PRE-ASSEMBLY SERVICE
SUNDAY, AUGUST 12
Evening

6:30 Instrumental Praise directed by Ron Hamm

7:00 Welcome by all directed by Leonard F. Kendrick, General Treasurer.

This was followed by a time of worship and praise led by Benny and Gloria Hart. Concert prayer; ushers received expense offering as singing continued.

7:45 Frank Hughes made announcement regarding going to the Fields of the Wood Program.

7:47 A False Sense of Measurement—message and altar invitation by Mike Willingham, pastor of Greenville, SC.

“For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise” (2 Corinthians 10:12).

Many of us here tonight are concerned about the progress or the lack of progress in the Church of God. We are asking ourselves questions about what needs to be corrected about ourselves that will allow the blessings of God to flow. I for one believe we need help from God, but our help is not going to come from a false sense of measurement. Comparing ourselves with ourselves and commending ourselves by our own man-made set of standards will lead us to a false sense of spiritual security. I am sure a certain amount of introspection is necessary but we must not fashion our own “rule” to measure ourselves by. We must look beyond ourselves, we must look to the Divine Creator, who alone is perfect and has the perfect rule by which we need to measure ourselves.

Not only do we need human introspection; we need divine inspection. Paul knew it was unwise to compare ourselves with ourselves. To keep from upsetting the status quo we tend to commend ourselves rather than challenge ourselves. When we compare ourselves to ourselves we find reasons to make excuses for the lack of progress in spiritual matters. We tend to point fingers at everybody else rather than accept the responsibility that things may not be pleasing God.

I feel that we are at a crossroads in the Church. We can continue measuring ourselves by ourselves or we can once again allow the Head of the Church, Jesus Christ, to have the preeminence among us and let Him measure us by His Word. When He speaks it will be the truth. Nothing will be allowed to slip by because He will not prefer one over another, His judgment will be pure and holy. We must hear from Him.

A few years ago the Holy Ghost spoke in this very Tabernacle and challenged the Church of God to repent. Many of us here tonight felt that challenge, we knew that it was from God. But it is sad to say that many have failed to heed the warnings of the Spirit because they were content to measure themselves. Many people questioned God about what they needed to repent of. The answer from God was that we had drifted from a vital relationship with the Holy Ghost. Does that not reveal to us the sin of self-sufficiency? Anytime we depend on anything other than God to lead and direct us we are in trouble. He is the Head; direction and guidance must come from Him. True holiness and righteousness must come from Him. All we need will come from Him. He is the all-sufficient One.

Throughout the Bible man's opinion of himself differed from God's opinion of man. In Daniel 5, we find a king named Belshazzar who prepared a feast for a thousand of his lords. He even used the vessels that had been taken from the Temple in which to drink his wine. All seemed well as Belshazzar and his friends praised their gods of gold, silver, brass, iron, wood, and stone (v. 4). Belshazzar was enjoying the comfort of his friends; he was in the midst of a great party and I am sure he felt in complete control of the situation. But something happened; the divine Inspector arrived on the scene and wrote a message on the wall. "Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against the other" (v. 6). His whole attitude and approach to life changed when the message appeared. He had been weighed in the balances and found wanting.

Is not the handwriting on the wall tonight? Does not 1 Peter 4:17 say, "For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God . . .?" We are being weighed and judged tonight. God is wanting to help. We must want His help. When the Spirit of Truth appears our countenances change and our thoughts trouble us.

When the Spirit led Peter to preach to the Gentiles, in the presence of Truth his thoughts and prejudices were changed. The Spirit told Peter to arise and go with the three men doubting nothing (Acts 10:19, 20). The Spirit knew where a devout man was who prayed to God alway (v. 2). If Peter had depended on his natural instincts Cornelius would not have measured up to the Jewish standards, but the Spirit saw past the traditions and beliefs of men and realized that Cornelius was a man who was hungry for more of God. We will see reformation and revival if we stop comparing ourselves to ourselves and allow God to take us where He wants us to go.

Revelation 3 teaches about a church who viewed themselves differently than God viewed them. They were in the same condition as the people on Mt. Carmel when Elijah asked them, "How long halt ye between two opinions?" (1 Kings 18:21). They were lukewarm, not hot and not cold. Because of their condition they were on the verge of being rejected. Only repentance would keep this action from becoming a reality. Their feelings of self-sufficiency, material success and their attitude of thinking that they needed nothing had created a "bad taste" in the mouth of Christ for the church at Laodicea. This church had lost their holy passion for Christ and His Word.

I wonder if God is not trying to rekindle our love and passion for Him. What began in Laodicea as a wholehearted commitment to Christ and His work gradually cooled. They had become conceited; this may have brought on the delusion that led them to being so indifferent and inconsistent in their relationship with Christ. Matthew Henry says of this passage: "Perhaps they were well provided for as to their bodies, and this made them overlook the necessities in their souls; they had learning, and they took it for religion; they had gifts, and they took them for grace; they had wit, and they took it for true wisdom; they had ordinances, and they took up with them instead of with the God of the ordinances."

They thought they were rich, when in reality they were poor. They thought their spiritual insight was 20/20 but in reality they were blind to what God could and would do for them. They thought they were clothed with the right spiritual garments but in all reality they were naked and their shame needed to be covered. Their only hope was turning back to Christ. Christ was at the door knocking, He was waiting for them to open the door and let Him come in.

I hear Him knocking tonight. How long are we going to keep Him waiting? What else must happen to get our attention? I for one am willing to say, "Come in Jesus, this is Your house and this is Your kingdom." We need His will to be done. Only Christ can supply what we need. Only Christ can open our eyes. Only Christ can provide the proper attire that we need.

We must acknowledge our need of Him and we must acknowledge that we want Him to work among us. God forgive me for measuring myself by myself; I want You and Your Word to measure me and let me know where I am falling short of Your mark.

MONDAY, AUGUST 13 Afternoon

1:30 Organ music by Sonny Sample.

2:00 General Overseer Billy Murray called for announcements by Henry Callis. Brother Murray called for M. A. Tomlinson, General Overseer for 46 years, to speak, who received a hearty welcome by the Assembly. Brother Tomlinson spoke: "Thank each of you for your faithfulness in coming to the Assembly this year. I thank you for coming today. This is going to be a red-letter day in the history of the Church of God and we want the Lord to have His right of way. It has been my pleasure to work with you and you work with me for these many years. I thank you for your cooperation. You have been so good through the years but the Lord has provided and helped us and kept us for this special occasion. I introduce our new General Overseer to you. He has been working in Headquarters for many years and he is well acquainted with the work and I feel like he is going to be an outstanding General Overseer. I told him when he was put in that we want him to lead us to the rapture." Brother Murray was heartily welcomed by the Assembly. "It is a real pleasure to have Brother Tomlinson occupy this place here today with me." (He led the congregation in a mighty concert prayer.)

2:10 Opening of the Assembly

"Know ye that the Lord, he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture" (Psalm 100:3).

These words of the Psalmist should remind those of us gathered here for the 85th Assembly of our utter dependence upon the God who made us. Even as we could not make ourselves, neither could we redeem ourselves from the deplorable state of sin which engulfed the entire human race. "But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ . . . and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus" (Ephesians 2:4-6).

We had no means whereby we could approach Him, so He came to us. With deep gratitude we marvel at His love for us. To further emphasize our dependence upon the Lord we acknowledge with Jeremiah that "it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps" (Jeremiah 10:23). We require divine direction.

This Assembly must not be a time for the fleshly display of carnal reasonings and disputings. Selfish agendas have no place in this historic gathering of God's Church. All personal desires must be subjugated to one overriding concern, and that is, "What does God want?"

As we demonstrate our willingness to wait on Him, being sensitive to His voice, I believe we can hear from Him. Surely His eyes are upon this place and His ears will be open to our prayers.

Even for fruitful praying we must depend upon Him, ". . . for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered" (Romans 8:26). Again Paul wrote, ". . . for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God" (1 Corinthians 2:10-12).

This is not a political convention where certain factions vie or maneuver for advantage. What seems best to us might not be best at all. We are all so very limited in our perceptions. But God is not limited. He who sees the end from the beginning knows exactly what we need. So again, may I emphasize, the overriding concern that each of us should have in every decision that is to be made in this Assembly is, "What does God want?" Is that the way you feel? Is that your concern?

As General Overseer of the Church of God I now declare this Assembly open for transacting any and all business that may be properly brought before us.

Prayer by General Overseer

2:17 Appointment of Committees

2:20 Concert prayer for Committees

2:25 General Overseer requested all to go on their knees in prayer for Divine Direction.

2:37 Following the concert prayer with the Assembly delegates on their knees, Brother Murray stated, "I would like to say by way of explanation that we were a little unsure as to the very best way to proceed with the selection of the General Overseer. All of us are aware of the meeting that the Overseers had April 30-May 2 [1990] in which someone was selected to serve until the Assembly. Then it came time for the Assembly to make a similar decision—a selection of the General Overseer. I felt since it was a matter for this Assembly to consider, that the best way to handle this without undue personal involvement of my own was to turn this over to the Questions and Subjects Committee for them to bring to the Assembly. I didn't instruct them as to how they should go about that. I left that to their discretion and I am sure they have weighed the matter, carefully thinking of some possibilities, one way or another, to proceed with this."

The Questions and Subjects Committee gave a preliminary report having to do with the selection and office of General Overseer. The Secretary of the Committee read from Section 2 of the report, "We your Questions and Subjects Committee wish to submit Billy D. Murray, Sr. for your consideration and acceptance to serve the Church of God as General Overseer, since it is (apparent) to us that God's hand is upon him."

Note: After the manifestation of the Holy Ghost gave approval to the selection of Billy D. Murray, Sr. as General Overseer, the report was amended to read, "Since it is evident to us that God's hand is upon him."

A question was introduced about the wording of the Committee's report.

Brother Murray then stated, "We need a motion and a second to get this on the floor before we start questioning the various terminologies." George Wallace (Westmoreland, Tennessee) made a motion that the report be accepted as read. Charlie Fisher (Portland, Oregon) seconded the motion.

Then began a lengthy discussion of various aspects of the report. Eventually Adrian Varlack (Cleveland, Tennessee) stated, "I would like to, if I knew how, to make a privileged motion with the motion on the floor. I don't quite know how to do that properly, but with the motion on the floor, I would like to suggest, not in any way trying to cause any difficulty with these brethren, that perhaps since we have operated under the open system of having a General Overseer by acclamation before, I would like to suggest that Section 3 (dealing with a vacancy in the office of General Overseer) should be brought forward to Section 2 (dealing with selection of General Overseer). Then we will have the Committee come back as many times as necessary, take as much time as needed to define the office or the powers or tenure or however you want to discuss it . . . I would like to just say this as a suggestion, maybe the motion could be withdrawn and I would be glad to make a motion that Section 3 be brought forward to Section 2 because I am afraid of some of what we are feeling here, and I go a lot by this because I have learned to trust my heart instead of my head . . . I think if we structure the office and try to choose a person to fit the office, we are going to choose our person (rather than God's). I am afraid at this late time in history. I don't want to see us displease the Lord."

Brother Murray then responded, "(I) would like to entertain a motion that this motion before us (of accepting the Committee's report as read) now be tabled and give this Committee time to look at it further. If you want to meet with them to discuss any of this that you have brought up here, they would welcome you . . . If we could have such a motion that this motion be tabled and we have a second to that, then we could proceed with Section 3 as Brother Varlack has suggested. Wade Phillips (Culloden, West Virginia) made the motion; James Brown (North Carolina) seconded, and the Assembly agreed. Brother Murray then stated that those wanting to talk to the Committee could do so at their option and that if the Committee felt that it should be tabled even further it could use its own discretion about the matter.

The Secretary then read Section 3. Mike Hunsinger (Scottsburg, Indiana) made the motion to select Billy Murray as General Overseer. James Peters (Boston, Massachusetts) seconded the motion. There was further discussion on making the selection.

E. E. Ross (Georgia) stated, "I believe we have been praying since April. Brother Murray has been selected as acting (interim) General Overseer. It looks like he has done a good job. I favor the report of the Committee . . . My recommendation is that we let the Lord move and accept this man as Overseer and leave it up to the Holy Ghost."

There was a message in tongues given and interpreted as, "Yea, I say unto thee My people this day. Heed My voice and listen to Me. I have chosen him already; I have chosen him. Yea, I have called him for this purpose, yea, I have called him for this purpose. Yea, My hand is upon him; My hand is upon him. Yea, My servant has clean hands and a pure heart. Yea, I have spoken unto thee this day. Humble, My people, before Me and great things will be in store for you. Humble yourselves before Me this day. Yea, I have spoken."

Another message was interpreted: "My children, My children, harken unto Me, I have chosen. I have chosen from My throne and I have placed My approval upon this My servant to serve Me in this capacity until I will release him."

Yet another message was interpreted: "Yea, My children, I present unto you Billy Murray the Overseer of the Church of God."

There was much praise to God and rejoicing as many came to the platform, surrounding Brother Murray and the Committee. A time of singing and worshipping the Lord occurred as many greeted Brother Murray on the platform. When this excitement and activity subsided, Brother Murray returned to his microphone and stated, "Thank you for your attention and for your becoming quiet and settling down. This is a rather unusual time of moderation. I think we still have motions before us but Brother [Amos] Creel wants to withdraw his motion of waiting [for a future decision after more prayer]. Brother Creel stated, "This is all I was waiting for anyway." Brother Murray continued "It is a bit difficult for me to moderate at this point. It is a very emotional time as you know. I'm trying to think clearly, and surely the Lord will help us. We have a motion and a second before us; however, we were still entertaining some questions a while ago. Let's see if we can handle it like this: Do you feel that this motion that is before us with the acceptance of myself as General Overseer—does it seem good to the Holy Ghost and to us to where—? (loud applause). Thank you." The Assembly stood in agreement.

B. L. Dean (Vicksburg, Mississippi) "Brother Moderator, I would call for a resolution of this motion that is on the floor."

Brother Murray: "Does anybody not feel good about what has happened?"

Don Silver (Terre Haute, Indiana) "Brother Moderator, I believe we should go on record as saying that the Holy Ghost has made the selection. We need to go out of parliamentary procedure and write it down that the Holy Ghost has made the selection already. I don't think we need to have any further action."

Brother Murray: "I suppose we can leave it to the clerks to write in their judgment as to what has taken place. We did have a motion and a second. We were involved in an official act and we felt we would need to go ahead with that which we have. I take by your applause that you were giving approval to accept the motion. Now if there are no questions, we will presume that it is passed."

There was some discussion concerning the use of the words "apparent" and "evident" in the Committee's report. A note in the published report shows that the word "apparent" was changed to "evident" in affirming the Holy Ghost approval of Brother Murray as General Overseer. A motion was made, seconded and approved by the Assembly to make this change. Loud applause accompanied this decision.

Brother Murray: "I don't know how to stop that applause. I am trying to moderate right . . . I wish you could understand the emotional moment that I am experiencing. I will try to do better from now on as moderator. I appreciate everybody's patience."

Fred Fisher called Brother and Sister Murray and their family to the platform. Brother Fisher said, "It has become my happy privilege to introduce to you the General Overseer of the Church of God, Billy D. Murray, Sr. I would like for all of us to pray for him and his family that God's direction will be upon him and he will be strengthened." (Concert prayer)

Hugh R. Edwards made the announcement that today is the Murray's 41st wedding anniversary. Congregation sang "Happy Anniversary to You" and from the leadership of the Church was given forty-one red roses to Sister Murray and a boutonniere for Brother Murray.

Oma Lee Murray spoke: "Thank the Lord for His goodness to us. I don't know how to testify. I just have needed to see God work and to know that this was His will. I wasn't in the meeting when the Overseers were there and made the selection. I heard that God moved, but I wasn't there and I didn't feel what I felt today. I thank Him. I will just try to keep doing what I have done all these years, loving the Lord and doing the best I can. I will be praying for you. God bless you."

General Overseer: "This is a meeting like most of us here today have never been in. This is something that has happened to me and my family that we would not have desired. When my name was mentioned in the meeting with the Overseers, I earnestly requested of them that I not be considered. I was sincere in requesting that. I believe that I am willing to follow the Lord's will as best He makes that known to me. So here today, I simply accept what has happened to be the will of the Lord, and I will do the best I can not to fail Him in whatever His purposes are nor to fail you, His Church. It seems so much better to assume this responsibility with such evidence as we have seen here than if it had happened otherwise. I do thank the Lord." (It was felt that the emotion of the moment was too great to continue the scheduled program.)

4:58 Adjourned.

Monday Evening

6:00 Musical concert by Bahama Brass Band.

6:30 Announcements by Perry E. Gillum and Henry O'Neal.

6:45 Worship directed by Lafoy and Sammie Parker.

7:20 Welcome by: Mayor Bill Shultz; County Executive Donna Hubbard; Cleveland-Bradley Chamber of Commerce President Sam McReynolds.

Mayor Shultz introduced City Commissioners Kenneth Tinsley, Fred Evans, Mitchell Lyle and Steve Ratterman. Each of the officials paid tribute to Brother Tomlinson and congratulations and good wishes to Brother Murray. The Mayor presented a Proclamation and a key to the City to Hugh Edwards to give to Brother Tomlinson.

7:36 Music by Bahama Brass Band as Assembly Expense offering was received.

7:50 The Kingdom of God—message and altar invitation by Field Secretary E. L. Jones. (Larry Wilson and Cervin McKinnon presented Brother Jones a plaque for thirty years of leadership to the Blacks; Sister Jones was presented a bouquet of roses.) (This message was printed in the October 27, 1990 issue of the White Wing Messenger and is available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

Altar music by the Morris Jackson Family.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 14 Morning

7:00 to 9:00 Prayer time in the auditorium for all who gathered to join in praying for the Church and any other needs.

9:00 Instrumental Praise directed by Ron Hamm.

9:30 Church of Prophecy Marker Association Program, directed by D. Frank Hughes, General Secretary. Theme: A Call to Renewal. Comments by Secretary.

9:32 Worship in song and praise led by John and Kathy Payne.

9:45 Brother Hughes told about Mission Markers: "This was introduced in 1985 and it provides a plan whereby individuals or local churches can assist financially in areas where the economic resources are limited. Since its inception, $429,500 has been sent to help meet these urgent needs in 425 locations in 59 countries and 2 states. This year $56,000 has been contributed through this program to 32 countries and 2 states. For the first time, money for Mission Markers was sent to areas of the United States—Bethel, Alaska and Kalispell, Montana. We are very appreciative to all who have been touched of the Lord to assist with a contribution to help provide a place of worship in a needful locale.

"Mission Markers is making a difference and it will continue to make a difference as we respond to this timely challenge. I encourage you to keep doing your best for Mission Markers."

9:54 Singing by Williamson Trio

9:58 Fields of the Wood—A Positive Witness, Jimmy Williams: "I don't believe a day has gone by without someone visiting Fields of the Wood. Many travel a lot of miles just to pray here. Some come to be baptized in the pool; share Fields of the Wood. It's a wonderful place. Tell your friends about it and let them come experience that exciting place, that special place called Fields of the Wood that you've provided."

10:05 Testimony by Danny Kent, son of former CPMA Secretary Grady R. Kent.

10:11 "Here I Am"—song by King's Messengers.

10:25 A New Walk Down An Old Path—message by General Secretary D. Frank Hughes. (This message was printed in the November 24, 1990 issue of the White Wing Messenger and is available on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

11:15 Earnestly Contending for the Faith—message by Oswill E. Williams, Overseer of England.

"Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints" (Jude 3).

Brethren, I believe it is important for us to note a number of things. In contending for the faith, there are things about any group, there are times in the development and the dynamics of any organization where changes are inevitable. I had an old physics teacher who always used to say, "You cannot have change without movement." He also said, "You cannot have movement without change." There are times when we are inclined to look back and say, "My, those were the good old days." We sometimes wonder at what we have lost and look at what we have gained. Sometimes our hearts are a bit saddened, but this was not what prompted Jude to write to the Church. He saw a danger that went beyond the mere passing of traditions.

Can you think of something more beautiful to write about than the common salvation, the redemptive power of Jesus Christ and His blood which has been applied to the heart? I would always want to preach about that. There is something sweet about the fact that His blood still has power. When Jude surveyed the circumstances and saw the danger he sensed a new priority. He literally said, "I cannot write about salvation, but I must write and exhort you that you must do something—you must earnestly contend for the faith that was once delivered." We could be forgiven for believing that the basic problem being addressed by Jude concerned a certain manner of life and not a certain type of doctrine. I would suggest that such a view would be too narrow an interpretation. Their perverted view of divine grace was a major threat to the very survival of the faith. The faith we are talking about is the recognized teaching and doctrine that emerged from the Apostle Peter's early sermons which began to crystalize in the writings and teachings of Paul and the other apostles. The expression "the faith" as commonly used in the New Testament can be taken to mean the broad tenets of Christian truth and practice. This faith has survived the times of the Church's greatest declination and by it we live today.

This body of truth is a permanent trust delivered by God—not discovered by man. In writing to the Corinthians, Paul made it clear that he had received of the Lord what he was delivering unto them. Concerning how they should partake of the Lord's Supper he said, "For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you" (1 Cor. 11:32). Concerning the resurrection he said, "For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received" (1 Cor. 15:3).

There is a difference between receiving and accepting. Truth has been cast in new thoughts, shaped according to the intellectual and spiritual exigencies of each age, but the Church is not so much on a path to rediscover truth, but rather to accept that which was delivered to us. This sacred trust was not entrusted only to the chosen few, to the apostles and prophets, but I like the thought that it was given to all saints.

We tend to talk about the word accepted, but in the New Testament Church, the word received carries with it something more positive than the passive word, accept. You can accept me for who I am, which might not cost you anything. You can say, "Well, I accept it," passively. You can say, "I am not doing anything because I accept it." The minute you decide you are going to receive me, it calls for a degree of action. Somehow the arms are going to go out. You are going to move from where you are to throw your arms around me so you can say, "I am receiving him as my fellow servant in the work of the Lord." John recorded, "He came unto his own, and his own received him not. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God" (John 1:11, 12). A. W. Tozer said, "The New Testament knows absolutely nothing about passive reception for the word 'received' is not passive; it is active. Everyone goes around saying, 'Will you accept Him, will you accept Him?' When you receive Him, you will aggressively take hold of Him."

Sometimes in this receiving process, we find that we have to accept the social order of things around us. When Paul, in the prison in Rome, came across a runaway slave the young man was converted, but he had an owner—such was the social order of the day. His owner was Philemon, to whom Paul wrote and said, "I beseech thee for my son Onesimus whom I have begotten in my bonds . . . whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him" (Philemon 10, 12). The world silently says, "But you are not the same as we," but inside God's house, there can be no slaves and masters, we are to receive one another. The word contend means "to strive for, to endeavor or struggle." Earnestly gives some qualifications as to the way in which this contending is to be carried out. It was not to be a mere passing thing. Contending is not a defensive attitude, but it is a striving for; the conscious effort and commitment necessary to enable us to say we have received that which has been delivered. In Philippians 1:27 Paul captures the type of contending in which we should be engaged. ". . . that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel." We are not fighting against flesh and blood; we are not required to contend against one another, but we are meant to reach out and to receive that which was once delivered. The faith is the most precious of gifts that Satan is most anxious to destroy.

While we may be contending for other things, we are told of two basic denials. The first one is that we can deny grace by turning it into lasciviousness. It is possible to be so caught up with freedom as the consequence of salvation that we even allow for those who advocate sexual promiscuity and perversion, thereby degrading Christian liberty to the level of pagan license. Tolerance is not always Christian. There are things we can permit in our midst that should not be there. Jude warned against that. On the other hand, we see many who can live only by rules—do's and don'ts, relying on their ability to say "I have" or "I can" or "I have measured up—" thereby establishing their own particular version of righteousness. We are denying the grace of God by following either of these rather extreme views. The principles of grace we should hold to are consistent with the faith once delivered to the saints. Paul wrote to Titus, "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world" (Titus 2:11, 12).

In searching for a definition of grace, I came across one that was used by a preacher in the 18th Century by the name of George Whitefield. George Whitefield said that grace is that power of which the currency is nearness and rightness—nearness to God and Christ-likeness. If you cannot measure your life in terms of that, you are bankrupt in regard to grace. Grace compels, it calls for a certain nearness to Christ. In that nearness, we will automatically begin to become like He is. We needn't worry about whether other people are making rules or whether they are not making rules. When grace is in the heart, once it occupies its place on the throne, we will endeavor to be near to God, and Christ-likeness will be our goal. In contending for the faith, I want to live by His grace.

When I fall on my face before God, I don't want to pray the prayer of the Pharisee, "Lord, I fast three times a week, I give tithes," but I want to say, "Lord, here I am; break me, God, make me what you want me to be." There is power in grace; and sometimes when I look at our pastors struggling with their young people, when I see them struggling to get people to conform to certain things, I say, "Lord, help us that we will preach grace—that we will help them to find grace, that somehow we will believe in the power of grace and what it is able to do in our hearts and our lives."

Some may feel that it is because of the Assembly and all that we have passed over the years that has kept us. Surely this has helped, but I believe the Church of God must get back to contending for that position where every member can say, "By the grace of God I am what I am." It was a characteristic of Jesus. John said, "And we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth" (John 1:14). We sing about it; we sing "Amazing grace how sweet the sound." Brethren, when you doubt that, when you no longer place importance on that, but remove it and transfer your trust to other things, you stop growing. Some may be saying, "But we need more legislation, we need more rules"; others are saying "The ones that we have must somehow be rescinded," but I am saying, "Brethren, let us live by grace. That is what was delivered to us to help us; it was grace that brought us safe thus far." Grace will lead us on. I am anxious myself when I see certain things that I don't understand, but I pray that God will always help me to remain so that I can preach that pure message of the power that is through the grace of God.

The second denial is that we deny our only Master and Lord Jesus Christ. The Church of God exists through the realization that Christ is the Head of the Church. The Church has but one foundation, it is Jesus Christ. We cannot deny Christ. The aim of the Body of Christ is to lift Him up and to put Him in His place. Our fight is not against those who would seek necessarily to preserve or to maintain, but we are trying to grab hold of this thought of putting Christ in His place. I must contend always that nothing in my life, nothing in your life, can take the place that is rightfully the King of kings and Lord of lords.

In the Church covenant is the question "Will you walk in the light to the best of your knowledge and ability?" Implicit in a question like that is that we are going to have differences of opinions but we are still wanting Christ. What the world cannot do, the Church must achieve. The world says, "If you have a different philosophy from mine you go your way," but the Church of God is saying, "Till we all come," which means that today I may not see it exactly as this or that brother, but somehow I am still his brother.

Some years ago I met a brother who was very much on the verge of leaving the Church. I pleaded with him not to go. I said to him, "There is no point in doing that simply because you have a view different to what you feel is a prevalent view of the times. There is no point in leaving; stay, we can work it out. If we can't, God can." The first thing some people feel they must do in contending is to take a stand, but my stand is to achieve Christ in my life, to put Him on His throne, to live by grace and when I am doing that, God will be the King of my life. It is easy for us to say, "Well, let us all adopt the same thing and become uniform." The Assembly cannot legislate uniformity, only God can do that. In the fulness of the dispensation of time, He is going to gather together in one all things. He prayed the prayer "that they may be one."

We can still be brothers despite differences of views. I cannot read anywhere that Peter and Paul ever saw eye to eye on the circumcision issue. But they were wanting Christ. They were both in the Church of God. Peter could write and say, "My beloved Brother Paul." He wasn't fighting him; they were both fighting to live by grace. Peter could say, "But grow in grace and in the knowledge of Jesus Christ.”

It being given that I am to walk in the light to the best of my knowledge and ability, you either have to say that I am being dishonest and I am not sticking to my covenant, or that I am walking to the best of my knowledge and ability. You cannot call me a liberal or a radical or a conservative, because I am walking to the best of my knowledge and ability. If you get there before I do, if you get hold of it before I do, have patience with me, because if I keep walking in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another. I don't understand anyone's labeling me a liberal. I am Church of God. I may see things different from my father. I am a different generation, but I want to grow in grace.

The Church of God looks different today than when I was here in 1986. We don't march, for a start, but it is still the Church of God. I am praying with all my heart that we will take the badges off of people—throw them in the rubbish bin. We don't need liberals, we don't need conservatives, we don't need radicals, but we need men who will grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Contend for the faith. You can do all that you want to do about telling people how to live, what not to do; you can beat them into submission a thousand times but that will not do what one ounce of grace will do. It was not the stripes on his back; it was not the imprisonment; it was not the shipwreck; it was not the violence of the brethren that made Paul what he was. It was the grace of God. I want to contend for that purity.

In the Church of God, black and white, yellow and brown will be able to live out the gospel of Jesus Christ—not by legislation—not by what man may say, but by the grace of God. In looking at what God is going to do, I may have a different view on some issues, even to some of my fellow overseers; that doesn't mean that I am going to fold my book, pack my case and walk out, because I know that if I remain in the house, there is a promise. God is going to gather together all things in one. Let us not label one another, but let us grow in grace.

Tuesday Afternoon

1:30 Worship directed by Johnny and Clara Scroggins.

1:50 General Overseer called for Overseers to come with their reports. The General Overseer commented: “We are about a month short this year in our totals by the Assembly being in August. It is difficult for us to know how to give recognition and praise. We don't know all the sacrifices behind every effort that was put forth. God is a good record keeper and He is going to reward everyone for his faithfulness to Him. We appreciate you.”

Each overseer gave his report to the General Overseer and shook his hand; then lined up on platform for some testimonies.

General Overseer made commendation: "They represent the Church of God all around the world. It is not possible for us here to know everything that God is doing in every place, but God is moving throughout this world among His people. Some wonderful things have happened this year and we want to give Him praise for all of it because this is His work; we are simply laborers together with Him. We don't want to presume to invite God to come down and bless our work; we want to join Him in what He is doing."

