79th Annual Assembly of the CHURCH OF GOD OF PROPHECY

Held in the Assembly Tabernacle
Cleveland, Tennessee, U.S.A.

September 4-10

1984

"Ye are come unto Mount Sion . . . and to an innumerable company of angels, to the general assembly and church of the firstborn . . . and to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant."

"Put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground."

Prefatory Notes

We give praise to God for the richness of His blessings upon the 79th Assembly, which from beginning to end was a "feast of fat things." The 19,506 delegates who sat together in this "heavenly place" during this week of worship and soulsearching surely feel challenged to greater vistas of service for our Master.

Hearts were stirred again and again as God spoke to us through ministers who were visibly anointed by the Holy Ghost. It is difficult to think we could ever be the same again after sitting under the influence of such powerful preaching. Those who sang and ministered to us through this medium not only sang beautifully, but they put their hearts into their ministry, and such singing lifted our spirits to God in true worship. The business sessions were pleasant as those participating manifested attitudes of humility and respect for one another.

In addition to delegates from all fifty states of the United States, sixty-three other nations were represented. For so many people from so many different cultures to assemble and transact business so harmoniously can be attributed only to the work of the Holy Ghost, whose presence was very evident among us.

Pre-Assembly events included an appreciation banquet hosted by the Cleveland/Bradley Chamber of Commerce, the Tomlinson College scholarship banquet, the annual Presbytery meeting and dinner and the Fields of the Wood Program.

We appreciate the good coverage provided by the news media, as well as the hospitality of the officials and citizens of Cleveland and Bradley County. Without the opening of their homes by the local citizens there would be no way to house the large number of out-of-town delegates.

Much labor and planning went into this week-long gathering, and all who cooperated and worked are to be commended. Every department of the Church was ably promoted during the various sessions, and we sincerely appreciate the faithful labors of our workers. To God be the glory for all that was accomplished, because it is for His glory that the Assemblies are conducted.

The 80th Annual General Assembly will be held, God willing, September 3-9, 1985.

M. A. Tomlinson
General Overseer

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4

AFTERNOON

1:15 Organ music by Norma Bryant. Two songs led by Mary Nell Adkins with Annette Flippo, pianist; Londa Richardson, organist. Luke 6:43-49 read by Larry Lowry. Prayer by Charles Winchester, followed by concert prayer.

1:42 Opening of the 79th General Assembly by the General Overseer. Many saints of God have lived through the years, but you and I are privileged to be here today; God is expecting us to carry out His Word and do the things He has asked us to do. We are doing our best to carry on as the Early Church did; they went to Jerusalem once a year for their services to the Lord. I feel that the Church in these last days needs to make a pilgrimage to the Headquarters and give all of our time, energy and talent into building the great Church of God. Hebrews 12:22-29. We who have the Holy Ghost, I want us to get so wrapped up in the Word of God and doing what the Word says that we will put in practice what the Bible says and that we have agreed on in the General Assemblies. What a responsibility the Church has of preaching in all nations an "every creature message"! I have been delighted to hear of wonderful forward moves in some states and nations. (All bowed their heads as the General Overseer prayed and declared the 79th Assembly in session to do business.)

1:57 Appointment of Committees:

(This message will be printed in the November 3, 1984 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be ordered on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

3:15 Ministerial Tribute Program, in charge of Roy D. Mixon, Director. Theme: Double-Honor Tournchbears. Director led congregation in singing "Amazing Grace"; Greg Stephens, pianist. Concert prayer by these national overseers: Indonesia—S. B. Pardede; Philippine Islands—Herman Ard; Windward Islands—Stanley Knights; song arrangement by Dennis and Sherry Shroyer.

3:33 His Ministers—Flames for God—message by C. S. Pennington. Excerpts: You can hardly find a flame without finding a fire nearby. When we speak of ministers as being a fire for God, we mean they are full of the power of God. Hebrews 1:7 tells how God could put a fire in a man. David mentioned God in the same manner in Psalm 104:4. When we mention flame, we think of a man as being brilliant, shining, excited, burning, zealous and enthusiastic. Fire will attract attention. Exodus 3 tells of Moses keeping the flock of his father-in-law. When he came to the camp of God, an angel appeared unto him in a fiery bush, but it was not consumed. A voice told him to pull off his shoes because he was on holy ground. God had a message for Moses. Moses listened as he was told of the people in Egypt who were being hindered and bound. Moses said, "Why me"? The Children of Israel wanted out of their bondage. When Moses turned aside, God told him the things He wanted done. Moses felt unworthy; the power of God is able to make us do abundantly above what we feel we are able. Fire stirs and draws attention. We don't want wild fires. We are talking about a fire that will bring excitement in the pulpit and the pews; that will cause people to seek after God and find Him. Many times we have been in the pulpit burning up with zeal and enthusiasm; other times we stand alone. There is a solution to our problem if we dig into the depths of God's Word. Matthew 3:11, 12.

A few coals may not be burning like we would like; take the fan and begin to work and get back that bright shining fire that we may be able to preach as God would have us do. If we can get the fire of God in the pulpit, we can get the steam among our people. I used to work at a sawmill operating the steam engine. I had to be sure I had enough water and right amount of fire and not overdo it. It will depend on it being there if we put it in the right perspective. Jeremiah 20:8, 9. Jeremiah was down in his spiritual realm and felt that the world had sat down on him. Sometimes we get along the same line. We feel we are not able to get over to our people what we would like to. Maybe our preaching is not as effective as we would like. Jeremiah said he was in a derision daily. He was ridiculed on every hand. Have you ever felt that burning within? When you have fire in your bones, if it is shut up, it will explode. You can't keep it down. Fire has its own boundary. You don't soon put it out. It will go its course if it is let go. If you have that burning on the inside, it has to come out; and it may reach not only in the place where we are, but beyond our realm. We need the brakes off; this train is due. When we get in the realm of the goodness of God and His Spirit and become eager to have all that God will give us, we will see great and mighty things happen. Saul was out to destroy the Church; he was knocked down at Damascus; his life was changed. He straightway began preaching the very thing he was fighting. The power of God will stir within us and cause us to do great and mighty things for Him. Isaiah 6:5-8. Isaiah felt so unworthy, but he said, "Here am I, send me." God give us the fire and cause us to pick up and go. Let's keep the fire of God burning in the pulpit throughout the world.

3:53 Double Honor to a Touchbearer—tribute to A. T. Wagar: Romans 13:7; I am very happy to have an honorable touchbearer this year to represent the seven thousand ministers in the Church and more especially those great men and women who “seemed like torches and ran like the lightnings” to hasten the glorious message of Christ and His Church to the four corners of the earth; first and second generation Church of God ministers who were Zechariah’s “fire in the wood, and a torch of fire in the sheaf,” whose untiring efforts and dedication helped make the Church of God great throughout the world.

This double-honor touchbearer served many years as a full-time pastor and twenty-five years under General Appointment, most of those years in the activities of the Ministerial Aid Department. He presently serves as a special emissary to the General Overseer and curator of the General Church Archives.

1 Timothy 5:17. I feel that this elder’s labor of love and dedication and salvation is to the extent that he would say, “Who cares about who gets the credit so long as the work is done.” Bishop A. T. Wagar, I take joy in presenting a Touchbearer plaque to a bishop of bishops, an elder of elders, a minister of ministers, a leader of leaders, and most important, a Christian of Christians.

“The Church of God Flag Song” by Dennis and Sherry Shroyer; Brother Mixon prayed.

4:25 Emmitt Davis directed as 174 who have been members of the Church for more than thirty years announced their names and number of years they have been members of the Church of God.

4:39 Message by H. E. Cardin. Excerpts: 1 Corinthians 12:12-27. Paul was saying that you are the Body of Christ. The body is made up of about 100 trillion cells. The amoeba is a single cell within the body; there is also the white blood cell. The amoeba looks just like the white blood cells, but their actions are different. When the enemy comes, the white blood cells rush to save and protect the body. The amoeba runs from the enemy and only takes care of itself. To be a part of the body, we can't live that way. 2 Corinthians 5:15. When a problem arises in the local church, lot of people will run the other way. The amoeba is not affected by this because it is not a part of the body—no unity. Within the body, there must be unity. John 17:11. (Summarized 1 Corinthians 12.) If one cell becomes rebellious, he will take and never give and be independent from the body; will produce other rebellious cells. This is called cancer. Just one cell could start cancer. If the white blood cells wouldn't give their lives for this body, I would have leukemia. I want to look at myself and think, what kind of cell am I in the Body? Paul said that you are a member in particular. Are you a healthy or cancerous cell? We hear how the devil is trying to destroy the local church. Jesus settled this in Matthew 16:18. It is not the outside that will destroy my body. How many times did Jesus look on the inside of the body? Luke 14:28; Matthew 13:44; Mark 8:34.

Within your body, there are precious fat cells. I used to think it would be great if I could have every fat cell in my body removed. I didn't know that if I did, I would drop dead; the fat cells are little shock absorbers and vital organs in my body. When you eat more than you should, the body has a savings account and makes deposits. When you stop eating, your body withdraws from that cell. If just one greedy fat cell says I am not going to give, he reproduces fat cells and they grow and grow. They take and never give. In some cases, it grows separate from the body. You have a mass of healthy flesh while the body is starving. This is a tumor. I have been taught to pay tithes and to give. If one should get tired of giving, there is a danger of becoming a cancer in the body. You will produce other greedy cells. Romans 12:1. This is your reasonable service.

There are many precious things in my body. My bones help my muscles to work. In the Body of Christ, we have the doctrine. 2 Timothy 3:16, 17. The doctrine must be within me. The only time I have trouble with my bones is when I break them. We can't scare people. John 13:35. It is not my bones you see; it is the skin. The skin keeps the sun from drying the vital fluids in my body; protects me if my temperature rises or decreases. The Body of Christ must reach out and touch. You hear a lot about how the world needs to hear the Word of God; some of you have heard it for years and didn't believe it until you saw it in operation. Some say that they just want to be a silent witness. You didn't believe until you were touched by the Word. John 20:25. It is easy to say that I love everybody in the world. Jesus could have had that long distance love and sat upon the throne and said to the prophets, "tell them I love them." Hebrews 4:15. He had local love; even though it was unlawful, He touched people. Jesus came in person; you can't express your love in long distance love.

Some say they have tried to reach out and touch but have been hurt. If you never felt pain, you would be a leper. If you are tired of being hurt, you are becoming a leper cell. The Body of Christ cannot have leprosy; we must reach out and touch. Pain is not God's way of punishing us; it says you need attention there. It has been said that a man is like a hog—the only time he can look up is when he is on his back. On the average, not a cell in your body is the same cell you had ten years ago. The only cells which never change are the brain and nerve cells. Jesus Christ is the Head of the Church. Ephesians 4:13. Are you an amoeba or are you a part of the Body? Ephesians 5:27. I challenge everyone to find your place in the Body of Christ. I am sure you will hear cries of pain within the Body; only healthy cells will respond. Open your heart and ears and listen.

5:08 Adjournment by all standing and thanking the Lord. Music and singing by David Baroni.

8:50 Compromise—NO! NO! NO! NO!—message by Jose A. Reyes, Sr. Scriptures: Jude 3; 1 Timothy 3:15; 1 Corinthians 10:11; Exodus 8:25; 33:15; Isaiah 60:1; 2 Chronicles 7:2; 5:14; Exodus 8:28; Psalm 24:3, 4; Ephesians 1:4; Exodus 29:43; 10:11, 24; 1 John 2:15; Matthew 6:33; 16:24, 25. (This message will be printed in the November 17, 1984 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be obtained on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.) Ron and Debbe Craig directed music and singing during altar service.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5

MORNING

7:30 Sunrise service in charge of Jim Eskew and Glenn McDaniel. Organ music by Jenna Allen; music by Bahama Brass Band.

9:00 Inspiration to work—message by T. A. McCalla. Excerpts: Job 32:8. Job declared that there is a spirit in man; that spirit does not get the work done. God used the seers to warn Israel and Judah of their wrongs. 2 Kings 17:13; Ezekiel 13:1-3. This was a warning from God to those prophets who used their spirits. They were saying; "Thus saith the Lord," when they did not hear from God. Sometimes we use our own spirits—not been inspired by God; we become dry and rebellious and aggressive.

Church, we need divine inspiration from God. In the beginning, it was divine. If we reach perfection, we have to remain divine. We have more lecturers today in the pulpit; we become dry and our people are backsliding. We have a lot of learned people in the Church; we seem to be substituting anointing and inspiration for reading and dictating. It does not matter how we can read or how we can write. Job said that the inspiration of the Almighty giveth understanding. There are many books on evangelism, how to pray, how to preach, etc. Our purpose is to work on God's program; without inspiration we become formal. We need a moving of God upon our ministry. We are facing serious problems because many of our people have lost inspiration and anointing. We have a generation coming up that is looking to the ministry for their livelihood. The Church is going to lose out in some areas because of men who are money hungry.

"Woe is me if I preach not the gospel." 1 Corinthians 9:16. Hebrews 10:23, 24. Inspiration is a supernatural influence. When this influence is upon us, we are able to receive and communicate divine truth. I feel wonderful when I know God is using me and prospering the work. We want that kind of provocation that the early Church had in Cherokee County, 1903. They walked out with anointing and inspiration and they communicated what they received from God. He needs to be well pleased with our ministry. We have people in the Church who are not obeying God and they expect to be a blessing. We want our singers and preachers to be inspired and every member under the anointing.

We are circling the city too long; it is time we make a move; get back to the Bible way. Church of God, if we find that this is only a job, our work is going to die. We will have to see this as a responsibility from God. Whether we suffer or the church pays full payment, we are going to preach the Word. Everybody wants to go to heaven their own way; there is only one way to the Pearly Gates: "... without holiness, no man shall see the Lord." If the old folk have to be holy, the young ones will have to be holy; if the unlearned have to be holy, the learned will have to be holy. There is one God and one standard. Titus 2:2-8. There is a trend to stop seeking the inspiration of God; they can read and write well; they care nothing about inspiration. I can read the books; I want somebody to hear from God and know what to do.

If you are strong in the Lord, move up higher and let nobody pull you back. Keep your anointing and stay under the inspiration of God. We don't hear much about the Church of God today—seems like we are modernizing it. The more we modernize it, the more problems we will have. Isaiah 30:10. Israel, the nation of God, got rebellious, they did not want to hear what God had told their seers. God wants His people to stand up for Him; we do not want to just try to get the crowd. When we get God's attention, we will get souls. God said, "All souls are mine." The words of God inspired Paul. 2 Timothy 3:16, 17. This is not the letter, but the Spirit of God. If we want jobs, knock on doors. God expects us to be His servants.

9:30 Church of Prophecy Marker Association Program. Theme: The House in Judgment, directed by Wade H. Phillips, General Secretary. Robert Phelps read Psalm 48:11-14; Matthew 16:18, 19. Richard Bear led in singing "When the Church of God Arises." Concert prayer led by all state secretaries.

9:41 CPMA Zeal by Leslie Porter. Comments: Isaiah 9:7. The zeal of the Lord of Hosts—not Leslie Porter's zeal. I am not doing what I am doing for a trophy, a position or a certificate. It will never be done except through zeal; zeal comes from the people. When things are accomplished, the Lord of Hosts will perform this by the Church working together for a cause. CPMA is a cause; if you are working because you want a trophy, your work is in vain. I ask people to join the CPMA because they desire to do what God wants them to. We need your support and help to get the job done. We need you to help us shine. I am working for a cause—God's cause; God will help us perform this.

9:50 A Feast of Fat Things—Ted Carroll, caretaker in Fields of the Wood. Comments: (Recognized some who donated labor in Fields of the Wood.) The Cleveland (Eastview), TN Church sponsored a walk-a-thon from Cleveland to Fields of the Wood. They had sponsors for the miles walked; 40 percent of the money raised went to help finance beautifying Fields of the Wood. We have distributed over 1,000 brochures; as the Holy Ghost opened doors, we endeavored to go through them. We are working with the Cherokee Indian Historical Society to try to set up brochure distribution in the Smoky Mountains. The more people who come through Fields of the Wood, the more exposure we have in the Church. We are developing a follow-up ministry through the state/national overseers.

When people go back from Fields of the Wood, do your best to indoctrinate them and expose them more to the Church of God. Deacon Greg Wagnon and his wife visited Fields of the Wood. The Spirit of God moved upon them and they purchased a marble seat to put there in remembrance of his family. (Recognized J. W. McDill for many years of service.) We have developed a new picnic area; developing three nature trails at very minimum cost, two new markers have been dedicated; in the process of starting the Golgotha scene. A Catholic priest visited and fell upon his knees facing Commandment Mountain seeking God in intercessory prayer. A Catholic man and wife came; they said they had just been born by the Spirit of God. They saw a brochure in the Smoky Mountain region and the Spirit moved upon them to want to know more about the Church of God. 1 Peter 10:13. The devil don't like the Church of God. Every facet of the CPMA exemplifies the Church as the Body of Christ to the world. Through the help of God and the nourishing of the Holy Ghost, we shall overcome—not by our might and spirit, but only by His Spirit and the unction of the Holy Ghost.

10:05 "Church of God Flower," song by Frances Cobb.

10:14 Qualifications for the Silver Stone—Douglas Quick. Comments: Philippians 3:12-14. Stone, when used in the prophetic way of the Bible, is a messenger of God letting all who behold it know that the bearer is walking in the will of the only true and living God. To the world, the reward for sacrifice means being treated in a grand way. To be given a Nobel Prize, a purple heart, gold, silver or bronze medal, the eternal flame, receive an Oscar or an Emmy means that the bearer has made ample sacrifices. In the Church, our sacrifices are not appealing to the world, but qualify us for a prize of a higher calling. Many of you could have proven worthy to receive one of those prizes; after you were called of God, you forgot about those things which were behind and followed after the knowledge of God. The more you preach godliness and righteousness, the more you are despised by those who have a form of godliness but deny the power. Only they whom are called by God can comprehend the work of the Church. The work of the Church has evaded an acceptable clarification in all ecumenical discussions in the Dark Ages, which was foretold by Paul. We see our task by the renewing of our minds with each member being hand picked, that we are here for a season to be fed on His Word and nurtured by His Holy Spirit. To have every member sanctified means that the shepherds must eat and live the Word, as well as serve and watch the flock for spiritual strength. There must be an ongoing learning and passing on of that knowledge. The Honor Stone tells a beautiful story of a family of people gathered of all nations, who have covenanted with God to walk in the light of His Word to the best of their ability and to help each other present their bodies as living sacrifices, holy and acceptable unto God. Romans 12:1, 2; Isaiah 60:1-3. The Silver Stone is qualifying for the mark of a higher calling.

10:23 Qualifications for the Gold Stone—Gary Smith. Comments: Philippians 3:14-17. This unity of mind will be of no value if it is not based upon the standard of the Word of God. In Acts are decrees delivered unto the Church. Lodges and clubs exhort their members to live by standards of rule, but the Honor Stone Program recognizes only the type of unity based upon the Word of God as set by the General Assembly. The Church must live by those guidelines. For the Gold Honor Stone, churches are to: conduct at least two revivals a year; have business meetings four times a year; must observe the Lord's Supper and feet washing three times a year. An earlier Church found the blessings of the helps and government within the Body. All five auxiliaries must be organized and operating. We read in the Word of God that He added to the Church daily such as should be saved. Members not saved distracts from the Body of every member being knit together as one. We don't advocate disfellowshipping all of our members, thinking that this will perfect the Church; I do believe the Church should take Scriptural steps in dealing with sin in the Church. If we will incorporate the help of the Holy Ghost, working through the auxiliaries, surely we shall reach the mark of the membership saved. When one part of the Body suffers, the other parts suffer. When one of our members lies or steals, the influence of the Body in that community is affected—not just that of one member. When the American Banking Association trains tellers to detect counterfeit money, not one teller touches counterfeit money. They believe if a man becomes familiar with the original that he will never be deceived by the counterfeit. If we will live, walk and breathe like saved people, our world will be convinced that the real Body exists today no matter how much the real Body is imitated. It is going to happen when you and I live by the standards as set forth in God's Word, as outlined in the General Assembly. Our Honor Stone Program does not recognize financial or political gains or how we influence our society; it recognizes how much we conform to the Word of God.

10:31 Qualifications for the White Stone—L. S. Rhodes. Comments: Hebrews 2:11. The Church with every member sanctified, the Lord is pleased to call them His brother or sister. As your blood flows through your body, so the blood of Christ flows through His Body. The Church of God is His Body. In the Assembly in 1949, the General Overseer brought to our attention about the Honor Stone Program and perfection. If a blood clot gets in your body, it stops the flow of blood. When you get two or three clots, that body is in trouble. Pastors, if you have sin in your church, that could be like a blood clot. I am glad that sanctification, that blood that the Holy Ghost applied, can dissolve that blood clot. When one gets two or three blood clots in his body, he is rushed to the intensive care where there is a specially trained staff who knows the body; they hunt the blood clot. Not too much concerned about well members; they give their undivided attention to where the pain is. Could it be possible that in this district we have churches that need to be carried to the intensive care? There is no place in His Body for sin. The Assembly has asked every pastor, local church, district overseer and state overseer to put forth greater efforts in behalf of the Honor Stone Program.

(General Secretary remarked: This program doesn't need to be thrown out—it needs looked at with the right attitude. It could be a great help. These are desperate times in the Church.)

10:48 Judgment in the Bride—skit directed by Jeanette Frazier, VA. Ephesians 5:31, 32; Isaiah 58:1; 28:9; Joel 2:1; Isaiah 29:24. 9:21 Twelve former pastors of Brother Tomlinson sat on the platform as his pastor, Sam N. Clements, delivered a message on Let Us Go Forth Unto Him. Excerpts: Hebrews 13:12, 13; Ephesians 2:14-16; Acts 17:26-28. Jesus did not come to this world to build walls or construct barriers; He came to tear them down. He broke the partitions of religious leaders by being friends to the sinners; He broke racial barriers; His divine mission to this world was to reconcile men to God and to each other; so, making peace. This was expressed in John 17:21-23. Lines that separated the Jews from the Greek, the bond from the free were broken down when Jesus died on the cross.

Jesus did not die for the Jewish nation only; He died to bring all people together into one body. John 11:51, 52. Again we see the purpose of Christ's death. There are several facts concerning the death of Christ outside the gate that was more than coincidence. Jesus was the true atonement sacrifice for all men. God has been brought near to us by the divine sacrifice and the atonement. God is just as close to us today as He was to those in Jerusalem as He walked with them. Acts 17:27; Hebrews 13:12.

I want to emphasize the experience of sanctification; God's will is for His people to be sanctified holy. Regeneration and justification are perfect works; only a part of the divine grace that is embraced in the New Testament. Romans 5:1, 2. Justification is a judicial act in the mind of God; sanctification is a spiritual change wrought in the heart. Justification is a change from condemnation to favor; sanctification is an inward change from sin to holiness. Justification is a remission of actual sins; sanctification cleanses the heart from the original sin. Justification removes the guilt of sin; sanctification destroys its power. Justification makes adoption possible; sanctification restores the image of God. Justification gives you a title to heaven; sanctification makes you fit to live there. The unity of the Church and the gathering together into one of the children of God cannot be accomplished apart from this experience of sanctification.

No man can truly call Christ Lord but by the Holy Ghost. As long as we are confronted with carnal-minded Christians and Church members, we cannot expect the unity of the Body because carnality draws people to man rather than to Christ. Spiritual immaturity is one of the greatest problems in the Church; children always have childish disputes and bickering. Church of God, it is time to grow up and be mature children of God. The key to Christian maturity is to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge. You can know the Bible and be loyal to the Church without being a Christian. When Christ becomes the supreme center and His love is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost, Christ's fulness shall be progressively manifest; problems between individuals and churches will be solved and we shall be one. Hebrews 13:13. The camp is anything that stands in the way of God's children coming together in one.

In the beginning of the Early Church, traditions prevented people from accepting that Christ had come to establish a Church, a holy nation, which would include all people. Tradition, many times, hinders the progress and growth of the Church. When Jesus came to the world in the flesh, He spoke against it telling the people that they transgressed the commandments of God by their traditions. Mark 7:7, 8; 2 Thessalonians 2:15. It was traditional thinking that caused the early Christians to believe that the Church would be made up exclusively of the Jewish nation. The question arose, Who is eligible for membership into the Church? The Spirit moved upon Apostle Peter while he was on the housetop telling him to doubt nothing and go to Cornelius and to the Gentiles. He went and preached Christ and the Holy Ghost fell upon them. I want the Holy Ghost to fall upon the world. When he was called into question concerning his actions, he admitted that he was compelled by the Spirit to go. Acts 11:17, "...what was I, that I could withstand God?" Help us to be led by the Spirit of God.

They had come to the realization that the purpose Christ came into the world was not to establish an earthly kingdom of Jewish people; He came to establish an holy nation. The only glory for them was to confess Jesus Christ as Lord. That is our hope today. It wasn't easy for them to accept what was happening in the Church; it is not easy for some of us to accept what God has been saying to us through the Spirit. Some problems had to be worked out; some problems today have to be worked out. Our only hope is to go forth without the camp bearing His reproach, confessing His name and offering praise. It is the holy nation, regardless of nationality, sex; whether rich or poor. It is a place where all come together into one faith and purpose to exalt and lift up Jesus Christ to declare Him to be the Lord. Ephesians 2:18-22. When Jesus declared that He is the door, He closed all other doors. Through Him, we have access by faith and the Spirit unto the Father. Let us go forth to Him and lay aside everything that would hinder, bind, or cause confusion. God expects more of us because we are getting close to His coming. Our only glory is to acknowledge Him—Head of the Church and the Body.

