing, "Pentecostal Fire Is Falling.")

THE NEED FOR DOCTRINE

"Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee" (1 Timothy 4:16).

Our Lord was not vague or indefinite in His teaching. He came down from Heaven to reveal God's will for man. His business was to declare what was good for man; indeed, to teach him how to live his life to the fullest. His words were not His own—as He said, "My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me" (John 7:16).

When He set His Church in order, following a night spent in prayer, He proceeded to outline His teachings to those first members, in what we commonly call the Sermon on the Mount. He referred to the traditions they were holding and then followed with, "But I say unto you . . ." He left no doubt that He was introducing a new way based upon the principles of God's love for mankind, a love that was to find expression in the lives of His followers.

Those first members of the Church, those foundation stones, which He named apostles, were attentive students of their Master. By God's plan it would be their responsibility after Christ's departure to relay faithfully these teachings in which they were being instructed. In fact, His doctrine would come to be known as the apostles' doctrine.

While they lived, they would verify the teachings of the Teacher who had walked with them for some three years. Then their record would be left in written form in what we now call the New Testament, so that His teachings could be perpetuated long after their deaths.

Today we are committed to the New Testament as our rule of faith. We can be thankful that this record is clear and distinct so that there need be no doubt about the doctrine Christ gave His Church. Paul's admonition to Timothy is very timely for us at this time, as he wrote, "Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine."

Philosophies of men abound, and there have been many attempts to alter or weaken New Testament teachings, but God's Word is unchanging. It did not originate with the apostles, or even with Jesus of Nazareth. Its origin is in the eternal God; therefore, it is eternal. It seems sad when man, with his very limited understanding, dares to attack that which has come to us from the All-knowing God.

There is an obvious need today for sound, doctrinal preaching and teaching. Shallow exhortations which simply stir the emotions for a short time cannot take the place of feeding God's people with knowledge and understanding. We have a sound faith for which we need to make no apology. It just needs to be declared boldly.

In light of the spiritual immaturity being evidenced among many members, somebody evidently is failing to dig in with God and stand firmly for the faith that was once delivered to the saints by Jesus, through the apostles. According to Jude this faith was delivered once for all (cf. Jude 3). That is to say, there will be no return by Jesus or the apostles to state it in a different manner. It will never be altered.

It is possible to take too much for granted, supposing that our people know the doctrine when, in fact, they do not. Many have never been taught who have been members of the Church for a long time. Then there is always a new generation coming on who has not heard. Ministers must remember that their call into the ministry did not come from man. It was God who called each one, and a minister's responsibility for faithfulness in declaring the doctrine is to the Lord.

Some ministers seem to preach what they think their congregation wants to hear. They might be called "men pleasers," which Paul warned against. If Jesus had preached what the religious people of His time wanted to hear, we would have no New Testament today. His message was from the Father, whom He was determined to please.

Paul's message to Timothy was, "Preach the word" (2 Timothy 4:2). This must be our message—God's Word. Some might not want sound doctrine, but true believers are hungry to know the truth—truth which will establish them in the faith. To preach the truth convincingly, a minister must himself be convinced of what he is declaring. It is not enough to repeat familiar phrases, even though the phrases may be doctrinally sound. The truth must be so ingrained in the minister's personality that the preaching comes from the depth of his heart.

Otherwise, it will not be conveyed with the power which gospel preaching demands.

Know the doctrine, experience the doctrine, then preach the doctrine. Some cardinal doctrines, I'm afraid, are not getting the emphasis they need. Holiness, for example, is an attribute of God, and it is something He demands for His people. "Be ye holy, for I am holy" are His words. This is a teaching which man has attempted to pervert through the years, but it remains a part of the faith that was delivered once for all. Holiness is the state of being free from sin. (Repeat it with me.) For this teaching to be real in our peoples' lives, it must find its support in "Sanctification, a Second Definite Work of Grace."

The power for holy living lies in the power of Jesus' blood. This is a doctrine which must be emphasized. Know it, experience it, then preach it.

What about the Premillennial Second Coming of Jesus? Are we keeping Christ's coming before the people? Do they really believe He is coming? Are they looking for His appearing? "... and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation" (Hebrews 9:28). Too many seem to feel at home in this world. Their pure minds need to be "stirred up" by way of remembrance. This doctrine needs to be preached. Our people need to become excited about getting ready to leave this world, then coming back to reign with Christ for a thousand years in His glorious reign of peace on the earth. Say it with me, "Premillennial Second Coming of Jesus."

He is coming, and we want to be ready. Ministers, it is your responsibility to help your hearers to be ready. Don't fail to declare unto them the whole counsel of God. Preach the doctrine; preach it with power! "... for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee."

COMPASSION MAKES A DIFFERENCE

"And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

"But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd" (Matthew 9:35, 36).

We may wonder just what kind of people made up the multitude that Jesus looked upon. It must have been a varied sort. Perhaps some of them were very sincere and honest people, people who were hungry for spiritual leadership. On the other hand, some of them probably were dishonest; there even might have been some thieves in the crowd. No doubt there were adulterers and harlots among the number. Jesus saw all of them, however, as people who had been victimized by Satan, people who needed deliverance from the power of sin that possessed their lives.

His look was not one of contempt or of disgust. Neither was it one of condemnation. He had not come to condemn but to save. They already were condemned and were carrying a burden of guilt before God. It was with a compassionate spirit that our Lord looked upon this multitude. To him they seemed as sheep without a shepherd. Perhaps He thought of sheep who had been torn by wild beasts and were scattered, having no shepherd to protect and care for their needs.

There were rabbis and religious teachers all right, but their hearts were hardened to the real needs of the people. These so-called shepherds of Israel were feeding themselves and not the flocks. They did not heal that which was sick, or bind up that which was broken, or seek that which was lost. The kind of compassion which our Lord had was foreign to these men who believed in taking care of their own self-interests.

In the synagogue at Nazareth Jesus had read the scripture, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised" (Luke 4:18). He had declared this scripture to be fulfilled that day. He was literally declaring that those who were brokenhearted, those who were captives, those who were bruised were going to receive help. The One with the heart of a true shepherd had come, and the people would soon be made to feel the effects of His compassion.

Compassion has been defined as, literally, suffering with another. The compassionate person becomes as one with the unfortunate individual in his sickness, in his sorrow or in whatever suffering he may be enduring. Compassion is never indifferent to another person's need. Instead, it reaches out in loving concern to minister to the hurts being experienced. It causes a person to identify with another as though he himself were in the same condition or situation.

It is possible for us to carry on our work without this divine quality, but it will not be with success, and it will not please the Lord. Weekly services can be conducted where there is no compassion; excellent sermons can be prepared and delivered, without compassion; songs can be sung beautifully, without compassion; business meetings can be conducted with people being excluded from the Church in an orderly manner, without compassion. All of this is possible, but again we must be reminded that this does not please our Lord.

He who suffered the pain of Calvary did so because of His deep love and concern for every soul. And if we are to identify with Him, as the extension of His ministry on earth today, it must be in the same compassionate concern for others which took Him to the cross.

Yes, we can carry on our church work with or without compassion, but the results will be revealing of the manner in which it has been carried on. We are perhaps the most highly organized at this time that we have ever been, and our activities are at an all-time high. As Overseers prepare their annual calendars of activities, it seems they become more crowded each year. Many of our local churches are places of constant activity. Too many times, however, our altars are barren of bringing forth new life into the family of God. Our reports show too few who have been redeemed from the awfulness of sin.

Where is our compassion for souls who are eternally lost, souls who are destined for an endless lake of fire unless they are reached? We still believe in eternal life for the righteous and eternal punishment for the wicked. O that we would become burdened for these never-dying souls! O for hearts filled with compassion!

It is not enough to carry out our assigned functions routinely, feeling that mere faithfulness to prescribed procedures will be sufficient to please the Lord. Jesus Himself taught us differently in His parable of the Good Samaritan. The priest and the Levite might well have been busy carrying out their religious duties. Stopping to help a wounded, dying man did not fit into their calendar of activities. They were religious all right and they might have been termed faithful by their superiors, but something was missing from their hearts.

What was the difference between these religious men and the Samaritan who took the time to help the unfortunate man who had been attacked by thieves? Luke gave the answer when he wrote, "But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him" (Luke 10:33). Now this Samaritan would not have been welcome in the Temple where this priest and Levite served, but there was something divine stirring within his heart. Though he was on a journey, and he might have had a deadline to meet, he took the time to become involved in another person's tragedy. Compassion made the difference.

We must realize today that people are more important than programs. Staying busy, even with religious activities, is not what is most necessary for the Church of God. We must be a people who follow the example of our Master. His compassion for needy people was displayed time after time.

Even as He was on His way to Jerusalem for the Feast of the Passover, on the occasion when He would be arrested there and crucified, as He passed through Jericho a certain blind man cried out to Him for help. Some of those traveling with Jesus tried to quieten the blind man. Perhaps they felt that the Master did not have time to be distracted by this beggar. After all, Jesus was on an important journey. But something within Jesus would not allow Him to pass this beggar by. He had compassion on him and gave to him the gift of sight, and the man who through his blindness had been forced into a life of begging, did not have to beg any more.

Compassion makes a difference! The people among whom Jesus walked felt the difference which His compassion made in their lives. True compassion within the Body of Christ will make a difference, also, in the people whose lives we touch in this twentieth century. O God, give us compassion!

OUR TELEVISION OUTREACH

During the 80th Assembly in 1984, I asked that you help the General Overseer pray about the possibility of televising portions of the General Assembly by satellite. As you know, this became a reality and four nights of the last Assembly were televised.

Thousands who were unable to attend here in Cleveland, attended in their own areas through this means. Wonderful reports have been received from hundreds of people. Some were saved, some sanctified, some received the Holy Ghost, some were healed and some have become members of the Church as a result of those telecasts. Many contacts of new people have been given to pastors and overseers. We thank God for these results and also that the Voice of Salvation staff is again telecasting portions of this Assembly via satellite, in both English and Spanish, throughout North America and the Caribbean area.

In fact, I understand that this portion of this address is being televised. So, I take this opportunity to greet the thousands of members and friends of the Church watching via satellite. GOD BLESS YOU! I wish you could be here, but since that is not possible I am happy that you can participate in this manner. Would you like to join this vast audience here in Cleveland and together with them shout a great PRAISE THE LORD!

In the last General Assembly the Voice of Salvation minister asked those present to demonstrate their interest in the Church's producing and televising a weekly English television program. The response was overwhelmingly in favor of such an effort. In view of the Lord's command to preach the gospel to every creature, and with television being an effective method of reaching people, a weekly television program is now being aired in several areas. In these areas, the potential viewers number several million. It has been scheduled also on one satellite network that will reach throughout the Caribbean, as well as the United States and Canada. Brother Matthews, or any of his staff, can give particulars regarding the areas scheduled.

There has been a large amount of unfavorable news coverage about various television ministries in the past few months, and it might seem that this is a bad time to expand our thrust into television. But it might be the best possible time! This may be the time to let the world see the integrity of the Church of God! Our telecast WILL NOT BEG for money.

Our program is a CHURCH OF GOD PROGRAM, not built on individuals. It presents a BALANCED MESSAGE OF THE WHOLE BIBLE—not just one segment. And since it is a Church of God program, we will have to support it with our prayers and our finances. This, of course, will be on a voluntary basis, but I urge you to stand by this effort.

We are grateful for this forward thrust toward reaching the world with the last-days message. We now have our message being broadcast in English and Spanish on television, and over some 400 radio stations and short wave networks that cover two-thirds of the world. It is being broadcast also in Greek and French.

Time is short. The work must be done quickly. Let us all be laborers together with God and finish the work. The Psalmist wrote: "the time to favour [Zion], yea, the set time, is come" (Psalm 102:13). Let us pray together, "O Lord, favor your Church!"

CONCLUSION

Years go by so swiftly as we hasten toward that glorious day when Jesus shall descend from heaven with a shout, when the dead in Christ will arise and along with His triumphant Church shall rise to meet Him in the air. This has been a year of many victories, wherein a large number of people have been saved, sanctified, baptized with the Holy Ghost and added to the Church of God. For this we want to lift our hearts in praise to the Lord.

The efforts of the past year are now a matter of record, a record which cannot be changed. We never seem to accomplish as much as we hope for, but God is mindful of all that has been done, and no effort in His name will go unrewarded.

We must not spend too much time in looking back, however, reflecting upon the past. So much remains to be done, and a new year will provide new opportunities. No doubt, doors will be opened to us which we will be able to enter that will lead to the advancement of the work. We must be prepared to follow the Spirit's direction as He leads us on to new victories. The Holy Ghost is our Guide and we want to be sensitive to His leadership.

The time allotted each of us is short. Several of our faithful workers finished their course this past year, and some of us here today are very likely attending our last Assembly. We must allow nothing to prevent us from being faithful to the charge we have received from our Lord; then we know we will receive a crown of life.

Courage is needed for the days ahead, and this courage will be found by looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith. He set the example for us in being steadfast to the course prescribed for Him by His Father.

In a spirit of loyalty and devotion to Him, let us stand together now and lift our voices together as we sing our beloved Battle Hymn.

11:45 "At the Battle's Front," song led by A. J. Coalter; Jenna Allen, pianist; Mary Lois Hamm, organist.

11:50 Closing Prayer by Omer Lawson. Music and singing during intermission directed by Pape Avenue Brass (Toronto, Canada).

Afternoon

12:55 Bible Training Institute Program, directed by Benjamin Lawrence. Theme: "Be Ye Steadfast."

12:58 Congregational Singing, led by Mary Nell Adkins; Ron Craig, pianist; Jo Nell Clapp, organist. 1 Corinthians 15:51-58 read by Gary Smith. Prayer by Stanley Knights, Miguel Mojica and Eugene Weakley. Introduction of staff and office personnel.

1:20 "Bible Training Institute in Australia," by Vice President Johnny Scroggins. He spoke of the last four years during which BTI has been conducted in Australia. He indicated that the Church has shown greater growth in that nation since the introduction of BTI there.

1:25 "I attended the all-new Advanced Studies," by R. Wayne Allen. Brother Allen testified of the blessings he received by taking this course in 1987.

1:35 Announcing a Change. Brother Lawrence announced that the Cleveland school for 1988 will be a two-week school instead of the usual three weeks, utilizing the weekends for classes, eliminating the weekend breaks.

1:40 Special Song by Noe B. Gutierrez.

1:47 Introduction of Vice Presidents and Roll Call of Schools. Total number of schools conducted—51.

1:57 Special Singing by Lamora Park Choir from Battle Creek, Michigan.

2:12 Special Recognition by Jose Rivera.

State/Nation with most students—Pennsylvania; Dominican Republic. State/Nation with most students according to membership—Oregon; Portugal. State/Nation with most correspondence students—North Carolina; England. State/Nation with most correspondence students according to membership—Oregon; Spain. State/Nation having largest convention offering—North Carolina; Virgin/Leeward Islands. State/Nation having largest convention offering according to membership—Alaska; Japan. Local church having largest convention offering—Raleigh (State Street), North Carolina. Individual having largest convention offering—Lillian Taylor, Knoxville (Arrowhead), Tennessee. State/Nation with largest school—Dominican Republic.

2:18 Fruit of the Spirit, a new course in the Know Your Bible Series, was introduced and a copy was presented to R. O. Covey, its author.