Robert Murkerson, WA, testified: "In Proverbs 1:23, God has given us this promise: '... I will pour out my spirit unto you.' There were four district conventions in Washington, followed by four revivals, where God poured out His Spirit upon His people. There were 44 saved, 29 sanctified, 35 baptized with the Holy Ghost and 108 spiritual things happened to people in those district revivals. One sister was healed of a back problem with which she had suffered for seven years from an automobile accident. One local church started going out on Friday nights and gathering in teenagers and young adult street people. That pastor told me that among those street people the Lord has given 112 experiences this year. In the youth camps, there were 39 saved, 69 sanctified, 81 baptized with the Holy Ghost. The Lord is pouring out His Spirit in the Northwest and we praise God."

Erasmus Fabian, Peru, testified—"Our national convention was in July and we had an attendance of 5,515. Every message was anointed by the Holy Ghost. Even though the situations are not good in the country, God gave us the victory to be able to have a prosperous convention. Our country is suffering from very strong currents—economical, political and religious. A new government has just settled in Peru. The Lord blessed us with 920 new members this year; we organized 21 new churches and we have 60 missions functioning. In spite of the situation in the country, I believe God will give us the victory and His Spirit will be with us until the end."

Chris Stathis, Greece, testified—"We feel that we have a launching pad into the future and God is going to continue His blessings. It has been a great year for us in physical and material blessings from the Lord. We have gained two automobiles for Greece this year. One is a nine-passenger station wagon and a trailer. This is almost a miracle from the Lord. We have just purchased a building for the town of (Settus) our first Gypsy church. We own three church buildings. The Lord provided a campground for us this year on the Island of Evia. The generous brethren in England gave us printing equipment as they were upgrading theirs. We have been praying for the radio stations and the approval has come; so, we are ready to start broadcasting the gospel in Athens. We had our first Greek BTI graduating class this year. We hosted an international Bible studies camp which brought people from all over Europe."

"We have been praying for a church in the area where we live in Athens which is Glyfada. My wife Gail has been conducting ladies Bible studies. We had no building. The Church of God had an American Servicemen's center completely furnished. Soon after I became acquainted with them, they offered it to me because they will soon be leaving and they wanted to leave a Greek church where the American church was. They also donated $4,000 to help pay for the rent. We had a Vacation Bible School there and many were saved, sanctified, filled with the Holy Ghost and many healed." (All praised the Lord.)

Ernesto Castro, Nicaragua—(interpreted by Hector Ortiz). "Thank each of you for your prayers for us in Nicaragua. The promises of the Lord are true. By the news, you understand what has happened the last nine years in our nation. There was a time when for us to be able to eat we had to have a special card issued to each head of the family and we were allotted a certain amount of food. By each member giving one spoon of rice or sugar, etc. we were able to have our national conventions. We thank the Almighty God that He gave us food for more than five thousand people.

"In 1981, I was called to be responsible for this work. Then, there were 53 churches; today we have 173; we had 5,000 members; today we have 11,800. We were privileged to have a good national convention with 9,063 in attendance; God gave us 14 new churches; 1,035 new members. In nine years, we haven't gone without eating and without having proper clothes. I am not going to put the Church in a compromising force because God is yet alive. Communism has left there. The Christ that has liberated us is able to liberate in other places too. It has been nine years that we haven't been able to have a youth camp because the youth were in hiding, not wanting to go into the military service. This year we have plans to have youth camps and we have liberty for all things in Nicaragua. To God be the glory now and always."

Oswill Williams, England—"Paul was shipwrecked on the island of Malta and there he found a haven. Some time ago a young Maltese chap got saved in one of our local churches in England and he decided to go back to Malta. The Spirit of the Lord has moved upon the hearts of our young people to go with Brother Steve to Malta. We have eight individuals working there. The next six months forty-two of our young people have volunteered to pay their way to spend at least one week on that island witnessing.

"We have been praying for many years for the Lord to establish a substantial work in Scotland. We are established in Wales. This year a youth mission team visited the city of Edinburgh. God opened the hearts of some brethren in a local Pentecostal group who housed the youth mission team. Through that relationship, many of those who were saved are showing an interest in the Church. I have been invited to preach at that local church and the pastor wants me to minister there. If the Jews could preach to the Gentiles, I am not afraid to preach to Europeans. God has called us for a purpose and we can do it by His will." (General Overseer asked Overseers to march around platform and the delegates applauded their overseers as they came by.)

Memorial Tribute for deceased ministers by Director

MINISTERIAL TRIBUTE

Since our last Assembly gathering a number of our beloved brother and sister ministers have been promoted from the work in the Church of God here to triumph in glory.

They have discovered the "other room" we call heaven. They have dis-covered that all things are theirs including death. Death is theirs not only as an experience, but it is theirs as a conquered foe. Those who have joined the heavenly choir, that John heard singing on the Lord's day, are those whom we loved and have lost for awhile.

Multiplying words would only illustrate the failure of language to ade-quately convey the regard in which we held these great saints. They have gone from our midst leaving as Edwin Markham, the poet, said of Lincoln, "A vacant place against the sky." But these saints continue to live in the lives of thousands of those to whom they served. Today they live on high, where they have received that crown of righteousness which they so richly deserved. To us their lives are a fitting illustration that there is really no death. And we realize that this memorial service is not for the purpose of looking back, but forward to that great day for which these great ministers worked, sacrificed and gave their lives to attain that goal.

In Proverbs 10:7 the scripture reads, "The memory of the just is blessed."

In the Gettysburg Address, Abraham Lincoln stated in words which we feel fittingly applies to our soldiers of the Cross, "The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here. It is for us the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion—that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain."

We that remain, let us take strength and courage from the memory of their work and carry on in the same holy zeal burning within us to complete the Great Commission to which they contributed so much of themselves. Let us remember those who laid down their lives for our freedom and happiness. We desire to meet our own responsibilities in their spirit.

To them we give an accolade of remembrance, for their devotion to Christ and His Church. The fire that burned within their bones to please the Lord right on up to the time of their glorious departure from this world into the most glorious of all dimensions. We salute these soldiers of the Cross.

Assembly stood in silent tribute as the flag was lowered to half-mast by A. T. Wagar, and Dennis Shroyer played taps. Prayer by General Overseer.

9:35 Two songs led by Jean Coalter with Shirlene Stone, pianist and Diane Hamm, organist. 2 Timothy 4:1-8 read by Aaron Waggett. Prayer by Brice Thompson and Miguel Mojica. Benny Hart led the congregation in prayer.

10:02 Report from the Dominican Republic by Vice President Juan Valera Basora: Read Colossians 1:24. Comments—"The writer wanted to communicate to those of his time the nature and the universality of the mystery of God. He wanted them to understand the balanced message, the stability of the message. He besought God to open the understanding of his friends. If this does not happen, men will create ideological problems. The knowledge of God that is to be taught by the Church will always be of concern to all men who accept the responsibility of communicating divine truth. We have two schools in the Dominican Republic. Ministers from other groups come to our institute and when they leave, they are members of the Church. God has visited every year in a special way. We are wanting to establish another extension school soon. We are planning to print our own BTI literature.

10:16 Two songs by the Jackson Family.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL PROPERTIES COMMITTEE

This Committee wishes to express its appreciation and thankfulness to God for His help and guidance in all deliberations and decisions impinging upon it this Assembly year. We recognize Him as the sovereign God and accept the guidance of His Spirit in all matters pertaining to the responsibilities placed upon us by the General Assembly of the Church.

To the best of our knowledge and abilities, with the information given to us, we have faithfully seen to the regular maintenance and upkeep of the General Headquarters properties of the Church, including that of Tomlinson College.

All repairs and installations required to date by local and state fire codes involving the Assembly Tabernacle have been made. Further long-term requirements are planned according to schedule.

One decision by the Committee of general interest is that of the purchase of a parsonage for the new General Overseer's family—the Billy Murray family. The purchase of this property became necessary when former General Overseer M. A. Tomlinson had to step aside from his office because of health reasons and the Committee felt that out of gratitude, respect, and compassion to Brother and Sister Tomlinson they would remain in the house where they have lived since it was purchased as the General Overseer's residence as long as they have need of it.

We express our appreciation for the cooperation we have received from those with whom we have worked this year, and we consider it a privilege and honor to serve the Lord and His Church in this capacity.

MINISTERIAL AID COMMITTEE REPORT JUNE 1, 1989 THROUGH MAY 31, 1990

The Ministerial Aid Committee had 12 monthly meetings, approved 57 applications for retirement, 13 for disability, 33 widows, and 1 lay employee. Total number of applications approved this year was 104. We presently have 544 receiving retirement benefits, 221 receiving disability benefits, 199 receiving widow's assistance, and 18 lay employees. The total number of persons receiving Ministerial Aid benefits is 982. The Ministerial Aid Committee processed 118 death records and approved death benefits to be paid to family beneficiaries in the amount of $89,400.00. This includes 105 ministers, 13 widows of deceased ministers. We provided 84 Church flags which were presented by the officiating ministers to the deceased minister's family. A Church flag memorial certificate was also sent to the families.

The ministers' Retirement Tax-Sheltered Annuity Plan presently has 418 participants. This includes 80 ministers who administer their personal tax-sheltered annuities. Deferred Compensation benefits paid by the World Headquarters from individual ministers' tithes to individual ministers' annuities totaled $210,623.73.

The Ministerial Aid Committee is prayerfully concerned regarding the needs of our worthy ministers and widows. We are endeavoring to assist each applicant as funds are available on the basis of faithfulness in the ministry as well as years actively engaged in ministerial service.

A beautiful "In Appreciation" certificate was presented to each recipient of Ministerial Aid for faithful service.

The Group Life Insurance Plan has been administered by the Church Benefit Association and Life Insurance Company of North America. This report shows claims paid by LINA from June 1, 1989 until May 31, 1990. LINA processed 89 policies resulting in $130,000.00 death benefits paid to beneficiaries of Church members. The total of all policies processed was 339 resulting in $678,500.00 death benefits.

Life Insurance Company of North America (LINA) has also activated the Accident Plan of Insurance now available for all members of the Church.

We sincerely appreciate the services of this very fine insurance company and express our gratitude to all departments of the Church who share their funds in support of caring for our Senior Ministers and their families.

WORLD MISSION COMMITTEE REPORT

JUNE 1, 1989 THROUGH MAY 31, 1990

Greetings to the 85th General Assembly in the precious name of Jesus Christ our blessed Lord and Saviour.

God is at work in His world, bringing all things in subjection to himself and preparing times and events for the soon return of His beloved Son. We see the world developments as resulting from God's divine activity in His universe and not as a result of people power. We therefore see this time as a brief, but decisive, moment in history, one that gives perhaps the final window of opportunity for end-time Evangelism.

We acknowledge with gratitude and thanks to God for the 46 years of dedicated service of Bishop M. A. Tomlinson, General Overseer Emeritus, and especially his many years as Chairman of this Committee. We will continue to pray for him and Sister Tomlinson and trust that they will enjoy their remaining years in peace and rest as they wait for the Master's appearing.

This Committee wishes to gratefully acknowledge the fine work done by all our Overseers, Missionaries, Pastors, Evangelists, Corpsmen and local lay leaders.

Through their service and faithfulness to God this year, about 146 new churches were organized and over 12,000 new members added to the Church.

Towards the end of the Assembly year, we were saddened by the sudden home-going of Bishop S. B. Pardede of Indonesia, Malaysia and Singapore. Brother Pardede served the Church as Overseer for 19 years during which time the work in Indonesia experienced tremendous growth. World Mission Secretary, Adrian Varlack, accompanied by Mission Corpsman, James Dyer, attended and officiated at the funeral. Brother Pardede's wife Rachel, daughters Ruth and Rebecca, and sons Paul and Stephen need our prayers and love during this time of grief. We were pleased to have Rebecca here to represent the family at the Ministers Memorial Tribute, August 14th.

Again this year our people in the Caribbean Area, (Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, Montserrat), the Philippines, the Samoan Islands, India and other areas experienced devastating natural disasters. The warm response of our generous people again helped to bridge the gap and to rebuild our churches and homes in these areas. Efficient volunteer work crews from Northern New England and Ohio, gave several weeks of labor in the restoration and rebuilding. These efforts were coordinated by Overseer Willie Boone and Hector Ortiz respectively. We are grateful for the zeal, enthusiasm and helpfulness of all these brethren. Much thanks is also due to Brother Mark Mathena of Southern California, who singlehandedly volunteered to give several weeks at his own expense to the rebuilding work.

Because of the very generous response of several State Overseers and their Committees, and a number of churches and individuals, 44 National Overseers were able to attend and participate in the historic Presbytery Meeting April 30th-May 2nd, 1990. Several testimonies indicate that the presence of the brethren was a great blessing and indeed, one of them, Bishop Brice Thompson of the Bahamas and Bermuda was chosen as moderator. We are grateful for all these gestures of love and concern within the body and among the brethren.

World Mission Drives overall totals for the 1989/1990 fiscal year show an increase of nearly 16,000 over the 1988/89 period. The countries continue to show a high rate of giving in constant dollars despite devastating devaluations and international currency fluctuations. Of the world total of $911,376.00, $309,692.00 was raised by the countries and $601,684.00 by the States.

We are grateful for all the special projects and services funded through volunteer giving such as the Helping Hand Ministry (WMB) Mission Markers (CPMA) and a number of individuals. These are evidences that the volunteer spirit of Missions is alive and well in the Church. For this we are truly grateful.

We presently support fully or partially 52 Overseers and their families who supervise 90 countries. Our total budget expenditure amounted to $2,525,721.00. The Committee wishes to commend all who so faithfully labor on the field. We wish to encourage our people to keep up the spirit of generosity until the whole world has heard the good news of the gospel.

3:10 REPORT OF TOMLINSON COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The College Board conducted three meetings this year: September 1989, January and April 1990. Each of the meetings was conducted on the College campus.

In our last annual report we informed the Assembly that the College had been granted candidacy status as a Level II four-year institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. We are now very pleased to inform this Assembly that all requirements have been met, and the College is a fully-accredited Level II four-year institution granting the baccalaureate degree in ministry. Our Level I accreditation as a two-year liberal arts college has been maintained as well.

We want to recognize the leadership demonstrated by President Perry Gillum as well as his inspiration in pursuing the goals of the College. The Board wishes to highly commend the faculty and staff for their motivation and commitment during this year; they have displayed very high morale and unusual dedication in trying times. We give God praise for the esprit de corps that exists among the College family.

The "Vision 2000" has led to the adoption of a comprehensive master plan for the development of the College campus. The first phase of this development has been initiated with the construction of the Student Plaza in the central area of the campus. Also, the new chapel is well into the planning and design stage with substantial contributions already received.

The Board wishes to recognize the leadership of James H. Stronge during his nine-year tenure, and in particular the last three years as Chairman. We highly appreciate his able contribution during a time of stress and challenge, and we wish him well in his future work for God and the Church.

Tomlinson College, from its inception, has been strongly supported by Bishop M. A. Tomlinson and his vision for a trained and developed leadership within the Church. We greatly commend him for his constant and firm support during these first 25 years. We say, "God bless you, Brother and Sister Tomlinson; we wish you well."

It is our hope and vision that Tomlinson College will be a dedicated instrument in the service of Christ and His Church as she pursues the Great Commission. We desire your prayers as we pursue that goal for the glory of God.

Wednesday Evening

6:30 Worship directed by Jerry and Margarita Madrid.

7:05 General Field Secretary and Spanish Voice of Salvation Program directed by Jose A. Reyes, Sr. Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Church Work Among the Hispanics. Gerardo Ramos presented a 50th Anniversary cake. Brother Reyes asked all the Hispanics to join him in saying to the General Overseer, "We truly love you and are going to give our support to you." The present membership of the Spanish-speaking churches is 73,725—30 per cent of the total Church membership. Twenty-two Spanish-speaking nations are represented here. Praise God because the Church has been organized in all the Spanish-speaking countries. Brother Reyes made honorable mention of former Hispanic Field Secretaries—Jose Jimenez, Sr., Felix Garcia and Jacob Montijo.

"When Christ was crucified on the cross at Calvary, Pontius Pilate placed an inscription on the cross that read, 'Jesus, King of the Jews.' This was in three languages—Hebrew, the language of the Old Testament; Greek, the language of the New Testament; Latin, the mother tongue of the Spanish language. After the destruction of the temple in Jerusalem, Spain became the second mother country for the Jews. In Israel, where the Bible was written, there are more than one hundred thousand Jews that speak Spanish. This year the Tourist Department of the government of Israel gave a special invitation for us to record a series of programs in Israel for television. The government paid all expenses for five people of our ministry. These programs have been aired. The people in Israel were very kind to us.

"As an expression of gratitude, I invited M. Eliezer Hod, Consul of Israel in Atlanta, Georgia, to be with us." (He was welcomed by a hearty applause.) Mr. Hod spoke briefly and a presentation was made to him by Perry E. Gillum.

Brother Reyes called for overseers of Latin America and our Hispanic pastors in the United States to occupy seats on the platform. "Promesa" (Promise) group sang "The Rapture of the Church" as the Hispanic Overseers stood by the flags of their nations. Juan Valera, Dominican Republic, prayed. (This was the first Spanish-speaking country reached by the Church.) David Arias, California (Spanish), prayed. (He represented the first Spanish work in the United States.) Evelyn Boss from Paraguay played on the harp, "At the Battle's Front," as the flag bearers marched off the platform.

8:00 Erasmo Fabian, Overseer of Peru, testified. Peru was the first country in South America where the Church was organized. They organized 21 churches and added 923 members to the Church this year. They have fifteen radio programs and two television programs.

8:20 Jose Reyes, Jr. introduced a Discipleship Project through videos. He visited Peru during the year and he presented the needs for contributions to assist in this program.

8:40 Offering was received for our Hispanic work as Evelyn Boss played on the harp. Prayer of thanks for the offering by Jose Reyes, Sr. and Jr.

8:45 Pam Sherer sang, "We Shall Behold Him."

9:27 So Panteth My Soul After Thee—message by Earl McKay, pastor in Bronx, New York. "As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God." Our subject which suggests seeking after God does not imply that God is seeking to evade us. On the contrary, God has done and is doing everything necessary to make Himself accessible to us and to get our attention. God throughout the ages has progressively revealed Himself to mankind. The revealing of Himself in this dispensation culminated in Jesus Christ, who is the express image of the invisible God, the brightness of His glory. I must add that even though Jesus is the climax of God's revelation of Himself to mankind, the partial revelation of Himself in every other dispensation was adequate to the need of man and the purpose of God at that time.

The situation here, therefore, is not that of God's hiding Himself or failing to make Himself accessible, but rather the need for man to make God the object of his chiefest longing. Our reluctance to make God our prime pursuit, our reluctance to make God the goal around which our total being revolves, is the source of much of our restlessness—as a nation, as a Church and as individuals. St. Augustine said, "Thou hast made us for Thyself, and our hearts are restless till they find rest in Thee."

We need to keep foremost in our minds that seeking after God is a life-long vocation. This is one of the implications of Philippians 3. In this chapter, Paul the Apostle, a Christian of almost thirty years, shared his testimony. He began by stating his religious "pedigree," "circumcized the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee" (v. 5). His position concerning the righteousness of the law was that he was blameless. But bringing his testimony home, he stated in verse 7, "But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ." In verse 10 he wrote, "That I may know him." He continued, "Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do . . . I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus" (vv. 13, 14). After long years of service, he was still pressing; he was still actively engaged in seeking after God.

The text from which our subject is drawn is set within a rural context. The writer was obviously an observant person who is in touch with nature and its surroundings, as well as his own soul. He used a graphic illustration of struggle for survival within the animal kingdom to express the struggle of his soul and his longing for God. Very few verses of Scripture express a longing after God with such graphic and compelling language. It expresses loudly and clearly the plaintive cry of the soul as it longs for its Creator.

This is amply illustrated by our Lord as He hung on the cross, alienated from His Father because of our sins. During His final moment He cried, "I thirst." He was saying, "Father, I long for the fellowship I once had with You. I thirst, I long for Your presence, I long for fellowship with You once more." Deep within the soul of man lies a longing which nothing or no one but God can satisfy, but to what degree do we recognize and seek to satisfy this longing? Have we misread this longing as a longing for something else or someone else other than God? This is the issue.

God has placed something in us that reaches out only for Him and oftentimes this restlessness is misinterpreted. I believe undue restlessness in the Christian's life, as well as the life of a Christian organization, is generally evidence of the need to seek and to find God. It is evidence of the absence of a close fellowship with God. The source of renewal and life for the hart, the deer, is the water brooks, for the soul, it is God. In our text, the urgency of the need to find God is stressed in the word "pant." The picture is that of a deer that has been pursued, searching for water in order to preserve its life. Nothing would satisfy that deer but water. Nothing can satisfy the soul's longing for God but God—not a new car, not a new home, not a new companion, not another church. There is a difference between pursuing the things of God and pursuing God Himself. If we find God, we will find His plan, His purpose for our lives.

Oftentimes we become satisfied with so little. I heard a story about a father who had a young daughter of whom he was proud, and he looked forward to coming home each evening to see this young girl who was the joy of his life. Each evening she would run to the door and hug him and he would feel like a million dollars. One day he brought her a nice doll which she enjoyed very much. The next day as he came home and opened the door, his little girl was not there to meet him. He went to her room and there she was playing with the doll. How often has God blessed us and we became obsessed with the blessing, with the gift, and then neglected fellowship with Him? If only she could have understood that the father had much more for her. As she pleased her father the gifts would keep coming. The blessings will always be there, but whenever we get obsessed with the blessings, we hold God at bay. We become preoccupied with what God is doing rather than with God.

We do not need to be lulled into a false sense of security or complacency by what has happened the past few months in Europe. Democracy's coming into Eastern Europe has caused us to rejoice as a means of our having free course to preach the gospel. We must remember that democracy is not theocracy. We are not democrats, we are advocates of theocracy. We must not be satisfied until the kingdoms of this world become the kingdom of our God and His Christ. We must not be satisfied until every knee shall bow and every tongue shall confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.

The spirit of the world is in hot pursuit after you and me. If you do not think we are being pursued, you simply have to look around at the list of the once godly men who have become victims of the spirit of this age. The spirit which characterized many who ceased to thirst after God is a spirit which would rather fight than to stand still and see the salvation of God. Until we are sensitive to being pursued, we cannot effectively pursue God. One who is sensitive to the dangers abroad is the one who prays the most. He or she is the one who pants after God as the hart pants after the water brooks.

Challenging circumstances come to challenge us to seek God. Those situations could be as bad and as challenging as those of Judah in an idolatrous situation. Judah, God's chosen tribe, succumbed to idolatry and apostasy. God's words to them while in banishment as part of their punishment were, "I will visit you . . . and ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all of your heart" (Jeremiah 29:10, 13). The fulfillment of His plan for them was contingent upon their seeking God with all their hearts.

A sense of self-sufficiency is always detrimental to the soul as well as to any spiritual enterprise. If we forsake the fountain of living water we will die of thirst. How often, like Samson, we trust in our past while all the time ignoring that it is by the grace and power of God that we stand? Samson won many a victory, but it was by the grace and mercy of God. Samson was called to bring deliverance to Israel and God gave him the victory with a simple jawbone. He won the victory, he threw away the jawbone and he rejoiced. But God had to teach him a lesson. He was thirsty; he had killed thousands of men and here he was dying. He had to learn that his sufficiency was of God. It is sad to say that we often throw away our "jawbone" and stand in a place of self-sufficiency. Samson said to the Lord, "Thou hast given this great deliverance . . . and now shall I die for thirst . . ." (Judges 15:18).

God moved mightily among us this week, but we cannot depend on what God did yesterday or the day before. I believe God blessed us in this Assembly because we sought Him. We recognized that we had no other recourse. We took up the jawbone of prayer and consecration and fasting and with that jawbone, by the grace of God the victory was won. The enemy of our soul was held back because of the jawbone of prayer. We need to trust in God—in God alone, because we are dying of thirst. Only God can satisfy our longings. Only God can meet our needs. Let us move forward, panting after God all the way. In panting after God, we will not miss Him because there is something in us that is in divine connection with Him that draws us to God as we pant after Him.

10:10 Report of Questions and Subjects Committee.

THE QUESTIONS AND SUBJECTS COMMITTEE REPORT

INTRODUCTION

"Is there not an appointed time to man upon earth?" (Job 7:1). Job posed this query many years before Christ, and men have grappled with an answer in each generation since. Is there not a purpose for our being? Resting within the loins of Jesus Christ came the answer, being fully given on Calvary when He bowed His head and said, "It is finished."

The finished work of the purchased price of our salvation and the purchasing of His Bride were completed on the cross. Acts 20:28 says "Over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood." We must recognize that He has made us overseers to feed the Church of God—not destroy it.

What is the purpose of the Church in the decade of the 90's? There is a direction in the Book that He had written for our learning, accompanied with the Holy Spirit to keep the Church on course. It is when good men violate those holy principles that we lose sight of our purpose for being.

The number one purpose of the Church since creation is to glorify God. Any action that does not do that is void of the purpose of the Church. Be it verbal or written, all must be done to bring honor to His name. My treatment of the fellow-members of the Body of Christ must always be controlled with the motives in mind of glorifying God. Such actions will, in turn, bring His glory upon the Church, which will make Her attractive and appealing to men in need of a Saviour.

As we enter into the decade of the 90's, the Church must have leadership possessed with no other thought but to glorify God. The Church was never created to become an idol of worship. We are created and designed by the Divine Creator to worship Him only. In doing so, great power will be realized by the Church. "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me" (John 12:32). This is where the power of attracting men to the Church is—in lifting Him up.

The leadership of the Church of God must fully and completely seek the Lord. In so doing, a greater amount of patience and forbearance of our brothers will be exercised. No man can stand in God's presence and remain the same. It is this change that He brings that will enable the Church to reach a unity that will move the work of God ahead. We need a greater concentration on the purpose for which our Lord has placed us here. Our personal likes and dislikes fade in the brightness of the importance of reaching a lost world.

Many earth-shaking world events have happened in recent months which will shape our history for the decade of the 90's. These are challenging times for the Body of Christ. How big are we as a people? Will we be ruled by smallness and petty disagreements or are we going to be real men and lay aside personal likes/dislikes and remain true to the real purpose of our being? That purpose is that every word, deed, and action will bring glory to God, and in turn, propel the Church into forward motion. Then we can answer Job's question, "Yes, we have found our appointed time on this earth and will bring glory to God."

THE GENERAL OVERSEER

SECTION 1

General Overseer Emeritus

In recognition of forty-six years of devoted service as General Overseer of the Church of God, we move that M. A. Tomlinson be designated General Overseer Emeritus. We ask this Assembly to show their love and approval by acclamation.

SECTION 2

Selection

We your Questions and Subjects Committee wish to submit Billy D. Murray, Sr. for your consideration and acceptance to serve the Church of God as General Overseer, since it is evident to us that God's hand is upon him.

Note: After the manifestation of the Holy Ghost gave approval to the selection of Billy D. Murray, Sr. as General Overseer, the report was amended to read, "Since it is evident to us that God's hand is upon him."

SECTION 3

Vacancy

If a need should arise to declare the office of General Overseer vacant, due to any cause, we recommend that the responsibility of such declaration reside within the authority of the other members of the Administrative Committee. The Administrative Committee would be responsible to call, arrange and organize a meeting with the State and National Overseers, within thirty days, to submit the cause for their decision. If, in the opinion of the State and National Overseers, the cause was valid to declare the office of General Overseer vacant, they would then select a successor to serve through the next General Assembly. Amended: This interim ruling will remain in place until Section 4 (of this report) has been brought to fruition.

SECTION 4

Study of Office

The office of General Overseer is very complex. After consultation with Brother Murray, we, therefore, recommend that the General Overseer appoint an international committee to study the term, tenure, vacancy, procedure of selection, and responsibilities of this office. They would present their findings to the Questions and Subjects Committee for consideration to be presented to the General Assembly.

ORGANIZATIONAL EFFECTIVENESS

Rationale

We thank all who gave input, both positive and negative, to the first phase of the study, which was authorized by the 1989 General Assembly.

The General Overseer, Administrative Committee, Questions and Subjects Committee, and every department of the Church will be greatly benefitted by this study and the ongoing process of an exchange of dialogue within our ministry and laity. As we continue to search the Scriptures and seek the divine will of God in these critical times, we need your sincere prayers and honest response.

It is the opinion of this committee that the time has come for us to seriously consider modifying our general appointment practices, Assembly expenses, and other stewardship matters. After much study and consideration, we recommend that Phase One of our Reorganizational Effectiveness be implemented as follows:

SECTION 5

At the present time, we have thirty General Headquarters appointees. We recommend that this number be reduced by the combining of several departments, such combining is to be left to the decision of the General Overseer, in consultation with the Administrative Committee (based on a biblical review of the function of each department).

SECTION 6

We move that the General Church go to a two-year appointment system, with the two-year appointment for the pastors to begin with the conventions of 1991, and the two-year appointment for the general appointees to begin with the General Assembly in 1992. We further move that all appointees—pastors, state/national appointees, General Headquarters and Overseers—be advised of any change in their appointments at the earliest date possible before the change is to occur.

SECTION 7

Realizing that contact with the sheep at the local level is vital to the life of a God-called minister, we move that all general appointees be rotated back to the field after having served under general appointment for a reasonable length of time. This time frame is to be left to the discretion of the General Overseer.

SECTION 8

Rationale

Language is a vehicle of its time. To communicate clearly the message that is being sent, forms, licenses and questionnaires need to be re-evaluated to keep the ideas current.

Recommendation

We move that the General Overseer be authorized to seek the needful help in restructuring the Examination Certificate questionnaire for the licensing of a minister. The new form would be brought before the Administrative Committee for final approval.

SECTION 9

Inasmuch as the cost of maintaining Church properties at World Headquarters continues to rise, we recommend that at least three bids be received on all major contracts for construction, repairs and/or maintenance (General Headquarters complex, Tomlinson College and Fields of the Wood), with the lowest qualified bidder being the one considered to do the work. Our own maintenance personnel should continue to do all that it can to help the Church function on the lowest budget possible.