9:56 Song arrangement by Verlin Thornton, which included members of the General Overseer's Family. The General Overseer had the rest of his family come to the platform; he introduced everyone and had the congregation join them in singing the chorus of "What A Day That Will Be."

THE CHURCH OF GOD FLAG PLEDGE

I pledge allegiance to our Church flag, and to the doctrine for which it stands—one God, one Faith, one Mind, and one Church for all. Amen!

THE BIBLE PLEDGE

I pledge allegiance to the Bible, God's Holy Word. I will make it a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path. I will hide its words in my heart that I may not sin against God.

INTRODUCTION

(When Prophecy's Time Has Come)

"But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son . . ."
(Galatians 4:4)

Generation after generation had awaited His coming. They embraced the promises set forth by the many prophecies in the Scriptures, only to live out their lifetimes and pass on, to be replaced by the next generation who would hope for the promised Messiah to appear.

At the fall of man in the Garden of Eden, God had foretold of the "seed of woman" who would bruise the head of that serpent who had beguiled Eve. Abraham foresaw the time when this promised One would come. Later, Moses said, "The Lord thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken." (Deuteronomy 18:15) They looked, they waited, but they died with their hopes unfulfilled.

Succeeding generations saw the rise of new prophets who uttered more prophecies, reaffirming God's intentions to send a Deliverer. And each generation wondered whether it would occur in their lifetime.

When Isaiah declared, about 740 B. C., "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder . . ." (Isaiah 9:6), it must have raised fresh hopes that the Messiah's time had finally come. Actually, however, it would be more than seven hundred years, and several more generations would come and go, before Isaiah's prophecy would be fulfilled.

But, as Paul wrote, ". . . when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son . . ." When prophecy's time has come, nothing can prevent its fulfillment. On the other hand, until its time has come, nothing can force its premature coming to pass. This fact illustrates the power of God's Word.

We are familiar with the apostasy of the Church in the Fourth Century, which resulted in its rejection by God. However, God's Word had declared that the gates of hell would not prevail against His Church. There is no power that can defeat God's purposes. Again, we find that scriptural prophecies had foretold not only of the Church's apostasy, but also of its reemergence to function once more with divine approval and blessings in the last days.

There was a stirring of men's hearts by the Holy Ghost preceding the "arise" of the Church, which was necessary in preparation for this event. In the midst of this spiritual climate there were men who purposed to reinstitute the Church of the New Testament, but in spite of their good intentions there was always a divine element missing. Prophecy's time had to come; it could not be prematurely forced.

We may gain a lesson along this line from those who attempted to build flying machines. We are told that Leonardo da Vinci, a genius who lived in the days of Christopher Columbus, worked diligently at such a project, only to see his work crash to the ground. His statement itself, as recorded by a biographer, seems prophetic as he viewed his failure. It is said that as he stood at the edge of a precipice and saw the flying machine he had designed crash in the valley below, he cried: "There shall be wings. If the accomplishment be not for me, 'tis for some other. It shall be done. The spirit cannot lie."

History tells us that some four hundred years later, in December, 1903, the Wright brothers at Kitty Hawk, North Carolina, achieved what Leonardo da Vinci and others had failed to do. It is doubtful that they were more brilliant or possessed greater genius. The difference was that prophecy's time had come.

In that same year, in the same state of North Carolina, prophecy's time had come for the Church which Jesus established, which had sunk into apostasy in the Fourth Century, to make its reappearance. It had functioned so beautifully for awhile before becoming apostate and suffering divine rejection. But the gates of hell could not prevail. God's purposes could not be annulled. The Church arose, and it is functioning today!

But there's more! It is destined to become all-glorious, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, holy and without blemish! The Word of God has spoken this of her and it cannot be otherwise.

"But how will this be?" one may ask. It will be even as it was when the Jews returned from their captivity to rebuild the Temple at Jerusalem that had been destroyed. Listen to God's Word which was given at that time: "This is the word of the Lord unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts." (Zechariah 4:6) Only the Holy Ghost could provide direction for the task to be performed by those Jews who were returning by divine providence from their captivity. It is no different as we continue the restoration and perfection of the Church of God. It is still by His Spirit that this will be accomplished.

God remains sovereign. He will accomplish whatsoever He has purposed, and no power can prevent it. We cannot force Him to act prematurely, nor should we desire to do so. We must, however, be ready to respond to His Spirit in this mighty work to which He has avowed Himself.

We must not adopt a passive attitude. His Spirit works through people, who must be sensitive to His promptings. The Scriptures offer many examples of people's involvement in the fulfillment of prophecy. We see how some of them would become burdened and pray earnestly for the realization of what God had already promised. Of course, it was the Spirit who prompted them to pray these earnest, fervent prayers, but they had to yield to His persuasion.

An excellent example is Daniel while dwelling still in the land of Judah's captivity as he studied the writings of God's prophets. We read from Daniel 9:2, 3: "... I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the Lord came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem. And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes."

As he studied the prophecies of Jeremiah he found that God had promised to visit His people after seventy years of captivity. Perhaps it was the following prophecy by Jeremiah which God used to speak to Daniel: "For thus saith the Lord, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. And I will be found of you, saith the Lord: and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the Lord; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive." (Jeremiah 29:10-14)

Daniel could calculate that the seventy years had ended, but he did not just go about declaring that it was time for this prophecy by Jeremiah to be fulfilled. He rather set himself to praying, with fasting, and sack cloth and ashes. God's promises are not intended to take the place of, but to excite and encourage our prayers.

We cannot just sit back and wait, supposing that prophecies will be fulfilled apart from men's participation. God will have a people who will gladly persevere in the pursuit of His will. If not you and me, then it will be somebody else. His purposes cannot fail, and He will use obedient people to this end.

There is prophecy which yet awaits its fulfillment. At the set time our Saviour and Lord, the King of glory will make His appearance. He will descend from heaven with a shout! The Church will be prepared as a bride adorned for her husband, and at the time of His appearing, this all-glorious Bride will rise from the earth to meet her Bridegroom in the air. O what a glorious moment! Nothing can prevent it!

Divine prophecy will be fulfilled in its time. "For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry." (Hebrews 10:37) God's Church is getting ready to leave this world, and it will leave. Nothing can stop it! Thank God for the power of divine prophecy! Let us pray earnestly for its fulfillment. (Brother Tomlinson led the congregation in singing "Our Lord's Return to Earth.")

PRAYING FOR RAIN

"Ask ye of the Lord rain in the time of the latter rain; so the Lord shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field." (Zechariah 10:1)

We are well into that period when God promised to pour out His Spirit upon all flesh, the time of a universal visitation by the Holy Ghost, which is to precede Christ's second coming. From all around the world we are receiving reports of miraculous results, as people are responding to the moving of the Holy Ghost among them. We cannot doubt that we are living in the time of "the latter rain."

Yet, it is not a time to just wait and watch, to see what God is going to do next. Rather, it is time to pray for rain. It was by divine inspiration that Zechariah wrote, "Ask ye of the Lord rain in the time of the latter rain." It pleases the Lord that there be a people involvement in these times of a mighty Holy Ghost revival. A part of this involvement is an intensive supplication to God—praying for rain.

There may be a tendency by some to suppose that God will fulfill His Word, regardless of man's participation. The fact is, it is in His eternal plan that there shall be human participation in that which He has purposed. For this reason Jesus taught His disciples to pray: "Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven." (Matthew 6:10) Yes, we are to pray for this to come about, not just wait and expect it to happen.

On one occasion, when Jesus was moved with compassion on the multitudes, He said to His disciples: "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest." (Matthew 9:37, 38) We know it is God who chooses and sends forth laborers into His harvest, and that He consults no one concerning those whom He chooses to send; yet, He specifically asks us to pray about this matter.

In the mysterious relationship between Christ and His Church, He asks us to pray. There is a sense in which His work thereby becomes our work; the Church becomes one with Him. Paul wrote, "Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us." (Ephesians 3:20) It is His power all right, but it must work in us. We may well conclude that a measure of this power will be that of praying effectual, fervent prayers.

Right now, the Church is at a critical point in its mission, and it is time to take seriously our responsibility to pray, remembering the text: "Ask ye of the Lord rain in the time of the latter rain." Are we praying for rain as fervently as we should, or are we expecting it to just happen in due time? We do know that unless our efforts for Him are watered from Heaven they will not be fruitful. Just because we are living in this "time of the latter rain" does not mean the rain will come automatically without any effort on our part.

Toward the end of the three and one-half years of famine which came upon Israel in response to Elijah's prayers, God visited the prophet saying, "Go, shew thyself unto Ahab; and I will send rain upon the earth." (1 Kings 18:1) This was a divine promise upon which Elijah could depend. Shortly after this we have the account of Elijah's contest with the prophets of Baal at Mount Carmel. When God had manifested His power miraculously, 'consuming Elijah's sacrifice with fire from Heaven, Elijah said to Ahab, "Get thee up, eat and drink; for there is a sound of abundance of rain." (v. 41)

God had already told Elijah that He was going to send rain once more to Israel, and now Elijah prophesied to Ahab of an abundance of rain, but the prophet did not just sit around waiting for it. Instead, he ascended Mount Carmel where he "cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees." (v. 42)

Judging from the number of times his servant was sent to scan the heavens for any sign of a cloud, we may presume that this was a lengthy prayer session which Elijah had. But eventually the heavens became "black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain." (v. 45) God had promised, but Elijah held on until it happened. James reminds us that Elijah was a man subject to like passions as we are when he wrote, "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." (James 5:16)

We are approaching the time for some very significant scriptural fulfillment. Jesus died for all men, and this good news must be taken to the whole world. We must not take lightly the Great Commission. The death of Jesus also included the provision whereby He would gather together in one the children of God who are scattered abroad. (cf. John 11:52) Skeptics disbelieve this, but the Scriptures are plain concerning this truth. Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine." (John 10:14) Again, He said, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me." (v. 27) "... And they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd." (v. 16)

Paul wrote of this truth in the following manner: "Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ." (Ephesians 4:13) In the next chapter of this letter to the Ephesians he says that Christ will present to Himself "a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish." (5:27) These are powerful scriptures, having profound implications for those of us present in this Assembly.

Now we cannot just sit back and wait for all this to happen. We are laborers together with God, and we must feel the burden for involving ourselves with Him in that which He has purposed. It is surely time for us to make this issue of the gathering together of God's children into one fold a matter of earnest, fervent prayer. We believe it is time for this unity for which Jesus prayed (cf. John 17:21-23) to come about, and it is something deserving our sincerest prayers.

Surely, Jesus, who died to gather together in one all His children, is impressing us now through the Spirit to pray. We must pray for His sheep to hear His voice in this time of the scripture's fulfillment which says, "... and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold and one shepherd."

Without rain from Heaven to fall upon hearts, making them to become soft and tender, making them to be sensitive to the divine Voice, this prophetic utterance by our Saviour will not come to pass. It is important that we preach this divine truth of one fold with all boldness, but to see these things which are at the heart of the Church's message come to pass, we must not forget the necessity for earnest prayer. So, with all our other praying, let us keep on praying earnestly for rain in this time of the latter rain, a rain that will make the hearts of His children soft and tender.

A DAY OF GOOD TIDINGS

"And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

"Then they said one to another, We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace . . ." (2 Kings 7:8, 9)

Four lepers sat outside the gate of Samaria. Their situation seemed hopeless. They were without food, and even if they had been welcomed inside the walls of the city, this could not have improved their chance of survival. The Syrian army had laid siege against the city of Samaria, and it had been an effective siege. Food supplies had been exhausted and the famine being experienced by the city's inhabitants was severe. There was no more food within the city and the Syrian army was encamped outside their walls, making sure that no more was brought in.

Amid the hopelessness of these conditions there were plans by the Almighty for divine intervention. In the dimness of twilight the Lord made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots and horses, even the noise of a great host. Supposing that the king of Israel had somehow secured the help of the Hittites and the Egyptians, whose chariots were even now descending upon them, the Syrians fled in fear, leaving a well-stocked camp as they went. Of course, there were no chariots coming; God Himself had created these sounds in the ears of the Syrians.

The four lepers, not knowing what had happened, determined that they would cast themselves upon the mercy of the Syrians, as their best chance for survival, hoping they would not be killed. To their surprise, the soldiers were gone, and to their delight, there was food, along with other provisions, in abundance.

After feasting on what God had miraculously provided, their first inclination was to hide their discovery, hoarding it for themselves. But God had not intervened just for their sake; the prophet Elisha had prophesied the day before that within one day there would be food in abundance for the city of Samaria. So, immediately God convicted them of their selfishness; whereupon they said, "We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace."

The lesson to be drawn from this account is very plain. The plight of these lepers represents the hopelessness of the situation which all of us knew at one time. We were lost, perishing, with no means whereby we could save ourselves. But God who is rich in mercy intervened in our behalf, and into the midst of our helplessness He brought His Son to become meat for the hungry and drink for the thirsty. Indeed, He brought unto us eternal life. And we, like the lepers, rejoiced in the richness of His blessing.

There may have been a tendency by some to rejoice in their good fortune, all the while failing to remember the many others still perishing who need to be told of the treasures which they may share. If this is the case, it is time to acknowledge as the lepers did: "We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace."

What a difference these tidings meant to the inhabitants of Samaria! One day they were perishing, seemingly without any hope; the next day they were feasting on that which had been miraculously provided. And it is no different now. Those who today are perishing can suddenly be feasting on heavenly manna. But it is up to us who have discovered this gracious gift of God to share the good news with those who have not heard.

The Evangelism Department has been reminding us of our responsibility and privilege of sharing with those who do not know about divine riches, by a means which has been labeled Sharing Eternal Life. This is a work which springs from the thankfulness of having found the joy of salvation. It is an expression of a relationship with Jesus Christ, a relationship marked by the love which flows from Him through us, reaching out to those who are still lost.

Sharing Eternal Life is an effort to awaken within us an awareness of our responsibility toward the lost and to provide some additional motivation for involvement in presenting the good tidings of a Saviour to them. The traditional revival meetings to which we are accustomed are valuable, but it is evident that they must be supplemented by personal efforts outside the sanctuaries of our churches.

The Sharing Eternal Life endeavors are aimed at a greater emphasis on such personal efforts of sharing the gospel. Several seminars have been conducted during the past year, and many good reports have been received as a result of the training and motivation these have provided.

One state evangelism director wrote as follows: "Our people have not only been stirred but rather motivated into action during these seminars. In every visitation there have been souls that received salvation, and a host of prospects have visited the churches from this effort. In one area where a mission had just been started, by the people putting Sharing Eternal Life into operation they soon organized a new church with eighteen new members."

An Overseer wrote: "We conducted a Sharing Eternal Life seminar with seven in attendance. From this, nine souls have been won to the Lord." From a pastor we received the following: "I want to thank you and the Evangelism Department for the Sharing Eternal Life plan. Thank God, it works! I have visited six prospects and shared the gospel with them, and four of them have accepted Jesus Christ." Another writes: "Our church just recently concluded a Sharing Eternal Life training session. The very next morning one of our Sunday School teachers led a twelve year old girl to the Lord in her class. Praise the Lord, this has stirred our church!"

These testimonies are enough to convince us that as we get broader participation in this program we are going to have more and more people receiving salvation. We are thankful for those who have responded and are employing this means of outreach. Those who have been delivered from the awfulness of sin will be eternally grateful that somebody cared enough to come to them with the gospel. There are so many more who will receive this wonderful message if someone will only take it to them.

I pray that many more of our people will catch the spirit of this wonderful work and begin Sharing Eternal Life during the coming year.

TITHING IS A MEANS OF WORSHIP

"And this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee." (Genesis 28:22)

Jacob, recognizing that his blessings would come from God, vowed at Bethel to give the tenth of his increase to Him. He thus followed the example established earlier by his grandfather Abraham.

For these men, whom we know as our spiritual fathers, tithing became very early an expression of their worship. They recognized their dependence upon God and felt the need for maintaining a close relationship with Him. They did not regard themselves as being capable of charting their own courses, to be pursued independently of His guidance and protection. In short, they knew they were but men and that He was God.

It was this knowledge which led them to search for and adopt ways for expressing their devotion. And as they did so, this brought the pleasure of the Almighty, who blessed them by the bestowal of His favor upon their earthly pilgrimages.

This mode of worship which was observed by Abraham, and later by Jacob, pleased the Lord so much that later when He provided the nation of Israel laws to govern their worship, He included tithing as a means of worship which He would accept.

As the Church has sought to understand those principles in which God delights, the conclusion was reached many years ago that tithing is approved by God. We have never sought to make this a compulsory practice, because to do so would be to revert to a kind of legalism that God never intended for His Church.

True worship cannot be forced. To the Samaritan woman at Jacob's well, Jesus said, "But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth." (John 4:23, 24)

Yet, worship can take tangible forms. The communion of the Lord's Supper is such a form, as is tithing and giving. To be acceptable our worship must come from the heart as an expression of love and adoration, and true love is self-sacrificing. It never fosters selfishness. It causes us to ask, as did the Psalmist, "What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me?" (Psalm 116:12)

There appears to be a great deal of superficial worship going on in the world today, some of which makes little demands upon those so employed. Many seem quite willing to lift their hands upward and spend much time in this so-called worship, but when it comes to being faithful in stewardship, even to the point of self-denial, they seem to regard this as being non-essential to their worship.

At one time David realized his need for repenting when he had ordered the numbering of the Israelites, a thing which greatly displeased the Lord. He approached a certain man, desiring to buy from him a place to build an altar, along with oxen for a burnt offering. The man whom David approached wanted to give, rather than sell, to the king what he desired for this act of worship. David's words were: "Nay; but I will surely buy it of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the Lord my God of that which doth cost me nothing." (2 Samuel 24:24)

Nothing that we possess may be called truly our own; yet, God places certain things in our trust, then observes the manner of our stewardship with which we handle these possessions. Self-centeredness and selfishness is totally unbecoming to one who bears the name Christian. And for the child of God, worship is primary. Inasmuch as God has sanctioned tithing as a form of worship which pleases Him, it seems a small thing that His children bring a tenth of their increase into His "storehouse." Such an act, in effect, is our way of saying, "Thank You, Lord, for the air we breathe, for the sustenance of the good earth, for health and strength which You provide, and it is through this means that we worship You."

God is surely displeased when those procedures designed as acts of worship become mere rituals which we carry out without feelings of thanksgiving and praise. Not only do they tend to become burdensome to those so involved, but God is robbed of worship which He deserves.

When His people fail to tithe, the greatest tragedy is not the loss of finance to the Church; it is the loss of blessings suffered by people who fail to worship in a manner which He approves. And God who owns the cattle on a thousand hills is not robbed so much of material assets as He is robbed of His people's devotion.

It is true that tithing has provided funds for the Church's ministry and has made available a means of financial support whereby thousands of ministers have been able to give their time to the ministry of the Word and to prayer. This is always a blessing; however, the greatest blessings are not those which come to these ministers, but rather to those who have offered to God a tenth of their increase, especially when it has been practiced as an act of worship.

There are those in today's religious world who seem to advocate tithing and giving as a means of increasing the giver's material wealth. This should never be one's motive for tithing. Those who advocate tithing and giving as a means for increasing one's financial prosperity may themselves be given to such a secular spirit that mammon has already become their god. We do not worship God for the material benefits we may derive by means of such so-called worship. We worship God because of Who He is—simply because He is God, not for what it pays in material benefits.

His promise to Judah was that if they would bring all the tithes into the storehouse He would pour them out a blessing for which there would not be room to receive it. We should not suppose that He was speaking merely of material things. He will surely supply His children's material needs, but His greatest blessings are not those which can be counted in monetary units.

Our greatest concerns should not be for that "meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life." Tithing which is practiced with a view of what it can bring to us in the way of material blessings is self-centered. Tithing which God will bless is that which springs from devotion to Him, which acknowledges Him as the Source of all we receive.

Some of our ministers may have been reluctant to preach on this subject for fear of being judged as seeking their own interests. Our people must be shown that tithing is to be done as an act of worship which honors Him as the Source of their blessings. Ministers should never be reluctant to instruct their congregations in proper worship. Of course, this kind of worship must not be neglected by the ministers themselves, who lead their people best by example. We should all be faithful tithers.

I believe it would please the Lord for us to make this coming year one of dedicated worship. Pastors, we must make our people know that true worship involves more than lifting our voices in times of singing and praising God. This is a wonderful and necessary part of worship, but there are also some specific practices God has approved for His children's worship. Let us employ these, not just as rituals to be faithful in, but as means for praising God.

I believe we can find ways for bringing deeper meaning to the observance of the Lord's Supper and Feet Washing, for example, employing these not just as something we need to observe occasionally as a matter of being faithful, but as a blessed way to worship.

Can we not also make a special effort to teach our people to worship God regularly with a tenth of their increase, not just as a ritual which is their obligation, not just as a means for providing finances for the Church, but as a means of worship in which they will find God's acceptance and blessing. Let's make this a year of praise and thanksgiving to our wonderful Lord!

VOICE OF SALVATION

The year 1984 marks the thirtieth anniversary of the Voice of Salvation broadcast. During this time God has blessed the Voice of Salvation with growth until it is now being heard on almost four hundred stations, in both English and Spanish.

As the broadcast begins its thirty-first year, we must look with renewed interest at the area of communications. This is especially true in light of the changing conditions in the world with which we must cope.

The Church is confronted with a gigantic task. According to statistics, there are approximately four billion unsaved souls in the world at this time. At first glance, the task of reaching so many people appears to be way out of proportion to the Church's resources. However, the commission we have received still says, "Go!" It becomes necessary then for the Church to redouble its efforts in the use of radio and television. These are powerful tools to multiply the effectiveness of our witness.

Surely, the timing of the invention of radio was not an accident. It seems significant that the first transatlantic broadcast in history took place on December 12, 1901, just eighteen months before the arise of the Church on June 13, 1903. No doubt, God clearly saw the problems of the future, especially those related to our worldwide missionary activity, and has provided a tool to help us in our efforts.

Much of the world has fallen under the influence of communism and other repressive forms of government which have greatly hindered the normal approach to missionary activity. It is becoming increasingly difficult for missionaries to enter some areas; however, politics cannot keep radio signals out of a country. There is virtually no square foot on earth that isn't reached with a radio signal. Therefore, it is possible for the Church to have radio access to almost every person in the world. Now, especially with the advent of satellite communications, it no longer seems impossible for the Church to preach the gospel to every creature.

Listening to radio is a way of life in almost every nation of the world. While I do not mean to imply that radio and television can do the job alone, I do believe these tools must be better incorporated into our overall effort of missionary activity, both at home and abroad.

Even in the United States, which is known as a Christian nation, there are millions who do not know about Christ or His Church. I want to urge our overseers and pastors to use the media of broadcasting to take the message to them.

In the United States, the short thirty-second spot announcement has been used very effectively. Some of our local churches are using the church-to-community announcements which are available from the Voice of Salvation offices. The results in some areas have shown a good increase in visitors from the community.

Today's advertisers pay premium prices to reach people. They want to convince them to buy a certain brand of soft drink—or automobile—or hamburger. If the world's producers of goods and services find it worthwhile to broadcast short messages to these people, shouldn't we also be willing to pay the price to communicate the gospel in the same way? Again, let me urge our overseers and pastors to use the tools which are available through the Voice of Salvation.

Another important step forward in the Voice of Salvation's ministry has been the introduction of "The Daily Walk" devotional guide. One of the greatest needs today is for people to study and apply the Bible. Jesus said, "If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you." (John 15:7)

It would be good if every Church family would use "The Daily Walk" as a guide for daily family devotions. The Voice of Salvation is trying to put "The Daily Walk" into the hands of the general public by offering them a free copy in a new series of sixty-second television spots. These, along with the thirty-second "Info-Capsules," have been shown across this nation many times and are helping to make the Church known.

The sad fact is, sinners are not coming to our churches as we wish, so, the Church must take the message to the sinners. When used effectively, radio and television have the ability to plant the seed of the gospel in sinners' minds. As we work in conjunction with the Holy Ghost, God will cause that seed to grow.

The harvest is white, but the laborers are few. Because laborers are few, it is to our advantage to use radio and television effectively to reach the masses. As we enter this thirty-first year of the Voice of Salvation broadcast ministry, let us all renew our efforts of prayer and support for this very important arm of the Church.

GENERAL PROPERTY DOLLARS AND OUTREACH OFFERINGS

It was in the 62nd Assembly in 1967 that approval was given to begin construction of the White Wing Publishing House on a 41-acre tract of land on Keith Street. This was to be undertaken as the first of three projects on this new property, the other two being the construction of a new Assembly Tabernacle and a building for our General Offices.

That same Assembly adopted the proposal made by the Ways and Means Committee that each member give one dollar per year for the purpose of boosting the General Property Fund, these to be known as General Property Dollars. The response of our people was very good, and these funds began coming in immediately.