2:20 Special Song by Eddie Mounce.

2:25 "Be Ye Stedfast" (1 Corinthians 15:58), message by General Superintendent Ray C. Wynn. (This message will appear in the White Wing Messenger dated March 5, 1988, and is made available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

3:00 A Concert Prayer led by the General Overseer for Bible Training Institutes throughout the world.

3:02 Assembly Band Movement Program, directed by General Secretary J. E. Brisson. Theme: "Bind Us Together." The congregation was led in singing, "Lord, Prepare Me To Be A Sanctuary," by Debbe Craig. Then all stood and with joined hands sang, "Bind Us Together." Kenneth Snodgrass led in prayer.

3:17 "Good Pastoral Care" (Ephesians 4:11-16), short message by A. L. Henderson. Brother Henderson warned against a "Little Bo-Peep" attitude wherein we "leave them alone and they'll come home." He related how he felt impressed to begin an early morning prayer meeting with the members of his church before their workday began. The results have been very positive, with strays being restored, homes being put back together, people being healed and baptized with the Holy Ghost.

3:30 Compton, California Choir sang "We Will Stand."

3:37 "Strong Prayer Bands," by Foster Bell. "Of all the painful things I can think of, emotional pain is the worst. When Cain murdered Abel his punishment was to be cut off from his family. He felt it was more than he could bear. All of us need people we can be close to at the heart level. This is the ministry of small group prayer bands. Doctrine is not enough; there must be a fellowship that binds us together. When I have a problem I need a prayer group to pray for me."

3:52 Emergency Fund Boost, by Lesmon R. Graham. He told of a flood disaster in Jamaica and of the help which was received from the Emergency Fund. He stated that many friends have been won to the Church because of this gesture of kindness.

4:00 "Strong Families," short message by M. E. Barnett. He declared, "Satan has launched a new invasion in the land against the family. Divorce has invaded many families in the Church. Every time he wins a family, the Church is weakened that much." He related an account in the church where he pastors of six families which were in a dilemma. Five of these have been restored and the homes healed.

4:18 "Bind Us Together," a very touching dramatization that depicted the beginning of a family at the marriage altar, followed its development and dissolution, showing the effects of sin's power upon a family. Finally, there was a reconciliation. The congregation was deeply stirred by this drama which was written by Steve and Annie Chapman, directed by Ron and Debbe Craig.

4:58 Prayer directed by J. E. Brisson. He asked all husbands and wives to stand together and say to each other, "Honey, I don't want to lose you." Then they sang, "Bind Us Together."

5:10 Broadcast Record Club Singers, in charge of Thomas Duncan, Communications Business Manager. Songs by Peerless Road Quartet, Reggie McDougal, Bill Marion, Men of the Cloth, Harper Hunter, Betty Luevanos, David Baroni, Violet Marion, Pam Scherer, The Clover Porter Family, Karen Blythe and Beulah Miracle (on tape).

Evening

6:14 Evangelism/Home Mission Program, directed by Verlin D. Thornton. Theme: "Operation Harvest." Introductions of National Evangelists, his staff and family. Prayer cloths which later would be distributed to those desiring them were held up by Senior Ministers and National Evangelists for the entire Assembly to pray over (they had already been anointed and prayed over by the Senior Ministers). Brother Thornton introduced a new manual, MAPS, for use by those beginning missions.

6:31 Harvest Celebration, a time of worship directed by Henry and Grace Willis. National Evangelists circled the platform to lead the congregation in this time of praising the Lord, alternately going to the platform to share a scripture or a song. Prayer requests called in from the satellite audience were prayed over by the Assembly as the National Evangelists laid their hands upon them.

7:12 "Planting Churches—Harvesting Souls" (Matthew 28:18-20)—message by Willie R. Boone, presented in an abridged form.

"No farmer can harvest a crop until he plants seed. Now church planting is the establishing of churches in new areas by means of appointing, or sending, a member or members, a family or families, into new areas where a mission is needed. This could be the launching pad for an evangelistic effort, planting seeds in a new community, town or village.

"Church planting is not an end in itself; the objective is to reap a harvest. We are not planting churches just so we can report a larger number of churches. Our purpose is to reach lost men and women in areas where there are no churches. We need to carry them the message of hope, the good news of Jesus Christ.

"There are approximately five billion people living today on this earth. We have one million new people immigrating into the United States every year. Many times as these people move into our areas we don't know how to minister to them, but somehow we are going to have to reach the masses. The commission to the Church is to go into all the world and preach the gospel. Somehow, we must get stirred up.

"I know in many areas a large church feels threatened if a new church is organized in its area, and that's a shame when there are so many people who need the Lord. The early Church members were scattered and went everywhere preaching the Word of God.

"It's time that we stopped closing up churches and moving out of communities. It's time to reach those people who are lost in sin.

"I have removed from my vocabulary, 'I can't.' 'I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.' When I run into problems I go to my knees. Our job is to reach out and tell the devil he is a liar and that we are not going to give him any more ground. It is time we get some jail-breaking saints who know how to pray till the jails begin to shake.

"The early Church got drunk on the Spirit. On the Day of Pentecost, when the power came they staggered like drunk men. The results that day bore evidence of what they received. 'Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls' (Acts 2:41). In Acts the fourth chapter we find where another 5,000 were added.

"We speak of big states and little states. I'm not sure we should think of them as big states or little states. There are billions of people here on this earth to be reached, and every state offers a big field of labor.

"Those early members of the Church could do nothing until they did what Jesus told them to do. The Holy Ghost has been talking to us for the last few years, saying, 'Repent.' I get tired of people saying, 'I haven't sinned.' Maybe you haven't committed adultery. Maybe you haven't smoked a cigarette, but He said, 'Repent.' We have failed in carrying out the commission of our Lord.

"I believe the Church of God is going to be stirred up about this business. I believe we can come back next year with fifty or one hundred new churches, but somebody has got to get stirred up. The Holy Ghost has got to stir us up. Hallelujah!"

7:38 Singing by a mass choir from England as an offering was taken for the National Evangelists.

7:56 Testimonies of Sharing Eternal Life by Roy Cantrell and James Peters.

8:07 "Eyes to See a Hurting World," by Dennis Payne from England. Brother Payne told how he had been divinely protected from ambushes and other dangers in Uganda, where 23% of healthy girls, 18-25, who have donated blood have the AIDS virus. He pointed out that Jesus did not come to the world to save the righteous, but to save sinners. He did not turn away from the lepers. He said that a hurting person cannot help others, but that a person who has been hurt and is fully healed can help others and lead them to the Lord. He emphasized the power of Jesus' blood to restore and make new. "Let's go out into the world and see those that are hurting and bring them to Jesus," he said.

8:22 Special song by M. C. Jackson.

8:25 "And the Poor Have the Gospel Preached to Them," by Charles G. Hawkins. Brother Hawkins told of his experiences in beginning and operating a Day Shelter program in downtown Memphis. Excerpted below are some of his remarks.

"Christ's life was perfect. He did always those things that pleased His Father. He wanted His disciples to know what He knew, but when He tried to share things other than miracles and the promises of the new kingdom in which they would have part, people made it clear that they wanted no part of a suffering and penniless Messiah. They rejected the One who said that He must suffer and die to establish His kingdom. He was in the world, the world was made by Him, yet the world did not know Him.

"Humanity at large could not accept this man as God, whose forte was poverty and who existed to serve and not be served. Even in His darkest hour, His own disciples fled from Him, rather than to be identified with His reproach.

"Our subject deals with Christ's answer to John the Baptist when he sent two of his disciples to inquire of Jesus as to whether He was the Christ. For His credentials, He instructed these disciples to tell John of the miracles that He was doing, and that the poor were having the gospel preached to them.

"Jesus' life was the embodiment of the spirit that each of us should reflect when we permit Him to live out His purpose in our lives. Our difficulty is in being willing to esteem the reproach of poverty in the same manner that Christ knew it. He was homeless; He had nowhere to lay His head.

"What is it like to be poor? If we study the Biblical definition of poor as used in Jesus' answer to John's disciples, there probably is not a poor one here among us. The word comes from the Greek word, "ptochos," which means to be so poor that one can obtain his living only by begging. Now that's poverty in its lowest and cruelest form. We have them in the shelter at Memphis that way. They cannot hold a job. Their mental capacity makes it impossible for them to work.

"According to the latest statistics there are in America two million people that fit this definition. The picture for the rest of the world is much darker. If Christ were here, His emphasis and priority would be to share the good news with these people, and His Church, likewise, must make these people its priority. The question is, can we rightfully call Him Lord while acting as if they do not exist? We will ignore them unless we are willing to become all things to all men.

"It is not Christlike to want only people in our churches that are nice and respectable, who have good jobs and will be a help to us financially. His Spirit in control of our lives will cause us to love the unlovely, to want those who are in poverty to be members of our congregation. We will point to them with pride that these which bear the reproach of poverty are part of the Body of Christ.

“When Christ came to this world, He became one of human-kind in order to win human-kind. If we are to be missionaries to win the lost we have to become one of them. We have to get down to their level. Most of us will never be able to become rich to help the work of God, but we can all be reduced to poverty to help advance His work.”

8:52 Congregational Song, “O I Want to See Him,” led by Bill Marion; Linda Little, pianist; Diane Hamm, organist. Concert prayer.

9:03 Message on Divine Healing by Verlin Thornton. (This message was published in the White Wing Messenger dated, November 14, 1987, and made available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.) At the conclusion of his message Brother Thornton asked all who needed release from fear or depression to stand, and those around them were asked to lay hands on them and pray for them. Then, prayer lines were formed and 1,815 persons passed through these lines to be anointed with oil and prayed for. Many went to the altar for prayer after going through the lines. The Bahama Brass Band provided music during this time.

Saturday, September 12
Morning

7:30 "Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples"
—Prayer Clinic conducted by Terry Mahan. This morning's prayer topic was on deliverance—"And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil."

8:30 Music by Bahama Brass Band.

8:50 Congregational singing led by Barbara Gardner; Geneva Galloway, pianist; Winston Williams, organist. 2 Corinthians 4:1-10, read by Luther Rye. Prayer by Charles Stanley; then, prayer in concert for requests.

9:07 "The Urgency of the Vision" (Proverbs 29:18), message by Ruben Carmona, presented in an abridged form.

"We are in urgent need of a vision that reveals to us the reason for the Church's encounter with this world. Jesus Christ is coming soon, and we must hurry and do the work. The initial message of this Assembly gave us some very important statistics concerning the termination of this decade. We are at the threshold of a new era and we are supplicating the Lord to help us, to give us a renewed vision.

"'And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them' (Acts 16:9, 10). In this manner God revealed His purpose unto the Apostle Paul.

"The most important purpose of the Church today is the glory and honor of God. Only He is worthy of glory and praise, and He desires that we as leaders in the Church lead our people into true worship. It is a wonderful thing to see the Church worship the Lord. I believe that the heart of the Lord is joyous as He observes His saints giving Him glory and honor. But He desires a people who worship not only with their lips, but with all their hearts—through living holy lives—determined to reach others with the message of Jesus Christ.

"Vision is something that is hidden for a space of time, but once its time has arrived, it is revealed by the power of God through His Word. 'And the child Samuel ministered unto the Lord before Eli. And the word of the Lord was precious in those days; there was no open vision' (1 Samuel 3:1).

"Samuel was ministering in the Temple; he was a servant, but the Bible relates to us that he had problems in hearing and understanding the voice of God. It is very possible that this could be happening to us today. We can worship Him; we can build buildings; we can create programs; yet, we have problems identifying the voice of God. God is speaking to us and we need perception of what He is saying. He desires to reveal His eternal purpose.

"There are two forms in which we can perceive the voice of God; first, by His eternal and infallible Word. When His word is spoken by a preacher, we must have the attitude that it is God who is speaking to our hearts. There are occasions when a message is being preached and we will be thinking, 'Who is that message for?' The best attitude is 'Speak Lord, for your servant heareth.'

"Another way in which we may hear His voice is in personal meditation upon His Word. When we meditate upon His Word it touches our lives.

"Three Assemblies ago, God spoke to us and called us to repentance. His accusation was direct that in some ways we had deviated, we had strayed from a communion with the Holy Spirit. He also accused us of lacking genuine compassion. Jesus said to the Samaritan woman, 'But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth.' We are in urgent need of great compassion.

"The testimony of our former General Overseer was that he was taken in the Spirit to many countries. He contemplated millions of souls that were chained in prison by sin. This tells me that he was a man that was sensitive to the voice of God.

"For the last few years, the Holy Spirit has directed the Church toward a greater thrust in evangelism. We are approximately 13 years away from concluding a century. We need an urgent vision which causes us to walk with confidence in rescuing people from sin.

"May God help the Church today in all its programs, in all its decisions, in all its thrusts, in all its feelings, to know that it is here to touch the lives of those people who are without God. It was when the early Church lost that vision to touch lives with the power of the gospel that it entered its apostasy.

"We do wrong when we take advantage of the programs of the Church, using them to bring personal honor and glory to ourselves. The success of the Apostle Paul was that he hid himself behind the Cross. He said, 'I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me' (Galatians 2:20). I trust that we will leave this Assembly with confidence that God is going to help us to touch lives."

9:38 Victory Leaders Band Program, directed by William M. Wilson, General Secretary. Theme: "Forward to Our Destiny." At the sounding of trumpets the Victory Leaders began marching into the auditorium as the Bahama Brass Band played, "Onward, Christian Soldiers." The young people carried banners and signs depicting their zeal for their respective states and nations. Brother Wilson did a roll call of the states and nations with hearty responses from each group as their names were called. State/National Secretaries were asked to join hands and pray, binding the devil, claiming victory for this program.

9:55 A great time of worship as the IYC choir, directed by John and Cathy Payne, sang, being joined by the large audience of young people. Then Ron Scotton directed the choir in some choruses.

10:36 "Destined to Be One," message by Dale Moss, abridged as follows.

"I believe that is what the Church is coming too—ONENESS. Praise the Lord! There might be some of us that feel like we will never get there, but I believe that by God's grace we are going to make it. We are going to see a oneness of spirit among brothers and sisters in the Body of Christ. Praise the Lord! 'And the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech. And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there . . . And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven . . . ' (Genesis 11:1, 2, 4).

"The inhabitants of the plain of Shinar, under the leadership of the world's dictator, Nimrod, intended to build a tower that might reach unto heaven. The purpose of the tower was not so much to reach unto God, as it was to reach unto heaven. They loved their city of Shinar, and they wanted to enjoy the earthly pleasures of that city. They only wanted a tower that would reach unto heaven, but not unto God. Some of us sometimes get caught up in the things of the world, wrapped up in materialism. All we want is an opportunity to go to heaven and just be there a little bit and then come back down here to our pleasures.

"We need a oneness of spirit, a oneness that has the right direction. These people did not have the right direction. Their minds were one, but their purposes were wrong. They wanted things their way.

"The rebuilding of Babylon is happening again. We are going to see a coming together of religions with different doctrines, coming together to make themselves a name, thinking they may reach heaven. But, we need not be discouraged nor dismayed by what is going on in the world.

"We need to set our affections on JESUS. In Him we have the deliverance we need. There comes a time when we must shake off traditions, and the only way to do that is to look to the Almighty. If we all could get our eyes set on Him, what oneness we would have.