Closing Admonition

Over the years some correspondence and verbal input have come to this committee questioning the established doctrine and practices of the Church. This committee has prayerfully considered all material received. We would like to go on record that we support the Church and its Bible-based teachings. God's Word is inerrant and infallible and has not changed; neither has the Church's position changed with regard to taking the whole Bible, rightly divided. Therefore, we would encourage all of our ministry and laity to dedicate our lives to the godly principles of the Bible, being ensamples to the flock and to this world in which we live by willingly complying with these principles.

In light of the Holy Scripture that admonishes the ministry to edify (which means to build up) the Body of Christ, we feel it unwise to destroy the Church we are commissioned to build. Therefore, we recommend that divisive words and letters of nonedifying content be discouraged, but rather strive for the unity of the faith in the bond of peace, lest we run the risk of offending weak brothers and hinder the glorious Church of God which we are committed to build.

We do not wish to convey the idea of stifling freshness and inspiration from God. There must always be room for openness and dialogue among those who have the highest regard for truth and pleasing God.

12:37 Adjourned

Thursday Afternoon

1:30 Worship directed by Wayne and Jenna Allen.

2:00 Sunday School and Children's Ministries Program directed by General Secretary Harold D. Hunter. Theme: "I Have Learned to . . ."

2:01 Song/Skit—Everybody Ought to Go to Sunday School—by Sondra Hunter and Dawn Doroshuk. Comments by the General Secretary.

2:10 Lift Up the Standard by Oswill Williams. Comments: The standard we are talking about is the Standard Teacher's Certificate. In any profession, one needs to be qualified. Our national secretary has a team that has the responsibility of training in our country. The Sunday School has a major role in our thrust into various communities. There is much talk about all types of social programs, but the Church of God has a mandate to teach the Word of God to this generation. We are challenging our people with the idea that it is not just necessary to collect children and take them to church, but we are looking forward to our stronger churches having extension Sunday Schools to serve the needs of the communities.

We currently have twenty-two extension schools. We are going back to teaching from house to house as the New Testament intended. Be enthusiastic for Sunday School and what it is going to do for the Church of God.

2:14 Celebrate God's Word—Joyce Phillips, Celebration Saturday Coordinator. She told the children what would be happening Saturday at the event and encouraged all to attend. "Chocolate and Brothers" sang, "Live the Word."

2:22 C. A. R. E.—Brother Hunter boosted offering and introduced Angela Vanni and Harold the Puppet who encouraged, by dialogue, giving for CARE. Sondra Hunter joined them in promoting giving for Heritage Care and Gleaner offerings. Offering was received.

2:30 Sondra Hunter explained about Children's Ministries. She interviewed Candace Endecott from Netherlands Antilles who is a junior missionary. All were encouraged to pray for our mission corpsmen and their children. Sister Hunter explained about the Adopt-A-Child Program. Carolyn Guyton told of this program being a blessing to her and her child. Ben Horner read 1 Corinthians 13:1, 2; 1 Samuel 16:7 and sang "The Bible Tells Me So" and "Some May See a Shepherd Boy."

Directors from these states/nations told of the results of the Bible Memory Club; United Kingdom—Novelette Aldred, Eastern Canada—Marcella Freeman, Germany/Holland—Marquita H. White, Indiana—Pam Jones, Southern California—Maureen DeCaro and Alabama—Larry Lowry.

One Voice Sang "Hallelujah, Praise The Lamb." Harper Hunter prayed.

4:30 Adjourned.

Thursday Evening

6:24 General Overseer led congregation in prayer.

6:26 Perry E. Gillum introduced guests John D. Nichols and Lewis Willis. Each spoke briefly.

6:46 World Mission Program, directed by Adrian L. Varlack, World Mission Secretary. Theme: "But of the Times and the Seasons . . ." (1 Thessalonians 5:1). Introductory remarks by Secretary and introductions. He mentioned the Amateur Radio Exchange Service and told of the blessing they are helping us reach our people by Ham radio in emergencies. Brother Varlack spoke also about the mission corpsmen.

Brother Varlack had all to stand in honor of S. B. Pardede, former overseer of Indonesia, who passed away this year. The tribute which was printed in the White Wing Messenger was read as congregation bowed heads in silent prayer, followed by prayer for the Pardede family.

7:12 Bahama Brass Band played as an offering was received to assist the National Overseers who came to the Assembly.

7:21 Prayer by Sister Varlack and the wives of the Mission Representatives.

7:22 C. C. Shiakallis spoke briefly concerning our work in Cyprus and read 2 Thessalonians 2:1-22.

7:37 Mission Representative Bobby R. Snow told about efforts to reach China and introduced Corpsman James Dyer who is working in Malaysia/Singapore. Comments: Revival is on the move in Malaysia and Singapore. People from every walk of life are receiving the Holy Ghost. Mainline churches are being riddled by people filled with the Holy Ghost. They have their Pentecostal meetings in their churches where they are allowed to do so and where not allowed, they meet in their homes. This thrust by the evangelicals has worried the authorities. We are trusting God for the work in Malaysia and He is bringing results. They wanted a four-week seminar, and we taught and preached concerning the Holy Ghost, Church history, theocracy and spiritual leadership. Following the seminar, a pastor and his wife from the Independent Gospel Revival Church joined the Church of God of Prophecy. They are Indian and they have organized three churches there. More than a third of the population of the world is in Asia. God's Spirit is falling.

8:02 Mission Representative Arthur C. Moss told of some happenings in the Caribbean area: Read Isaiah 51:5. We have in this area 839 churches and 113 missions, with a membership of more than fifty-six thousand. There is a great spiritual move among our French-speaking people in the Caribbean. If pastors were available, it would be possible to organize six churches in Guadeloupe and Martinique. A group in Surinam and in French Guyana contacted me and they are interested in becoming members of the Body of Christ. Brother Felix Santiago and I were able to attend the national convention in Cuba this year. Conditions have not dampened the joy of their salvation in Cuba. Our orphanage has been started in Haiti.

8:12 Overseer Rufus Rogers told of some happenings in his area: He told of the disaster created by Hurricane Hugo. It touched all the islands in the Caribbean area except Netherlands Antilles. Thank the Lord that none of our people suffered serious injury or loss of life. Many were left and are still homeless, but God is the great Provider. He thanked all for helping the people. We have been able to rebuild most of our churches. Thank you for your prayers and concern during this difficult time.

8:18 Music by Bahama Brass Band as congregation clapped their hands and praised the Lord.

8:23 Mission Representative Sherman O. Allen—Political changes are taking place in Africa and the work of the Church is always affected. We have been unable to make contact with our people in Liberia. Jesus warned us that in these latter times there would be wars and rumors of war. Africa is experiencing a real revival and the Church is growing. On this continent this year, we have organized 37 churches, added 2,854 members and we have 37 new fields. We are receiving invitations from many other churches. When I meet with other church leaders, they say that they have read our doctrine and know it is right. We cannot afford to do anything but live what we preach and be the Church of God.

8:35 Overseer Levi Clarke spoke. While I was in the Assembly in 1988, I received word that the Church was closed down in Zaire. I arrived in Zaire in October and our people were not allowed to worship in public. God worked a miracle and the President of that nation made a decree that any religious group has the freedom to worship God. This year we have had an increase of 803 members to the Church, we organized 7 new churches and we have 33 new fields. God is giving revival but the battle is not over. Let us continue to pray. I believe the harvest is white and that there are laborers among us. Let us go and harvest for Christ.

8:42 Mission Representative E. E. Van Deventer spoke about the work in Europe and the Middle East: Read Isaiah 26:2. Fifty years ago few dreamed that Russia would open its doors to democracy and that Christianity could be expressed openly. It has happened this past year in all the Communist Bloc countries except one. Glasnost has opened the doors for the underground Pentecostals to proclaim the gospel. It has broken down the wall and opened the gates for the righteous nation, the Church, which keepeth the truth to enter in. Russia is larger than the United States and Canada combined. We can now bring in Bibles and certain religious material. The greatest need today is for well trained people to go into these areas to assist the ministry and workers in training them to teach the Bible, teach them how to minister to the needs of the people, particularly to the children. It is time for the Church of God to go.

8:48 Overseer Chris Stathis told of our work in the Middle East. Fyez Yassa Rezkhalla is the youth director in Egypt. He teaches mathematics and every year he goes to Sudan to teach for a season. Sudan has become a collecting place for Ethiopian refugees and Brother Rezkhalla has been witnessing to any who will listen. He is now teaching a group in the ways of the Lord and the Church. We may very well soon have our first church established with Ethiopian refugees. Athens, Greece is a collecting place for refugees. It has been our privilege to provide ministry for these destitute people who are seeking a new way to live. They have a very fine church there. I have been invited to Ethiopia to preach and will soon be going to Sudan. We have collected refugees from Iran and other eastern countries, but especially Iran. They opened a door for us to go there as soon as we can get a visa. When God is in it, the doors open. The door opened for us to help Romanian refugees and I have been in Romania twice with the gospel message. People listened for three hours to hear what Christ was doing. Brother Van Deventer and I are scheduled to go to Romania. The doors are opened in Bulgaria where pastors are coming to Greece. Now they can go back. They have invited us to go there and preach. The gospel has been preached with tremendous effectiveness in the Communist countries. The gospel has gone forward and hundreds of thousands of believers are waiting behind what used to be the Iron Curtain.

9:02 Brother Varlack led congregation in singing What A Mighty God We Serve.

9:04 Mission Representative Raul Torres told some about our work in Mexico, Central and South America: We thank the Lord for the work of those on the field. We appreciate the efforts of the overseers and we do not want to overlook our pastors and local leaders. They are really the ones who are doing the work. We have wonderful workers throughout Latin America.

9:09 Overseer Francisco Lopez Paz spoke about our work in Costa Rica. Read 1 Thessalonians 1:11. We have many cultures in Costa Rica and there is a great influence of Catholicism and many satanic cults. We were trying to explore certain methods but many did not give results. In the last few months, we believe that the method of sharing the love of Jesus Christ as He commissioned us has brought about change. This year, we won 103 new members, organized 2 churches and we have 16 missions operating. God has opened doors for us to use two television stations free of charge. Many cities are now hearing the Word of God. Many are coming, asking about the doctrine of the Church of God. I feel if we allow the Holy Spirit to operate in our lives that this year will be a glorious year. Help us pray.

9:24 Reconciliation Among the Nations—Parade of Nations. The Bahama Brass Band played as the ladies, dressed in red (representing those washed in the Blood of the Lamb), marched down aisles carrying flags of nations where we have the Church established. One representing the Church was dressed in white. Music by Bahama Brass Band as they marched around platform and out of the auditorium.

A Message For These Times—message by World Mission Secretary Adrian Varlack. (This message was printed in the September 29, 1990 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be obtained on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

10:26 Brother Varlack presented a plaque to the Mission Church of the Year—Houston (Crown St.), Texas, Jesse Yanez, pastor; Hubert Vicars, Overseer.

10:28 The Varlack Children sang All I Want is You, Lord.

10:34 Altar invitation by Elgarnet B. Rahming. Altar music arranged by Ron Scotton followed by Hosanna '90 Music Celebration.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 17

Morning

7:30 The General Overseer led the Assembly in prayer.

7:32 Partial report of Questions and Subjects Committee (Full report given in Thursday Morning session.)

9:00 Special Tribute to former General Overseer and wife M. A. and Ina Mae Tomlinson. The Tomlinson daughters escorted Sister Tomlinson to platform and the sons-in-law escorted Brother Tomlinson. Brother and Sister Murray sat with the Tomlinsons as Ron Scotton sang "May All Who Come Behind Us Find Us Faithful." Billy Murray read Psalm 1:1 and Oma Lee Murray read Psalm 31:10, 11. Sister Murray presented red roses to Sister Tomlinson. A video tribute was shown. Brother Tomlinson remarked that it was a replay of his life. They both thanked everyone for their love and they expressed their love for all of us and told some about their work.

State and National Overseers came on platform and dropped greeting cards in a beautifully decorated box. C. C. Winchester read a letter of appreciation representing all the overseers. General Headquarters Staff dropped their cards in the box and greeted the Tomlinsons. Adrian Varlack presented a commemorative coin from the World Mission Department. Elva Howard read a letter representing the General Headquarters Staff. Brice H. Thompson gave tribute for the Bahama Brass Band and presented a plaque and the band played. As the Tomlinson Family stood behind the General Overseer Emeritus and wife, the congregation joined in a handkerchief wave as the band played "Gettin' Ready to Leave This World" (one of Brother Tomlinson's favorites).

10:00 Solo by Henry Griffin. The General Overseer introduced his family.

10:15 Bible and Flag Pledges as the Field Secretaries held the Bible and a large Church Flag.

10:19 Larry Duncan led congregation in singing "It Is Well With My Soul."

10:25 General Overseer's Annual Address

THE CAPTAIN OF THE LORD'S HOST

"And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there stood a man over against him with his sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries? And he said, Nay; but as captain of the host of the Lord am I now come. And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and did worship, and said unto him, What saith my lord unto his servant? And the captain of the Lord's host said unto Joshua, Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so" (Joshua 5:13-15).

Joshua was a great leader, second to none among the Israelites, but here we find him falling on his face before this One who called himself "captain of the host of the Lord." Inasmuch as this stranger did not forbid Joshua's prostrated worship we must presume that He was more than an ordinary man or angel. In fact, we may be assured that He remains even today as "captain of the Lord's host."

Having crossed over Jordan, Israel's wandering in the wilderness was now history, but here they were, facing the challenge of possessing their promised possession. It was a land filled with a people from whom their hearts had shrunk in fear some forty years earlier. It was a land inhabited by giants to whom they had compared themselves as grasshoppers. No wonder then when Joshua beheld this stranger standing with a drawn sword that he inquired, "Art thou for us, or for our adversaries?"

His reply to Joshua is interesting even to this day as it is given current application: "Nay; but as captain of the host of the Lord am I now come." Perhaps Joshua needed a reminder that this was not his battle. Perhaps he thought that he himself was captain of the Lord's host. Then, as now, however, the battle is the Lord's, and as a contemporary chorus goes "The Captain of the host is Jesus." As He stood there before Joshua on that day, even now He is not here among us to take sides. He is in charge, and it is up to us as to whether we will align ourselves with Him in this warfare against Satan, the enemy of God and all mankind.

In our unaided strength we are no match for this deceiver, this enemy of all that is good and decent and pure. But we have no fear of failure as we march in battle with the One who has all power in heaven and in earth.

What blessed assurance His presence provides us as we go forward to possess our possessions, to claim as our own all the eternal promises for the people of God, and to pursue this battle of liberation for those who are being held captive by this cruel enemy.

Because of his deceptive tactics we must be reminded occasionally of who the enemy really is. He would have us warring among ourselves. But we who are following the "captain of the Lord's host" are all on the same side. We are not enemies of one another. I am not your enemy; you are not my enemy—we are on the same side in this battle against Satan.

It seems sad when Christians and fellow-members of the Body of Christ become divided and turn their energies into attacking one another. Polarizations occur to where they take sides against one another, as Satan's scheme takes form to divide and conquer, all of this while souls being held captive by Satan continue to die daily, dropping into hell—eternally lost.

Our business parallels the mission of Jesus who came to seek and to save that which was lost. There is a world of hurting people, people who have been victimized by sin's power, whose hope now lies in our faithfulness to our commission. What hope do they have when we allow Satan to divert our attention from our appointed task and engage in internal disputings and bickerings?

Some occasional introspection seems necessary; however, when our focus becomes totally inward you may be sure the enemy of souls has succeeded in turning us away from our primary task of reaching out to people who are lost, people who need to feel our love and concern in sharing with them the message of a loving Saviour. That the enemy has succeeded to an intolerable degree in diverting us from our mission to the unsaved is hardly debatable. This is clearly reflected in our statistics of outreach and growth.

There are some areas of the world where our people are working compassionately to reach the lost and we thank God for the number of salvation experiences they are reporting. In too many areas, however, attention has been diverted to other things of lesser importance and the record speaks for itself.

Are we truly aligned with the Captain of the Lord's host? The ministry of Jesus, who remains the same yesterday, today and forever, was marked by His concern for people. There were those of the religious establishment who were totally devoid of compassionate caring for people who would have loved to engage Him in theological debating, but Jesus would not allow this to happen. His disdain for such was clearly demonstrated. He loved sinners, and they felt His love and responded. They meant much more to Him than doctrinal disputings.

Sinners, indeed, were attracted to Jesus. Luke wrote in chapter fifteen, verse one, "Then drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to hear him." This was something the Pharisees and scribes did not have to be concerned about. Sinners left them alone. In many churches today, we might look around and ask, "Where are the sinners?" Why did the sinners draw near to Jesus while avoiding the religious leaders. They sensed that here was Someone who cared about them. Jesus never forgot His mission. He came to seek and to save the lost.

His love for them eventually took Him to Calvary, and even there, in the midst of His dying He reached out to another one, and Satan met another defeat. This is the Captain of the Lord's host. Does this same kind of love for people mark us as being identified with Him? O that we could become consumed with the love of Jesus!

May we presume that the Master cares any less today for the victims of sin than when He walked in Galilee? Would His ministry be directed in a different way if He should return in the same form in which He appeared then? Would He become bogged down altogether in seminars and conferences? Would He spend His time totally in administrative work, analyzing statistics on a computer, getting caught up in the paralysis of analysis? Or would He be out among the people—opening blinded eyes, healing the sick, forgiving sins? I believe the answer is clear—"Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever."

Can we not envision Him among us now saying, "I am not here to take sides, but to lead you out into a sick society where you can show them a better way." Would He not be saying, "Put away from among yourselves your petty bickerings and arguments. There is a world of hurting people out there for whom I suffered beyond measure on a cruel cross. My love for them is just as great as My love for you, and it is not My will that any of them perish, but that they be brought to repentance." Is this not what the unchanging Christ would say?

Then He might remind us, "As Captain of the host of the Lord am I now come. I am asking you to join Me in that which is dearest to My heart—that for which I paid the supreme sacrifice. Dispense with your analyzing and criticizing and follow Me into the harvest fields. The time is short and there remain yet many souls to be harvested." I believe this is the message from our Captain today.

THE JOY OF THE LORD IS YOUR STRENGTH

"Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the Lord is your strength" (Nehemiah 3:10).

To create feelings of hopelessness and despair is Satan's delight. This enemy of our souls would have us continually focusing our attention on the victories he has achieved within God's creation, all the sorrows which the curse of sin has fostered in this world. We admit that it was his victory in the Garden of Eden that caused all of us to be born in sin. Mankind has suffered and is continuing to suffer the terrible consequences of the Fall. But that is not the end of the story.

The good news is that our Blessed Saviour came and bruised this enemy's head at Calvary. And now millions can testify that Satan's dominion over them is broken. He has no authority over their lives, as they now live by faith in the Son of God. This is cause for rejoicing. And those who have experienced this exhilarating freedom from sin's power can rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory. We exult with John Newton as we sing, "I once was lost but now am found, was blind but now I see."

At the beginning of His ministry Jesus met Satan in the wilderness and was subjected to his temptations. Satan was the loser in this encounter, and as Christ returned to Nazareth He stood in the synagogue and read from the prophecy penned by Isaiah and declared its fulfillment that day. Isaiah's words were, "The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn; To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified" (Isaiah 61:1-3).

What better cause for rejoicing could we have? We were being held captive by Satan. There was no way that we could liberate ourselves from sin's prison, but what we could not do, Jesus did for us.

We must not lose sight of the wonder of being saved, of being a child of God. What a treasure we have been given! Jesus made this a point of emphasis when His disciples were rejoicing over their ministerial successes. "...rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you," He cautioned them, "but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven" (Luke 10:20). It is much better to rejoice in what He has done for us than in what we are doing for Him.

Infectious joy is an accelerant to the spread of the gospel. This was true in the early Church and it has the same effect today. We read in Acts 13:52, "And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost." The records of their success in the spread of the gospel is indisputable. They had their problems, even as we have, but something within provided them a joyful witness. Paul and Silas, with backs throbbing from the stripes they had received, and with their feet secured in stocks, in the midnight darkness of a dungeon sang praises unto God. This same Paul could later write the Corinthian church and declare, "I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 7:4).

What gave this apostle the exceeding joyfulness of which he spoke, a joyfulness which circumstances could not affect? At this time he was more than just a missionary, he was an administrator who in his words had "the care of all the churches" (2 Corinthians 11:28). And this Corinthian church to which he was writing had about as many problems as any of our churches do today. Yet, he could say, "I am exceeding joyful." Church problems did not affect his joy.

The fact is, the joy of the Lord is not predicated upon circumstances. Joy is the fruit of the Spirit, and when you are indwelt by the Spirit you will have joy. How otherwise, could one be joyful in tribulation? But, thousands can attest to the reality of Paul's testimony, and the joy of the Lord is their strength.

How can we today affect a troubled, tormented world while exhibiting the same kind of worry and frustrations they are feeling? They surely will not desire more of the same. To turn from lives of sin they must be given the hope of something better. It is our business to point them to Him who is all of mankind's Blessed Hope. Thank God for the joy of salvation! Thank God for the joy of living in His presence, drawing strength and assurance from His Spirit.

The Psalmist wrote, "There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God" (Psalm 46:4). Are you being refreshed today by the streams of this river? Are you viewed by those who know you as a joyful Christian? Only by this means will your witness be effective in turning the eyes of the unsaved to Jesus.

To the Philippian church Paul wrote, "Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice" (Philippians 4:4). His admonition to the Thessalonians was, "Rejoice evermore" (1 Thessalonians 5:16). The life of continual rejoicing can be lived only as we focus upon God's graciousness—the joy of sin's forgiven, the joy of living in divine fellowship, knowing that our brief mortal limitations will soon be ended and we will move into the unrestricted fulness of heavenly joy!

Satan seeks to distract us, diverting our focus to the troubles, the distresses, the cares of this life, but we can resist all such diversions. We cannot prevent these troubles from coming—we live in a world where Satan is the prince; this is his domain and it bears all the marks of depravity. It is filled with suffering, with heartache, with sorrow. But in the midst of such we can boldly lift our heads and declare that our citizenship is in heaven, and that our redemption from this earth is drawing near.

Thank God that this world is not our home. It is only the place of a brief pilgrimage, and even while traveling through this land in which we are strangers our fellowship is with the One who has triumphed over this world, and we have entered into His victory. We sense His nearness and His presence is cause for rejoicing. The Psalmist stated it well when he wrote, "...in thy presence there is fulness of joy" (Psalm 16:11).

No, we are not alone. Thank God for His presence. Thank God for joy.

Let there be joy in the Church, as Jeremiah wrote, "The voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, Praise the Lord of hosts: for the Lord is good; for his mercy endureth for ever" (Jeremiah 33:11).

I feel like saying with Isaiah, "I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness" (Isaiah 61:10).

O the wonder of it all!

Song: "Joy Unspeakable"

A SPIRIT OF RECONCILIATION AND RESTORATION

"And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation" (2 Corinthians 5:18).

There was a gulf which seemed impassable. Man, in his sinfulness, had no way to approach unto God. God, in His holiness, could have no part with that which was sinful. The Incarnation was the only answer, and it was the perfect solution, the product of Perfect Wisdom. Thank God for the Incarnation! Where would we be otherwise?

Paul wrote, "To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself" (v. 19). God became man, without accepting man's accompanying sinfulness, never surrendering His divinity, and by this means, which is totally incomprehensible to us, He bridged the gulf between sinful man and Holy God.

And now, He has committed to us, His Church, the ministry of reconciliation. Jesus said, "As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world" (John 17:18). We have been redeemed unto God, called out and separated from the world, but our business is reaching back toward those who are still lost, extending the invitation to them, saying, "Come!"

• We want them to know they can be delivered from the dark dominion of sin, that they can cross over this gulf of separation from God. Jesus remains the Bridge by which they must cross. Pointing out and bringing people to Him is our part in the ongoing ministry of reconciliation.

We must never tolerate the feeling that we belong to some kind of exclusive club. This is not the nature of God's Church. We would more accurately be compared to beggars who have found bread and are wanting to share it with other beggars who even now are perishing. Our concern for them must be manifested by the kind of effort which Jesus demonstrated as He allowed nothing to distract Him from His primary purpose to seek and to save the lost.

Also, in our commitment to Christian unity we must identify and tear down those things that are unnecessarily keeping us apart from fellow Christians. Pious, self-righteous attitudes are repugnant to sincere worshippers and they will repel rather than draw Christians together. It is not difficult for kindred hearts to unite in true fellowship. Nearly two hundred years ago, John Fawcett wrote: "Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love; the fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above."

Where the Spirit is in control the natural tendency is for believers to come together, not to stay apart. It is when the flesh asserts itself that divisions occur. Sincere Christians will never be repelled or driven away from where their Blessed Saviour is being exalted. He is the only means of anyone's reconciliation with God, and it is in Him that the reconciliation of differences between His followers will be found. The Church's ministry is one of reconciliation.

Instead of building walls, it should be our determination to build bridges, to extend ourselves in true fellowship to every believer. There are no second-rate Christians. The only legitimate claim to salvation for any of us is the precious blood of Jesus. His blood does not make one person any holier than another. When we manifest a spirit of aloofness from another of His lambs or sheep it displeases our Lord, who prayed that we all would be one. And God will see to it that His children become one, in answer to Christ's prayer. It is not an unachievable goal. If He could take some forty men and have them write sixty-six books over a period of sixteen hundred years, embracing all kinds of theological subjects, then have all these books put together and they be totally without contradiction, He can surely, by the same Spirit which directed these authors, make us one.

In this final decade of the second millennium of Christianity, the limited time that remains demands that blood-bought Christians unite as one under the lordship of Christ in order to convince an unbelieving world that God sent His Son for their salvation. This is the prayer that Christ prayed, "That they all may be one . . . that the world may believe that thou hast sent me" (John 17:21). If we are to finish the work given us by Christ, we must somehow lay aside petty differences that divide Christians and concentrate upon the basics of preaching the gospel of the kingdom to every creature. May the Holy Ghost give us the resolve and spiritual strength to do this at this most critical period of the end time!

Some of our best leaders for the days ahead are, no doubt, right now outside the Church. When God needed a leader in the early Church for a special ministry, for a leadership role that would explore new horizons, new frontiers, He went outside the Church for His man. He found him on the road to Damascus. Without consulting the apostles at Jerusalem, God chose this apostle. In a manner with which the leadership of the Church was not familiar, the Lord communicated with this new leader-to-be. They had spent years walking the dusty roads with Jesus of Nazareth, watching, listening and learning. This new apostle was caught up miraculously into the third heaven, into paradise, "And heard unspeakable words . . . not lawful for a man to utter" (2 Corinthians 12:4).

When finally he presented himself at Jerusalem and "assayed to join himself to the disciples . . . they were all afraid of him" (Acts 9:26). We know that Paul's relationship with the Lord was sound, his having been divinely chosen to be the apostle to the Gentiles, but the Church did not trust him. It was at this point that Barnabas became a "bridge-builder." "But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that [the Lord] had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus" (v. 27).

Paul's experience of having been caught up into paradise was different from the other apostles, and that most always creates apprehensions. That which is different we seem prone to distrust. We must remember, however, that God is sovereign and can work with anyone in whatever manner He chooses to do so. We cannot confine His working with people to a method which we ourselves have approved. He does not require our approval. He need not consult with anyone.

God never intended for His children to live in isolation from one another. It is His desire that they be joined together and compacted together. The scriptural injunction is, ". . . that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment" (1 Corinthians 1:10). To bring Paul into this fellowship that he needed, in face of the distrust that was existing, someone was needed who could build a bridge of trust, and Barnabas was that man.

Satan seeks to bring divisions among brothers and sisters, and whenever he succeeds in creating any gap, he persists in his efforts to immediately make that gap wider and wider. He does this by exploiting any human traits, any feelings, any unscriptural traditions that are conducive to division.

Within the Church he even would have you dwelling upon your faithfulness in comparison to another Christian's unfaithfulness or carelessness. In fact, he might have you glorying over your own steadfastness. We must remember that it is only by God's grace that we possess any steadfastness; therefore, we have nothing of ourselves of which to glory. When we glory, let us glory in the marvel of His grace. Such glorying will exalt His majesty and place us, at the same time, in a position of humility.

In the account of the Prodigal Son, a gap was created between the elder son and the younger, a gap that continued even when the younger son returned home from his waywardness. The elder son prided himself upon his faithfulness in his father's house: "Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment" (Luke 15:29). These were his words as he pouted jealously at the royal welcome being given his prodigal brother. The father's reasoning was, "Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found" (vv. 31, 32).

The attitude displayed by the father is the one that we must possess in this time of restoration and reconciliation. "But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him" (v. 20). He did not sit in the comfort of his home, waiting for his son to come knocking on the door, begging for admittance. He kept looking in the direction he knew his son had gone, so that when he was yet a great way off he saw him. Then he ran toward him—he was willing to go out to meet him and escort him home.

O the greatness of the love of God! And as this divine love abides in us it will manifest itself in loving concern for others. This love is not passive; it is actively seeking opportunities to manifest itself. In Paul's life it was the domination of divine love that made him say: "For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more . . . I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. And this I do for the gospel's sake" (1 Corinthians 9:19, 22, 23).

Can we feel that we are pleasing the Lord today while at the same time ignoring all those who once rejoiced with us in the bounties of our Father's table, but who now are separated from our fellowship with Him? When we display a nonchalant attitude of "Am I my brother's keeper?" it is evident that our love has grown cold and that our spiritual status is lukewarm, at best. I believe it is time for us to make a concerted effort to restore fellowships that have been broken. How many precious brothers and sisters who once walked with us into the house of God, whose testimonies blessed and encouraged us, are now cut off from that precious fellowship? The scriptural injunction still stands: ". . . ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness, considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted" (Galatians 6:1) or, "considering yourself; it could happen to you."