In the 73rd Assembly in 1978, the Ways and Means Committee recommended that after the mortgage of the General Headquarters Building had been paid the General Property Dollars Fund be continued, to be applied to the construction of Tomlinson College's buildings. This recommendation was accepted by the Assembly and the response of our churches has continued to be excellent. A large number of our churches have reported being one hundred per cent in the collection of these dollars ever since this practice was begun seventeen years ago, and thousands of dollars have been contributed. Our people are to be commended for their faithfulness.

Perhaps the time has come now when this plan could be discontinued, and I am asking the Ways and Means Committee to give this matter their consideration.

For many years the Church has set aside one Sunday each year for a special drive for funds to provide the White Wing Messenger for persons unable to pay the subscription price. Initially this was known as a self-denial offering. At the 51st Assembly in 1956, Self-Denial Day was changed to White Wing Messenger Day, and more recently these offerings have become known as Outreach Offerings.

In recent years, our members serving in the Armed Forces, plus our college students who are away from home have been provided the White Wing Messenger through these funds. Most recently we have begun sending the White Wing Messenger on cassette tapes to our blind members. This project, too, is supported from these funds. The support given by our people by way of special offerings has been very valuable in enabling many people to enjoy the White Wing Messenger who otherwise would not have access to it. If these people had a way to do so, they no doubt would love to express their appreciation to all who have had a part in making our Church paper available to them.

In recent years God has blessed the White Wing Publishing House in its operations to where it is now enjoying a much sounder financial status than it experienced for many years. The Business Manager of the Publishing House has indicated that it might now be possible to underwrite the programs that are currently supported through these annual Outreach Offerings by the profits of the White Wing Publishing House, thus eliminating the need to go to our local churches with this annual drive.

If the Ways and Means Committee considers this to be a wise course to follow, they might include a recommendation to this effect in their report to this Assembly.

CONCLUSION

Time goes so swiftly. If those present in this Assembly who have been members of the Church for forty years or more were given a chance to testify, they would tell you that it seems just a short while ago that they stood and received the covenant of membership. At that time, as they looked toward the future, forty years seemed to be a long way off. Some probably thought at that moment that by then the work would have been finished and that Jesus would have come. But now they have reached this point in time, and it just did not take long at all to get here.

Yes, time goes so swiftly and we seldom accomplish in a year, or in a lifetime for that matter, all that we hope to get done. But the end is not yet; so, we immediately seek for opportunities to continue this work to which we have dedicated our lives. Each new year brings new opportunities.

The covenant we took which made us members of the Church of God was not for just a certain number of years; in fact, we accepted it as a perpetual covenant. So, with our faith anchored firmly in God's Holy Word we intend to continue walking in its light to the best of our knowledge and ability. While the Word is unchanging, the light of the Word continues to expand, illuminating greater dimensions for those who are willing to walk therein.

We dare not hesitate to keep walking in this glorious light. John wrote,

"But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another . . ." (1 John 1:7) To draw back not only breaks fellowship but it also invites God's displeasure. He declared, ". . . but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him." (Hebrews 10:38)

It is obvious that some of us have more "walking time" than others. No doubt, there are those present who will finish their course this year. Others may have two more years for walking in the light, others still more. It seems reasonable to expect that the illumination to be experienced by those whose "walking time" extends farthest into the future will be the greatest. This is so because, ". . . the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day." (Proverbs 4:18)

The future of the Church is a bright one. Perhaps all of us would desire to stay here and see the end—a glorious Church without spot or wrinkle ready for presentation to the Heavenly Bridegroom. If that is not possible, however, we want to make full use of each day we are allowed to continue in this great work. Remember, we have enlisted for life in this great cause. If this is your determination, stand with me now as we join in singing once again, with voices loud and strong, our Battle Hymn.

12:07 "At the Battle's Front" was led by Liston Pritchard with Jenna Allen, pianist and Mary Lois Hamm, organist. Dismissal prayer by Gerald Patton. Music and singing during intermission directed by Reginald McDougale.

AFTERNOON

1:00 Sunday School Program directed by Caroline S. Ledbetter, General Secretary. Theme: Let Them Know—John 13:35. "How Great Thou Art" by Sign Language Choir, GA.

1:05 Congregational singing and worship led by Londa Richardson with Jenna Allen, pianist and Norma Jean Coalter, organist. Psalm 34:1. Debbie Thompson and Rob Tranthem led in prayer as congregation joined hands and prayed for our Sunday School workers around the world; silent prayer, each gave a personal praise to God.

1:30 Scripture reading by these state secretaries: Edward Dowdell, Roger Robb, Indiana Chinnery, Lorrene Kublick, Clint Heineken, Cheryl Martin. Sign Language Choir, composed of TC students and members of Trion, GA. Kim Cardin demonstrated in the sign language.

1:37 They Are Loved—drama presentation by Tom and Connie Cavendar and other delegates from Michigan. Setting at Sunday School Drive and Church Street. The characters depicted reaching not just the right age, color and type of people but we must reach the sick, blind and deaf. Congregation stood and joined in singing "Joy, Joy, Joy."

2:01 Two songs by JoAnna Taylor.

2:08 Let His Love Flow—message by Caroline Ledbetter. Scriptures: 1

Corinthians 13. (Sister Ledbetter prayed) John 13:35; Matthew 20:28. (This message will appear in the February 23, 1985 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be ordered on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

Assembly Expense Committee Report

We, your Assembly Expense Committee, submit the following report to the 79th General Assembly.

We recommend that churches having less than 50 in Sunday School average contribute $2.00 annually to Assembly Expense; churches with Sunday School attendance between 50 and 100 contribute $3.00 annually; and churches averaging over 100 contribute $5.00 annually.

We recommend that each Victory Leaders Band contribute $2.00 annually; the Womens Missionary Band contribute annually a total of $2.00; and each minister, including deacons and lay ministers give $1.00 annually.

We recommend that pastors be responsible for collecting the Assembly Expense dollars for the auxiliaries and forward same to the respective state or national office, with the overseer to be responsible for collecting the dollars from ministers under his supervision. These funds are to be mailed to the General Treasurer as soon as collected. Funds received toward the end of the year may be included with convention auxiliary reports to the General Treasurer.

The above recommendations are made without changes to previous reports.

As a matter of information, your Committee offers this description of the manner in which Assembly Expense monies are spent: They cover costs involved with publication of the Assembly programs, audio expense, lot attendants' salaries, tabernacle maintenance, police salaries, housing, telephone, twice-annual meetings of Assembly-appointed committees, public relations, certain musical expense, plus various incidental expenses involved with the preparation for and the operation of the Annual General Assemblies.

Respectfully submitted,

M. T. LINKOUS, Chairman

4:41 Assembly Band Movement Program directed by Eugene Weakley, General Secretary. Theme: Committed to Keep. Concert prayer led by Brother Weakley. Devotional led by Debbe Craig. She led congregational songs. 1 Corinthians 2:4; 2 Corinthians 4:7, 8. Song by Ron and Debbe Craig.

5:09 Right Spirit, Right Attitude in Discipling to Keep—message by Hartman L. Rolle. Excerpts: Luke 9:49-56. (Brother Rolle prayed) James and John were in the wrong spirit. When a person is in the wrong spirit, he develops wrong attitudes. Luke 9:55, 56. This rebuke came after James and John requested the Lord to give them permission to call fire from heaven on the city of the Samaritans who did not receive Him. They tried to justify it by saying, "Just like Elijah did." Many times we want to do things just like others. (Summarized 2 Kings 1) The king sent some men to call Elijah. Elijah said that you believe I am a false prophet; if I am a man of God, let fire come down and destroy; it did. This was a good opportunity for James and John to revenge because the Jews had no dealings with the Samaritans. It was a good time to avenge the Samaritans and destroy. John 10:10. Jesus wanted James and John to know that He didn't come to destroy. Thieves come to destroy; Jesus came to give us life.

God wants the Church to have the care that He had. Philippians 2:1-5. Jesus came not to destroy, but to save lives. The Church has the same responsibility entrusted to it. If the mind which was in Christ Jesus is in us, we will seek to save instead of destroy. John 15:16. I have watched for years with great concern the reports of our revivals. In some, we are experiencing great blessings; some we don't have very much. I thank the Lord for the increase in membership this year; when we look at the additions to the Church, it causes one to be concerned whether we are complying with John 15:16. If the spirit is not right, the attitude will not be right. John 10:10.

I am afraid we are trying to get the right spirit outside of Christ. Our mechanics and our seminars, I am not against those things; if Christ is not the center of these things, there will be no right spirit and attitude. The former General Overseer saw so many people backsliding, who couldn't get the proper care from the pastors, because as the congregation grew, they couldn't reach out to everybody. John 17:12. All of Jesus' training and teaching, while He was in this world, was to save men. John 3:17; Luke 19:10; John 20:21; Matthew 10:16. Jesus had to rebuke and chastise because of His great love—not because of the wrong spirit. Hebrews 12:15. The Father sent the Son, and the Son was committed to keep. John 20:21; 1 Timothy 6:20. We have the responsibility to keep. Ephesians 4:15, 16. With the right spirit, we will speak the truth in love, for love worketh no ill to his neighbor. Paul said, "Charity suffereth long and is kind."

Many times in our services, the Lord cannot work. Mark 10:35, 36. I believe sometimes in these services we come only looking for positions. Matthew 10:35; Psalm 51:10. We will never be able to keep members of the Church except we have the spirit of Christ. Philippians 2:5; 1 Corinthians 2:16. Search yourself to see if you have the mind of Christ.

5:40 Solo by Herman Riley.

5:43 Upgrading the Ministry to Keep—message by Fred S. Fisher, Sr. Excerpts: There are two kinds of people. One will take required and extra courses; one will only take what is required and try to get around some of those. One will work to quitting time; one will start cleaning up before quitting time. One attends all conventions and training sessions, usually stays until everything is over; one comes late and spends as much time in the hallway visiting as he does in the auditorium. One will see that his church has VBS, Children's Church, etc.; one don't know if he should have VBS, Children's Church or youth ministry—he feels they might be worldly and a waste of time.

Ingredient No. 1—Dedication, to commit oneself to a certain course of action. Philippians 2:19-23. Timothy sought the care of the Church first; Paul took comfort in knowing that the Philippian Church would receive the best of care.

Ingredient No. 2—Pride, honorable self respect. Timothy cared for himself; had the traits of a minister. He was more than a preacher—he served people and met their needs. He studied so that he might be qualified to care for those given unto him. He made full proof of his ministry.

Ingredient No. 3—Tenacity, which is remaining, holding fast or persevering. 1 Timothy 1:3. Timothy gave the doctrinal instructions that Paul had admonished him to.

Ingredient No. 4—Responsibility, being answerable and liable. 1 Peter 5:1-4. Notice the flock is God's. The shepherd is exhorted to feed them—not forced but willingly. Feed them—not for money. Many Church of God families are bored; they want soul food. Feed the flock of God. Live the life you are advocating. Jesus called Himself the good Shepherd. John 10:11-14. They are not our sheep or members; it is God's flock and sheep and they are placed in our care to feed, love and provide for. Hireling expresses one who has no real interest in his sheep. He might live in the parsonage, receive his pay, but goof off all week.

With all four ingredients, a minister will upgrade his ministry so he will be better prepared to keep those whom God has put in his charge. The shepherd must learn about sheep, diseases, eating habits, growth pattern, must feed them a diet that will rid them of inward parasites. Sick sheep have problems with reproduction. Healthy sheep desire to reproduce. There is no excuse for the shepherd not knowing about his sheep. A minister can make himself a servant approvable unto God.

The Church has some tools to aid us in learning: Called to Teach, Body of Christ, General Bible Study, the White Wing Messenger, BTI, Tomlinson College—on campus and by correspondence. Upgrade your ministry through study. Ignorance is a far greater threat to the Church of God than education. There is learning by tapes, books and magazines. We must learn more of our people's ways to attend to their needs. There was a time when one went back into sin, he would never be anything but Church of God. The trend has changed. We have lost whole families through other movements and the word they send is they are burned out with a song and dance man; with Sunday fiascos. They are thirsting after life-giving services. Visit, love and care for them. God has put these sheep in our care, and we are responsible. We can, we must, and we will minister to the needs of these people.

6:02 Effects of a Commitment For Divine Intervention—testimony by Don Estep. Comments: The first priority of a pastor is to love his members. Last year I was frustrated by not seeing the fruits that I needed in my local church. The overseer encouraged pastors to give backsliders another chance. At that time, the Versailles Church had twenty-four backsliders and strays. We started with a twenty-four hour prayer, followed by a forty-eight hour prayer; then six hour Scripture reading. We consecrated ourselves to God; later went into twenty-one days of prayer and fasting. During yellow ribbon day, we put spot announcements of love messages on the radio and in the newspaper encouraging former members and friends of the church to come back. We didn't put the hatchet to them nor turn them out; we worked on them; we have about twelve backsliders or strays; most of them are attending church. We have had many contests and things to try to attract the public's attention; we need to attract God's attention. We need an intervention that is holy and divine. We cannot go without something that comes from heaven and not from man. We prayed over four hundred hours for our backsliders; sent over five hundred cards and letters; made personal visits and phone calls. We worked with these people because we love them. We roasted the fatted calf on Saturday to welcome home these people we were praying for. During this revival, the Holy Ghost anointing was so powerful that a young couple had been tormented by demonic spirits; the lady called and requested prayer. We went over to the church and prayed and these people came. God gloriously delivered them. People left the church each night drunk on the Spirit; angelic beings were seen in the services. The devil does not have power over the Church of God. If we will pray and fast for divine intervention, commit ourselves, forget the mechanical aspects of things; divine intervention will win souls back to the Lord.

8:45 Two songs led by Garfield Williams; Jeanette McKenzie, pianist; Winston Williams, organist. Hebrews 6:7-14 read by C. Samuel Brackett. Prayer by Martin Emerson, followed by concert prayer.

8:57 Message by Felix Santiago, Overseer of Puerto Rico. Message in two parts: Responsibility of Maintaining the Truth and God Is Our Only Refuge. Excerpts: Acts 12:1-5. This was the condition of the Early Church when Christ was on this earth and He commissioned His disciples to be pillars and ground of the truth. These were the results: James was killed by the sword; Stephen was stoned to death; Peter was in prison ready to be given up for dead. These brethren were paying the price for defending the truth for which Christ commissioned them to do. If they had continued preaching a faith they had once adhered to, they would not have had problems. The Early Church, in order to maintain and uphold that truth, had to pay a price. In order to uphold the truth and be pillars and ground of the truth, we will have to pay a price. When the Early Church upheld the truth, it was successful, despite the persecutions. There was growth, they were united, there was harmony and souls were saved by the thousands.

The religious groups of that day and the government supported the Church; she lost the favor of the Lord. We must uphold the truth; I am not just speaking of the twenty-nine teachings, they are a part of it, but I am speaking of upholding all the Word that Christ commissioned.

Psalm 73:13-28. The adversary will not leave the Church alone. King David found this was bringing problems in his material life; he was troubled as he was doing his best to please the Lord and he was not prospering. He could see others who were not upholding the truth and they were prospering. This troubled David. David did not mistreat those because they were a part of the nation of God. He went before the Lord and said that he didn't understand but help me to understand. He went before the Lord in the sanctuary of God and found an answer to his problems; he was renewed; he did not depart from the Lord. God is the same yesterday, today and forever.

David was frustrated seeing everyone prospering except him. The Church is facing a similar situation; we must be patient as King David was. At the final moment, he was able to see the destruction of his enemies. Moses chose to suffer with the children of God rather than to join in the pleasures and the monetary favors of the Egyptians. The Church is determined to suffer for the truth rather than to obtain the benefits from those who preach the gospel half-heartedly to please the world. We must maintain firm our profession of faith that we can uphold the truth and defend anything that is against the Word of God.

My other thought is our eternal refuge: Psalm 99, 10. There is a city of refuge for the adversities that are coming. The Church is going through a period which the Apostle Paul admonished us that would come. In the city of refuge, the ones who came first worked; those who came last worked. When believers come to the Church, they should encounter a common atmosphere. Many have arrived in the last hour, among which I find myself; it is our greatest desire to help to contribute with all that is possible. At the beginning, the Church did not understand the Apostle Paul, but at the final moment, they took counsel. Not only did he submit to all the teachings and requirements of those over him in the Lord, but he contributed to the Church and to the Apostles. We are not here to destroy, but to edify. I believe we are approaching the last moment, and she is determined to maintain the Spirit and in harmony distribute the work unanimously of the gospel; all having the same feeling working together; as one body to please God.

All have opportunity to contribute what Christ has given us. We have been called to refuge ourselves in God that we might edify one another—not attack one another. I cannot believe that the Church has super ministers who have to make themselves manifest. We do not ignore those who continue being pillars and ground of the truth—they established us and guided us to understand what we have achieved. Good teachers produce good disciples. God bless all who have taught us.

9:40 Victory Leaders Band Program, directed by William M. Wilson, General Secretary. Theme: DISCIPLES . . . LOOKING UNTO JESUS. Music by Bahama Brass Band as Victory Leaders from around the world entered into His Courts with praises, waving banners and displaying much zeal; Steve Gilmer, coordinator.

9:58 Comments and Scriptures by Scott Gillum: Genesis 22:1-7; 3:15; Isaiah 9:6; 11:1, 2; Malachi 4:1-3; John 1:1-6, 14.

10:06 Dan Howell narrated a history of International Youth Camp celebrating twenty-five years of IYC. Singing by IYC Choir, directed by Greg Stephens; Mike Flippo, pianist.

10:18 Congregational singing led by Phil Pierce; read Isaiah 6:4. Two songs by the Sterling Sisters.

10:43 Answering the Call—sermonette by Eric Leamy. Comments: Matthew 16:24; 7:22, 23. A positive response to the call to be a disciple demands unconditional surrender. We can accept that soldiers give their lives for patriotic reasons; think it not strange that Communists give their lives for political reasons; but that blood, sweat and tears should characterize the life of the disciple seems out of grasp. A denial of self is complete submission to Christ. In answering the call to be a disciple, the cross is a pathway deliberately chosen; as for the world, it is a dishonor and reproach. Any believer can avoid the cross by conforming to this world. Once a disciple does not mean we will always be a disciple. John 6:53-56, 63, 67-69; 8:31. It makes no difference if we answered the call forty years ago; am I a disciple now? For this generation to press on, we must not look unto worldly entertainers but we must look unto our crucified and risen Lord. We must look unto Him Who said, "Without me ye can do nothing." (John 15:5)

The songwriter proclaimed in "The Old Rugged Cross": "I will cling to the Old Rugged Cross and exchange it someday for a crown." Can this generation in answering a call to be a disciple cling to the old rugged cross with the blood, the persecution, the shame and the abuse; continue in His Word believing and practicing its teachings, rightly divided, and walk in the light to the best of our knowledge and ability? I say "Yes," if we look unto Jesus. 1 Peter 2:9. We did not call ourselves; He called us. It is not our light, for God is light and in Him is no darkness. 2 Corinthians 4:6; Titus 2:11, 12. Can this generation in answering the call to be a disciple live soberly, righteously and godly in this present world? I say "Yes," if we look unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith, Who for the joy that was set before Him despised the shame after enduring the cross and forever is set down at the right hand of the Father. Let us look unto Jesus.

10:55 Make Disciples—sermonette by Ron Boyd. Comments: Disciples make disciples when Christ comes into our lives and through love we want to make others Christ-like. Christ not only issued us a commandment in Matthew 28:18-20; He issued each young person a challenge. Too long we have viewed the Commission that it is just for the building or church. Truly the Commission was given to the Church—individuals make up the Church. A pastor hung a sign on the back door of his church which read: "You are now entering a mission field." Every time you go out your door, you enter the mission field. Many state youth departments are realizing that our states are mission fields. State mission teams have broken out in several states, realizing that we must minister to those around us.

Christ told us to go make disciples. In Virginia in June, we ventured into the state youth mission team program. Thirty-two wanted to make disciples. The Holy Ghost came down in the orientation empowering us. The Lord started the Commission that challenged us by saying, "All power is mine." We were followers when we went to the orientation; after we were empowered and renewed, we became messengers. In Georgia, young people gathered for crusades. In our orientation, about 90 percent of the young people said that they had never led anybody to the Lord. We need to go make disciples. The Lord didn't say we wouldn't be scared; He said that all power is given unto Me; I will give it to you. Too long we have let the devil show us our incapacibilities; now it is time we say, "All power is given unto my Saviour." These teams scattered for service; they had to go outside the church building. Their efforts resulted in 20 saved, 17 sanctified and 3 filled with the Holy Ghost. In the crusades in Georgia, there were: 11 saved, 9 sanctified and 14 filled with the Holy Ghost. You are going to have to go, possibly not to another nation or state, in your community and make disciples. We must open our eyes, ears, hearts, church doors and youth services and affect the world. Too long we have allowed the world to affect us. The devil is trying to discourage us from going and making disciples. An estimated two million young people in our nation are roaming the streets wanting to find love. The devil has stationed craftsmen in bus terminals, airports and arcades to start them in an unending circle of a life of crime. I wonder if our youth life teams have lain dormant in a closet of our church building. Somebody has to reach out to those young people who are looking for love. When the Early Church received the Holy Ghost, they were immediately ushered out into the streets and unctioned by the Holy Ghost. I wonder if the Holy Ghost is trying to unction us out of our comfortable living and us go. You are going to have to look to the Lord and go. The Lord is echoing in our minds, "Lo, I am with you alway . . ."—in schools, in shady parts of town; where your life is threatened.

11:08 General Secretary challenged all to make disciples; he then presented a plaque to Terry Mahan for services rendered from 1975-83. David and Rita Baroni sang "Behold The Man" and "Keep The Flame Burning."

11:19 Dennis Roach directed congregation in praying for the youth around the world, assisted by five other state secretaries.

11:42 LOOKING UNTO JESUS—message by William M. Wilson, General Secretary. Scriptures: Matthew 14:26-29; Psalm 93:3. (This message will be printed in the December 15, 1984, issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be ordered on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

12:01 Phil Pierce led congregation in singing "In Jesus Name We Press On." Ron Scott directed music and singing during intermission.

AFTERNOON

1:00 TOMLINSON COLLEGE PROGRAM, directed by William Gailey, President. Theme: Taking the Challenge. President Gailey made comments. Music by Bahama Band as faculty, 333 alumni and current students marched in.

1:08 Worship: Foster Bell led congregation in singing "O Magnify the Lord" and "We Exalt Thee"; Brother Bell led in concert prayer. Testimony by Julian Galloway, a former student; Jerry Woods told of external studies program (Ecclesiastes 10:10). Instrumental by Alumni Band.

1:36 Clive Jared, Chairman of the Board of Trustees. Comments: Historically, the system of higher education authorized by denominational churches has come back to challenge its doctrinal beliefs. In most cases, these beliefs have been changed completely. Those churches have fought against liberalism and permissiveness and lost. This will not be so with the Church of God and TC. Nineteen years ago this Assembly authorized the establishing of a liberal arts junior college with the understanding it would always be an integral part of the Church—the Church will direct the college and never will the college direct the Church. TC is on course. The college Board must always understand its responsibility to the Church.

We must always bear in mind the original purpose of this school. It is a place for training and equipping students for Christian service to the Church; training for various ministries within the Church. The moral code of ethics practiced in our business and daily campus life should always be a witness to holiness and the Sermon on the Mount. The products of TC are being rooted and grounded in the truth; project an image of the disciplined life dedicated to the building of the Church of God. TC will not fail in its mission. Since it is accredited, its opportunities to serve the Church are greater. TC's future is brighter than it has ever been. Let us continue to move forward in training and producing servants to go to the field and evangelize the world with the glorious message of Christ and His Church.

1:41 Tomlinson College Accreditation—Jerry Adams. Comments: In December, 1983, TC was formally accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. This is the highest recognized accrediting association for this part of the country. Some are afraid of what accreditation might do to us. Every institution must have a purpose to exist—TC exists to serve the Church. We believe that only at TC can we find that intertwining of education with the Spirit of God and the spirit of the Church. I believe that an education anywhere else is missing something; I believe it can only be found at TC.

Accreditation is not a magic wand. We still must maintain our integrity and quality of standards. This is not a guarantee of quality; we have measured up to some levels. We must guard against anything less than the best. This association is not a dictatorship. They give guidelines on what is generally accepted as quality education. They check on whether we are doing what we say we are. Accreditation is a formal recognition that we are meeting quality standards. Lot of institutions use the guise of religious worship to hide that they are giving poor quality. I believe this is Biblical. Paul told Timothy in 1 Timothy 3:7 the qualifications of a bishop. I believe no less can be done by TC; we must have a good report from those that are without and show we are giving quality. This makes it easier to transfer credits to other institutions. Some in the Church have developed an attitude that it seems we can't do something first class because we are the Church. If anybody can do a first-class job, it should be the Church. I believe the Church of God is first class.

Anybody who shows off their education is not educated. We must continue on for excellence and approval from several groups; we want the approval of: the accrediting association; our students, or they won't come; the faculty and administration as we are given the responsibility of guarding that first line of defence; the Board; the Church; most of all we must have the approval of God. We cannot please everyone. We give God the glory for this special milestone that we have reached.

1:49 Johnny McDaniels encouraged everyone to become involved in the TC experience—sign up for the college program.