"The people of Babel wanted to build a city and a tower that they might not be scattered. But it came to pass that while they were building the city which they had hoped would keep them from being scattered, God Himself was moved by their sins and came down and scattered them, confusing their language.

"In this day there is a new city, wherein we will come into oneness, a place where God's people are gathering together regardless of race or color. They are coming together for the purpose of bringing glory to Him. You see, Jesus prayed that His children all might be one. The purpose for that prayer was that He wanted the world to know that He had been sent by the Father. The world would believe this only as they could see a united people.

"Many say they are Christians nowadays, while living all kinds of lives. But there is a place where God is gathering together His people. The oneness He will accept is a divine unity, not man's oneness but His oneness. Humans have different concepts, but God has the only way.

"When God says to move we need to move instead of looking around. We need Him. We are destined to be one. The very center of this whole thing is Jesus. We need Him in our souls, in our hearts and in our minds."

10:50 "Destined to Be a Son"—skit of a family whose son had left home, winding up destitute, living in the streets. Parents' prayers were effective and the son was restored. At the conclusion of this skit Brother Wilson invited all those who now are prodigals to come back home. A great spirit of compassion was felt.

11:14 Trumpet Solo by Joey Simmons.

11:16 Introduction of his family by Brother Wilson. He called on his wife Lisa to pray for his message.

11:20 "Forward to Our Destiny," message by William M. Wilson. (This message is printed in the White Wing Messenger dated, November 28, 1987, and made available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.) The Holy Ghost was moving mightily among us at the conclusion of this message.

Afternoon

12:08 A Special Guest, Tennessee's Governor Ned McWherter was introduced and spoke briefly. Prior to this introduction Brother Gillum read to the Assembly a letter from President Ronald Reagan.

12:29 Adjournment.

1:03 Tomlinson College Program, directed by President Donald Newlun. Theme: "Pathway to Glory." Bahama Brass Band played as students and alumni marched down to circle the platform and then sit in reserved section (218 marched). Introductions by the President. Psalm 16:1-11 read by Arthur C. Moss, who served this year as Chairman of the Board of Trustees. He then prayed for the college.

1:25 Worship in Song, directed by Greg Stephens.

1:30 Special Tribute to Harrison E. Price who has been a faithful supporter of Tomlinson College. Ron Hamm spoke at length of his association with Brother Price and of the contribution he has made to the Church of God. A plaque was presented him by Brother Newlun and the Assembly gave him a standing ovation. Seated in a wheelchair, Brother Price spoke to the Assembly, urging their support for Tomlinson College.

1:48 A Scholarship Award was made in memory of Craig Chappell, a former student who lost his life two days after graduation from Tomlinson College. An Alumni Award was presented to Stan Lambert. The church at Owensboro, Kentucky was honored for having had 25 students attend TC from that local church. The TC Alumni Chorale from Owensboro sang, "The Unclouded Day." Others were recognized for significant contributions.

2:15 "Soaring as Eagles," by Melvin Hyatt. He emphasized that eagles do not soar in groups, that they soar alone. He read Isaiah 40:31, and David Baroni sang, "Mount Up With the Wings of an Eagle." Brother Hyatt then read Isaiah 40:26 and led the Assembly in prayer. The TC Chorale sang a number of songs, as the Assembly worshipped.

2:50 "The Way to Glory," message by Foster Bell.

"The dictionary says that glory is—great honor and admiration won by doing something important and valuable; fame; a condition of the highest achievement; splendor; prosperity; the highest degree of pleasure, satisfaction, pride. For the Church, higher education must never be viewed as a symbol of glory. It is only a means, an opportunity to provide us with that which we can serve our God for His glory and for His honor.

"The first part of the definition, great honor and admiration won by doing something important and valuable, could apply to the college. Certainly, Tomlinson College is worthy of honor and admiration because it has done something very valuable in the lives of thousands of our young people. If you could be on the campus at the beginning of each semester and watch the frightened freshmen coming aboard, scared, unsure of why they're there or what they're doing there, not sure of what the future might hold for them, and just a few years later watch young men and women who have been inspired by the Holy Ghost, whose lives have been transformed by Him, leave the campus to enter into service for the Lord, you would certainly agree with me that this is something valuable and important that has been done.

"But there is another view of glory that is far more important. In our quest to understand the Way of Glory let us examine a few possibilities that John might have considered as the highest moment of glory for Christ. He might have considered Christ's highest glory to be His intellectual excellence. Christ did have a certain kind of intellectual excellence. At age twelve He was found confounding the doctors and the lawyers. He always had an answer for the scholars, the Scribes and the Pharisees. Yet, John did not acknowledge that as Christ's highest glory.

"Then, was it through miracles? How glorious it must have been at the marriage of Cana when Jesus turned water into wine. But Jesus Himself said of that moment, 'Mine hour is not yet come.' That was not his highest glory!

"Healing the sick, raising the dead, making the lame to walk again—certainly that was glorious, but not the highest glory of our Lord. Was it His transfiguration? Many scholars refer to that as the glorification of Christ. But not even that moment when the glory of the Deity burst forth and He was transfigured before their eyes was the hour of His glory.

"What then was the hour of His glory? We're told in John, chapter 17, verse 1 that He prayed, 'Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee.' The moment of highest glory for Jesus Christ was the moment of His crucifixion.

"Somehow I believe that our highest glory comes in our moment of crucifixion, when we find ourselves nailed to the cross with Jesus Christ. In that moment the full penalty for sin is paid, when a life is laid down. In that moment an Almighty God lifts a life up and glorifies it with His own presence. Thank God for the invitation that He has given us to be crucified with Him. I'd like to suggest this as the moment of highest glory.

"An older minister made a powerful impact on my life when he told me earlier in my ministry, 'Son, never let your pulpit be a pedestal for you to show off from or shout down to your people. But Son, let your pulpit be a miniature Calvary where you die a little bit for the people you serve.'

"Oh God, let your glory be seen in your people as we become willing to lay down our lives and to die for a cause. Mahatma Ghandi said, 'Until a man has found a cause for which he is willing to die, he is not fit to live.' Thank God, that He has given us a cause worth dying for."

3:00 "Amen," song by Reggie McDougal and the TC Chorale.

3:05 White Wing Publishing House Program, directed by Henry O'Neal. Isaiah 52:7 read by Billy Siler, who then prayed for this program.

3:10 "Enter into his gates with thanksgiving...", singing by the Hallelujah Chorus.

3:15 Singing in Spanish, directed by Ruben Carmona.

3:30 Sunday School Literature Time—Perry E. Gillum, Sunday School Literature Editor, spoke of the need for a biblical mandate for all the Church does. He introduced his staff, including the writers of literature. Two new electives were introduced: The Christian Family, by M. E. Barnett and Improving Your Grip, by Rob Allen.

3:40 Introduction by Brother O'Neal of the Publishing House employees and of his wife and grandson.

3:43 Merchandise Department Presentations, by Louis Sullivan. Those who had authored new books this year were introduced: Lori Patton, James Stone, Granville Estep, Marie Back, Ellie Charalambou, C. T. Davidson, Pat Riley, Henry E. Griffin, Jr. and Joyce Cannon. Boost of White Wing Messenger, by Billy Murray.

4:00 Special singing by South Florida Mass Choir.

4:15 A Plaque was presented to Sister Willard Boyles, former Victory Leaders Band Secretary, for the significant contribution she has made toward World Literature Outreach. In her absence this was received for her by Betty Vicars.

4:29 Report from Guatemala, by Jorge Marrero.

"There are many different literatures, but the literature of the Church is what we need. The work of publishing and making sure that literature reaches every member is difficult, but the message must reach the people. I am thankful for the privilege of working with the White Wing Publishing House in Guatemala. Distribution through the postal services is difficult.

"When the Sunday School literature is ready, I call the Overseer of El Salvador who will send someone to Guatemala at an expense of approximately $10.00 and he will take it back to El Salvador. The same procedure is done for Honduras. Someone comes to the border for the literature and takes it back to the people. It is very hard to send literature into Nicaragua through the postal service. We are trying to supply Sunday School literature to each of our churches."

4:43 "What Are the Needs in Kenya?"—H. A. Barclay.

"The need for printed material is great. There are 41 different languages spoken in this area. We have a building for a printing press, and if we could secure a press, we could make rapid progress. The Church has the task of getting the whole message to the whole world. The doors are open and it is time for us to take advantage of this privilege. Time is running out."

4:48 World Literature Outreach—comments by Felix Garcia. "Literature in the languages of the people is an imperative for the Church. God is moving people in His Church to reach out. We have made some inroads into solving this problem, and I am thankful.

"In some areas there is a scarcity of natural food, but even in some of these places the hunger for spiritual food is greater. In Thailand I was taken to a refugee camp. People there had the bare essentials, but when I preached they forgot the physical and reached out for the spiritual blessings. The gospel gives them hope and assurance. I wish you could see the faces of some of these poor people when they receive their first gospel tract."

At this time many gifts were received for World Literature Outreach as Brother Garcia encouraged the people to give for this worthy work.

5:04 Prayer was led by Brother Garcia for this work and to dedicate the offerings which were received to God.

5:53 Song by James Gardner.

5:58 Ministering to the Military in Greece—Overseer Chris Stathis indicated that military awareness is very pronounced in that nation, with all men having to serve. They are very interested in what the Military Service Department of the Church has to offer.

Evening

6:05 Song by the Howard family.

6:10 In conclusion Brother Snow read 2 Chronicles 20:15 and Psalm 127:1, reminding the congregation that the battle is not ours but the Lord's.

6:12 Music Department Program, directed by Ron Scotton, General Minister of Music. Introduction of family, staff and workers.

6:15 "The Light Brigade," a musical presented by the Keith Street (Cleveland, TN) Youth Choir. Directed by Doc Rogers, this musical related to God's army.

6:56 Assembly Mass Choir, directed by Ron Scotton. This was a thirty-minute period of worship through beautiful singing.

7:28 Voice of Salvation Program, directed by Elwood Matthews. Theme: "The Anointing Destroys the Yoke."

7:30 Worship directed by the Voice of Salvation Singers. Singing; Psalm 95:1-7 read by Rudolph Bowe; Prayer for requests received from those watching the Assembly by satellite.

7:40 Introduction by Brother Matthews of Bennie Triplett, Forward in Faith Minister. Brother Triplett testified and sang, "Jesus Is Precious."

7:50 An Open Door—Brother Matthews announced that he has committed the Church to a weekly television program. An offering was received, after which prayer was offered to God that He would prompt our people to pledge their support for this ministry.

8:05 Introduction of special guest, Phil Driscoll, recording artist and trumpet player. He sang and played a number of songs as the congregation stood in spontaneous worship for about forty minutes.

8:45 Introductions of staff and family by Brother Matthews, after which Sister Matthews and the VOS singers sang, "Whenever We Agree Together, the Holy Spirit Starts to Move."

8:55 Prayer directed by Terry Mahan.

9:07 "The Anointing Destroys the Yoke" (Isaiah 61:1-3), message by Elwood Matthews. (This message was published in the White Wing Messenger dated, November 28, 1987, and made available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.) The Browning Family sang during the altar service.

Sunday, September 13*Morning

7:30 Can You Not Tarry With Me One Hour—Prayer Clinic, directed by Terry Mahan. This morning's prayer topic was on surrender—"For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen."

8:45 Organ music by Tony Ferguson.

9:00 Music by Bahama Brass Band.

9:20 "Seek Peace and Pursue It" (Psalm 34:1-10), message by Caroline Ledbetter, presented in an abridged form.

"David, after having been anointed king, was in a situation where Saul sought to kill him. As David fled to a place of refuge, this must have been a lonely hour for him; yet, in the midst of his loneliness God gave him a Psalm. This is the occasion of his writing Psalm 34.

"He begins in verse one by saying, 'I will bless the Lord at all times.' This word bless, as I have studied it, comes from the word 'knee.' Literally, he is saying, 'I will bow my knee before the Lord at all times. I will bend my knee to Jehovah, God. I will acknowledge Him as Lord. I will yield to His authority in my life.'

"The depth of his attitude is expressed when he says, 'his praise shall continually be in my mouth.' There's just no way that the praise of God can be in our mouths at all times unless we are acknowledging Him, bowing our knees before Him. The overall message of the Psalm, and the key to our deliverance, is first and always the acknowledging of the lordship of Christ in our lives.

"Verse two says, 'My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.' Our boasting is in Him and what He has done for us as individuals.

"Then in verse 3 he says, 'O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.' He did not want to praise the Lord, alone; he wanted others to magnify the Lord, to exalt His name together with one voice. I have felt the power that has been exuded in this Assembly as we have exalted His name together.

"The praise we have experienced has magnified the Lord. It's like taking a magnifying glass and seeing Him enlarged as we begin to hear one another praising the Lord. All of a sudden our faith just seems to enlarge, and we know that He is bigger than all of the difficulties that come our way.

"David tells us in verses 4-6 why he is saying this: 'I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.' It is wonderful to remember that God not only hears, but that He provides help—'... [He] delivered me from all my fears.' I can just see David, imagining all the things that could happen to him in the next little while. All of us have had more automobile accidents in our minds than we have ever had in actuality. We have had more things happen to us in our minds than could ever happen in a lifetime. 'He delivered me from all my fears'—all those things that one thinks might happen.

"Then he said, 'They looked unto him . . . and their faces were not ashamed.' If we look to Him our countenance will be lightened. In verse 6 he says, 'This poor man cried and the Lord heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.' Earlier he said that the Lord delivered him from all his fears, all those things that He thought might be going to happen, but here he is saying that the Lord heard him and saved him out of his sure enough troubles. It will not be in the absence of trouble but in the deliverance from trouble that we see the mighty hand of God at work.

"Remember these first three verses, 'I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad. O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.' Why? Because we were mightily helped. So often we can read of these experiences and see the things that God does in the lives of others, but we do not have to live within what He has done for others. We can be writing original paragraphs of the things He is doing for us.

"In verse 7 David wrote, 'The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.' These are those who acknowledge Him, who reverence and honor Him ' . . . and delivereth them.' In 2 Kings chapter 6 we read where Elisha and his servant were in the city, and when they got up early the next morning the hills were filled with the enemy. All the servant could see was enemy soldiers, but Elisha had a different view. He saw God's host compassing the city with horses and chariots, and he prayed for his servant, 'Lord, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see' (v. 17).

"The prayer I have been praying just in the last little while is, 'Open my eyes, Lord, that I might see the victory You want to give me, that I might see that You are here to help me, to minister to me as an individual.'

"In verse 8 David wrote 'O taste and see that the Lord is good.' He wanted others to experience it. Have you ever looked at something on the table that looked like it was going to be good to eat? The only way you could know for sure, however, was to taste it. He will be as rich to us as He is to others. We can cry out to the Lord Jesus Christ and He will give us help, individually and collectively.

9:50 Women's Missionary Band Program, directed by Elva Howard, General Secretary. Theme: "Unto the Least of These." Sister Howard introduced her family, and her children led the congregation in an inspiring devotional service.

10:03 "Come Before His Presence With Singing"—songs by the Ladies Retreat Choir, directed by Mary Nell Adkins and Jenna Allen; Jo Nell Klapp, pianist; Betty Barker, organist.

10:29 Scripture Reading from Matthew 10:14; 25:34-40 was given in English, Spanish and French.