I want to introduce to you this morning an endeavor I am entitling, "A Time for Restoration." Following this Assembly I am urging each pastor to go back to his church and call the members together in a special meeting. From the church records, from memory, or from whatever source, compile the names of those who once rejoiced with us but who now are separated from our fellowship. Then go before the Lord in repentance for any past carelessness concerning genuine, compassionate efforts to restore them. At the same time pray for a burden from the Lord to seize your hearts, which will enable you to go to these people in a spirit of meekness and heartfelt compassion. Pray until you can weep in concern for these precious souls.

After this burden has come upon you, you should review once more the names of these whom you want to see restored. Then, pray again, this time for a burden for specific individuals to settle upon those praying. After this, call for volunteers who will go two by two on a mission of love, to manifest to each one who has become separated from us the genuine concern and burden God has placed on our hearts. You may then conclude this special meeting with a mighty prayer as each pair of volunteers kneels consecutively for the rest of the group to lay hands on them to pray for a special empowering by God to make their efforts fruitful. They may be admonished that the Lord will be going with them, and that He wants them to succeed.

Before adjourning, announce another special meeting, perhaps one week later. This will be a time for reporting and enlisting additional prayer support where it is needed. This is not a one-week operation, nor just a program, but the beginning of a battle campaign to break the bands by which precious people are being held in captivity, in isolation from the Body of Christ. Know that it will be a battle, but it is a battle about which the Almighty God is deeply concerned, and in His strength we will win this battle! Then, we will rejoice together, even as Heaven rejoices, when those we love come back to the warmth of Christian love and fellowship in the Father's House.

LET US RISE UP AND BUILD

Just as Nehemiah returned from Babylon with a burden to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem which were in shambles, God is laying upon hearts today the burden of restoration, repairing the damages that have been done by our adversary—restoring relationships, both with God and with one another. It was not Nehemiah, but the hand of the Lord that was upon him, that rallied the people and caused them to say, "Let us rise up and build" (Nehemiah 2:18). I am sensing in many hearts this same spirit. There can be and there will be restoration! Together, by God's grace, we can build the Church of God!

Yes, there must be a restoration of our relationship with God and with one another. A restoration of relationship with God will come through the restoration of fervent praying among us. It is when the spirit of prayer takes hold of us that it becomes easy to pray, and this is the kind of praying that refreshes the soul. In such times of praying we can thank God for what He is doing within us and through us.

In my experience I have found this to occur most often when I have a regular time each day to meet and spend time with God. Each day will be different, and some days you will feel defeated. But God is observing your steadfastness, your consistency, and in His love for you He will visit you again and see that you sense His presence in a most blessed way. These times of His special visitations make all the other times of praying worthwhile. They surely strengthen our relationship with Him. When our relationship with Him becomes what it should be, it will not be difficult to have good relationships with one another.

May there be also a restoration of the joy of corporate worship. David said, "I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord" (Psalm 122:1). It is not enough to pray, to read the Word and to worship privately, we need the blessings which come also through worshipping with other saints. I don't think I could have survived through my years of Christian living apart from the fellowship of my local church, as I joined them in singing, in praising, in receiving the Word. We must have a restoration of joyous worship in our churches. If you are too busy to assemble regularly with the saints of God for worshipping together, you are too busy, and you are the only one who can make the needed adjustments in your schedule.

A restoration of the close fellowship we are needing in the Church right now can be heightened through the proper function of care groups which meet in homes and in activities outside the walls of our churches. I want to challenge our pastors to give their attention to the formulation and proper function of these groups which not only will strengthen fellowship but will channel energies for ministering within our communities. This is a proven means for growth and outreach.

While dwelling upon the theme of restoration and rebuilding, I consider two more aspects to be very timely. One is a restoration of holy living. "Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, O Lord, for ever" (Psalm 93:5). God's command to us is, "Be ye holy, for I am holy." The holiness of God deserves our highest respect. Because of the fallen nature of man through Adam's transgression, there is a separation between men, who were born in sin, and God, who is altogether holy. And today, only through the sanctifying blood of our Saviour can we claim any degree of holiness.

Many have attempted to become holy through their own efforts—by self-denial, by abstinence from smoking, drinking, immoral behavior, or by stringent dress codes, but none of this adds one iota of holiness. Holiness can be known only in relationship with Him who is holy, the One to which the seraphims cry, "Holy, holy, holy."

Yet, when one enters into and maintains this relationship, there will be a noticeable difference in his lifestyle and behavior. It will be a lifestyle marked by a spirit of humility and servanthood, revealing one's identification with the greatest Servant of all time, "Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant" (Philippians 2:6, 7). Serving God by faithfully and effectually serving people becomes the Christian's delight.

Whatever impairs this relationship with God, or the effectiveness of his service, he will want to lay aside—so, there goes his drinking, use of tobacco and other drugs and his immoral behavior. Quitting those things did not make him holy, but his relationship with the One who is holy caused him to quit whatever impaired his effectiveness as a servant, and I repeat—WHATEVER IT IS! The idea of setting forth a set of rules as a standard for holiness has its weaknesses. There is the tendency to lay claim to holiness whenever the rules are being faithfully kept, while the individual making the claim may be totally devoid of a real, vital relationship with God. And whenever this relationship is missing, there is no holiness, no matter how acceptable his behavior may be to others.

When this right relationship with God is existing, however, there will be a humble spirit. Any arrogant, judgmental spirit, or spirit of rebellion, is a telltale sign of low spirituality or carnality. "Becoming all things to all men" in order to serve more effectively requires a renouncement of pride and self-will. This caused Paul to forego some things that were perfectly legitimate for him in God's sight. This may be seen in his declaration, "Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no meat while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend" (1 Corinthians 8:13).

This spirit of servanthood can be seen further in the circumcision of Timothy who was a Greek, when Paul wanted to take him with him on his missionary journey. We read in Acts 16:3, "Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters." Timothy was not a Jew, and he could have rebelled against this tradition of the Jews being imposed upon him, especially since God was not requiring this even of the Jews any more. That he submitted to this rite gives indication of his desire, like Paul, of becoming "all things to all men, that [he] might by all means save some" (1 Corinthians 9:22). Our identity with Christ will be shown by a selfless love for people. Some of our Christian liberties we will forego if we find that the taking of these liberties destroys our fellowship with other brothers and sisters in the Lord or impairs our effectiveness in reaching people. I am praying for a restoration of holy living—living in a pure relationship with Him who is holy.

I believe also in rebuilding that we need a restoration of Church loyalty. The Christian's highest loyalty, always, is to Jesus Christ, and many today, with a sense of high idealism, are professing their loyalty to Him and Him alone. While this may sound good, when such people, through this kind of idealism, deny their need for loyalty to the Church, they are rejecting what Jesus has ordered for them. The Church is of His design and it was designed for a purpose. It brings believers into a close-knit fellowship where relationships are developed and tested.

These relationships within the Body of Christ are designed to help us mature spiritually. Some have opted to separate themselves, to where they do not have to be concerned about the effect their choices and actions have on others. But God never willed that His children live in alienation from their brothers and sisters. The Church is one body with members being mutually dependent upon and supportive of one another. The lessons to be learned from living together and, through love, making lifestyle adjustments for the edifying of another brother or sister are necessary for maturing spiritually.

The spirit of independence which some are getting caught up in is not of God, and it is dangerous. His word is, "that ye be perfectly joined together." This same spirit of independence is the cause of many marriages now being broken up by divorce, where immature people choose to live for themselves and their own pleasure, rather than to submit and make adjustments, and through the lessons to be learned in the relationship of husband and wife arrive at a greater maturity.

God designed marriage for the good of the individuals involved, to help them mature. It is a divine institution, even as the Church is. For a marriage to remain intact requires more than romantic fantasy. It requires a commitment to marriage, not just a commitment to another individual, but commitment to marriage as an institution that is divinely ordained.

How many of you expect loyalty from your companions? It is reasonable to expect such loyalty, also to give it. The same is true concerning Church loyalty. Your companion is not always going to please you, neither is he/she always going to agree with you. There will be differences to be resolved. This requires some "give and take." So it is within the Church.

I made a commitment to marriage 40 years ago, and I made a commitment to the Church 48 years ago, and I fully intend to remain loyal to both. There has been some "give and take" in both, and I consider myself to have gained much in each of these relationships.

There is a growing number who do not want to make the commitment to marriage, so they choose an arrangement of their own making rather than to pursue God's way. This arrangement which provides for fleshly gratification not only displeases God, it denies people the benefits that God intended marriage to bring.

In the same sense we are witnessing a growing unwillingness on the part of many to commit themselves to the Church. The demands that membership imposes seem to many to be too restrictive and they would rather be free and independent. This is the spirit of the age, but this is not God's way, and it does not please Him for His children to pursue such a course. People need to be taught the value of Church membership, even as they need to be taught the value of marriage.

Don't teach your children that all that matters is that they love each other, that then they can live together without making the commitment to holy matrimony. It is important that they love each other, all right, and it is important that people have a genuine love relationship with the Lord, but the Church has been designed by God for the joining together of believers in one body, even as marriage has been divinely instituted for the joining together of lovers in a one-flesh union. Let there be a restoration of Church loyalty!

There are conflicts still to be faced and resolved among us, but I do not want us to spend all our time in conflict with one another. It is a sign of our immaturity when we pick at small differences. We must become more tolerant of one another. Charity, according to the Scriptures, is the bond of perfectness. And this charity must abound within the Body of Christ. Its importance was emphasized by Peter as he wrote, "And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins" (1 Peter 4:8).

Living together with a satisfactory degree of harmony and peace, as important as that is, is not our main task; it is to reach a perishing world. This we must not forget! And I believe as our focus becomes more outward we will have fewer difficulties within. Our assault must be upon the gates of hell, in an attempt to free souls from Satan's dominion. We are engaged in a war of liberation, and the price of failure is just too great. We must not fail!

Chorus: "Bind Us Together"

ONE THING THOU LACKEST

"Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me" (Mark 10:21).

The ten commandments of the Law were summarized by Jesus in two commandments: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself" (Matthew 22:37-39).

The first of these two commandments deals specifically with one's vertical relationship—his relationship with God, while the second deals with the horizontal—his relationship with his fellowman. The young man in our text seemed to pass the horizontal test as Jesus enumerated that category of commands: "Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother" (Mark 10:19). His reply to Jesus was, "Master, all these have I [kept] from my youth" (v. 20).

Had Jesus chosen to enumerate the other four commandments which dealt with man's relationship with God, the young man might have given the same affirmative answer concerning them. However, instead of reminding him of the commandment to have no other gods before God Jehovah, Jesus, discerning that mammon, the god of riches, was enthroned in the young man's heart, simply said, ". . . go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven" (v. 21). At this point he faltered and "went away grieved: for he had great possessions" (v. 22).

The young man must have felt Jesus was asking too much of him; but the Lord never asks too much from any of us. He loves us too much to do so. And when one loves Him with all his heart, soul and mind, he will obey whatever the Lord requires, and He does not always require the same actions from each of us.

As we come face to face with the Lord today, in these times of perplexity, I feel He is saying to us, "One thing thou lackest." That one thing is the same that was lacking in the life of the young ruler. It was that which was and is the fulfilling of all the law of God. As Paul wrote, "For all the law is fulfilled in one word" (Galatians 5:14). That one word is LOVE. This love is not some mere sentimental emotion. It is rather a bestowal of what is divine, the very nature of God's being, for God is love. When that element is missing, all our efforts for building the Church, all our efforts for extending Christ's kingdom, all our efforts to glorify God are unacceptable. Though we give our bodies to be burned, though we give all our goods to feed the poor—having all knowledge, understanding all mysteries, having faith to remove mountains—apart from love all this, from a spiritual standpoint, is an exercise in futility.

This is the "missing link" about which R. G. Spurling wrote as he and A. J. Tomlinson were trying to understand God's plan for His Church. James called it "the royal law" (James 2:8). When that "royal law" is missing from the heart we may write a thousand other laws and seek to enforce them for the perfecting of the Church, but it will all be to no avail. The testimony of Moses verifies this, as we look at the great number of laws and ordinances he wrote to govern a people whose hearts were not attuned to God. The writer of Hebrews referred to the "disannulling" of these laws because of "the weakness and unprofitableness thereof" (Hebrews 7:18). He went on to say, "For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God" (v. 19).

This better hope came to us in Jesus Christ, who is forever the epitome, the perfect personification of divine love. None of us can doubt His love for us. And this Blessed Saviour said, "This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you" (John 15:12). This is the "royal law" in which all the commandments are fulfilled.

I want to reiterate that this divine love is more than a sentimental emotion. It perseveres under tough circumstances. It reflects always the character of the One from whom it is received. We receive it as an impartation of His very nature and this immediately sets us apart as being "not of this world." His lordship of our lives becomes apparent. This love is the enabler for faithfulness to our Lord's commands. "For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous." (1 John 5:3). Jesus' words to us are "Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven . . . For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so? Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect" (Matthew 5:44-48).

What is this perfection of which Jesus speaks here? Is it not related to the love about which He is talking? We know that Paul calls charity the "bond of perfectness" (Colossians 3:14). Is the perfectness about which Jesus speaks a state to strive for or is it reflected by an attitude we may now possess through our relationship with Him, wherein the "royal law of love" finds its fulfillment and lives in us?

We have been pursuing a vision of becoming a perfect church. Paul describes it as a glorious church without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, holy and without blemish. We believe this will consist of all the children of God among whom now there is an evident lack of divine unity and perfection. Doctrinal differences and traditions continue to divide believers into sectarian camps. These divisions dishonor Christ who prayed that we all would be one.

But where is the solution to this problem? Will it be in our coming together to debate issues and doctrines with the resultant formulation of still more articles of faith or rules for perfection? The need exists, all right for brethren to counsel together, and I hope to see a forum developed where we can gather together in an Assembly like this for more substantive counseling, but dialogue alone is not enough. After putting forth our best effort, I believe we might hear our Lord saying, "One thing thou lackest."

How is it that we have overlooked that which is so basic, so essential? This "royal law" stands out so prominently in the Scriptures. Peter said, ". . . see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently" (1 Peter 1:22). John wrote, "And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment" (1 John 3:23). Jesus said, "As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love" (John 15:9). Love is the key!

I do not mean to over-simplify, but we must put first things first and make certain we are keeping this "royal law." God is not going to bless our substitutes for this one command no matter how sacred they may seem to us.

Love is patient and kind. It is never arrogant or haughty. It never looks down on people, but sees them as a creation of God. It never belittles a fellow-believer who is struggling against our common enemy. It is understanding and it extends a helping hand, reaching out in genuine compassion and concern. Love builds bridges, not walls. The maxim, "Good fences make good neighbors" may have some merit in the world where Satan is prince, but not in the family of God where we are to love as brethren and all be as one.

Our witness to a world which is suffering, which needs so much the ministry we have been commissioned to exercise, will be effective only when it is bearing the evidence of divine love. To tell them about Jesus, about His selfless love for them, to where He was willing to be crucified for their sins so that they could stand justified before a righteous God, having no condemnation—this is a beautiful story. But for this gospel to have credence they must see this same love in us. Jesus said, "A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another" (John 13:34, 35). This love will give us the identity they are needing to see, and it will not let us rest until we are moving out in ministry to them. "For the love of Christ constraineth us" (2 Corinthians 5:14).

To what may we attribute then our lack of evangelistic fervor?—"One thing thou lackest." Why is the Church of God and the family of God marked by divisions and contentions?—"One thing thou lackest." O for a revival, a new baptism of the love of God to be "shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost."

This is such a serious matter that I am calling for the beginning of a twenty-four-hour prayer chain to begin October 1. For the restoration effort which I introduced in an earlier section to succeed, for the rebuilding of which I spoke to become more than mere rhetoric, and for us to experience a new baptism of divine love will call for earnest supplication to God. We just must pray! There is no reason we cannot have unceasing prayer ascending to the throne of God day and night all year long. This will not be just one individual praying each hour but thousands of our members praying each hour.

We have prepared commitment forms which each pastor will be receiving very soon, whereby he will secure commitments from his membership to a specific hour to pray every day. Some may want to choose an hour that will require an extra sacrifice on their part.

Pray for a fresh baptism of divine love; pray for God's blessings upon our efforts to restore those members and former members who have been overcome by Satan; and pray for a spirit to take hold of all our people which will cause them to say "Let us rise up and build."

This must be an ambitious and aggressive prayer endeavor, and I am requesting every department of the Church to become involved in its promotion. Some may be able to begin it prior to October 1. If so, please do. The need is urgent. We must pray! Let each one know that he will not be praying alone. Thousands will be joining him at his hour of prayer. We know God will hear!

MILITARY SERVICE DEPARTMENT

When the General Overseer proposed a Public Relations Director in the 59th Assembly, he referred to our "members who are serving in the Armed Forces throughout the world," stating that "an effective plan could be worked out to be a blessing to our servicemen" (59th Assembly Minutes, 1964, page 42). The record shows that the Public Relations Director did much good work in this area.

In 1967 the General Overseer appointed the Public Relations Director to serve also as "Servicemen's Representative." Since that time this position has continued in conjunction with some other appointment. Since 1983, the title has been Military Service Representative.

While we desire that all our members be ministered to wherever they are, the direct responsibility for ministering still rests upon the local church. With the comparatively small number of members in military service who are currently being ministered to through our Military Service Department, it does not seem feasible that this department be continued. Its discontinuance should not affect our chaplaincy program, since an endorsing agency can be maintained for them. We appreciate all the good work that has been rendered by those who have served in this department.

CONCLUSION

This has been a historic year. Who among us would have thought while gathered here a year ago that within twelve months the Berlin Wall would be down, with the reunification of Germany virtually guaranteed? Would we have dared dream that the nations of Eastern Europe by now would have had free elections with democratic governments installed. Events have transpired with such rapidity that we must know for certain that the hand of the Lord has been much involved. Our minds have been drawn to the scripture which declares, "The king's heart is in the hand of the Lord, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will" (Proverbs 21:1).

God who foresees the end from the beginning moves sovereignly at His own pace to fulfill all He has purposed from the foundation of the world. What a privilege it is to be allied with Him during this time of the consummation of His will in all things.

Also, this year was marked by a leadership change in the Church. Our esteemed General Overseer who served faithfully for more than forty-six years felt it necessary because of failing health to vacate his office. In his spirit he was willing to continue, but the truth of 2 Corinthians 4:7 became increasingly apparent where Paul wrote, "But we have this treasure in earthen vessels . . ." We all were saddened to see the decline in Brother Tomlinson's physical strength during the past few years, but we are thankful for the special help God gave him when time for the Assembly would roll around. It surely was supernatural for a man in his eighties to have the physical endurance for the heavy load of moderating an Assembly for such long hours as he devoted to this responsibility. We stood amazed at what we saw the Lord doing in our leader.

Some thought there would never be another General Overseer, that Brother Tomlinson would serve until the rapture, but our perception is often limited. God foresaw the events of 1990 very clearly from the beginning. His foreknowledge precludes any surprises for Him. So, on April 30, 1990, Bishop M. A. Tomlinson made the decision to declare the office vacant so that the State and National Overseers whom he had invited to come together could select a General Overseer to serve till the Assembly. That selection was made early in the morning on May 2.

On that day it was pointed out that while we had experienced a changing of leadership, there had been no change in Headship. Jesus Christ is and shall always be the Head of the Church. It is His purchase, paid for by His own blood and He has the full rights of ownership. None of us is in anyway involved in ownership. Our business is stewardship, and we want to be good stewards of all that He has put in our trust.

What an honor it is that we humans have been divinely entrusted. At the same time it is awesome that mortals have been given a trust that extends into that which is heavenly. There is a sense in which we are stewards of our own souls, God being unwilling to override our wills, insisting that we have freedom of choice in this important matter of choosing to accept or reject His ownership.

Another sacred trust we have received is the stewardship of the gospel. Paul wrote, "According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust" (1 Timothy 1:11). This was something which Paul did not take lightly, and his faithfulness produced a harvest of souls. To the Galatians he wrote, "... the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter; (for he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)" (Galatians 2:7, 8).

The gospel of the circumcision and the gospel of the uncircumcision were not two different gospels, for indeed, there is only one gospel and it is the good news that God offers to all mankind redemption through His Son. Wherever those men are—whatever nationality, race or culture—the gospel is for them. O let us take seriously this sacred trust we have received!

If there was a universal plague which all men everywhere had contracted which meant certain death to all affected and God had placed in our hands the sure antidote—the miraculous cure for all those who apart from this medicine we had received were destined to a certain death, we would feel impelled to reach everyone possible as soon as we could.

Worse than leprosy, worse than cancer, worse than AIDS is the malady affecting the entire human race—the malady that God calls SIN. It means certain death and everlasting torment to all its victims, and a merciful God has committed to our trust the sure cure. It is the gospel—the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth.

How sad it is when people are dying, to be lost forever, and we have that which will save them, yet in our indifference and unconcern we fail to get it to them. Will God hold us guiltless? After all, He has no other plan. O that we could view this scene of lost men and women, boys and girls, as it really is!

We must become more aggressive. We are engaged in combat—a war of liberation for a world held captive by Satan. Unless they are set free they will be lost forever. Christ intends for His Church to be a militant force, assaulting the gates of hell, delivering captives. It is a force against which the gates of hell shall not prevail. These gates must fall, giving way to the release of thousands, yes, millions of sin's prisoners. Shall we stand now and sing together the song that is included near the back of your Assembly program, "Stand Up For Jesus." We are soldiers of the Cross. Marching with our great Commander, there is victory ahead!

12:10 Larry Duncan led congregation in singing "Stand Up For Jesus." Adjourned with prayer for requests.

Friday Afternoon

1:30 Worship led by Robert and Joyce Murkerson.

1:58 Military Service Program directed by Bobby R. Snow, Representative. Congregation joined in prayer for God to bless all nations involved in the Persian Gulf conflict. Military personnel and their families were seated on the platform. Brother Snow read names of each of our chaplains and told where they are stationed. Ron Hamm led in singing By My Spirit Saith The Lord while a final offering for the Military Service Department was received. Expenses for the department will be paid and all remaining funds will go into the Swordsmen Corps Scholarship fund at Tomlinson College. Brother Snow introduced chaplains present and other personnel. Areas of endorsed chaplaincy: Military, Veterans Administration, National Guard and the CAP, which is an auxiliary of the Air Force. Other areas of chaplaincy: hospital, prison, correctional institutions and industrial.

2:20 Tom Glisson, Director of Pastoral Care and chaplain in LaGrange, IL, near Chicago, told about his work: He is a counselor and pastoral care giver to the staff and the families of patients. Most of his ministry is in times of crisis. He is part of a team which responds to emergency situations, does presurgery visits, and is often called to visit with patients who are diagnosed with terminal illnesses.

2:25 Dean Yancey, prison chaplain, told of his work: He is in essence a pastor in the prison and most of his work is counseling—family, inmates and the staff. He coordinates more than two hundred volunteers and the religious program in the prison. He has a religious service every night where he is, preaches every Sunday morning in prison and has a Bible study there every Saturday. He feels that in these last days one of the greatest revivals is going to be with the homeless and in prisons. He had a revival this year with 27 saved, 13 sanctified and 12 filled with the Holy Ghost.

2:30 Jerry Moates, military chaplain, told of help needed for our soldiers in Saudi Arabia. He stressed the need of prayer and to send care packages. In an emergency, the Red Cross could be contacted.

2:35 Melvin Johnson sang a song which he composed Little Shepherd Boy.

2:40 Douglas Stephenson, military chaplain, had Assembly to recognize Brother Snow for his thirteen years as Military Service Representative. Brother Stephenson reported on the retreat in Berchtesgaden, Germany. J. Wendell Lowe and wife were guest participants. Brother Snow told of the retreat in Okinawa coordinated by Dallas Morris.

2:48 Pastoral Care Department Program moderated by J. E. Brisson, Director. Theme: Ministering to Persons at the Point of Their Need. Brother Brisson explained that the Church has been without the visible presence of Jesus Christ for almost two thousand years. Before our Lord ascended, He left the ministry of meeting needs in the hands of the Body of Christ. Paul Williamson led congregation in singing Rescue the Perishing.

2:58 Rufus R. Rogers prayed a pastoral care prayer, followed by a concert prayer. Brother Brisson explained why the department is called Pastoral Care. He read Philippians 4:14, 15. There are three levels of communication in the Bible—the preached gospel, teaching and putting into practice what we have heard. He read 1 John 3:17, 18.

3:07 Shirley Ball—She was led to an erring member. The member said, "Nobody cares. Where were they when I needed them?" When pastoral care functions as the Holy Ghost desires, the Church of God will meet the needs of hurting people. Pastoral care is explained in Luke 15:4, 8. She mentioned the prodigal son. To love and care is the basis of godliness. Let it not be said again that nobody cared. Let us as servants of Christ show that we care by reaching out to our discouraged and backslidden people and restoring them.

3:12 Brother Brisson shared a portion of a letter from a backslidden minister who told of no one communicating with him and trying to help him. Brother Brisson asked the Assembly to pray for this minister.

3:18 Testimony by Foster Bell. "I thank God for the Church and for the pastoral care that I found from every rank of the ministry. Because of the pastoral care that was really genuine, my family has survived. God has helped us and given me opportunity to serve Him again and to reach out to others. When Jonah failed God and got out of His will, the Lord had a great big slimy fish for him, but I thank God that He had a loving, gracious church to catch my family and to support us."

3:25 Love offering was received for the General Overseer as musicians played. Williamson Trio sang Mending Broken People.

3:40 Brother Brisson told of the possibility of using counselors in the Church to train others. These counselors came forward:

John McClure has a Doctorate in Counseling Psychology and he works in Tennessee.

Dean Chatham is a Certified Chaplain in the College of Chaplains and holds the Master of Arts and Divinity Degrees. She is currently serving in the Memorial Hospital, Chattanooga, TN.

M. E. Barnett holds the Master of Arts Degree in Community Counseling and a doctor's degree in Counselor Education. He is pastoring the church in Cottdale, AL.

Yvonne Lowe has a masters' degree in Marriage and Family Counseling. She basically works with the laity in individual counseling.

J. Wendell Lowe has a masters' degree in Marriage and Family Therapy. He has been in sixteen states and three countries.

3:36 A Fellowship of Suffering—message by Director. (This message was printed in the November 24, 1990 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be obtained on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

4:30 Music Department Program directed by Ronald M. Scotton, Sr. These groups sang: Upon This Rock and I Can Do All Things Through Christ—Teen Talent Academy Choir; Ernest Minns told about the General Music Festival which convened in Nassau, Bahamas.

Assembly Mass Choir sang: Give God The Glory, He's Been Faithful, Daystar, One Less Stone, I Bowed On My Knees And Cried Holy, All I Want Is You Lord and Right Now Is The Right Time.

5:30 Adjourned.

Friday Evening

6:30 Evangelism/Home Mission Program moderated by Verlin D. Thornton, Director. Comments by Director, and Greg Stephens led congregation in singing choruses and prayer. Brother Thornton announced that the prayer cloths had been anointed by our senior ministers in Cleveland and he led the congregation in praying over the cloths again. Ushers distributed cloths to the congregation. Brother Thornton introduced the national evangelists.

Director announced dates and places of Sharing Eternal Life Clinics. Reports received from twenty-three churches who are involved in the Sharing Eternal Life ministry show that 266 people have been saved this year in personal evangelism. A. B. White, CA, told of a church being organized in a prison with the pastor being an inmate. Twenty-one churches have been organized in the U.S. this year.

Brother Thornton spoke briefly to encourage our faith that God will heal. Read Matthew 8:1-3; 9:18; 15:21-25; Mark 5:6; Acts 4:24-32. In all instances, they worshipped the Lord. Mighty prayer for the Lord to heal. Greg Stephens, Peggy Burton Bell and Jonathan Dukes led in singing choruses of praise. Cleveland (Keith St.) Sanctuary Choir sang. Solo by Glen Varlack. We worshipped and praised the Lord.

7:30 Offering was received for National Evangelists as these sang: Morris C. Jackson and the Bill Clark Family. Brother Thornton asked all who had come here for healing, to reach up and take hold of God's hand. Song by Keith Street Sanctuary Choir.

7:55 Testimony of healing by Felix R. Garcia.

8:07 Curtis Flippo told of God giving great results in his prison ministry. In their services last year, there were 976 saved, 318 sanctified and 318 received the Holy Ghost.

8:18 Prayer Time for Divine Healing. Music by Garnet Craig and Morris Jackson as those who needed healing stood. Those near them laid hands on them. Many were healed. Singing by Ron Scotton. Brother Thornton called Harry and Helen Lambert with son Matthew who has had a difficult time from birth. He is not completely well but God has helped and all prayed for Matthew. Freddie told of the condition of his son Joshua and all joined in prayer. Song by Grace Willis.

9:05 Altar call by Verlin Thornton. Altar music arranged by Ron Scotton.

SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 18

Morning

9:00 Worship directed by Lesmon and Viola Graham.

9:30 General Overseer led congregation in prayer.

9:33 Victory Leaders Band Program directed by William M. Wilson, General Secretary. Theme: JESUS, LORD OF ALL! Bahama Brass Band played as approximately 5,000 Victory Leaders marched into the auditorium carrying banners and signs depicting names of their states/nations and manifesting zeal for the Lord. Comments by the General Secretary.

Pam Jones read Philippians 2:8-11. Todd Bagley read poem, He's Lord of All. These scriptures were read: 1 Chronicles 16:23-25, Isaiah 12:6.

10:03 Davis Family, OK, led congregation in worshipping the Lord in songs. Members of the family read: Proverbs 18:10 and Revelation 11:15, 16.

10:27 Lyndon Johnson spoke about the Harvest in NC: This year 42 churches out of 190 participated in the Harvest: 246 saved, 155 sanctified and 95 received the Holy Ghost. We have the responsibility of harvesting this generation for Christ. We who have said, "Here am I, Lord, send me," must possess the same spirit that motivated our Saviour to declare, "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few." We do not need man-made programs to touch this generation; we must go in the power of the Holy Ghost and declare to them that today is the day of salvation and deliverance.

John Newson spoke on Harvest Time: I went last June on a Youth Mission Team to East Germany. We enjoyed ministering in West Germany and then we went to East Germany and shared the gospel where we witnessed to approximately three hundred people. We did this in city markets by pantomimes. We sang in German and witnessed personally to people on the streets. The Lutheran Youth Pastor joined in with us in our ministry and invited us to go to church that night. The Holy Ghost fell in a sweet way.