1:50 Comments by President William Gailey: Harvard College is thought of as the highest academic standards in the USA. We want you to think of Tomlinson College as the spiritual Harvard of the world—being close to God along with the highest academic standard. God is first at our campus; the college is an integral part of the Church. We support the beliefs and the doctrine of the Church; training ministers and laity. TC is not only for the ministry; it provides two years for practically any degree; taught in a Christian environment. We teach with a concern for learning and souls.

Our greatest need is scholarship. Eighty-two percent of our students have some form of financial aid. The demand far exceeds the supply. This year, with God's help, we will establish a development program; we are going to get involved in fund raising for scholarships. We need your help in identifying prospective donors; call upon individuals, corporations, foundations or any other recommendation to present our case. We think we have a good one.

The Board of Trustees have approved the establishing of an annuity and life income fund, which are considered deferred gifts. The donor contributes money to the college and receives interest payments on a periodic basis; at the end of a period of time, the principal reverts to the college for the purpose it was donated. The donor receives a partial tax break at the time of the donation; a tax break on the interest payments. Stock may be donated on a low-cost basis; you receive credit for the gift at market value for tax purposes.

We need scholarships that can be awarded now. The deferred ones are building the future. We are in the process of establishing an endowment fund. Endowed scholarship is a sum given to the college; only interest earned is awarded as scholarships. Some of you work for companies that have a program called "matching." Your company will match what you contribute to TC. Give to your college and challenge your employer to match your gift. We at the college accept the challenge to raise funds for scholarships. We see the need to assist students, but we must have your help in identifying potential donors. We will do the work.

We appreciate the scholarships provided by many of our states and nations for their students. This year the Manchester, NH church gave a nice scholarship to two of its students. Their feeling in doing this: We believe in TC and that they will have a Christian education to be used anywhere they go; the money we give is God's money invested in young people.

TC is God's campus. I have been appointed president, but God is in charge. We want to follow His leading and direction; stay in His will. We put Him first, academics second. Help us this year to meet the challenge.

1:58 Singing by Alumni Choir directed by Londa Richardson and Greg Stephens; Mike Flippo, pianist.

2:14 Taking the Challenge—message by Melvin G. Hyatt. Excerpts: 1 Peter 2:1-9. The Church of God is on the earth to show forth the praises of God. We were once in darkness; now we are in light. I think we have missed what praise and worship is all about. I believe our main function is to praise the Lord. Revelation 4:1-11. If you want something from the Lord, get in the Spirit. John was in the Spirit. These twenty-four elders were redeemed by the blood of the Lamb. They were sitting around the throne. Several hundred years earlier Isaiah was caught up in the Spirit and he saw four beasts flying around the throne of God crying, "Holy, Holy, Holy." Hundreds of years later, those same beasts were still flying around the throne crying, "Holy." They rest not day nor night; they are crying right now. Let us join the seraphims now in crying, "Holy Lord God Almighty."

John saw the beasts giving glory, honor and thanks to Him Who sat on the throne and liveth forever. The elders fell down before Him and worshipped Him and cast their crowns before the throne and worshipped Him. We are all working for a crown of righteousness; we are getting stars in our crown. I am working that I might glorify the Lord; when we stand in the presence of the Almighty God, all our works of righteousness and stars in our crowns will mean nothing. They will only be worthy to take off our heads and fall at His feet and worship God. He is the only One Who is worthy of praise. We pat each other on the back and talk about the good job we are doing; when it comes to really praising and worshipping, there is only One Who is worthy of praise; He is sitting on the throne. The elders gave a message: "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power" The elders realized God was worthy of praise; may we take the challenge of showing forth His praises and recognize that God is worthy of praise. He has never been stained with sin. In Him, there was no guile; when we approach unto God we need to realize He is the Holy One. 1 Timothy 2:8. We cannot go to Him with guilt of sin in our hearts and expect to pray, worship and glorify Him. He is the Lord God, sovereign, eternal King and He is the everlasting One; He knows the end from the beginning—before He came to earth. You can't try to pull the wool over God's eyes; He is eternal. The essence of worship means I give unto God. We go to church to receive because we are so needy. When we go to church, we go into the very sanctuary of God; in His presence. It is not time to lay down on your knees before Him; He knows what you need; it is time to lift up your heads and praise God. Let Him receive from you.

Another writer says, He receives three things from you: He is worthy to receive glory, honour and power. Glory means visible manifestation of the presence of God. When we praise the Lord, we are giving God glory. So often our worship stops there. We need to give God glory in the Church; we need to give Him honour—recognize He is the Lord of our lives. We need to give God power. Tithes is a means by which we give God power; power is energy put to work. When you preach, you are praising Him through the giving of power. We are created to praise the Lord. One of the biggest misunderstandings we have about God is we think God is Santa Claus. We think God is here for the purpose of meeting our needs. God is wanting to meet our needs; you were created for His pleasure. Psalm 103:1. Bless means to make happy. When you say "Bless the Lord, O my soul," you are saying that you want to make God happy; and I give unto you in such a manner that it pleases your holy name. TC is trying to show forth the praises of the One Who has called us out of darkness into His marvelous light; when we go to chapel, we will praise the Lord; when we get out of chapel, we will try to live holy lives and help everybody. TC is reflecting that which the Church of God is to do because it is a part of the Church. You and I are here that we might show forth His praises.

2:36 Worship led by James Stone. Comments: We don't organize the work for God, but we want to experience God. Job 1:21. Worship God because He is God. Psalm 100. Nobody can teach worship; you have to experience it. Acts 4:24, 31. We want the Spirit to move and bless and all be filled with the Holy Ghost; we need to forget how to get God to move and figure out how to worship God. We go to church and tell each other that He is God, sing and preach about He is God; never take time to tell God He is God. We have tried other methods to motivate. It is time we worship God and let God put the Spirit back in the Church. Romans 12:1. It is worshipping God in the beauty of holiness—not just with words. It is worshipping God not only in service, but day to day living. (Congregation went on their knees saying "I surrender all." Choruses and songs led by Larry Duncan and we worshipped our God.)

3:05 White Wing Publishing House Program, directed by Henry O'Neal, Business Manager. Prayer by Clayton Endecott, Sr. Two songs by New Touch Singers.

3:15 Sunday School Literature Boost—Perry Gillum, Editor. Remarks: The world is full of literature that Satan has inspired. I thank God because there is available literature that does not damn people's soul but that will help to lead one into a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. Thank the Lord for our Sunday school literature, for no other agency can penetrate so deeply, abide so persistently, witness so daringly and influence so irresistibly as that of the printed page. It has been said that the Church, through writers, reaches an ever-enlarging circle of readers in the world's many tongues. We have a Sunday curriculum which serves the Church in every one of the United States, as well as many English-speaking countries. God has helped us through this World Literature Outreach Program and we are printing your Church literature in fourteen languages. Your offerings have helped bring this accomplishment about. (Introduced Sunday School literature writers expressing appreciation to each, as well as office staff. Told of new literature available. See SS Literature Editor's Report.)

3:25 Brother O'Neal presented Buck Mathis and his wife a copy of his biography. Louis Sullivan read titles of books printed this year and introduced authors. The General Overseer was presented a copy of THE LAST GREAT CONFLICT written by A. J. Tomlinson in 1913; has been reprinted.

Henry O'Neal had duplicate copies of the first White Wing printed September 15, 1923, distributed to congregation. Outreach '84 Recognitions: see White Wing Messenger, September 22 issue; Self-Denial Report on page 66. Introduced D. Joseph, Overseer of India, who operates our publishing facility in Rahmundry; S. B. Pardede, Indonesia—where we are beginning to operate printing facilities; Ruben Carmona and Mario Vasquez, Mexico, work at our printing plant in Mexico City (each spoke briefly). Brother O'Neal stated: "We have ourselves committed to so many places it is frightening and we have just begun. Our intellectual capacities are insufficient to address the world's needs. By the grace of God and your continued support, we shall accomplish a few things."

3:54 Convention Quartet, OK, sang two songs directed by Stan Bonham; Rhonda Bonham, pianist; John Stone, drums; Dan Mobley, saxophone.

4:09 World Literature Outreach: Felix Garcia introduced Gary Glover, manager of the White Wing Publishing House in South Africa; assistant manager George Smith and wife.

Brother Glover spoke: We were told to not only get things organized in South Africa, but to train personnel who could continue to operate when we left. The Lord sent Brother Smith and wife. The Lord touched Brother Smith's heart; he fasted and prayed and came back and said that this is the work the Lord wants him to do.

George Smith testified: Print tracts in 11 languages; SS literature in 4 languages. We have a lot of languages; we can't understand each other; we can give a tract and they can understand that. The White Wing has helped South Africa; I can work to print for the Church of God so that people outside are praising Him.

Brother Glover continued: All the work of the Church is to reach souls. I have been many miles teaching in seminars about auxiliaries, especially the Sunday School. It is the tradition of the people that Sunday School is only for children and that the grandmother of the church is the only Sunday School teacher. I taught them that the Church literature we print is for everybody to study the Word of God. It thrills me how the people were ready to accept the instructions and invite people to Sunday School. I am thankful that the Lord has allowed us to have a part in this world outreach ministry. Because you support World Literature Outreach is the reason we go. Without the Lord, none of us could do anything. Keep on praying for us.

4:18 World Literature Outreach—Felix R. Garcia, World Language Secretary: I went to the convention in Nicaragua where it is dangerous. Four of our church men have lost their lives there this year. They didn't have a lot to eat, but the people were rejoicing and serving the Lord. In the last session after lunch, I sat talking to the ministers. A lady came to me and said that she was sick. We prayed for her and the Lord miraculously healed her. Then others started coming and the Lord healed. One brother fell like he was dead; we prayed and he was healed. I related this to tell you that God works miracles and I know He has greater things for His glorious Church.

Psalms 107:8, 15. The World Literature Outreach this year has reaped a great harvest for God and His Church. We have attempted to prepare the Church literature for printing in the languages where the Church is operating. There are many political and physical hindrances. We are pressing on with our commission to publish the gospel of Jesus Christ. New languages are being considered as the Church widens its scope of action. To establish our Church press in Indonesia will greatly increase the effectiveness of our World Literature Outreach into other languages in that country where there are more than thirty-five languages. We immediately need the Church literature in five languages.

We are working in Africa where the Lord has opened doors. India has become one of the fastest countries of Church growth and the Church is spreading widely in various languages. An expansion of our printing facilities was initiated last November. The translation is the responsibility of the Language Department.

The General Assembly of 1980 set a goal to raise one million dollars for World Literature Outreach to mature in five years. It is becoming a reality and the total from all sources is $945,959.76. This is a miracle. Recently I was speaking in the state of Washington in a convention and the Holy Ghost moved and the people gave $19,371.00. I told this to a Church businessman and he said we cannot leave this Assembly without having one million dollars. He donated $54,040.00. We have one million dollars for the glory of God and World Literature Outreach. God is working a miracle. We have spent most of that money and we have barely scratched the surface. We are not finished.

In order to do effective work, the missionaries must have literature in the languages. Yugoslavia has 22,500,000 population; Rumania has twenty-two or three million; Czechoslovakia has fifteen or sixteen million. The General Overseer received a letter from Poland saying, "Send us literature." There are 36,000,000 Polish people who need the gospel; Russia has 265,000,000 and we don't have any literature for them. It is time that we provide literature for the people around the world in their languages. In Asia lives 75 percent of the world's population. There are 161,000,000 people in Indonesia; 119,000,000 in Japan; 50,000,000 in Thailand. That is just a few of the Asian countries.

I have seen the need for some time in China. The Lord helped me make a contact, we printed a few tracts, and I passed out some. They were received with gladness. We have been praying and David Kim has been influential in outreach of the Chinese. We visited a church in Hong Kong; talked about the gospel, answered a lot of questions; a man pulled out of his pocket the tract on Important Bible Truths. A year later Henry O'Neal and I preached two nights there. The pastor has several branch churches and he gave us the names and we visited one in Taipay. There are one billion Chinese; should we reach one percent, that would be one million. We will have to print the gospel in great quantities. The whole world needs the gospel and the Lord has been dealing with me that we need five million dollars. God is going to raise the dead; He is also going to bring the wealth to the Church so that we can publish the gospel to all the world. The offering in Washington was given on the five million. The world is starving for the gospel. God is able to help us meet this challenge. (Prayer for God to provide funds and dedicated this challenge to the glory of God, as the General Overseer and others came to the platform to help in the dedication.) God is able to multiply. The God Who kept the oil flowing for the widow woman; never let the flour end in the barrel; parted the waters at the Jordan River; raised the man from the dead in Nicaragua; the same God is here. Isaiah 44:3-5. You have done a great work and God will bless you for it.

5:15 Prayer of dedication for the World Literature Outreach offering by the General Overseer and State/National Overseers.

5:33 Music Department Program directed by Verlin D. Thornton, General Minister of Music. He led congregation in singing "Amazing Grace," followed by prayer for the program. Cleveland Area Choir presented the musical "The Day He Wore My Crown," conducted by Greg Stephens; Susan Breton, narrator. This was a very impressive drama in song and the enactment of last hours and crucifixion of Jesus. There was much praising and magnifying God. Chorus "Calvary" was sung by all.

EVENING

6:34 Music by Bahama Brass Band as expense offering was received by ushers.

6:44 World Mission Program directed by Adrian L. Varlack, Sr., General Secretary. Theme: "Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen (nations) for thine inheritance . . ." Psalm 2:8. Prayer for the Lord's help in getting the work done.

6:46 Introduction of Mission Representatives, Mission Corps workers, National Overseers and wives. Mission Representative: E. E. Van Deventer led in prayer for the Lord to send laborers into the harvest field; Bobby R. Snow read Psalm 2:1-12; Raul Torres read Hebrews 6:1-7; A. C. Moss gave greetings. The Varlack Children sang "Lord of the Harvest"; Galen Bell, pianist.

7:12 Parade of Nations—The Bahama Brass Band played as fifty-nine ladies marched down aisles, carrying flags of nations where the Church is established, and circled platform. Girls bearing flags of Russia, China, and Saudi Arabia (chained nations) came to platform. E. E. Van Deventer spoke of millions in Russia and Eastern Europe who remain in darkness; Bobby Snow stated that China has over one billion souls, most of whom have false concepts; Raul Torres told of eight hundred million Muslims who need to hear the gospel. As the band played "Send The Light," a lady dressed in white came to the platform carrying the Church flag. She gave each girl representing the chained nations a Bible printed in the native languages. Brother Varlack commented: Christians in these areas undergo tremendous persecution. Some have died and others are in prison. Let us join our hands and hearts in a special prayer for those behind the Iron Curtain and those striving to do mission work in the Muslim world. I believe the Church is going to have to learn how to run underground churches and to survive in oppressive societies. Concert prayer for these.

7:48 A Burden for the Nations—message by General Secretary. Scriptures: Psalm 2:8; Hebrews 5:7-9; Mark 16:15; John 11:35; Hebrews 10:7; Luke 3:22; 22:31; Mark 9:25-29; John 14:12; Hebrews 2:7-17; Matthew 5:13; Philippians 3:10; Acts 4:24-31; Luke 10:2; Jeremiah 33:3; Matthew 7:7; 2 Chronicles 7:4. (This message will be printed in the October 6 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be ordered on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.) Altar call by Jeff Hunt. Music and singing during altar service directed by Marilyn and B. J. Taylor.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 9

MORNING

7:30 Sunrise service conducted by Charles Whitman. Organ music by Willystene Calfée; music by Bahama Brass Band.

9:00 Verlin Thornton led congregation in singing "Victory In Jesus" with Mike Flippo, pianist; Jonell Klapp, organist. Concert prayer. Matthew 9:36-38 read by Boyd Thornton; Hallelujah Chorus sang "He Still Reigns."

9:20 He Still Reigns—message by Verlin D. Thornton, General Home Mission Representative. Scriptures: Matthew 4:19; Mark 1:17; Matthew 16:18; 11:3-6; summarized Acts 16; Philippians 4:15, 16; Matthew 28:19, 20; Mark 1:38. (This message will be printed in the December 15, 1984 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be ordered on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

9:54 Womens Missionary Band Program directed by Elva Howard, General Secretary. Theme: Reaching to Touch. Congregation joined in praising and magnifying the Lord. Singing by the Ladies' Retreat Choir directed by Mary Nell Adkins and Jenna Allen; Gloria Hart, pianist; Elaine Linkous, organist.

10:26 Reaching to Touch Lives—message by Mabel Dison. Excerpts: Mark 3:1-5. When we reach out to anyone, it is not to be for gain to us. When you reach out, God touches a life for His honor and glory. That says to the world that this is what God can do. The Good Samaritan is a good picture of the honor and glory of the Lord. There is human and Godly compassion. When you have Godly compassion, you feel what another person feels with the power and love of the Holy Ghost. Our churches, conventions, messages, singing and all of these things bless us; there comes a time when people need your touch. They can't hear the prayer or message. You need somebody to reach out and touch you. The Good Samaritan could have said: I will bring the best choir in town; we have the best soloist and preacher in the world. These would not have reached the man who was wounded; would not have put clothes on him or bound his wounds. The man had to stop what he was doing. He couldn't go get anybody; the need was before him. He couldn't say that we have to take his money; many times we will do something if somebody else furnishes the money. If you ever help anybody, you will have to use your money and your time. He got on his knees and bound up the wounds; took him to a place where he was taken care of.

There comes those who need our healing touch, the oil poured on, their wounds bound and what you have to give. If the only reason I live is because of clothes, a place to sleep, and food to eat, I would go home. I think of those who are lost and in need and my soul cries, "Use me Lord." You can touch people through prayer and love. Luke 11 tells the parable about a friend wanting three loaves, and the man said, "I have nothing." Would any of us have anything without God? Your charisma, wisdom, and all the nice things you say and do won't touch lives. It must be the supernatural power of the Holy Ghost in you. It is easy to do good when everything is going good. You will never touch lives until you let God through the Holy Ghost touch through you; lives will be changed, God glorified; His name lifted up. The friend had nothing, but that didn't stop the man; he made an effort to get what he needed. He found an obstacle;

the love that he had to go and hunt three loaves for his friend helped him to overcome that obstacle. We can overcome; Jesus has called us all to minister—not just the preachers. Minister: to the hungry man in the airport, buses, your neighborhood; anywhere somebody is hurting or who has a need. Walk in the Spirit, live in the Word, renew that mind and let the supernatural power of the Holy Ghost motivate you to touch lives. Jesus wants to touch everybody who has a need; He works through people. I live with one consuming desire; I want to die with my hands free from the blood of all men. It motivates me to the point I don't mind the price or what God asks of me. I just say, "Here am I God, use me to reach out to the person in need of You." When you meet a need you don't know how to handle, you have authority to call on the name of Jesus; He will perform the supernatural and touch that life. Mary broke a vial of alabaster on Jesus. She ministered to Jesus but everybody in the room got some of the fragrance. When we walk in the Spirit, everywhere we go we carry the fragrance of the loving Lord. Reach out; it could be your son; death could reach into your home and take some of your loved ones who are not saved. Reach out in faith and let God use you.

10:45 Ladies Who Are Touching Lives—Dan Howell told about these dedicated women who are serving on the mission fields, as they marched across platform: Advira Thompson, Beauth Moss, Laverne Davis, Ruth Doroshuk, Inez Saucedo, Juanita Mojica, Nereida Valera, Dorothy Cagle, Kimberly Miller, Jan Shirley, Barbara Howard, Rosa Marrero, Fausta Vital-Herne, Felicia Payano, Rachel Pardede, Marietta Lowery, Joy Creel, Aldeth Allen, Viola Graham, Hermine Barclay, Adolphina Liberato, Ruth Rivera, Diana Pruitt, Doris Ard, Janet Biggers, Margarita Madrid, Bonnie Holcombe, Wilma Knights, Paula Morales, Verona Rogers.

11:20 Helping Hands offering received—$23,693.27—as Mary Nell Adkins led congregation in singing; Gloria Hart, pianist; Jonell Klapp, organist.

11:30 Sister Howard's family read these Scriptures: Matthew 10:42; 25:34-40; Proverbs 19:17; 2 Corinthians 9:6. Frank Howard prayed.

11:45 The Dynamics of Reaching—message by Elva Howard, General Secretary. Scriptures: Matthew 25:45; Galatians 6:2; Psalm 119:11; Deuteronomy 28:1, 2; 1 Peter 5:8. (This message will be printed in the December 29, 1984 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be ordered on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.) "God Wants the Glory In Our Home"—song by Jenna Allen, Mary Nell Adkins and Betty Barker, as the husbands of ladies who had been to retreat joined them and they went through the congregation praying for others.

12:21 Closing prayer by Ina Mae Tomlinson, with her husband by her side. During intermission, singing by: Harold Klapp; Michael and Anthony Mangrum.

1:29 Two songs by choir from England, directed by Joy Watts.

1:43 BTI in England—J. C. Cagle, vice president: Three schools operating in England—London, Birmingham; a rotating school in Sheffield and Bristol and Manchester will be included in the rotating system. After twenty-one years of BTI in England, it is astounding how the attendance continues. The emphasis of the schools was the value of hearing and heeding the message rather than being impressed with the charisma of the messenger. Summarized Luke 11. BTI motto: BTI strives not to establish a doctrine; it strives rather to establish in the doctrine. Luke 11:28. I feel that BTI is the best agency the Church has for an extension arm in training potential leaders around the world. I trust that in the future we will be able to enlarge upon BTI to meet the challenge for better qualified leaders. The Church is faced with the Great Commission of going into all the world with the full gospel. This means penetrating language and social barriers; coping with prejudices and cultural backgrounds.

BTI on West Coast (Spanish)—Gabriel Montijo, Jr., vice president: The school started in 1949. We appreciate what BTI has done for the Spanish work. Thank God for A. J. Tomlinson who had that vision of a school that could be carried from place to place. Much of the leadership of the Church today has passed through BTI. People in the Latin American countries seem to have a deeper vision of the Church. It is not the total answer to our needs, but it is a good foundation. Schools are being conducted in several languages in many nations. The California School is self-supporting. We appreciate the prayers, support, zeal and interest. The school is not just for California but for any Spanish-speaking people. We give each a hearty invitation. Some study in English and Spanish. Praise the Lord for BTI, and we want to continue to support it everywhere.

Post Graduate Course as told by W. M. Queener: Things are taught that we don't gain in our local churches, General Assemblies or conventions. We don't get too old to gain more knowledge whether we are laity or in the ministry. I want to be established in the doctrine more than ever before. The Bible comes first. The living Word spoke to us in this advanced study course. Oliver Holmes said, "The greatest thing in this world is not so much as to where we are, but in what direction we are moving." We need an insight of where we are going and what we are doing. The BTI Department has gained that knowledge of trying to help us to better understand the Word. Lot of people are wandering aimlessly; they have good intentions; we need a goal. BTI is trying to help us gain those goals. We can go back to our fields of labor and help establish other people in the Book. I don't care what man says; I care about what the Book says. Someone has said that 75 percent of our victories depend upon our preparations; we need to be prepared for the ministry. The advanced course was designed for the ministry; we need to be prepared ministers of the gospel. A. J. Tomlinson said: "History reveals the fact that many religious movements and churches have started out well and God's power was demonstrated in many ways until later when men rejected the power of God and introduced theories and practices that cut God out of the picture. When men's wisdom is allowed to dominate above the Spirit and people get so far away from God that they refuse to listen to the Holy Ghost when He speaks as He did to the saints at Antioch, there is danger already lurking." The Holy Ghost is our teacher. God, through the Holy Ghost, knows how to give what we need. I would encourage ministers to try to come this next year to the Advanced Study Course; it will be a blessing to you.

2:10 Songs by Convention Quartet directed by Stan Bonham.

2:21 Learn of Me—message by Benjamin Lawrence, Representative. Scriptures: Matthew 11:28-30; Revelations 22:17; Exodus 20:8; 1 Peter

1:16; Romans 12:1, 2; 2 Peter 2:10; Job 14:1; 2 Corinthians 3:6; 1 Corinthians 2:11, 12; Isaiah 29:11, 12; Acts 23:3; Galatians 1:15-17; Mark 13:34; 2 Corinthians 6:1; James 5:14, 15. (This message will appear in the December 29, 1984 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be ordered on cassette tape from the White Wing Publishing House.)

3:07 Prayer led by the General Overseer as someone stood by a flag on the platform of every nation where we have BTI; we joined in praying for BTI the world over.

3:09 Military Service Program directed by Bobby R. Snow, Representative. Comments and introductions. CHAPLAINS: Major Douglas Stephenson; LCDR Daniel Kurbis; Major Guy Lindsey; Captain Gerald Moates.

3:15 Song by Barbara and Dennis Howard as offering was received for Military Department expenses.

3:22 J. C. Cagle told of Thanksgiving in England where twenty-two were present; Bobby R. Snow was special guest.

Chaplain Guy Lindsey told of revival at Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, AL, with Elwood Matthews assisted by VOS singers. There is no way we can tell the number saved and healed but the altar was filled each night.

Dennis Howard told of retreat in Germany. One was saved, sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost; later became a member of the Church. This is an arm of the Church.

W. E. Johnson, Jr. told about retreat in Alaska: The servicemen are a great part of our work in Alaska. Many received wonderful experiences from the Lord.

3:45 Song by Dennis and Barbara Howard.