10:39 Big Prayers by Small People—Four small children, Ben Horner, Emily Horner, Chad Scotton and Carlos Reyes, prayed individual prayers.

10:45 "Unto the Least of These in My World," by Aldeth Allen from West Africa. "The people there are very poor; they have so very little. We have a great work to do, but we serve a great God, who is able to supply all our needs. There are many problems, including language problems, but God is blessing. In the Ivory Coast, in 1982, we had only one church; now we have eleven. The work is mushrooming, and we need more teachers. When we have taught one part of the world, we need to go on to another part.

"Every day we receive news of more souls being saved, sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost. We are determined to win West Africa for the Lord, going from village to village, teaching the people the Word of God. When they understand the Word, they are happy to obey it."

10:58 Response: "Have You Sat Where They Sat?" by Allen Davis. He read Matthew 28:18; Acts 9:4-6 and Ezekiel 3:15.

"I am concerned about the souls that we can reach. There are some things we cannot do, but God forbid that we should fail in those things we can do. It is easy to go where we want to go, but some places are not so pleasant.

"We need to get our minds off worldly things and get them on the Lord. We need to obey whatever He asks us to do. When we don't give, we shut our blessings off. We often follow one another too much, letting their actions dictate ours. We need to follow God."

Brother Davis concluded by praying for the Helping Hand offering that was about to be received.

11:27 Offering for Helping Hand Ministry. Mildred Davis led the congregation in singing, "Lord, Lay Some Soul Upon My Heart," while the offering was received.

11:35 "To Him That Hath Shall Be Given" (Matthew 25:29), by Elva Howard. (This message appeared in the White Wing Messenger dated, November 28, 1987, and was made available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

Afternoon

12:12 Closing Prayer by Ina Mae Tomlinson.

12:16 Salvation Experiences during altar services of the Assembly were reported by Viola Wright. There were 74 saved, 58 sanctified and 101 baptized with the Holy Ghost.

12:25 Report of Prayer Clinic by Terry Mahan.

REPORT OF PRAYER CLINIC

Six one-hour long prayer clinics were conducted daily from Tuesday through Sunday.

Daily we examined our Lord's model prayer, using the following outline of prayer topics:

1. Praise and Worship—"Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name."
2. Establishing Kingdom Priorities—"Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven."
3. Daily Provisions—"Give us this day our daily bread."
4. Relationships—"Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors."
5. Deliverance—"And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil."
6. Surrender—"For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen."

Respectfully submitted,

TERRY MAHAN, Clinic Director

12:27 Report of Tomlinson College Board of Trustees. The report was accepted upon a motion by Joel Hollis, and seconded by W. E. Johnson.

REPORT OF TOMLINSON COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

September 1, 1986 through August 31, 1987

The Board of Trustees conducted three meetings during this year: September, 1986; January and April, 1987.

Donald Newlun is completing his first year in the office of President of Tomlinson College. The Board commends his dedicated service in this inaugural year. Additionally, we wish to commend the college's administration, faculty, and staff for their enduring efforts to further the mission of the college.

We would like to note the following areas of progress of the college during the past year as it seeks to minister to the whole Church:

1. The self-study for reaffirmation of accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools is on schedule and proceeding toward an April, 1988, on-site visit.
2. A full-time position of chaplain has been added to the college staff. We feel the enactment of the chaplaincy program reflects on the college's sincere commitment in ministering to the spiritual needs of our young people.
3. Plans have been initiated for the establishment of extension schools in England and the Caribbean area. We feel this development reflects the world-wide vision and ministry of the college to the Church.

We wish to express appreciation to all who have provided support to Tomlinson College during this past year. We are particularly appreciative of all who participated in the College Biblical Studies Program survey, and for the overwhelmingly positive response of the Church toward Tomlinson College. We feel your support is reflected in this General Assembly's approval for Tomlinson College to expand its ministry to encompass a four-year Biblical Studies Program. The target date for phasing in the four-year program is August, 1988.

Finally, we wish to express our deepest appreciation to Chairman Arthur C. Moss, who is concluding his term of service on the Board of Trustees. His leadership and commitment exemplify Christian stewardship to God and His Church.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR C. MOSS, Chairman

12:31 Report of Ways and Means Committee. John Doroshuk made the motion for the report's acceptance. It was seconded and approved.

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE REPORT

"O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. Who giveth food to all flesh: for his mercy endureth for ever. O give thanks unto the God of heaven: for his mercy endureth for ever" (Psalm 136:1, 25, 26).

This Committee is indeed grateful to our merciful Heavenly Father, because his mercy never fails. As the scripture says, it "endureth forever." We recognize Christ as the Head of the Church, to whom we are forever indebted and to whom we continue to give reverence, honor and worship. We also acknowledge our gratitude to the Lord for His guiding hand upon the affairs of the Church of God and for His strengthening hand and Spirit which continues to rest upon our General Overseer, whom we recognize, respect and acknowledge to be our divinely chosen and anointed leader. We thus encourage this Assembly to give unanimous support to him as he continues to lead the Church of God in these last days. With the moderator's permission, this Committee would like to ask this Assembly to stand as a united body and pray earnestly for our General Overseer's continued health and strength as he fulfills his responsibility to God and His Church.

Acknowledgment

We extend our sincere appreciation to W. A. Howard, whose faithful service on this Committee culminated last year as chairman and to Jose A. Martinez who also served on this Committee. Their dedicated contribution continues to be remembered and appreciated. We extend our prayerful support to these brethren.

Section 1 Surplus Tithes

The Ways and Means Committee desires to express its appreciation to our Heavenly Father for His continued blessings to the Church of God. We are very mindful that absolutely nothing could be accomplished without His help. We also desire to express our appreciation to our local churches and their willingness to operate within the present financial system. The subject of Surplus Tithes is frequently discussed, and this year much of our time has been spent reviewing letters dealing with this matter.

As you know, surplus tithes are divided at the end of June each year and 65 percent remains in the local church, 25 percent is sent to State Headquarters for use as outlined by the General Assembly, and 10 percent is sent to General Headquarters. This Committee would like to state that the surplus tithes coming to General Headquarters is used exclusively for Ministerial Aid and Missions. This division was decided upon by the Executive Committee as authorized by the 72nd General Assembly of 1977 (page 158, Ways and Means Committee).

Looking ahead and recognizing the continuing need for the support of these departments, let us all join together in seeking the favor of God and His continued blessings upon us in our tithing program.

Auxiliary Funds—Portion Returned To Local Treasuries

In 1980, the Ways and Means Committee recommended "... that 10 percent of the auxiliary offerings raised by each local church for the state convention be returned to the local church treasury by the state treasurer as soon as convenient after the state convention, this amount to be used by the local church at the discretion of the local church finance and appropriations committee, approved by the local church conference." (75th Assembly Minutes, 1980, page 92, Ways and Means Committee report)

We hereby recommend an adjustment to read as follows: This 10 percent of the auxiliary offerings raised by each local church for the state convention be deducted by the local church treasurer before sending the state convention auxiliary offerings to the state treasurer at the end of the convention year; this amount to continue to be used by the local church at the discretion of the local finance and appropriations committee, approved by the local church conference.

New Field Allocation Guidelines

We call your attention to the Ways and Means Committee report, section 5, page 145 of the 1983 Assembly Minutes, giving guidelines for new field allocations. To these we recommend that the following be added so that all situations can be given fair consideration: We recommend that a Home Mission Committee be appointed by the General Overseer to assist the Home Mission Director in reviewing any unusual cases and take these under advisement.

Section 4

Deciding on Limits of Pastoral and Other Workers Allotments in Countries Outside the United States

We recommend that the World Mission Committee continue to set the allotments for Overseers of countries outside the United States as outlined in the Ways and Means Committee report to the 71st Annual Assembly of 1976.

"... the allotments of overseers outside the United States continue to be set by the World Mission Committee...", but that the National Finance and Appropriation's Committee appointed by the Overseer, with the advice and approval of the World Mission Department, be responsible to set the limit for pastoral and other workers allotments within that particular jurisdiction or country, taking into consideration not only the economic conditions within the country or area, but also those economic conditions and circumstances within the Church in light of the Biblical admonition given the Church in 2 Corinthians 8:13-15.

Section 5

Fund Raising Campaigns/Projects

We recommend that no fund raising programs or projects be initiated from the General Offices without General Assembly approval. This will not affect fund raising projects or programs now in operation.

Accountability

Inasmuch as it is the feelings of the Ways and Means Committee that all departmental funds sent to the General Offices should be channeled through the General Treasurer's Office, with the exception of the White Wing Publishing House and Tomlinson College, we hereby whole-heartedly recommend that plans to accomplish this be set in motion immediately, to be completed no later than June 1, 1988.

We also call your attention to what was passed in the 80th Assembly, 1985, page 148 of the Ways and Means Committee report, under the heading of "Personal Fund-Raising" which reads: "In the past, missionaries and other workers have conducted fund-raising campaigns among the various states, raising money for the country to which they have been assigned, or for other projects. We recommend that all campaigns of this nature be approved by the General Overseer and by the State Overseer of the state in which they expect to work. All funds raised in such campaigns should be given to the local church treasurer, who will send it, along with his monthly report, to the General Treasurer with the information as to its intended use. This recommendation does not include love offerings given to these workers for their use."

Section 7

We ask for your continued prayerful support as we continue to explore various possibilities toward improving our present financial system.

12:46 Report of Counseling Committee. The report was accepted upon a motion by a brother from Virginia, seconded by Herman Davis.

REPORT OF COUNSELING COMMITTEE

The Counseling Committee met in five (5) counseling sessions and spent several hours counseling with a number of people.

We appreciate the adequate facilities provided for the Committee's meetings; also, the waiting room for those seeking counsel.

All persons presenting subjects to this Committee have been counseled and the subjects have been prayerfully considered, some of which we felt deserved further consideration before being presented to the Presbytery or other Assembly committees. Other subjects which we felt would be a blessing to the entire body have been passed on to the committees to be disposed of at their discretion.

We wish to commend all those who came before this Committee for the good spirit manifested. We found a great concern among the ministry, a great love for the Church of God and its teachings, and a strong desire to promote the doctrine of the Church instead of ideas and opinions.

The Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine, the Questions and Subjects Committee, and the Ways and Means Committee are standing committees throughout the year and may be contacted any time on doctrinal questions or anything not clearly understood.

WATCHMEN COMMITTEE REPORT

May we salute you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ—our Saviour, our soon-coming King, our Elder Brother and Greatest Friend.

We have sought to serve this august body of delegates in the same spirit, and hopefully with some of the same inspiration, as has our beloved General Overseer, who has manifested to one and all his continuing dedication to the advancement of the great Church of God. We wish to express to this great Assembly our appreciation for your excellent co-operation this year. It has been wonderful to witness a revival of the spirit of prayer in this Assembly. We believe this has contributed greatly to the Assembly, and especially has it made our work easier.

No major problems have come to our attention and all minor matters have been cared for in a respectful and brotherly fashion. We count it a privilege to serve God in this capacity and want to please God and our General Overseer. God bless all of you. We especially thank the volunteer Special Watchmen who have assisted us.

Preached at International Youth Camp. Preached during the preliminary service at the 81st General Assembly. Preached 2 messages at a homecoming at my home church, White Oak Flatt, TN. Preached during the Nebraska Ministers Convention at the local church in Omaha.

Attended the North American Congress on the Holy Spirit and World Evangelization that was held in New Orleans, LA. Attended the Michigan Men's Retreat.

Preached for the closing of Bible Training Institutes in Winnipeg, Manitoba and Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Preached at a Leadership Seminar held in Madison, WI.

Attended Fields of the Wood programs: September 1, Thanksgiving, June 13th and the First Assembly Anniversary service in January.

Conducted a week-end revival at Calico Rock, AR. Preached 3 nights of a district revival in South Carolina. Preached at a convention at Phoenix, AZ. Taught in the Cleveland Bible Training Institute. Attended the homecoming at West Nashville, TN and a "This Is Your Life" for Pelham, AL Pastor Collis Jones.

I was Headquarters Representative in the Bahamas national convention, Leeward/Virgin Islands regional convention, the New York state convention, the Wyoming state convention and the Georgia state convention. Conducted a PRE-ASSEMBLY ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING toward preparation for the 82nd General Assembly and have been available to the General Overseer to assist in the work.

Visited several local churches in different states. Wound up my round of visiting with State Overseers by visiting with Brother Gabriel Montijo, Jr. in his office. Since then Brother Montijo has gone on to his reward. Visited the following retired ministers: Ira Hampton, KY; Virdel B. Stafford and Omer C. Lawson, both living in Tennessee.

I have been a member of the following Headquarters Committees: Executive Committee, General Properties Committee, Church of Prophecy Marker Association Committee, Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine, Ministerial Aid Committee, and Bible Training Institute Committee.

I have served as a Sunday School teacher at Peerless Road, Cleveland, TN. I have attended the funerals this year of Ralph C. Scotton, Willie T. Scotton, Susan Lunn, Mary Pruitt and Imogene Bearden, the sister of Willard Boyles.

Thank the Lord for the privilege to serve in this capacity and may the Lord give us all many souls in the future.

Respectfully submitted,
HARPER HUNTER

PATTY K. SCOTTON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND: I have served as President of this memorial scholarship funding organization, and hosted its annual banquet at last year's Assembly. We were able to benefit six students with scholarships at Tomlinson College this year.

URBAN OUTREACH MINISTRIES: I operated an Outreach Ministries Booth in the Assembly Tabernacle corridor for the purpose of sharing concerns for the evangelization of our people in urban areas around the nation and the world. I participated in a seminar with Verlin Thornton and Jose Reyes, where several Overseers, pastors and interested workers attended.

I prepared an insert for the May 17 issue of the White Wing Messenger. Helped in the recruitment of several ministers and assisted some State Overseers in obtaining ministers to pastor churches in their states.

COMMITTEES SERVED ON AT HEADQUARTERS: Ministerial Aid, Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine, World Mission Committee, World Mission Corps, Communications Committee.

I have been available to the office of the General Overseer at all times to assist him upon request with whatever duties, administrative or otherwise, he deemed necessary, and have responded to all appeals for assistance made upon my office and ministry.

I prepared and sent out general mailings at Christmas and in the month of July to all licensed black ministers, in order to keep in touch in a more personal way during the course of the year.

We are thankful to the Lord for the many blessings He has bestowed upon the Spanish work this year. The radio program, "La Voz de Salvación," and the television program, "Compartiendo el pan de vida," have been blessed in a wonderful way. The radio program is heard over 164 radio stations with 394 weekly broadcasts. It covers all Latin America, the Caribbean Islands, parts of Australia, several states in the United States, and through several short-wave stations reaches areas in Asia, Africa, China, India, Europe and Indonesia. We are reaching 34 nations.

Thousands of letters have been received requesting the Bible courses we offer and expressing gratitude for the blessing that the program has been. Many of these also gave testimonies of healing and restoration received through the program.