The Holy Ghost message has been declared in Leupzig, East Germany for over forty years. The freedom movement in East Germany came about in large part because of this local Lutheran church. We all heard about the freedom protest in Leupzig where over fifty thousand people demonstrated in the same area where we ministered. It started with prayers in that church and it spread to Berlin and turned into protest and the walls came down. I realize that the harvest is ready NOW. Young people, I challenge you to learn foreign languages. God wants young people to help Him reap the harvest. (Brother Wilson told of the team bringing him a part of the Berlin Wall.)

10:45 Brother Wilson introduced Youth Harvest '91: God is blessing young people and touching them. By the grace of God, we are going to win them to Jesus Christ. The theme this year will be Jesus, Lord of All. It is up to you and the Lord as to how many times you want to push your plate back, how many closets you are willing to fill with your prayers and how many days you are willing to go out on the streets with the gospel. It is up to us to respond to the Lord and reap what God is doing in this generation of youth.

The General Secretary boosted the youth magazine Victory. It is a new day in the Church of God. I believe there is going to be a renewed emphasis on all of our working together. All the walls that have kept us apart are going to come tumbling down.

10:50 Victory Chapel Offering. Offering was received for buying material for building a chapel at Tomlinson College. Solo by Amanda Chatham. Singing by 1990 IYC Choir directed by Ron Scotton. (General Secretary announced that we celebrated forty years of camping ministry in the Church.)

11:10 Solo by David Baroni. Prayer by all.

11:15 Jesus, Lord of the Nineties—message by William M. Wilson. (This message was printed in the November 10, 1990 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be obtained on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

12:09 Commitment Time. David Baroni sang as Brother Wilson gave altar call.

12:30 Adjourned

Saturday Afternoon

1:30 Worship directed by James and Lavon Stone.

2:00 Message by Daniel Felipe. The theme for this message is "All the Moments of Transition Generate Crisis. "God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions" (Ecclesiastes 7:29). Solomon was relating that man was to look for and to cross new frontiers. God put within him the ability to transform, to invent things; but he never gave man the ability to create. The word "create" speaks of bringing into being that which does not exist. This is attested to by the words of Solomon when he said, "There is nothing new under the sun."

We have preached perfection, that we are going to reach perfection before Christ comes the second time. This is going to happen. There is nothing that is going to impede the perfection of the saints in Christ Jesus. Jesus said, "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect" (Matthew 5:48). There is power in the Word of God. We want the Living Word—He is the One who transforms, who fills, One who gives life.

There are many things that we are considering in this historic time. Humanity is making continuous progress and the Church cannot lie down and keep on dreaming. Neither can we imitate and try to be the same as the evolution of the world. Jesus did not submit himself to imitate what was occurring at Rome. He knew that He had been sent as King of kings and Lord of lords, and when He presented himself unto the Jews, He presented himself in a humble manner. Because He was so simple, the people did not believe that He was the Christ of eternal life.

We are the Body of Christ, and we must continue in the Word, in the Christ who said that the gates of hell could not prevail against the Church. The nation of Israel was called of God as His special people, as a holy nation, as a priesthood and lineage of God. For them to possess these qualities God presented them with an objective: "You will be my chosen people if you will keep my Word." He is not a God just of ideals. He is a God involved in action. This is why He said to the children of Israel, "If you keep my Word, you will be my real priesthood, my chosen people, a chosen generation."

Israel failed to abide by this covenant. They began to share their life with the Philistines and the Moabites. They would not live within the limits that God had given them. When they began to mix with the pagan world, they always turned their backs toward God, and this brought them sure consequences. God took away from them the privilege of being the holy nation. And this is the reason that we now exist as the spiritual Israel.

We, the Church of God, have received of God a special calling to be the Body of Christ, but this cannot come about only by public relations. When Christ came and chose whom He wanted, He taught them, He trained them. On one occasion, He asked them, "Whom do men say that I am?" Then He asked "But whom say ye that I am?" Peter said in behalf of all the group, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God." Christ said,

"Blessed art thou, Peter, son of Jonas. This was not revealed unto thee by flesh and blood, but by my Father which is in heaven." It was for that reason that Christ said, "Even as you know who I am, and I know who you are; upon this rock (and additionally, because my Father revealed this unto you), I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

Church of God, we did not come to Christ, Christ came to us and established us so we could do His will and not our will. Old things are passed away, and all things have become new. The law with its rituals was fulfilled by Christ Jesus. And this He did because Israel did not know how to interpret the will of God in the law. Christ came and, in himself, fulfilled the law. Blessed brethren, the Church of God, that pertinent part of her, is not just the group of people that compose it. Christ prayed, "Father, the Word that thou hast given me, I have given them." It is not just the group of persons that makes the Church of God; it is keeping the Word that Christ has given her. God help us!

2:45 White Wing Publishing House Program directed by Henry O'Neal, Business Manager. (A printing press was used as the pulpit.) Prayer by Gene Dasher, Accountant.

2:53 Song by Keith Street Men's Quartet.

2:56 Sunday School literature time by Editor J. C. Cagle. (Full report given elsewhere.) Comments by Business Manager.

3:20 Merchandise Department time—Louis Sullivan, Manager. He introduced authors and told of new books printed this year.

3:32 "One Day At a Time"—song by Francisco Lopez.

3:36 World Literature Outreach:

Brazil—Daniel Felipe: I want to tell you what is happening in Brazil because of the literature that God has given us in the Portuguese language. I would like to express my appreciation to all who have helped us to have this literature. In 1989, a Baptist pastor came to my office and I showed him our Sunday School Literature. He asked for some and I gave it to him. The next quarter he came back for more and I let him pay for it. They used the literature a year. Then he attended BTI and became a member of the Church, bringing fifteen of his Baptist members with him. Today we have sixty-one members there and they have their own building.

Benin and Burkina Faso—Eric Tandoh Sipi: Don't count on the wisdom of man, but count on the power of God. You can't sleep well if you have a bad house. So I went to Benin with a little money. I have finished a chamber and a hall for the pastor; the national treasurer's office, an office for myself and one for the secretary, and a conference hall. I have a room for myself and everything is covered. I needed money to put the doors, windows and floors in. Brother O'Neal said to me after I arrived, "Brother, I have 3,000 pounds and I want you to finish that building."

3:53 Song by Keith Street Men's Quartet.

Mexico—Ruben Carmona: I appreciate the Lord and the opportunity to share with you what the literature is doing in some of the Latin countries. Many independent religious organizations don't have any literature and they are seeking to get it. This year a man found one of our Important Bible Truths tracts and said that they coincided with the spiritual experiences he had had. He shared it with three other ministers and this year the overseer in that area reported the four ministers joined the Church of God. The Holy Ghost in this Assembly has been urging us to share the gospel of Jesus Christ. We have a beautiful instrument in the literature of the Church. Let us share the gospel and God will take care of the work.

Guatemala—Jorge Marrero: The Church of God in these last days has a great task. The Lord is coming soon, and we must increase the speed of the work of the Church. Literature is a great tool. The conflict in Central America causes the Church to have many problems receiving literature. We have been producing literature in Guatemala the last four years. Not long ago we had a shipment of literature to take to El Salvador. We met Overseer David Linares at the border. While we were unloading the literature a guard came over and asked us what we were doing. He told us to go into the customs office and I distributed tracts there. I told him I didn't know you needed a license to export the gospel to evangelize people. This literature goes to El Salvador, don't you know that people are killing each other because they don't know God? Why don't you help us evangelize these people? They let us load up our literature and get out. We are getting ready to build a printing facility in Guatemala for printing literature for all of Central America.

Peru—Erasmus Fabian: Financially, we are in a lot of trouble; but spiritually we are rejoicing serving the Lord. Literature work started in Peru in 1987. I talked to the owners of a printing company to print our Sunday School literature and today they are believers of the gospel. We are trying to reach our people with our literature. The need is greater than we are producing. We share the literature with Ecuador and Bolivia. I made contact with a lady who wants to sell some property and will reduce the price if it is for the work of God. We need a print shop in Peru. Help us with your prayers and remember the work in South America.

Roger Justiniano, White Wing Publishing Manager in the Philippines—This is the first Assembly that I have attended and it is a great honor for me. Our brothers and sisters in the Philippines want me to greet you in the name of the Lord. Thank God for everything He has done for me. I feel like a candle being melted by the power of the Holy Ghost. (Quoted Mark 13:10). God is using every means to reach the world and He is blessing us through His literature. All of our ministry needs literature. There are many young people in the Philippines sharing literature in a park. After several days, somebody came to our church and said, "I found this tract lying on the ground." When he read the tract, the Lord touched his heart and he was saved. In the Philippines communism is spreading. One sister worked in a factory and they called a meeting of the labor union but it was a communist meeting. Soldiers came in and raided the place and took everyone to the military camp. They looked to see what these laborers possessed in their bags. Our sister had a Bible and they told her to go home. The Lord is doing His part. Are we doing our part?

Barry Lee, pastor in Bismarck, ND—We began a refugee ministry in 1989. Brother Elwood Matthews asked me to go on the trip to Russia. Harry Myers in Ohio found an old tract of the Twenty-Nine Important Bible Truths. I duplicated the tract for our refugees and I took some with me and put one in each Bible that was given away in Russia. In Leningrad, the Lord led me to a pastor named D. L. Shotroff. I gave him this tract and he read it. He invited me back the next evening for a prayer meeting in his home. Marvin Scheurer went to the meeting and sang. Brother Shotroff asked me to preach.

I took slides and pictures and showed these at a retreat in Minnesota. Businessman Warren Lemooskow saw these and God touched him to give the Church a printing press to go to Russia. Brother O'Neal said we could send a larger printing press. John Doroshuk came to our state convention and taught refugees. One of them pastored a church for nineteen years in the Soviet Union and he asked that the printing equipment be sent to Moscow to his friends who worshipped with him and he will introduce the Church to his contacts. This is a miracle.

John Doroshuk, Overseer of Western Canada—We don't give a lot of thought to things involved with printing, but they become the tool. God is opening the door through printing for us to make many contacts in the Soviet Union. We don't want to just take a press over there, but we want it to make a difference. We are running out of time.

Felix R. Garcia—Very soon we will have tracts in the Russian language. (Congregation stood and praised the Lord for the offering given during the World Language Program Tuesday evening.)

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE REPORT

INTRODUCTION

We would like to express our love and deepest appreciation to our beloved General Overseer Emeritus, Bishop Milton A. Tomlinson for his forty-six (46) years of committed and dedicated service to the Church of God. Brother Tomlinson, our prayers are that you and Sister Tomlinson will continue to enjoy the loving care of God.

We would also like to express our gratitude to God for the Divine Intervention He made into our midst Monday afternoon, August 13, in the selection of our General Overseer, Bishop Billy D. Murray.

SECTION 1

MINISTERIAL AID

The Ways and Means Committee would like to express our deep appreciation for those individuals who have served faithfully through the years in the Ministerial Aid Department.

We would especially like to commend the present director, Roy D. Mixon, for his untiring efforts on behalf of the Ministerial Aid recipients.

The record shows that in 1945 the annual disbursement for Ministerial Aid was $15,474.96. June 1990, the annual disbursement amounted to $1,651,104.72.

In view of this large and ever-growing annual disbursement it is evident that within a few years the Ministerial Aid Department will not be functional in its present format.

We therefore recommend that the Administrative Committee and Ways and Means Committee, jointly, be given authority by this Assembly to explore and implement funding from external sources, apart from the present source of funding.

SECTION 2

MINISTERIAL AID ALLOTMENTS

In the General Assembly, 1941, the General Overseer was authorized to appoint a Ministerial Aid Committee, to set up a Department that would administer the Ministerial Aid Funds and also give direction to the appointed Director.

The Committee, through the Ministerial Aid Department Director, Roy D. Mixon, has asked us to bring this recommendation to this Assembly. This recommendation involves no change in funds, but the statement is needed to cover a technical point in satisfying the Internal Revenue Service for tax exemption purpose.

Therefore, we recommend that the allotment received by the retired ministers be designated as a "Housing and Utilities Gift of Appreciation."

SECTION 3

SURPLUS TITHES

We would like to acknowledge those of you who have shared your suggestions regarding the distribution of the Surplus Tithes.

As we explore the various aspects of any change in our present process, we recognize the complex process of funding the ministries in all areas: Local Church, State Office and General Headquarters. We also feel our new General Overseer will need some time to consider adjustments that will be necessary with any change in funding.

We covet your prayers as we continue to study the distribution of Surplus Tithes. By the help of the Lord, we will have a recommendation for the General Assembly next year.

SECTION 4

PILOT PROGRAM UPDATE

We would like to express our appreciation to the State Overseers, Wayne Allen, Barney Trogon and Eugene Johnson for their efforts in the Pilot Program; also, to the pastors and local churches in Wisconsin, New York and North Carolina, respectively.

The State Overseers implemented the program at the beginning of this past convention year (1989-1990).

And we feel we are going the right direction in the change of methods the program involves. Their evaluation thus far is positive. However, all three Overseers agree that we need more time before bringing a recommendation to the Assembly.

After consulting with the World Mission Secretary, the National Overseer of Panama, Brother Armando Dorantes, has been selected to serve as a participant in the Pilot Program.

A more detailed report will be brought to the 86th Assembly.

SECTION 5

CHILDREN'S CHURCH AND GLEANER OFFERINGS CLARIFICATION

The 1988 General Assembly created a complete Children's Ministries Department at the General Headquarters. In view of the confusion which remains regarding the role of the Gleaner offering, it seems necessary to clarify the situation. Monies raised for the Gleaner fund will continue to be used as in the past. That is, money raised after the General Assembly up until the State or National Convention will be used for the Free Literature Offering. Monies raised in the time remaining between the State or National Convention and the General Assembly will go into the World Literature Outreach Fund. Although the Gleaner Offering continues to eventually join the Victory Leaders Offering in these efforts, the money raised by Gleaners must be handed in and reported separately. Therefore, it is the responsibility of the local director of Children's Ministries to report the Gleaner Offering in the report book provided by the International Children's Ministries Department. It is necessary, also, that local treasurers and state/national treasurers clearly distinguish monies raised by Gleaners through the Children's Ministries Department. Local Children's Ministries have complete discretion with the monies raised in Children's Church or any specialized campaign.

SECTION 6

APPRECIATION

Our appreciation to you who have written us with questions and suggestions regarding the work of this committee.

Please pray for us as we continue to seek God for a better way to be good stewards of God's resources. God bless.

Respectfully submitted,

A. J. COALTER, Chairman

6:46 Responsive Scripture reading by Executive Council and Student Body.

6:50 Congregational singing led by Larry Duncan. Prayer led by President Gillum.

6:55 State of the College by Brother Gillum. The faculty and staff of TC have as their ultimate goal the exaltation of Jesus Christ at the center of all of our college campus. This is the central issue of why we exist.

Today the youth of the Church marched into this Tabernacle. Our Victory Leaders Secretary presented to me a check for the college chapel project. I appreciate this check and the challenge to the Victory Leaders of the Church. (Brother Gillum pointed out a contractor who is going to build the chapel free and he told of others who will do special projects for the chapel.)

7:00 Melvin Hyatt, Vice President spoke: We have made a commitment to involve our students in active ministry because when a person finishes TC, we want him or her to have had the opportunity to know more than what he can learn in a classroom. We have an active student ministry program. Soldiers Under Construction is our children's ministry. More than seventy-five children were saved in their work this year. We are involved in the In-Touch Ministry. Our students pray together and study the Word of God. We have a Prayer Force. Our Ministerial Fellowship

Association and Home Teams have been actively engaged in reaching off the campus—ministering in local churches, revivals, witnessing teams. We require our ministerial students to be involved in student ministries. We have been actively engaged in the SEL Program. It is better to do something than to talk about something. We registered over two hundred experiences this year as a direct result of our students working for the Lord off our campus.

7:05 Larry Duncan, Vice President: We were bringing our ministerial students to our campus for two years and then sending them to receive the rest of their education in other schools. God put it in our hearts that they should have all four years of their training at TC. This past May, we graduated our first class of seniors with bachelor's degrees in ministry. (Read portion of letter from the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools stating that TC is accredited.) Our Continuing Education Department has joined with the World Mission Committee in an effort to provide a greater level of leadership training in Central and South America. We are going in our first schools this Fall—Guatemala City and Lima, Peru. There are possibilities of our going into Europe and other areas.

7:10 James Wallace, Director of Continuing Education: This year we have 192 external studies students, 184 extension site students and 415 seminar students. We are happy about the one-year Religious Study Certificate that may be earned through independent study. We are introducing a Spanish program whereby our Spanish members can take external studies and work toward a religious study certificate. We are happy that God is helping us to walk through open doors. We want to serve the needs of the Church of God.

7:15 Charles Shirley, Director of Institutional Advancement and Scholarship: We are excited about what is happening with the chapel. Recently we completed our new student plaza through donated funds. The married students' housing has been increased, we have changed from electricity to gas. We are excited about what is happening on the campus. This year TC will enter into intercollegiate play for the first time.

7:21 Oswill Williams, Overseer of England: In October, 1988, we met with seventy-three of our ministers to participate in the TC program. Hector Ortiz, James Wallace and Steve Parker helped us in England. We ministers cannot afford to be yesterday's men. A program that we engage in requires that we are God's man of the day—not of yesterday. I feel that TC and the initiative that we have taken is helping us in England to stay abreast of some of these developments. We feel that the Lord is helping us to equip ourselves more readily for the task He has for us in Europe. We are grateful for TC and that they are not just a campus program but that the Lord has given them the vision that we who are not in the United States have a part to play in continuing education.

7:26 Ray Payne, Overseer of Kentucky: March 9, 10, of this year, we had our first Tomlinson College Biblical Studies Seminar. Three teachers from TC expounded the Scriptures. God blessed in these classes and we are praying for your continued success, TC.

7:32 Tomlinson College Chorale sang, led by Larry Duncan. Closing remarks by Brother Gillum. He thanked all who had contributed in any way to help build the college and beautify the campus. He acknowledged the TC Board of Trustees.

7:45 General Overseer led the congregation in prayer for family members who have gone to Saudi Arabia.

7:52 Voice of Salvation Program directed by Elwood Matthews, Communications Minister. Theme: Let Us Worship the Lord in Thanksgiving—in Praise—in Singing. Psalm 95 read by David Sanchez; Psalm 150 read by David Taylor; Acts 16 read by Fritz Brown. Brother Matthews led congregation in prayer.

7:59 Singing and worship led by Joe and Evelyn Bathe. Brother Bathe read Psalm 67.

8:05 Comments by Gary Linkous telling of the VOS being an asset to his local church. Richard Davis, Overseer of Eastern Canada, spoke about the trip to Russia. Brother Matthews made further comments about the Russian trip. He presented a check for $20,000 to Overseer Chris Stathis to help with the work in Greece.

8:47 Offering for Voice of Salvation Outreach as these sang: Sounds of Praise, AL; Voice of Salvation Quartet; Roberta Matthews, backed by Keith Street Choir.

9:10 River of Life—message and altar invitation by Elwood Matthews, Voice of Salvation Minister. (This message was printed in the October 27, 1990 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be obtained on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.) Altar music arranged by Ron Scotton.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 19

Morning

8:45 Worship directed by Chris and Gail Stathis.

9:15 Jonah, Arise and Go—message by Shelia Murphree. The Bible bears out to us that one of the best ways to learn about the present and the future is to look to the past. When Christ referred to Nineveh and the prophet Jonah in Matthew 12:39-41, this was an account with which the Jews were well acquainted.

First, I want us to take note of Jonah's name and the name of his father. Jonah signified "the dove." By this, we find not only in the book of Jonah a historical account but also a scriptural account of "the dove" who was born of "the truth to God." We can quickly recognize that scriptural names are often commemorative and even predictive. The Old Testament Church, Israel, identified themselves with a God-bestowed endearment of the dove. God said to Israel, "My dove, my undefiled is but one" (Songs of Solomon 6:9).

The Holy Ghost leads us to ascertain that the Church today identifies with this endearment as well and makes application of the Song of Solomon as Christ's love letter to her, the Church of God. There are many such parallels that may be drawn between the Old Testament Church and the Church of God today. With this in mind, let's proceed in this analogy with the dove as commemorating Israel and the dove as being predictive of the Church. In doing so, we must not limit our perception of the book of Jonah as just a warning or a lesson to Israel, but also to the Church of God. What we find here is Jonah the son of Amatti, or we might say "the dove" born of "the truth of God" being divinely chosen, appointed and commissioned by God to go to lost Nineveh. Until this time Jonah had been preaching in Israel a popular message of victorious overcoming. This positive message enhanced Jonah's popularity. Consequently, God's command to go to Nineveh, Israel's oppressor, was anything but sweet to Jonah's ears. Nineveh was the last place an Israelite would desire to go and take the message of God. Jonah may have reflected that if Nineveh perished at God's hand, Israel's exclusively elite, God-chosen, status would remain all the more secure and uncompromised. Therefore, Jonah's reaction was simply to evade the commission of God and he took it so far as to attempt to flee God's presence. He seems to have reasoned that if Nineveh perished Israel was sure to abound.

It was evident that Jonah's aloof allegiance to Israel had come to outweigh his regard for God's will and plan. However, he soon found out that he could not simply put off God's appointment, even for the sake of his devoted ideals regarding Israel. Jonah's neglect toward following God's directive was only delaying what God had established before the world began.

We have already established our identity and the parallels of this analogy, that we likewise have been commissioned by God to go to the lost of this world. Like Jonah, some would rather remain in the comfort zone of their own rank and preach a popular ear-tickling message that more readily enhances personal popularity than step beyond the comfort zone and go to the regions beyond. O Zion, O dove, it is time to get out of the easy chair. Too many consider it to be altogether too uncomfortable to leave secure areas of contentment to actively fulfill Christ's commission. Contrary to this contemporary mode of thinking the fact remains that Christ has commissioned His "dove" to arise and go to Nineveh.

As it was with Jonah, our actions may be an indictment against us. We must not allow our opinion of who we are to become so exalted that we perceive ourselves as having a monopoly on the affections and attentions of God. It would be sad to think that some through pious patriotism would lay down their lives for the Church while finding it too uncomfortable to go out of their way to reach someone who is lost and dying without God. Such actions would clearly portray the message of a separation of Christ and the Church.

If we preach one message and do another, something is wrong. If we preach the message of the Body of Christ with Christ as the Head, then we must actively portray that message. As "the dove" arises this side of the Dark Ages, we carry the weight and obligation of Christ's command to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. As with Jonah, to evade this command, whether by premeditated disobedience or simple apathetic unconcern is a hindrance to God's will. This is a weighty matter. We must ask ourselves if we are not jeopardizing our covenant-relationship with Christ if we continue in this evasive way. It is time we seriously examine ourselves in light of Christ's commission. He came to seek and save that which was lost. Therefore, the message of His Body today must be the same message of love.

Jonah did respond to God's command to "arise and go." He arose and then went in the opposite direction. It wasn't God's intention to force Jonah to obey; therefore, He didn't offer any obstacles to obstruct Jonah's self-selected route. It may have appeared to Jonah that the circumstances seemed to favor his detour. Arriving in Joppa easily enough, he conveniently paid the fare and boarded a ship headed for Tarsus.

Yes, we have arisen; however, like Jonah, our attention in times past has been drawn to other matters. Our human priorities have sent us upon some self-selected routes. While on these detours, we just haven't quite gotten around to the "shine" yet. We've arisen, but we still need to work on the "shine." We must remember the Church's capacity to shine comes only through the reflected glory of Jesus Christ. Illumination made of men's volition is simply darkness. I am not preaching doomsday. We are still being blessed. God's hand is still upon us. We are still His children; however, let us remember the pleasant circumstances were exactly what Jonah first met. Neither will Christ force us to go His way; however, we must not misconstrue pleasant circumstances as God's approval. God's voice has been heard.

After boarding the ship enroute to Tarsus, a violent storm sent a divine warning to Jonah; however, we know that it had little effect. Jonah was fast asleep and something was abnormally wrong here. Church of God, God has sent us wave after wave of divine warning, while we seem to be practically oblivious to any impending danger. All indications point out that something has been wrong. God winked at the ignorance of one dispensation, but He is holding us responsible and accountable for our knowledge of the truth. How much longer will God tolerate our apathy toward His Son's commission?

Following this, the shipmaster approached sleeping Jonah with these words, "What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God." Does this mean that Jonah was reproved by an outsider? I don't imagine it would have been too hard for anyone to notice the strangeness of a man sleeping through a life-threatening storm. Church, there's a storm going on all around us. The signs of the time are pressing like waves of a stormy sea all around us. We must not as Jonah continue to sleep on through the storm. Throughout history God has repeatedly brought a spiritual awareness by sounding an alarm of hardship or trouble. If the Holy Ghost has not affected us as He sounds the alarm in our midst, then God ultimately will send something from somewhere that will awaken us.

They decided to cast lots to find out who was responsible for the great tempest, and the guilty lot fell upon Jonah. Maybe he felt that if he could hold out long enough the lot would fall to someone else. Today, someone else has not been commissioned to go to Nineveh. We may have avoided our responsibility for a time, but eventually the work shall be done.

At this point Jonah, awakened to a new stage of spiritual progress. He admitted that he had caused the problem and he needed to correct it. Therefore, his response was, "Just throw me overboard and I won't have to worry about it and nobody else will have to worry about it either." As with Jonah, there has been some admittance that conditions are not quite as they should be. There have been programs of intensive intercession for divine intervention, we have also received the Holy Ghost-unctioned call for repentance; yet, there is still no overwhelmingly noticeable change in us. Nor has there come any respite to the ever existing undercurrent of unrest. This is no time to contemplate giving up and jumping overboard. "The dove" is preordained.

In spite of Jonah's wishes, the seamen attempted to row ashore in order to spare Jonah's life, yet they couldn't—the sea was too great for them. In desperation, they threw Jonah overboard and immediately the storm ceased and a great calm prevailed. Three days and three nights, Jonah was enveloped in a great fish. He may have slept while in the boat, but I assure you that God had Jonah's attention now. He was wide awake. In the depths of the sea, with the seaweeds about his head, he realized he was hopelessly lost without God's help.

Reawakened to the reality of God's will, Jonah made a sincere promise, "I will pay that I have vowed." Following repentance, Jonah recovenanted himself to God. Then under divine order, that whale brought Jonah to his appointed destination. The depths of his trouble proved to be his salvation. In spite of Jonah's self-selected detour God had not altered or withdrawn the commission.

Just as Jonah's ministry was assigned to the Ninevites, so the message of Christ's death, burial and resurrection is assigned and entrusted to us. Our message must portray the immeasurable loving story of salvation through Jesus Christ. I can imagine Jonah stepping upon the shore of Nineveh, when for a second time the directive of God renewed the commission, "Jonah, arise and go to Nineveh." This was a command that Jonah learned not to trifle with.

Church, Christ has already called us to "Arise shine" and to "Go ye," but the Holy Ghost is urgently compelling us to make a renewed effort. We are receiving the second call, "Arise, ye and go to your Nineveh." Until recently it has seemed to have little effect on us; however, there is a mighty awakening sweeping through our midst. God is seeking the undivided attention and obedience of those who sincerely desire to please Him. We are pulling off sin's debris as we step on to Nineveh's shore. His will shall be done.

When Jonah arrived in Nineveh, he preached the message that God gave Him. Our message cannot be a compromised one, Church of God. When Jonah finally delivered the message, Nineveh promptly responded and repented. God is bidding us to go. He is still an all-knowing God. He knows just how quickly the work can be done. All He is waiting for is for us to arise and go.

10:00 Women's Missionary Band Program directed by Elva Howard, General Secretary. Theme: Open Doors. Responsvie reading of Psalm 24 led by Jeri Riley as state secretaries and congregation joined in. Evelyn Gardiner led congregational singing. Sister Howard led us in prayer and praise.

10:25 Jenna Allen led in singing "Bind Us Together, Lord."

10:30 Floreth Clarke told of the needs in the mission field where she labors: Mark 16:15; Luke 4:18. I spent the first years of my life in Jamaica where it was easy to witness for God. When I moved to Canada, it was not hard to preach there because the decision was up to them to serve God or not to serve Him.

When we moved to Belgium, it was difficult. In Europe, they have an attitude that they don't need God. I witnessed in Europe and I was blessed. I am more blessed to have the opportunity to move into Africa. I find joy in working for the Lord and seeing the gospel preached to the poor. We preach and teach this every day but it is much better when you see it happening. We moved into Cameroon and took with us clothing and other supplies. Thanks to those who donated for this cause. The money you give in the mission drives is going for a good cause. The poor need our money and our prayers. We need help to teach a teacher how to teach Sunday School, teach a person how to do the Victory Leaders services, teach them how to do things. I would like to challenge you if you can give any time to come and help us train, teach and witness—we need you. We need helpers in Africa to teach, train and to explain the Word of God. Don't sit there and dry up and do nothing. If you can't give, pray; if you can't go, send somebody.

10:40 Offering for Helping Hand Ministry. Organ and piano music by Gloria Hart and JoNell Klapp. Dedicatory prayer by Ina Mae Tomlinson.

10:50 Ladies Retreat Choir led by Mary Nell Adkins, Jenna Allen and Peggy Burton Bell with musicians JoNell Klapp and Gloria Hart. Concert prayer as we prayed and worshipped the Lord.

11:15 Prayer for message by Frank Howard.

11:20 Doors to Open, Doors to Close—message by General Secretary. (This message was printed in the October 27, 1990 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be obtained on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

12:12 Prayer by Oma Lee Murray.

12:25 Report of Counseling Committee

REPORT OF COUNSELING COMMITTEE

In order that the Church may be better informed as to the purpose of this committee, we quote the following from The Church Business Guide, Revised Through 1988 edition, page 75, D. Counseling Committee: 2) The committee meets during the General Assembly for the purpose of counseling with any member or minister who may have an adequate cause to bring before the committee. After the counseling session, the committee will determine whether the matter should be brought to the Questions and Subjects Committee, the Ways and Means Committee, or another Assembly committee. 3) It is advisable that the other established administrative procedures be used where possible before bringing matters to the Counseling Committee.