3:49 Who Paid the Light Bill?—message by Bobby R. Snow, Representative. Scriptures: Hebrews 10:32; 2 Corinthians 4:6; Psalm 119:130; 1 Peter 2:9; 1 John 1:7. 5:03 Commissioned to Preach—message by Rebecca Spicer. Excerpts: John 1:4; Luke 9:2. We need a move of God in our local churches. The Bible teaches that there is a power we can have in these latter days greater than in the former. God gave Noah a commission to build an ark to help save some people. The Church can help us today, but we need to go to the main foundation. John the Baptist and the disciples preached; men and women who came in contact with the Lord wanted to share their experiences—not everyone wants salvation. God has made a change in my life and ministry. I have a commission to preach the gospel; I have to preach the Word. Luke 1:79; summarized Nahum 3—the man ran in the opposite direction. The Church has a message; as saints of God, we have a message of repentance. If we could get to more people in our society, we would have less alcoholics, drug addicts and less problems. This man of God ran with the message that these people needed.

I count it a privilege to tell somebody about Jesus; to tell somebody that there is a God Who lives and he doesn't have to live in sin. You can give them hope for tomorrow. There is a God Who soon will send His Son on the clouds of glory to redeem His chosen people and take them home. My only request of God is that I can take the commission to preach and go to those we have lost and tell them that God still loves them and there is still room in the family of God. 2 Corinthians 4:1-4, 6. The devil wants you to be blind; he does not tell you that you will be lost. He does not come to your assistance; he will push you down and destroy you.

John 3:19. God from the beginning of time wanted a people. He sent preachers, disciples, apostles, etc.; only a few listened. When Noah was working on the ark, every day he told the same message—it is going to rain. Nobody listened. Lot of people don't believe there is going to be a rapture. God gave His Son the supreme sacrifice. Even with all that Christ preached and did, even His death, people still sin. It is time we start praying and fasting. We can have the fire from heaven come down in our services and that great convicting power of God get hold of the sinner or half-hearted Christian and cause them to go to an altar of prayer. The world is coming to an end; we must preach the truth. There is a way to present the gospel where people will accept it. We have what the world needs; we need to give it out that they might have the joy that we have. John preached it so hard he lost his head; Stephen lost his life. The Hebrew boys said they were not going to bow to some people. If we want revival, we are going to have to pray and fast and get the favor of God and preach the Word as it is. We have the commission; with the Lord, we can do it. The world is looking for an "on fire" Church of God. I want the Spirit of God to be in me and move. God commissioned Noah, John the Baptist and others of the Bible. He has commissioned us to do a greater work than ever before. Proverbs 30:12. There are times in our lives just like Isaiah: we live good but we have to be touched. Our zeal has to be rekindled. 2 Corinthians 13:5; Jeremiah 4:3; Amos 8:11; Proverbs 24:30-34. These Scriptures tell us there was good soil but nothing growing. Our souls could be looked at as the field. We must guard what we hear and receive; be careful that we don't let the vision be lost. I believe in sanctification, the Holy Ghost and the Church. I want to stick with the Church; she is going all the way. The Bible says what is right and wrong; let us live by the commission that Jesus, the greatest evangelist, has given. Proverbs 24:30-32. When people fall, I do not joy in that; I don't let that spirit get hold of me. The Word must be hid in our hearts so we will not backslide. 2 Timothy 3:1; 4:2. We are commissioned to preach without wavering and to live above sin. The world does not know about the Holy Ghost; if we live it and keep the commission, we will see those people enter into the gates. Luke 9:62. Let us fast and pray for a mighty revival.

5:30 Broadcast Record Club Singers directed by Thomas Duncan, Communications Business Manager. Songs by: David Baroni; Bo and Romona Robinson; The Convention Quartet, OK; Reggie McDougle; Kim Garnier; Harper Hunter, assisted by the Hamm Family; the King's Messengers; Johnny Tolbert and the Benson Family; South Florida Mass Choir; Betty Schneider; Thomas Feltman and Harper Hunter sang "The Great Speckled Bird."

EVENING

6:44 Perfection—message by Herman E. Dean. (Bishops present from Bahamas and Florida sat on platform.) Excerpts: Colossians 4:12; Hebrews 6:1; 12:1; 1 Peter 2:1, 2; 2 Timothy 3:16, 17; Matthew 1:21; Ephesians 4:11-14; Matthew 5:48; 1 Peter 1:1, 16; Philippians 3:14; Genesis 17:1; Galatians 5:19-21. You can't hate the Church of God. They that do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. 2 Timothy 3:16. Some don't like to be reproved; ministers are given for the perfection of the saints; we are going to have to do our job, or the Church will never be perfect. When the Church gets the glory of God and reaches perfection some things will not happen anymore, because the glory of the Lord will be around us.

When Ananias and Sapphira came to church, that local church was in the glory of God. When the Church glorifies itself, there will be no liars in the Church.

Leviticus 27:30-33; Malachi 3:8-10. If all Church of God people would pay tithes, the bank couldn't hold it. We have a tendency to rob God. Matthew 11:11-14; Numbers 18:26. Truly give the Church its tithes. We complain about the Church not doing its work, people are not being healed; but we are closing the window. Malachi 3:10. It is a blessing to pay tithes and the husbandmen must be first partakers of the fruit. A weak minister will have a weak church. The stronger you preach tithes, the better church you will have. 1 Corinthians 9:27. We need to preach and practice the Word; be an example of the flock. You can't save a member by being a coward. Proverbs 28:13. Sin is a reproach to any people. You are going to have to do what God says and pay your tithes.

Ephesians 4:11, 12; 1 Thessalonians 5:1, 2. Church, you had better be ready because Jesus is coming soon. 2 Peter 2:5-7. If we do these things, the Church will go on to perfection. Job 2:1-3; Psalm 37:37. Sometimes we have a tendency to esteem ourselves and bring down others. Luke 13:11-14. I am preaching to saints, but there may be a spot among us. You are holding back on your tithes and offerings and God is not going to bless. It is more blessed to give than receive; if you give, you will receive and you will see healing and other miracles in the Church. Ephesians 5:14, 15; 2 Timothy 3:1, 2; Ephesians 4:26, 27. The last days are here; we have got to live perfect and holy. Hebrews 12:14; Luke 1:74, 75. He is coming back for a Holy Church. Ephesians 5:27; Lamentations 3:40; Isaiah 1:16; Jude 1:20-23. Naaman was full of leprosy; he was told to go to the Jordan River and wash seven times; he got wrought. Some of us don't like the truth. 2 Timothy 4:2. The Bible tells us we are clean through the Word; it is not because I can shout or speak in tongues. Hebrews 6:1. For the Church to be glorified, it will take workers. 1 Corinthians 3:9. God is depending on us. 1 Thessalonians 5:16, 17. Sometimes we stumble in this life; the road gets rocky; the hill gets high; the valley is low. When you make it to heaven, you will walk on streets of gold where there will be no more crying nor dying. You need to light up this light or we would all be in darkness; you won't need a light over there, because the Lamb is the light. You will see a multitude which no man can number; the four and twenty elders and you will see Jesus. He is going to wipe away all tears. Let us go on to perfection. Those numbers are those who washed their robes and they have been washed in the blood of the Lamb. Revelation 7:14; Isaiah 6:2. You will have a time when you get to heaven.

7:18 Music by the Bahama Brass Band.

7:35 Voice of Salvation Program directed by Elwood Matthews, Communications Minister. Theme: Touching Lives. VOS Singers and Cleveland (Wildwood Avenue), TN Choir sang "Fresh Touch of Desire." Buford Johnson was recognized for being the first VOS minister; VOS celebrating 30 years.

7:46 Touching lives with VOS: In Jamaica—Les R. Graham: VOS is heard every Sunday morning in Jamaica. It is one of the long-standing religious programs in our country; has been on the air for twenty years. Many have testified that they look forward to the program. In the mid '70's, it had the highest rating of all religious programs on that station. There are positive indications that again VOS is attracting a growing listening audience. Through the influence of VOS, we were able to organize a church in Mandava; it is still going strong. It is not possible to give the number of listeners whose lives have been touched by the program; many have found Christ and the Church; pastors have testified of VOS giving their churches a boost and other sheep are asking their way to Zion. The program has helped tremendously to give the Church recognition. We are praying for VOS and giving it all the support we can.

In Sierra Leone, West Africa—Sherman O. Allen: VOS is broadcast each Sunday morning from the capital city of Freetown. It is not possible to give the exact number who are being touched by this means. We had 25 percent increase in our membership this year; 50 percent of these heard the VOS and have been won to the Lord and to the Church. It is the intention of the Muslims to cover the whole continent of North Africa. In Sierra Leone, because of low income, it is an achievement to own a radio receiver. The VOS is reaching lives in Sierra Leone. Please do not stop; we need VOS to beam the Word of God so that more lives can be touched. We must do all we can to win souls for Christ.

In North Carolina—Scott Gillum: The United States is also a mission field. VOS is a long arm to those in North Carolina who are out of the reach of our church workers. God has touched lives; doors have opened. One station runs VOS twice in one day because it has such a great response; the second run is free. The Info capsules are being run free on about ten stations; it is touching lives. Chapel Hill ran four 30-minute programs free; Darrell Shelton made contact with a station that is willing to air whatever we can give to them. All we have to do, Church of God, is go and ask. Many are preaching things not according to the Word; we must share the truth that will set them free.

7:58 Singing by the VOS Singers.

8:09 Touching Lives Through Various Ministries—Dan Howell. Jesus spent a lot of time touching people. He touched the blind man's eyes, which was against the Jewish law; restored life to the widow's son; his last instructions He gave to the Church is in Mark 16:15. It is as though He was saying, you go and do what I have done. The only way the Church is going to have any impact on lives of people is with the gospel of Jesus Christ, which is the only way the VOS can have impact on the lives of people. I believe that is the reason for the 37 percent increase in mail this year. We may use different methods, approaches, but nothing must overshadow the preaching of the gospel. That is of utmost importance because it changes lives and gives hope.

One method of presenting the gospel is the radio broadcast. In this 30th anniversary year, VOS is heard in two countries, broadcasting on 240 stations in English. Last Friday night, VOS went on air for the first time in the heart of the Moslem world in Southern Lebanon, which brings the signal to parts of Israel, Syria and Jordan. There are millions of English-speaking in these areas. Matthew 10:16. This gospel does have an affect.

Don Slaton and wife are serving in the Philippines in Davao City, which is the center of rebel activity against that government. Brother Slaton wrote that shortly after VOS went on the air, the captain of the police department in Davao came to my door. The captain told Brother Slaton he had accepted Christ while listening to VOS. Brother Slaton gave him a Bible; the captain requested Brother Slaton to read some Scriptures; the policeman said he was going back to see if it was possible for the Slatons to hold regular Bible studies with the policemen in that city.

Other methods to touch lives with the gospel are: television, info capsules and radio spots, which have been viewed or heard by thousands. These are available to local churches; are a tremendous means of outreach in your community. Prayer request telephone line is another means VOS is endeavoring to touch someone.

DAILY WALK is a monthly Bible Study Guide. By following this guide, one can read through the Bible in a year. It goes into some prisons and detention centers free; is a great aid for one to get into the Word of God.

Bibles for Missions are greatly needed on the mission fields. They can't purchase Bibles because of their low incomes. Bibles have been supplied to some pastors in the Philippines; members in Sierra Leone, Africa; 1,000 Bibles to Uganda; many have helped us send Bibles around the world to twenty-four countries. There are opportunities all around us to reach out. We are not a maintenance program; we are an outreach. This generation cannot claim victory nor failures for the past; we are responsible as to how we discharge our responsibilities.

8:26 Mary Nell Adkins gave a testimony of youth mission team activities to the Philippines. Prayer for those in the Philippines; offering received for VOS. Verlin Thornton led in singing "Is There Anything I Can Do For You?" Benny Triplett addressed the Assembly.

8:49 "Stay In the Ark"—song by Roberta Matthews; concert prayer.

8:55 Touching Lives Through the Word—message and altar call by D. Elwood Matthews, Communications Minister. Scriptures: Summarized 2 Kings 22 and 23; 2 Chronicles 34 and 35. Mark 3:14, 15; Matthew 28:20; Mark 16:20; related a happening in each of the first 20 chapters of Acts; Psalm 34:7; Numbers 23:19. (This message will appear in the December 29, 1984 issue of the White Wing Messenger and may be ordered from the White Wing Publishing House on cassette tape.) Music and singing during altar service by: VOS Singers; Mike and Nelda Tomlinson.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 10

MORNING

7:30 Sunrise service conducted by Lewis Maynard and Ralph Wells. Organ music by Rita Haire; music by Bahama Brass Band.

8:45 Songs led by Sheila Murphree with Gloria Hart, pianist; Sonny Sample, organist. Romans 8:32-39 read by Gregory Bennett; prayer by E. J. Bias, followed by concert prayer for requests.

9:00 The Safe Ground of Established Doctrine—message by W. R. Nunnery, Overseer of Delaware/New Jersey. Matthew 16:24-26. (Brother Nunnery prayed) Do you want to dig into the Word of God and know what you are building on? Safe Ground of Established Doctrine has been taught and dug out from God's divine plan. There are other doctrines in the world. Jesus verified that in Mark 7:1-9. Humans have a tendency to want their doctrine. Paul said to the church at Corinth that every one of you have a song, doctrine, an interpretation. We are to speak the same thing—sound doctrine. Some of us just rattle; we need to know God, His divine plan and believe in the Word. John 7:15-17.

Because he wasn't educated well doesn't mean he didn't go to school, but not educated like some expect the General Overseer to be. He has to be God's man, it doesn't matter how much one has been to school; it does matter how much he has been with God and chosen of God. Preachers, are you trying to reach souls and put them on safe ground? The Lord told Peter that he was thinking of the things that are of men, but my doctrine is not mine; if a man will know the will of Him Who sent Me, he will know the doctrine. 1 Corinthians 3:11. He has laid the foundation, how can we build any other way? Everything that folk preach doesn't line up with what He had to say. Paul said that we are no more strangers and foreigners. He is talking to the Church of God—the same Church that he said everyone has a doctrine, a song, a revelation; the Church built on a foundation of the Apostles and prophets. Ephesians 2:20. Those prophets declared, the Apostles confirmed; this became the foundation. Jesus came and verified what the prophets had to say and said to John that it is up to you and me to fulfill; Paul verified it stating that Jesus is the Chief Cornerstone. Matthew 7:21; Acts 2:42.

The Church started without a New Testament and plan, other than what the Lord had given them. When you continue in the Apostles' doctrine, there is no problem to have fellowship. We are in for the greatest turn around the Church has ever known. The Church is not going to change its doctrine; but going back to the original plan that God outlined in the Book. We have let too many of our customs and traditions penetrate into the beautiful government of God. Acts 16:4, 5. They had a headquarters, a centralized government; what was outlined in Jerusalem was taken to the local churches and given to the ministry to take before the people. The churches became established and increased in number daily. With a lot of us, General Headquarters had just become a figure head. You say every member has a right. In the New Testament pattern, James had the final say in circumcision. You say that the Assembly is the highest authority—I know that; this man is still the General Overseer of the Church of God and we need to respect that office and him as our leader. John 15:26, 27; Matthew 16:17. We are not to believe something because mamma believed it or it is preached from the pulpit. Galatians 1:11-16. Paul preached the gospel by the revelation of Jesus Christ. God is trying to help us get back on an established doctrine and believing the things the Assembly has said. We are not to change our teachings, even though we are in modern times. The teachings of the Church will preach in any nation. Barriers have nothing to do with the divine plan of God. The Church is not preaching a man-made doctrine. The Church is teaching that which was dug out by men of God as they crawled on their hands and knees agonizing with God; it was decided in the first Assembly that we are not a legislative nor executive body, but we are judicial only; our job is to execute the laws given to us by Christ through His Apostles. The Church is not going to change its doctrine against divorce and fornication. Those who have agonized with God in the assemblies—not to find a new doctrine and laws, but to find that taught by the Early Church. It was theocratic then; it is now. It is not operated by political maneuvers. This has to wind up fast; it can't unless we have a real moving of God and turn back to the original plan.

We have an anointed leader. On Friday, September 15, 1944, the overseers reported what took place after the death of our former General Overseer. The Assembly accepted it; the Holy Ghost approved. The General Overseer said, "I would rather take the smallest church that we have and be pastor of it if it is the Lord's will." He wanted God's will to be done. He said, "We can't afford to lower the standard in the Church of God . . . and let everybody tell us how to run the Church." A message and interpretation was given to show that the Lord has chosen the present General Overseer and anointed him to lead his people. Portion of that message and interpretation: "Follow thou him, I say unto thee, let him step in front; let him walk around and follow him; I will guide his every step. I will guide his every step; he shall commit himself unto me, and I the Lord thy God shall put my spirit upon him and I will guide his every action, follow thou him for I am with him."

The General Overseer said that he wants to do what God wants and asked if you feel you are doing what the Church of God all over the world wants. The General Overseer continued: "The Bible is our guide and it says to obey them that have the rule over you, and I suppose the Church of God has the rule over me. I will have to accept this position." He asked all to repeat in concert: "We feel it good to the Holy Ghost and us for you to be General Overseer of the Church of God." Forty years later we still feel that it is good to the Holy Ghost and us for this man to be the anointed leader of the Church of God. Messages have been given that he was the anointed General Overseer until death. The Holy Ghost is still putting His approval on him. The General Overseer stated that he did not have a high education nor everything this world could afford, but he was depending on God for wisdom. I am not degrading education, but I would be afraid to lay my hands against God's anointed. It is pathetic that we who preach and teach theocracy cannot submit to what the General Overseer wants us to do. In his prayer following that, he said, "Lord, you know how much I would like to be given a small church under one of these overseers and do my best to get souls saved, but it doesn't seem that is my lot, so I am going to do your will." We are under subjection to the Assembly and the government that God has given us and believe in a divine anointed leader. He will live as long as God wants him to; the Holy Ghost said he is General Overseer for life.

(Brother Nunnery had the General Overseer lead in singing "Getting Ready to Leave This World." The General Overseer stated: "God has spoken through His servant; we want to do the Lord's will—not my will. If we will preach the words in this Book, I believe we will be doing the Lord's will. The Lord has been so good to me. We want this message to continue and do what we can. I feel unworthy to stand before you today. We have so many wonderful, loyal Church of God saints who want to see the Church go on to perfection. I believe by your help and the help of the Lord we can go on to perfection. I didn't know he was going to preach like that.")

10:10 Song by Mark Groves.

URBAN OUTREACH MINISTRIES: I operated an Outreach Ministries booth in the Assembly Tabernacle corridor last Assembly to alert our people to the need of urban evangelism, giving out literature prepared in my office on the subject; conducted a seminar during the Assembly with over 100 in attendance—several overseers, ministers, pastors and interested workers participated in the seminar, sharing and receiving knowledge; prepared an insert for the May issue of the White Wing Messenger and recruited several ministers and their families who are interested in this ministry, and assisted the Missouri Overseer in obtaining a minister for Cape Girardeau, MO.

PATTY K. SCOTTON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND: I served as President of the Patty K. Scotton Memorial Scholarship Fund and hosted a banquet at last year's Assembly to solicit funds of which eight students were awarded scholarships while attending Tomlinson College.

Toured South Carolina and visited and preached for all Black congregations of the Church of God of Prophecy; made Voice of Salvation television capsules; taught in Cleveland and West Coast BTT's; served on these committees at Headquarters: Ministerial Aid; Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine; World Mission; Communications.

I have been available to the office of the General Overseer at all times to assist him upon request with whatever duties he deemed necessary, and responded to all appeals for assistance made on my office and ministry.

Thank God who allowed us to have the Spanish Voice of Salvation broadcast in Central and South America, the Caribbean Islands, Spain and several states in USA. The program is broadcast over 144 radio stations and in 20 nations. We have received thousands of letters giving testimonies of healing and spiritual help received through the program. Many expressed the blessing that the correspondence courses are: the Body of Christ and the General Bible Knowledge. We distributed: 672 units of the Body of Christ—54 certificates issued; 1,357 units of General Bible Knowledge—171 certificates issued.

Attended the convention of pastors in southern California; conducted a cross-cultural seminar in Chicago, IL; attended the National Religious Broadcasters Convention in Washington, D.C.; participated in the Latin American Evangelist Convention, where I was elected as part of the Board of Directors; participated in the Planning Committee for Ethnic America Convention to be held in Houston, TX in 1985; represented the Church at a special meeting at the White House cited by National Security Committee—Briefing Division.

I was invited as guest speaker to the Conference of Spanish Churches in Canada; attended their family retreat. This is our first contact with Spanish in Canada and we trust that in the near future we can start a Spanish church there.

I participated in the television program "Praise the Lord," on Channel 40 in Los Angeles, CA. On this program I was interviewed about our work among Hispanics in the States and other parts of the world; this was broadcast over the TBN network and other TV stations in Latin America.

Our first Spanish TV special has been televised in 4 states and 2 nations; the response has been very good. The TV spots have been a great blessing in making the Church known in different areas: Santa Barbara, CA; New York; Chicago, IL; Allentown, PA; San Juan, PR. The second TV special in Spanish has been produced; we trust it will be a blessing.

This year we have celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of the Spanish VOS by conducting rallies in 3 states and 2 nations. In Honduras we held a mass crusade, where hundreds were saved and healed by the power of God. It was broadcast by radio to other countries in Central America. Our TV special was televised at that time.

Served on these committees: Communications; World Missions; Ministerial Aid; Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine.

To be called by God as His ambassador is a high and honorable calling worthy of our total commitment to the eternal, infallible Word. If there is any accomplishment worthy of General Assembly record, all glory to our God who gave the inspiration.

I have worked closely with the General Overseer representing his office at public functions worldwide. In civic affairs I have represented his office in numerous public functions locally. Presently, I am serving on the Board of Directors of the Cleveland/Bradley Chamber of Commerce; on the Board of Directors of the United Way and serve as a member of the Mayor's Blue Ribbon Committee for the United Way; produced and aired the Religious News International weekly broadcasts with Evelyn Gillum and Dan Howell reporters—Thomas Duncan and Brent Daniels gave professional assistance.

Developed a two-color, quarterly, informational bulletin relative to public relations—"PR Communique," for state/national public relations directors; developed and produced a catalog of public relations promotional tools for local church use; developed a Public Relations Director's Portfolio and distributed to state/national directors; worked closely with United States governmental officials, as well as with other national officials relative to the ministries of the Church of God.

I represented the Church at the National Religious Broadcasters Convention held in Washington, D.C.; served as a charter member of the public relations wing of National Religious Broadcasters.

As Sunday School Literature Editor, I have administered the office affairs with the capable assistance of the departmental staff. The valuable ministry of our Sunday school literature writers is appreciated. They have touched the Church with their writings. The Sunday School Literature Department continues to develop new Bible studies which now have become a part of our total curriculum:

MY SUNDAY PICTURES—We have introduced a new nursery department take-home paper for the student: "My Sunday Pictures." This is a colorful Bible story card. As the parent reads the Bible story on the back, the child relates the story to the picture on the front.

ADULT TEACHER'S GUIDE—The new Adult Teacher's Guide was developed to provide the adult teacher with a systematic plan whereby he can prepare for teaching the Sunday school lesson. The teacher's guide emphasizes the importance of the teacher: Preparing to Teach—Worship; Personal Bible Reading; Culturally/Geographically/Historically; Extracurricular Reading; Prospectus; Story Highlights; Class Interaction; Personal Evaluation.

ELECTIVE BIBLE STUDY—"History of Christianity"—The ongoing development of our elective Bible study series continues with this year's introduction of the second in the series of four Bible studies: "History of Christianity." These have been designed to be used in a class of new converts or a newly organized Sunday school, as well as for adult Bible study groups. The complete series will include: The Christian Life; History of Christianity; Personal Growth; The Body of Christ. Within the wide scope of our long-range plans, the elective series will focus in-depth Bible studies on contemporary issues. The Teacher's Guide and the Student's Book for "The Christian Life" and "History of Christianity" are available now for our Sunday school and local church Bible study groups to order.

Report of World Language Secretary

August 1, 1983 through July 31, 1984

Psalms 107:21, 22. Language Outreach: The World Literature Outreach continues. We have attempted to prepare the Church literature for printing in the languages where the Church is operating. There are many hindrances but we trust God. In spite of international political obstacles we are making efforts to supply our ministers and evangelists with literature.

Special efforts have been concentrated in the Nigeria, Sierra Leone and Ghana languages. Indonesia provides us with a great challenge. New languages are being considered as the Church extends its radius of action. Plans to establish our own Church press in Indonesia will greatly increase the effectiveness of our World Literature Outreach. On location translators will prepare our Church literature in various Indonesian languages for printing.

Special efforts are being made to provide the Church in Central Africa with Church literature. Rwanda and Uganda will soon have literature in their languages. Kenya is the vital-link country for this region. The national overseer's office is assisting in coordinating our translation work. The difficulty lies in the multiplicity of languages; in spite of these great obstacles, progress is being made.

India is one of the fastest countries of Church growth and it is spreading widely into various languages. An expansion program of our printing facilities was initiated last November which enables the Church to produce our literature in several Indian languages.

Commendations to our faithful overseers who are assisting the World Language Department in the translation work or our undertaking could not be successful without their cooperation.