We have been offering the Body of Christ and the General Bible Knowledge courses and a study on the Epistle of James. This year we were able to offer three new courses: studies on the books of Nehemiah and Philippians, and a study on the Sermon on the Mount. The distribution of units and certificates awarded for each course is as follows:

| Course                   | Units | Certificates |
|--------------------------|-------|--------------|
| General Bible Knowledge  | 1,279 | 195          |
| Body of Christ           | 449   | 56           |
| Study on James           | 465   | 90           |
| Study on Nehemiah        | 249   | 81           |
| Study on Philippians     | 40    | 10           |
| Study on Sermon on Mount | 86    | 29           |

The television ministry has gained new strength. We have produced three new series for television this year, which represent thirty-nine television programs. These series are studies on the books of Philippians and Romans, and on the Sermon on the Mount. A booklet of outlines was prepared on these studies for listeners and viewers. These courses have been made available to local churches on VHS and BETA format for Bible studies in the local church.

In July of this year the Spanish television ministry celebrated its first anniversary of broadcast on Satellite through Rock Christian Network, which constitutes a landmark in the Church's Communications Ministry. The program is being televised on several cable channels in the United States, on channels 64 and 57 in Puerto Rico; on channel 21 in Guatemala; and our most recent expansion is in Los Angeles, California, on channel 52, an all-Spanish full-power station, which alone has a potential audience of four million Hispanics.

I served as Headquarters Representative for the conventions in Cuba, Nicaragua, El Salvador and California (Spanish). Conducted revivals in Texas and New York and had radio rallies and special promotional services in El Salvador, Honduras, Guatemala, New York, Puerto Rico and California.

The Field Secretary's office sponsored a seminar during the Assembly last year in which several of the National Overseers, pastors and other leaders of the Hispanic churches in the United States and Latin America participated.

Due to the sudden death in June of Gabriel Montijo, Jr., Overseer of California (Spanish), the General Overseer appointed me as Overseer there until the General Assembly. In fulfillment of this new responsibility I planned and moderated the State Convention, visited eight local churches and conducted three district rallies to promote the work and to encourage the people.

I attended the National Religious Broadcasters (NRB) Convention in Washington, D.C. At this gathering I was elected to serve, for a second term, as President of the Hispanic division of NRB; and was also elected as a member of the Board of Directors. As President of the HNRB organization I planned and moderated this convention.

I represented the Church and conducted seminars at the National Congress on the Holy Spirit in New Orleans, and at the Hispanic Congress on Evangelism in Canada. I served as part of the Hispanic Task Force for the American Bible Society, whose purpose is to seek ways for the translation and distribution of Spanish material to reach the Hispanics in the United States with the gospel.

I wrote three Bible study courses which have their certificates for our radio and television audiences. I wrote four articles for the White Wing Messenger that were translated for the Spanish issues of the same and have written articles for other Christian magazines such as Religious Broadcasting, El Comunicador and Variedades Cristianas.

I served on the Communications Committee, the Ministerial Aid Committee, the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine and on the Youth Mission Board.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSE A. REYES, SR.

Report of Public Relations Director and Sunday School Editor

August 1, 1986 through September 11, 1987

| Sanctified .....                      | 13 | Added to Church by covenant ..... | 10 |

I sincerely appreciate the call of God on my life for the gospel ministry and the Church's acknowledgment by way of ordination and appointment to the ministerial responsibility where I now serve.

During this year, I have worked closely with the General Overseer, representing his office at official functions such as the United Bible Society, White House Presidential briefing on the religious state of affairs around the world, The National Religious Broadcasters Conference, ecumenical movements, as well as other religious assemblies in various countries of the world.

In civic affairs, I have represented the General Overseer's office in numerous local functions. I am presently serving as a member of the Board of Directors of both the Cleveland/Bradley Chamber of Commerce and the United Way of Bradley County. I am also a member of the Mayor's Blue Ribbon Committee.

I have produced and aired the Religious News International weekly broadcast, with Dan Howell as broadcaster. Appreciation is expressed to Thomas Duncan, Communication Business Manager, and Brent Daniel, Engineer, for their professional assistance in the production of this broadcast.

CLIP ART PAGES—These twelve new pages are for our camera-ready Clip Art communications resource book, which was introduced last year.

HOPE—This new 4-page Public Relations brochure has been produced and made available to local churches.

PUBLIC RELATIONS DIRECTOR'S PORTFOLIO—These were produced for the State and National Public Relations Directors.

As Editor of Sunday School publications, I have administrated the office affairs with a dedicated office staff, composed of Rob Allen, Editorial Assistant in curriculum development, Donna Brogdon, Editorial Secretary and Copy Editor for adult curriculum, Lou Ewasko and Vicky Robb, Copy Editors for the children/youth curriculum.

I express appreciation to our very competent staff of Sunday School literature writers. Current writers include Raymond Pruitt, Buford Johnson, Melvin Hyatt, John McClure, Kathy Creasy, Thomas Feltman and Rob Allen.

The Sunday School Literature Department continues to develop and introduce new elective Bible studies which have become a vital teaching tool in our total literature curriculum. Our goal is to complete twelve elective Bible studies. We now have eight completed and published. Two new studies have been added this year:

CHRISTIAN FAMILY LIVING—This is a comprehensive study presenting Bible directives on the Christian family. Topics addressed are:

Building a Strong Family

The Family in Crisis

Developing Patterns of Communication

The Single Parent Household

A teachers instructional section is included in the students study book.

IMPROVING YOUR GRIP (Student)—This is the second study in the Grip series, totaling four Bible studies when completed. It is written for young teens of the 80's, with interesting graphics and topical studies such as, "Hormone Hangups," "Dating for Keeps," "The Future and You" and "Value and Choices."

IMPROVING YOUR GRIP (Leaders Guide)—This includes complete instructions and overhead transparencies, hand-out masters for each lesson. It is simple to use and utilizes a wide variety of teaching methods, from discussion to role-playing.

Revisions in the Pre-Primary and Primary Curriculum Teaching Format

The Pre-Primary and Primary three-year curriculum is in an ongoing revision stage with some new lessons written, as well as the addition of a creative teaching aid packet.

CURRICULUM UPDATE—a quarterly publication printed in the interest of Sunday school literature by the Editor of Sunday School publications. This promotional tool, will help keep the local church and Christian Education Department personnel up to date regarding developments, trends, teaching aid tools and resources.

Report of the World Language Secretary

August 1, 1986 through July 31, 1987

"Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy, For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now" (Phil. 1:2-5).

My scriptural salutation comes very sincerely from my heart, being very cognizant of how the Lord has made us transit together through the past twelve years in the Language Department's translation work. In my reminiscence, my heart swells with gratitude, knowing how you have shared with me in this great work. You've shared in my deep compassion for those who did not have the last days message in their language. We have seen strides of outreach by which God has blessed the Church.

This has been a year of reaching out as far as possible. God has truly blessed the Church in opening doors and presenting opportunities to see dreams materialize. For example, He has provided land in the Philippines where the Church can build facilities for diverse activities. Gary Glover is there now assisting in the development of our Literature Center on these grounds. Very soon we will have our own facilities and printing equipment there.

In Kenya, we've acquired property to do the same thing. The construction of our Literature Center will provide a place for translators, printing and distribution facilities, national offices and ministerial training facilities.

In Ivory Coast, the same type project is nearing completion.

In Peru, someone has offered to donate a parcel of land where a similar facility will be built. Can you imagine our own printing facilities to supply some South American countries with all kinds of Church literature that is nearly impossible to import into Peru, Bolivia and Ecuador?

The response to the appeal for help for the machines and equipment for our new Literature Centers and printing facilities has been outstanding. States, local churches, even individuals, have been concerned and are participating in raising funds to buy equipment and materials that will enable us to translate, print and distribute literature around the world.

We've started translation work in three new languages this year. They are Swedish (to be used in Sweden), Dayak and Menthawa (to be used in Indonesia). Some of our Church tracts are now ready to be printed in those new languages.

I've truly been blessed by the Lord with the honor of serving as World Language Secretary again this year. I've been blessed to have experienced the following activities.

|                  |     |                           |     |
|------------------|-----|---------------------------|-----|
| Sermons .....    | 116 | Received Holy Ghost ..... | 25  |
| Saved .....      | 59  | Homes Visited .....       | 184 |
| Sanctified ..... | 32  | Revivals Conducted .....  | 2   |

I have visited the following states and nations: Arizona, California (Spanish), North Carolina, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Alabama, Virginia, Georgia, New Jersey, Delaware, Wisconsin, Michigan, Mexico, Peru, Bolivia, Argentina, Brazil, South Africa, Zimbabwe, Germany, Ecuador, Australia, Guatemala and Honduras.

National Conventions attended: Argentina, Zimbabwe, Ecuador and Australia. State Conventions: North Carolina, New Jersey/Delaware and Wisconsin. Youth Conventions: Mexico, Virginia and Georgia. Ministers Convention: Arizona. Church Literature Conferences: Peru, Honduras, Guatemala, Mexico, Zimbabwe and Argentina. Special Events: Missions Leadership Conference, Belo Horizonte, Brazil; General Youth Conference, Atlanta, GA and District Convention, Riverside, CA.

I have had the honor to serve on the following committees: World Mission Committee, Church Publishing Committee, Communications Committee.

I serve as Managing Editor of the International White Wing Messenger. At present we are translating and publishing the International White Wing Messenger in the following languages: Spanish, French, Telugu, Indonesian, Zulu, Afrikaans and Greek.

I also thank the Lord for the privilege of being involved in the Church fellowship group called "Servants," which has already proved to be a great blessing to the Church in several areas around the world.

Conclusion: I thank the Lord for all the individuals who have unselfishly given of themselves and of their finances for the work of the Lord. Their gifts are consequential in the salvation of those who are won to Christ and His Church through literature.

Special acknowledgement is given to each staff member of the World Language Department, who is to be commended for his/her devotion and service to God.

Brother Henry O'Neal has been a companion and partner in my language work. I thank God for his clear vision of our ultimate goal. He has been a great inspiration to me and the Department. I also want to express my gratitude to my dear family for their support, and to the General Overseer for giving me the opportunity to serve.

Report of Ministerial Aid Director
August 1, 1986 through July 31, 1987

I have administered all of the Ministerial Aid Department business which has been directed to World Headquarters through the Ministerial Aid Committee and a competent office staff; planned the special Ministerial Aid Edition of the White Wing Messenger, edited the monthly bulletin, "The International Connector" of which 11,000 copies were distributed.

Assumed responsibility of administration of group life insurance plan and accidental insurance carried by Life Insurance Company of North America and managed the business of Tax Sheltered Annuities and deferred Compensation of individual participants with United Benefit of Omaha.

I planned and moderated a special banquet for the seniors and directed a special 50-PLUS ADVANCE for those over age 50. I visited many retired ministers and sick people in many states in connection with Ministerial Aid activities, and I represented General Headquarters at several funerals. I attended conventions in South Africa, Alaska, Nebraska and Iowa.

I taught in the Cleveland Bible Training Institute and the West Coast (English) Bible Training Institute in Portland, Oregon.

I served as Secretary of the Ministerial Aid Committee, Secretary of the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity, and Doctrine and served on the Church of Prophecy Marker Association Committee. I have written thousands of letters and traveled many thousands of miles this year for the glory of God.

Report of Communications Minister

August 1, 1986 through July 31, 1987

I thank the Lord for His rich blessings on the Voice of Salvation ministries this year. He has given outstanding increases in every area of this ministry.

We have received 17,734 letters, 6,143 prayer requests and have mailed 9,492 special offers.

The video area continues to grow. We have produced promotional tapes for Tomlinson College, BTI, CPMA, White Wing Publishing House, VLB, as well as the entire 81st Annual General Assembly.

We have video taped 26 television programs for the Spanish Voice of Salvation, and are also producing weekly television programs to be telecast on some 35 outlets.

Members of my office staff are to be commended for their sacrificial dedication to this ministry. They have been greatly responsible for the growth we have experienced.

Report of Communications Business Manager

August 1, 1986 through July 31, 1987

The communications outreach has been expanded this year in the areas of English, Spanish and Greek broadcast coverage, for which the Lord is praised. We have sought Him that His face would shine upon us in our year's activity knowing that we are workers together with God and that without Him we could do nothing.

In scheduling several AM, FM and short-wave radio outlets for the broadcast ministry and in conducting productive promotions we have received excellent cooperation of State/National Overseers and Communications Directors.

The financial support for our work has come from the operations of Broadcast Distributors, Broadcast Record Club, Majestic Sound Studio, Voice of Salvation donations and an appropriation of funds for this ministry.

I have attended one district convention, the Maryland and D. C. State Convention, the Eastern Canada National Convention, the Audio Engineering Society Convention in Los Angeles, CA and the NRB Convention in Washington, DC.

I have assisted several local churches relative to their sound system needs. I supervised the audio operations of the 81st Annual Assembly, the audio operations of Cleveland Bible Training Institute, directed the work of my office staff, answered correspondence, operated Broadcast Distributors, Broadcast Record Club and served on the Communications Committee and the Music Committee.

We have again been blessed with the opportunity to broadcast portions of the General Assembly in Europe, Africa, Asia and South America via the DX Radio Network consisting of AM, FM and short-wave radio stations, making this programming available to millions of radio listeners who could not otherwise receive coverage of the General Assembly.

|                                    |     |
|------------------------------------|-----|
| VOICE OF SALVATION (English) ..... | 250 |
| VOICE OF SALVATION (Spanish) ..... | 164 |
| VOICE OF SALVATION (French) .....  | 4   |
| VOICE OF SALVATION (Greek) .....   | 4   |

Report of Director of Evangelism and Home Missions Representative

August 1, 1986 through July 31, 1987

The activities of this year were begun with my serving as a staff member for the 1986 International Youth Camp in North Carolina.

During the 81st Annual General Assembly I conducted a Sharing Eternal Life Review and coordinated and emceed a Cross-Cultural Evangelism Seminar, along with E. L. Jones and Jose Reyes. The theme of the Evangelism/Home Missions program was, "Let the Redeemed . . . Say So." In conjunction with that theme a booklet was prepared by the same title and distributed to all overseers to encourage the redeemed to say so. Some states used the theme for continued evangelism emphasis.

Throughout the year, I conducted five revivals, four Regional Sharing Eternal Life Seminars, and two state seminars. I toured the state of North Carolina with State Evangelism/Home Missions Director, Earl West, and represented General Headquarters at the Northern New England Youth Convention in Manchester, NH.

I attended a city-wide crusade planning meeting in Mexico City, and later the crusade itself in March, 1987. Ruben Morales served as the evangelist.

Along with Dan Howell, I visited the Memphis Day Shelter in Memphis, TN and served as host of a video documentary on the ministry that is being performed in that district under the leadership of Charles G. Hawkins, District Overseer.

I conducted the annual Evangelism/Home Missions Exchange at Paris Landing State Park in Tennessee. The theme was "Operation Harvest." Guest speakers were Charles G. Hawkins, Shirley Hawkins, William Marion, Dean Yancey, Carl Hawkins and Willie R. Boone, overseer of Southern New England.

I served as Bible Instructor in the Cleveland, Tennessee Bible Training Institute, and as a workshop speaker at the General Youth Conference in Atlanta, GA.

I coordinated the North American Youth Mission Team Orientation in Atlanta, GA and served as evangelist with the team to Mountain Home, ID.

State and National Conventions attended were England, West Virginia and Mississippi.

I supervised the writing of a new Home Missions Manual which is known as MAPS (Mission Action Plans Sourcebook). This manual contains illustrations from our own church planting activities, giving systematic steps for entering a new community, beginning a mission, and bringing it to an organized church. Copies may be ordered from the Evangelism/Home Missions office.