The Counseling Committee met in four (4) counseling sessions and spent several hours counseling with a number of people.

We appreciate the adequate facilities provided for the Committee's meetings, also, waiting room for those seeking counsel.

All persons presenting subjects to this Committee have been counseled and the subjects have been prayerfully considered, some of which we felt deserved further consideration before being presented to the presbytery or Assembly committees. Other subjects which we felt would be a blessing to the entire body have been passed on to the committees to be disposed of at their discretion.

We wish to commend all those who came before this Committee for the good spirit manifested. We found a great concern among the ministry, a great love for the Church of God and its teachings, and a strong desire to promote the doctrine of the Church instead of ideas and opinions.

The Questions and Subjects Committee, and the Ways and Means Committee are standing committees throughout the year and may be contacted any time on doctrinal questions or anything not clearly understood.

12:29 Report of Watchmen Committee

WATCHMEN COMMITTEE REPORT

Greetings to the Annual General Assembly of the Church of God of Prophecy: We your Watchmen Committee submit the following report: This Committee feels that words cannot express its appreciation for the confidence and trust placed in it by our General Overseer, Emeritus Bishop M. A. Tomlinson. His leadership, strength, wisdom and compassionate guidance to it in the years of expansion and growth of the Church's general assemblies will never be forgotten by us as men of God. We feel deeply honored to have been privileged to serve the Church under his leadership. He has encouraged us in loyalty and spirituality toward God and His Church and we bring forward to our newly chosen General Overseer our commitment to honor and serve faithfully under his leadership in the coming years. The hopes of the Church for great progress under Bishop Billy Murray's leadership seems high and we want to express ourselves to this Assembly that we are servants in hope as well as you. We are in an hour of destiny and desire to stand together as brothers to gain victories for God and His Church. We close this recognition with the Apostle John's admonition, "Let us love one another—For love is of God."

We thank the Lord for the privilege of serving as your Watchmen another year. God has been with us and helped us in every situation we have encountered. Everything brought to the attention of this Committee has been handled in a Godly manner.

We wish to thank all the Special Watchmen for being willing to help us this year. Your service to the Committee is invaluable. May the Lord bless you.

God has surely moved among us in this historic Assembly and we wish to thank each delegate for their Christian attitude and behavior. You have been wonderful.

We feel we are standing at the threshold of great and mighty happenings in the Church of God. We therefore encourage every member of the Church to seek God more as we move so rapidly toward our Lord's soon return.

With world conditions changing daily, it becomes even more important for God's people to draw near to Him, thereby becoming closer to one another. We realize a great need for all of us to "... lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us ..." (Hebrews 12:1) lest we become confused and frustrated. We feel God's admonition in 2 Chronicles 7:14 would apply very well to our present condition, "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sins, and will heal their land."

Let us leave this Assembly with our spirits uplifted and a real determination to be faithful to the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ and the Great Church of God.

May the Lord be with each of you.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE:

H. A. Barclay, Felix Santiago G., Johnny M. Scroggins

1:30 Brother Murray challenged those appointed to love the Lord, love the people. General Headquarters and State Headquarters should be called servant quarters.

1:35 At the sound of the gavel, the General Overseer declared the 85th Business Session General Assembly closed. All stood and prayed the closing prayer and said, "To God be the glory" for a great Assembly.

NOTE—These reports were not read in the Assembly, but are printed for the records:

REPORT OF GENERAL FIELD SECRETARY

AUGUST 1, 1989 THROUGH JULY 31, 1990

SERMONS PREACHED	53	SANCTIFIED	5
HOMES VISITED	126	HOLY GHOST	3
SAVED	7	FUNERALS	2

This has been a busy year especially so, during the transition period of Bishop M. A. Tomlinson as General Overseer and Bishop Billy D. Murray being selected Interim General Overseer.

In addition to being involved in the preparation for the Presbytery meeting called by Bishop Tomlinson for April 30th and the Overseer's meeting which followed, it has been our pleasure to serve on a number of standing Committees throughout the Church year. They include Administrative, General Properties, Bible Training Institute, Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine, Ministerial Aid, White Wing Publishing House and Press, Inc., Board of Directors and also served as a General Trustee.

During the month of September 1989, in addition to making preparations for the 84th General Assembly, we not only attended and served as Coordinator for the Assembly, but also had the privilege of being invited to and attending several Ministers Conferences in the state of Kentucky.

The balance of the year found us in addition to our office duties and many General Headquarters responsibilities, becoming involved in a homecoming in Fayetteville, Georgia, the funeral of Randy Conrad of the tragic accident at the Ohio State Camp Ground, representing the General Church and helping to transact business for the Church in Kansas, Canadian Church Corporate Board Meeting, attended Ohio Biblical Study Camp, Senior Ministers Banquet, Evangelism/Home Missions Conference in Birmingham, Alabama and the First Assembly Anniversary program.

We also visited a number of Overseers in their homes this year including a visit to Jackson, Mississippi, due to Brother Harper Hunter's illness and Indiana concerning Overseer Bill White in reference to his illness. We were privileged to teach in the West Texas Family Focus Retreat, represented the General Church at the Bahamas Convention, dedication of the Florida State Office and taught First Term Business in Cleveland Bible Training Institute, also filled in one week for Brother J. E. Brisson who was scheduled to teach First Term Pastoral.

It was a privilege to represent the General Overseer's office at the first International Music Festival in the Bahama Islands, served as Headquarters Representative to Missouri, Georgia and Hawaii State Conventions, also attended portions of the Spanish California Convention.

It was a privilege during the year to be special speaker at a number of our local churches we found ourselves in attendance at during our various travels. We have done our best to support Brother Murray as our Interim General Overseer and it is our desire to see the Church of God move forward from victory to victory.

Respectfully submitted,

HUGH R. EDWARDS

REPORT OF GENERAL FIELD SECRETARY

We are most grateful to the Lord for the blessings He has bestowed upon the Spanish work this year. Our Spanish Church membership is now over 70,000 and it keeps growing. Praise the Lord!

The Communications Ministry keeps reaching more and more people. As of today we have 188 radio stations with 1,594 monthly broadcasts, and 399 weekly broadcasts. Through the program we have been offering several Bible Studies, such as General Bible Knowledge, the Body of Christ, and The Sermon on the Mount. Also we have offered the following Bible studies produced by us on the books of James, Philippians, Romans, Nehemiah, Mark and the Gospel of John Vol. I and Vol. II and Daniel. The distribution of units and certificates of each course is as follows:

COURSES	UNITS	CERTIFICATES
General Bible Knowledge	915	102
Body of Christ	130	21
Study on James	139	117
Study on Romans	59	35
Study on Philippians	323	42
Study on Nehemiah	32	51
Study on John Vol. I	137	27
Study on John Vol. II	38	17
Study on Mark	45	56
Study on Daniel	331	55
Total	2,182	587

The Television Ministry is going forward with many results. A new Bible study series recorded in the Holy Land has been produced as well as programs with an evangelistic approach. We have had a very special blessing this year. The government of Israel invited our ministry to record television programs in Israel. They paid all expenses to five people of our ministry. During this time eleven television programs were recorded. This and all the other courses have been made available to local churches on VHS and BETA format for local church use.

The television program has been televised on 89 full power television and cable systems.

Our department produced a video for the Youth Department on the International Youth Camp ministry in Latin America.

I served as Headquarters Representative to the conventions in Alaska and Oregon. I conducted revivals and VOS rallies in several states and countries to edify the Church membership and to promote the work. I also attended the ministers convention in Cuba.

I attended the National Religious Broadcasters Convention (NRB) in Washington, D.C. At this gathering I was elected to serve, as liaison for the Hispanics. Also, during this convention I was reelected as member of the Board of Directors of NRB and as one of the nine Commissioners of EFICOM (Ethnics and Financial Integrity Commission) of NRB.

I served as part of the Hispanic Task Force for the American Bible Society and on the Hispanic Commission of the National Association of Evangelicals (NAE), and as member of the International Committee of Reference for New Life 2000, which is sponsored by Campus Crusade for Christ International.

I wrote and recorded for television a new Bible study on the life of Christ and the prophetic role of the Nation of Israel. I have written several articles for the White Wing Messenger. Our office was responsible for putting together the White Wing Messenger issue on Hispanics, of June 23, 1990. A commemorative issue of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Hispanic work.

My office coordinated the translation of letters, documents and articles for several departments that requested our assistance.

I served along with the two other Field Secretaries in the transition period of the General Overseer. I served as translator of the passing of the gavel ceremonies and other aspects of this historic moment in the Church.

I reviewed and edited the Old Testament course for TC that was translated into Spanish.

I have served on the Communications Committee, the Ministerial Aid Committee, the CPMA-Committee, the Music Committee and the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSE A. REYES, SR.

REPORT OF PRESIDENT, TOMLINSON COLLEGE AND PUBLIC RELATIONS DIRECTOR
AUGUST 1, 1989 THROUGH JULY 31, 1990

It is an honor for me to have served the Church this year as President of Tomlinson College and General Public Relations Director.

As President of Tomlinson College I have managed and directed the affairs of the Church's institution of higher learning through dedicated and professionally qualified vice presidents, faculty and support staff. I have worked closely with the Board of Trustees at the policy-making level.

Student enrollment increased in both the fall and spring semesters. Economically we operated this fiscal year closing with a green balance in our budget as a result of prudent management at all levels of administration.

Tomlinson College was granted level II accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. On July 1990, the following letter was written by Dr. James T. Rogers, Executive Director of the Commission:

"It is a pleasure to inform you that the Commission on Colleges, acting on the recommendation of the Committee on Criteria and Reports for Institutions at Levels II-VI, has accredited your institution at Level II, offering the Bachelor of Ministry. The membership hereby awarded is considered retroactive to January 1, 1990. You, your faculty, and staff can be proud of this accomplishment."

A more detailed report relative to all facets of this year's work was made by the Board of Trustees and is on file in the President's office.

Special recognition is given to the Board of Trustees under the chairmanship of Dr. James Strong. Further recognition is given to the Vice President of Academic Affairs, Larry Duncan; Vice President of Finance and Administration, Vernon Van Deventer; Vice President of Student Affairs, Melvin Hyatt. These men have given outstanding service on the President's Executive Council this year, along with James Wallace, Norman Fontana and Charles Shirley.

As General Public Relations Director, I have worked closely with the office of the General Overseer, representing his office internationally in religious and civic affairs. Also, I have arranged for and directed the General Overseer's pre-Assembly Leadership Banquet, the Christmas banquet for his staff and headquarters personnel, as well as various receptions and other official functions related to the General Overseer's office. At the request of the General Overseer, I made the physical arrangements on the Tomlinson College campus for the April 29, Presbytery Meeting called for the purpose of selecting an Interim General Overseer.

In civic affairs I have represented the Church in numerous local, state and national functions. Presently, I am serving as a member of the Cleveland Bradley Chamber of Commerce and the United Way of Bradley County as a member of the Mayor's Blue Ribbon Committee.

I have managed the office affairs with the able assistance of Ron Scott, Administrative Assistant to the general director. Special recognition is given to my executive secretary, Evelyn Gillum, who has served as Secretary to the President as well as Public Relations Director. She has been assisted by Martha Cassidy.

Appreciation is expressed to the field team of state and national secretaries who have promoted this ministry in their respective areas.

Respectfully submitted,
PERRY GILLUM

REPORT OF THE GENERAL SECRETARY FOR THE CHURCH OF PROPHECY MARKER ASSOCIATION AND FIELDS OF THE WOOD MANAGER
OCTOBER 1, 1989, THROUGH JULY 31, 1990

It has been my privilege to serve Christ and the Church this year as C. P. M. A. Secretary and Fields of the Wood Manager. After fourteen years as a state overseer, I've had the opportunity to work within another phase of the Church's overall ministry by filling this position at General Headquarters. My report reflects a 10 - month period since I assumed duties at General Headquarters October 1, 1989. During this time I have preached 73 sermons with 3 saved, 2 sanctified and 1 filled with the Holy Ghost.

I have worked closely with the state and national C. P. M. A. Secretaries and have sent regular mailings pertaining to this department. With the assistance of my staff, we put together a thorough insert for the White Wing Messenger dated January 6, 1990, and prepared a full feature of this department for the May 26, 1990, edition of the White Wing Messenger.

It's been a privilege to represent General Headquarters at Pastors Retreats in Alabama and Florida, a Winter Retreat in Northern California, Men's Retreat in Oklahoma and the Youth Convention in Virginia. I also conducted two District Revival Crusades in Tampa, Florida, and Greenville, South Carolina.

I have served as secretary of the C. P. M. A. Committee and have met with the committee five times during the course of this year.

Fields of the Wood Information:

I have managed the operation of Fields of the Wood with the capable staff assistance of Jimmy Williams and myself, Superintendent/Minister, and Georgia Williams, Manager of the Gift Center and Restaurant.

There was outstanding participation in the Annual Programs at Fields of the Wood; First Assembly Commemorative Service, Easter Pageant and the June 13th Commemoration. We also had a large crowd on hand for the Pre-Assembly Service at Fields of the Wood.

Under the supervision of Jimmy Williams, several projects have been completed this year:

1. Completing the refurbishing of the steps and Auxiliary Markers all the way down Prayer Mountain.
2. Enclosing a portion of the work shed with new concrete floors, roll-up metal doors and heating which will provide a winter work area.
3. Complete remodelling of the Superintendent's residence with all new kitchen cabinets, floor and fixtures; new bathrooms, all new carpeting, new doors and windows and carpet.
4. A new liner was installed in the Baptismal Pool. The state of Florida sent a sizable donation towards this.

The C. P. M. A. membership as of August 10, 1990, was 50,222 compared to 48,451 at the same time a year ago.

Thanks to all who joined the C. P. M. A. or contributed towards the refurbishing of a Marker or Project in Field of the Wood.

Thanks also to all the local church groups or individuals who sent Mission Marker Contributions. A total of $56,080 was sent to 32 countries and states this year to help with building programs in areas where economic resources are limited.

I express my personal appreciation to our office staff, Lisa Skinner, Elizabeth Conner and Linda Humberd, for their devoted efforts to the department this year.

Respectfully submitted,
D. FRANK HUGHES

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LITERATURE EDITOR AUGUST 1, 1989 THROUGH JULY 31, 1990

Presentations in sermons and lessons.....111	Number saved.....	3
Number sanctified	1

Taught in two Bible Training Institutes: Cleveland and California.

Served as Chief Usher in the 84th Annual General Assembly, 1989. I have served on the Church Publishing Committee, the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine, and the Home Mission Committee this year.

I set up and maintained the White Wing Publishing House Exhibit booth in two Sunday School conventions—namely, “Glass” Pasadena, California and Mid-Atlantic Sunday School Convention in Charlotte, North Carolina. I conducted a Sunday School literature seminar during the 1989 General Assembly.

I was the guest speaker/teacher (representing General Headquarters) in the following state functions: Ministers Conventions in Indiana, Kentucky and New Mexico; Men’s Retreats and area meetings in Michigan and Southern California; and a Couples Retreat in Virginia. I conducted two revivals, one in Michigan and one in Kentucky. I was representative to Arkansas State Convention.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EDITORIAL FUNCTION:

I have worked closely with the Manager of the White Wing Publishing House in relation to Sunday School literature publications. Periodic meetings between the editorial staff and those members of the Business Manager’s staff who are involved in the printing of Sunday School literature have been especially helpful in many aspects of the editorial work. We feel that we have a good working relationship with the press department conducive to the production of our Sunday School literature.

Along with our normal editorial functions, the Lord has enabled us to realize some developmental steps and improvements in our Sunday School literature this year.

A new item has been introduced this year in our children’s literature called Little People’s Coloring Book. This piece of literature correlates with Still Small Voice and Chums for Good. It supersedes the (somewhat expensive) Creative Teaching Aid packet formerly used for Little People. This exciting coloring book features a conversation each Sunday between Dusty and Linty (the Dust Balls) concerning the lesson for the day. A picture to be colored accompanies the “View from Under the Pew” conversation every Sunday. The Little People’s Coloring Book has been favorably received by our Sunday Schools.

The Teen Sunday Paper introduced the first quarter of 1990 (to replace Topical Teen), has taken on a more mature look which complements serious minded teenagers. We are confident that this upgrading will meet with much approval by our teen students.

We have developed a new Sunday School elective called “God’s Plan of Redemption.” The writer, John McClure, wrote these lessons with people in mind who have been brought up in religions that know little or nothing about God’s plan of redemption. This thirteen week course of study is ideal for teaching new believers in the basic steps of Christianity. A Teacher’s Manual is being developed for this elective study course.

The campaign called “To Russia With Love” sponsored by World Literature Outreach will include “God’s Plan of Redemption.”

I feel it has been an honor to serve the Church in this capacity this year. Special appreciation goes to Henry O'Neal, Business Manager of the White Wing Publishing House, who has been an inspiration to me. I commend him for his managerial ability and his Christian love and fellowship.

Respectfully submitted,
J. C. CAGLE

REPORT OF THE WORLD LANGUAGE SECRETARY

AUGUST 1, 1989 - JULY 31, 1990

To the 85th General Assembly of the Church of God, greetings:

By the grace of God I am permitted to submit my report. I shall start with a portion of Scripture that I personally treasure.

"Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

"Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

"Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

"Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies" (Psalm 103:1-4).

I must begin my report by expressing my sincerest expression of gratitude to God for His tender mercies toward me. I also want to thank all the Church for the many, many prayers that have gone up to God for my healing. To God be the glory for all He has done.

In spite of a very difficult and trying year, God has blessed the Language Department and business has continued as usual in the World Language Department. There are several reasons for this and we give God the glory and our most sincere thanks and heartfelt expression of gratitude. We praise the Lord for the following contributing factors.

Production Manager

The World Language Department has been blessed with a mid-management person. Sister Diann Stewart who has been a member of the World Language staff for twenty years was promoted to the position of Production Manager. This addition came at a very precise and opportune time. It was as though God orchestrated this knowing of my forth-coming illness. Sister Diann has efficiently assisted me in the management of the World Language Department and its work throughout the world. Because of her and Sister Phyllis Watson, our Administrative Secretary, the World Language Department has been able to keep going with business as usual in all phases of translation work. The World Language office personnel and translators have been very supportive of me during my illness. Praise the Lord!

Machinery For Outreach

For many years we've been searching for a way to produce our Church literature for Western African countries and languages. Modern technology has given us the answer. We have been led by the Lord to a new computerized system and program that will give us the capability of creating the exotic characters and printing fonts that we've needed. We thank the Lord for this new method which has been provided in a beautiful and inspired way.

The youth in the state of Virginia under the direction of Brother Scott Neill were led of the Lord to raise funds to purchase the necessary Machinery For Outreach which will provide us the ability to prepare literature for the Western African languages. I want to express my appreciation to the overseer, Bishop Risch, the Youth Director, Brother Scott Neill, and the youth of Virginia for their vision and inspiration in this very important contribution.

New Challenge—"To Russia With Love"

The Church's new challenge is to pursue the preparation of literature for the Slavic-speaking countries of Europe. The youth are to be commended for their zeal in the plan presented by our General Youth Director, Brother Billy Wilson. It is the desire and plan of the World Language Department to work diligently pursuing the translation of our Church literature in as many languages as possible. We desire your prayers.

Personal Activities

States visited—Washington, California (Spanish), Kansas, Georgia, East Texas and Alabama.
Country visited—Mexico.

Special activities attended were Alabama Men's Retreat, Oregon Youth Convention and Washington Ministers Convention.

I taught the Bible Training Institute Advanced Studies Course in Mexico City, Mexico.

During this year I have been involved in the outreach of the Servants group. This group is proving to be a blessing to the Church in many ways. Thank the Lord for the privilege I had in attending meetings with the Servants in the following places: Kansas City, Kansas; San Antonio, Texas and Mexico City, Mexico. The many contributions that the Servants are making to the Church display the willingness of the business, professional and skilled people in the Church to give of themselves to the progress of the Church of God. I am proud to be a Servant!

Privileged Responsibilities

I have been blessed to serve the Church in the following committees: Church Publishing Committee and World Mission Committee.

I have also had the honor of serving as the Administrative Editor of the International White Wing Messenger which is published in the following languages: Afrikaans, French, Greek, Indonesian, Spanish and Telugu. I wish to acknowledge the able assistance of Sister Joyce Cannon who is our World Language Department Editing Secretary.

Conclusion

Again, I want to thank God for His special touch. I also want to thank the Church for their prayers. I'm immensely grateful to my family members for their prayers and encouragement during my illness. My immediate family, my wife June and son, Levi, have nursed and cared for me with great tenderness. I also wish to thank Brother and Sister Gandia and Brother J. C. Jimenez for coming to our home and caring for us for days at a time. The Church in general has been a great family. Thank you for sharing such great love. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

REPORT OF MINISTERIAL AID DIRECTOR

AUGUST 1, 1989 THROUGH JULY 31, 1990

"Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come" (Acts 26:22).

I have administered all of the Ministerial Aid Department business which has been directed to World Headquarters through the Ministerial Aid Committee and a competent office staff; planned the special Ministerial Aid Edition of the White Wing Messenger, edited the monthly bulletin, "The International Connector" of which 12,000 copies were distributed.

Administered the group life insurance plan and accidental insurance carried by Life Insurance Company of North America and managed Tax Sheltered Annuities and Deferred Compensation of participants with United Benefits of Omaha.

Planned and moderated a special banquet for the retired ministers and companions. Directed a special 50-PLUS ADVANCE for those over age 50. This was the fourth and was held at Camp Echeconnie near Macon, Georgia. I was guest speaker for Men's Day Retreat in Georgia.

Visited many retired ministers and sick people in several states in connection with Ministerial Aid activities. Represented General Headquarters at many funerals. I represented General Headquarters in state conventions. I taught in the Cleveland Bible Training Institute.

I served as Secretary of the Ministerial Aid Committee, Secretary of the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity, and Doctrine, and served on the CPMA Committee. I attended service in Fields of the Wood and Assembly House.

I have written thousands of letters and traveled many thousands of miles this year for the glory of God.

REPORT OF COMMUNICATIONS MINISTER

AUGUST 1, 1989 - JULY 31, 1990

The Lord has given the Voice of Salvation another good year for which I give Him praise and honor.

The radio broadcast which is heard in 18 countries, 36 states, as well as two short-wave networks that cover a large area of the world, reaches hundreds of thousands, and perhaps millions of people each week.

I have been elated by mail that has been received from areas of the world that actually surprised me. Such places as China, Iran, Lebanon, Chad, Iraq, Indonesia, Viet Nam, and many other countries including the Soviet Union.

One letter from Russia informed us that each week there are 597 people that gather to hear the VOS. I praise God for each of these, and for those who have written to tell of receiving salvation.

The Television program can now be seen over the Inspirational Cable Network which reports more than 9 million homes as well as some thirty independent stations. Calls and letters from non-members of the Church that view the program are most gratifying. Pastors are informed of each person who writes us for follow-up. A number of pastors have reported that some of the prospects visited are attending their local church.

My wife and I, two VOS staff members, and 13 other members of the Church visited the country of Russia where I preached in three different cities. We gave out approximately 2000 bibles and 2500 pieces of literature. We used video footage that was taken in that country for several television programs.

We are working with "Partnership Churches" and helping them to utilize the TV and radio program to benefit the local church. Several have installed telephones and place the local church phone number on the screen while the program is broadcast. The results have been outstanding.

Volunteers from the Cleveland churches assist the VOS by answering the telephones during certain times when the program is being broadcast. A number of people have been saved, healed and encouraged as a result of the faithful volunteers praying with them.

A mobile video recording van was purchased this year, enabling us to go to Fields of the Wood, local churches, and other places to record television programs. I am most grateful for those who helped in this project. It has greatly enhanced the VOS ministry.

The prayer request line continues to be used by those who need prayer. The request are taken to the upper room and also prayed for by the VOS staff. Many reports of answered prayer have been received. The VOS provided satellite coverage of the 84th General Assembly, as well as promotional video projects for various departments and spot announcements for local churches.

The sacrificial dedication of each staff member is deeply appreciated, and it is through their hard work that we have been able to make great strides.

I am most grateful that the Lord has given me this opportunity to minister in this capacity for Him and the Church of God.

REPORT OF COMMUNICATIONS BUSINESS MANAGER

AUGUST 1, 1989 THROUGH JULY 31, 1990

"Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare" (Psalm 75:1).

The 1989-90 Church year has been one of our greatest. The Lord's blessings upon our work have been manifested in a marvelous way. We have added several radio stations for expanded Voice of Salvation broadcast coverage—both English and Spanish. The vast networks of AM-FM and short-wave stations continue to provide radio coverage which encompasses the majority of the world's population. The results of this outreach are most encouraging.

During the 84th General Assembly, I supervised the audio operations of the Assembly auditorium sound system, directed the activity of the video recording room, engineered one and one-half hours of Assembly broadcasting (Spanish language) to the Caribbean Island of Puerto Rico and had the oversight of the Communications Department booth operations in the Assembly Tabernacle.

The Broadcast Record Club has enjoyed its greatest year of operation having worked with many of the Church's leading musical groups in producing and distributing several excellent albums.

The Broadcast Record Club is a major source of support for Voice of Salvation broadcasting. The club's gross income this year (exceeding all previous years) was approximately fifty thousand dollars. This coupled with proceeds from Broadcast Distributors, a general appropriation and contributions undergird the Church's broadcast ministry.

I have attended one district convention, served as the Headquarters Representative to the Mississippi State Convention, attended the Audio Engineering Society Convention in New York City and National Religious Broadcasters Convention in Washington D.C. I have fulfilled a number of requests for assistance in sound equipment needs from our local churches, supervised audio operations of the Cleveland Bible Training Institute, supervised the work of my office staff, answered correspondence, operated Broadcast Distributors and Broadcast Record Club, visited radio stations throughout Puerto Rico and Dominican Republic, assisted many radio stations in the United States and several other countries in obtaining radio and audio equipment in exchange for airtime and our department supplied audio control services for the Easter pageant in Fields of the Wood.

I served on the Communication Committee, Music Committee and the Editorial Committee of Church History, Polity and Doctrine.

I have traveled in several states and originated a number of new promotions for our work. We have worked with State and National Overseers and Communications Directors on behalf of the Church's broadcast ministry.

I planned and supervised the installation of a major audio system for the Church Presbytery meeting of April 30, 1990.

The weekly schedules for our Church broadcast are as follows:

VOICE OF SALVATION (English).....	242
VOICE OF SALVATION (Spanish).....	399

REPORT OF EVANGELISM/HOME MISSIONS DIRECTOR

AUGUST 1, 1989 - JULY 31, 1990

"But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them . . ." (Matthew 9:36a).

With Christ as our example, may we have eyes of compassion to see the lost and lead them to Jesus Christ.

For the 1989 General Assembly, I planned and conducted a seminar on Church Growth Trends, and a Sharing Eternal Life Review, along with the help of departmental assistant Dan Palmer. I coordinated early morning prayer meetings in the tabernacle with National Evangelists moderating various morning activities. I moderated the Friday Evening Evangelism/Home Missions Program and the Annual Healing Service.

In this past Assembly year I have been privileged to minister in nine states and four foreign countries.

I planned and conducted five Sharing Eternal Life Clinics with one being our first Spanish Clinic outside the United States. It was in Santiago, Chile. Five regional clinics have been planned for the 1990-91 Assembly year in the following locations: Manchester, New Hampshire; Houston, Texas; El Sobrante, California; Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Crestline, Ohio.

January 11-13, 1990, the Evangelism/Home Missions Department sponsored a National Evangelism/Home Missions Conference in Birmingham, Alabama called Birmingham '90. The theme was, "The 1990's: A Time to Grow." Attendance was in excess of 400. Some 23 workshops were presented on a variety of evangelistic approaches. A thorough report of this conference is published in the April 28, 1990 White Wing Messenger. Dr. John C. Maxwell, from San Diego, California, was our special guest, and provided great insights and inspiration for all the attendees.

I have served on the following General Headquarters Committees: Home Missions, World Missions, Youth Mission Board, Church Publishing, and Communications. I served as a member of Associated Ecumenical Charities, Inc., governing body of the Memphis Day Shelter, a ministry to the homeless in Memphis, Tennessee.

My wife and I were guest speakers for a Marriage Enrichment Retreat in Prescott, Arizona, and I spoke at a Church Planting Rally in Phoenix, Arizona.

I taught two daily Old Testament History classes in Bible Training Institute (Cleveland school).

I was a workshop presenter and general session speaker at Euro-Vision '90, a Youth Conference sponsored by the General Victory Leaders Department in Leiden, Holland. I participated in the Youth Mission Team orientation which was conducted concurrently with Euro-Vision '90. Enroute to Gaborone, Botswana as Youth Mission Team evangelist, I stopped in Kenya for five days and toured the southwestern region of Kenya with three National Evangelists. We travelled approximately 750 miles conducting five services. I preached five times in three different locations to over 500 attendees. There were 21 saved and many others testified to deliverance and healing. While serving as evangelist with the Youth Mission Team in Botswana, there were 13 saved, 2 sanctified and 2 received the Holy Ghost in the crusade services. The Youth Mission Teams had 22 others accept Christ through witnessing on the streets.

I moderated the debriefing session of the Youth Mission Teams in Leiden, Holland. While in Europe, I also attended and ministered in two local churches: Leiden, Holland, and Brussels, Belgium.

I attended four interdenominational conferences and seminars in the interest of Evangelism/Home Missions.

I was General Headquarters representative for the National/State Conventions of Chile and West Texas, respectively.

I have corresponded with all State Overseers, State Evangelism/Home Missions Directors, and several National Overseers.

I have compiled and/or edited quarterly issues of SEL Review, a quarterly newsletter for that ministry. I compiled and wrote articles for the annual Evangelism/Home Missions issue of the White Wing Messenger.