One Million Dollar Goal: The General Assembly of 1980 launched us into an acceleration of the World Literature Outreach work. Enthusiasm was sparked by the Holy Ghost and a goal was set to raise $1,000,000.00 for the World Literature Outreach, which was intended to mature in five years. What seemed like an impossible dream has nearly become a reality. The Lord is to be praised and also the youth of the Church who worked so hard to make this come true.

Appreciation to many individuals who have sent generous gifts of love. Total since 1980 is $945,959.76 (including $10,000 worth of printing donated by Adrian Temple and $77,519.86 toward the outreach ministry of Gary Glover).

Church Literature Conferences: Our Church Literature Conferences were continued this year. Their purpose is to create an awareness among our ministers in nations concerning our Church literature. We are exploring possible methods on how to encourage the financial involvement and participation. We have received a very positive response from the national overseers and pastors.

Personal Report: Represented general headquarters at 6 state/national conventions; 3 youth conventions; 2 ministers conventions; 5 literature conferences; attended Alabama Men's Retreat, and Spanish Book Publishers Convention in Miami, FL. Also attended Church activities in these places: South Carolina, Oklahoma, California, India, Hong Kong, Singapore, England, Germany. Served on these: World Mission Committee; Church Publishing Committee; Managing Editor of the international White Wing Messenger in Spanish, French, Arabic and Telugu.

The World Language Department staff has been a great support team. The translators here and around the world are to be commended. The Church of God is certainly taking her place; I am glad to be a part. I shall do my best for God and His Church. Glory to God for all He has done.

Report of Ministerial Aid Director

August, 1983 through July 31, 1984

I have administered all of the Ministerial Aid Department business which has been directed to World Headquarters through the Ministerial Aid Committee and a competent office staff; planned and designed the special Ministerial Aid Edition of the White Wing Messenger; edited the monthly bulletin, "The International Connector" of which approximately 9,000 copies were distributed; succeeded in transferring the church group insurance from the previous carrier to a new carrier.

I visited many states and retired ministers in connection with the Ministerial Aid activities and represented general headquarters at many funerals; represented general headquarters at conventions and activities in Central America, Western Canada, Pennsylvania, Iowa and Wisconsin.

Served on the CPMA Committee, as secretary of the Ministerial Aid Committee and the secretary of the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine; taught in the Cleveland BTI; compiled a book entitled, "Reflections Number Two," about the life and ministry of several of our faithful ministers; attended special services in Fields of the Wood; have written thousands of letters and traveled thousands of miles for the glory of God.

Report of Director of Evangelism

August 1, 1983 through July 31, 1984

Thank God for His abundant blessings for this year's work. I conducted one "Sharing Eternal Life" Seminar for the district overseers in Northern and Southern California. Served on the Communications Committee, Church Publishing Committee and the Youth Mission Board. I submitted regularly to the White Wing Messenger the column "Doing the Work of an Evangelist" and also listed revival results in the column, "Fires of Evangelism." I prepared one Evangelism issue of the White Wing Messenger.

I conducted 3 area crusades, attended 4 state conventions; produced various materials for the Department of Evangelism and answered all correspondence.

I taught workshops in the International Christian Education Convention in Detroit, MI.

Report of Communications Minister
August 1, 1983 through July 31, 1984

The Lord has helped us to see great increases in the regular ministries of the Voice of Salvation and has given direction for new areas of ministry.

The department: produced 7 video "Info-Capsules," 30 and 60 seconds in length, to promote the Church—these have been aired throughout the United States; began a monthly devotional guide entitled "The Daily Walk"; sent Bibles to 24 countries to be distributed by our overseers or representatives; received 4,990 letters; 3,767 prayer requests; 2,346 special offers mailed; produced video highlights of the General Assembly to be used by individuals and local churches.

Report of Communications Department Business Manager
August 1, 1983 through July 31, 1984

Job 36:24. God has been merciful unto us, and blessed us; and caused His face to shine upon us in the Communications work. The Lord is to be greatly praised in that radio coverage has been maintained for the Church message to reach millions of listeners on five continents as we strive to achieve world coverage in Church broadcasting.

The English Voice of Salvation has added radio stations in: Alabama, Arizona, Colorado, Georgia, Illinois, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin and the Philippines. One very significant station scheduling has been WWVA, a 50,000 watt AM radio station in Wheeling, WV with night-time coverage throughout the eastern United States. Spanish Voice of Salvation radio coverage has also been greatly enhanced by the addition of stations in: Argentina, Mexico, Peru, California, Kansas, New Mexico, Texas and Wisconsin. We have experienced excellent cooperation with state/national overseers in our effort to add stations for these broadcasts.

Gospel Concert Hall continues to be a major radio outreach for the gospel message in a musical setting and is under the production and announcing services of Lisa Scott.

Broadcast Distributors, Broadcast Record Club and the Majestic Sound Studio have been very supportive of our work with finances from their operations. We are also grateful for the general appropriation of funds which helps sustain this work.

I have traveled in several states in behalf of the Communications work; attended 1 district convention, 1 state convention, the Audio Engineering Society Convention in New York City and a special AES Technical conference in Anaheim, CA; assisted with audio engineering relative to the state tabernacle sound system in Alabama; supervised the department's engineering operations, audio operations of the 78th Annual Assembly, audio operations of Cleveland BTI, the work of my office staff, answered correspondence, operated Broadcast Distributors and Broadcast Record Club, and served on the Communications Committee and Music Committee. I appreciate the fine assistance of my office staff.

Report of General Minister of Music and Home Missions Representative August 1, 1983 through July 31, 1984

It is with thankfulness that my work assignment has given me a variety of rewarding experiences for which I give Him praise.

The Music Department provided music recordings for the Voice of Salvation radio ministries and participated in 3 area VOS Rallies. We conducted 3 music clinics in Alabama, Mississippi and Wyoming. Musical programs were prepared and performed for 2 General Overseer's banquets. I attended the Pine Lake Music Conference at Pine Mountain, GA, and conducted music classes for first-term BTI in the Cleveland school. I corresponded by letter with all state music directors.

I wish to express appreciation to all those assisting in any of the above mentioned music activities this Assembly year.

I served as headquarters representative to 2 ministers conventions and 3 state conventions. I also attended as guest speaker at the Maryland Youth Convention, the Virginia Men's Day and the Homecoming of the Bristol, VA church.

I served as evangelist with the Youth Mission Team to Thailand; accompanied by eight youth from several states who represented the Church well with prayers, songs, testimonies and visitation. God blessed us with 18 souls saved, 8 church building dedications and a baby dedication.

Home Missions activities involved correspondence with all the state overseers regarding the important work and its progress in their respective states; attended a seminar on "How to Plant a Church" in Pasadena, CA; visited seven states with specific interest in their new field activities. The primary purpose of Home Missions activities this year was to try to evaluate needs of our smaller churches and how to better assist them.

I conducted 4 revivals and 3 Sharing Eternal Life seminars; served on 3 General Headquarters Committees.

For this 79th Annual Assembly the Music Department coordinated much of the music for the program, as well as the First Annual Spiritfest, and the Fifth Annual International Teen Talent Competition. The results and response to these youth activities were very gratifying.

Report of World Mission Secretary
August 1, 1983 through July 31, 1984

Through the mercies of our God, the efficient help of my office staff and the cooperation and assistance of the Mission Representatives, I was able to make 18 visits to 13 nations and 4 states, besides attending to the world-wide business of this Department in the office. I preached and taught 105 sermons and lessons, and attended 9 national conventions, 2 International Leadership Conferences, supervised the 1984 Youth Mission Teams and taught in the Cleveland Bible Training Institute.

In addition, I served on these boards and committees: Ministerial Aid, World Missions, Youth Missions, Church Publishing and Bible Training Institute.

I owe a great debt of gratitude to all the saints, overseers, missionaries and workers for their love and prayers throughout the year.

Report of Mission Representative
To Mexico, Central and South America
August 1, 1983 through July 31, 1984

It has been a joy to serve Christ and His Church another year. I thank our General Overseer for having afforded me the honor of serving the Church in this capacity. Many wonderful and exciting things are taking place on the mission field in Latin America. Despite all the political unrest and guerrilla warfare the Church of God is steadily marching forward to the Glory of God.

It has been my privilege to visit 2 ministers conventions and 10 national conventions. I have visited a total of 15 nations throughout the year and taught in the Bible Training Institutes in Brazil and Cleveland. I served as a member of the World Mission Committee and Youth Mission Board.

I thank the Lord for His guidance and for watching over me in my many travels.

I was privileged to moderate our 2nd International Leadership Conference held in Cyprus, March, 1984. I attended 10 national conventions as the representative from General Headquarters; visited Western, Eastern and Southern Africa and Cyprus on business for the Church; served as national overseer for Greece, visiting there 4 times and representing the national convention.

I instructed in two Bible Training Institutes in England and travelled with the group to Mt. Hittin for the June 13 Program.

I served as editor of the paper, "Striving Together," published by my office every two months.

I thank the Helping Hands Ministry and the World Harvest donations for the contributions received in the countries this year. Our people were truly blessed and uplifted by your generous giving to their needs.

By the help of God we have been able to complete our year's work with much success. I moderated the Second International Caribbean Leadership Conference which was held January 5-8, 1984 in Ocho Rios, Jamaica. Attended the General Appointees Meeting, the General Overseer's Christmas Banquet and several meetings of the Tomlinson College Board of Trustees. I was speaker for the closing night of Bible Training Institute in Nassau, Bahamas. Spoke on the opening night of BTI in St. Vincent; served as Principal and taught Doctrine in that school.

Five official letters were written to national/regional overseers besides personal letters and many phone calls, keeping in touch with the work. Four editions of the "Caribbean Messenger" have been published this year and distributed in the Caribbean. I do appreciate my office secretary, who also serves as assistant editor.

Many thanks to our General Overseer, World Mission Secretary, and all other General Officials for their help; the many letters of encouragement and the prayers that meant so much to me. May the Lord richly bless all.

MILITARY SERVICE DEPARTMENT

NOTE: Department name and representative title changed in the 78th Annual General Assembly, from Servicemen's to Military Service. Publication, Servicemen's News changed to The Sentinel beginning with the January, 1984 issue.

I visited our military personnel in the United States and several other nations; spoke in two retreats; attended revival at Redstone Arsenal—Huntsville, AL, directed by Chaplain Guy Lindsey, with Communications Minister, Elwood Matthews as the evangelist; attended one National Conference on Ministry to the Armed Forces conference.

Our Chaplaincy program presently consists of Maj. Douglas Stephenson, Maj. Guy Lindsey, and Capt. Gerald Moates on active duty in the Army; Lcdr. Daniel Kurbis and Lt. Bill Reed, active duty in the Navy; Capt. Jon Stovall on active duty with the Air Force. Capt. J. E. Brisson with the Civil Air Patrol, presently inactive.

Retreats were conducted in Berchtesgaden, West Germany and Anchorage, AK. Visited military personnel in Korea and Hawaii and ate Thanksgiving Dinner in the home of the National Overseer of England along with a group of military personnel and their families.

The Servicemen's Center in Langen, West Germany continues to operate under the direction of Overseer Dennis Howard and those assisting him; they are to be highly commended.

The Sentinel mailing list numbers 1,094; 813 individual recipients; 281 distributed at the general offices and mailed in bundles to pastors, overseers, and others. There have been 12 issues of this publication (5—Servicemen's News; 7—The Sentinel) published and approximately 244 packets, with 12 tracts to each packet, mailed to military personnel. A regular flow of mail is received and answered.

The Church and its Representative and Ecclesiastical Endorsing Agent is listed with the Department of Defense, National Conference on Ministry to the Armed Forces, the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, the Civil Air Patrol, and the Air Force Reserve Chaplaincy program and corresponds with the Chief of Chaplains for each of these branches of the military service.

The work of the Sunday School Department continues to prove challenging and rewarding. Due to the enormity of the task before us and the ramifications of things that we do, I must recognize God's continued grace. It is through the strength given by God and the continued support of each overseer, state director, pastor, superintendent, and lay leader that we have been able to make the strides which we have in our Sunday School Ministry this year.

I have, by the help of the Lord, attended and participated in: 8 area Sunday School training sessions; 2 state Sunday School conferences; 2 state Sunday School and youth conferences; 1 winter retreat; 2 youth conventions; 2 state conventions; and International Youth Camp.

I have prepared for and directed the meeting of the state/national Sunday School and Children's Church Directors prior to the 78th Annual Assembly, and had oversight of Sunday School workshops and Children's Church sessions conducted. The Sunday School Department joined the Victory Leaders Department in conducting the first "Celebration Saturday" for children during the Assembly. It was desired that the children be blessed and ministered to by the Spirit of God in a special time directed to their needs; approximately 600 children were ministered to in this three-hour session.

I attended and taught workshops at the International Christian Education Convention in Detroit, MI; the Florida State Sunday School Convention sponsored by this same organization; taught in Cleveland and East Coast BTI; worked along with faculty members of Tomlinson College in preparing for a day of Christian Education Emphasis at TC. It is hoped that this will be an annual event in which opportunity is given to provide training for Sunday School personnel. Participated in the Evangelism Exchange sponsored by the Evangelism Department where God worked among us ministering to these people who serve so faithfully in this vital area of church ministry.

These materials were prepared in English:

- 1984 Sunday School Week and High Attendance Day material (You Are Loved!)
- 1985 Outreach Campaign material (Yes, You're Special)
- 1984-86 Sunday School Superintendent's Planning Calendar
- Sunday School Helps and Hints (a quarterly publication for Sunday School workers distributed with Sunday School literature)
- On Your Mark . . . Get Set . . . Grow! (a quarterly publication for Children's Church directors compiled by Kathy Creasy)
- Two new Administrative Literature pieces entitled "Tell the Children" and "Know Your Growth Patterns." The administrative literature pieces available in the English language is now twelve.

Preparations have begun on our new Mission Homes for Children Brochure to provide pictorial information regarding our four mission homes for children.

Children's Day 1984 (Theme: Miracles Among Us) was jointly sponsored by the Victory Leaders and Sunday School Departments. Materials were prepared in English, Spanish and French languages to assist in the promotion of recognition of the children. We noted a marked increase in participation of churches outside the USA. Reports received were both encouraging and enlightening and aid us in preparing for future events.

We have provided additional material in French and Spanish languages. Helps and Hints was again published in Spanish and French; On Your Mark . . . Get Set . . . Grow! in Spanish. These materials are inserted in appropriate White Wing Messengers and thus allow a savings on postage and other costs relative to their distribution.

I served on the World Mission Committee; supervised the phasing out of the stamp and coupon program. It appears that within the next few months this process will be completed:

Receipts from amount received on accounts	$299.75
Accounts Receivable	$520.91

When the accounts receivable is completely accounted for, the phase out of this program will be completed.

I managed the affairs of the department; corresponded on a regular basis with Sunday School secretaries, Children's Church boosters, and the overseers, thus allowing a sharing of ideas. I have endeavored to answer all correspondence regarding the activities of the department. Also, I sought input from others when questions may have needed special attention. I appreciate the dedicated assistance of my office staff.

I have written the state/national Victory Leaders Band secretaries, camp directors, and state/national overseers monthly and answered all the daily correspondence.

I was assistant editor of the monthly youth publication, the Victory Leader (English, Spanish and French), which appears in the White Wing Messenger; edited the Campus Contact Newsletter (English) which was mailed to college students.

With the assistance of my staff, we have compiled and published a new program book, the Gleaner Composition III. We have compiled and published the Idea Book for state/national secretaries; the Victory Leaders Band Ministries Calendar, a descriptive booklet of the departments within the auspices of the Victory Leaders Band and a monthly planning calendar for youth directors. We have revised and printed the Help, I've Been Appointed Youth Director booklet, an organizational guide supplement for local directors.

I planned and directed the Twenty-first International Youth Camp at Ponderosa Southern Baptist Assembly in Larkspur, CO, which was the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of National and International Camp initiated in 1959. I have overseen the compilation of the Guidepost, an idea book for camp directors, the International Youth Camp Staff Manual, and the International Youth Camp Yearbook, as well as a series of camp lessons for state and national camps.

I taught workshops for the Victory Leaders Band and Sunday School Conference in Virginia; taught and ministered in a district workers' conference in Tennessee; spoke at regional youth rallies in Missouri and was the evangelist for Spiritual Emphasis Week at Tomlinson College; attended the Christian Camping International's National Convention in Chicago, IL, and Group Magazine's Conference for National Youth Leaders in Estes Park, CO.

I spearheaded the World Literature Outreach promotion; this department also prepared and supplied materials for International Youth Week (English, French and Spanish); participated and assisted in the planning and orientation of the Youth Mission Teams; served as evangelist for teams to Indonesia—in Pekanbaru and in Medan; served as secretary for the Youth Mission Board; served on the BTI staff and taught in the Cleveland school; served on the Church Publishing Committee and the Music Committee.

I appreciate the grace of God that has been with our young people throughout this year. I am especially thankful to every local, state and national Victory Leaders Band secretary, every camp director, Gleaner leader, pastor and overseer, and Headquarters personnel for their prayerful support.

It has been my privilege to serve the Church another year in this challenging capacity. Missions has always been a challenge; it seems we could well say that this has been a year of great mission challenges.

The department compiled and printed: Mission Crusade in English, Spanish and French; Women In Profile (6th Edition); Potpourri #2 (the mission yearbook); prepared and printed the insert, Women in Profile for the French, English and Spanish White Wing Messenger; designed a new brochure for Helping Hand Ministry and prepared a research paper, "Divorce—a Devastating Menace" for the BTI department (advanced studies).

Women Ministering Biblically is now completing its second year. According to the reports, ladies in the States and abroad are becoming involved with a discipleship ministry. This ministry has involved prayer groups with neighbors, Bible reading during break time on the job, neighborhood Bible studies, ladies' luncheons and various visitations in hospitals, convalescent centers or private homes.

A number of individuals and local churches have participated in the Helping Hand Ministry. My personal thanks to the state/national secretaries and overseers who have boosted this program. Many mission fields received assistance with buildings, transportation and some ministers' support. Some areas that had political disturbances have been remembered by compassionate individuals who read about their plight and responded. Many of these have responded with words of gratitude for the kindness shown to them. This is a vast program and even though we have done well, there is much more that needs our attention.

I have corresponded with the national overseers regarding their needs which are given in the new Helping Hand Ministry brochure; had regular correspondence with the state/national secretaries, as well as sending resource material intermittently throughout the year; served on the World Mission Committee and the Youth Mission Board.

I am grateful to be involved with the teaching ministry of BTI in the Cleveland and West Coast Schools. I consider this one of the great opportunities of the year; it was a privilege to work with the students in the Advanced Study Course and also to teach one of the subjects.

Aside from the mission rallies, I conducted a special Family Seminar in two areas. I find this to be an area that needs our immediate attention. The results of these seminars were most rewarding.

Thanks to the state/national overseers who have supported the Regional Ladies' Retreat endeavor. This year, I directed ten regional retreats (including Canada) and two national retreats (England and Bahamas)—attended by approximately 3,978 ladies. This was ministering to 1,145 more ladies this year than in 1983. This year many of our missionaries' wives were in attendance. This was made possible by ladies who felt that attending a retreat would be uplifting to those who were laboring on the mission field. These ladies send a special thanks to those who were responsible for this generous gesture.

This report came about through the faithful efforts of people around the world—overseers, state/national secretaries, district boosters, pastors, local leaders and members who worked untiringly for the great mission cause. Thanks to all of you, but thanks most of all to the Father above who not only gives us grace and strength for the work, but performs it for us.

Report of Tomlinson College President

August 1, 1983 through July 31, 1984

The college achieved another milestone this year. On December 13, 1983, Tomlinson College became accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and we thank God for this achievement.

The college remains in a sound financial condition as confirmed by the 1984 audit by Certified Public Accountants Marlin and Edmondson. Operating expenses, equipment, and the cost of living continue to rise, thus resulting in higher education costs.

The two former orphanage buildings adjacent to the administration building have been remodeled. The middle building is now the admissions and records building, and the third building is a girls' dormitory.

A computer system has been installed. All records are being maintained on the computer, and the college has just completed its first computer registration. This year the academic area opened its first computer laboratory, and there were not enough spaces to accommodate all the demands.

Tomlinson College opened its first branch in June of this year in South Carolina. Our external studies program is continuing to grow.

We thank all who contributed to the M. A. Tomlinson Scholarship Fund and especially wish to thank Brother Harrison E. Price who has continued to build an endowed scholarship fund for financial assistance for ministerial students.

Thanks to the general workers, overseers and their staff, pastors, and members for your continued support of our college. I thank the administration, faculty, staff, and my secretary for their support of the college and the Church and the maintenance staff who faithfully strive to maintain the beautiful campus of Tomlinson College. Thank you for all your support this year.

Have answered all mail received in the office; corresponded with national/state secretaries regularly, and sent copies of materials as they developed. Developed materials and initiated the revised Honor Stone Program, making it universal; which seems to have been accepted well. Supervised and helped to write a Youth/Children's Church Lesson Booklet; printed 9 new picture post cards of memorial markers in Fields of the Wood; wrote CPMA lessons for BTI Post-Graduate Course; numerous articles for the White Wing Messenger; and manuscript entitled Perplexing Scriptures.

Supervised the continuation of Fields of the Wood renovation and the building of two new markers: One Fold/One Shepherd and Twenty-Third Psalm, which were dedicated at the pre-Assembly program this year. This was possible only with the zeal and capable assistance of Ted Carroll, superintendent/minister.

I was in charge of the Thanksgiving and Easter Pageants; assisted General Overseer in the Commemorative Anniversary Program—June 13; the First Assembly Program and the pre-Assembly program.

Taught BTI in Cleveland, TN; represented General Headquarters in 5 national/state conventions and 3 ministers conventions; was guest speaker at 2 youth conventions, in Maryland/DC Minister's Retreat, in Wisconsin Leadership Conference, in Oregon Couple's Retreat, at the Mississippi Men's Retreat, and in South Carolina, Virginia, and Tennessee Crusades. Held CPMA rallies and/or seminars in: California, Ohio, Virginia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Iowa, Kentucky, Delaware, New Jersey, Maryland, Mississippi.

Plans are being made to build a replica of the "Place of the Skull" (a Calvary scene) in Fields of the Wood this year; and also to build a marker near Kitty Hawk, NC—revealing the significance of the restoration of the last days Church of God and the invention of the airplane in prophecy.

My appreciation for the faithful assistance of my office staff, national/state secretaries, pastors and leaders, the CPMA Committee, Fields of the Wood staff and workers, and especially the General Overseer, for their cooperation in the wonderful accomplishments realized by the CPMA Department this year.

NEW POST GRADUATE COURSE

The new Bible Training Institute Advanced Study Course will be offered in the 1985 Cleveland School May 5-24. We can only accommodate 150 students in the 1985 session. The Bible Training Institute Committee has agreed that the first session be made available to ministers only. The term ministers would be defined as licensed or non-licensed including lay ministers, trial deacon and authorized teacher. As soon as there is room the course will be made available to the laity. Applications will be accepted on a first come basis. An application for the Post Graduate Course may be obtained from the BTI Department.

SOMETHING NEW

The Bible Training Institute Department is introducing in this General Assembly for the first time a new KNOW YOUR BIBLE SERIES #2 correspondence course, a comprehensive study of the Kings and Kingdoms of Israel and Judah. Certificates will be issued upon completion of said course. Price $3.00 per copy. Books may be ordered from the BTI Department.

Bible Training Institute Department is grateful to the Bible Training Institute Representatives; office staff and the General Headquarters personnel; BTI Vice Presidents; principals and staff; state, national and local representatives and to each student who has attended Bible Training Institute. I served on the Editorial Committee on Church History, Polity and Doctrine; attended inner-committee called meetings. Many hours were spent reading manuscripts and church related materials for approval for printing and circulation. I attended and assisted the state overseers of Oregon and Louisiana in Ministers Conferences where we had teaching and preaching. These conferences were inspirational to get the work moving. I served on Bible Training Institute Committee; joyfully coordinated my efforts with the General Superintendent, General Representative and office staff; personally corresponded with vice presidents, state and national representatives to secure places for schools and setting in order the administration for the schools that I was directly responsible for.

This has been a very inspirational and informative year for the teaching ministry. God had supplied the divine unction and inspiration. It is good to know the truth and have an education regarding the same. In all of our schools this year, this seems to be the feeling of the students.

I appreciate the General Overseer, General Superintendent, Bible Training Institute Representative, office personnel, people on the field and my family for helping me in so many ways to serve the Church. To "God be the glory."

Ministerial Aid Committee Report

August 1, 1983 through May 31, 1984

The Ministerial Aid Committee had 10 monthly meetings; approved 33 applications for retirement, 8 for disability, 28 widows, and 2 reinstatements. Total number of applications approved this year was 71. We presently have 320 receiving retirement benefits, 246 receiving disability benefits, 173 receiving widow's assistance and 10 lay employees. Total number receiving Ministerial Aid benefits is 749. The Ministerial Aid Committee processed 79 death records and approved death benefits to be paid to family beneficiaries in the amount of $58,975.00. This includes 71 ministers, 7 widows of deceased ministers and 1 lay employee. We provided 48 Church flags which were presented by the officiating ministers to the deceased minister's family. A Church flag memorial certificate was sent to the families.