I served on the following headquarters committees throughout the year: World Mission Committee, Church Publishing Committee, Communications Committee, and Youth Mission Board.

I corresponded with all State and National Overseers, National Evangelists, State Evangelism/Home Missions Directors and pastors who were utilizing National Evangelists for revivals in their churches.

I attended the following conferences pertaining to evangelism: Conference on the Holy Spirit, Baton Rouge, LA; Congress on the Holy Spirit and World Evangelization (Leadership), New Orleans, LA; Evangelism Exchange III (Youth Crossover), Chicago, IL; Congress on the Holy Spirit and World Evangelization (General), New Orleans, LA.

This department sponsored William and Alice Blanset in a new field endeavor in Mountain Home, ID. We wish to commend Brother and Sister Blanset for their faithful service and for the many souls blessed and led to the Lord by their labor.

Appreciation is expressed to my office secretary for her assistance and to my family for their many prayers.

Report of World Mission Secretary
August 1, 1986 through July 31, 1987

By God's grace and the able assistance of my office staff, I made 36 visits to 21 countries and states in the course of my work this year. During these visits, 17 experiences were recorded as I taught and preached 94 lessons and sermons. Major activities attended included 4 International Leadership Conferences and 1 International Youth Camp Outreach (in the Caribbean, Central and South America and Europe), 7 National, State and Youth Conventions, 1 International Youth Conference, and the 1987 Youth Mission Team Orientation in London.

I supervised the work of the World Mission Department which included a monthly letter to overseers in the countries, answering of correspondence, preparation of legal documents, consulting and counseling with Overseers and Mission Representatives, etc. In addition, I served on the following Committees and Boards: World Missions, Youth Missions, Church Publishing, Bible Training Institute and Ministerial Aid.

All this could not have been accomplished without the faithful services and cooperation of the Mission Department Staff, Mission Representatives, Overseers, Mission Corpsmen and fellow workers at Headquarters. Their love, prayers and tolerance helped me through the year and I give thanks to our Lord for them.

Following is the statistical report on the countries as of July 31, 1987:

"And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry" (1 Timothy 1:12).

It is an honor and privilege which the Lord has given me to serve the Church in this capacity another year. I thank my wife Stella and my three children who have given me their support and prayers through the year. The Lord has been gracious and good, allowing me to be able to meet all my appointed duties in good health.

The Lord continues to bless the Church work throughout Latin America. Growth is being experienced in many countries. Many of the countries continue with political unrest. In several countries our people find themselves under severe persecution. Nevertheless, it appears that this atmosphere has allowed for greater growth in power of the Holy Ghost and manifestation of the gifts of the Spirit. Revival is sweeping many of these areas. To God be the glory!

In my work this past year I visited 14 countries, 4 states, attended 1 Youth Convention, represented General Headquarters at 7 National Conventions and had the honor to coordinate and moderate 2 International Leadership Conferences (Belo Horizonte, Brazil and Guatemala City, Guatemala). I served as a Bible Training Institute instructor in La Paz, Bolivia and in Cleveland, TN. I also served on the Mission Committee and Youth Mission Board.

I solicit your earnest prayers in behalf of our people who are living under strenuous political and economical situations—Nicaragua, El Salvador, Peru and Chile, in particular.

Respectfully submitted,

Tracts and publications were given out on occasion. Many White Wing Messengers were sent out. VOS and other ministers' messages were sent to Africa, Sweden, Israel and Greece on cassette. There were numbers of experiences not counted as I was not definitely certain of what they were. In most cases I advised the pastor or overseer to take the count and include them on their reports.

I visited 14 countries, five of them twice, for National Conventions and other special functions. I represented General Headquarters in 8 National Conventions: Kenya, Tanzania, Zambia, Transkei, Natal-Zululand and Lesotho, Greece, Finland and Egypt. I was a guest at the National Convention in England. I was Overseer of Egypt and made two visits there. I moderated two conventions: Egypt and Zambia. I taught in four Bible Training Institutes: Greece, England, Kenya and South Africa. I conducted a Mission Seminar in Southwest Chicago, IL. I also conducted and moderated an International Leadership Conference, April 9-12, 1987 in West Germany.

God has blessed us again this year in a wonderful way throughout the area of the Caribbean and Atlantic Ocean Islands. We have experienced some increase in all of our regions and countries. To God be the glory!

I attended the 81st General Assembly, Tomlinson College Banquet, the General Overseer's Assembly Banquet and his Christmas Banquet. Attended Tomlinson College Board Meetings, twice in Cleveland and once in the Bahamas, serving this year as Chairman.

I was guest speaker at a National Festival in Jamaica, made three trips to Haiti checking the work being done on our Orphanage buildings. Supervised the construction of three new church buildings in the Bahamas and attended the dedication of these buildings.

Moderated our Third Caribbean Leadership Conference which was held in Kingston, Jamaica. Wrote letters to all National and Regional Overseers except Brother Lam in Cuba, who is in touch with Headquarters by other means. Many telephone calls were made to Overseers as the necessity arose.

Four issues of the Caribbean Messenger were published this year and copies delivered or mailed to all areas of the Caribbean. Special thanks to our General Overseer and World Mission Secretary for their encouraging letters and other assistance in the work. I pray God's blessings upon them, and all our General Workers.

I wish to commend our Caribbean Office Secretary, Edna Cunningham, who also serves as Field Clerk, for her diligent and faithful service to the work in the Caribbean area, and my wife Beauth for her contribution in many ways.

Thanks to our Mission Department Office Staff for their kind assistance to us during this past Assembly year. May the Lord bless you.

Report of Military Service and Asia, Australia and Pacific Islands Mission Representative

August 1, 1986 through July 31, 1987

"Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession" (Psalm 2:8).

My appreciation and thanks to all laborers responsible for raising mission funds—

National/State Overseers, members and friends, both civilian and military, with whom I have worked this year. I esteem you very highly for the work's sake.

Attended the 81st Annual General Assembly in which I served on the Counseling Committee; directed Military Service Program and reception; served on World Mission Committee.

I have combined some of the work of those two offices where our military personnel are stationed, where we have mission interests. Visited the following states and countries in behalf of the work: Alaska, Arizona, California, Minnesota, Ohio, Oregon, South Carolina, Tennessee and Washington, D.C. Countries: Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Okinawa, Philippines, Singapore, West Germany and Thailand. Attended 5 national conventions and 2 state conventions. Served as principal and taught in both the Philippine and Indonesia BTI. Made photographs of various church activities which have been published in the WHITE WING MESSENGER and THE SENTINEL.

MILITARY SERVICE DEPARTMENT

I visited our military personnel in the United States and several other nations, attended and spoke in two retreats. Visited and spoke in three services on Okinawa.

Our Chaplaincy program presently consists of: Ltc. Douglas Stephenson, Maj. Guy Lindsey, Capt. Gerald Moates and Capt. Kurtes Quesinberry on active duty in the Army; Lcdr. Daniel Kurbis and Lt. Bill Reed, on active duty in the Navy; and Capt. Jon Stovall on active duty with the Air Force. 1Lt. Anthony Charles is serving in the Army Reserve. The following have been endorsed for the Air Force Chaplaincy: Charles Knauer for the Air Force Reserve and Tom Glisson for active duty Air Force. Capt. J. E. Brisson is with the Civil Air Patrol (presently inactive).

Retreats were conducted in Berchtesgaden, West Germany, Anchorage, Alaska and Okinawa, Japan as well as other special activities in many areas. A special prayer day on the third Sunday in February was observed by the Church in behalf of all those in the military service, and this was boosted in the WHITE WING MESSENGER.

The Servicemen's Center in Langen, West Germany continues to operate under the direction of Overseer Dennis Howard, with Onnie Langley serving as pastor. These brethren and those assisting them are to be highly commended for their labor of love.

THE SENTINEL mailing list numbers 1,046. Of these, 787 are individual recipients and 259 are distributed at the General Offices and mailed in bundles to pastors, overseers and others who work with the military. There have been 12 issues of the department's monthly publication printed and approximately 161 packets containing 12 tracts and 2 copies of THE SENTINEL mailed to new military personnel as they are added to our mailing list. The department participated in one pastoral mailing, furnishing information about ministering to the military. A regular flow of mail is received and answered.

The Church and its Representative and Ecclesiastical Endorsing Agent is listed with the Department of Defense, National Conference on Ministry to the Armed Forces (NCMAF), the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, the Civil Air Patrol and reserve components of each of these branches of service, and corresponds with the Chief of Chaplains for each of these branches of the military service.

I assumed, this year past, new responsibilities with some understanding of the considerable complexities involved. A diligent effort has been made to fulfill the numerous assignments in a manner that is pleasing to the Lord.

I have fulfilled the administrative duties, in part, by keeping as many office hours as possible when in Cleveland. Regular correspondence has been maintained with State/National Overseers, State/National Sunday School Secretaries, State/National Children's Ministries Directors, and Pastors, in addition to handling much other mail. Further, I have worked on this department's Assembly obligations which include six workshops, four children's worship services, a complete day of innovative ministry to children (Celebration Saturday), a meeting and banquet with the State/National secretaries, and the Department Program.

I have served on the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine. Additionally, I have fulfilled writing commitments for four publishers, and like work has been accomplished for the White Wing Messenger, White Wing Press and Bible Training Institute. I have invested time, effort, and many miles in consulting with various Sunday School experts in addition to attending two major Sunday School conventions (GLASS and ICEA), while also accomplishing the same in selected ecumenical efforts, including serving on the Steering Committee for the two North American Congresses on the Holy Spirit and World Evangelization.

With the assistance of the appropriate personnel, the following materials were completed under my supervision this year:

1987 Sunday School Fall Twelve Hour Prayer Campaign material with the theme, "God, Manifest Your Glory" (English, Spanish, French).

1987-1989 Sunday School Superintendent's Planning Calendar (English, Spanish, French).

A Sunday School edition of the White Wing Messenger (English, Spanish).

A special book (110 pages) for children's ministers called the Children's Day Idea Book.

This was edited by Sondra Hunter. A Spanish edition is in process.

Sunday School Helps and Hints. This quarterly publication for those who work in Sunday School was edited by Sondra Hunter (English, Spanish, French).

On Your Mark . . . Get Set . . . Grow! This publication, edited by Kathy Creasy, is produced quarterly by this department for children's ministers (English, Spanish, French).

1987 Children's Day material which used the theme "Children are People, Too!" (English, Spanish, French).

One new administrative literature piece entitled "Sunday School Workers Conferences." This material was prepared by Edward D. Dowdell.

Promotion and reporting on Vacation Bible School.

Sunday School Directives. This is a revised edition of the forty-two page booklet originally titled Sunday School Guidelines. Spanish and French editions are forthcoming.

Heritage CARE brochures. This is a pictorial guide to Heritage CARE. Also included are responses to frequently asked questions (English, Spanish, French).

Material pertinent for State/National Secretaries and Children's Ministers was collected, processed and made ready for distribution.

Revised Sunday School Superintendent's Report to Quarterly Conference and to State/National Sunday School Secretary (English, Spanish, French).

It is my burden to conform the Sunday School department to the needs of its international constituency. With that in mind, energy has been expended to make progress on producing materials that relate to the indigenous needs of our three primary languages (English, Spanish, French). Thus, for the first time a complete teacher training certificate is available in Spanish. Also, an advanced certificate has been prepared for those who speak English and a comparable program in Spanish is slated for release at the next General Assembly. Similarly, reflecting the results of an international survey of State/National Overseers, State/National Secretaries and pastors, a specific proposal with regard to teachers ministerial licenses was submitted to the Questions and Subjects Committee. Finally, specific plans have been made to tour Central America and South America in order to foster an improved understanding and provide first-hand experiences to the needs of some of our international Sunday Schools, so the General Sunday School Department can better prepare materials and programs to meet the needs of those outside of North America.

Great appreciation is due the staff, Cindy Daniel and Lori Chatham, for their important contribution to the Sunday School Department. And finally, a special word to my wife Sondra, who has made many things possible.

"The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad" (Psalm 126:3).

Praise the Lord for His blessings and goodness upon this generation of Church of God youth. This has been a very busy and exciting year for the youth department. I have witnessed the Lord calling many of our young people to preaching, teaching, and various other ministries this year.

Several publications have continued on a regular basis with the help of my staff. They are: Victory Leader (English, Spanish, French)—our monthly youth publication which appears in the White Wing Messenger, The Branch—a bimonthly inspirational newsletter for college students and single young adults, Servant Update—a bimonthly informational newsletter for state/national secretaries and camp directors and Gleanings For Gleaners—a quarterly resource newsletter for pastors and Gleaner leaders.

With the assistance of my office staff our department published a new resource book entitled, Encounter. This book addresses contemporary, youth-oriented issues from a biblical perspective. We also compiled and published a State/National Secretaries' Idea Book, the Guidepost—an idea book for camp directors, the International Youth Camp Staff Manual, the International Youth Camp Yearbook, inserts for our Camp Resource Manual, a series of six lessons for our state/national camps, and the Victory Leaders Band Ministries Calendar.

I served as Director for International Youth Camp at the Timber-lee Christian Center in East Troy, Wisconsin. Two hundred forty-five campers and staff shared this week together with a theme, "Exploring New Frontiers."

We also held our first-ever IYC Outreach for Europe and Africa in Dorfweil, West Germany. Sixty-five people were in attendance from fourteen different countries. We thank our United States camps for assisting in the financial sponsorship of this event.

We also had a team of seven people, including myself, to travel to India to assist as staff and trainers during their second youth camp. Jenna Allen is to be commended as director of these teams. I served as evangelist during this camp.

This year saw the continuation of the Youth Conference ministry with our second General Youth Conference held in Atlanta, Georgia during May. Fifteen hundred eighty-three youth and youth workers came together for a weekend of worship, sharing and learning. Twenty-eight workshops and five general sessions were conducted. Special emphasis was also given to our literature work, Tomlinson College, Youth Mission Teams and the World Mission Corps.

Our department spearheaded the World Literature Outreach promotion and also assisted in the editing of a new publication, Reach, which is designed to inform pastors, youth directors, and literature workers of the progress we are making in our various literature ministries.

I served as a BTI instructor for the Cleveland, Tennessee, school and attended the I.C.E.A. Sunday School Convention in Michigan where I taught two workshops. I spoke at youth rallies in Alabama and Michigan, taught in workers' conferences in Tennessee, Southern California, New Mexico and Virgin Islands, and also taught in the Mission Department's Caribbean and European Leadership Conferences. I served as guest speaker in the Idaho, Mexico, North Carolina, and West Virginia youth conventions. I visited camps in Puerto Rico, Alabama, and Pennsylvania, attended the National Congress On The Holy Spirit and World Evangelization in New Orleans, Louisiana, and attended state conventions as assigned by the General Overseer.

I served as secretary to the Youth Mission Board. Our Youth Mission Teams proved a blessing to our work this year with the following numerical results:

1987 YOUTH MISSION TEAMS

I served on the Tomlinson College Board of Trustees, the Church Publishing Committee, the Music Committee, and the Communications Committee.

I am especially thankful for God's grace to my family and His protection during our travels. Praise the Lord for every young person who has been saved, sanctified, filled with the Holy Ghost, baptized in water, added to the Church, or called to preach this year.