I was officiating minister for one wedding.

I wish to commend the National Evangelism staff for their long hours of travel and labor in spreading the gospel of Christ. Their efforts resulted in the following: 1,783 saved; 1,457 sanctified; and, 539 baptized with the Holy Ghost.

Thanks to Joy Thornton for serving as office secretary for the past year, and as my wife the past 28 years.

REPORT OF WORLD MISSION SECRETARY

AUGUST 1, 1989 - JULY 31, 1990

The Lord has graciously helped and strengthened me throughout the past year and I am grateful.

I made 29 visits to 20 countries and states on behalf of the work. I attended 6 National Conventions as Representative; 1 European Youth Conference and Youth Mission Orientation, several Youth Conventions, Ministers Conferences and other activities. I taught in the Cleveland Bible Training Institute and coordinated relief efforts for the Caribbean area hit by Hurricane Hugo.

I supervised the work of the World Mission Department which included a monthly letter to Overseers in the countries, answering of correspondence, preparing legal documents, consulting and counseling with Overseers and Mission Representatives. In addition, I planned and directed the World Mission Program for the 84th General Assembly. The Committees and Boards on which I served are: World Missions, Youth Mission Board, Church Publishing, Bible Training Institute and Ministerial Aid.

I preached and taught 94 sermons and lessons and recorded 7 experiences. In addition to writing for the 3 Mission Issues of the White Wing Messenger, I wrote the editorial letters for all Mission Drive promotions.

The love and care of my precious wife and children, the faithful service and cooperation of the Mission Department Staff, Mission Representatives, Overseers and Mission Corpsmen is deeply appreciated. Their patience and tolerance was a real blessing.

Following is the statistical report on the countries as of July 31, 1990:

REPORT OF MISSION REPRESENTATIVE TO MEXICO, CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICA
AUGUST 1, 1989 THROUGH JULY 31, 1990

"And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry" (1 Timothy 1:12).

It is a great and wonderful day to serve the Lord while yet on the other hand it is a humbling and sobering thought to know that Jesus Christ is relying on us as ministers in His army to go forward in such perplexing times as we are now living in. Nevertheless, we must move forward of which I thank my Lord who has given me grace and strength throughout this year to fulfill my responsibilities. The work throughout Latin America is on the move and many positive reports have been received concerning the progress of the work.

My wife Stella and children have been a strength and support to me of which I am grateful.

It was my honor to have represented General Headquarters in the following conventions:

National Conventions—8

State Convention—1

Participated and preached in the International Youth Camp in Trujillo, Peru. Also, participated in the Regional Youth Conference in Amsterdam, Holland.

I visited in behalf of my work twenty countries and three states. I assisted BTI in teaching in Cuba and Cleveland, TN.

REPORT OF THE MISSION REPRESENTATIVE TO EUROPE AND THE MIDDLE EAST
AUGUST 1, 1989 THROUGH JULY 31, 1990

I, your representative for the Mission Department of the Church of God, have been busy this year in Europe. First, I moved my home and office from Holland to West Germany and then assisted Bishop Lambert in getting settled into the place I vacated in Holland. Much renovation and the completion of an office facility was required in West Germany. After living with Pastor Langley and his good wife for a few months, we were able to set up housekeeping and an office in the headquarters complex in Babenhausen, West Germany.

This year I was able to make a tour of Greece and Egypt visiting the churches and ministers, fulfillment of a long awaited promise. Bishop Stathis accompanied me on both missions.

I have had opportunity to preach and teach on several occasions as Overseer of five countries and Mission Representative to Europe and the Middle East. I preached 47 sermons, visited 53 homes and was involved in 25 prayer meetings. Several experiences came about through the ministry, which I left for the pastors to take account of and follow-up on. I assisted in getting the new pastor, Brother Bernard Laillet, and family into France where they are now residing. They have taken over the work started there, which has begun to grow, and have made outreach into another community about 40 kilometers out of Paris by establishing a mission.

I assisted in getting the new pastor into Brussels, Belgium. A. J. and Rosetta Vaughn have moved from England to Brussels where they have taken the pastorate since June 1.

I attended the National Convention in Greece as Headquarters Representative and conducted the National Conventions in Finland, Belgium, France and Holland/Germany. I was able to set up two Biblical Studies Camps in Europe this year—one in Holland and the other in Greece. I conducted Ministers' and Workers' conferences in Finland and West Germany and met with the workers in Belgium and France to begin the work for last Assembly year.

I had opportunity to visit Finland again enroute to Russia and visited the churches of Belgium, France and West Germany on several occasions. I accompanied the group to Russia late February/early March visiting Moscow, Kiev and Leningrad. I was with Bishop Matthews visiting a church outside Moscow and a school in Kiev. We had a one-night crusade in Kiev and were able to visit a large church in Leningrad with the group. Several contacts for the Church were made, with which we have continued to correspond and intend to follow-up on.

Also this year, I took part in the EuroVision Youth Conference in Leiden, Holland, conducted by Bishop Wilson. We conducted the Servicemen's and Family Retreat at Berchtesgaden, West Germany, in March.

My wife and I edit and have printed and distributed a bi-monthly paper called Striving Together. Our office is now in the process of being computerized.

I wish to thank Bishops Lambert, Stathis and Endecott for assisting me by taking my place in the conventions of Cyprus and Egypt and by teaching BTI in Greece. I wish to commend Bishop Langley and his wife for their labor of love in West Germany to our service people and to thank them for helping us get settled in West Germany.

For all of this, to God be the glory.

Respectfully submitted,

E. E. VAN DEVENTER

I conducted three rallies in Sierra Leone, Ghana and Ivory Coast to coordinate the year's activities between the various churches and national workers.

I travelled to South Africa, Bloemfontein, taught in B. T. I., for two weeks with all the other Overseers in that part of the African sub-region. I also coordinated plans for and taught in B. T. I., Abidjan, Cote D'Ivoire.

I travelled to Benin to introduce the newly appointed Overseer Brother Eric Tandoh. I also officially handed over to him all responsibility concerning the work for that country.

At the close of the convention year I moderated three National Conventions in Sierra Leone, Ghana and Cote D'Ivoire.

REPORT OF CARIBBEAN & ATLANTIC OCEAN ISLANDS

MISSION REPRESENTATIVE

AUGUST 1, 1989 THROUGH JULY 31, 1990

Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised! By His grace and sustaining power, the Lord enabled me to labor another year in the Caribbean and elsewhere, for His glory.

I attended the last General Assembly, the Caribbean Conference Committee meeting held in Cleveland, visited several of the Bahama Islands, giving assistance in the planning and supervision of renovation and new construction work; made trips with the World Mission Secretary and others to Puerto Rico, St. Thomas, St. Croix, Tortola, St. Kitts, Nevis, Antigua, Monserrat, Martinique and Guadeloupe to inspect the damage caused by Hurricane Hugo, and to render any assistance possible.

I attended eight National Conventions, made 53 visits to 30 countries and major Islands of the Caribbean, attended the convention in Cuba for the first time. This was a blessed experience.

I was present for the General Overseer's staff meeting, and Christmas Banquet; delivered the address for the closing session of Bible Training Institute in Haiti. It was my special pleasure to visit all of our National Overseers in the Caribbean area, and to share a time of fellowship and brotherly love.

I wish to extend my heartfelt gratitude to our World Mission Secretary, his office staff and to all our National Overseers in the area, for their help and cooperation during the past year. Also to our Caribbean office secretary for her able assistance in the administration of the work. I do appreciate my family for their love and understanding.

REPORT OF MILITARY SERVICE AND ASIA, AUSTRALIA AND PACIFIC ISLANDS MISSION REPRESENTATIVE
AUGUST 1, 1989 THROUGH JULY 31, 1990

"And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations . . ." (Luke 24:47).

We have entered the decade of the 90's. Our task before us remains the same, that of evangelizing the world with the message of Christ and His Church. A special thanks and appreciation in the Lord to laborers responsible for making this happen, also for raising mission funds—National/State Overseers, members and friends, both civilian and military, with whom I have worked this year, I esteem you very highly for the work's sake.

Attended the 84th Annual General Assembly in which I served on the Counseling Committee; directed Military Service Program and reception; also, participated in World Missions Assembly Program; made mission forum presentation; served on World Mission Committee and Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine.

I have combined some of the work of these two offices where our military personnel are stationed and where we have mission interests. Visited the following states and countries in behalf of the work: Alabama, California, Florida, Tennessee, Virginia and Washington D.C. Countries: Australia, India, Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Pakistan, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and West Germany. Attended five national conventions and one state convention. Served as principal and taught in BTI in Indonesia, Korea and Thailand, also taught in Cleveland school. Made photographs of various church activities which have been published in the WHITE WING MESSENGER and THE SENTINEL.

MILITARY SERVICE DEPARTMENT

I visited our military personnel in the United States and other nations, attended and spoke in the retreat at Berchtesgaden, Fed. Rep. of Germany. (Retreat conducted in Okinawa)

Our Chaplaincy program presently consists of: Lt. Douglas Stephenson, Maj. Guy Lindsey,

Maj. Gerald Moates and Capt. Kurtes Quesinberry on active duty in the Army; LCdr. Daniel Kurbis and LCdr Bill Reed on active duty in the Navy; and Capt. Jon Stovall on active duty in the Air Force. 2Lt Dale Code, Army Reserve Chaplaincy; 1Lt Charles Knauer, Air Force Reserve Chaplaincy. Capt. J. E. Brisson (inactive), Maj. L. Ronald Hamm, 2Lt Larry J. Dotson and 2Lt Ernest C. McKinley are with the Civil Air Patrol. Henry B. Lain and Daryl L. Shaffer have been endorsed for the Civil Air Patrol Chaplaincy.

Retreats were conducted in Berchtesgaden, Fed. Rep. of Germany and Okinawa as well as special activities in many areas. A special prayer day on the third Sunday in February was observed by the Church in behalf of all those in the military service, and this was boosted in the WHITE WING MESSENGER.

The Servicemen's Center in Babenhausen, Fed. Rep. of Germany is located approximately forty minutes Southeast of Frankfurt. The center is under an extensive remodeling program which has been hampered by local authorities. The center is operated under the direction of the National Overseer E. E. Van Deventer, with Onnie Langley serving as pastor. These brethren and those assisting them are to be highly commended for their labor of love.

THE SENTINEL mailing list numbers 747. Of these, 525 are individual recipients and 222 are distributed at the General Offices and mailed in bundles to overseers, pastors and others who work with the military. There have been twelve (12) issues of the department's monthly publication printed and approximately 108 packets containing 12 tracts, 2 copies of THE SENTINEL and a PR brochure mailed to new military personnel as they are added to our mailing list. There have been approximately 6,828 tracts, pamphlets and brochures distributed through this department. A regular flow of mail is received and answered.

The Church and its Representative and Ecclesiastical Endorsing Agent is listed with the Department of Defense, National Conference on Ministry to the Armed Forces (NCMAF), the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, the Civil Air Patrol, Veterans Administration and reserve components of each of these branches of service, and corresponds with the Chief of Chaplains for each of these branches of the military service.

REPORT OF GENERAL SUNDAY SCHOOL AND CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES SECRETARY

August 1, 1989 — July 31, 1990

It is a privilege and joy to be able to carry out the work of the ministry. No substantial facet of ministry is void of complexities. An earnest effort has been made to fulfill the numerous assignments in a manner that is pleasing to the Lord. The compilation of personal data related to this labor has been crippled by an incomplete year. The financial limitations experienced this year by the general headquarters accounted for many planned activities being cancelled. However, it was possible to visit seven countries and seven states and conduct various seminars on aspects of Sunday School and Children's Ministries. Wherever I have been, I have tried to keep learning the ways of the Lord and hope to handle, with some wisdom, the two international departments that are my charge.

I have fulfilled the administrative duties, in part, by keeping as many office hours as possible when in Cleveland. Regular correspondence has been maintained with State and National Overseers, State and National Sunday School Secretaries, State and National Children's Ministries Directors, Pastors, Superintendents and local Children's Ministries Directors in addition to handling much other mail. Further, I fulfilled this department's 1989 assembly obligations which included engineering six workshops, a Children's Ministry Seminar, four children's worship services, a complete day of creative ministry to children (Celebration Saturday), Celebration of Praise, a meeting and banquet with the state and national secretaries, a departmental booth and the departmental program. Also, considerable work was invested in preparing activities for the current General Assembly.

I have this year invested time, effort, and many miles in consulting with various international experts in Sunday School and Children's Ministries in addition to attending one major Sunday School convention (GLASS), and two specialized meetings (SPS and AAR). I served on the Bible Training Institute faculty for the session held in Cleveland. Selected ecumenical efforts were engaged including serving on the Steering Committee of the North American Renewal Service Committee, preaching in a Church of God in Christ, and attending the World Pentecostal Conference.

With the assistance of the appropriate personnel, the following materials were completed under my supervision this year:

1990 Sunday School Fall Campaign material with the theme, "Treasure These Truths." I wrote original material for this completely new campaign (English, Spanish, French).

1991 Outreach Campaign using the theme "Reach the Unreached" (English, Spanish, French).

1990 - 1992 Sunday School/Children's Ministries Planning Calendar. I revised and enlarged the calendar (English, Spanish, French).

A Sunday School edition of the White Wing Messenger, April 14, 1990 (English, Spanish).

A Children's Ministries edition of the White Wing Messenger, May 12, 1990 (English, Spanish).

A special book for children's ministers called the Children's Day Idea Book. This was edited by Sondra Hunter.

Sunday School Helps and Hints. This quarterly publication for those who work in Sunday School was edited by Sondra Hunter. Mikey Jones, Jr. serves as Editor-At-Large (English, Spanish, French). A special edition was run in the White Wing Messenger (January 20, 1990).

On Your Mark. . . Get Set. . . Grow! This publication is produced quarterly by the Children's Ministries Department for children's ministers (English, Spanish, French). On Your Mark has now incorporated "Gleaning for Gleaners" into its new, enlarged edition. Sondra Hunter is the Managing Editor and Kathy Creasy is the Editor-At-Large.

"Vacation Bible School," administrative piece, revised and enlarged (English, Spanish French).

"Beyond the Classroom," revised (Spanish).

"New Birth Certificate" revised (Spanish, French).

Revised Standard Teacher training program (English, Spanish). There has been a dramatic increase in the number of those completing our basic teacher training program. The changes made this year continue to make the program more accessible to all of our members.

Revised training program which grants the Advanced Teacher Certificate. The new flexibility will make the program useful to a wider circle of teachers.

Promotion and reporting on Vacation Bible School.

1990 Children's Day materials which used the theme, "Just Like You" (English, Spanish, French).

Heritage CARE kits (English, Spanish, French). Revised contents.

Children's Ministries Handbook, edited by Sondra Hunter, is in process.

A special Children's Ministries project entitled, "Adopt-A-Child," continues to be refined and promoted.

Children's Ministries Manual in Spanish. This was written by Darlene Bell.

Promotional ads in the White Wing Messenger for Fall Campaign, Children's Day, Heritage CARE, Adopt-A-Child, Bible Memory Club and General Assembly Sunday School and Children's Ministries Department activities.

Compiled materials for state and national directors usually published in "Sunday School and Children's Ministries Idea Book."

Called to Teach made available in additional languages. Additions made to the latest editions of the book (English, Spanish, French).

Revised the book for Children's Ministries report to Quarterly Conference and to state or national Children's Ministries Director (English, Spanish, French).

Material pertinent for state and national Sunday School Secretaries and Children's Ministers was collected, processed and made ready for distribution.

Revised Sunday School Superintendent's Report to Quarterly Conference and to state or national Sunday School Secretary (English, Spanish, French).

Completed work toward reissuing Bible Memory Club Level I in English while preparing first edition in Spanish. Bible Memory Club Level II is in sight, while Level III is in the formative stage.

Heritage CARE video near completion. The projected release date had to be adjusted because of the unexpected stop in travel plans.

It is my burden to conform the Sunday School and Children's Ministries Departments to the needs of its international constituency. With that in mind, energy has been directed toward producing and identifying materials of the various languages of our members. Now there are complete programs in our three primary languages (English, Spanish, French) and all these programs have been expanded to be more indigenous. Various arrangements have been made as best possible for many of our workers who do not know one of these three languages to complete a compatible program.

I had the privilege this year of being the first General Sunday School Secretary to visit the continent of Asia. My tour of Asia involved six countries as I moved around the major regions of the continent. Plans have been made to tour more states and countries in this crucial effort to foster a mutually improved understanding and provide first-hand exposure to the needs of some of our Sunday Schools and Children's Ministries around the world. I have now travelled to five continents and, had my original travel plans remained in place, would have visited all but one state. These visits were strategically chosen. There remains, however, the need to travel to other countries never visited by a General Sunday School Secretary, much less the General Director of Children's Ministries.

Prior to this past General Assembly, I had not had the privilege of personally visiting any one of the four mission homes for children. It has now been possible to visit the homes in Indonesia,

India and Haiti. A planned trip to the mission home in Mexico was unable to be completed this year. These visits have been rich and have enabled me to explain better to Sunday School workers the importance of their support for Heritage CARE. These same trips and related travel allowed me to become more conversant with our printing ministry. Gleaner monies are directed to the Free Literature Offering and the World Outreach Fund. I have tried to pass along vital information obtained from these trips to the directors of Children's Ministries. Our commitment to this cause is of such a nature that we have joined with the World Language Department in promoting another facet of this same project under the name Conquer-A-Language.

Since the 1990 General Assembly was held in the month of August, it has not been possible to receive all the data needed to accurately complete our statistical report by the time of the assembly itself. Additional complications include the fact that reporting of the Children's Ministries offerings is still not comprehensive. On the other hand, our Sunday School report for monies donated to Heritage CARE varies from that reported by the general treasurer because we process some monies directly from donors to their intended destination. Finally, information about the 1990 edition of Children's Day is incomplete since the August date of the General Assembly encouraged several directors of Children's Ministries to plan their celebration after the General Assembly.

New materials continue to be produced in our three major languages and all other languages as best possible. The International Sunday School Department and the International Children's Ministries Department will not slow their pace of production in English, but must prepare, also, an array of materials and programs to meet the specialized needs of those outside the industrialized West.

Much appreciation is due the staff, Krystal White Johnson, Margie Allen and Kelli Summers for their important contribution to the Sunday School and Children's Ministries Departments. Sondra Hunter, the Children's Ministries Coordinator, served our world-wide membership by creating and revitalizing many programs, materials and projects.

*With the exception of four entries, all figures are taken from reports submitted July 15, 1990 by State/National Sunday School and Children's Ministries Directors. This means that the 1989-1990 assembly year is made up of eleven months. The proximity of the general assembly to many state conventions caused many reports to be incomplete, which is illustrated in the lower than usual number in most categories. Figures for the Heritage CARE Fund largely reflect treasurers' reports, but include monies handled directly by us. Comprehensive information is lacking on all items with the exception of the count of Standard Teacher Certificates. Problems continue to revolve around the consolidation of all facets of Children's Ministries as most pointedly illustrated in the amount reported for the gleaner offerings.

REPORT OF THE VICTORY LEADERS BAND
GENERAL SECRETARY, WILLIAM M. WILSON

AUGUST 1, 1989-JULY 31, 1990

SERMONS PREACHED	96	SAVED	164
SANCTIFIED	86	HOLY GHOST	81

"It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth" Lamentations 3:27.

Praise be to the Lord for His grace, strength and help this year among our young people. The youth of this generation continue to be the greatest harvesters and the greatest harvest field for us as a church. God is helping us reap this harvest and to Him be all the glory.

This has been a busy year in our offices. With the assistance of my office staff we edited and published the following: Victory Leader (English, Spanish, French, through January 1, 1990) Servant Update, an international newsletter for state/national youth secretaries and camp directors.

As of January 1, 1990 we began editing and publishing the Church's new youth publication, VICTORY. VICTORY is a 16 page, full color monthly magazine designed to address contemporary youth concerns from a biblical perspective. Subscriptions as of July 31, 1990 were 3,750.

We compiled and published Guidepost - an idea book for camp directors, the International Youth Camp Yearbook, the International Youth Camp Staff Manual, a series of camp lesson material for state/national camps and the Victory Leaders Ministries' Calendar.

This year we developed Encounter IV—a resource publication to assist local directors in sharing Christ with today's youth. We also developed, "His Word to the World" a fund raising guide for the free literature fund.

We developed a packet of materials (posters, planning book, tracts, follow-up cards, prayer enlistment sheets, report forms, certificates, order forms) which our local churches can use in our upcoming YoutHarvest 1991. This year the Victory Leaders Department spearheaded a special drive entitled YoutHarvest 1990 which went from January 1, 1990 to June 30, 1990. The goal of this drive themed, "His Love Wins" was to see new young people saved and added to our local churches. 572 churches reported their participation with 932 saved, 450 sanctified, 288 receiving the Holy Ghost, 332 baptized in water and 388 joining the Church being reported.

I served as director of International Youth Camp at Cohutta Springs Adventist Center in northern Georgia. Two hundred and eleven campers and staff attended this week of inspiration and training with a theme of "The 90's: Decade for Dependence." This summer marked the 40th consecutive year that we as a church have been involved in the camping ministry.

The Youth Department sponsored an International Youth Camp Outreach in Peru for Latin America. Fourteen nations participated with a total attendance of forty-nine. We also had a training team visit and assisted Nigeria and Kenya in youth camps this year.

Our department planned, organized and conducted our first Youth Conference outside the United States. EuroVision 1990 was held in Leiden, Holland. 423 youth and youth workers attended representing eleven countries. This was an exciting time as the Lord met with us to prepare us for the opening doors in Europe. Youth Mission Team Orientation was combined with this Conference and teams were sent to the following locations with these numerical results:

LOCATIONS:

Greece
Scotland
Botswana

Cyprus
West Germany

SAVED	85	SANCTIFIED	5
HOLY GHOST	5

The Victory Leaders Department spearheaded the World Literature Outreach promotion, "To Russia with Love." This was an expanded time of giving to assist the work being done toward translation of literature for Eastern bloc countries.

I served as B.T.I. Devotional Coordinator for the Cleveland, Tennessee school and I served on staff at the General Evangelism Conference.

I spoke at Youth Conventions in Peru, Oklahoma, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Southern New England, and Florida. Served as Headquarters Representative to Illinois and Northern New England State Conventions.

I served on the Tomlinson College Board of Trustees, the Church Publishing Committee, the Music Committee, the Communications Committee, and as Secretary for the Youth Mission Board.

I am grateful to the Lord for His grace, anointing, protection and watch care this year. I am also thankful to the many people who have voluntarily assisted us in promoting and staffing these events and projects. To God be all glory for what He is doing in this generation of youth.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM M. WILSON

In reviewing this report, I have a deep feeling of gratitude that the Lord has again given me what was needed to carry on the work. As many have been heard to say, "This has been a very difficult year." I am not sure if that is personally true for me, but it has been one of the busiest years and yet it seems the written results are less. However, knowing all results cannot be written with pen and ink, I am happy to again report to this Assembly.

The Lord has helped me to be involved in various ministries. The results of most of these are not on this report. Some were time consuming, but all have been gratifying and some of the results miraculous.

Writing

To supply the demands of the people on the field for materials from this department takes time and preparation. I am deeply grateful for the different individuals who have contributed their thoughts and inspiration for these materials.

I have supervised and edited the 12th edition of the "Women in Profile" booklet.

Compiled for printing: Helping Hand Ministry brochure, Ladies Retreat brochure, Ladies Retreat Program Booklet and the WMB White Wing Messenger "Women in Profile" inserts and "The Helper," a quarterly publication to the Helping Hand Ministry donors.

Compiled materials for the new WMB program book, Helps, Programs, Tidbits.

Corresponded with the state/national secretaries on a regular basis.

Corresponded with the national Overseers and other missionaries intermittently.

Teaching:

I regard teaching as one of the greatest ministries in the Church. I feel deeply grateful when I am asked to minister in this capacity. This year, these opportunities were as follows:

BTI Cleveland School

Family Lessons . . . in various local churches

International Youth Conference . . . Leiden, Holland

Youth Mission Team Orientation . . . Leiden, Holland

Missions:

As a member of the Youth Mission Board, I have attended all meetings when possible, assisted with the planning and organization of the 1990 Youth Mission Teams and attended the 1990 Team Orientation.

I wish to express a special "thanks" to all those who have sent funds to the mission field through the Helping Hand Ministry. There would be no way to tabulate exactly all that has been done for the various fields. We have done many things in the specific categories of transportation, buildings and ministers' support. Besides those mentioned, there have been items of clothing donated, construction on buildings and help in other ways. To all those who have sent in offerings, to those who used their skills and to those who prayed, we wish to thank you. None of you will ever know the impact on the hearts and lives of these people. Thanks be unto God for you.

Some Helping Hand Ministry projects have been completed, others have been assisted. To you, who gave became hands to those in need and the ministry goes on because of you. We will always be called on to respond to the needs. More and more Third World countries are responding to the gospel. These countries will never be able to support themselves. It is plain to see God has blessed this country so we, in turn, can assist those who cannot help themselves.

Because of you, the donors, Helping Hand Ministry funds that went directly to the field totaled $92,169.51.

Ministering to Women:

This has been a good year in that many have promoted Women Ministering Biblically. The reports continue to come in from both states and countries that have planned programs for ministering to women. The women in these areas are becoming involved by ministering to others.

May all of us soon catch a vision of what Women Ministering Biblically, the Women's Department of the Church, could do for a local congregation. May God give our leaders a vision of what is needed and a compassionate heart to accomplish the task.

The reported activities for ministering to women are as follows: Ladies Breakfasts/Lunches; Ladies Day in local, district or state-wide settings; Ladies Retreats state-wide, as well as local activities; such as, Bible studies, prayer groups, and organized visitations.

This year, I directed ten Regional Ladies Retreats. Even though this was fewer retreats than last year, it is a marvel to watch this ministry grow. More and more ladies, who are not members, are coming and enjoying the fellowship. In a few areas, some of them have brought ladies from their entire church. We are also seeing the results of ministering to the ethnic groups. Two retreats, California and Pennsylvania, accommodated the Spanish-speaking ladies with translation by modern methods as well as providing individual prayer groups for them. In New York, the French-speaking ladies enjoyed the retreat by the same method. In England, the retreat was translated both in the Spanish and Greek languages.

The total attendance in the regional retreats was 3,757. The European retreat in Manchester, England with 830 attending was the largest retreat in the history of this ministry. In that retreat we had ladies from seven European countries and one African country.

My special thanks to all who have supported this ministry . . . the Overseers, the workers, and the ladies who sacrificed to attend. I feel a deep debt of appreciation to the ladies who served on the staff for each retreat. Without them the retreats would not have been a blessing to the women. There is no way to tabulate on this report the benefits or the experiences that were accomplished in the hearts and lives of those who attended. It was all because these faithful workers were willing to give so much to this cause.

Church-Related Activities:

Besides the preaching/teaching that has already been mentioned, I was glad to be in the State of Arkansas for mission rallies, as well as in a few local churches in other areas. I enjoyed the fellowship of some pastor/leadership functions and was a guest at the Michigan Youth Convention.

I attended the Germany and Holland National Convention and the Tennessee State Convention.

No department could function properly without capable office personnel. The Lord has blessed this department with workers who, not only do a note-worthy job, but who are able to work together in harmony. They have a special insight into the work and a special concern for those to whom they are ministering. The camaraderie between the staff makes for good working conditions. I would like to take this opportunity to say thanks to Jeanette Rollins, my private secretary; Judy Lawson, retreat secretary; and Martha Tuttle, office assistant, for making all the above true. They work untiringly to complete assignments and, in spite of the heavy work load, have shown a real spirit of concern for the people who will at some point be affected by their work. Thanks to all three of them for a job well done.

Thanks to all the people on the Mission field who have made this report possible. Without the dedication of God-fearing people, we would not have a report to submit.

Above all else, thanks to the Father above who has kept us by His grace, overshadowed us with His protection and helped us to close another year with a special feeling of victory within. To God be the glory for all He has done.

Again, it was my privilege to serve on the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine. The inner-committee met on several occasions and I attended, when I was in town. Many hours were spent reading manuscripts and Church related materials for approval for printing and circulation.

I served on the Bible Training Institute Committee, which is always an enjoyment. I attended the regular and called meetings, when I wasn't on the field and discharged my duties as a committeeman.

Delightfully coordinated my efforts with the General Superintendent, General Representative, office secretaries and supply coordinator to fulfill my obligations as Bible Training Institute Representative in the Bible Training Institute Department. Personally corresponded with the vice presidents and state/national representatives to secure places for schools and for setting in order the administration for the schools for which I was directly responsible.

We had Bible Training Institute rallies for the purpose of promoting the need for training, introducing correspondence courses to those that couldn't attend one of the regular schools and acquainting the members concerning the operation of Bible Training Institute Department. These rallies have proven to be an asset and great blessing in increasing and circulation of more correspondence courses and more students in our regular schools.

This has been another inspirational and informative year for the teaching ministry. God has supplied the unction to function in the classroom and as a result both students and teachers have been deeply moved to greater service for Christ and His Church.

I appreciate the General Overseer, General Superintendent, Bible Training Institute Representative, office personnel in the department, people on the field and my dear wife and family for praying for and helping me in many ways to serve the Church as Representative of Bible Training Institute and to "God be the glory!"

Respectfully submitted.

NOTE TO MINISTERS AND TREASURERS: Fill in all reports accurately and completely. Write or print plainly. If assistance is needed, write to L. F. Kendrick, Box 2970, Cleveland, Tennessee 37320-2970.

TITHES: Members should pay their tithes into the treasury of the local church where they are members. Ministers send the tithes of income from the ministry with their monthly reports to the General Treasurer, and tithes on income outside the ministry are paid into the treasury of the local church where they are members.

The treasurer of the church is to send 10 percent of tithes received each month with the treasurer's report to the appropriate address.

United States, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands—L. F. Kendrick, Box 2970 Cleveland, Tennessee 37320-2970.

Other reports should be addressed to The Church of God of Prophecy, General Headquarters Field Office in your respective area, or contact your Overseer.