The ministers' Retirement Tax-Sheltered Annuity Plan presently has 315 participants. This includes 48 ministers who administer their personal tax-sheltered annuities. Deferred compensation benefits paid by the World Headquarters from individual ministers' tithes to individual ministers annuities totaled $136,807.79.

The Ministerial Aid Committee is prayerfully concerned regarding the needs of our worthy ministers and widows. We are endeavoring to assist each applicant as funds are available on the basis of faithfulness in the ministry, as well as years actively engaged in ministerial service.

A beautiful "In Appreciation" Certificate was presented to each recipient of Ministerial Aid for faithful service.

The Group Life Insurance Plan has been administered by the home office of IDS Insurance Company. IDS processed 65 policies resulting in $88,529.54 death benefits paid to beneficiaries of Church members.

We express our sincere appreciation to all departments of the Church who share their funds in support of caring for our Senior Ministers and their families.

World Mission Committee Report

August 1, 1983 through July 31, 1984

Psalms 48:1. We praise our Lord for another fruitful year in His service and for our faithful overseers, missionaries, pastors, evangelists, World Mission Corpsmen and other local workers through whose efforts 173 new churches were organized in the countries and over 15,000 new members added to the Church by covenant. We regret that in a few countries the work has suffered some temporary set backs (such as in Nigeria and Liberia) but we are believing God for renewed efforts as we regroup for further advancement. 1984 Youth Mission Teams converged on 7 countries and their efforts resulted in 347 experiences. One of the teams to Indonesia conducted their first Youth Camp and trained local staff for the future.

We thank God for enabling us to meet with Overseer Roberto Lam of Cuba, after more than 20 years. Brother Lam reports that the work is still going on with 4 churches and about 100 members; the Church is held in high esteem in Cuba and the people have a mind to work.

This Committee is mindful of the continued suffering of our people in several areas of the world. We want it to be known that we identify with our people in their suffering for the cause of Christ and assure them of our prayers and assistance. As the Church of God around the world, their pain is our pain, their sorrow our sorrow, and their loss our loss. 1 Corinthians 15:57.

Two International Leadership Conferences were held for the Caribbean in Ocho Rios, Jamaica; Europe, Africa and the Mediterranean in Nicosia, Cyprus. Delegates comprised leadership from all levels of the Church who reviewed the work in the respective regions, focusing on the need to assume the responsibility for evangelism to the unreached areas.

Despite a number of drastic currency devaluations, this year, our October and March World Mission Drives in the countries increased 32 percent to an all time high of U.S. $365,579. This compares to $277,417 last year. We are grateful for the continued increase in Mission giving and tithing in the Church overseas.

We are aware of the unfinished task that lies ahead and ask the prayers of the Church. The coming of the Lord is near and we must go all out for the Final Thrust to fulfill the "Great Commission."

Questions And Subjects Committee Report

We are sincerely thankful for God's guidance and blessings through another year. Recognizing the limitations of human abilities for spiritual work, we acknowledge our utter dependence upon the Almighty God, and that each victory won this year must be attributed directly to His power. Thousands have been saved, sanctified, baptized with the Holy Ghost and now are rejoicing as members of the Church of God. To Him who is worthy of all praise, with the moderator's permission, we invite this Assembly as a body to stand and join us in lifting our voices in thanksgiving and praise to our God.

Section 1

On Water Baptism

This Committee has been asked to address the question as to whether members should be received into the Church prior to their being baptized in water. It is a matter of deep concern that water baptism is generally receiving such little emphasis.

Jesus gave water baptism special prominence in His commission to the Church: "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost" (Matthew 28:19). Mark records it as follows: "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved" (Mark 16:15, 16).

In searching the scriptures relevant to water baptism it becomes apparent that baptism followed immediately after repentance during the ministry of the Apostles. "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls" (Acts 2:41).

When Paul found certain disciples at Ephesus who had been baptized unto John's baptism he said, "John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus" (Acts 19:4, 5). It was not until they were baptized that Paul laid his hands upon them and they received the Holy Ghost.

In the case of Cornelius who received the Holy Ghost while Peter was preaching, the first concern of Peter was, "Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord" (Acts 10:47, 48).

While we do not feel the Church should decree that water baptism absolutely must precede the administering of the covenant for membership, we believe this order to be highly proper in light of the scriptural evidences concerning this ordinance.

Section 2

Correcting Improper Conference Action

When there is convincing evidence that a local church conference has taken action contrary to approved practices of the Church, the presbytery has the responsibility to see that such action is voided. The overseer shall counsel with the pastor and ask that the conference void its improper action, and see that it is redone, if necessary, in accord with the accepted practices of the Church.

Section 3

Labor-Management Relations

In the 45th Assembly in 1950, the following recommendation was approved: "We recommend that our members be allowed to belong to labor unions to have work, but they are not to have any part in business matters in the unions. We further recommend that our members are not to take part in strikes unless forced to. In no case are they to take part in acts of violence in the picket lines."

We suggest that this recommendation, along with any other relative to this subject, be superseded with the following resolution:

Members of the Church of God involved in labor-management disputes should be examples in manifesting Christian principles of respect for one another. While labor and management may both be tempted to work to their own advantage in the practical world of labor-management negotiations, and disagreements may arise, the Christian must be governed by godly principles which clearly oppose violence, greed or abuse of others. Paul's instructions to the Romans are timely for this day: "... as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men" (Romans 12:18); also, to the Philippians: "Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others" (Philippians 2:4).

Section 4

A Christian's Responsibility During National Crises

Because of military conflicts and political unrest that now exist throughout the world, this Assembly has been asked to address the issue as to what a member's responsibility is toward civil government during military conflict. We hereby recommend the following statement for the Assembly's consideration and adoption.

According to the principle supported in Romans 13:1-3, Titus 3:1 and 1 Peter 2:13, 14, the Church recognizes that secular governments are ordained of God and derive their just powers from Him, and that they are obligated to exercise these powers in accordance with His sovereign will. In keeping with this divine principle which ordains civil government, Christians bear a responsibility of faithful citizenship.

Since the Church is not a political institution it is not intended that the Church intrude into the political arena. However, where governments abuse these (derived) powers the Church recognizes that the Christian's highest allegiance is to divine law, regardless of the consequences: "But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye" (Acts 4:19).

The Church has a distinct responsibility to work and pray for peace, as indicated by Paul in his letter to Timothy: "I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour" (1 Timothy 2:1-3). To involve itself in actions which negate its petitions to God would be a contradiction to the Church's purpose for praying.

The Church abhors a situation wherein Christians and men of good will would be killing one another in armed conflict.

Although we feel that all the matters to which we have given attention during the course of our meetings this year are important, one matter, in the opinion of this Committee, eclipses them all.

It is a subject which the Holy Ghost brought very forcefully upon us in our first meeting of this Assembly year held in January. Its need finds expression in the second chapter of Joel: "Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thine heritage to reproach" (vv. 15-17).

This Committee knows of no greater need to bring this Assembly's attention than the need for repentance—the need to fall on our faces before God, confessing that we have drifted in many ways from a vital relationship with the Holy Ghost, confessing a self-centeredness lacking in deep compassion for a world of people who are living now under the judgment of God to eternal damnation, rededicating ourselves to being the Church of God of the Bible. God's message to the Church in this Assembly has been a call to repent, and we must not ignore His voice. We cannot afford to continue the pursuit of our mission without convincing evidence of His presence and approval. There is no acceptable substitute for repentance when that is what God is calling us to do.

With the moderator's permission, we suggest that this portion of our report be accepted, not by a motion and a second to the motion, but by those present in this Assembly falling down before the Lord, thus setting the pace for a Church-wide repentance to follow when these recommendations are ratified in our local church conferences around the world, where every local church at that time will likewise confess their failure in sincere repentance.

Report of Counseling Committee

The Counseling Committee met in five sessions and spent several hours counseling with a number of people.

All persons presenting subjects to this Committee have been counseled and the subjects have been prayerfully considered, some of which we felt deserved further consideration before being presented to the presbytery or Assembly committees. Other subjects which we felt would be a blessing to the entire body have been passed on to the committees to be disposed of at their discretion.

We wish to commend all those who came before this Committee for the good spirit manifested. We found a great concern among the ministry, a great love for the Church of God and its teachings, and a strong desire to promote the doctrine of the Church instead of ideas and opinions.

The Editorial Committee on Doctrine, the Questions and Subjects Committee and the Ways and Means Committee are standing committees throughout the year and may be contacted any time on doctrinal questions or anything not clearly understood.

General Properties Committee Report

Your General Properties Committee hereby expresses appreciation for the Lord's help and blessings upon the deliberations and decisions in the matters we have had to consider during this Assembly year.

All the properties which are a part of our headquarters complex, along with the Tomlinson College properties, have been maintained and kept in good repair; also, some limited renovations have been made within some of the buildings.

We are thankful for the cooperation we have received in all areas of our responsibility, and we feel it is a privilege to serve the Church in this capacity.

Report of Tomlinson College Board of Trustees

August 1, 1983 through July 31, 1984

The Board had three meetings: September, 1983; November, 1983; May, 1984.

We say with the songwriter, "To God be the Glory; great things He hath done." We appreciate the General Assembly, the General Overseer, the leaders and members of the Church all over the world for their support to and for Tomlinson College. We offer our sincere thanks to the President, the faculty and staff for their outstanding efforts. The students are the reason for the College's existence. We likewise appreciate them and their desire to benefit by the Tomlinson College experience.

The College passed an important milestone in December of 1983. It became fully accredited by the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges. Special commendation is in order for Emerson Hall for his long, intense and effective efforts in connection with this achievement.

With the appointment of William Gailey as President, Brother Hall ended twelve years of direct service to the College, first as a Board member and then seven years as President. Tremendous progress was achieved during his tenure. Some of the most notable achievements in addition to accreditation included drastic improvements to the buildings and grounds, upgrading faculty qualifications and improvements in organizational and financial structures and procedures, including an annual external audit. We would appreciate this Assembly joining us in an expression of appreciation to Brother Hall.

We as trustees appreciate Brother Gailey's willingness to come from an established position at Rollins College in Florida to serve Tomlinson College as President. We commend his efforts this year.

This Board is pleased with the expressions of support for the College by a newly formed association of professional and business people called, Society of Servants. We hope to report more regarding this in the future.

Clive Jared of East Texas has been our Chairman this year and has served on the Board five years. We will miss his leadership. We esteem him highly for his work's sake.

Church Boosters Committee Report

We, your Church Boosters Committee wish to submit the following report:

Section I

Recognition of God

We read in God's Word that the power of His presence was very well recognized. Jesus performed a great miracle. In Mark 5:30, an individual had touched Him and virtue had gone from Him. They feared and trembled at the mighty works of God.

In Mark 5:39, Jairus' daughter was raised from the dead; the damsel arose and walked. They were greatly astonished.

In Mark 4:39-41, Jesus performed another miracle. There was a storm at sea; people were in danger. Jesus arose and said unto the sea, "Peace be still!" They feared exceedingly and said to one another, "What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

In Mark 5:7, 8, we find a man possessed with an unclean spirit. He came crying to Jesus with a loud voice. Jesus spoke and said unto him, "Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit." They came out of this man and entered into a herd of swine, who ran into the river and were drowned. They began to publish what great things God had done.

Hebrews 12:28, 29 tells us we must fear God today or have His judgments upon us.

Section II

Family Worship

Through the divine inspiration of the Holy Ghost several messages in this very Assembly have summoned our attention to the growing problems within the home. We are in the last days and the frightening forecast that was given by our Lord is making its bold appearance. Jesus said, "Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death." Our families are under attack. It therefore seems vital that some consistent effective measures be taken to provide a defense against this satanic invasion. A means to also rescue and recapture those taken prisoner by the enemy of our souls. Our children desperately need to witness a demonstrative commitment to Christ by parents in the home. A commitment that comes not short of tears, long fastings, and agonizing prayers. Our mere attendance at church is more akin to "Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy," than it is to "in holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our life." Our Lord promised "For where two or three are gathered together in My Name, there am I in the midst of them." It would be good if this passage could be believed, proclaimed, and demonstrated in the home first of all. Therefore we urgently encourage all to include family worship in their daily schedule. Joshua's words, "But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord" should not be used as an emotional stimulant only. This is not Joshua's proposal of possibility, but rather his statement of fact. No doubt, Joshua made this statement out of an awareness of his whole family's communion with God. We thus plead for family worship as a measure to give us that needed assurance where we too can make such a declaration.

Section III Assembly Band Movement "A Revival of the True Spirit of the ABM"

Since its conception in the General Assembly of 1916 the Assembly Band Movement (then Watchers Over Tens) has been a powerful force in the keeping of the sheep. But just as any program proves to be a blessing to the Church, it automatically becomes the business of Satan to destroy it.

So subtle are Satan's tactics. He knows that any program robbed of its spirit is then reduced to mere mechanics, and continues to operate but is powerless in its effectiveness.

Consequently, it seems good that we re-examine the purpose and function of this auxiliary with a fresh look.

Page 225, paragraph 2, Book of Minutes:

"Let the membership be divided into groups of tens more or less according to convenience, and let one be appointed to watch over each group. These watchers are not to consider themselves as rigid rulers over their groups, but to LOVE THEM, administer spiritual help to them when needed, and keep a careful record of their location and attendance of the regular services, so that they can give the pastor needed information about each one at any time.

Keep such a close watch over them that if they move away it will be known at once and where they locate; or if they are sick, or become in needy circumstances, they can be assured of the proper care."

It seems quite clear that this auxiliary was never intended to be a tool for the correction of members. To the contrary, it was a help placed in the Church, designed to administer love and spiritual help to each and every one regardless of the size of the congregation.

In short, it was to prevent backsliding, rather than to be a corrective measure.

In the 23rd Assembly of 1928, "Watchers Over Tens" was revised to be called the Assembly Band Movement as this seemed to be more in line with the New Testament.

Oh that we could recapture THE SPIRIT of this program in the light of the New Testament.

Consider the title:

Assembly: A fitting together of parts to make a whole

Band: Something that binds; ties together

Movement: A series of organized activities by people working concertedly toward a goal.

One cannot get the total picture of the program without the spirit of the program getting on him.

Just think of it Pastors! A group being so united, being bound and tied together with such agape love that all their activities work concertedly toward the same goal—that goal being "On To Perfection." What a powerful church if all bands could catch this spirit.

I was told of a man who had an injured finger which left it with a tendency to be stiff. But they put a buddy brace on the finger connecting it with the finger next to it, so that when the healthy finger moved the stiff finger moved with it. In so doing, the weak finger received strength from the stronger. In effect, it was the buddy system that made the difference. This is the true spirit of the ABM. But the spirit of anything is not taught, but rather must be caught.

It is the hope of this Committee that we all could recapture the true spirit of this auxiliary and realize its effectiveness in keeping the sheep.

Section IV Sharing Eternal Life

"And all the city was gathered together at the door." Mark 1:33.

Our world has become a "global community." In the 1980 United States Census report, 87 million Americans declared themselves to be ethnics. The mission field has come to our doors. We should be aware that when the people move to other countries, they are more receptive to the gospel, especially if the message is presented with love and in a person to person approach.

The Church of God is a church with a missionary heart, full of compassion for the lost souls. The fields are white and ready for harvest. This year, the evangelistic efforts have brought about beautiful results where this aspect of the work has been emphasized and well organized.

The Sharing Eternal Life program has proven to be a blessing where it has been put in operation. We urge each local church to make plans to prepare the membership in the task of winning souls through this program.

Sharing Eternal Life is an effort to awaken within us an awareness of our responsibility toward the lost and to provide some additional motivation for involvement in presenting the good tidings of a Saviour to them. Surely, "we do not well" (2 Kings 7:9) is the label of all who are partakers of good tidings and refuse to share. Oh, let's give place to the power within that it may transport us from, "Take thine ease" (Luke 12:19) to, "Weary with forebearing" (Jeremiah 20:9). As we identify the lost and recognize the opportunity, urgency demands that we share this eternal life. Let's especially share with the newcomers to our communities. The Lord will give the increase.

Section V Tithing

We highly applaud our General Overseer's remarks in his Annual Address about "Tithing." There is no question—as John said in chapter 4:23, 24, "But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship Him. God is a spirit: And they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth"—that there is a way to worship the Lord.

One of the forms that this worship takes is through the returning of the tithes, or 10 percent of our increase unto the Lord.

The prophet, Malachi, said, "that the windows of heaven would be opened and there would not be room to receive the blessings," when we worship God with our tithes.

We cannot overlook the fact that those who withhold their tithes in worship to God are put into a category that is called robber and are plagued with a curse.

God will not bless a robber. He can only save them. God can bless the true worshipper, and He is seeking such to worship Him.

The Psalmist said in chapter 116:12, "What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me?" One of the things we can render unto the Lord is to worship Him with our tithes.

Ways and Means Committee Report

PRAYER

We join David of old in his earnest prayer in 1 Chronicles 29:11, 14. We are Thy servants, O Lord, and desire to be good stewards of what You have so graciously blessed us with in Thine house. Grant Thy servants, truth and light, in order to do the right as Thou has determined the right.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Whereas, Donald Oliver, has served the General Assembly so faithfully as a member of the Ways and Means for several years, we wish to extend our sincere appreciation for his dedicated contribution while serving on this Committee.

INTRODUCTION

The 78th General Assembly authorized the Ways and Means Committee to make an extensive study of the Church's financial structure. In pursuant of fulfilling this responsibility, numerous avenues were utilized, one of which was a survey sent to state and national overseers, as well as to pastors and local churches. We are indebted to the fine response from the surveys, as well as the great assistance rendered by brethren from the professional sector of the Church, who have served as consultants.

The information received has been most valuable and revealing. Although the Church's financial system is not perfect, it has enabled the Church to reach some of its objectives. However, great care and caution must be exercised as certain adjustments are made for future programs. Present world economic conditions require prudent decisions when dealing with an economic system. In view of the present state of affairs and the long and short term needs of the Church, we submit the following recommendations:

GENERAL PROPERTY DOLLARS AND OUTREACH OFFERINGS

This Committee is in full agreement with the section of the General Overseer's Annual Address concerning the General Property Dollars and the Outreach offerings. We therefore recommend the following: 1) That the General Property Dollar be discontinued; 2) That the Self-Denial offering which is currently known as Outreach offering be eliminated and the services provided by these offerings be provided from the profits of the White Wing Publishing House.

IN-HOUSE ADJUSTMENT—MISSIONS AND MINISTERIAL AID

In the development of any financial system, in-house adjustments are required from time to time in directing monies for their intended purpose. We therefore recommend the following: 1) That the practice of sending 5% of the missionary funds coming into the state/national convention to General Headquarters for the widows of our deceased ministers, revert to the World Mission Fund. 2) That 5% of the White Wing Publishing House profits be given to the Ministerial Aid Fund for the support of the widows of the deceased ministers.

IN-HOUSE ADJUSTMENT—MISSION HOMES FOR CHILDREN

The current rulings concerning the Mission Homes for Children offering is a concern of many of our people. Since, historically, this fund has always been a care program in behalf of our children, who are a part of our Church's heritage, we recommend the following: 1) That the name of Mission Homes for Children offering be changed to Heritage Care Fund; 2) The present state or national convention offering for this fund is currently being divided in the following manner: 10% to be returned to the local church, 20% to be retained by the state/national treasury, the remaining balance being subsequently divided: 10% to the general treasury, 10% to the state/national treasury, 10% to General Properties, 40% to Tomlinson College and 30% to Mission Homes for Children.

We recommend this be changed to the following: 10% to be returned to the local church, 20% to be retained by the state/national treasury, the remaining balance to be subsequently divided: 10% to the general treasury, 10% to the state/national treasury, 10% to Ministerial Aid, 35% to Tomlinson College and 35% to Mission Homes for Children.

This in-house adjustment would give Ministerial Aid direct Auxiliary funds support for the first time and be part of the care program in the Church for our children as well as for our retired ministers.

SECTION 4 BALANCED BUDGET CONCEPT

The study by the Ways and Means Committee in the past two years has revealed that certain economic indicators concerning our cash and expenditure flow needs attention. There is growing evidence that more and more of our churches are having financial difficulties which are in part due to over-extending themselves. No people can live beyond their means. Faith in God does not necessitate over-extension that leads to deficit spending, which threatens the very thing it is trying to build.

We therefore recommend that general, state and local churches operate within a balanced budget, said policy to become effective as of October, 1986.

SECTION 5 SOLVENCY

We are thankful to our God for His bountiful blessings on His Church. The recent past has seen the Church expand to over eighty countries. However, such expansion also brings grave responsibilities of stewardship. As stewards of the Master's goods, we must count the cost as well as be prudent money managers. Solvency and having enough in reserve to weather economic slowdowns is part of sound stewardship.

The unique responsibilities of the Church to reach the world cannot be accomplished by stockpiling funds, but neither can we operate without some levels of reserve. We therefore recommend the following for General Headquarters operations:

1) That a ceiling for savings be established for the General Tithes Fund and that said ceiling will not exceed 35 to 40 percent of any given year of income into said fund.

2) After operational expenditures are met and reserve allocations are fulfilled, if there is any surplus from the General Tithes Fund, that the Executive Committee divide said amount equally between the World Mission Fund and the Ministerial Aid Fund.

3) That the respective committees of the auxiliaries and departments be authorized to establish how much of their funds should be kept in reserve.

4) That the Corporate Board of the White Wing Publishing House be authorized to determine how much of the Publishing House income should be kept in reserve.

SECTION 6

GUIDELINES FOR MINISTERIAL EXPENSE

This Committee is appreciative of the overwhelming response in the survey concerning a desire for guidelines for expense in the ministry. We therefore recommend that the Executive Committee be authorized to develop guidelines for expense in the ministry and that said guidelines be mailed to the state/national overseers to inform the ministry.

SECTION 7

ALLOTMENT AUTHORIZATION

(This section was held over for next year.)

SECTION 8

WHITE WING PUBLISHING HOUSE OPERATION

The Ways and Means Committee is deeply appreciative of the outstanding economic progress that the White Wing Publishing House has achieved under the present operation. We also are appreciative that the profits of the Publishing House are aiding to underwrite the publication of Free Literature. The growth and success of the Publishing House necessitates some investment matters.

We therefore recommend that in matters of investments that final approval for such ventures be given by the White Wing Publishing House Corporate Board.

SECTION 9

STEWARDSHIP SEMINARS

This Committee's findings concerning how finances are being conducted in the Church reveal a great need for stewardship instructions to be given to our churches. It is the opinion of this Committee that lessons on stewardship would be a valuable aid in improving some matters in the Church's financial operation.

We recommend that the Executive Committee be authorized to see that lessons are prepared in money management principles and that these be made available to state/national overseers, so that they can instruct or engage individuals who can conduct stewardship seminars in their respective areas.

SECTION 10 TOMLINSON COLLEGE FUNDS

The 70th Assembly in 1975 approved the following concerning Tomlinson College Funds: "We recommend that all Tomlinson College funds be received and disbursed by the General Treasurer, with the Executive Committee handling the matters of expense in the same way as for other departments."

We recommend that this be changed to the following: That all Tomlinson College funds be received and disbursed by the college business office and that monthly financial reports be submitted to the General Overseer and the General Treasurer, with the Executive Committee handling the matters of expense in the same manner as for other departments.

SECTION 11 CONTINUANCE

We recommend that all other financial matters, not amended or adjusted by this report, continue as before.

We also acknowledge all letters and requests that have been submitted to this Committee and appreciate the concern of our people everywhere. You are to be commended for your tireless efforts and devotion to the cause of Christ and His Church. Remembering 1 Corinthians 15:58.

Present Financial System

NOTE TO MINISTERS AND TREASURERS: Fill in all reports accurately and completely. Write or print plainly. If assistance is needed, write to L. F. Kendrick, Box 2970, Cleveland, Tennessee 37311.

TITHES: Members should pay their tithes into the treasury of the local church where they are members. Ministers send the tithes of income from the ministry with their monthly reports to the General Treasurer, and tithes on income outside the ministry are paid into the treasury of the local church where they are members.

The treasurer of the church is to send 10 per cent of tithes received each month with the treasurer's report to the appropriate address.

United States, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands—L. F. Kendrick, Box 2970 Cleveland, Tennessee 37311.

Other reports should be addressed to The Church of God of Prophecy, General Headquarters Field Office in your respective area, or contact your Overseer.

The Assembly recommends that the Executive Committee be authorized to adjust the allotments for pastors, State Overseers, and General Workers from year to year, based on the previous year's cost of living index.

The Assembly recommends that the allotment of the General Overseer and that pay for incidental expenses plus any and all personal necessities be left to the discretion of the Executive Committee.

The treasurer of the local church sends 10% of the tithes received each month to the treasurer of his state or nation and 10% to General Treasurer. The pastor's allotment is paid from the balance, not to exceed the amount set by the Executive Committee; any remainder goes into the surplus tithes.

We recommend that the sum of $550 received each month by the General Appointees and the State Overseers be designated for rent and utilities. Should the rent and utilities be under the above amount, the remaining amount would be included as income. Where feasible, this is also applicable to pastors and full-time evangelists. (Note: This recommendation is for income tax purposes only, and involves no extra allotment.)