Respectfully submitted,
William M. Wilson

It is always a challenge and a privilege to work in missions. This has been a year of decided progress. The mission spirit has ignited in remote areas and under adverse circumstances, bringing us to a new and bigger challenge for missions. Many have responded to send assistance to some of these. I trust in the forthcoming year more people will see the need of personally answering this call for the needed mission funds.

I have been in contact with the state/national secretaries through monthly correspondence and with many of them on a personal basis. The department has compiled and printed:

Mission Crusade Booklet (English and Spanish)

Women in Profile #9 (planning booklet for ladies functions)

Mission Program Book (English)

Helping Hand Ministry Brochure

Ladies Retreat Program Booklet

Ladies Retreat Brochure

The Department also revised and supervised the reprinting of:

WMB Secretaries' Handbook (English/Spanish)

Mission Giving Brochure (English/Spanish/French)

Leaders, Here's How Booklet (English/Spanish/French)

There has been an increase of interest in Women Ministering Biblically. State/national secretaries, district boosters and local leaders have accepted the challenge of a ministry to and for women—Bible studies, prayer groups, visitation to shut-ins in convalescent centers, hospitals and private homes. A various number of activities for ministering to women were reported, such as: Ladies breakfast/luncheon, Ladies Day in local or district areas, Ladies Day or Ladies Retreats on a state-wide basis. The numbers benefited by such activities will be on the Judgment Day report; suffice us to know that women are being ministered to and results are identifiable in many areas of their lives. The total number gathering for these functions have shown a considerable growth in the last two years.

The Helping Hand Ministry has not gone unnoticed by our people this year. The response of individuals as well as of churches to the needs of people on the mission field has greatly increased. I wish to give my special thanks to those individuals, local churches, as well as some states, who have sponsored projects for the Helping Hand Ministry. A great spirit of concern has been evidenced among our people this year. I feel this is pleasing to the Lord when we remember "those who are in bonds as being bound with them." Thanks to the secretaries and overseers who have boosted this, making it the success it has been.

Through the Helping Hand Ministry several vehicles have been purchased, a couple of motorcycles, bikes and a mule/horse. There is still need for transportation; so, we will continue the slogan "Wheels for Missions." There is also a great need for land. Many of these areas are in desperate need of buildings, but there must be land to set the buildings on and this is very expensive. We must begin to "stake our claim" in these mission lands. Land is a must. We will also continue to endeavor to support ministers. It is our desire to relieve the financial family burden of these people, enabling them to give their time to the ministry. It is a gigantic program, but thanks to people like you who have given and will continue to give, we will be able to fulfill the "Go Ye" command.

It has been a joy for me to correspond with the national overseers and secretaries by sending resource materials intermittently throughout the year.

Youth Mission Teams have again proven to be a challenge to me; first, by serving as a member of the Youth Mission Board and second, by accompanying the team to Kenya as the crusade evangelist.

The emphasis on family ministry is also growing. The Lord helped my husband and me to be involved with this ministry in two states this year.

I was involved with the teaching ministry in the Cleveland, Tennessee BTI; assisted with the International Youth Conference, Atlanta 1987; conducted some mission rallies and was WMB Representative in the Puerto Rico National WMB Convention.

I wish to express my gratitude to the state/national overseers who have supported the Regional Ladies Retreat ministry. This year I directed 13 retreats including Canada, England and Jamaica (England included the European area; Jamaica, the Caribbean area) A total of 4,452 ladies attended these retreats. We have no record as to the number receiving experiences of salvation. We can only report that in each of these there were times when the power of the Holy Ghost made a visitation, changing attitudes, hearts and lives. Thanks to the corps of women who have served on the retreat staff this year. Their fastings, prayers and tears made the difference.

We give our humble thanks to the loving Father who has performed all of this for us through godly men and women in both the laity and in all ranks of the ministry that were willing to give of themselves, their money and their time to make things happen. These are the ones who have made this report possible. Thanks to all of you and to my office staff for working so faithfully to make this office an asset to the Church.

Report of Tomlinson College President

I take this opportunity to express my appreciation for the support and prayers of the many workers here at General Headquarters and those of you in the field. A special thanks to the maintenance department for their upkeep and repair of our campus facilities and grounds.

Our faculty and staff have been quite busy this past year as we are conducting our first self-study as required by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in order to maintain our accreditation and ensure the effectiveness and quality of our programs. This self-study will continue through December of 1988.

Our External Studies program has been expanded to include greater service by offering numerous seminars and workshops for ministers and members. We appreciate the support of our State/National Overseers in this important ministry of Tomlinson College.

Our Institutional Development office has been very active this year in establishing various fund-raising programs such as our annual fund, scholarships, gifts, grants, etc. We encourage others to consider establishing a personal or family scholarship fund, or to give financial support to the college.

Several improvements have been added to our campus this year. We have a new computer lab with the latest state-of-the-art microcomputers, a new bookstore, and several facility upgrades in the academic building and cafeteria. New programs in college preparation and development have been instituted to help more students succeed in their college endeavors.

A new full-time position of chaplain has been established with increased chapel services and special emphasis on greater spirituality for our campus.

I want to personally thank all the staff, faculty, administration, employees and my personal secretary for their hard work and commitment to our mission at Tomlinson College.

Have answered all mail received in the office; corresponded with national/state secretaries on a regular basis, and sent copies of materials as they were developed.

Developed materials and revised the Honor Program.

Supervised the special CPMA edition of the White Wing Messenger and wrote several additional articles; also authored several manuscripts on the nature and characteristics of the Bible Church—the Church of God.

Supervised the maintenance and development of Fields of the Wood, including several new projects. This was possible only with the hard work and capable assistance of Richard Morrow, Superintendent/Minister of Fields of the Wood.

I was in charge of the Easter Program and Pageant; assisted the General Overseer in the Thanksgiving and June 13th Anniversary Programs, the First Assembly Program, and the Pre-Assembly Program.

Continued to boost and develop the Mission Markers Program. Supervised the production of film entitled, "Laboring Together In El Salvador." The film focused on missions and the progress of the Mission Markers Program in this area. This film was made on location in El Salvador. Supervised the development of construction crews to go from the United States to assist in construction of these buildings. This program has assisted in building approximately 250 places of worship in 40 countries. To God be the glory and the saints in these countries the benefits.

I represented General Headquarters in the following states/countries: State/National Conventions—Cyprus, Belize, Canada (East), Arizona/Nevada (South) and Arkansas. Guest speaker in the following Ministers Conventions/Retreats—Iowa, Kansas, Indiana and West Virginia. Youth Conventions—Missouri, Kansas, IYC and International Youth Conference in Georgia. Held revivals in Kentucky, Virginia, Michigan, Tennessee and Rhode Island. Taught Pastors' Training/Seminars in Tennessee and New York. Held CPMA/PR promotional in Virginia. Assisted in State Conference in Michigan. Attended World Council of Churches Seminar in California. Taught in Central America Leadership Conference.

My appreciation for the hard work and faithful assistance to our CPMA office staff, especially my personal secretary, Carol Butts, national/state secretaries, pastors and leaders, the Fields of the Wood staff and workers, the CPMA Committee and the General Overseer, for their cooperation and assistance in the wonderful accomplishments realized by the CPMA Department this year.

Respectfully submitted,
WADE H. PHILLIPS

It was my privilege to serve on the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine. Many hours were spent reading manuscripts and Church related materials. I served on the Bible Training Institute Committee which I enjoyed very much.

Delightfully coordinated my efforts with the General Superintendent, General Representative, office secretaries and supply coordinator to fulfill my obligations as Bible Training Institute Representative. I personally corresponded with vice presidents, state/national representatives to secure places for schools and set in order the administration for the schools that I was directly responsible for.

This year we began having Bible Training Institute rallies to promote the need for training and to introduce correspondence courses to those unable to attend one of the regular schools; also, to acquaint members with the operation of Bible Training Institute. This proved to be a great blessing, increasing the enrollment in more correspondence courses.

We have had an inspirational and informative year for the teaching ministry. In the classroom, God supplied the unction and inspiration to teach, and as a result the needs of the students were met.

I appreciate the General Overseer, the General Superintendent, the Bible Training Institute Representative, the office personnel, people on the field and my dear wife and family for praying for and helping me in so many ways to serve the Church as Representative of Bible Training Institute. To God be the glory.

Respectfully submitted,
BENJAMIN LAWRENCE

Served on the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine. Assisted the General Superintendent in the coordination of Bible Training Institute in different nations and states. Personally corresponded with vice presidents to secure places of schools and set in order the administration of the schools that I was directly responsible for and helped in the others.

Many doors are being opened all over the world. The teaching ministry is a vital link in the super growth which we are having in many areas. The workers are few and they must give their best; the Lord is coming soon.

I thank the Lord for His mercy and the General Overseer, General Superintendent, BTI Representative, the office staff, General Headquarters personnel, State/National Overseers, my students and my family for their support and prayers this year. If we were able to be a blessing to someone, to God be the glory.

NOTE TO MINISTERS AND TREASURERS: Fill in all reports accurately and completely. Write or print plainly. If assistance is needed, write to L. F. Kendrick, Box 2970, Cleveland, Tennessee 37311-2970.

TITHES: Members should pay their tithes into the treasury of the local church where they are members. Ministers send the tithes of income from the ministry with their monthly reports to the General Treasurer, and tithes on income outside the ministry are paid into the treasury of the local church where they are members.

The treasurer of the church is to send 10 per cent of tithes received each month with the treasurer's report to the appropriate address.

United States, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands—L. F. Kendrick, Box 2970 Cleveland, Tennessee 37311-2970.

Other reports should be addressed to The Church of God of Prophecy, General Headquarters Field Office in your respective area, or contact your Overseer.

The Assembly recommends that the Executive Committee be authorized to decide the allotments of Pastors, State Overseers and General Workers each year.

The Assembly recommends that the allotment of the General Overseer and that pay for incidental expenses plus any and all personal necessities be left to the discretion of the Executive Committee.

The treasurer of the local church sends 10% of the tithes received each month to the treasurer of his state or nation and 10% to General Treasurer. The pastor's allotment is paid from the balance, not to exceed the amount set by the Executive Committee; any remainder goes into the surplus tithes.

The sum of $800 received each month by the General Appointees and the State Overseers is designated for rent and utilities. Should the rent and utilities be under the above amount, the remaining amount would be included as income. Where feasible, this is also applicable to pastors and full-time evangelists. (Note: This is for income tax purposes only, and involves no extra allotment.)

Surplus tithes accruing in any local church are to be left in the tithe fund account of the local church treasury until after the last Sunday in June, at which time it is properly divided: 10% to be sent to the General Treasurer to be used at the discretion of the Executive Committee; 25% to be sent to the state or national treasurer to be used at the discretion of the State or National Overseer and Finance and Appropriations Committee and the 65% left in the local church should be presented by the local finance committee as a proposed budget plan for approval by the local church conference. First consideration should be given to the pastor's expense in the ministry; said expenses being already defined in the Business Guide.

The Assembly recommends that all local church treasurers mail their reports to the state or national treasurer no later than the 5th of each month. From the funds received, the State or National Overseer would receive his allotment and expense (if funds are available) according to the rulings of the General Assembly.

The Executive Committee agrees that all General Appointees receive an allotment of $1,833.00 monthly, if funds are available; and that incidental expense incurred by these General Appointees be left to the discretion of the Executive Committee.

Overseers in the United States are to receive no more than $1,833.00 monthly, plus an amount not to exceed $200 a month for office expenses from the tithes received from the churches, if funds are available. Any funds in excess of this amount received by the treasurer are to be kept in the state treasury to be placed in the general state fund for the state work, especially to assist pastors of weaker churches.

The Executive Committee agrees that the pastor receive an amount not to exceed $1,833.00 monthly from the tithes of the local church after General Headquarters and the State Overseer have received their portions, if funds are available. This does not include offerings and poundings received by the pastor.

Allotments for Overseers outside the United States where there are not sufficient tithes to cover the allotments, the remaining portion is to be supplied by making transfers of Tithe Funds between countries where this is legally permissible and from the United States Tithe Fund in other cases, if funds are available, and that each Overseer should receive an allotment in the currency of the country or the territory he represents according to the average prevailing wage rates of each country.

The Assembly has ruled that tithes are for the support of the ministry only. Surplus tithes received at General Headquarters are disbursed at the discretion of the Executive Committee. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all tithes sent to General Headquarters. The tithes of non-members that are paid into the local church treasury are to be paid through the regular channel the same as the tithes of members.

Ministry is defined as the office, duties, or functions of a minister; the building in which the business of the ministry is transacted; thus, the ministry includes any and all phases of the Church ministry, such as church property, equipment, maintenance, etc.

HERITAGE CARE FUND: [Mission Homes for Children] All Heritage Care Fund offerings remain in the local church treasury, 90% of such to be turned in at the state/national convention. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 20% to be retained by the state/national treasury for improving, building and maintaining the headquarters; the remaining balance to be subsequently divided: 10% to the general treasury, 10% to the state/national treasury, 10% to Ministerial Aid, 35% to Tomlinson College and 35% to Mission Homes for Children. The General Treasurer sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state/nation to the respective state/national treasurer for the general state/national fund. The Assembly has recommended that 10% of the Assembly offerings of the Heritage Care Fund be retained by General Headquarters for General Properties, 40% for Tomlinson College and 40% for Mission Homes for Children.

EMERGENCY FUND: All ministers and members are to pay one dollar a year, or the amount set by the World Mission Committee where applicable, into the treasury of the local churches where their memberships are, and the treasurer sends the emergency dollars as collected with his monthly report. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all emergency money sent to General Headquarters.

GENERAL PROPERTIES FUND: The Assembly recommended that the General Property Dollar be discontinued.

The Assembly recommends these portions be designated as General Properties Fund:

1. Not less than 50% of the CPMA membership each year after 10% is deducted for Ministerial Aid;
2. 50% of the CPMA state convention offerings which presently remain in the state treasury;
3. 10% of the state and national convention offerings.
4. 10% of the Assembly offerings of Heritage Care Fund and Bible Training Institute.

The Assembly recommends that if there should be any deficit occurring in the General Properties Fund in making the monthly payments, such deficit be paid from the General Fund.

MISSION MONEY: The second Sunday mission offering and mission money raised by other means remain in the local church treasury, 90% of such to be turned in at the state and national convention. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: for the improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state convention mission offering is to remain in the state treasury. The General Treasurer receives 10% of the balance and the state treasurer keeps 10%, or an equal amount. Half of the remainder is left in the state for the general state fund, and half sent to the General Treasurer as world mission money.

The General Treasurer receives all mission money collected in the March and October drives for world missions. It is to be sent with the local treasurer's monthly report. All mission offerings at the Assembly are turned in to the General Treasurer as world mission money. The General Treasurer sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of the mission money sent to the General Treasurer.

FIRST SUNDAY OFFERING: Each local church receives an offering for the pastor on the first Sunday of each month.

DISTRICT OVERSEERS SUPPORT: The Assembly recommends that a love offering be received for the district overseer in his district convention. If the district overseer is requested by the State Overseer to perform a duty involving considerable expense, the State Overseer will be responsible for such expense.

FOURTH SUNDAY OFFERING: The local church treasurer sends the full amount of the Fourth Sunday offering to the State/National Treasurer to be designated and used as Overseer's expense. If there are not sufficient fourth Sunday offerings to cover his expense as Overseer, the excess tithes in the state/national treasury may be used to supplement the fourth Sunday offerings. DO NOT send any of the fourth Sunday offerings to the General Treasurer. Each local church should receive poundings for the Overseer once or twice a year.