The Assembly recommends that the Administrative Committee be authorized to decide the allotments of Pastors, State Overseers and General Workers each year.

The Assembly recommends that the allotment of the General Overseer and that pay for incidental expenses plus any and all personal necessities be left to the discretion of the Administrative Committee.

The treasurer of the local church sends 10% of the tithes received each month to the treasurer of his state or nation and 10% to General Treasurer. The pastor's allotment is paid from the balance, not to exceed the amount set by the Administrative Committee; any remainder goes into the surplus tithes.

The sum of $1,000 received each month by the General Appointees and the State Overseers be designated for rent and utilities. Should the rent and utilities be under the above amount, the remaining amount would be included as income. Where feasible, this is also applicable to pastors, full-time evangelists and retired ministers. (Note: This recommendation is for income tax purposes only, and involves no extra allotment. The allotment received by the retired ministers is to be designated as a "Housing and Utilities Gift of Appreciation.")

Surplus tithes accruing in any local church are to be left in the tithe fund account of the local church treasury until after the last Sunday in June, at which time it is properly divided: 10% to be sent to the General Treasurer to be used at the discretion of the Administrative Committee; 25% to be sent to the state or national treasurer to be used at the discretion of the State or National Overseer and Finance and Appropriations Committee and the 65% left in the local church should be presented by the local Committee as a proposed budget plan for approval by the local church conference. First consideration be given to the pastor's expense in the ministry; said expenses being already defined in the Church Business Guide.

The Assembly recommends that all local church treasurers mail their reports to the state or national treasurer no later than the 5th of each month. From the funds received, the State or National Overseer would receive his allotment and expense (if funds are available) according to the rulings of the General Assembly.

The Administrative Committee agrees that all General Headquarters Appointees receive an allotment of $1,937.00 monthly, if funds are available; and that incidental expense incurred by these General Appointees be left to the discretion of the Administrative Committee.

Overseers in the United States are to receive no more than $1,989.00 monthly. Office expense incurred by the State/National Overseers shall be paid by the State/National Treasurer, from the general state/national funds, if funds are available. Any funds in excess of this amount received by the treasurer are to be kept in the state treasury to be placed in the general state fund for the state work, especially to assist pastors of weaker churches.

The Administrative Committee agrees that the pastor receive an amount not to exceed $1,989.00 monthly from the tithes of the local church after General Headquarters and the State Overseer have received their portions, if funds are available. This does not include offerings and poundings received by the pastor.

Allotments for Overseers outside the United States where there is not sufficient tithes to cover the allotments, the remaining portion be supplied by making transfers of Tithe Funds between countries where this is legally permissible and from the United States Tithe Fund in other cases, if funds are available, and that each Overseer should receive an allotment in the currency of the country or the territory he represents according to the average prevailing wage rates of each country.

The Assembly has ruled that tithes are for the support of the ministry only. Surplus tithes received at General Headquarters are disbursed at the discretion of the Administrative Committee. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all tithes sent to General Headquarters. The tithes of non-members that are paid into the local church treasury are to be paid through the regular channel the same as the tithes of members.

Ministry is defined as the office, duties, or functions of a minister; the building in which business of the ministry is transacted; thus, the ministry includes any and all phases of the Church ministry, such as church property, equipment, maintenance, etc.

HERITAGE CARE FUND: [Mission Homes for Children] All Heritage Care Fund offerings remain in the local church treasury, 90% of such to be turned in at the state/national convention. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 20% to be retained by the state/national treasury for improving, building and maintaining the headquarters; the remaining balance to be subsequently divided: 10% to the general treasury, 10% to the state/national treasury, 10% to Ministerial Aid, 35% to Tomlinson College and 35% to Mission Homes for Children. The General Treasurer sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state/nation to the respective state/national treasurer for the general state/national fund. The Assembly has recommended that 10% of the Assembly offerings of the Heritage Care Fund be retained by General Headquarters for General Properties, 40% for Tomlinson College and 40% for Mission Homes for Children.

EMERGENCY FUND: All ministers and members are to pay one dollar a year, or the amount set by the World Mission Committee where applicable, into the treasury of the local churches where their memberships are, and the treasurer sends the emergency dollars as collected with his monthly report. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all emergency money sent to General Headquarters.

GENERAL PROPERTIES FUND: The Assembly recommends these portions be designated as General Properties Fund:

1. Not less than 50% of the CPMA membership each year after 10% is deducted for Ministerial Aid;
2. 10% of the state and national convention offerings;
3. 10% of the Assembly offerings of Heritage Care Fund and Bible Training Institute.

The Assembly recommends that if there should be any deficit occurring in the General Properties Fund in making the monthly payments, such deficit be paid from the General Fund.

MISSION MONEY: The second Sunday mission offering and mission money raised by other means remain in the local church treasury, 90% of such to be turned in at the state and national convention. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: for the improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state convention mission offering is to remain in the state treasury. The General Treasurer receives 10% of the balance and the state treasurer keeps 10%, or an equal amount. Half of the remainder is left in the state for the general state fund, and half sent to the General Treasurer as world mission money.

The General Treasurer receives all mission money collected in the March and October drives for world missions. It is to be sent with the local treasurer's monthly report. All mission offerings at the Assembly are turned in to the General Treasurer as world mission money. The General Treasurer sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of the mission money sent to the General Treasurer.

FIRST SUNDAY OFFERING: Each local church receives an offering for the pastor on the first Sunday of each month.

DISTRICT OVERSEER SUPPORT: The Assembly recommends that a love offering be received for the district overseer in his district convention. If the district overseer is requested by the State Overseer to perform a duty involving considerable expense, the State Overseer will be responsible for such expense.

FOURTH SUNDAY OFFERING: The local church treasurer sends the full amount of the fourth Sunday offering to the State/National Treasurer to be designated and used as Overseer's expense. If there are not sufficient fourth Sunday offerings to cover his expense as Overseer, the excess tithes in the state/national treasury may be used to supplement the fourth Sunday offerings. DO NOT send any of the fourth Sunday offerings to the General Treasurer. Each local church should receive poundings for the Overseer once or twice a year.

VICTORY LEADERS BAND OFFERING: 90% of all money raised for the Free Literature Fund by the Victory Leaders is given in at the state or national convention. Money for the expense of the band should be received in a special offering. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: for the improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state or national convention free literature offering is left in the state treasury. The General Treasurer receives 10% of the balance and the state treasurer retains 20% for the general state fund. The balance is sent to the White Wing Publishing House. The Assembly Free Literature Offering is given to the World Language Department. The White Wing Publishing House sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all free literature and world literature outreach monies received by the White Wing Publishing House, and the balance is disbursed by the Church Publishing Committee.

ASSEMBLY EXPENSE: To assist in the expense of the annual assemblies, the State Overseers are asked to collect funds each year and send to the General Treasurer.

a. Churches having less than 50 in Sunday School are to contribute annually $2.00 to Assembly expense; churches with Sunday School attendance between 50 and 100 are to contribute $3.00 annually; churches averaging 100 to 150 in Sunday School are to contribute $5.00 annually; churches with Sunday School attendance of 150 and over are to contribute $7.00 annually.

b. Each Victory Leaders Band is to contribute $2.00 annually; each Women's Missionary Band is to contribute $2.00 annually, and each minister, including deacons and lay ministers, is to contribute $1.00 annually.

c. The Assembly recommends that the pastors be responsible for collecting the Assembly Expense Dollars for the auxiliaries and forward to the State Overseer, and the State Overseer be responsible to collect the dollars from the ministers in his state. These funds are to be mailed to the General Treasurer as collected. The final report of the Assembly expense should be given by the Overseer with the state convention report to the General Treasurer, and the State Secretaries be responsible to the State Overseer to boost and assist in collecting these funds.

CHURCH OF PROPHECY MARKER ASSOCIATION: To be a member of the Church of Prophecy Marker Association, one pays $5.00 a year, any time during the year. In other nations, to become a member one must pay an amount set by the Overseer and CPMA Committee.

CPMA offerings remain in the local church treasury, 90% of which are turned in at the state convention. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 20% of the CPMA state convention offering remains in the state treasury for improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters; 10% of the balance is sent to the General Treasurer, and an equal amount is sent to the state treasurer for the state work, and an equal amount is sent to the General Treasurer for The Ministerial Aid Fund. Of the amount presently remaining in the state treasury, 50% is to be sent to the General Treasurer. Not less than 50% of the CPMA membership fees each year, after 10% is deducted for Ministerial Aid, is to go to the General Properties Fund.

BIBLE TRAINING INSTITUTE: The Assembly recommends that the pastors be responsible for conducting classes in the local churches to acquaint our people with the doctrine and practices of the Church. Offerings received in the classes are turned in at the state convention to assist Bible Training Institute in teaching other nations. 10% of state and national convention offerings and Assembly offerings of Bible Training Institute are to be sent to General Headquarters for the General Properties Fund.

Deeds for Church Property

The following resolution was adopted by the 58th Annual Assembly of the Church of God of Prophecy, held in Cleveland, Tennessee, September 10-16, 1963:

WHEREAS it has been advised by competent attorneys that specific mention of proper authorities be stated in an effort to ease the complications arising in our endeavors to be recognized by the courts, and to facilitate the handling of deeds to our church properties,

BE IT RESOLVED that trustees to hold title to local church property for the Church of God of Prophecy with international headquarters at Cleveland, Tennessee, be selected by the local church either in a regular or called business meeting, said trustees to be vested with authority to bargain, buy, sell, convey or encumber such property by mortgage or otherwise only when authorized to do so by the local church in regular or called business meeting, and with the consent of the General Trustees.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said consent of the General Trustees be evidenced by a separate writing or by the signature of the Chief Clerk of the said General Trustees, such documents to be notarized.

BE IT RESOLVED that state church trustees appointed by the State Overseer to hold title to property for the Church of God of Prophecy with international headquarters at Cleveland, Tennessee, be vested with authority to bargain, buy, sell, convey, or encumber such property by mortgage with the consent of the General Trustees. This applies to property being held by state trustees where churches have been disbanded or are too weak to function and to property which has been given to the state. All other property with title in the state trustees or a state Holding Association may be disposed of or mortgaged only by the consent of the state convention in session (modified in 1981).

Note: The following Warranty Deed form has been prepared by the General Trustees and should be used where it is possible to do so. Blank forms may be secured from the General Trustees.

WARRANTY DEED

FOR AND IN CONSIDERATION of the sum of _____ _____ Dollars (_____) cash in hand paid and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, We, _____ have this day bargained and sold and by these presents do hereby bargain, sell, transfer and convey unto _____ _____ local Trustees for the Church of God of Prophecy, at _____, for the use and benefit of the Church of God of Prophecy, with headquarters at 3720 Keith Street NW, Cleveland, Tennessee, and their successors and assigns, the following described real estate, to wit:

(Add description of real estate here.)

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD said real estate unto the said _____ _____ local Trustees, for the use and benefit of the Church of God of Prophecy, with headquarters at 3720 Keith Street NW, Cleveland, Tennessee, and their successors and assigns forever; provided, however, that neither they nor their successors in office as such local Trustees may sell, convey or encumber the said real estate without the written consent of the General Trustees of the said Church at Cleveland, Tennessee, which consent may be evidenced by a separate writing or by the Chief Clerk of the said General Trustees joining in the execution of a deed of the above named Trustees or their successors in office for the purpose of certifying the consent of the General Trustees to the execution of such conveyance.

WE COVENANT that we are lawfully seized and possessed of said real estate; that we have a good and lawful right thus to sell and convey the same; that the title thereto is clear, free and unencumbered, and that we will forever warrant and defend said title against the lawful claims of all persons.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, witness our hands and names, this _____ day of _____, 19 _____.

NOTE: The present General Trustees are Billy Murray, L. F. Kendrick, Henry O'Neal, Robert J. Puritt, and Hugh R. Edwards. Billy Murray is chairman and Robert J. Puritt is the chief clerk.

World Must Be Evangelized

It will take good organization and systematic methods to accomplish this task.

God's power is demonstrated in proportion to the unity and oneness of His people.

The members of the early Church were all of one accord, steadfast in the Apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and the multitude that believed were of one heart and one soul, and great grace was upon them all and mighty results followed as a consequence of their perfect unity and careful organization.

We must banish from our minds the thoughts of individual or local independence and haphazard spasmodic efforts.

Pull together, pull at once, pull steadily all the time is the road to success.

All members should be ready to center their minds and prayers on the one thing, as a unit, when calls for special prayer are made. Each should feel his or her part of the responsibility, remembering that when one member fails, it hinders the body until the matter pending may fail.

Local Church Officers and Leaders

1. Pastor: It is the duty of the State or National Overseer to supply every church under his jurisdiction with a pastor. Pastors are to be appointed at the state or national convention every two years beginning 1991, and vacancies will be filled as they occur. The duties of the pastor expire at midnight the last Sunday in July at the church he is leaving and automatically begin at the same time at the church to which he is moving.

2. Clerk: The local church clerk is to be appointed by the pastor at the same time as the other leaders and officers are appointed during the first two months of his pastoral year. The pastor is to see that a careful record is made by the church clerk of this action. The date of the appointments along with names of each leader should be recorded in the following conference as a matter of good business.

3. Treasurer: The treasurer is appointed in the same manner as the clerk. It is advised that one person serve as both clerk and treasurer when satisfactory to the local church. The treasurer will receive and disburse all funds of the local church including tithes, auxiliary funds and special funds and will maintain an accurate record of all receipts and disbursements.

4. Auxiliary Leaders: Leaders for the five auxiliaries—Sunday School, Women's Missionary Band, Victory Leaders Band, Church of Prophecy Marker Association, Pastoral Care—are appointed by the pastor during the first two months of his pastoral year.

Each pastor, with the assistance of the deacons, should divide his members into bands of ten or twelve and appoint a leader for each band. The leader should keep in touch with each member of the band, and if any should move away, communications should be kept up by correspondence. This is for the spiritual benefit of the members. The pastor should keep in close touch with the band leaders.

5. Local Trustees: Trustees to hold title to local church property are selected by the local church in a regular or called business meeting and are authorized to bargain, buy, sell, convey or encumber the local property only when authorized to do so by the local church in a regular or called business meeting, and with the written consent of the General Trustees.

6. Other Officers and Leaders: The Assembly has authorized the pastor to appoint a Church Literature Representative, Public Relations Director, Bible Training Institute Booster and any other leaders during the first two months of his pastoral year.

Business Meetings

Each local church should hold a regular business conference quarterly. It has been the practice to observe the first Monday night in January, April, July, and October for the conference. A meeting may be called any time by the pastor or State Overseer. A short business meeting may be held at the beginning or close of a meeting for worship.

The pastor should act as moderator of all business meetings. If there is no pastor, the State Overseer has the authority to act or to appoint a licensed male minister to preside. Where one pastor has the care of several churches, he may arrange the business meetings for his convenience.

Every member should attend every business session if possible. Women are to take no open part in discussing or deciding questions, but should always be there and silently pray that God will give wisdom and direct the men.

Matters should be discussed with love, humility and meekness. No votes should be taken to decide questions. Everything should be done with one accord and questions settled by mutual agreement. If there is division on a matter, hold it over until all can agree. If one should seem obstinate and contrary, do not run the matter over him, but take up his case and investigate the cause of his obstinacy; if he shows a good spirit so that he can be heard, then show him courtesy. If he proves to be wrong, deal with him as the Bible directs. Then, take up the original subject and dispose of it in harmony and love.

If a matter cannot be settled satisfactorily by the local church, they should call for the assistance of the State Overseer. If they are still unable to reach a satisfactory conclusion, it should be referred to the General Overseer.

Suggested Arrangement and Order of Business

The clerk and treasurer should be seated at the front, near the moderator. Leaders who will be submitting reports to the conference, a long with lay ministers and deacons, should also be seated near the front.

The conference should be opened with an appropriate Scripture reading and a sincere prayer for divine guidance.

Clerk read minutes of last regular meeting and any called meetings.

Correction of minutes, if any.

Treasurer give report of finances and always give an itemized statement of receipts and disbursements and balance in treasury.

Leader of WMB give report of the work of the band, including finances, receipts and disbursements.

Victory Leaders Director give report of the work and progress of the band, including finances, receipts and disbursements.

Pastor give report of the Pastoral Care work, amount of money raised monthly, number of strays found and brought back (Luke 15:4-6), and give account of every member of his flock (Hebrews 13:17).

Report of CPMA Leader—number of members and receipts.

The Sunday School Superintendent give report of the work and progress of the school, including finances, receipts and disbursements.

Report of church literature representative.

Acceptance of transfers.

Members to transfer.

Unfinished business

New business.

Adjournment by prayer.

Advice to Members

As a member, you count one and should attend every regular service as far as possible. Remember no one can fill your place and the service will be that much hindered without your presence.

Show love and fellowship to everyone without partiality. Don't wait for others to greet you but you greet them.

Show special courtesy to strangers who may attend one of your services.

As a rule, take part in the singing.

Be ready for vocal prayer when called on or prompted by the Spirit.

Be ready for testimony when such is in order.

Stand by your pastor or appointed leader and assist him in every way you can.

Always pray silently for the preacher while he delivers the message. Always live a consecrated life at home and abroad so no one can justly think or speak of you as a hypocrite.

Guard your conversation. Be careful what you say about a brother, sister, or anyone else.

Don't be a critic and try to find something in others to criticize.

Examine yourself occasionally and see if you are in the faith.

Don't yield to discouragement or despondency.

Be cheerful and happy and try to make others the same.

Spend as much time as you can in secret prayer. Give yourself all you can to intercessory prayer. Daily prayers and study of God's Word are necessary and very important for the spiritual welfare of each child of God; therefore, everyone is urged to faithfully maintain as far as is possible family worship at home at least once a day.

Your dress should be with moderation, neat and clean, but not for show. Moderation includes paying moderate prices for clothing, wearing dresses of high-enough necklines, low-enough hemlines, sleeves of reasonable length. The wearing of extremely sheer fabrics is unbecoming to a saint and the wearing of shorts in public should never be practiced. You should never wear gold for ornament or decoration. Finger rings, bracelets, earrings, necklaces, locketts and large showy pins—these are also unbecoming to a saint of God. Rouge, lipstick, nail polish and extremely costly perfumes are used to satisfy the pride of life and therefore they should have no place in the lives of those who love God. Please read and study these scriptures often: 1 Peter 3:3, 4; 1 Timothy 2:9, 10 and 1 John 2:15-17.

You should not permit yourself to be trapped by worldly attractions. The Bible says, "Neither give place to the devil." Dabbling with worldly amusements like professional ball games, horse races, stock car races, wrestling arenas, skating rinks, motion picture houses or drive-in theaters, bowling alleys and going swimming where men and women both use the same bathing area would give the devil a foothold or place in your life.

Always tithe your income and put it in the church treasury. Make freewill offerings other than your tithes.

Younger members should not keep company or associate too intimately with worldly outsiders.

Because of the ever-increasing number of broken homes, separations, divorces and remarriages, the greatest care should be taken with much prayer and consideration regarding proposed matrimony.

A member who may have a living companion should not marry another under any circumstances, even if divorced. Neither should a member marry anyone who has a living companion although such a person may be divorced.

Children are a heritage from the Lord. Those who have children are responsible to teach them at an early age to reverence the house of God. This should be done by setting a good example before them and by instructing them with such a good spirit that they will have a strong desire to serve the Lord. MINISTERS are to meet all of the requirements in being examples to the members by keeping their children under reasonable control at all times and by restraining them from running about over the house of God, especially while the services are in progress.

The White Wing Messenger is a very important part of the Church of God. It should be read regularly by every member and your interest in advertising the Church should be so great that when you have finished reading your copy, you would pass it along to someone else. Every member who possibly can should subscribe, and each minister is asked to be a "paid-up" subscriber and an earnest worker for our church paper—The White Wing Messenger.

These are the last days and perilous times have come and it will require much watchfulness and humble prayer for you to so live and act that you will never bring reproach on the worthy name of Christ and His Church that you so much love.

Never form too close an intimacy with the opposite sex even if they are brothers and sisters in the Lord. Give no place to the Adversary. Abstain from the very appearance of evil.

These kindly instructions and advice are given by those who are watching for your soul as they must give an account (Hebrews 13:17), and it is hoped they will be received with the same meek, gentle spirit in which they are given.

Rationale

In the 74th Annual Assembly, the General Overseer addressed an on-going problem relative to "Advice to Members," and in a section devoted to that subject said, "For many years our Assembly Minutes have contained a section entitled Advice to Members. These instructions were prepared for the purpose of providing counsel to the members of the Church to aid them in fighting the good fight of faith.

"From time to time we hear of those who assume a legalistic attitude with regards to the Advice to Members, as though they would make commandments of the things mentioned in this advice. The display of such attitudes usually does more harm than good. A gentle spirit of teaching will be much more effective than attempts to enforce as laws those things which have been set forth as advice....

"Perhaps we should take a closer look at this section of our Assembly Minutes, and at the spirit in which it is given" (74 AM, 1979, p. 41).

In spite of the General Overseer's admonition, many continue to take a harsh and judgmental approach in presenting the Advice to Members.

Holiness cannot be characterized as living in conformity with a list of prohibitions. True holiness manifests a Christ like nature in word and deed, and controls every area of one's life, external and internal.

For those who follow a holy God, the New Testament principles of holiness clearly reject such conduct as viewing pornographic films, reading sexually explicit literature, gambling, slanderous gossip, child abuse, spouse battering, and every other wrong conduct. On the positive side, a holy people are also diligent in perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

In the Advice to Members it is almost impossible to list everything which should be approved and/or disapproved for all people, in all cultures, under all conditions, for all time. Clearly, the New Testament principles of holiness are in every way superior to and more demanding than any list the General Assembly could possibly devise.

Resolution

The Advice to Members has its foundations in the New Testament. There the guidelines for proper Christian conduct in every situation are clearly given. All matters of personal Christian ethics are to be governed by the following principles: (1) In everything we are to "walk worthy of the vocation wherewith [we] are called" (Ephesians 4:1), not permitting any conduct in ourselves which would bring reproach on the name of Jesus. (2) We are to "abstain from all appearance of evil" (1 Thessalonians 5:22; Romans 12:9; 1 Timothy 5:14; 1 Peter 3:11). (3) In word or deed, "neither give place to the devil" (Ephesians 4:27). (4) "Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God" (1 Corinthians 10:31). (5) In matters of conscience, we are to avoid offending others who might stumble over our conduct (Matthew 18:7; Mark 9:42; Romans 14:21; 1 Corinthians 8:13; 10:32; 2 Corinthians 6:3). (6) We must ourselves keep a clean conscience before God, and not violate our own convictions regarding any matter (Romans 13:5; 14:22, 23; 1 Corinthians 8:7). (7) We must not judge one another in non essential matters of personal conviction (Romans 14:1-5, 19). (8) We must maintain a moderate lifestyle which will reflect the inner character of a meek and quiet spirit (Romans 12:1, 2; 1 Corinthians 9:25; Galatians 5:22, 23; 1 Timothy 2:9, 10; 1 Peter 3:3, 4; 1 John 2:15, 16). (9) By our conduct we must adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things (Titus 2:1-10). (10) We must continue to perfect holiness in the fear of God by cleansing ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit (2 Corinthians 7:1).

Duties of State and National Overseers

Each overseer is to have the oversight of his state, nation or territory, and together with the General Overseer, will form the presbytery in his respective area. In addition to his general responsibility for the work under his jurisdiction, he will be responsible for specific duties.

To conduct or order a general evangelistic campaign during the year. If there are only a few churches in the state or are assigned him, he will serve primarily as the evangelist, evangelizing in new fields and endeavoring to establish new churches. If his area has a large number of churches and ministers, he will be responsible to organize and direct the evangelistic efforts of his workers in new fields.

To see that every church is supplied with a pastor.

To divide his state or territory into districts and place over each district an overseer. This is not a rule, but it is considered best when there are sufficient churches to make it practical. He should conduct district meetings at intervals during the year where special instructions concerning the work can be given.

To hold one general convention each year in the area most convenient for members from all the churches to attend.

To secure the name and address of every bishop, deacon, and evangelist under his jurisdiction and keep a record of these so he can report to the General Overseer, if necessary. He will also issue lay ministers' certificates and teachers' licenses and keep the necessary records concerning them.

Keep an accurate record of the location of every church and the number of members in his territory, keeping a record of the increase so this information can be reported each year. This can be done by keeping in touch with the clerks of the churches. Every minister and clerk should take an interest in imparting this information to the overseer. All new organizations should be reported to the overseer.

To visit every district and church, if possible, and look after the interests in every way, as a pastor over a large circuit.

Duties of District Overseers

The district overseers are to be appointed by the State Overseer.

To moderate business conferences for women preachers who maybe acting as pastors and for male pastors who are not licensed.

To do evangelistic work in his district. If he has a district with no churches, it is his duty to evangelize and organize churches.

To conduct district conventions according to the instructions of the State Overseer.

To assist the State Overseer, when called upon, in all things relating to church work, and he is subject to the State Overseer.

Obligation for Membership in the Church of God of Prophecy

Will you sincerely promise in the presence of God and these witnesses that you will accept this Bible as the Word of God—believe and practice its teachings rightly divided—the New Testament as your rule of faith and practice, government and discipline, and walk in the light to the best of your knowledge and ability?

Teachings of the Church of God of Prophecy

The Church of God of Prophecy stands for the whole Bible rightly divided—the New Testament as the only rule of government and discipline. Listed below are some basic Bible beliefs:

REPENTANCE—Mark 1:15; Luke 13:3; Acts 3:19.

JUSTIFICATION—Romans 5:19; Titus 3:7.

REGENERATION—Titus 3:5; Ephesians 2:1, 4, 5.

BORN AGAIN—John 3:3, 1 Peter 1:23; 1 John 3:9.

SANCTIFICATION—subsequent to Justification—Romans 5:2; 1 Corinthians 1:30; 1 Thessalonians 4:3; Hebrews 13:12; 1 John 1:9.

HOLINESS—Luke 1:74, 75; 1 Thessalonians 4:7; Hebrews 12:14.

WATER BAPTISM—Matthew 28:19; Mark 1:8-10; John 3:22, 23; Acts 8:21, 36-38; 10:47, 48; 16:33; 19:3-5.

BAPTISM WITH THE HOLY GHOST—subsequent to cleansing, the endowment of power for service—Matthew 3:11; Luke 24:49-53; Acts 1:4-8.

SPEAKING IN TONGUES as the evidence of the Baptism with the Holy Ghost—John 15:26; Acts 2:4; 10:44-46; 19:6.

FULL RESTORATION OF THE GIFTS TO THE CHURCH—1 Corinthians 12:1, 7-10, 28, 31; 1 Corinthians 14:1.

SIGNS FOLLOWING BELIEVERS—Mark 16:17-20; Romans 15:18, 19; Hebrews 2:4.

FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT—Romans 6:22; Galatians 5:22, 23; Ephesians 5:9; Philippians 1:11.

DIVINE HEALING provided for all in the atonement—Psalm 103:3; Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17; James 5:14-16; 1 Peter 2:24.

THE LORD'S SUPPER—Luke 22:17-20; 1 Corinthians 11:23-33.

WASHING THE SAINTS' FEET—John 13:4-17; 1 Timothy 5:10.

TITHING AND GIVING—Genesis 14:18-20; 28:20-22; Malachi 3:10; Matthew 23:23 Luke 11:42; 1 Corinthians 16:2; 2 Corinthians 9:6-9; Hebrews 7:1-21.

RESTITUTION WHERE POSSIBLE—Matthew 3:8; Luke 19:8, 9; Romans 13:8.

PRE-MILLENNIAL SECOND COMING OF JESUS: First, to resurrect the dead saints and to catch away the living saints to meet Him in the air—Matthew 24:27, 28; 1 Corinthians 15:51, 52; 1 Thessalonians 4:15-17. Second, to reign on earth a thousand years—Zechariah 14:4, 5; Luke 1:32; 1 Thessalonians 4:14; 2 Thessalonians 1:7-10; Jude 14, 15; Revelation 5:10; 19:11-21; 20:4-6.

RESURRECTION—Isaiah 26:19; Daniel 12:2; John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15; Revelation 20:5, 6.

ETERNAL LIFE FOR THE RIGHTEOUS—Matthew 25:46; Luke 18:30; John 10:28; Romans 6:22; 1 John 5:11-13.

ETERNAL PUNISHMENT FOR THE WICKED no liberation nor annihilation—Matthew 25:4-46; Mark 3:29; 2 Thessalonians 1:8, 9; Revelation 20:10-15; 21:8.

TOTAL ABSTINENCE FROM ALL LIQUOR OR STRONG DRINKS—Proverbs 20:1; 23:29-32; Isaiah 28:7; 1 Corinthians 5:11; 6:10; Galatians 5:21.

AGAINST THE USE OF TOBACCO IN ANY FORM, OPIUM, MORPHINE, ETC.—Isaiah 55:2; 1 Corinthians 10:31, 32; 2 Corinthians 7:1; Ephesians 5:3-8; James 1:21.

ON MEATS AND DRINKS—Romans 14:2, 3, 17; 1 Corinthians 8:8; 1 Timothy 4:1-5.

ON THE SABBATH—Hosea 2:11; Romans 13:1, 2; 14:5, 6; Colossians 2:16, 17.

AGAINST WEARING GOLD FOR ORNAMENT or decoration such as finger rings, bracelets, earrings, locketts, etc.—1 Peter 3:3, 4; 1 John 2:16; 1 Timothy 2:9.

AGAINST BELONGING TO LODGES—Matthew 5:34; John 18:20; 2 Corinthians 6:14-17; James 5:12.

AGAINST SWEARING—Matthew 5:34; James 5:12.

AGAINST DIVORCE AND REMARRIAGE EVIL—Matthew 5:32; 14:3, 4; 19:3-12; Mark 10:12; Luke 16:18; Romans 7:2, 3; 1 Corinthians 5:1-5, 13; 6:9, 13, 16-18; 7:2, 10, 11; Revelation 2:20-22; Acts 15:28, 29.