Surplus tithes accruing in any local church are to be left in the tithe fund account of the local church treasury until after the last Sunday in June, at which time it is properly divided: 10% to be sent to the General Treasurer to be used at the discretion of the Executive Committee; 25% to be sent to the state or national treasurer to be used at the discretion of the State or National Overseer and Finance and Appropriations Committee and the 65% left in the local church should be presented by the local Committee as a proposed budget plan for approval by the local church conference. First consideration be given to the pastor's expense in the ministry; said expenses being already defined in the Church Business Guide.

The Assembly recommends that all local church treasurers mail their reports to the state or national treasurer no later than the 5th of each month. From the funds received, the State or National Overseer would receive his allotment and expense (if funds are available) according to the rulings of the General Assembly.

The Executive Committee agrees that all General Appointees receive an allotment of $1,729.00 monthly, if funds are available; and that incidental expense incurred by these General Appointees be left to the discretion of the Executive Committee.

Overseers in the United States are to receive no more than $1,729.00 monthly, plus an amount not to exceed $200 a month for office expenses from the tithes received from the churches, if funds are available. Any funds in excess of this amount received by the treasurer are to be kept in the state treasury to be placed in the general state fund for the state work, especially to assist pastors of weaker churches.

The Executive Committee agrees that the pastor receive an amount not to exceed $1,792.00 monthly from the tithes of the local church after General Headquarters and the State Overseer have received their portions, if funds are available. This does not include offerings and poundings received by the pastor.

Allotments for Overseers outside the United States where there is not sufficient tithes to cover the allotments the remaining portion be supplied by making transfers of Tithe Funds between countries where this is legally permissible and from the United States Tithe Fund in other cases, if funds are available, and that each Overseer should receive an allotment in the currency of the country or the territory he represents according to the average prevailing wage rates of each country.

The Assembly has ruled that tithes are for the support of the ministry only. Surplus tithes received at General Headquarters are disbursed at the discretion of the Executive Committee. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all tithes sent to General Headquarters. We recommend that the tithes of non-members that are paid into the local church treasury be paid through the regular channel the same as the tithes of members.

The Committee calls your attention to the fact that it does not say of ministers only; rather, of the ministry only. Ministry is defined as the office, duties, or functions of a minister; the building in which the business of the ministry is transacted; thus, the ministry includes any and all phases of the Church ministry, such as church property, equipment, maintenance, etc.

HERITAGE CARE FUND: [Mission Homes for Children] All Heritage Care Fund offerings remain in the local church treasury and are turned in at the state/national convention and Assembly. The state/national convention offerings are distributed as follows: 10% to be returned to the local church; 20% to be retained by the state/national treasury for improving, building and maintaining the headquarters; the remaining balance to be subsequently divided: 10% to the general treasury, 10% to the state/national treasury, 10% to Ministerial Aid, 35% to Tomlinson College and 35% to Mission Homes for Children. The General Treasurer sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state/nation to the respective state/national treasurer for the general state/national fund. The Assembly has recommended that 10% of the Assembly offerings of the Heritage Care Fund be retained by General Headquarters for General Properties, 40% for Tomlinson College and 40% for Mission Homes for Children.

EMERGENCY FUND: All ministers and members are to pay one dollar a year, or the amount set by the World Mission Committee where applicable, into the treasury of the local churches where their memberships are, and the treasurer sends the emergency dollars as collected with his monthly report. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all emergency money sent to General Headquarters.

GENERAL PROPERTIES FUND: The Assembly recommended that the General Property Dollar be discontinued.

The Assembly recommends these portions be designated as General Properties Fund:

1. Not less than 50% of the CPMA membership each year after 10% is deducted for Ministerial Aid;
2. 50% of the CPMA state convention offerings which presently remain in the state treasury;
3. 10% of the state and national convention offerings and Assembly offerings of the Heritage Care Fund and Bible Training Institute.

The Assembly recommends that if there should be any deficit occurring in the General Properties Fund in making the monthly payments, such deficit be paid from the General Fund.

MISSION MONEY: The second Sunday mission offering and mission money raised by other means remain in the local church treasury and are turned in at the state and national convention and Assembly. For improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state convention mission offering is to remain in the state treasury. The General Treasurer receives 10% of the balance and the state treasurer keeps 10%, or an equal amount. Half of the remainder (40% of the balance after the state deducts the state headquarters maintenance portion) is left in the state for the general state fund, and half sent to the General Treasurer as world mission money.

The General Treasurer receives all mission money collected in the March and October drives for world missions. It is to be sent with the local treasurer's monthly report. All mission offerings at the Assembly are turned in to the General Treasurer as world mission money. The General Treasurer sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of the mission money sent to the General Treasurer.

FIRST SUNDAY OFFERING: Each local church receives an offering for the pastor on the first Sunday of each month.

DISTRICT OVERSEERS SUPPORT: The Assembly recommends that a love offering be received for the district overseer in his district convention. If the district overseer is requested by the State Overseer to perform a duty involving considerable expense, the State Overseer will be responsible for such expense.

FOURTH SUNDAY OFFERING: The fourth Sunday is set by the Assembly for every local church to receive an expense offering for the Overseer of the state or nation. The local church treasurer sends 10% of this offering to the state treasurer for the state treasury; the balance of this offering is sent to the state treasurer for the expense of the Overseer. If there is not sufficient fourth Sunday offerings to cover his expense as Overseer, the excess tithes if there is any in the state treasury may be used to supplement the fourth Sunday offerings. DO NOT send any of the fourth Sunday offerings to the General Treasurer. Each local church should receive poundings for the Overseer once or twice a year.

VICTORY LEADERS OFFERING: All money raised for the Free Literature Fund by the Victory Leaders is given in at the state or national convention and Assembly. Money for the expense of the band should be received in a special offering. For improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters, 20% of the state or national convention free literature offering is left in the state treasury. The General Treasurer receives 10% of the balance and the state treasurer retains 20% for the general state fund. The balance is sent to the White Wing Publishing House. The Assembly Free Literature Offering is given to the World Language Department. The White Wing Publishing House sends 10% of the Assembly offering from each state or nation to the respective state or national treasurer for the general state or national fund. The Ministerial Aid Fund receives 10% of all free literature and world literature outreach monies received by the White Wing Publishing House, and the balance is disbursed by the Church Publishing Committee.

ASSEMBLY EXPENSE: To assist in the expense of the annual assemblies, the State Overseers are asked to collect funds each year and send to the General Treasurer.

a. The Assembly recommends that churches having less than 50 in Sunday School contribute annually $2.00 to Assembly expense; churches with Sunday School attendance between 50 and 100 are to contribute $3.00 annually; and churches averaging over 100 in Sunday School are to contribute $5.00 annually.

b. The Assembly recommends that each Victory Leaders Band contribute $2.00 annually; the Assembly recommends that each Women's Missionary Band contribute $2.00 annually, and that each minister, including deacons and lay ministers, contribute $1.00 annually.

c. The Assembly recommends that the pastors be responsible for collecting the Assembly Expense Dollars for the auxiliaries and forward to the State Overseer, and the State Overseer be responsible to collect the dollars from the ministers in his state. These funds are to be mailed to the General Treasurer as collected. The final report of the Assembly expense should be given by the Overseer with the state convention report to the General Treasurer, and the State Secretaries be responsible to the State Overseer to boost and assist in collecting these funds.

CHURCH OF PROPHECY MARKER ASSOCIATION: To be a member of the Church of Prophecy Marker Association, you pay $5.00 a year, and it may be paid any time during the year. For the local church to receive credit in the Honor Stone Program, it must be paid before the honor sheet is filled in by the pastor; in other nations, to become a member you pay an amount set by the Overseer and CPMA Committee.

CPMA offerings remain in the local church treasury and are given in at the state convention. These offerings are divided by the state treasurer; 20% of the CPMA state convention offering remains in the state treasury for improving, building, and maintaining the state headquarters; 10% of the balance is sent to the General Treasurer, and an equal amount, or 10% is sent to the state treasurer for the state work, and an equal amount, or 10% is sent to the General Treasurer for the Ministerial Aid Fund. Of the amount presently remaining in the state treasury, 50% is to be sent to the General Treasurer for the General Properties Fund. Not less than 50% of CPMA membership fees each year, after 10% is deducted for Ministerial Aid, is to go to the General Properties Fund.

BIBLE TRAINING INSTITUTE: The Assembly recommends that the pastors be responsible for conducting weekly classes in the local churches to acquaint our people with the doctrine and practices of the Church. Offerings received in the classes are turned in at the state convention to assist Bible Training Institute in teaching the Church doctrine in other nations. It is recommended that 10% of state and national convention offerings and Assembly offerings of Bible Training Institute be sent to General Headquarters for the General Properties Fund.

Deeds for Church Property

The following resolution was adopted by the 58th Annual Assembly of the Church of God of Prophecy, held in Cleveland, Tennessee, September 10-16, 1963:

WHEREAS it has been advised by competent attorneys that specific mention of proper authorities be stated in an effort to ease the complications arising in our endeavors to be recognized by the courts, and to facilitate the handling of deeds to our church properties,

BE IT RESOLVED that trustees to hold title to local church property for the Church of God of Prophecy with international headquarters at Cleveland, Tennessee, be selected by the local church either in a regular or called business meeting, said trustees to be vested with authority to bargain, buy, sell, convey or encumber such property by mortgage or otherwise only when authorized to do so by the local church in regular or called business meeting, and with the consent of the General Trustees.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said consent of the General Trustees be evidenced by a separate writing or by the signature of the Chief Clerk of the said General Trustees, such documents to be notarized.

BE IT RESOLVED that state church trustees appointed by the State Overseer to hold title to property for the Church of God of Prophecy with international headquarters at Cleveland, Tennessee, be vested with authority to bargain, buy, sell, convey, or encumber such property by mortgage with the consent of the General Trustees. This applies to property being held by state trustees where churches have been disbanded or are too weak to function and to property which has been given to the state. All other property with title in the state trustees or a state Holding Association may be disposed of or mortgaged only by the consent of the state convention in session (modified in 1981).

Note: The following Warranty Deed form has been prepared by the General Trustees and should be used where it is possible to do so. Blank forms may be secured from the General Trustees.

World Must Be Evangelized

It will take good organization and systematic methods to accomplish this task. God's power is demonstrated in proportion to the unity and oneness of His people. The members of the early Church were all of one accord, steadfast in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and the multitude that believed were of one heart and one soul, and great grace was upon them all and mighty results followed as a consequence of their perfect unity and careful organization.

We must banish from our minds the thoughts of individual or local independence and haphazard spasmodic efforts.

Pull together, pull at once, pull steadily all the time is the road to success.

All members should be ready to center their minds and prayers on the one thing, as a unit, when calls for special prayer are made. Each should feel his or her part of the responsibility, remembering that when one member fails, it cripples or dwarfs the body until the matter pending may fail.

Local Church Officers and Leaders

1. Pastor: It is the duty of the State or National Overseer to supply every church under his jurisdiction with a pastor. Pastors are to be appointed at the state or national convention and vacancies will be filled as they occur. The duties of the pastor expire at midnight the last Sunday in July at the church he is leaving and automatically begin at the same time at the church to which he is moving.

2. Clerk: The local church clerk is to be appointed by the pastor at the same time as the other leaders and officers by the pastor during the first two months of his pastoral year; said appointments to be ratified in the following quarterly conference.

3. Treasurer: The treasurer is appointed in the same manner as the clerk. It is advised that one person serve as both clerk and treasurer when satisfactory to the local church. The treasurer will receive and disburse all funds of the local church including tithes, auxiliary funds and special funds and will maintain an accurate record of all receipts and disbursements.

4. Auxiliary Leaders: Leaders for the five auxiliaries—Sunday School, Womens Missionary Band, Victory Leaders Band, Church of Prophecy Marker Association, Assembly Band Movement—are appointed by the pastor during the first two months of his pastoral year.

Each pastor, with the assistance of the deacons, should divide his members into bands of ten or twelve and appoint a leader for each band. The leader should keep in touch with each member of the band, and if any should move away, communication should be kept up by correspondence. This is for the mutual, spiritual, temporal, and social benefit of the members. The pastor should keep in close touch with the band leaders.

5. Local Trustees: Trustees to hold title to local church property are selected by the local church in a regular or called business meeting and are authorized to bargain, buy, sell, convey or encumber the local property only when authorized to do so by the local church in a regular or called business meeting, and with the written consent of the General Trustees.

6. Other Officers and Leaders: The Assembly has authorized the pastor to appoint a Church Literature Representative, Public Relations Director, Bible Training Institute Booster and any other leaders during the first two months of his pastoral year.

Business Meetings

Each local church should hold a regular business conference quarterly. It has been the practice to observe the first Monday night in January, April, July, and October for the conference. A meeting may be called any time by the pastor or State Overseer. A short business meeting may be held at the beginning or close of a meeting for worship.

The pastor should act as moderator of all business meetings. If there is no pastor, the State Overseer has authority to act or appoint a licensed male minister to preside. Where one pastor has the care of several churches, he may arrange the business meetings for his convenience.

Every member should attend every business session if possible. Women are to take no open part in discussing or deciding questions, but should always be there and silently pray that God will give wisdom and direct the men.

Matters should be discussed with love, humility and meekness. No votes should be taken to decide questions. Everything should be done with one accord and questions settled by mutual agreement. If there is division on a matter, hold it over until all can agree. If one should seem obstinate and contrary, do not run the matter over him, but take up his case and investigate the cause of his obstinacy; if he shows a good spirit so that he can be heard, then show him courtesy. If he proves to be wrong, deal with him as the Bible directs. Then, take up the original subject and dispose of it in harmony and love.

If a matter cannot be settled satisfactorily by the local church, they should call for the assistance of the State Overseer. If they are still unable to reach a satisfactory conclusion, it should be referred to the General Overseer.

No one should give a message in tongues to the church unless there is an interpreter present, and then only one at a time and not more than three in a whole session.

Suggested Arrangement and Order of Business

Moderator, clerk, treasurer should occupy seats on the platform. Deacons and other ministers seated nearby.

Song service and prayer. Scripture lesson, and prayer by the moderator asking for wisdom and direction. Song.

Clerk read minutes of last regular meeting and any called meetings.

Correction of minutes, if any.

Treasurer give report of finances and always give an itemized statement of receipts and disbursements and balance in treasury.

Leader of the WMB give report of the work of the band, including finances, receipts and disbursements.

Victory Leaders Director give report of the work and progress of the band, including finances, receipts, and disbursements.

Pastor give report of the ABM work, amount of money raised monthly, number of strays found and brought back (Luke 15:4-6), and give account of every member of his flock (Hebrews 13:17).

Report of CPMA Leader—number of members and receipts.

The Sunday School Superintendent give report of the work and progress of the school, including finances, receipts and disbursements.

Report of church literature representative.

Acceptance of transfers.

Members to transfer.

Unfinished business.

New business.

Miscellaneous business.

Adjournment by prayer.

Advice to Members

As a member, you count one and should attend every regular service as far as possible. Remember no one can fill you place and the service will be that much dwarfed and crippled without your presence.

Show love and fellowship to everyone without partiality. Don't wait for others to greet you but you greet them.

Show special courtesy to strangers who may attend one of your services.

As a rule, take part in the singing.

Be ready for vocal prayer when called on or prompted by the Spirit.

Be ready for testimony when such is in order.

Stand by your pastor or appointed leader and assist him in every way you can.

Always pray silently for the preacher while he delivers the message. Always live a consecrated life at home and abroad so no one can justly think or speak of you as a hypocrite.

Guard your conversation. Be careful what you say about a brother, sister, or anyone else.

Don't be a critic and try to find something in others to criticize.

Examine yourself occasionally and see if you are in the faith.

Don't yield to discouragement or despondency.

Be cheerful and happy and try to make others the same.

Spend as much time as you can in secret prayer. Give yourself all you can to intercessory prayer. Daily prayers and study of God's Word are necessary and very important for the spiritual welfare of each child of God; therefore, everyone is urged to faithfully maintain as far as is possible family worship at home at least once a day.

Your dress should be with moderation, neat and clean, but not for show. Moderation includes paying moderate prices for clothing, wearing dresses of high-enough necklines, low-enough hemlines, sleeves of reasonable length. The wearing of extremely sheer fabrics is unbecoming to a saint and the wearing of shorts in public should never be practiced. You should never wear gold for ornament or decoration. Finger rings, bracelets, earrings, necklaces, locketts and large showy pins—these are also unbecoming to a saint of God. Rouge, lipstick, nail polish and extremely costly perfumes are used to satisfy the pride of life and therefore they should have no place in the lives of those who love God. Please read and study these Scriptures often: 1 Peter 3:3, 4; 1 Timothy 2:9, 10 and 1 John 2:15-17.

You should not permit yourself to be trapped by worldly attractions. The Bible says, "Neither give place to the devil." Dabbling with worldly amusements like professional ball-games, horseraces, stockcar races, wrestling arenas, skating rinks, motion picture houses or drive-in theaters, bowling alleys and going swimming where men and women both use the same bathing area would give the devil a foothold or place in you life.

Always tithe your income and put it in the church treasury. Make freewill offerings other than your tithes.

Younger members should not keep company or associate too intimately with worldly outsiders.

Because of the ever-increasing number of broken homes, separations, divorces and remarriages, the greatest care should be taken with much prayer and consideration regarding proposed matrimony.

A member who may have a living companion should not marry another under any circumstances even if divorced. Neither should a member marry anyone who has a living companion although such a person may be divorced.

Children are an heritage from the Lord. Those who have children are responsible to teach them at an early age to reverence the house of God. This should be done by setting a good example before them and by instructing them with such a good spirit that they will have a strong desire to serve the Lord. MINISTERS are to meet all of the requirements in being examples to the members by keeping their children under reasonable control at all times and by restraining them from running about over the house of God, especially while the services are in progress.

The White Wing Messenger is a very important part of the Church of God. It should be read regularly by every member and your interest in advertising the Church should be so great that when you have finished reading your copy, you would pass it along to someone else. Every member who possibly can should subscribe, and each minister is asked to be a "paid-up" subscriber and an earnest worker for our church paper—The White Wing Messenger.

These are the last days and perilous times have come and it will require much watchfulness and humble prayer for you to so live and act that you will never bring reproach on the worthy name of Christ and His Church that you so much love.

Never form too close an intimacy with the opposite sex even if they are brothers and sisters in the Lord. Give no place to the adversary. Abstain from the very appearance of evil.

These kindly instructions and advices are given by those who are watching for your soul as they must give an account (Hebrews 13:17), and it is hoped they will be received with the same meek, gentle spirit in which they are given.

Duties of State and National Overseers

Each overseer is to have the oversight of his state, nation or territory, and together with the General Overseer, will form the presbytery in his respective area. In addition to his general responsibility for the work under his jurisdiction, he will be responsible for specific duties:

To conduct or order a general evangelistic campaign during the year. If there are only a few churches in the state or area assigned him, he will serve primarily as an evangelist, evangelizing in new fields and endeavoring to establish new churches. If his area has a large number of churches and ministers, he will be responsible to organize and direct the evangelistic efforts of his workers in new fields.

To see that every church is supplied with a pastor.

To divide his state or territory into districts and place over each district an overseer as previously practiced. This is not a rule, but it is considered best when there are sufficient churches to make it practical. He should conduct district meetings at intervals during the year where special instructions concerning the work can be given.

To hold one general convention each year in the area most convenient for members from all the churches to attend.

To secure the name and address of every bishop, deacon, and evangelist under his jurisdiction and keep a record of these so he can report to the General Overseer, if necessary. He will also issue lay minister's certificates and keep the necessary records concerning them.

Keep an accurate record of the location of every church and the number of members in his territory, keeping a record of the increase so this information can be reported each year. This can be done by keeping in touch with the clerks of the churches. Every minister and clerk should take an interest in imparting this information to the overseer. All new organizations should be reported to the overseer.

To visit every district and church, if possible, and look after the interests in every way, as a pastor over a large circuit.

Duties of District Overseer

The district overseers are to be appointed by the State Overseer:

To moderate business conferences for women preachers who may be acting as pastors and for male pastors who are not licensed.

To do evangelistic work in his district. If he has a district with no churches, it is his duty to evangelize and organize churches.

To conduct district conventions according to the instructions of the State Overseer.

To assist the State Overseer, when called upon, in all things relating to church work and he is subject to the State Overseer.

Obligation for Membership in the Church of God of Prophecy

Will you sincerely promise in the presence of God and these witnesses that you will accept this Bible as the Word of God—believe and practice its teachings rightly divided—the New Testament as your rule of faith and practice, government and discipline, and walk in the light to be best of your knowledge and ability?

The minister who administers this obligation should see that every applicant replies in the affirmative. In taking the obligation, applicants should think of it as being a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

Teachings of the Church of God of Prophecy

The Church of God of Prophecy stands for the whole Bible rightly divided—the New Testament as the only rule of government and discipline.

Important Bible Truths:

REPENTANCE—Mark 1:15; Luke 13:3; Acts 3:19.

JUSTIFICATION—Romans 5:19; Titus 3:7.

REGENERATION—Matthew 19:28; Titus 3:5.

BORN AGAIN—John 3:3; 1 Peter 1:23; 1 John 3:9.

SANCTIFICATION subsequent to Justification—Romans 5:2; 1 Corinthians 1:30; 1 Thessalonians 4:3; Hebrews 13:12; 1 John 1:9.

HOLINESS—Luke 1:74, 75; 1 Thessalonians 4:7; Hebrews 12:14.

WATER BAPTISM—Matthew 28:19; Mark 1:8-10; John 3:22, 23; Acts 8:21, 36-38; 10:47, 48; 16:33; 19:3-5.

BAPTISM WITH THE HOLY GHOST subsequent to cleansing, the enduement of power for service—Matthew 3:11; Luke 24:49-53; Acts 1:4-8.

SPEAKING IN TONGUES as the evidence of the Baptism with the Holy Ghost—John 15:26; Acts 2:4; 10:44-46; 19:6.

FULL RESTORATION OF THE GIFTS TO THE CHURCH—1 Corinthians 12:1, 7-10, 28, 31; 1 Corinthians 14:1.

SIGNS FOLLOWING BELIEVERS—Mark 16:17-20; Romans 15:18, 19; Hebrews 2:4.

FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT—Romans 6:22; Galatians 5:22, 23; Ephesians 5:9; Philippians 1:11.

DIVINE HEALING provided for all in the atonement—Psalm 103:3; Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17; James 5:14-16; 1 Peter 2:24.

THE LORD'S SUPPER—Luke 22:17-20; 1 Corinthians 11:23-33.

WASHING THE SAINTS FEET—John 13:4-17; 1 Timothy 5:10.

TITHING AND GIVING—Genesis 14:18-20; 28:20-22; Malachi 3:10; Matthew 23:23; Luke 11:42; 1 Corinthians 16:2; 2 Corinthians 9:6-9; Hebrews 7:1-21.

RESTITUTION WHERE POSSIBLE—Matthew 3:8; Luke 19:8, 9; Romans 13:8.

PRE-MILLENNIAL SECOND COMING OF JESUS: First, to resurrect the dead saints and to catch away the living saints to meet Him in the air—Matthew 24:27, 28; 1 Corinthians 15:51, 52; 1 Thessalonians 4:15-17. Second, to reign on earth a thousand years—Zechariah 14:4, 5; Luke 1:32; 1 Thessalonians 4:14; 2 Thessalonians 1:7-10; Jude 14, 15; Revelation 5:10; 19:11-21; 20:4-6.

RESURRECTION—Isaiah 26:19; Daniel 12:2; John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15; Revelation 20:5, 6.

ETERNAL LIFE FOR THE RIGHTEOUS—Matthew 25:46; Luke 18:30; John 10:28; Romans 6:22; 1 John 5:11-13.

ETERNAL PUNISHMENT FOR THE WICKED no liberation nor annihilation—Matthew 25:41-46; Mark 3:29; 2 Thessalonians 1:8, 9; Revelation 20:10-15; 21:8.

TOTAL ABSTINENCE FROM ALL LIQUOR OR STRONG DRINKS—Proverbs 20:1; 23:29-32; Isaiah 28:7; 1 Corinthians 5:11; 6:10; Galatians 5:21.

AGAINST THE USE OF TOBACCO IN ANY FORM, OPIUM, MORPHINE, ETC.—Isaiah 55:2; 1 Corinthians 10:31, 32; 2 Corinthians 7:1; Ephesians 5:3-8; James 1:21.

ON MEATS AND DRINKS—Romans 14:2, 3, 17; 1 Corinthians 8:8; 1 Timothy 4:1-5.

ON THE SABBATH—Hosea 2:11; Romans 13:1, 2; Romans 14:5, 6; Colossians 2:16, 17.

AGAINST WEARING GOLD FOR ORNAMENT or decoration such as finger rings, bracelets, earrings, lockets, etc.—Isaiah 52:2; 1 Peter 3:3; 1 John 2:16.

AGAINST BELONGING TO LODGES—Matthew 5:34; John 18:20; 2 Corinthians 6:14-17; James 5:12.

AGAINST SWEARING—Matthew 5:34; James 5:12.

AGAINST DIVORCE AND REMARRIAGE EVIL—Matthew 5:32; 14:3, 4; 19:3-12; Mark 10:12; Luke 16:18; Romans 7:2, 3; 1 Corinthians 5:1-5, 13; 6:9, 13, 16-18; 7:2, 10, 11; Revelation 2:20-22; Acts 15:28, 29.