VICTORY LEADERS BAND OFFERING: 90% of all money raised for the Free Literature Fund by the Victory Leaders is given in at the state or national convention. Money for the expense of the band should be received in a special offering. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: for the improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state or national convention free literature offering is left in the state treasury. The General Treasurer receives 10% of the balance and the state treasurer retains 20% for the general state fund. The balance is sent to the White Wing Publishing House. The Assembly Free Literature Offering is given to the World Language Department. The White Wing Publishing House sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all free literature and world literature outreach monies received by the White Wing Publishing House, and the balance is disbursed by the Church Publishing Committee.

ASSEMBLY EXPENSE: To assist in the expense of the annual assemblies, the State Overseers are asked to collect funds each year and send to the General Treasurer.

a. Churches having less than 50 in Sunday School are to contribute annually $2.00 to Assembly expense; churches with Sunday School attendance between 50 and 100 are to contribute $3.00 annually; and churches averaging over 100 in Sunday School are to contribute $5.00 annually.

b. Each Victory Leaders Band is to contribute $2.00 annually; each Women's Missionary Band is to contribute $2.00 annually, and each minister, including deacons and lay ministers, is to contribute $1.00 annually.

c. The Assembly recommends that the pastors be responsible for collecting the Assembly Expense Dollars for the auxiliaries and forward to the State Overseer, and the State Overseer be responsible to collect the dollars from the ministers in his state. These funds are to be mailed to the General Treasurer as collected. The final report of the Assembly expense should be given by the Overseer with the state convention report to the General Treasurer, and the State Secretaries be responsible to the State Overseer to boost and assist in collecting these funds.

CHURCH OF PROPHECY MARKER ASSOCIATION: To be a member of the Church of Prophecy Marker Association, one pays $5.00 a year, any time during the year. In other nations, to become a member one must pay an amount set by the Overseer and CPMA Committee.

CPMA offerings remain in the local church treasury, 90% of which are turned in at the state convention. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 20% of the CPMA state convention offering remains in the state treasury for improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters; 10% of the balance is sent to the General Treasurer, and an equal amount is sent to the state treasurer for the state work, and an equal amount is sent to the General Treasurer for the Ministerial Aid Fund. Of the amount presently remaining in the state treasury, 50% is to be sent to the General Treasurer for the General Properties Fund. Not less than 50% of CPMA membership fees each year, after 10% is deducted for Ministerial Aid, is to go to the General Properties Fund.

BIBLE TRAINING INSTITUTE: The Assembly recommends that the pastors be responsible for conducting classes in the local churches to acquaint our people with the doctrine and practices of the Church. Offerings received in the classes are turned in at the state convention to assist Bible Training Institute in other nations. 10% of state and national convention offerings and Assembly offerings of Bible Training Institute are to be sent to General Headquarters for the General Properties Fund.

Deeds for Church Property

The following resolution was adopted by the 58th Annual Assembly of the Church of God of Prophecy, held in Cleveland, Tennessee, September 10-16, 1963:

WHEREAS it has been advised by competent attorneys that specific mention of proper authorities be stated in an effort to ease the complications arising in our endeavors to be recognized by the courts, and to facilitate the handling of deeds to our church properties,

BE IT RESOLVED that trustees to hold title to local church property for the Church of God of Prophecy with international headquarters at Cleveland, Tennessee, be selected by the local church either in a regular or called business meeting, said trustees to be vested with authority to bargain, buy, sell, convey or encumber such property by mortgage or otherwise only when authorized to do so by the local church in regular or called business meeting, and with the consent of the General Trustees.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said consent of the General Trustees be evidenced by a separate writing or by the signature of the Chief Clerk of the said General Trustees, such documents to be notarized.

BE IT RESOLVED that state church trustees appointed by the State Overseer to hold title to property for the Church of God of Prophecy with international headquarters at Cleveland,

Tennessee, be vested with authority to bargain, buy, sell, convey, or encumber such property by mortgage with the consent of the General Trustees. This applies to property being held by state trustees where churches have been disbanded or are too weak to function and to property which has been given to the state. All other property with title in the state trustees or a state Holding Association may be disposed of or mortgaged only by the consent of the state convention in session (modified in 1981).

Note: The following Warranty Deed form has been prepared by the General Trustees and should be used where it is possible to do so. Blank forms may be secured from the General Trustees.

WARRANTY DEED

NOTE: The present General Trustees are M. A. Tomlinson, L. F. Kendrick, Henry O'Neal, Billy Murray, and Harper Hunter. M. A. Tomlinson is chairman and Billy Murray is the chief clerk.

World Must Be Evangelized

It will take good organization and systematic methods to accomplish this task.

God's power is demonstrated in proportion to the unity and oneness of His people.

The members of the early Church were all of one accord, steadfast in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and the multitude that believed were of one heart and one soul, and great grace was upon them all and mighty results followed as a consequence of their perfect unity and careful organization.

We must banish from our minds the thoughts of individual or local independence and haphazard spasmodic efforts.

Pull together, pull at once, pull steadily all the time is the road to success.

All members should be ready to center their minds and prayers on the one thing, as a unit, when calls for special prayer are made. Each should feel his or her part of the responsibility, remembering that when one member fails, it hinders the body until the matter pending may fail.

Local Church Officers and Leaders

1. Pastor: It is the duty of the State or National Overseer to supply every church under his jurisdiction with a pastor. Pastors are to be appointed at the state or national convention and vacancies will be filled as they occur. The duties of the pastor expire at midnight the last Sunday in July at the church he is leaving and automatically begin at the same time at the church to which he is moving.

2. Clerk: The local church clerk is to be appointed by the pastor at the same time as the other leaders and officers are appointed during the first two months of his pastoral year. The pastor is to see that a careful record is made by the church clerk of this action. The date of the appointments along with names of each leader should be recorded in the following conference as a matter of good business.

3. Treasurer: The treasurer is appointed in the same manner as the clerk. It is advised that one person serve as both clerk and treasurer when satisfactory to the local church. The treasurer will receive and disburse all funds of the local church including tithes, auxiliary funds and special funds and will maintain an accurate record of all receipts and disbursements.

4. Auxiliary Leaders: Leaders for the five auxiliaries—Sunday School, Womens Missionary Band, Victory Leaders Band, Church of Prophecy Marker Association, Assembly Band Movement—are appointed by the pastor during the first two months of his pastoral year.

Each pastor, with the assistance of the deacons, should divide his members into bands of ten or twelve and appoint a leader for each band. The leader should keep in touch with each member of the band, and if any should move away, communication should be kept up by correspondence. This is for the spiritual benefit of the members. The pastor should keep in close touch with the band leaders.

5. Local Trustees: Trustees to hold title to local church property are selected by the local church in a regular or called business meeting and are authorized to bargain, buy, sell, convey or encumber the local property only when authorized to do so by the local church in a regular or called business meeting, and with the written consent of the General Trustees.

6. Other Officers and Leaders: The Assembly has authorized the pastor to appoint a Church Literature Representative, Public Relations Director, Bible Training Institute Booster and any other leaders during the first two months of his pastoral year.

Business Meetings

Each local church should hold a regular business conference quarterly. It has been the practice to observe the first Monday night in January, April, July, and October for the conference. A meeting may be called any time by the pastor or State Overseer. A short business meeting may be held at the beginning or close of a meeting for worship.

The pastor should act as moderator of all business meetings. If there is no pastor, the State Overseer has authority to act or to appoint a licensed male minister to preside. Where one pastor has the care of several churches, he may arrange the business meetings for his convenience.

Every member should attend every business session if possible. Women are to take no open part in discussing or deciding questions, but should always be there and silently pray that God will give wisdom and direct the men.

Matters should be discussed with love, humility and meekness. No votes should be taken to decide questions. Everything should be done with one accord and questions settled by mutual agreement. If there is division on a matter, hold it over until all can agree. If one should seem obstinate and contrary, do not run the matter over him, but take up his case and investigate the cause of his obstinacy; if he shows a good spirit so that he can be heard, then show him courtesy. If he proves to be wrong, deal with him as the Bible directs. Then, take up the original subject and dispose of it in harmony and love.

If a matter cannot be settled satisfactorily by the local church, they should call for the assistance of the State Overseer. If they are still unable to reach a satisfactory conclusion, it should be referred to the General Overseer.

Suggested Arrangement and Order of Business

The clerk and treasurer should be seated at the front, near the moderator. Leaders who will be submitting reports to the conference, along with lay ministers and deacons, should also be seated near the front.

The conference should be opened with an appropriate Scripture reading and a sincere prayer for divine guidance.

Clerk read minutes of last regular meeting and any called meetings.

Correction of minutes, if any.

Treasurer give report of finances and always give an itemized statement of receipts and disbursements and balance in treasury.

Leader of the WMB give report of the work of the band, including finances, receipts and disbursements.

Victory Leaders Director give report of the work and progress of the band, including finances, receipts, and disbursements.

Pastor give report of the ABM work, amount of money raised monthly, number of strays found and brought back (Luke 15:4-6), and give account of every member of his flock (Hebrews 13:17).

Report of CPMA Leader—number of members and receipts.

The Sunday School Superintendent give report of the work and progress of the school, including finances, receipts and disbursements.

Report of church literature representative.

Acceptance of transfers.

Members to transfer.

Unfinished business.

New business.

Adjournment by prayer.

Advice to Members

As a member, you count one and should attend every regular service as far as possible. Remember no one can fill your place and the service will be that much hindered without your presence.

Show love and fellowship to everyone without partiality. Don't wait for others to greet you but you greet them.

Show special courtesy to strangers who may attend one of your services.

As a rule, take part in the singing.

Be ready for vocal prayer when called on or prompted by the Spirit.

Be ready for testimony when such is in order.

Stand by your pastor or appointed leader and assist him in every way you can.

Always pray silently for the preacher while he delivers the message. Always live a consecrated life at home and abroad so no one can justly think or speak of you as a hypocrite.

Guard your conversation. Be careful what you say about a brother, sister, or anyone else.

Don't be a critic and try to find something in others to criticize.

Be cheerful and happy and try to make others the same.

Spend as much time as you can in secret prayer. Give yourself all you can to intercessory prayer. Daily prayers and study of God's Word are necessary and very important for the spiritual welfare of each child of God; therefore, everyone is urged to faithfully maintain as far as is possible family worship at home at least once a day.

Your dress should be with moderation, neat and clean, but not for show. Moderation includes paying moderate prices for clothing, wearing dresses of high-enough necklines, low-enough hemlines, sleeves of reasonable length. The wearing of extremely sheer fabrics is unbecoming to a saint and the wearing of shorts in public should never be practiced. You should never wear gold for ornament or decoration. Finger rings, bracelets, earrings, necklaces, locketts and large showy pins—these are also unbecoming to a saint of God. Rouge, lipstick, nail polish and extremely costly perfumes are used to satisfy the pride of life and therefore they should have no place in the lives of those who love God. Please read and study these Scriptures often: 1 Peter 3:3, 4; 1 Timothy 2:9, 10 and 1 John 2:15-17.

You should not permit yourself to be trapped by worldly attractions. The Bible says, "Neither give place to the devil." Dabbling with worldly amusements like professional ball-games, horseraces, stockcar races, wrestling arenas, skating rinks, motion picture houses or drive-in theaters, bowling alleys and going swimming where men and women both use the same bathing area would give the devil a foothold or place in your life.

Always tithe your income and put it in the church treasury. Make freewill offerings other than your tithes.

Younger members should not keep company or associate too intimately with worldly outsiders.

Because of the ever-increasing number of broken homes, separations, divorces and remarriages, the greatest care should be taken with much prayer and consideration regarding proposed matrimony.

A member who may have a living companion should not marry another under any circumstances, even if divorced. Neither should a member marry anyone who has a living companion although such a person may be divorced.

Children are an heritage from the Lord. Those who have children are responsible to teach them at an early age to reverence the house of God. This should be done by setting a good example before them and by instructing them with such a good spirit that they will have a strong desire to serve the Lord. MINISTERS are to meet all of the requirements in being examples to the members by keeping their children under reasonable control at all times and by restraining them from running about over the house of God, especially while the services are in progress.

The White Wing Messenger is a very important part of the Church of God. It should be read regularly by every member and your interest in advertising the Church should be so great that when you have finished reading your copy, you would pass it along to someone else. Every member who possibly can should subscribe, and each minister is asked to be a "paid-up" subscriber and an earnest worker for our church paper—The White Wing Messenger.

These are the last days and perilous times have come and it will require much watchfulness and humble prayer for you to so live and act that you will never bring reproach on the worthy name of Christ and His Church that you so much love.

Never form too close an intimacy with the opposite sex even if they are brothers and sisters in the Lord. Give no place to the Adversary. Abstain from the very appearance of evil.

These kindly instructions and advices are given by those who are watching for your soul as they must give an account (Hebrews 13:17), and it is hoped they will be received with the same meek, gentle spirit in which they are given.

Duties of State and National Overseers

Each overseer is to have the oversight of his state, nation or territory, and together with the General Overseer, will form the presbytery in his respective area. In addition to his general responsibility for the work under his jurisdiction, he will be responsible for specific duties:

To conduct or order a general evangelistic campaign during the year. If there are only a few churches in the state or area assigned him, he will serve primarily as an evangelist, evangelizing in new fields and endeavoring to establish new churches. If his area has a large number of churches and ministers, he will be responsible to organize and direct the evangelistic efforts of his workers in new fields.

To see that every church is supplied with a pastor.

To divide his state or territory into districts and place over each district an overseer. This is not a rule, but it is considered best when there are sufficient churches to make it practical. He should conduct district meetings at intervals during the year where special instructions concerning the work can be given.

To hold one general convention each year in the area most convenient for members from all the churches to attend.

To secure the name and address of every bishop, deacon, and evangelist under his jurisdiction and keep a record of these so he can report to the General Overseer, if necessary. He will also issue lay ministers' certificates and teachers' licenses and keep the necessary records concerning them.

Keep an accurate record of the location of every church and the number of members in his territory, keeping a record of the increase so this information can be reported each year. This can be done by keeping in touch with the clerks of the churches. Every minister and clerk should take an interest in imparting this information to the overseer. All new organizations should be reported to the overseer.

To visit every district and church, if possible, and look after the interests in every way, as a pastor over a large circuit.

Duties of District Overseer

The district overseers are to be appointed by the State Overseer:

To moderate business conferences for women preachers who may be acting as pastors and for male pastors who are not licensed.

To do evangelistic work in his district. If he has a district with no churches, it is his duty to evangelize and organize churches.

To conduct district conventions according to the instructions of the State Overseer.

To assist the State Overseer, when called upon, in all things relating to church work, and he is subject to the State Overseer.

Obligation for Membership in the Church of God of Prophecy

Will you sincerely promise in the presence of God and these witnesses that you will accept this Bible as the Word of God—believe and practice its teachings rightly divided—the New Testament as your rule of faith and practice, government and discipline, and walk in the light to the best of your knowledge and ability?

The minister who administers this obligation should see that every applicant replies in the affirmative. In taking the obligation, applicants should think of it as being a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

Teachings of the Church of God of Prophecy

The Church of God of Prophecy stands for the whole Bible rightly divided—the New Testament as the only rule of government and discipline.
